of the town of New Hartford hereby annexed to the city of Utica. From the time such annexation shall take effect said sewer and sewage disposal plant shall be owned by said village of New Hartford and said city of Utica jointly, as tenants in common thereof, each owning an undivided one-half interest therein with the right to use the same as such, and each shall have an equal voice in the use and management of the same. The control and management of the interest of said city in and to said sewer and sewage disposal plant shall be exercised by the commissioner of public works or other duly authorized officer, of said city as similar property of said city is now by law managed and controlled. The control and management of the interest of said village in and to said sewer and sewage disposal plant shall be vested in the officers of said village as similar property is by law managed and controlled by them, and the commissioner of public works of said city of Utica and the officers of the village of New Hartford may make joint rules and regulations for the management of said sewer disposal plant as may be necessary and proper. Said village and said city shall bear the expenses of maintenance and operation, and should any income be derived from the same, it shall be equally divided between said village and said city. The board of trustees of the village of New Hartford may enter into contract with the officers of the city of Utica in the sale and purchase of the disposal tank by full ownership, and the said village may purchase said tank and pay for same by money raised by the issue of municipal bonds, certificates of indebtedness or otherwise. The city of Utica may enter into contract and sell the undivided interest to and in the aforesaid sewage disposal tank to the village of New Hartford, or its successors or assigns, and they only, and the said city may construct, or cause to be constructed, one or more disposal tanks, upon the lands so jointly owned with the right to acquire or purchase and own in the name of said city in fee simple the necessary lands appurtenant thereto, wherever so situate, and such lands may be purchased and such improvements may be made and the money necessary for the purposes aforesaid may be raised and provided by the issue of municipal bonds, certificates of indebtedness or otherwise.

§ 10. Party committees. Party committees shall consist of a state committee, county committees, and such other committees as the rules of the party may provide. Existing committees shall continue until their successors are chosen as herein provided.

Former
law, § 26.

§ 11. State committee. The state committee of each party shall be constituted by the election from each assembly district of one member who shall be an enrolled voter of the party within such district. Each member of a state committee shall be entitled to one vote.

election
law, § 27, as amended by L. 1922,
ch. 96.

§ 12. County committee. The county committee of each party shall be constituted by the election in each election district within such county of at least two members and of such additional members as the rules of the party within the county may provide for such district, proportional to the party vote in the district for governor at the last preceding gubernatorial election, or in case the boundaries of such district have been changed or a new district has been created since the last preceding gubernatorial election, proportional to the party vote cast for member of assembly at the last preceding general election. In the counties of New York and Kings, if the county committee of any party, by its rules, is constituted by the election of members from each election district in the county proportionate to the party vote in such district, an additional member shall be elected at large from each assembly district or aldermanic district in such county, if such county committee shall by its rules so provide. In a county in which no additional members are provided for by rules, the voting power of each member shall be in proportion to such party vote. In a county in which additional members are so provided for, on the basis of the party vote in election districts, or from assembly or aldermanic districts, each member shall have one vote. Each member of a county committee shall be an enrolled voter of the party residing in the assembly or aldermanic district from which or in the assembly district containing the election district in which such member is elected, § 13. Election of members of state and county committees. Members of the state and county committees shall be elected at primary elections as herein provided. Members of the state committee shall be elected biennially in each even numbered year. Members of county committees shall be elected annually, except that if the rules of the county committee adopted at least six months prior to an election of such members so provided, they may be elected biennially. No such rule shall operate to extend the terms of members in office at the time of its adoption.

election
law, §§ 22, 23.

Members of both committees shall be elected at fall primaries, except that in a year when electors of a president and vice-president of the United States are to be elected, such members of committees shall be elected at the spring primary. The members of both committees shall hold office until the election of their successors. The state committee and county committees of a new political party to serve prior to the first official primary for which members of such party shall have become enrolled shall be formed as provided by the rules of such party.

§ 14. Formation of committees other than state and county committees. All committees other than state and county committees shall be formed in the manner provided for by the rules of the party.

law, § 23.

§ 15. Organization and rules of committees. Every state and county committee shall within fifteen days after its election meet and organize by the election of a chairman, treasurer and secretary, and such other officers as its rules may provide, and within three days thereafter file with the secretary of state and the board of elections of the county a certificate stating the names and postoffice addresses of such officers. Such officers shall be enrolled voters of the party but need not be members of such committees.

law, § 40.

Each committee may prepare rules for the government of the party within its political subdivision, which may include provisions for the payment of dues, and that failure to pay them shall be cause for removal by the committee. Within three days after the adoption of such rules a certified copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and in the office of the board of elections of the county. Such rules shall continue to be the rules for the committee until they are amended or new rules adopted. Such rules may be amended from time to time by majority vote of the committee, provided a copy of the proposed amendment shall be sent with the notice of the meeting at which such amendment is to be proposed, such notice to be not less than five days before such meeting, and to be mailed to the postoffice address of each member of the committee. Until the adoption of such rules, the rules of the existing committee, so far as consistent with this chapter, shall continue to be the rules of the party for that political unit.

§ 16. Removal of member of committee. A member of a party committee may be removed by such committee, for disloyalty to the party or corruption in office, after notice and a hearing upon § 17. Vacancies in state or county committees. 1. In case of the death, declination, disqualification, removal from district or removal from office of a member of the state or county committee, or the failure to elect a member, as by reason of a tie vote, the vacancy created thereby shall be filled by the remaining members of the committee by the selection of an enrolled voter of the party qualified for election from the unit of representation as to which such vacancy shall have occurred.

2. If the boundaries or designation of assembly districts be changed after the election of members to the state committee, members thereof shall represent for the remainder of their terms the districts in which they respectively reside, where only one such member resides in such district. If no member, or more than one member, reside in the district so changed, there shall be a vacancy from such district. Such vacancy shall be filled, until the next primary election, by the members of the county committee residing in such district, at a meeting of which every member shall have had three days notice by mail from the chairman. At the next primary election any such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by election in the manner provided in this chapter.

3. The county committee, upon its organization after the election of its members, may determine when a vacancy or vacancies in such committee shall be deemed to exist by reason of an increase of the number of election districts within the county, occasioned by a change of the boundaries or the formation of one or more election districts which takes effect after such election, and may determine the districts which the members so elected shall represent for the remainder of their terms; but a member so elected shall represent an election district covering a portion of the territory for which he was elected. A vacancy so determined shall be filled as provided in subdivision one.

§ 20. Emblems; abbreviated names. The state committee of a party shall select an emblem to distinguish the candidates of the party for public office in all districts of the state, and shall file in the office of the secretary of state a certificate showing the emblem, executed by the chairman and secretary of such committee. The emblem so chosen may be a star, an animal, an anchor, or any other proper symbol, but neither the coat of arms or seal of any state of the United States, nor the state or national flag, nor any religious emblem or symbol, nor the portrait of any person, nor the representation of a coin or of the currency of the United States, nor any emblem substantially similar to that of any other existing party or independent body shall be chosen as such emblem. Emblems heretofore chosen pursuant to law shall continue until changed as provided in this section. If the name of any party shall contain more than fifteen letters, the state committee shall similarly select and certify an abbreviated form thereof, containing not more than eleven letters, to be used upon the ballot whenever the necessities of space so require.

§ 21. Delegates to national party conventions. Delegates and alternates to a national convention of a party shall be elected from congressional districts, or partly from the state at large and partly from congressional districts, as the rules of the party may provide. Such delegates and alternates from the state at large shall be elected at a state convention to be constituted, held and conducted in the manner provided by this chapter for state conventions, for the nomination of party candidates for public office to be voted for by all the voters of the state. District delegates and alternates to national party conventions and delegates, and alternates, if any, to such a state convention shall be elected at the spring primary.

§ 30. Boards of elections; qualifications of commissioners; appointment and removal; term. There shall be a board of elections in the city of New York, and there shall be a board of elections in each county except a county in the city of New York and except a county having, by the provisions of its charter, but one commissioner, or in which the county clerk acts as a board of elections. The board of elections of the city of New York shall be deemed to be also the board of elections for each county in such city. In the city of New York the board shall consist of four commissioners of elections, to be appointed by the board of aldermen of that city. Elsewhere, in a county having a population of less than one hundred and twenty thousand, the board shall consist of two commissioners of elections, and in any other county of two or four commissioners of elections as the board of supervisors, by resolution, may determine, to be appointed by the board of supervisors. Not more than two commissioners, if the board consist of four members, and not more than one commissioner, if the board consist of two members, shall belong to the same political party or be of the same political opinion on state or national issues. The commissioner of elections, while holding such office, may hold one of the following offices: notary public, commissioner of deeds, police justice of a village, trustee or officer of a common or union school district outside of a city, justice of the peace of a town, and any other office filled by election or appointment within or for a town or village, or district or subdivision of either, except supervisor, town clerk, inspector of election, or election district clerk. Such commissioner shall not hold, while he is commissioner, any other office, except as above provided. Each commissioner of elections shall be at the time of his appointment a resident and a voter of the political unit for which he is appointed.

The certificate of appointment of a commissioner of elections shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county, or, in the city of New York, in the office of the clerk of the county of New York, and the county clerk shall immediately notify the secretary of state of the appointment. All appointments of commissioners shall be for a term of two years, beginning on January first of each odd numbered year.

A commissioner of elections may be removed from office by the governor for cause in the same manner as a sheriff. Any vacancy in the office of commissioner of elections shall be filled by the board of supervisors of the county, or, in the city of New York, by the board of aldermen, within five days after the filing of the certificate provided for in the next section, and the person appointed to fill such vacancy shall hold office during the remainder of the term of the commissioner in whose place he was appointed.

§ 31. Recommendations for appointment of commissioners of elections. At least five days before the first day of January in each odd numbered year, the respective chairmen of the county committees within the counties of New York and Kings, and, except as otherwise provided in this article, the respective chairmen of the county committees of all the other counties in the state, of each of the two political parties which at the general election last preceding the date of such certificate cast the highest and the next highest number of votes for governor, shall each respectively make and file in the case of the counties of New York and Kings with the board of aldermen of the city of New York, and in the case of each of the other counties with the board of supervisors of such county a certificate in substantially the following form, each of which certificates shall certify the name of a person who is a resident and qualified voter, in the case of the counties of New York and Kings, of the city of New York, or in the case of the other counties a resident and qualified voter of the county, and who is recommended as a fit and proper person to be appointed a commissioner of elections: "I, ..., chairman of the county committee of the party, for the county of, do hereby, in accordance with the provisions of the election law, certify that in the opinion of a majority of such committee, pursuant to a resolution duly adopted, ..., a resident and qualified voter of the borough of, city of New York, or the county of, is a fit and proper person to be appointed a commissioner of elections, and I do hereby recommend him for appointment to such office. In witness whereof, I have made and executed this certificate, this day of, 19...." Each of such certificates shall be duly acknowledged by the person executing the same.

election
law, §§ 194, 195.

If at any time a vacancy occurs in the office of any commissioner of elections, by death, resignation, removal or inability to serve, the chairman of the county committee of the political party to which such commissioner belonged, and if he was a commissioner of elections of the city of New York and a resident of the borough of Manhattan or of the borough of the Bronx, the chairman of the county committee of New York county, of his party, or if he was a resident of any other borough of such city, the chairman of the county committee of Kings county, of his party, shall likewise make and file a certificate in substantially the form and executed and acknowledged as above provided, recommending the name of a qualified person to fill the vacancy.

§ 32. Commissioner of elections not to be candidate for certain offices. A commissioner of elections shall not be a candidate, while he is commissioner, for any elective office which he would not be entitled to hold under the provisions of this article, nor after

he has ceased, by resignation or otherwise, to be commissioner, if the election shall occur within fifty days therefrom; and any votes cast for any person for any such office who shall have been a commissioner of elections within fifty days of the election shall be void and shall not be counted, except that such commissioner may be a candidate for the office of supervisor or town clerk while he is commissioner, and at any time thereafter, subject to the following provisions of this section. Any votes cast for a person for either of such offices who shall have been a commissioner of elections, and who shall have resigned from or otherwise ceased to hold the office of commissioner at least fifteen days before the election, shall be valid and shall be counted.

§ 34. Organization of board; proceedings and reports; records. The commissioners, at their first meeting, shall organize as a board by electing one of their number as president and one as secretary, and in case no election can be had the members shall draw lots for such places. The president and secretary shall not belong to the same party. Every board shall adopt an official seal and shall cause a description of it with impressions from it to be filed in the office of the secretary of state. The records of the boards, and papers and books filed in its office are public records. Minutes of all meetings shall show how each commissioner voted upon any resolution or motion. The board shall keep a record of its proceedings and shall make in the month of January an annual report to the secretary of state of the affairs and proceedings of the board. It shall append to such report a statement of the number of voters enrolled with each party for that year in each assembly district, and such data as may be valuable relating to the expenses connected with registration, enrollments and elections within the county or city and such other information relating to elections as the secretary of state may prescribe. The board of elections of a county outside of the city of New York shall also in the month of January make an annual report of its affairs and proceedings to the board of supervisors.

election
law, §§ 192, 207.

§ 35. General office and branches. The board of elections in the city of New York shall maintain an office in the borough of Manhattan, which shall be the headquarters of such board, and an office in each other borough of the city. Elsewhere, in each county, the board of supervisors shall provide the board of elections for such county with proper and suitable offices. Each office shall be open every business day during office hours to be designated by the board.

election
law, §§ 194, 197.

§ 36. Employees of board of elections. Every board of elections may appoint and at pleasure remove clerks and other employees, prescribe their duties and fix their rank. In the city of New York, within the amounts appropriated therefor, and elsewhere within the amounts authorized by the board of supervisors, the board of elections also may fix the number and salaries of its employees, it being the intention of this article, and said intention is hereby declared, to secure in the appointment of the members and employees of the board of elections other than voting machine custodians, equal representation of the two political parties which at the general election next preceding such appointment cast the highest and the next highest number of votes for governor.

§ 37. Police to aid board of elections; copies of records to be furnished to it. The commissioner of police and the officers and members of the police force whenever called upon by the board of elections, shall render to such board all practicable assistance in the enforcement of this chapter, including the use of the police telephone service. The commissioner of police shall detail to the service of the board of elections upon its written request such patrolmen and other members of the police force as may be necessary from time to time. Every public officer shall furnish to the board of elections, without charge, such copies of the official records, in his custody, certified by him, as it may require.

§ 38. Board and members may issue subpoenas; oaths. The board of elections and any of the commissioners thereof may require any person to attend before the board or a commissioner at the office of the board or a branch office and be examined by the board or a commissioner as to any matter in relation to which the board is charged with a duty under this chapter or concerning violations of this chapter, or of the provisions of the penal law relating to the elective franchise, and may issue a subpoena therefor. When an oath is required or permitted by this chapter any commissioner, or any employee of the board designated in writing by it, may administer such oath.

§ 39. Special provisions as to county clerks acting as boards of elections in certain counties. The foregoing provisions of this article shall not apply to the counties of Broome, Oneida, Westchester, Suffolk and Nassau, excepting sections thirty-seven and thirty-eight. In each of such counties, except as otherwise provided in this section, the county clerk shall have therein the powers and duties of a board of elections, as well as those of a county clerk. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other statute, either general or local, the board of supervisors of Broome county may from time to time provide by resolution for the appointment by the county clerk of such county of additional assistants at the expense of the county, in the office of such clerk, and the board of supervisors of Oneida county may in like manner provide for the appointment by the county clerk of Oneida county of two additional deputies representing each of the two political parties which at the last general election preceding such appointment cast the highest and the next highest number of votes for governor and of additional assistants whenever such board of either county, respectively, shall determine that such deputies or assistants are necessary for the proper performance of the additional duties devolved upon such clerk by this section; but the aggregate compensation of such additional assistants appointed on account of such additional powers and duties in the county of Broome shall not exceed one thousand dollars annually, and of such deputies and assistants in the county of Oneida shall not exceed an amount to be limited by the board of supervisors.

In Westchester county, the county clerk of such county may appoint one deputy, in addition to those authorized under the county law, to act generally for and in his place on all election matters under a department hereby created and designated the county election department of the office of the county clerk of Westchester county. He may also appoint one secretary for such department and such other emergency employees as shall be required. Such deputy, secretary and emergency employees shall hold office during the pleasure of such clerk and shall be paid such compensation as the board of supervisors of such county shall fix, the aggregate of which, exclusive of the compensation to be paid the emergency employees, shall not exceed three thousand four hundred dollars.

In Suffolk and Nassau counties, respectively, the county clerk of each such county may appoint and at pleasure remove one deputy in addition to those authorized under the county law to act generally for and in his place on all election matters under a department hereby created and designated the county election department of the office of the county clerk of Suffolk county, or Nassau county, as the case may be, and the compensation of such deputy shall be fixed by the board of supervisors of the county.

§ 40. Election officers; kind, number and qualifications. 1. Elsewhere than in the city of New York, there shall be in every election district of the state four inspectors of election, and, except in an election district in which one voting machine is used, two clerks. Their terms of office, except as hereinafter prescribed shall be one year from the date of their appointment. The term of office of inspectors of election in towns shall be two years. Such officers shall serve at every general, special or other election, including a primary election, held within their districts during such term, except that clerks, if any, shall not serve at primary elections.

2. In the city of New York there shall be in every election district four inspectors of election. Their terms of office shall be for one year from the first day of September. The inspectors of election shall serve at every election, including a primary election, during the year. In such city there shall also be two clerks in every election district in which a voting machine is not used, who shall serve only at general elections, and only from the close of the polls to the completion of the canvass.

3. No person shall be appointed an inspector of election or clerk who is not a qualified voter of the county, if within the city of New York, or of the city, if in any other city, or of the town, in which he is to serve, of good character, able to speak and read the English language understandingly, and to write it legibly, and who does not possess a general knowledge of the duties of the office to which he is elected or appointed, or who is a candidate for any office to be voted for by the voters of the district in which he is to serve, or who has been convicted of a felony and not restored to citizenship, or who holds any public office except that of notary public or commissioner of deeds, town or village assessor, justice of the peace, police justice of a village, village trustee, water commissioner, officer of a school district, employee of a state hospital, or overseer of highways, whether elected or appointed, or who is employed in any public office or by any public officer whose services are paid for out of the public money other than is excepted herein; provided, however, that a public school teacher, otherwise qualified, shall be eligible to such an appointment, unless the authorities of the school shall file a written objection to such appointment with the appointing board or officer.

4. Each class of such officers shall be equally divided between the two political parties which at the general election next preceding that for which such officers are to serve, cast the highest and the next highest number of votes.

§ 41. Appointment of election officers in cities. The board of elections of the city of New York and the mayor of each other city shall, on or before the first day of September of each year, select and appoint election officers for each election district therein, and may fill any vacancy which may occur before the opening of the polls on election day.

election
law, §§ 303, 304.

Each political party entitled to representation in any board of election officers may, not later than the first day of July in each year, file with such board or mayor an original list of persons, members of such party duly qualified to serve as election officers. A supplemental list of persons may also be filed containing not more than ten names for each office. Additional supplemental lists for any election district may be filed at any time before the appointments for such districts are made and certified by such board or mayor or when a vacancy shall exist in the original list by reason of the disqualification, resignation, declination, or withdrawal of the name by the person or persons submitting the same, of any person on such list. All appointments shall be made from the original list if those named therein are found qualified; if not so qualified, then from a supplemental list so filed. If, within ten days after notice in writing by the board or mayor to the chairman of the committee or other person by whom the list is filed or authenticated, such chairman or other person shall neglect to file an additional list, the board or mayor may appoint qualified persons, members of the party in default, to act as election officers.

In the city of New York such lists shall be authenticated and filed by the chairman, or, under his direction, by the secretary, of the county committee of the party in the respective counties within such city; in other cities, by the chairman or secretary of the general city committee of such party, if there be such a committee, or if not, then by the chairman or secretary of the county committee of such party; provided, however, that if in any city more than one such list be submitted in the name or on behalf of the same political party, only that list can be accepted which is authenticated by the proper officer or officers of the faction or section of such party, which was recognized as regular by the last preceding state convention of such party; or, where no such convention has been held within the year, by the proper officer of the faction or section of such party which at the time of the filing of such list is recognized as regular by the state committee of such party.

§ 42. Examination as to qualifications of election officers in cities. All persons so proposed on behalf of any party for appointment shall be examined as to their possessing the qualifications required by this article. If the appointing power be the board of elections, such examination shall be made by such board. If the appointing power be the mayor, such examination shall be made by the board of elections of the county in which the city is located. Appointments by a mayor shall be subject to the determination of such board of elections as to the qualifications of the persons appointed. Upon making his appointments from party lists the mayor shall certify the names of the persons appointed to the board of elections, accompanied with the name and address of each chairman of a committee or other person by whom each party list was authenticated. The board conducting any examination under this section shall give five days' notice in writing of such examination to the person to be examined, and also to the chairman of the committee or other person by whom the list is filed and authenticated, and such chairman or other person may appear and be heard at such examination, either in person or by counsel. When the appointing authority is the board of elections, if a person so proposed is found qualified, after examination, he shall be appointed, but if he is found disqualified, after examination, notice in writing to that effect shall be given by the board, within three days after such disqualification is determined, to the chairman of the committee or other person by whom the list embracing the name of the person so disqualified was authenticated, and the vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of a qualified person named in a supplemental list filed on behalf of the same party, except that if a party entitled to representation files no list the appointment may be made without such list, after examination. Where appointments shall have been made by the mayor and certified to the board of elections, such appointments shall be absolute as to persons found qualified by the board of elections. If a person so appointed shall be found by such board to be disqualified, the board forthwith shall give notice thereof to the mayor who shall, within three days thereafter, give notice in writing to that effect to the chairman of the committee or other person by whom the list embracing the name of the person so disqualified was authenticated, and a vacancy shall be deemed to exist therein to be filled by the mayor by the appointment, subject to examination by the board of elections, of a person named in a supplemental list filed on behalf of the same party, or of a person who is a member of such party, if no list be filed. If a person recommended shall have served as an election official at any previous election, it shall not be necessary for him to be examined.

§ 43. Party selection in the city of New York. In the city of New York the members of the board charged with the duty of appointing election officers, who represent the same political party, shall have the exclusive right and be charged with the exclusive duty of selecting from the list submitted, or, in lieu of such list, the members of such party who are to be appointed as election officers.

§ 44. Oath of office; certificate of appointment. Every person so appointed as an election officer shall, within five days after notice of his appointment, take and subscribe the constitutional and statutory oath of office, which shall be administered, if in the city of New York, by a commissioner of elections, or by any clerk or other employee of said board of elections who shall be designated by said board in writing over the signature of its president to administer such oath of office, and if in any other city, by the mayor thereof or by any other person or persons designated by him for that purpose; and all of said officers, and all clerks or persons so designated by them or him for that purpose, shall be and are hereby authorized and empowered to administer such oath.

Every person so sworn as an election officer shall receive a certificate of appointment and qualification, signed by the person who administered the oath, in such form as may be approved by the board or mayor by which or whom he was appointed, and specifying the capacity and the election district in which he is to serve and the date of the expiration of his term of office.

§ 45. Removals; vacancies; transfers. Any election officer so appointed may be removed for cause by the board or mayor making the appointment, in which case such removal, unless made while such officer is actually on duty on the day of registration, revision of registration or election, and for improper conduct as election officer, shall only be made after notice in writing to the officer to be removed, which notice shall set forth clearly the reasons for his removal. Neglect to attend to the duties of the office shall be a cause for the removal of any such officer. In cities of the first class, it shall be the duty of the board or mayor making the appointment of an election officer, to remove forthwith such officer, without preferring any charges and without notice to such officer, upon the written request, made within one week before a general or special election, of the official of the political party who certified the name of such election officer, or his successor. All such vacancies so created shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment was made. Any election officer who shall at any time be appointed to fill a vacancy, which fact shall be stated in his certificate of appointment, shall hold office only during the unexpired term of his predecessor.

§ 46. Certificates of service; exemptions from jury duty; payment. The chairman of each board of inspectors of each election district shall, within twenty-four hours of any election, furnish to the mayor or board appointing such officers, if required so to do by such mayor or board, under his hand, a certificate stating the number of days of actual service of each member of such board, the names of the persons, if any, who served as clerks on election day and the number of days during which the store, building or room hired for registration and election purposes was actually used for such purposes.

All persons appointed and serving as election officers on any of the days of registration or of election in cities of the first class, shall be exempt from jury duty for one year from the date of the general election at which they serve. Such officers shall be paid by the comptroller of the respective cities within thirty days after the election at which such officers served, upon the certificate of the board or mayor appointing them.

If a person recommended and examined for appointment as election officer in a city, or examined therefor without recommendation in the absence of a party list, be found disqualified and be not appointed, as therein provided, and such person shall serve in the same calendar year as inspector at a registration or election or as clerk at an election, under a vacancy appointment, he shall receive no compensation for such services.

§ 47. Special penalties. Every person appointed as an election officer, failing to take the oath of office, or who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to discharge the duties which he was appointed to perform, shall be liable, in addition to the other penalties prescribed by law, to a penalty of one hundred dollars, to be sued for and recovered by the mayor or board making the appointment, in a court of record, for the benefit of the city. Any election officer who, being removed for cause, shall fail upon demand to deliver over to his successor the register of the voters, or any tally sheets, book, paper, memorandum or document relating to the registration of voters or the election in his possession, so far as he has made it, shall be liable to a like penalty to be recovered in a like manner for the benefit of the city. Any election officer who is removed for neglect of official duties shall forfeit the compensation earned up to the time of such removal. An election officer who is removed for neglect of official duties shall be ineligible to again serve in such capacity for the term of five years; provided, however, that the board or officer having the power of appointment may rehear the charges against such officer at any time before the expiration of two years, and if it be determined that such removal was without sufficient cause such officer shall be again eligible for appointment if otherwise qualified.

§ 48. Appointment of inspectors of election in towns; clerks. Inspectors of election in towns shall be appointed by the town board in each year in which a town meeting is held for the election of town officers, and within thirty days thereafter. They shall also be appointed for a new or altered election district before September first, in any year when necessary, such appointment to take effect when the creation or alteration of such district takes effect. Appointments under this section shall be made from lists to be prepared, certified and filed in the manner hereinafter provided, by the two political parties entitled to representation on a board of election officers. The town caucus held by each such political party for the purpose of nominating town officers shall prepare a list containing the names of at least two persons, qualified to serve as inspectors of election, for each election district in such town, which lists shall be certified by the presiding officer and a secretary of such caucus, and filed with the town clerk on or before the last day for filing a party certificate of nomination made by such caucus. If the nominations by any such party for town officers be made at the fall primary, the list for such party shall be made by the members of the county committee residing in the town and shall be certified by the presiding officer of the meeting of such members at which the list was prepared, and such certificate shall be filed with the town clerk on or before the day of the fall primary. From each of the two lists so filed, the town board shall appoint two persons who possess the qualifications prescribed by law for election officers. If in any town more than one such list be submitted on behalf or in the name of the same political party, only that list can be accepted which is certified by the proper officer or officers of the faction of such party which was recognized as regular by the last preceding state convention of such party; or if no such convention was held during the year, by the proper officer or officers of the faction of such party, which at the time of the filing of such list is recognized as regular by the state committee of such party.

Such appointment shall be made in writing and filed with the town clerk, who shall forthwith notify each person so appointed of his appointment to such office, in the manner in which he is now by law required to give notice to a person of his election to a town office when his name does not appear upon the poll list at the town meeting at which he was elected to such office. From the additional names, if any, contained on the lists so filed of persons qualified to serve as such, the town board shall appoint inspectors of election in case of the resignation, declination or other incapacity of persons appointed to such office. If such lists contain no additional names of such persons, the town board shall fill vacancies caused by such resignation, declination or other incapacity by appointing persons known, or proved to the satisfaction of a majority of the members of such board to be members of the same political party in which such vacancy occurred. All appointments to fill vacancies shall be made in writing and filed with the town clerk, and notices thereof given by him as hereinbefore provided in the case of an original appointment.

Clerks in towns, for election districts in which the appointment of clerks is authorized by section forty, shall be appointed in the manner provided in section one hundred and sixty.

§ 49. Fees of election officers and others. 1. The town clerk of each town shall be paid by such town a reasonable compensation for his services in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, to be fixed by the other members of the town board. Except in the city of New York, election officers shall be paid, for their services on days of registration, election and primary elections, by the towns or cities in which they serve, a compensation to be fixed by the town board or common council, subject to the limitations prescribed by statute. An inspector of election required to file papers in a county clerk's office, or office of the board of elections, shall, unless he resides in the city or village in which such office is situated, be entitled to receive as additional compensation five dollars, and also four cents a mile for every mile actually and necessarily traveled between his residence and such office in going to and returning from such office.

2. In the city of New York inspectors of election shall each receive eight dollars for a primary election, four dollars for the hours fixed by law for each day of registration from Monday to Friday inclusive, and ten dollars for such hours on the last day of registration, and in election districts where voting machines are used ten dollars for their services at a general election and ten dollars for their services at a special election, and in election districts where voting machines are not used fifteen dollars for such services, respectively. The clerks, if any, shall each receive six dollars for their services after the close of the polls at the general election.

§ 50. Monroe county; board of elections and special provisions. 1. In the county of Monroe, there shall be a board of elections consisting of one commissioner. Sections thirty and thirty-one, section thirty-four except as to the making of statements and reports to the secretary of state and boards of supervisors, and section thirty-six shall not apply to such county. The county judge, special county judge and surrogate of Monroe county, or a majority of them, shall appoint such commissioner. They shall file in the office of the county clerk a certificate of each appointment, whether for a full term or to fill a vacancy. The commissioner must be a resident voter of such county. The first term of such office shall be the present term, expiring May first, nineteen hundred and twenty-four, and the commissioner heretofore appointed and now in office shall continue to be the commissioner for the remainder of such term unless sooner removed. Thereafter, the term of office shall be for four years, beginning on the first day of May at the expiration of any term. Any appointment to fill a vacancy in such office shall be for the unexpired term. The commissioner may be removed from office by the governor in the same manner as a sheriff. The commissioner may appoint and at pleasure remove such employees with such salaries and compensation, as the board of supervisors of such county may authorize. The commissioner shall adopt an official seal and shall cause a description of it with impressions from it to be filed in the office of the secretary of state. The records of the commissioner and papers and books filed in his office are public records. The provisions of this section shall be controlling, when inconsistent with other provisions of this chapter. An election or elections within the meaning of this section, include a primary election and every election held in the county, except town meetings, village and school district elections not conducted at the time of and with the general election.

2. The board of elections of such county shall have and exercise the powers and duties under this chapter, not inconsistent with this section, of all officers in the county of Monroe, in respect of elections and matters preliminary or relating thereto, except those of inspectors and clerks of election and county, city and town boards of canvassers. Such board of elections shall direct the purchase of voting machines, of a kind authorized by law, which shall be selected by such board, to the number authorized from time to time by the proper authorities of a city, town or village, in the county. All voting machines and all appliances and equipment relating to or used in the conduct of elections shall be in the care, custody and control of the board of elections. Such board may cause all necessary repairs and alterations to be made and employ such help as may be necessary in making such repairs and in moving, setting up and caring for all election materials, equipment and appliances, including voting machines. All supplies, equipment or election appliances to be used or furnished by such board shall be purchased by the purchasing agent of Monroe county. All expenses of such board of elections shall be certified, audited and paid as are other claims against the county, and all expenses connected with elections and matters preliminary or relating thereto, in such county, shall be a county charge, except expenses or parts thereof to be apportioned pursuant to this chapter to a city or town and borne by it, and except compensation of inspectors and clerks of election. However, any city, town or village in such county, by its common council, town board or village trustees, may assume the payment of the cost of purchasing voting machines, and city, town or village obligations may be issued and sold therefor as provided in section two hundred and forty-six.

3. The board of elections of Monroe county upon creating, altering or dividing any election district, shall file in the office of the board and of the proper city or town clerk a certificate showing the boundaries of each district affected. All petitions and certificates of nomination or designation, or of declination thereof, for an election to which this section applies, and all statements of receipts and expenditures under the provisions of article thirteen, relating to such an election, required to be filed with any officer of Monroe county, or political subdivision therein shall be filed with the board of elections. The board of elections shall publish or post, as the case may be, all notices, lists and other matters, relating to elections, required by law to be published or posted in the county, or a political subdivision therein, except publications made pursuant to section eighty.

4. The chairmen of the county committees of the two parties entitled to representation on a board of inspectors of elections shall each file in the office of the board of elections of Monroe county on or before the first day of April of each year a list of persons who are qualified to serve as election officers. Thereafter, the board, upon three days' written notice, stating the time and place, and sent by mail or messenger, shall examine, orally or in writing, or both, each person named in such lists, as to his qualifications for the office of inspector or clerk, as the case may be. Any person receiving such notice must appear at the time and place stated therein. If a person so examined is found by the board to be qualified and, in the judgment of the board, is a fit and proper person for such office, the board, or an employee designated by the board, shall administer the constitutional oath of office and issue to him a certificate of appointment and he shall serve until his successor is appointed; but if such a person is found disqualified or, in the judgment of the board, is not a fit and proper person for such office, his name shall be stricken from the list. A supplemental list of persons for election officers may also be filed containing not more than ten names for each office. Additional supplemental lists for any election district may be filed at any time before the appointments for such district are made, or when a vacancy shall exist for any cause, and all appointments shall be made from the original list if those named therein are found disqualified as herein provided; if not so qualified, then from a supplemental list so filed. If no list is filed by a party, and if within three days after notice in writing by the board to the chairman of the county committee of such party, no list is filed, the board may appoint qualified persons, members of the party in default, to act as election officers; and the enrollment of such person shall be sufficient evidence of party affiliation. If a qualified person cannot be obtained for any election office from the list or lists filed by a party, and if within three days after notice in writing by the board to the chairman of the county committee of such party, an additional list is not filed containing the name or names of one or more qualified persons, the board may fill such office by the appointment of a qualified person, a member of the party in default. The board of elections of Monroe county shall have the power on any day of election, registration or primary election to remove from office forthwith any inspector of election or clerk, in such county, for intoxication or failure to perform his duty in a satisfactory manner and to make a temporary appointment to fill the vacancy caused by such removal.

5. The board of elections of Monroe county shall from time to time, as may be deemed necessary, hold a school for the instruction of inspectors of election and clerks. Such school shall not be held at any hour earlier than seven o'clock in the evening and written or printed notice shall be given by the board, by mail, to each inspector of election and clerk stating the time and place such school will be held. If any inspector of election or clerk shall fail to attend such school after receiving notice thereof, the board may remove him from office and fill the vacancy in the manner provided in this section. Each election officer shall be paid one dollar for the time spent in attending a school of instruction, and the election officers of the towns of Monroe county, if such school be held at any place outside the town in which they respectively reside, shall be paid in addition the car fare going to and returning from the school. The money due an election officer for attending a school of instruction shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the pay for his other services.

§ 51. Niagara county; board of elections and special provisions. 1. In the county of Niagara, there shall be a board of elections consisting of one commissioner. Sections thirty and thirty-one, section thirty-four except as to the making of statements and reports to the secretary of state and board of supervisors, and section thirty-six, shall not apply to such county. The county judge, county clerk and the district attorney of Niagara county, or a majority of them, shall appoint such commissioner. They shall file in the office of the county clerk a certificate of each appointment, whether for a full term or to fill a vacancy. The commissioner must be a resident voter of such county. The first term of such office shall be the present term, expiring May first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two and the commissioner heretofore appointed and now in office shall continue to be the commissioner for the remainder of such term, unless sooner removed. Thereafter, the term of office shall be five years, beginning on the first day of May at the expiration of any term. Any appointment to fill a vacancy in such office shall be for the unexpired term. The commissioner may be removed from office by the governor in the same manner as a sheriff. The commissioner may appoint and at pleasure remove a deputy commissioner, a secretary and such additional employees as the board of supervisors of such county may authorize, at salaries to be fixed by the commissioner subject to approval by such board. The commissioner shall adopt an official seal and shall cause a description of it with impressions from it to be filed in the office of the secretary of state. The records of the commissioner, and papers and books filed in his office, are public records. The provisions of this section shall be controlling, when inconsistent with other provisions of this chapter. An election or elections, within the meaning of this section, include a primary election and every election held in the county, except town meetings, village and school district elections not conducted at the time of and with the general elections.

2. The board of elections of such county shall have and exercise the powers and duties under this chapter, not inconsistent with this section, of all officers in the county of Niagara, in respect of elections and matters preliminary or relating thereto, except those of inspectors and clerks of election and county, city and town boards of canvassers. Such board of elections shall direct the purchase of voting machines, of a kind authorized by law, which shall be selected by such board, to the number authorized from time to time by the proper authorities of a city, town or village, in the county. All voting machines and all appliances and equipment relating to or used in the conduct of elections shall be in the care, custody and control of the board of elections. Such board may cause all necessary repairs and alterations to be made and employ such help as may be necessary in making such repairs and in moving, setting up and caring for all election materials, equipment and appliances, including voting machines. All supplies, equipment or election appliances to be used or furnished by such board shall be purchased by the board. All expenses of such board of elections shall be certified, audited and paid as are other claims against the county, and all expenses connected with elections and matters preliminary or relating thereto, in such county, shall be a county charge, except expenses or parts thereof to be apportioned pursuant to this chapter to a city or town and borne by it, and except compensation of inspectors and clerks of election. However, any city, town or village in such county, by its common council, town board or village trustees may assume the payment of the cost of purchasing voting machines, and city, town or village obligations may be issued and sold therefor as provided in section two hundred and forty-six.

3. The board of elections of Niagara county upon creating, altering or dividing any election district, shall file in the office of the board and of the proper city or town clerk a certificate showing the boundaries of each district affected. All petitions and certificates of nomination or designation, or of declination thereof, for an election to which this section applies, and all statements of receipts and expenditures under the provisions of article thirteen, relating to such an election, required to be filed with any officer of Niagara county, or political subdivision therein, shall be filed with the board of elections. The board of elections shall publish or post, as the case may be, all notices, lists and other matters, relating to elections, required by law to be published or posted in the county, or political subdivision therein except publications made pursuant to section eighty.

4. The chairman of the county committee of the two parties entitled to representation on a board of inspectors of election shall each file with the board of elections of Niagara county on or before the first day of April of each year a list of persons who are qualified to serve as election officers. If a person so named is found by the board to be qualified and, in the judgment of the board, is a fit and proper person for such office, the board, or an employee designated by the board, shall administer the constitutional oath of office and issue to him a certificate of appointment and he shall serve until his successor is appointed; but if such a person is found disqualified or, in the judgment of the board, is not a fit and proper person for such office, his name shall be stricken from the list. A supplemental list of persons for election officers may also be filed containing not more than ten names for each office. Additional supplemental lists for any election district may be filed at any time before the appointments for each district are made, or when a vacancy shall exist for any cause, and all appointments shall be made from the original list; if those named therein are found disqualified as herein provided; if not so qualified, then from a supplemental list so filed. If no list is filed by a party, and if within three days after notice in writing by the board to the chairman of the county committee of such party no list is filed, the board may appoint qualified persons, members of the party in default, to act as election officers, and the enrollment of such persons shall be sufficient evidence of party affiliation. If a qualified person cannot be obtained for any election office from the list or lists filed by a party, and if within three days after notice in writing by the board to the chairman of the county committee of such party an additional list is not filed containing the name or names of one or more qualified persons, the board may fill such office by the appointment of a qualified person, a member of the party in default. The board of elections of Niagara county shall have the power on any day of election, registration or primary election to remove from office forthwith any inspector of election or clerk, in such county, for intoxication or failure to perform his duty in a satisfactory manner and to make a temporary appointment to fill the vacancy caused by such removal.

5. The board of elections of Niagara county may from time to time, as may be deemed necessary, hold a school for the instruction of inspectors of election and clerks. Such school shall not be held at any hour earlier than seven o'clock in the evening and written or printed notice shall be given by the board, by mail, to each inspector of elections and clerk stating the time and place such school will be held. If any inspector of election or clerk shall fail to attend such school after receiving notice thereof, the board may remove him from office and fill the vacancy in the manner provided in this section. Each election officer shall be paid one dollar for the time spent in attending a school of instruction, and the election officers of the towns of Niagara county, if such school be held at any place outside the town in which they respectively reside, shall be paid in addition the car fare going to and returning from the school. The money due an election officer for attending a school of instruction shall be paid at the same time and in the same manner as the pay for his other services.

§ 60. Special reports as to persons in hotels, lodging houses, boarding houses, rooming houses, dwellings and apartments, if required. The keeper of any hotel containing less than fifty rooms and of every lodging house, boarding house or rooming house and the owner or lessee of every dwelling or apartment, when required by the board of elections in the city of New York, the captain of police of the precinct in any other city or elsewhere the sheriff of the county, shall make to such board or officer, within ten days after notification, a sworn report upon a blank to be prepared and furnished by the board of elections, which report shall contain a list giving the name of every person of twenty-one years of age and upward who resides in such hotel, lodging house, boarding house, rooming house, dwelling or apartment, the period that each has resided therein and such other information as may be required by such board or officer. Such board or officer also may require such keeper, owner or lessee at any time to notify the board or officer whenever any of the persons named in such list shall leave such hotel, lodging house, boarding house, rooming house, dwelling or apartment within twenty-nine days before a general, special or primary election. If any keeper, owner or lessee files any report stating that any person has resided upon the premises for a longer period than he has so resided, or stating that any person has so resided, when he has not so resided, such keeper, owner or lessee shall be liable to a civil penalty of one thousand dollars. The board shall furnish a copy thereof to one of the special deputy attorney generals assigned to duty in the city or town, if requested.

§ 61. Regular reports by hotel, lodging house, boarding house and rooming house keepers, before general election. Every keeper of a hotel, lodging house, boarding house or rooming house in a town or city, shall cause to be kept a register showing the name and residence and the date of arrival and departure of his guests or lodgers and the room, rooms, or bed occupied by them, which register shall have a space on the same line in which each guest or lodger shall sign his name. Not less than forty nor more than sixty days before each general election, the captain of police of each city precinct, except in a city of not more than five thousand inhabitants, shall furnish to the board of elections a list of the hotels, lodging houses, boarding houses and rooming houses in such precinct and the names and addresses of the keepers thereof. The board, not less than thirty-five days before such election, shall mail to the keeper of each such hotel, lodging house, boarding house or rooming house in a city of over five thousand inhabitants within its jurisdiction a blank for the report required by this section. Twenty-nine days before each general election, each keeper of a hotel, lodging house, boarding house or rooming house in such a city shall cause to be made and to be delivered or sent by registered mail to the board of elections a sworn report, containing a detailed description of the premises used as such hotel, lodging house, boarding house or rooming house, including size and character of the building, and, if only part of a building is so used or there be more than one building on the premises, which particular building or part of a building is so used, and the names of the guests or the lodgers therein and all employees and all other persons living therein, including such keeper and the members of his family, who claim a voting residence at or in such hotel, lodging house, boarding house or rooming house, together with the length of time they have been regularly lodging or living therein, the beginning of such residence, the color, age, height, weight, color of hair, marks on face or hands, the complexion and any distinguishing marks or features of face or body whereby such persons may be identified, the place of their nativity, the occupation and place of business of such persons and the room occupied by each such person, and whether such person is a guest, lodger, keeper, owner, lessee, or otherwise, and the signature of each such person. Above the space reserved for the signature of each such person, shall be printed the words "the foregoing statements are true." The affidavit for such report shall be made by the keeper of the hotel, lodging house, boarding house or rooming house, or, in case of his absence or disability, by the person by whom, as manager, agent or employee, the hotel, lodging house, boarding house or rooming house is then actually conducted, and shall include the statement that the signatures of the guests or lodgers in such report were written in the presence of the deponent and that he personally knows them to be the persons therein described.

The keeper of such hotel, lodging house, boarding house or rooming house, or his representative duly deputed thereto, shall question each person lodging or living in such hotel or house as to his intention of claiming such place as a voting residence, and if the person so questioned shall make such claim he shall state the facts regarding himself which are required for the report herein provided for.

When such report is received by the board of elections, the board shall make and shall keep in its office for public inspection a transcript of only so much of the report as will show the names of the persons intending to vote from the hotel, lodging house, boarding house or rooming house and the location of such hotel or house, and shall then deliver the report forthwith to the chief of police, except that before doing so, the board of elections shall furnish a copy thereof to one of the special deputy attorney generals assigned to duty in the city, if he shall have requested it.

§ 62. Investigations as to qualifications of voters. 1. Throughout the year, the board of elections of the city of New York and the police authorities of any other city shall ascertain and keep a record of the persons who by reason of death, removal, conviction or otherwise, have lost the right to vote from the address from which they were registered for the last preceding general election, and the sheriff of the county shall, as to the territory outside of a city, keep a record of such persons of whom he has knowledge or notice. Such police authorities in cities of the first and second class shall use in that connection the pamphlet lists of registered voters for such election. In any city of the third class, the board of elections shall provide such necessary clerical assistance in copying registration lists as the police may require, and in any city the board shall render to a special deputy attorney general, assigned to duty in the city, the facilities in its office. Except in the city of New York, the chief of police of every city and elsewhere the sheriff shall two weeks before the first day of registration transmit to the board of elections a report showing so far as known to such officers the persons whose names are shown on such registration lists who are no longer entitled to vote from the addresses on such lists and the reasons therefor.

2. The board of elections of the city of New York or the chief of police of any other city which or who receives a report as to the persons claiming a hotel, lodging house, boarding house or rooming house as a voting residence, shall, if there is reason to believe that any person whose name is contained in such report is not entitled to vote, cause an investigation as to such person to be made by the police. The report of the police thereon shall be in writing and shall be transmitted forthwith to the board of elections, and if such report shows an apparent case of false registration, the board shall forward a copy thereof forthwith to the district attorney of the county.

3. The police authorities of every city of the first or second class shall make an investigation as to each person registered for the general election and, six days before such election, shall make a brief report to the board of elections as to each such person, which report shall specify whether such person appears to be qualified as a voter, and if not, the reasons therefor. Where card lists made by inspectors of election shall not have been taken by a special deputy attorney general, such report by the police authorities shall be made upon such cards.

4. For the purposes of this section, any member or authorized subordinate of the board of elections of the city of New York, any member of the police force in a city and elsewhere the sheriff and any of his deputies may visit and inspect any hotel, lodging house, boarding house, rooming house, dwelling or apartment and interrogate any inmate, house-dweller, keeper, caretaker, owner, proprietor or landlord thereof or therein, as to any person or persons residing or claiming to reside therein or thereat and may inspect and copy any register of guests or lodgers or any other documents relating to the registration or qualification of voters.

§ 63. Preparation of challenge lists. 1. The board of elections of the city of New York, from investigations made by it and the police, and from reports if any made to it by any special deputy attorney general, shall prepare for each election district in the city, and the board of elections of each county outside of the city of New York, from the reports of investigations made by the police, sheriff or special deputy attorney general, shall prepare for each election district in which registration is required to be personal, a challenge list containing the names, alphabetically arranged, and addresses of all persons who, by reason of death, removal, conviction or otherwise have lost the right to register from the addresses from which they registered at the last preceding general election which list shall contain a column headed "remarks." Such challenge lists shall be delivered to the respective boards of inspectors with the registers.

2. After the last day of registration in each year and before the day of the ensuing general election, the board of elections of the city of New York, from investigations made by it, the police and any special deputy attorney general, and the board of elections of each county outside of the city of New York, from reports of investigations made by the police, sheriff and any special deputy attorney general, may prepare for any election district or districts within its jurisdiction, and if requested by a special deputy attorney general shall prepare for any such election district or districts specified by him, a challenge list or lists, shall prepare for each election district within its jurisdiction a challenge list containing the names, alphabetically arranged, and addresses of the persons registered during such last preceding registration as to whom there is reason to believe from any such investigation that such persons are not entitled to vote at the election, which list shall contain a column headed "remarks." Such challenge lists shall be delivered to the respective boards of elections with the election supplies.

3. The board of elections shall prepare duplicates of all such challenge lists and keep them and all original challenge lists returned to it by boards of inspectors until after the third general election following their preparation.

§ 64. Creation and alteration of election districts. In the cities of New York and Buffalo and cities and towns of the counties of Monroe and Niagara, respectively, the creation or the consolidation, division or other alteration of election districts shall be done by the board of elections, and in any other city or town by the common council or town board. Every town or ward, not subdivided into election districts, shall be an election district. Each assembly district in the city of New York, and elsewhere, if paper ballots are to be used, each town having more than five hundred voters and each ward having more than six hundred voters, or, if the voting is to be by machine, each town or ward having more than seven hundred voters, shall be divided into election districts in any year when necessary; provided that if two machines are to be used at the polling place, a town or ward having not more than one thousand voters need not be divided. Any other town or ward may be so divided when the convenience of voters will be promoted thereby. Any creation, consolidation, division or alteration of election districts in any year shall be made on or before July first, to take effect on the ensuing first day of October, except that when required by the creation or alteration of a political subdivision in which candidates are to be voted for at the fall primary, it shall take effect immediately. In the city of New York, in the case of excessive registration in any year, an election district may be divided to take effect before the general election. Each election district shall be compact in form. It shall not contain portions of two wards, towns, counties, assembly or congressional districts. Except as otherwise provided in a local or special act, it shall not be partly within and partly without a city. It shall not be partly within and partly without a village having five thousand or more inhabitants except with the written approval of the board of elections, filed with the town clerk. As nearly as may be, except as above provided, an election district shall contain four hundred and fifty voters where paper ballots are used, six hundred voters where one voting machine is used and nine hundred voters where two voting machines are used, but it may contain a less number where the convenience of the voters will be promoted thereby, or where that is necessary to enable all the voters to vote for the same offices. When necessary, in order to comply with this section, the election districts into which a town, ward or assembly district is or may be divided may be consolidated, divided or otherwise altered, or new districts may be created, or a town or ward so divided may be made one election district, but the election districts of a town, ward or assembly district shall not be altered or new election districts created because of excessive number of voters in any such election district until such number shall exceed by at least fifty the number above specified.

§ 65. Maps or descriptions of election districts. 1. Whenever necessary, a map or separate maps of election districts within a town or ward, or, in the city of New York, within an assembly district, shall be made by the board or body creating or altering the districts so that the map or maps on file at any time will show the existing election districts in such town, ward or assembly district, except that in a town a certified description or descriptions may be made instead of a map or maps, in the discretion of such board. In a city, street corner numbers of the block or blocks defining the extreme boundaries of each election district shall be printed on the map or maps, within or outside the block line or lines, so as to show plainly the highest and lowest street numbers within the election district of every street bounding the district. Copies of such maps or descriptions shall be filed and kept open to public inspection as follows: one in the office of the town or city clerk, except in the city of New York; one in the office and each branch office if any of the board of elections. Surplus copies, if any, of maps of election districts in a city or town may be sold at cost and the proceeds paid to the county, city or town which incurred the expense of preparing the maps.

2. In a city, immediately before the first day of registration in each year, the board or body authorized to create or alter election districts shall cause copies of such map or maps to be posted in such places in the several wards or assembly districts as, in its judgment, will be best suited for informing the voters interested therein, and shall furnish to the inspectors of election in each election district, on the first day of registration in each year, a map or maps showing such election district and at least the adjacent election districts and a list of the registration and polling places in the ward or assembly district. In the week preceding a fall primary, in any year, the board of elections, in its discretion, may cause to be posted, in a city, copies of the map or maps showing the election districts in which the primary is to be held.

3. In a town, after the creation or alteration of any election district therein, the board creating or altering such district shall furnish to the inspectors of election in each election district, on the first day of registration next occurring, a map or description showing such election district and also immediately before the ensuing general election shall cause copies of the map or maps, or description or descriptions, of the election districts in the town to be posted in such places as, in its judgment, will be best suited for informing the voters interested therein.

§ 66. Designation of places for registry and voting. 1. On the third Tuesday of August in each year, the board or body empowered by this chapter to create or alter the election districts of a city or town shall designate the place in each election district in the city or town at which the meetings for the registration of voters and the elections and primaries shall be held during the year following the ensuing first day of October. A list of the places so designated shall be filed in the office of the board of elections. In a city the place so designated, if a schoolhouse, church, library or other public building, or a portable voting house, may be in a contiguous election district. If an election district is created or altered to take effect before the fall primary, polling places may be designated and previous designations of polling places cancelled, accordingly.

2. Each place so designated shall be of sufficient size to admit and comfortably accommodate at least ten voters at one time outside of the guard-rail and to allow of the placing of the booths, furniture and equipment of such polling place as provided by law.

3. A schoolhouse or other public building or any building exempt from taxation shall be designated, if the use of the same as a registration and polling place will not interfere with its customary use, and if it be so situated as to be convenient to the voters residing in the election district. The expense, if any, incidental to its use under such designation shall be paid like the expense of other registration and polling places. Whenever a school or other public building is located in an election district and the registration and polling place of such district is not located in a school or other public building, a statement of the reason for not designating such building must be entered by the board charged with the duty of making such designations in its minutes or other record.

4. If the registration shall be so large that the polling place already designated would be unreasonably crowded on election day, the polling place may be changed. Any such change, however, must be made at least ten days before the day of election, and at least five days before election day the board must send by mail a written notice to each registered voter notifying him of such change in the location of such polling place.

5. If any place so designated cannot for any reason be used for such purpose, another suitable place shall be designated forthwith.

6. Not more than one polling place shall be in the same room, and not more than two polling places shall be in the same building, except that if any city, town or village owns or occupies a building suitable for holding an election there may be as many polling places located in such building as there are rooms which are separated by permanent partitions.

§ 67. Delivery of election laws to clerks, boards and election officers. The secretary of state, within ten days after the enactment of any amendment to the election law, shall transmit by mail a copy of such amendment to each board of elections. He shall at least sixty days before each general election prepare a compilation of the election law with explanatory notes and instructions, properly indexed, procure the same to be printed by the legislative printer, and transmit to the board of elections of each county, and to the board of elections of the city of New York, located in the borough of Manhattan, and to the branch office of the board of elections in each of the other boroughs of the city of New York, a sufficient number of copies thereof to furnish one such copy to each member of each such board and to each such branch office and one to each county, town, village and city clerk. He shall likewise prepare, procure to be printed and transmit a compilation of articles seven and eight of this chapter and such other provisions of law as he may deem proper, such compilation to be delivered by the board of elections to each election officer in any such county and said borough. He may likewise procure to be printed and distributed such additional copies of such compilations as may in his judgment be necessary.

§ 69. Certificates by secretary of state and city, village and town clerks as to offices to be filled at general or special election. The secretary of state shall, at least three months before each general election make and transmit to the board of elections of each county, and of the city of New York, a certificate stating each officer, except city, village and town officers, who lawfully may be voted for at such election by the voters of the county or of such city, or any part thereof. Each city, village and town clerk shall within the same time make and transmit to the board of elections a certificate stating each city, village or town officer, respectively, to be voted for at such election. If any such officer is to be elected to fill a vacancy, the certificate shall so state. The secretary of state shall forthwith, upon the filing in his office of the governor's proclamation ordering a special election, make and transmit to the board of elections in each county in which the special election is to be held, a notice of such proclamation and a like certificate of the officers to be voted for at such special election.

§ 70. Certificate by secretary of state of proposed constitutional amendments or other propositions or questions. Every amendment to the constitution proposed by the legislature, unless it is otherwise provided by law, shall be submitted to the people for approval at the next general election after action by the legislature in accordance with the constitution. Whenever any such proposed amendment to the constitution or other proposition or question provided by law, to be submitted to a popular vote, shall be submitted to the people for their approval, the secretary of state, at least two months prior to a general election at which such amendment, proposition or question is to be submitted, or twenty days prior to a special election at which such amendment, proposition or question is to be submitted, shall transmit to the several boards of elections a certified copy of the text of such amendment, proposition or question, a statement of the reading form in which it is to be submitted and a statement of the day upon which such election, if a special election, is to be held. Such certified copy shall set out all new matter in italics and inclose in brackets all matter to be eliminated from existing law, and at the bottom of each page shall be appended the words, Explanation—Matter in italics is now; matter in brackets [] is old law to be omitted. In addition to the text, such copy shall contain an abstract of such proposed amendment, proposition or question, prepared by the secretary, concisely stating the purpose and effect thereof. The attorney general shall advise in the preparation of such abstract and of the reading form in which the proposed amendment, proposition or question is to be submitted. If more than one such amendment, proposition or question is to be voted upon at such election, such amendments, propositions or questions respectively shall be separately and consecutively numbered.

§ 71. Certificate by secretary of state as to primary election candidates. The secretary of state, not later than two days after the third Tuesday before a primary election, shall transmit to each board of elections a certificate stating the name of each candidate to be voted for within the political subdivision of such board, a designation as to whom has been filed in his office, together with the residence of such candidate, the title of the office for which he is named, the name of the party upon whose primary ballot his name is to be placed and the order in which names of candidates are to be printed.

§ 76. Furnishing by secretary of state of registers and certain blanks for registration. The secretary of state shall purchase, whenever he deems it desirable for the best interest of the state, blank registers, with necessary declarations and certificates and brief instructions to inspectors attached thereto, and other blanks enumerated below, so as to provide for the several election districts as follows: four registers for each election district; in book form, ten challenge affidavits, with stubs, and ten duplicates, without stubs, for each election district where registration is required to be personal and five such affidavits, with stubs, and five duplicates, without stubs, for each other election district; identification statements for registration day and similar statements for election day for each election district in a city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, such statements to be bound in book form, each book to contain not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty statements, on separate sheets consecutively numbered from one upward; a sufficient number of cards for card lists of registered voters in cities of the first and second class; a sufficient additional number of such registers, blanks and supplies to provide for contingencies. The secretary of state, in his discretion, may have the challenge affidavits and duplicates for an election district bound in one book, each original to be followed by a duplicate with the same number thereon, and provide therewith a sheet of carbon paper.

At least twenty days prior to the first day of registration in each year, he shall transmit a sufficient number of such registers and other blanks to each board of elections of each county and to each branch office of the board of elections in the city of New York. He shall so transmit books of challenge affidavits and identification statements to any board of elections only upon its requisition stating the number required by it.

§ 77. Delivery by board of elections of registers and supplies for registration and enrollment; furnishing by board of certain supplies. Each board of elections outside of the city of New York shall deliver to each town or city clerk in its county, by mail or otherwise, at least five days before the first day of registration, the proper number of registers and blanks, received by it from the secretary of state, for each election district of the town or city, and such clerks shall deliver the same to the several boards of inspectors within the town or city before the hour fixed for beginning registration on the first day. In the city of New York the board of elections shall deliver such registers and blanks to the boards of inspectors before such hour.

The board of elections of the city of New York, and elsewhere of each county, shall provide, for each election district in such city or county, one American flag approximately three feet by five in size, enrollment blanks equal in number to the registered voters in the election district and not less than twenty-five nor more than fifty in addition thereto, a ballot box for the reception of marked enrollment blanks, a sufficient number of copies of the constitutional amendments, propositions or questions to be submitted to the voters of the state at the general election, necessary blanks for certificates, other than those printed in the register, as to number of voters registered, and the necessary card slips of extracts from the state constitution to be used for literacy tests. Such board also may provide extra enrollment blanks for emergencies. In determining the number of copies of constitutional amendments, propositions or questions to be provided for election districts where registration is not required to be personal, the board shall estimate the probable number of persons who will appear in person at the several places of registration. The board of elections of the city of New York and of any county containing a city of the first or second class shall provide also stationery for the preparation by inspectors of street lists of registered voters in each such city, which, in the discretion of the board, may contain, in writing or typewriting, street names and numbers, with spaces for writing the names of voters and repeating the street numbers. The board of elections of the city of New York also shall provide enrollment envelopes. Such enrollment blanks, envelopes if any, enrollment box, copies of constitutional amendments, propositions or questions, stationery for lists of registered voters, and, in districts where personal registration is required, card slips for literacy tests shall be delivered to boards of inspectors at the time and in the manner above provided for the delivery of registers. The board shall deliver the extra enrollment blanks, if any, to the board of inspectors in an election district when the emergency so requires.

§ 81. Publication by board of elections of notices of general and special elections. The board of elections shall publish once in each of the four weeks preceding a general election, or once in each week succeeding the receipt by the board of the certificate of the secretary of state in respect to a special election called by the governor, and until such election, a notice specifying the day of the election, and the public officers to be voted for within such county, or any part thereof at such election. In a county outside the city of New York, the board shall publish such notice in the newspapers designated to publish election notices, pursuant to the county law or other statute, and in the city of New York the board of elections shall publish such notices in newspapers published in the several counties within such city to the number and of the party affiliations, or of the kind, specified in section seventy-four. Except in the city of New York, if constitutional amendments, propositions or questions are to be submitted to the voters of the state, the notice shall state that fact and that a copy of each such amendment, proposition or question may be obtained, upon application to the board of elections, by any voter, and the board shall provide a sufficient number of copies thereof for distribution accordingly.

§ 82. Certification of nominations by secretary of state. The secretary of state shall, twenty-one days before a general election, or eight days before a special election, certify to the board of elections of each county, and to the board of elections of the city of New York, the name, residence and place of business, if any, of each candidate nominated in any certificate filed with him or by the returns canvassed by him, of a primary election, for whom the voters of any such county or of such city, respectively, may vote, the title of the office for which he is nominated, the name of the party or independent body specified in such certificate and the emblem chosen to distinguish the candidates of the party or body. If a certificate of a nomination to fill a vacancy caused by death be filed with the secretary after the sending of such certificate to the boards of elections, he shall transmit forthwith a statement of such nomination to the proper boards of elections.

§ 83. Lists of nominations; posting thereof by town, city and village clerks. 1. The board of elections of each county, except those counties which are wholly within the city of New York, shall at least six days before election day send to the town clerk of each town and to an alderman of each ward in any city in the county, at least five and not more than ten printed lists for each election district in such town or ward, containing the name and residence, and if in a city, the street number of residence, and place of business, if any, of each candidate whose certificate or petition of nomination has been filed with it or whose nomination has been certified to it, or who has been nominated at a primary election, and the name and also a facsimile of the emblem or device of each party or independent body nominating candidates, to be voted for by the voters of the respective towns and wards. However, the lists shall not include the names of candidates for the office of presidential electors, but instead thereof such candidates shall be described as a specified number of presidential electors, nominated to support the party candidates, naming them, for the office of president and vice-president. Such town clerk or alderman shall at least three days before the day of election, conspicuously post such lists in one or more public places in each election district of such town or ward, one of which lists shall be so posted at each polling place.

2. Each town and village clerk shall cause at least ten copies of a like list of all candidates nominated in any certificate filed with him for an election to be held at a time other than the day of the general election to be posted conspicuously in ten public places in the town or village, at least one day before the town meeting or village election, one of which lists shall be so posted at each polling place of such town meeting or village election.

The board of elections, at least six days before an election, shall publish a list containing the name, residence and place of business, if any, of every candidate for public office, other than a town office, to be filled at such election, whose certificate or petition of nomination has been filed with it or whose nomination has been certified to it or who has been nominated at a primary election by returns canvassed by it, together with facsimiles of the various emblems. However, the list shall not include the names of candidates for the office of presidential electors, but instead thereof such candidates shall be described as a specified number of presidential electors, nominated to support the party candidates, naming them, for the office of president and vice-president. In a county outside the city of New York such publication shall be made once in not less than two nor more than four newspapers published in the county. In the county of New York such publication shall be made twice in ten newspapers published in the county; in the counties of Bronx and Queens such publication shall be made twice in four newspapers published in each county respectively; in the county of Kings such publication shall be made twice in the newspapers designated to publish corporation notices in the borough of Brooklyn; and in the county of Richmond such publication shall be made twice in two newspapers published in the county. In a county containing a city, at least one such publication shall be in a daily newspaper published in a city therein, if there be such a newspaper. So far as consistent with this section, one of such newspapers shall be one representing the party polling at the last preceding gubernatorial election the highest number of votes for governor and another of such newspapers shall be one representing the party polling at such election the next highest number of votes for governor. Should the board of elections find it impossible to make such publication six days before election it shall make it at the earliest possible day thereafter, and before the election. The list to be published in any county shall be a list only of the candidates to be voted for within the county. The city clerk of each city except New York and the board of elections of the city of New York shall at least six days before an election of city officers held at a different time from a general election make a like publication as to candidates for offices to be filled at such city election in a like number of newspapers published in such city.

§ 85. Equipment of registration and polling places by board or body designating such places. The board or body authorized to designate registration and polling places shall provide for use upon a day of registration or election, or on a primary day, in each such place, as may be required, the following articles:

1. For election day, a guard rail with a place for entrance and exit.

2. For election day, separate ballot boxes as occasion shall require, for ballots for presidential electors, for ballots for general officers, for ballots upon constitutional amendments and questions submitted, for ballots upon town questions, for ballots of each party at a primary election, for ballots defective in printing or spoiled and mutilated, and for stubs detached from ballots, each of sufficient capacity to hold the ballots to be deposited therein, having an opening in the top large enough to allow a single folded ballot to be passed easily through the opening, but no larger, and supplied with a sufficient lock and key.

3. For election day, a sufficient number of voting booths, and supplies therein, not less than one such booth for each seventy-five voters of the district, each booth to be at least three feet square, with four sides enclosed, each side at least six feet high and extending within two feet of the floor, the side in front opening and shutting as a door swinging outward, and to contain a shelf having a smooth surface and at least one foot wide extending across one side at a convenient height for writing and to be furnished with a pencil having black lead only.

4. For each day of registration two such booths for the use of voters marking enrollment blanks.

5. Necessary furniture.

The boxes for each polling place, with the keys thereof, shall be delivered to the inspectors of each election district at least one half hour before the opening of the polls at the election or primary.

§ 86. Publication of registry lists; distribution thereof. The board of elections of each county containing a city of the first or second class and the board of elections of the city of New York, as soon as possible after the receipt of the registry lists from boards of inspectors as provided in section one hundred and eighty and, in the city of New York, within one hundred and eight hours after the close of each annual registration, and elsewhere not less than six days prior to the day of election, shall print in pamphlet form for each ward of any such city within their respective counties, or for each assembly district in the city of New York, not less than fifteen times as many copies of said registration lists as there are election districts in such ward or assembly district, so that each ward or assembly district pamphlet shall contain the lists of the several election districts in such ward or assembly district. The board of elections shall contract for the printing of such lists with whomsoever it may seem to such board to be most advantageous so to contract, but such contract shall be awarded only after proper public notice and to the lowest bidder. Upon the written application of the chairman of the executive committee of the county committee of any political party whose candidates are entitled to a place upon the official ballot to be voted at the election for which the registration is made, the board of elections shall deliver to such chairman three copies of each ward or assembly district pamphlet for each election district within such city, or, in the city of New York, within each assembly district of the county which such county committee represents. Two pamphlets containing the lists of the registered persons in the election districts within his precinct shall be furnished to each police captain in all such cities; and one copy of the pamphlet for each ward or assembly district shall be mailed by the board of elections to the attorney-general, as soon as it is printed. The pamphlets so printed shall be distributed in the discretion of such boards, which may charge for each pamphlet a sum not exceeding ten cents a copy for a ward pamphlet or twenty-five cents a copy for an assembly district pamphlet, and any moneys resulting from the sale thereof shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county, or comptroller of the city of New York, as the case may be, for the benefit of the treasury of such county or city.

§ 87. Furnishing board of elections of city, town or village clerk of supplies for election. The board of elections of each county and of the city of New York shall provide the requisite number of official and sample ballots, two cards of instruction, two sets of sample ballots mounted on cards, two poll books where necessary, necessary distance markers, necessary tally sheets and return blanks, pens, penholders, red and black ink, pencils having black lead, heavy manila envelopes for returns, labels, sealing wax, and such other articles of stationery as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the election and the canvass of the votes, for each election district in the county or city, for each election to be held thereat, including a primary election, except that when a town meeting, city or village election is not held at the same time as a general election, the clerk of such town, city or village, respectively, shall provide such official and sample ballots and the necessary blanks, supplies and stationery for such election and town meeting. However, the town clerk shall provide the ballots and sample ballots for a town question and blanks for the returns of the votes thereon, though the town meeting be held at the time of general election. Such instruction cards shall contain in clear, large type in red ink brief but clear instructions to voters as to the manner of voting and in smaller type a copy of such sections of the penal law relating to crimes against the elective franchise as the board of elections shall select. Such distance markers shall be conspicuously printed to indicate the distance of one hundred feet from the polling place.

§ 88. Number of registers to be provided for an election other than a general election, and for a primary election. For an election where voters are required to be registered, other than a general election, and for a primary election one of the two copies of the register to be delivered to the inspectors shall be a copy containing ballot numbers and other entries for the previous election, at which registers were used for such purposes, held since the preceding days of registration. In a city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, one of such copies shall be the one used for taking signatures during registration and the other shall be one having an unused column, if any, to be available for signatures and statement numbers of voters at the election, except a primary election outside of the city of New York.

§ 89. Poll-books to be furnished when necessary. If, at any election, the registers provided therefor do not contain suitable columns for recording the numbers on ballots delivered to voters and ballots voted, or if, at the time of any election, the columns for such purpose shall all have been used at former elections, two poll-books shall be provided at each polling place, containing columns, suitably entitled, for entering in the following order the name of the voter, residence, number on ballot delivered to voter, number on ballot voted and "remarks." In a city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, if such books be necessary as above provided, there shall be an additional column, between the column for residence and the column for number on ballot delivered to voter, to be entitled, "signature or statement number of voter." If the holding of an additional primary election to supersede a spring or fall primary, in any election district, be ordered by the court or a justice, poll-books for each party affected by the order shall be provided, and the name of the proper party shall be written, stamped or printed on the covers. In a city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants outside of the city of New York, if such an additional primary be ordered, the poll-book column for signature shall be omitted, or, if included in the blank poll-books on hand, shall be crossed out by the board of elections.

§ 90. Distribution of ballots and supplies. The board of elections of each county, except those counties which are wholly within the city of New York, shall deliver at its office to each town or city clerk in such county, except in the cities of New York and Buffalo, on the Saturday before the election or primary for which they are required, the official and sample ballots, and other supplies required to be provided by the board of elections, envelopes containing absentee voters' ballots received for a general election received not later than noon of the Friday before election day, and, for a primary election, two registers containing party enrollments, for each polling place in such town or city. The town or city clerk shall call at the office of such board of elections at such time and receive such ballots, supplies and articles. In the cities of New York and Buffalo the board of elections shall cause such ballots, supplies and articles to be delivered to the board of inspectors of each election district at least one-half hour before the opening of the polls on each day of election or primary. For a district where registration is not required to be personal, card slips for literacy tests shall be delivered with the other supplies for a general election.

Each kind of official ballots shall be arranged in a package in the consecutive order of the numbers printed on the stubs thereof, beginning with number one. All official and sample ballots for each election district shall be in separate sealed packages, clearly marked on the outside thereof with the number and kind of ballots contained therein and indorsed with the designation of the election district for which they were prepared. The other supplies provided for each election district also shall be inclosed in a sealed package or packages, with a label on the outside thereof showing the contents of each package. Each town and city clerk receiving such packages shall cause all such packages so received and marked for any election district to be delivered unopened and with the seals thereof unbroken to the inspectors of election of such election district one-half hour before the opening of the polls of such election therein, and shall take a receipt therefor specifying the number and kind of packages delivered.

Town, city and village clerks required to provide official and sample ballots and supplies for town meetings, city and village elections held at different times from a general election, shall in like manner, deliver them to the inspectors or presiding officers of the election at each polling place at which such meetings and elections are held, respectively, in like sealed packages marked on the outside in like manner, and shall take receipts therefor in like manner.

§ 91. Transcripts of enrollment. The board of elections shall certify to the correctness of any transcript of original enrollment entries, or of any part thereof, on the payment of one cent for every twenty names contained in the transcript. The fees received for certifying such transcripts shall be paid into the public treasury. The board of elections shall give to any voter enrolled as in this article provided, a certificate of enrollment, which shall specify the name of the party with which he is enrolled, the date of enrollment and the election district in which such voter is enrolled.

The board of elections shall annually provide true copies, duly certified, of so much of the registers as will give the names, addresses and political affiliation of each voter, and shall, in the month of February in each year, transmit one such certified copy to the secretary of state and deliver one such certified copy to the chairman of the proper county committee of each party.

§ 92. Publication of enrollment lists. The board of elections of the city of New York shall and the board of elections of any county containing a city of the first or second class and when authorized by the board of supervisors the board of elections in any other county may, in its discretion, cause to be published for each assembly district, within a county over which such board has jurisdiction, in pamphlet form, and at public expense a transcript of the registers of each election district in the assembly district, omitting all entries except the names, the residence addresses, and the party, if any, recorded opposite the respective names. The board may sell surplus copies of the pamphlets at not exceeding the cost of publication, and the fees received shall be paid into the public treasury.

§ 93. Payment of election expenses. 1. The expenses of providing polling places, guard rails, voting booths, supplies therefor, ballot boxes and other furniture of the polling place, for a primary or other election, and the compensation of the election officers in each election district, shall be a charge upon the town or city in which such election district is situated, except that such expenses incurred for the purpose of conducting a village election not held at the same time as a general election shall be a charge upon the village.

2. All expenses relating to a town meeting or city or village election held at a different time from a general election shall be a charge upon the town, city or village.

3. All expenses incurred under this chapter by the board of elections of a county outside of the city of New York shall be a charge against the county, except that if a town meeting, city or village election be held at the same time as a general election, the expense of printing and delivering the official ballots, sample ballots and tally sheet and return blanks shall be apportioned by the board of elections between such town, city or village and the county, in the proportion of the number of candidates for town, city or village offices on such ballots, respectively, to the whole number of candidates thereon, and the amount of such expenses so apportioned to each such municipality shall be a charge thereon. Whenever voting machines are used in any election by any town, city or village, only such expenses as are caused by the use of such machines and such as are necessary for the proper conduct of the election shall be charged to such town, city or village.

4. All expenses of the board of elections of the city of New York shall be a charge on such city.

§ 94. Apportionment of expenses of board of elections outside of New York city. The board of elections in each county, outside of the city of New York, on or before the fifteenth day of December, and not earlier than the first day of October, in each year, shall certify to the clerk of the board of supervisors the total amount of the expenses of such board of elections, including salaries, for the preceding year, and, if the board of supervisors of any county shall so direct, shall certify to such clerk the portions of such expenses which under provisions of law are to be borne by any city or cities in said county and the portion thereof which is to be borne by the rest of such county, and such clerk shall thereupon notify the proper local official or officials, who, in spreading upon the assessment-rolls the taxes to be levied upon the taxable property in the city, or any such cities, and in the rest of the county, shall include in the amount so spread the amounts certified by the board of elections to be borne by such city or cities, respectively, and in the amount spread upon the assessment-rolls of the taxable property in the several towns or other political subdivisions of the rest of the county the amount so certified by said board of elections to be borne by such towns or political subdivisions respectively.

§ 101. Number of official and sample ballots. The number of official ballots of each kind to be provided for each polling place, except for a primary election, shall be one and one-tenth times the number of voters entitled to vote at the polling place, as nearly as can be estimated by the board or officer providing such ballots. The number of official ballots for each party to be provided for each polling place at a primary election shall be not less than sixty nor more than one hundred and five per centum of the total number of enrolled voters of the party in the election district of such polling place. If the official ballots required to be furnished by any board or officer shall not be delivered to such board or officer at the time required, or if after delivery shall be lost, destroyed or stolen, such board or officer shall cause other ballots to be prepared as nearly in the form of the official ballots as practicable, but without the indorsement, and to be delivered to the inspectors of election. Such ballots shall be known as unofficial ballots. Sample ballots of each kind equal in number to ten per centum of the number of official ballots, printed on paper of a different color from any of the official ballots and without numbers on the stubs, but in all other respects precisely similar to the official ballots, shall be provided for each polling place. Upon printing the sample ballots for a primary election, the board of elections shall send to the secretary of state one such ballot for one of the election districts in each assembly district.

* So in original. [Does not conform to section heading.]

§ 102. Placing names upon ballot. If the officer or board with whom or which are filed petitions or certificates of designation or nomination shall find that such petitions or certificates are in compliance with this chapter, the names of the candidates thereby designated or nominated shall, unless otherwise ordered by a court or judge of competent jurisdiction, be printed upon the appropriate official ballot; but any petition filed with the secretary of state, or any city, town or village clerk or any independent nominating petition filed with any board of elections outside of the city of New York shall be presumptively valid if it is in proper form and appears to bear the requisite number of signatures, authenticated as prescribed in this chapter.

§ 103. Order of names upon ballot. 1. The officer or board who or which prepares the general officers' ballot shall determine the order in which shall appear, below the names of party candidates, the nominations made only by independent bodies. Such officer or board also shall determine the order in which shall be printed, in a section of such ballot the names of two or more candidates nominated by one party or independent body, for an office to which two or more persons are to be elected; provided, however, that any such candidate may, by a writing filed with such board or officer not later than one week after the adjournment of the convention or the primary election nominating him, or otherwise not later than two days after the filing of the petition or certificate nominating him, demand that such order be determined by lot, and in that case such order shall be so determined, upon two days' notice by mail given by such board or officer to each candidate for such office.

2. The officer or board with whom or which is filed the designations for a public office or party position shall determine by lot, upon two days' notice by mail given by such board or officer to each candidate for such office or position and to the committee, if any, named in the designating petition, the order in which shall be printed on the official primary ballot, under the title of the office or position, the names of candidates for public office, the names of candidates for a party position to which not more than one person is to be elected, and the groups of names of candidates for party position where two or more persons are to be elected thereto and any petition designates two or more persons therefor. The names of candidates, if any, for a party position to which two or more persons are to be elected, who are designated by individual petitions and not in a group shall be printed below such group or groups, in such order as between themselves, as such officer or board shall determine by lot upon the notice specified in this subdivision. The names within a group of candidates designated for party position by one petition shall be printed in the same order in which they shall appear in the petition, unless they appear in a different order on different papers of the petition, in which case their order within the group shall be determined by such officer or board by lot upon the notice specified in this subdivision. However, the notice to a committee, of the drawing, need not be mailed to more than five members, if there be that many, and as to offices or party positions for which designating petitions are filed with the board of elections of the city of New York the notice lot shall be given to the committees only.

3. If a vacancy in a designation or nomination be filled after the making, in the manner provided in this section, of a determination of the order in which the names of candidates for the office or position are to be printed, the name of the candidate designated or nominated to fill such vacancy shall be printed in the place so determined for the original candidate.

§ 104. Classification and form of official ballots other than primary ballots. For elections other than primary elections, there shall be five kinds of ballots to be used by the voters who appear personally to vote, called respectively ballots for presidential electors, ballots for general officers, ballots upon constitutional amendments and questions submitted, ballots upon town propositions, and ballots upon town appropriations, which shall be used for the purposes which their names severally indicate. Ballots for general officers shall contain the names of all candidates except presidential electors. Official ballots shall be printed in black ink, on book paper of good quality free from ground wood, five hundred sheets of which twenty-five by thirty-eight inches in size shall weigh sixty pounds and shall test for that size and weight at least twenty points on a Morrison tester. They shall be rectangular in shape, not less than eight inches in width and twelve inches in length, and shall have a margin extending beyond any printing thereon.

All ballots of the same kind for the same polling place shall be of precisely the same size, quality and shade of paper, and of precisely the same kind and arrangement of type and tint of ink. A different, but in each case uniform, kind of type shall be used for printing the names of candidates, the titles of offices, political designations, and the reading form of constitutional amendments and other questions and propositions submitted. The names of candidates shall be printed in capital letters in black-faced type not less than one-eighth nor more than three-sixteenths of an inch in height.

election

Each ballot shall be printed on the same sheet with a stub and shall be separated therefrom by a horizontal line of perforations extending across the entire width of the ballot. On the face of the stub shall be printed the instructions to voters. On the back of the stub immediately above the center of the indorsement on the back of the ballot, shall be printed "No." the blank to be filled with the consecutive number of ballots, beginning with "No. 1," and increasing in regular numerical order.

On the back of the ballot, below the line of perforations, just to the right of the center, and outside when the ballot is folded, shall be printed the following indorsement, the blanks properly filled:

Official Ballot for General Officers (or as the case may be)

County of ..... Assembly District (or ward or town)

..... Election District.

Each such ballot shall be printed in sections, on which the candidates' names, emblems and political designations, or the constitutional amendment, or other questions submitted, with the voting squares, and other requisite matter shall be boxed in by heavy black lines. The voting squares and the spaces occupied by emblem shall have a depth and width of five-sixteenths of an inch.

In case the sections shall be so numerous as to make the ballot unwieldy if they are printed in one column, they may be printed in as many columns as shall be necessary, and in that case, in order to produce a rectangular ballot, blank sections may be used.

On the ballot shall be voting squares in which voters may make their voting marks. All voting squares shall be bounded by heavy black lines, the perpendicular lines to be not less than one-sixteenth of an inch wide. On all ballots there shall be a perpendicular column of these squares. No voting squares shall be provided in the blank spaces for written names.

The ballots bearing the same number at the same election shall constitute a set of ballots.

The name of each political organization whose party name contains more than eleven letters shall be printed on the ballot, whenever the necessities of space shall so require, in an abbreviated form containing not more than fifteen letters. In printing the names of candidates whose full names contain sixteen letters or more not more than one name other than the surname shall be printed in full, and each candidate may indicate in writing to the officer or officers charged with the duty of preparing the ballots the form in which, subject to this restriction, his name shall be printed. No emblem shall occupy a space longer in any direction than the voting square to which it relates.

§ 105. Ballots for general officers. Upon ballots for general officers the names of all candidates for any one office shall be printed in a separate section. The sections shall be in the customary order of the offices and shall be numbered from one upward by a numeral printed in the upper right hand corner of the section. In printing the names of candidates precedence shall be given to the candidate or candidates of the party which polled the highest number of votes for governor at the last preceding election for such officer, and so on. At the top of each section in the center shall be printed on one line the title of the office. On the same line, to the left of such title and immediately above the emblems and voting squares, there shall be printed a direction as to the number of candidates for whom a vote may be cast, which direction shall be punctuated by an exclamation point. If two or more candidates are nominated for the same office for different terms, the term for which each is nominated shall be printed as a part of the title of the office. At the bottom of each section as many separate spaces as there are candidates to be elected shall be left blank in which the voter may write the names of any candidates not on the ballot. Except as herein otherwise provided, with respect to a candidate for the office of governor or of member of assembly who is nominated by more than one political organization, there shall be printed on each line below the top, in the following order, from left to right, the party emblem, the voting square, the candidate's name and the name of the party by which he is nominated. The width of the enclosure containing the name of the candidate and of such party shall not exceed three and one-half inches. In any case where a candidate for public office is nominated by more than one political organization, the party names and emblems shall appear in the order of priority based on the relative number of votes cast for governor by each organization at the preceding election of a governor. In any such case, the emblems shall be arranged horizontally before the voting square, beginning next to the square immediately preceding the name of the candidate with the emblem of the party casting the highest number of such votes. When any candidate for the office of governor or member of assembly is nominated by more than one political organization, there shall be one voting square, in the same horizontal row as the emblems, to the right of each emblem before the name of a candidate so nominated for such office. The final letter of the party name or names shall be close to the right hand perpendicular line of the box, and any space between the candidate's name and his party name or names shall be filled with dotted or waved lines.

INSTRUCTIONS.

1. Mark only with a pencil having black lead.
2. To vote for a candidate whose name is printed on this ballot made a single cross X mark in one of the squares to the right of an emblem opposite his name.
3. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on this ballot write his name on a blank line under the names of the candidates for that office.
4. Any other mark than the cross X mark used for the purpose of voting or any erasure made on this ballot is unlawful.

question shall appear two voting squares, one above the other, each at least one-half inch square. At the left of the upper square shall be printed the word "Yes," and at the left of the lower square shall be printed the word "No." On the stub at the top of the ballot shall be printed in heavy black type the following instructions:

INSTRUCTIONS.

1. Mark only with a pencil having black lead.
2. To vote "Yes" made a cross X mark in the square opposite the word "Yes."
3. To vote "No," make a cross X mark in the square opposite the word "No."
4. Any other mark than the cross X mark used for the purpose of voting or any erasure made on this ballot is unlawful.
5. If you tear, or deface, or wrongly mark this ballot, return it and obtain another.

The questions shall be numbered consecutively on the face of the ballot.

So far as possible the ballots upon town propositions shall conform to the directions herein contained respecting ballots on constitutional amendments and questions submitted.

All ballots for the submission of town propositions for raising or appropriating money for town purposes, or for incurring a town liability, to be voted at any town meeting in any town, shall be separate from all other ballots for the submission of other propositions or questions to the voters of such town to be voted at the same town meeting or election. Such ballots shall be indorsed "ballot upon town appropriations."

§ 107. Ballots for presidential electors. Upon ballots for presidential electors the names of the presidential electors of each party shall be printed in one column indicating:

First. The electors at large, whose names shall be arranged in the alphabetical order of the surnames; and Second. The electors of each district, whose names shall be arranged in the numerical order of their district.

The columns shall be parallel to each other and shall be separated by heavy black lines. In addition to the party columns a blank column with lines for writing also shall be provided in which voters may write the names of candidates for presidential electors not on the ballot and which shall be sufficient to contain as many names as there are electors to be chosen. It shall be designated as the blank column and shall contain no voting spaces. At the head of each party column shall be printed the party emblem; below this a blank circle three-quarters of an inch in diameter; below this the party name in large type; below this the names of the candidates for president and vice-president; and below this a heavy line dividing the heading from the names of the presidential electors. Above the name of the first elector shall be printed the words "presidential electors." The names of the presidential electors shall be printed in spaces one-quarter of an inch in depth, except that the first spaces containing also the words "presidential electors" shall be half an inch in depth. The spaces shall be divided from each other by light horizontal lines. At the left of the name of each elector shall be printed a voting space one-quarter of an inch square, except the space opposite the first name, which shall be half an inch in depth.

Each party circle shall be surrounded by the following instructions, plainly printed "For a straight ticket, mark within this circle."

The columns for the presidential electors of independent bodies shall be similar to the party columns except that above the emblem in each column shall be printed the words "independent nominations" in large type like that used for the party names.

In the blank column the space occupied by the emblem and voting circle in the party column shall be occupied by the following instructions, plainly printed: "In the column below, the voter may write the name of any person for whom he desires to vote whose name is not printed on the ballot." Below the line dividing the heading from the blank spaces shall be printed, as in the other column, the words "presidential electors."

The columns shall be arranged upon the ballot as directed by the secretary of state, precedence, however, being given to the several parties according to the number of votes for governor polled at the last preceding gubernatorial election.

INSTRUCTIONS.

1. Mark only with a pencil having black lead.
2. To vote for all the electors of one party made a cross X mark within the circle above the party column.
3. To vote for some but not for all, of the electors of one party make a cross X mark in the square at the left of the name of every candidate printed on the ballot for whom you desire to vote.
4. To vote for any person whose name is not printed on this ballot write his name in the blank space provided therefor.
5. Any other mark than the cross X mark used for the purpose of voting or any erasure made on this ballot is unlawful.
6. If you tear, or deface, or wrongly mark this ballot, return it and obtain another.

§ 108. Ballots for primary election. The official ballot for a primary election shall conform to the general officers' ballot in respect of quality and weight of paper, perforated line, and number on the stub on the back of the ballot. The ballots of no two parties shall be of the same color, and the secretary of state shall select the color for each party. On the back of the ballot, on the stub, immediately below the number, shall be the name of the party. On the back of the ballot and below the stub, and immediately to the left of the center of the ballot, shall be printed the name and emblem of the party and the words "Official primary ballot for," followed by the number of the election district, name of the city or town, number of the assembly district or ward when necessary to identify the election district, date of the primary election and fac-simile of the signatures of the officer or officers providing the ballot. The face of the ballot shall conform substantially to the following provisions:

1. Above the perforated line shall be printed the following instructions, with the word "Instructions" above: "Mark only with a pencil having black lead. To vote for any candidate whose name is printed on this ballot make a cross X mark in the voting space at the left of the name. To vote for any person whose name is not printed on this ballot write the name of such person in the blank space provided for that purpose under the title of the public office or party position to which you wish him nominated or elected. Any other mark than the cross X mark used for the purpose of voting, or any erasure, made on this ballot is unlawful. If you tear or deface or wrongly mark this ballot, return it and obtain another." Each instruction shall begin on a new line and be numbered, beginning with "1," for the first instruction.

2. Directly below the perforated line shall be printed the following: "Official ballot for the primary election of the (name of the party) party," the name of the county, the date of such election and the party emblem. The name of the city or town and the number of the election district and of the ward or assembly district also may be added, in the discretion of the board of elections. Below such matter, and extending across the ballot, shall be printed a heavy black horizontal line.

4. In each part shall be printed the titles of the offices or party positions, as the case may be, for which the part is to be used, and under each such title shall be printed the names of the designated candidates for the office or position, followed by as many blank spaces, for writing in names of persons for whom the voter desires to vote, as there are persons to be nominated for the office or elected to the party position. Immediately below the title of the office or position, shall be printed, in brier lower case type, "Vote for " (the blank space to be filled with the number of persons to be nominated for the office or elected to the position). The space for the title of an office, and such direction, shall be three-eighths of an inch, and for the name of a candidate or for writing in a name, one-fourth of an inch, in depth. At the left of the name of each designated candidate shall be an inclosed voting space, three-eighths of an inch in width and approximately one-fourth of an inch in depth, bounded above, below and to the right by black lines, heavier than those which separate the spaces containing the names of candidates. To the left of voting spaces which do not adjoin a vertical line dividing two parts, there shall be a heavy black vertical line approximately one-eighth of an inch in width. No voting space shall be provided in the space for writing in names. In such case, the space corresponding to a voting space shall be all black.

5. The titles of public offices shall appear in the same consecutive order that they will appear on the general officers' ballot. The titles of the party positions of delegate or alternate shall appear in the following order: delegate, or delegates, to state convention; alternate delegate, or delegates, to state convention; delegate, or delegates, to judicial district convention; alternate delegate, or delegates, to judicial district convention; except that at a spring primary the titles of the following positions shall appear, in the following order, after alternate delegates to a state convention: district delegate, or delegates, to national convention; district alternate delegate, or delegates, to national convention. The party positions of committeemen shall appear in the following order: member of state committee; members of county committee.

6. The names of candidates shall be numbered with arabic numerals printed in heavy faced type between the voting space and the name of the candidate, beginning with "1" for the first candidate named in the first part and continuing in numerical order to and including the last candidate named in the last part, except that where two or more candidates are to be elected to a party position, the names of candidates designated by each petition shall be grouped, with a blank space five-sixteenths of an inch in depth between each group, and each group shall have but one number, which shall be printed opposite the approximate center of the group, followed by a bracket embracing the names in the group. Where a candidate for nomination for the same public office or for election to the same party position is designated by two or more petitions, his name shall be placed upon the ballot but once as such candidate. If a candidate for a party position to be filled by two or more persons be designated in more than one petition his name shall be printed in the group of candidates designated by the petition first filed, unless, before the third Tuesday preceding the primary election, he shall, by writing signed and duly acknowledged by him and filed with the board of elections, specify another group in which his name shall be printed.

7. Spaces for containing names of candidates and for writing in names, and intervening spaces, shall be separated by light horizontal lines. Names of candidates shall be printed in capital letters not less than one-eighth nor more than three-sixteenths of an inch in height.

§ 110. Preparation and furnishing of adhesive pasters. If a certificate of designation or nomination to fill a vacancy shall lawfully be filed with the board or officer required to furnish official ballots, or the board of elections shall receive from the secretary of state a notification of a new designation or nomination to fill a vacancy, after the official ballots have been printed, and before primary day or election day, the board or officer providing the official ballots shall prepare and furnish to the inspectors of election in each election district affected adhesive pasters containing the name of the candidate designated or nominated to fill the vacancy, with directions for the proper use thereof. The pasters shall be of plain white paper, printed in plain black ink and in the same kind of type used in printing the names of the candidates upon the official ballots, and shall be of a size as large as and no longer than the space occupied upon the official ballot by the name of the candidate in whose place the candidate named upon the paster has been designated or nominated. Whenever such pasters are provided, the board or officer furnishing them shall certify to the inspectors of election in the election districts affected by the vacancy the name of the person originally designated or nominated, the name of the person designated in the new certificate, the title of the office or party position for which the designation or nomination is made, the name of the political party to which the committee making the designation or nomination belongs, and shall state the number of pasters furnished, which number shall be equal to the number of official ballots furnished for each such district.

§ 114. Description of tally sheets except for the office of presidential elector. The tally sheets for any election to which article eight is applicable, except tally sheets for presidential electors, shall be prepared and printed substantially as follows:

1. The tally sheet for votes on the general officers' or primary ballots shall have thereon the printed names of the candidates and a place for writing in the names of persons voted for who do not appear on the official ballot; a place for entering tally marks opposite each name, which place, on the sheet for votes on the general officers' ballot, shall be subdivided, and on the sheet for votes on the primary ballot may be subdivided, into blocks of ten spaces each; a similar place for entering tally marks for blank votes; a similar place for entering tally marks for void votes; a place for entering, respectively, the total number of tallies for each candidate or person, the total number of tallies for blank votes and the total number of tallies for void votes; a place for entering the total number of tallies of all kinds, with respect to the office or position; a place at the top, for entering, respectively, the total number of ballots cast (including void and blank ballots) and the number of persons to be elected or nominated to the office or position, and a place for entering the total of such two numbers opposite the words "total number of votes to be canvassed"; an appropriate title showing the nature of the tally sheet; brief instructions as to filling out the sheet. For an election other than a primary election, there shall be a separate sheet for each office. For a primary election, the same sheet may provide for tallies with respect to all the offices and positions of one party, or for the tallies for all parties with respect to one office or position, as the board of elections may deem most convenient. In the case of the tally sheet for an election other than a primary, or a tally sheet for a primary election where the same sheet provides for the tallies of all parties with respect to one office or position, the form for the inspectors' returns of the canvass as to the office or position may be combined with the tally sheet, in the discretion of the board of elections or other officer or board which provides the official ballots; and in such a case, in the discretion of such board or officer, statements and figures which would be identical if the returns and tally sheets were separate, need not be duplicated, and such board or officer may require results to be written out.

2. The tally sheet for questions submitted shall be similar to the tally sheet for votes cast on the general officer's ballot, with suitable modifications. Provision for entering the "number of candidates to be elected" shall be omitted; also, in place of the names of candidates and persons shall be printed the words "For (or against, as the case may be) question No. (or other brief description)."

3. The secretary of state shall prepare and transmit to each board of elections specimen forms which may be used for the above described tally sheets. The secretary of state shall furnish sufficient copies of such specimen forms to each board of elections so that such board may transmit, and it shall be the duty of such board to transmit, one of each kind to the board or officer required by law to provide official ballots for a local election within the county held at a time other than the general election. Any form, however, which complies substantially with this section, may be used.

§ 115. Form of return of votes upon question submitted. The return of votes upon constitutional amendments or other questions submitted, including town propositions and town appropriations, shall be in all respects like the form for the return of votes for officers except in the following particulars:

§ 118. Determination upon absentee voters' application for ballots; delivery of ballots. 1. Upon receipt of such affidavit the board of elections shall determine upon such inquiry as it deems proper whether the applicant is a voter legally qualified to vote at such election, and if it finds he is not so qualified shall reject the application. An affidavit by any officer or employee of the board of elections or any police officer, sheriff or deputy sheriff, or a special deputy attorney-general appointed pursuant to the executive law, that he visited the premises claimed by the applicant as his residence and that he interrogated an inmate, housedweller, keeper, caretaker, owner, proprietor or landlord thereof or therein as to such applicant's residence therein or thereat, and that he was informed by one or more of such persons, naming them, that they knew the persons residing upon such premises and that the applicant did not reside upon such premises thirty days before the election, shall be sufficient authority for a determination by the board that the applicant is not entitled to an absentee voter's ballot; but this provision shall not preclude the board from making such determination as the result of other inquiry. The board may, and if any member thereof shall so require, shall defer delivery of the ballot to the applicant until after the last day of registration and until it shall have ascertained that he is duly registered.

2. Except in the case of the occupations specifically enumerated in the preceding section, the board shall determine whether the duties, occupation or business of the applicant, as set forth in his affidavit, are of a nature ordinarily to require absence from the state or county or ordinarily to require traveling beyond the boundaries of the state or county, and shall determine, if they are found not to be of such a nature, whether the special circumstances, as set forth in the affidavit, are sufficient.

3. If the board shall find that the applicant is a qualified voter of the election district containing his residence as stated in his affidavit, and that his affidavit is sufficient, it shall, as soon as practicable after it shall have determined his right thereto, deliver to him, at the office of the board, or if he shall have so requested to a member of his family, or if he shall have so requested shall mail to him at an address in the United States designated by him, an absentee voter's ballot or set of ballots, and an envelope therefor. If the ballot or ballots are to be sent by mail, such determination shall be made at a time which will afford an opportunity for the transmission and due return of the ballot or ballots in the usual course of mail, depending on the location of the mailing address, and which will allow at least one secular day for marking the ballot or ballots, making the necessary affidavit and re-mailing; but the investigations shall be concluded and determinations made as to all applicants not later than the second Wednesday before election.

4. The board shall keep a record of applications, as they are received, for absentee voters' ballots, showing the names and residences of the applicants, and, as soon as practicable, shall give to the chairman of the county committee of each party a complete list of all applicants to whom absentee voters' ballots have been delivered.

§ 119. Ballots for absentee voters; lists of candidates. 1. In the city of New York the ballots for absentee voters shall be, as nearly as practicable, in the same form as those to be voted in the district of the applicant on election day, except that the stub shall be endorsed with the words, printed or stamped, "Absentee Voter's Ballot." In such city, if the name of any candidate nominated is not shown on the ballot sent, the board of elections shall send with the ballot a notice specifying the name of such candidate, the office to which and the party or body by which he was nominated.

2. Elsewhere than in the city of New York there shall be one form of ballot for the absentee voters residing in each assembly district, which shall contain the names of all nominated candidates, so far as known, to be voted for by all the voters of the assembly district; but where a city is wholly within an assembly district, or an assembly district is partly within and partly outside of a city, if there are any city officers to be elected who may be voted for by all the voters of the city, there shall be separate ballots for absentee voters of such assembly district residing within and outside of the city, respectively, in such manner that the ballots for voters residing within the city shall contain the names of all nominated candidates, so far as known, to be voted for by all the voters of such district and of such city.

The names of candidates whose names are required to appear upon the ballot shall be printed in appropriate sections, with titles of offices, section numbers, emblems, voting squares, names of parties and political organizations and blank spaces for writing in names of candidates, as provided upon the regular official ballots. Following such matter, in as many columns as may be necessary, there shall be printed the titles, as near as may be, of all offices to be filled at such election, except offices as to which the names of nominated candidates are required to be printed. The offices shall be classified by appropriate descriptions, such as ward or town offices, using appropriate descriptions for other classes, if any. The title of each class shall be printed above the titles of offices in such class. Below the title of each such office shall be a space or spaces for writing in the name or names of the person or persons for whom the voter desires to vote. Approximately, one-half inch shall be allowed for the title of each class of offices and one-half inch space for the title of an office and writing in the name of a person as the voter's choice for such office. Except as to the spacing, such offices and titles shall be printed substantially as follows:

WARD OFFICES.

For supervisor of the ward of the city of (name of city to be printed if there is a separate ballot for any city officers).

For alderman of the ward of the city of (name of city to be printed if there is a separate ballot for any city officers).

TOWN OFFICES.

For supervisor of the town of (name of town to be written or stamped in by the board).

For justice of the peace, town of (name of town to be written or stamped in by the board).

Before the delivering or mailing of the ballot to the voter the description of the office shall be completed by writing or stamping in the name of the proper town, or number of the ward, or otherwise.

At the head of the ballot shall be printed the following instructions:

INSTRUCTIONS.

1. Mark only with a pencil having black lead.
2. To vote for a candidate whose name is printed on this ballot, make a single cross X mark in a blank square to the right of an emblem opposite his name.
3. To vote for a person whose name is not printed on this ballot write his name on a blank line under the names of candidates, or under the title of the office if the names of any candidates for that office are not printed. In such case, consult the list of candidates to see how many persons are to be elected to such office.
4. Any other mark or any erasure on this ballot is unlawful.

The ballot for electors of president and vice-president of the United States shall be separate and in the same form as the ballot for such electors to be voted by other voters.

The separate ballot or ballots upon constitutional amendments, propositions or questions, to be sent to absentee voters shall be in the same form as such ballots to be voted by other voters.

On the back of such ballots for absentee voters shall be printed the words "Official Ballot, Absentee Voters," followed by a word or words generally descriptive of the ballot, such as "General Officers," "Presidential Electors," "Constitutional Amendments and Propositions."

If the names of any candidates nominated in any county for whom any absentee voter may vote are not printed upon the ballot sent to absentee voters, the board of elections shall print a list, classified by assembly districts, of the names of all such candidates not so shown, nominated in the county, specifying the titles of the offices for which and the names of the parties or bodies by which they were nominated, and shall send one such list to every absentee voter to whom it is sending a ballot so incomplete.

§ 121. Enrollment blanks for absentee voters whose registration is not personal. If a voter who applies for an absentee voter's ballot is not required to register personally, and he shall have included in his application for a ballot a request for an enrollment blank, the board of elections shall furnish to him with his ballot an enrollment blank, in the form prescribed by section one hundred and seventy-two, except that in place of the matter preceding the words "that I am in general sympathy," there shall be substituted the words "I, ..., an applicant for an absentee voter's ballot, hereby declare." Separate printed forms for each town and election district shall not be printed. The board shall write in on the blank sent the name of the county, town and number of the election district.

§ 122. Method of voting by absentee voter. The absentee voter, at any place within or without the state, but within the United States, may mark an official ballot provided for in this article, as follows: Where the office is one under whose title the names of any candidate are printed, he may vote for a candidate or person for such office in the manner prescribed for voting the regular official ballot. To vote for a person or persons for any other office, if he is lawfully entitled to vote for a person for that office, the voter may write in the blank space beneath the title of the office the name or names of the person or persons for whom he desires to vote, not exceeding the number to be elected to that office. He shall also fill the necessary blank spaces to complete the title of the office, if the board of elections has omitted to do so. He shall make no mark or writing whatsoever upon the ballot, except as above prescribed, and shall see that it bears no such mark or writing. He shall make no mark or writing whatsoever on the outside of the ballot. A voter whose registration was not required to be personal and who did not enroll on a day of registration and who received with his ballot an enrollment blank may mark such blank in the manner provided for marking a regular enrollment blank. After marking the ballot or ballots, and the enrollment blank if any, he shall fold each such ballot or blank and enclose them in the envelope and seal the envelope. He shall then take and subscribe the oath on the envelope, with blanks properly filled in. The envelope, containing the ballot or ballots, shall then be mailed or delivered to the board of elections of the county or city of his residence.

§ 123. Preservation of ballots; judicial or legislative examination. Except as hereinafter provided, packages of protested, void and wholly blank ballots, packages of unused ballots and all absentee voters' envelopes, if any, opened or unopened, shall be preserved inviolate for six months after the election. Except as hereinafter provided, boxes containing voted ballots shall be preserved inviolate for six months after the election, or until one week before the next election occurring within six months, if such boxes are needed for use at such next election and if the officer or board in charge of such voted ballots is required by law to furnish ballot boxes therefor. Provided, however, that ballot boxes and such packages may be opened, and their contents and the absentee voters' envelopes may be examined, upon the order of any court or justice of competent jurisdiction. Boxes containing ballots voted, at a general or special election, for the office of member of the senate or assembly, packages of void, protested and wholly blank ballots, unopened absentee voters' envelopes and the packages of unused ballots, in connection with such election, also may be opened, and their contents and such envelopes also may be examined, by direction of a committee of the senate or assembly to investigate and report on contested elections of members of the legislature. Unless otherwise ordered or directed by such a court, justice or committee, such boxes shall be opened and their contents and such packages and envelopes shall be destroyed, at the expiration of the period during which they are required by the provisions of this section to be preserved, except that instead of being destroyed, they may be sold and the proceeds paid over in the manner provided with respect to the sale of books, records and papers pertaining to an election.

§ 124. Preservation and disposal of books, records and papers. Except as otherwise provided in this section or this chapter, all petitions, certificates, objections or papers filed or deposited with a board or officer before an election or primary and relating to designations or nominations, and all registers, books, statements, returns or papers so filed or deposited after a registration, enrollment, election or primary at which they were used or to which they relate, not including, however, the voted, unused, protested, void or wholly blank ballots, shall be preserved by such board or officer for at least two years after the receipt thereof and until the determination of any action or proceeding touching the same or in which they are ordered to be preserved pending the action or proceeding. At the expiration of such time, they may be either destroyed or sold. Provided, however, that the following shall not be destroyed or sold but shall be preserved, as part of the records of such board or officer, until otherwise provided by law, to wit: poll-books, if any, containing signatures of voters; one register, in the office of the board of elections, for each election district where registration is not required to be personal, which contains names of the parties with which the voters enroll, unless there be in such office a printed pamphlet list of enrolled voters; registers containing signatures of voters made on a day of registration or general election; card lists, if any, of registered voters; identification statements for registration day; the original statements of results made by the state board of canvassers or a county or city board of canvassers; any original record specifying the name of a person declared to have been elected to a public office.

Upon the sale of any property authorized by this section to be destroyed or sold, the proceeds shall be paid over as follows: If sold by the board of elections, the proceeds shall be paid into the county treasury, or, in the city of New York, into the city treasury. If sold by the clerk of a city, town or village, the proceeds shall be paid to its fiscal officer for its benefit. Proceeds of the sale of any such property in the office of the secretary of state shall be paid over as provided by law with respect to other state moneys in the hands of a state officer.

§ 131. Party nominations. 1. Party nominations of candidates for the office of elector of president and vice-president of the United States, one for each congressional district and two at large, shall be made by the state committee.

2. Party nominations of candidates for any other office to be filled by the voters of the entire state shall be made by state convention, except that a party, by rule adopted at a state convention preceding a general election in an even numbered year, may provide that its nominations of candidates for any such office to be filled in an odd-numbered year may be made by its state committee.

3. Party nominations of candidates for the office of justice of the supreme court shall be made by judicial district convention.

4. Party nominations of candidates for city offices to be filled at a regular city election held at a time other than that of a general election shall be made directly by enrolled party voters at unofficial primaries.

5. Party nominations of candidates for town and village offices, in any county, shall be made in the manner prescribed by the rules of the county committee, heretofore or hereafter adopted, except that party nominations for village offices, or for town offices to be filled at a time other than that of a general election, shall not be made at the primary elections. In the absence or until the adoption of such a rule, nominations for such offices may be made in accordance with the existing practice in the county. If a rule of the county committee provide that party candidates for town offices, in any town or towns of the county, to be filled at the time of general election, shall be nominated at the fall primary preceding the election, such rule shall not apply to nor affect a fall primary occurring less than sixty days after a certified copy of the rule shall have been filed with the board of elections. After the filing of such a copy of a rule heretofore or hereafter adopted, the rule shall continue in force until a certified copy of a rule revoking the same shall have been filed with such board at least sixty days before a subsequent fall primary preceding an election for filling such offices.

6. Party nominations for an office to be filled at a special election shall be made in the manner prescribed by the rules of the party.

7. A party nomination of a candidate for election to fill a vacancy, occurring after the fifth Tuesday preceding the fall primary, in an elective office required to be filled at the next general election, if it be an office for which party nominations might otherwise be made at a fall primary or by a convention of delegates chosen at such a primary, shall be filled, after the day of such primary, by a majority vote of a quorum of the state committee, if the vacancy occur in an office to be filled by all the voters of the state, and otherwise by a majority of a quorum of the members of the county committee or committees last elected in the political subdivision in which such vacancy is to be filled or by such other committee as the rules of the party may provide.

8. Party nominations of candidates for all offices to be filled at a general election, except as above provided, shall be made at the preceding fall primary.

9. Certificates of such nominations, made otherwise than at a fall primary, shall contain the name of the party which the body making the nomination represents, the title of the office for which each person is nominated, the name and residence of each such person, and if in a city, the street number of such residence and his place of business, if any, may name the committee, if any, appointed to fill vacancies in the nominations, and shall be signed by the presiding officer and a secretary of the body making the nomination, and appended to the certificate shall be their affidavit that they were such officers and that the statements in such certificate are true. When a nomination is made by a committee other than one composed of members of a state committee or a county committee, a certified copy of the rule or resolution constituting such committee, shall, if a copy thereof shall not have been filed previously, be attached to the certificate.

The provisions of the section are subject to the provisions of this article relating to nominations to fill vacancies in nominations and nominations by a new party.

§ 132. Conventions. 1. A state or judicial district convention shall be constituted by the election at the preceding fall primary, from each assembly district, of delegates and of any alternate delegates provided for by party rules. The number of delegates and alternates, if any, from each district shall be determined by party rules, but the number of delegates from each assembly district shall be substantially in accordance with the ratio which the number of votes cast for the party candidate for governor at the last preceding general state election in such unit bears to the total vote cast at such election for such candidate in the entire state, and the number of alternates from any assembly district shall not exceed the number of delegates therefrom. If, by reason of a change in the boundaries of assembly districts after an election of governor, the exact vote at such election in the territory constituting an altered district is not ascertainable, such vote, for the purposes of this section, shall be estimated. The delegates certified or adjudicated to have been elected as such, in the manner provided in this chapter, shall be conclusively entitled to their seats, rights and votes as delegates to such convention. When a duly elected delegate does not attend the convention, his place shall be taken by one of the certified alternates, if any, to be substituted in his place, in the order in which the name of such alternate appears upon the certified list, and if no alternates shall have been elected or if no alternates appear at such convention, then the delegates present from the same assembly district shall select a person to fill the vacancy.

2. The time, subject to the provisions of section one hundred and forty, and the place of meeting of a state convention shall be fixed by the state committee and the time and place of meeting of a judicial district committee shall be fixed by a committee appointed pursuant to the rules of the state committee. The room designated for the meeting place of a convention shall have ample seating capacity for all delegates and alternates. Every convention shall be called to order by the chairman of the committee with whom the call originates or by a person designated in writing for that purpose by such chairman, or, if he fails to make such designation, then by a person designated in such manner as the rules of the party shall prescribe. Such chairman or person designated shall have the custody of the roll of the convention until it shall have been organized. No such convention shall proceed to the election of a temporary chairman or transact any business until the time fixed for the opening thereof nor until a majority of the delegates or respective alternates named in the official roll shall be present. The roll call upon the election of temporary chairman shall not be delayed more than one hour after the time specified in the call for the opening of the convention, provided a majority of the delegates, including alternates sufficient to make up such majority by substitution, are present. The person who calls the convention to order shall exercise no other function than that of calling the official roll of the delegates upon the vote for temporary chairman and declaring the result thereof.

3. The temporary chairman shall be chosen upon a call of the official roll. The committees of the convention shall be appointed by the convention, or by the temporary chairman, as the convention may order. Unless the convention shall otherwise order, the permanent chairman shall be chosen on roll call. When the vote of such convention is taken upon the nomination of candidates for public office, the roll of the delegates shall be called and each delegate when his name is called shall arise in his place and announce his choice, except that the chairman of a delegation from any assembly district may, unless a member of such delegation objects, announce the vote of such delegation. The convention may appoint a committee to nominate candidates to fill vacancies in nominations made by the convention and caused by the death, declination or disqualification of a candidate. The permanent officers shall keep the records of the convention.

4. Within seventy-two hours after adjournment, the minutes of the convention, duly certified by the chairman and secretary, shall be filed with the secretary of state, except that the minutes of a judicial district convention in the first judicial district shall be filed with the board of elections of the city of New York.

§ 133. First nominations by a new party. When an independent body shall have become a party at a general election, nominations of such party for all offices to be filled at the first general election thereafter, and at any election held prior to such first general election, may be made in such manner as the rules of such party may provide. A certificate of such nominations, containing the title of the office for which each person is nominated, the name and residence of each such person, a representation of the device or emblem selected to designate and distinguish the candidates of such party, and, if in a city, the street number of the residence of each such candidate and his place of business, if any, shall be signed by the chairman and secretary of the body making such nominations. If such certificate shall not show such an emblem, an emblem shall be selected for such party in the manner prescribed for an independent body. The certificate may appoint a committee to fill vacancies. No board or officer shall receive for filing any such certificate of nomination unless a copy of the rules of such party, describing the rule-making body, also shall have been filed in its or his office. If there be any question or conflict relating to the rules or to the rule-making body, rules which a majority of the candidates of such party for offices to be filled by all the voters of the state, nominated by independent certificate and voted for at the general election at which it became a party, shall certify to have been duly adopted by a convention, committee or body thereto authorized, describing it, shall be controlling.

§ 136. Rules concerning designating petitions. 1. A designating petition may designate candidates for nomination for one or more public offices or for election to one or more party positions, or both, but designations, petitions for which are required to be filed in different offices, may not be united in the same petition. All papers signed and authenticated as provided in this article for the purpose of designating the same candidate for nomination for the same public office or party position, when bound together and offered for filing, shall be deemed to constitute one petition in respect of such candidate.

2. A petition must be signed by not less than three per centum, as determined by the preceding enrollment, of the enrolled voters of the party residing within the political unit in which the office or position is to be voted for, provided, however, that for the following public offices the number of signatures need not exceed the following limits: for any office to be filled by all the voters of the city of New York, one thousand five hundred signatures; for any office to be filled by all the voters of any other city of the first class or of any county or borough containing more than two hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants according to the last preceding federal or state enumeration, one thousand signatures; for any office to be filled by all the voters of any county or borough containing more than twenty-five thousand and not more than two hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants, according to such enumeration, or of any city of the second class or of any municipal court district in the city of New York or of any congressional or senatorial district, five hundred signatures; for any office to be filled by all the voters of any other county, or of any city of the third class, or of any assembly district, or of any aldermanic district in the city of New York, two hundred and fifty signatures; for any office to be filled by the voters of any political subdivision contained within another political subdivision, not to exceed the number of signatures required for the larger subdivision; and for any office to be filled by the voters of a political subdivision containing more than one assembly district, county or other political subdivision not to exceed the aggregate of the signatures required for the subdivisions or parts of subdivisions so contained.

The number of signatures on a petition to designate a candidate or candidates for the position of delegate or alternate to a state or judicial district convention or member of the state committee need not exceed the number required for a petition for member of assembly, and to designate a candidate or candidates for the position of district delegate to a national party convention need not exceed the number required for a petition for representative in congress.

3. If an enrolled voter shall sign any petition or petitions designating a greater number of candidates for public office or party position than the number of persons to be elected thereto his signatures, if they bear the same date, shall not be counted upon any petition, and if they bear different dates shall be counted in the order of their priority of date, for only so many designees as there are persons to be elected.

§ 137. Independent nominations. 1. Independent nominations for public office may be made by a petition, which petition shall be substantially in the following form:

I, the undersigned, do hereby state that I am a duly qualified voter of the political unit for which a nomination for public office is hereby made, that my place of residence is truly stated opposite my signature hereto and that I intend to support at the ensuing election, and I do hereby nominate the following named person (or persons) as a candidate (or as candidates) for nomination for public office (or public offices) to be voted for at the election to be held on the day of, 19.., and that I select the name (fill in not more than five words) as the name of the independent body making the nomination (or nominations) and (fill in emblem), as the emblem of such body.

Name of candidate	Public office	Place of residence	Place of business
.....
.....

I do hereby appoint (here insert the name and addresses of at least three persons, all of whom shall be voters) as a committee to fill vacancies in accordance with the provisions of the election law.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand the day and year placed opposite my signature.

Date	Name of signer	Residence	Election district, town or ward
.....

2. The petition shall be verified by the signers, or authenticated by witness, in the manner provided in section one hundred and thirty-five, in respect of a designating petition.

3. The emblem shown upon such petition shall conform to the requirements of section twenty, relating to a party emblem. If such a petition shall not show an emblem, the officer or board in whose office the petition is filed shall select an emblem to distinguish the candidates nominated thereby, except that if such petition be for the nomination of a candidate or candidates to be voted for by the voters of the entire state, the secretary of state shall select an emblem to distinguish the candidates of the independent body named in the petition, throughout the state.

4. An independent nominating petition for candidates to be voted for by all the voters of the state must be signed by at least twelve thousand voters, of whom at least fifty shall reside in each county of the state, the counties of Fulton and Hamilton to be considered as one county. Such a petition for a village office must be signed by voters numbering five per centum of the number of voters at the last regular village election. Such a petition for the nomination of candidates for an office to be filled by the voters of any other political unit must be signed by voters numbering five per centum of the total number of votes cast for governor at the last gubernatorial election in such unit; but not more than three thousand signatures shall be required upon any such petition for any office to be filled in any political subdivision of the state, and not more than one thousand five hundred signatures upon any such petition for any office to be filled in any county or portion thereof. The name of a person signing such a petition for an election for which voters are required to be registered shall not be counted unless such person shall, on one of the days of registration, in such year, be registered as a qualified voter. If the name of a person who has signed such a petition appear upon another petition nominating the same or a different person for the same office, it shall not be counted on either petition.

or nominated for an office otherwise than at a primary election, may, in a certificate signed and acknowledged by him, and filed as provided in this article, decline the designation or nomination, or, if nominated by more than one party or independent body, may decline the nomination as a candidate of a specified party or independent body. The officer or board to whom or which such notification is given forthwith shall inform by mail or otherwise the committee authorized to fill the vacancy, that the designation or nomination has been declined, and if such declination be filed with the secretary of state, such officer also shall give immediate notice by mail or otherwise that such designation or nomination has been declined, to the several boards of elections which prepare the official ballots for election districts affected by such declination. When a person who was not designated for nomination at a primary election receives a nomination for public office at such primary election the officer or board with whom or which a designating petition for such an office is required to be filed forthwith shall notify, by mail, such person of his nomination. A person nominated as aforesaid, without designation, at a primary election, may decline such nomination not later than the fifth Tuesday preceding the general election for which he was nominated, and the vacancy may be filled not later than the fourth Tuesday preceding such election. A person whose name is printed on the primary ballot of a party, as a candidate for nomination by it to public office, and who is nominated therefor at the primary election, may not decline such nomination.

§ 139. Filling vacancies in designations and nominations. A vacancy in a designation or nomination, caused by declination, where a declination is permitted by this article, or by the death or disqualification of the candidate, or by a tie vote at a fall primary or at an unofficial primary held for the nomination of candidates for city offices to be filled at a time other than that of the general election, may be filled by the making and filing of a certificate, setting forth the fact and cause of the vacancy, the name of the original candidate, if any, and the name, address and occupation of the candidate newly designated or nominated.

A vacancy in a designation or independent nomination, or in a party nomination made otherwise than at a fall primary, may be filled by a majority of the committee to fill vacancies shown upon the face of the petition or certificate of the designation or nomination in which the vacancy occurs, or, in the case of a tie vote at an unofficial primary held for the party nomination of candidates for city offices to be filled at a time other than that of the general election, by a majority of such committee as the rules of the county committee shall provide.

A vacancy in a nomination made at a fall primary, or by a tie vote thereat, may be filled by a majority of a quorum of the members of the county committee or committees last elected in the political subdivision in which such vacancy occurs, or by a majority of such other committee as the rules of the party may provide.

If the vacancy be filled by a committee named in a petition or certificate of nomination or designation, the new certificate shall be signed by a majority of such committee; if filled by any other committee, it shall be signed by the presiding officer and secretary of the committee. Appended to the certificate shall be the affidavit of the persons signing the certificate that they were a majority of such committee, or such officers, as the case may be, and that the statements in such certificate are true.

If a person be designated to fill a vacancy in a designation caused by a declination thereof, the certificate designating such persons shall have appended thereto his written consent to be so designated, duly acknowledged.

When a certificate of a new designation or nomination shall be filed with the secretary of state, he shall forthwith certify to the proper board of elections the name of the person designated or nominated by such certificate and such other facts as are required to be stated therein.

§ 140. Times for filing petitions and certificates and for holding conventions. 1. A designating petition shall be filed not earlier than the fifth Tuesday and not later than the fourth Tuesday preceding the primary election.

2. A declination of a designation shall be filed not later than the third day after the fourth Tuesday preceding the primary election.

3. A certificate to fill a vacancy in a designation caused by declination shall be filed not later than the third Tuesday preceding the primary election.

4. A state convention for nominating candidates for public office or a judicial district convention shall be held not earlier than the day following the sixth Tuesday preceding the general election.

5. A certificate of party nomination for an office to be filled at the time of a general election shall be filed not later than the fifth Tuesday preceding such election, and for an office to be filled at an election at a time other than that of a general election shall be filed not later than twenty-one days preceding such election.

6. A certificate of declination of a party nomination for an office to be filled at the time of a general election shall be filed not later than the third day after the fifth Tuesday preceding such election, and for an office to be filled at an election at a time other than that of a general election shall be filed not later than eighteen days preceding such election.

7. A certificate to fill a vacancy caused by declination of a party nomination for an office to be filled at the time of a general election shall be filed not later than the fourth Tuesday preceding such election, and for an office to be filled at an election at a time other than that of a general election shall be filed not later than fourteen days preceding such election.

8. A petition for an independent nomination for an office to be filled at the time of a general election shall be filed not earlier than the fifth Tuesday and not later than the fourth Tuesday preceding such election, and for an office to be filled at an election at a time other than that of a general election shall be filed not later than fourteen days preceding such election.

9. A certificate of declination of an independent nomination for an office to be filled at the time of a general election shall be filed not later than the third day after the fourth Tuesday preceding such election, and for an office to be filled at an election at a time other than that of a general election shall be filed not later than eleven days preceding such election.

10. A certificate to fill a vacancy caused by declination of an independent nomination for an office to be filled at a time other than that of a general election shall be filed not later than the sixth day after the fourth Tuesday preceding such election, and for an office to be filled at an election at a time other than that of a general election shall be filed not later than eight days preceding such election.

If a vacancy described in subdivision seven of section one hundred and thirty-one occur too late to comply with the provisions of this section, the certificates of nomination, declination and to fill a vacancy in such nomination shall be filed as soon as practicable.

§ 141. Places for filing petitions and certificates; record; notices to candidates. The places for filing the petitions and certificates specified in this article shall be respectively as follows: for an office or position to be voted for wholly within the city of New York in the office of the board of elections of that city; elsewhere, for an office or position to be voted for in a district greater than a county, in the office of the secretary of state; for the office of member of assembly for Fulton and Hamilton counties, in the office of the board of elections of Fulton county, and a certified copy thereof in the office of the board of elections of Hamilton county; for a city, town or village office to be filled at an election held at a time other than that of a general election in the office of the city, town or village clerk; in all other cases in the office of the board of elections of the county. All such petitions and certificates shall at the time of the filing thereof be endorsed by such officer or board with the day, hour and minute of such filing. Such officer or board shall keep a book, which shall be open to public inspection, in which shall be entered the times of filing all such petitions and certificates; the names and residences of all candidates named therein; the names and residences of all candidates certified to such officer or board; the title of the office or party position, the name of the party or independent body to which the petition or certificate relates and a memorandum of any objections to such petition or certificate. Forthwith upon the filing of a petition designating a person or persons for nomination to public office, such officer or board shall mail notice thereof to each such person.

any petition or certificate of designation or nomination may be filed with the officer or board with whom the original petition or certificate is filed within three days after the filing of the petition or certificate to which objection is made, except that if by any independent nominating petition any person is nominated who is at the time or shall be after the filing of such petition, the candidate of a party for the same office and the party certificate has been filed or party nomination made after the filing of such petition, the written objection to such petition may be filed within three days after the filing of such party certificate or the making of such party nomination.

When a determination of such objections is made, or, no objections having been filed, when a determination is made that a certificate or petition is insufficient, such officer or board shall give notice of the determination forthwith by mail to each candidate named in the petition or certificate, and, if the determination is made upon objections, to the objector.

§ 143. Special provisions affecting unofficial primaries in cities, and town and village caucuses. A notice of any unofficial primary held for making party nominations of candidates for city offices to be filled at a regular city election held at a time other than the general election shall be given by the proper party authorities by publication at least once in each of the two weeks preceding the primary in at least one newspaper published in the city. A notice of any party caucus held for making party nominations of candidates for town or village offices shall be given by the proper party authorities either by newspaper publication thereof once within the town or village at least one week and not more than two weeks, or by posting in ten public places in the town or village at least ten days, preceding the caucus. The notice shall specify the time and place or places, and the purpose, of the primary or caucus. For such an unofficial primary in a city, there shall be at least one polling place in each ward. There shall be a chairman and secretary, and there may be tellers, for each such unofficial primary or caucus, and they shall take the constitutional oath of office before acting. No person shall participate in such an unofficial primary in a city unless he is an enrolled party voter as shall appear from a transcript of the enrollment from the register, and the rules of the county committee in which the town is located may make the same requirement with respect to a caucus for the nomination of candidates for town offices. Unofficial primaries and town and village caucuses described in this section shall be held at the expense of the party. Subject to the foregoing provisions, the county committee of the county containing the city, town or village may prescribe rules governing the conduct of the unofficial primaries and caucuses described in this section.

183. Opening of enrollment box and completion of enrollment.

184. Application for special enrollment, transfer or correction of enrollment.

185. Duties of board of elections in respect of special enrollments, transfers and corrections.

§ 150. Qualifications of voters. A person is a qualified voter in any election district for the purpose of having his or her name placed on the register if he or she is or will be on the day of the election qualified to vote at the election for which such registration is made. A qualified voter is a citizen who is or will be on the day of election twenty-one years of age, and who has been an inhabitant of the state for one year next preceding the election, and for the last four months a resident of the county, and for the last thirty days a resident of the election district in which he or she offers his or her vote. If a naturalized citizen, such person must, in addition to the foregoing provision, have been naturalized at least ninety days prior to the day of election, or, if a citizen by marriage, must have been an inhabitant of the United States for five years and married ninety days prior to such day. In the case of a person who became entitled to vote by attaining majority, by naturalization or otherwise after January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, such person must, in addition to the foregoing provisions, be able, except for physical disability, to read and write English. A "new voter," within the meaning of this and the next article, is a person who, if he is entitled to vote in this state, shall have become so entitled by attaining majority, by naturalization or otherwise after January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

§ 153. Annual meetings for registration. 1. Except in the city of New York, the board of inspectors for each election district in every city having five thousand inhabitants or more, or wholly or partly within a village having five thousand inhabitants or more, shall hold, before every general election, four meetings for the registration of the voters thereof, at the place designated therefor, to be known respectively as the first, second, third and fourth meetings for registration. Such meetings shall be held on the fourth Friday, fourth Saturday, third Friday and third Saturday before such election. Each meeting except the last shall begin at ten o'clock, and the last meeting at seven o'clock, in the forenoon, and each meeting shall continue until ten o'clock in the evening.

2. The board of inspectors for each election district other than an election district in a city or village having five thousand inhabitants or more shall hold before every general election two meetings for the registration of the voters thereof, at the place designated therefor, to be known respectively as the first and second meetings for registration. Such meetings shall be held on the fourth and third Saturdays before such election. The first meeting shall begin at seven o'clock in the forenoon and the second at one o'clock in the afternoon, and each meeting shall continue until ten o'clock in the evening.

3. The board of inspectors for each election district in the city of New York shall hold before every general election six meetings for the registration of the voters thereof at the place designated therefor. Such meetings shall begin on Monday the twenty-ninth day before such election and continue on each day of the same week up to and including Saturday. On each day except Saturday the meeting shall begin at five o'clock in the evening, and on Saturday at seven o'clock in the morning, and each meeting shall continue until half past ten o'clock in the evening.

§ 154. Method of registration in cities and villages of five thousand inhabitants or more. In cities and villages having five thousand inhabitants or more, the names of such persons only as personally appear before the inspectors, and who are or will be at the election for which the registration is made, qualified voters, shall be registered for a general election, except that whenever any election district in a village having five thousand inhabitants or more shall embrace within its boundaries territory without the limits of such village, the inspectors shall, at their first meeting for registration for a general election, place upon such register the names of all persons appearing on the register of the last preceding general election who reside without the limits of such village but within the election district and who voted at such last preceding general election, except the names of such voters as are proven to the satisfaction of such inspectors to have ceased to be voters since such general election or to have moved within the limits of such village. They shall also place upon such register, at their first and subsequent meetings, the names of all other persons residing without the limits of the village and within such election district who are known or proven to the satisfaction of the inspectors to be then or thereafter entitled to vote at such election and who reside within such election district but without the limits of such village. The provisions of the next section in relation to the registration of new voters shall apply to a new voter residing without the limits of the village. A qualified voter in such an election district residing outside of such village may apply, but is not required to apply, in person to be registered.

§ 155. Method of registration in election districts outside of cities and villages of five thousand inhabitants or more. At the first meeting for registration in any election district wholly outside of a city or village having five thousand inhabitants or more the inspectors shall place upon the register the names of all persons who voted at the last preceding general election, as shown by the register of such election, except the names of such voters as are proven to the satisfaction of such inspectors to have ceased to be voters in such district since such general election, and also at such first meeting and at the second meeting they shall place on the register the names of all other persons known or proven to the satisfaction of the inspectors to be then or thereafter entitled to vote at such election. In the case of a new voter, unless a majority of the inspectors know or it be proven to their satisfaction that he is able, except for physical disability, to read and write English, the inspectors shall write opposite his name, in the last column of the registers, the word "examine." If any voter shall, upon oath, declare that he has reason to believe that such new voter is not able, except for physical disability, to read and write English, the inspectors shall likewise write opposite his name the word "examine." If no person in the election district is to be examined, the inspectors or one of them shall notify the board of elections, and such board need not provide at the election the printed slips for such an examination.

A qualified voter in such an election district may apply, but is not required to apply, in person, to be registered.

§ 156. Additional meetings for registration, except in the city of New York. If a special election be called by the governor, or an election at which registered voters only may participate be appointed by or pursuant to law for a time other than the day of general election, the inspectors of election of the various election districts in the political subdivision for which such special

§ 157. Registration for other than general elections. 1. In a city or village having five thousand inhabitants or more, at the meeting of the board of inspectors for revising and correcting the register for any election other than a general election, the inspectors shall retain upon the register the names of all persons qualified to vote at such election in the election district which appear upon the register for the preceding general election, except the names of such voters as are proven to the satisfaction of the inspectors to have ceased to be voters of the district, and shall, at such meeting, add only to the register the names of persons qualified as voters who shall personally appear before the board. So far as practicable, the provisions of this chapter relating to registration on a day of annual registration in such a city or village shall apply to the personal registration of such additional voters. If the voter resides within the election district but without the limits of such village, his name shall be placed upon the register, if it be shown to the satisfaction of the board that he is entitled to vote in such district. In all election districts other than in cities or villages having five thousand inhabitants or more, the board of inspectors in preparing for an election other than a general election shall add to the register for the last preceding general election the names of such persons as they know are or are satisfied by proof will be on the day of such election qualified to vote thereat, and shall strike therefrom the names of all persons who are known or are proven to their satisfaction to have ceased to be qualified voters of such election district. If the name of a voter is already on a register to be used at such election in an election district, he shall not apply for registration, nor knowingly allow his name to be registered, for such election, at any such meeting, in another election district, without first notifying the inspectors of the first mentioned district, or at least two of them of opposite political faith, that he is no longer a qualified voter therein and specifying the election district to which he has moved and in which he intends to be registered, and the board of inspectors of the election district from which the voter so states that he has removed shall, at its meeting preceding such election, strike his name from the register of such district, if satisfied that he has removed therefrom, and shall make an entry in their registers specifying the election district to which the voter claims to have removed. If, when a person applies in person to a board of inspectors for such an election, the inspectors or any of them shall know or suspect, or the applicant's answer to the question as to where he last registered or voted, shall disclose, that his name may be on the register for such election in another election district, the inspectors, before placing his name on the register, shall require him to make oath as follows: "I have given the notice required by law to have my name stricken from any other register to be used at this election."

2. In the city of New York, the board of elections shall make the necessary changes in the registers for any election district, for the purposes of a special election, on any day during office hours after the issuance of the proclamation for such election and not later than the second Saturday preceding the election, and applicants for registration therefor may apply for registration in person, and not otherwise, during such times. The board shall have, in respect of any election district in the city, the powers and duties of a board of inspectors at a meeting in a city of over five thousand inhabitants to revise and correct the register for an election held at a time other than that of the general election, except as otherwise provided herein. When an applicant applies to such board of elections for registration for such special election, he shall be required to give under oath his answers to all questions, touching his identity and qualifications, which may be asked. If it shall appear from his answers or otherwise that he was registered for the last preceding general election elsewhere within the city, the board shall examine the register for the election district in which he was so registered and shall compare the information and the signature if any of the voter appearing on such register, or his identification statement if any made on a day of the preceding annual registration, with the information given and signature or identification statement made when he applies to be registered for such special election, and if he is found qualified to be and is registered for such election, the board shall strike his name from the register of such other election district and shall also transfer his enrollment if both districts are in the same county; provided, however, that when an applicant claims to have registered for the preceding general election elsewhere in the city, he shall not be registered for such special election nor shall the name, as given by him, be stricken from the register of any election district unless the board is satisfied of his identity. Applications for registration under this subdivision may be made at the office or branch office of such board within the borough containing the election district in which the applicant seeks to be registered, and the powers and duties of the board may be exercised thereat by all the members of the board, or, if the board shall so direct, by two members of opposite political faith, or by one member and a designated employee of opposite political faith, or by two designated employees of opposite political faith.

3. No voter shall cause his name to be placed, or knowingly permit his name to be placed, upon the register of an election district for any election other than a general election while he has any reason to believe that his name appears upon the register of another election district to be used at such election.

§ 158. Duties of inspectors at registration, in a new election district, for an election other than general election. At a meeting of the board of inspectors for the registration of voters for an election other than a general election, in an election district created since the general election, such inspectors shall make a new register, in duplicate, and shall place thereon the names of all persons whose names are on the copies of registers furnished by the board of elections who appear on such copies as residents of such new district and who are still qualified to vote therein at such election, and the names of other qualified voters in such new district, but in a city or village having five thousand inhabitants or more they shall not register a person whose name is not on any such copy or who does not appear thereon as residing within the territory of such new district, unless he applies in person for registration, except a qualified voter residing in such a district and outside of the village. The board of elections of the city of New York, in the case of such a newly created district and a special election, shall prepare, between the issuance of the proclamation for such election and the second Saturday before the election, a duplicate register for such election, in the manner above provided, from the registers for the several districts out of which the new district is formed and shall register additional voters, if any, in the manner prescribed in the last section. When names are copied pursuant to this section, all entries in connection therewith, relating both to registration and enrollment also shall be copied, and the new registers shall be the registers for a subsequent election or primary occurring before the next general election.

§ 159. Supplying vacancies or absences of inspectors. 1. If at the time of any meeting of the inspectors for registration there shall be a vacancy, or if any inspectors shall be absent, the inspector present who is a member of the same party as the absent inspector shall appoint a qualified voter of the district who is a member of the same party to act in place of the absent inspector for the whole of that day.

2. If at any such meeting two inspectors who are members of the same party shall be absent, the inspector or inspectors present shall appoint qualified voters of the district, who are members of the same party as the absent inspectors, to act until such absent inspectors, or their successors duly appointed by the original appointing authority, shall appear.

3. If at any such meeting there shall be vacancies in all the offices of inspectors, or if no inspector shall appear within one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of such meeting, the qualified voters of the district present, not less than ten, may name four qualified voters of the district, equally divided between the two parties entitled to representation, to act until such absent inspectors or their successors duly appointed by the original appointing authority, shall appear.

4. Every person so appointed or named shall take the oath of office. A person appointed or named for temporary service shall receive no pay unless he shall serve for the whole or the remainder of the day.

§ 160. General provisions as to conduct of meetings. No part of a day fixed for the registration of voters shall be deemed a holiday so as to affect any meeting or proceeding of the board of inspectors for registration. All meetings of the board of inspectors for registration shall be public. An American flag, approximately three feet by five feet in size, shall be displayed in each place of registration during the hours of registration. The place of registration and the enrollment booths shall be kept clearly lighted. Before entering on their duties the inspectors of each district shall appoint one of their number chairman, to serve as such during his term of office, or if a majority shall not agree upon such an appointment, they shall draw lots for that position. The inspectors shall act as a board and a majority thereof shall decide questions. In each election district in a town, where paper ballots or two voting machines are to be used, the two inspectors of each party, at the first meeting for registration following the appointment of inspectors for such a district, shall appoint a clerk who shall be a voter and a member of such party, to represent such party, to serve on election day during the term of the inspectors appointing him. There shall be no smoking in any place of registration in any church or school. The map or maps furnished showing the election district shall in cities be posted in the place of registration and shall remain posted until the close of the general election. No political banner, poster or placard shall be allowed in or upon the place of registration during any day of registration. Where an oath is required or permitted by this article at any meeting for registration, any inspector may administer it. The inspectors, and each of them, shall preserve good order within and around the place of registration and keep access thereto unobstructed. The board or any member thereof by order in writing may direct the arrest of any person refusing to obey the lawful commands of the inspectors, or guilty of disorderly conduct disturbing their proceedings, or violating, or attempting to violate, any of the provisions of this chapter or of the article of the penal law specifying crimes concerning the elective franchise. Any peace officer or any person designated by the board shall execute the order.

§ 161. Watchers. Each political party or independent body duly filing or entitled to file certificates of nominations of candidates for offices to be filled at the election may, by a writing signed by the duly authorized county, city, town or village committee of such political party or independent body, or by the chairman or secretary thereof charged with that duty, and delivered to and filed with one of the inspectors of election, appoint not more than two watchers to attend any meeting or meetings of the inspectors for an election district held for the registration of voters thereof. Each watcher must be a qualified voter of the city or county in which is located the election district for which he is appointed a watcher. Such watchers may be present at such § 162. Register of voters; no registration required for certain elections. The board of inspectors of each election district, at its meetings for registration before the general election in each year, shall make a register in quadruplicate, one copy to be made by each inspector, of those persons, and none other, who are or will be qualified to vote in such district at such election, which register when completed shall be the register of voters of the district for such election. Such register, as the same may be revised or corrected pursuant to this article, or the required number of copies thereof, also shall be used at all other elections, including primaries, held in such district during the year succeeding such general election, except at town meetings and village elections for which no registration is required. No registration of voters shall be required for town or village elections, except as provided in the village law, and except that when a town or village election is held at the same time with a general election all voters in such town or village to be entitled to vote at such town or village election must be registered as provided by law for the registration of voters for any general election in such town or village.

§ 163. General duties of inspectors where registration is required to be personal; identification of illiterates in cities of over fifteen thousand inhabitants. 1. In all election districts where registration is required to be personal, when a voter presents himself for registration, an inspector designated by the board of inspectors shall ascertain from him the information required to be entered in the register. Each inspector shall enter in ink in the appropriate column of the register made by him the information given by such person. The initials of a woman's husband shall not be included in her name nor shall the abbreviation "Mrs." be prefixed to her Christian or given name; and this provision applies also to her signature, in a district where voters sign the register. If it appear from the answers of the person applying for registration or if the inspectors shall know or it be proven to their satisfaction that such person is a new voter, as defined by section one hundred and fifty, he shall not be registered unless it appears to the satisfaction of the board of inspectors, by the test or proof prescribed by section one hundred and sixty-six, that he is able to read and write English, except in the case of such a voter who is shown to be incapacitated therefrom by physical disability.

2. In a city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, if the voter, other than a new voter, alleges his inability to sign his name, or if, in such a city, a new voter who is able, except for physical disability, to write, alleges that by reason only of such disability he is unable to sign his name, one of the inspectors designated by the chairman shall read to the voter the following list of questions from the book of identification statements for registration day, and such inspector shall write in such book the answers of the voter, to such questions: What is your true name? What is or was your father's full name? What is or was your mother's full name? What is your occupation? What is the name of your present employer? If unemployed, what is the name of your last employer? Where is or was his place of business? Are you married or single? Where did you actually reside immediately prior to taking up your present residence; state floor and character of premises? The number on the sheet which contains the voter's answers, in such book, shall be entered by such inspector opposite the voter's name in the registration signature copy of the register, in the column for signatures and numbers of identification statements. Such inspector shall sign and date the certificate at the end of the list of questions so read and answered, which certificate shall be as follows: "I certify that I have read to the above named voter each of the foregoing questions and that I have truly recorded his answers as above to each of the questions." The book of identification statements for registration day shall be kept at all times with the registration signature copy of the register.

§ 164. Form and contents of register in a city of over one million inhabitants. This section shall apply only to the register for an election district within a city of over one million inhabitants. The leaves of such register shall be indexed from A to Z. Such register shall be arranged in thirty-six columns, each to be appropriately entitled to indicate its purposes. In the first column shall be entered at the time of the completion of registration on the last day, but not before, the registration number of each person registered. In column two shall be entered on each day of registration the date of the registration of each voter. In column three shall be entered by the inspectors the enrollment number of the voter. Column four shall be reserved for the name of the party with which the voter enrolls, to be entered in two copies by the board of elections. In column five shall be entered by the inspectors the surnames of the persons registered, in the alphabetical order of the first letters thereof, on the page bearing the index letter of the surname. In column six shall be entered by the inspectors the christian name or names of such persons, respectively and the middle initial or initials, if any. In column seven shall be entered by the inspectors the street number, if any, of the voter's residence. In column eight shall be entered by the inspectors the name of the street or avenue of such residence or a brief description of the locality thereof. Columns nine to seventeen, inclusive, shall be reserved for election and primary day entries, for which three sections of three columns each shall be provided, in the following order: The first section shall be used for entries at, and shall be entitled "general election," the next section shall be used for entries at, and shall be entitled "special election," and the last section shall be used for entries at, and shall be entitled "fall primary," except that in the register to be used during the year of a spring primary, the last two sections shall be used for entries at, and shall be entitled, in the following order, "spring primary" and "fall primary." The three columns in each such section shall be for entering therein on the day of election or primary, in the following order, the number on ballot delivered to voter, number on ballot voted and "remarks" regarding challenges, oaths, assisted voters and other facts required to be recorded. In column eighteen shall be entered the voter's age, except that a voter over thirty years of age may state such age as "over thirty" and have it so entered in the register. In column nineteen shall be entered, if the voter be a citizen by marriage, the length of time that the voter has been an inhabitant of the United States. In column twenty shall be entered the fact as to whether the voter is "married, single or widowed." In columns twenty-one, twenty-two and twenty-three, shall be entered the voter's length of residence by years, months and days, as the case may be, in the state, county and election district, respectively. In column twenty-four shall be entered the country of the voter's nativity, which shall mean the country, state or province of the voter's birth, irrespective of former political allegiance. In column twenty-five, if the voter be a naturalized citizen, shall be entered the date of the naturalization certificate, or, in the case of a woman who claims citizenship by marriage, the name of the person to whom married, and if the husband is a naturalized citizen the date of his naturalization certificate. In column twenty-six shall be entered the designation of the court issuing any such naturalization certificate. In columns twenty-seven, twenty-eight, twenty-nine and thirty shall be entered, respectively, the name of the state, the city or town and the street number and the name of the street or avenue of the residence of such voter from which he last registered or voted, and the year in which he last registered or voted. In column thirty-one shall be entered the number of the room or floor occupied by the voter at the residence stated by him. In column thirty-two shall be entered the full name of the householder, tenant, subtenant or apartment lessee with whom the voter resides. In column thirty-three shall be entered, if the voter is in business for himself or with others, the name under which he is so in business, or if the voter is employed by some other person, the name of his present employer. If he is not in business and has no employment, the word "none" shall be entered, together with the name under which he was last in business or the name of his last employer, if any. In column thirty-four shall be entered the street and number, or if he has no street number, a brief description of the location of the place, if any, where he is so in business or employed, or, if unemployed, the place, if any, where he was last in business or employed. The information required to be stated in columns thirty-three and thirty-four shall be asked only in the event that the person offering to register shall not have registered for the general election immediately preceding in the same election district. Column thirty-five shall be used for the signatures or numbers of identification statements of voters during registration in one copy only of the register. Above each horizontal line in such column shall be printed the words "the foregoing statements are true." The voter, at the time of registration, unless he alleges his inability to write, shall sign his name by his own hand, using an indelible pencil or ink, below such words in such column. The copy used for such signatures at the registration shall be a register other than the public copy, shall be kept by an inspector of opposite political faith from the chairman and shall be known as the "registration signature copy." In column thirty-six, to be known as "registration remarks" column, shall be entered facts regarding challenges, oaths and other matters required to be recorded on a day of registration.

§ 165. Form and contents of register outside of a city of over one million inhabitants. This section shall apply only to the register for an election district outside of a city of over one million inhabitants. The leaves of such register shall be indexed from A to Z. The register for an election district in which the registration is not required to be personal as to any of the voters shall have the first seventeen columns described below and the registration remarks column. The register for any other election district shall have the said seventeen columns, the additional columns hereinafter prescribed and such "registration remarks column," which shall be given the last and highest number. All columns shall be appropriately entitled to indicate their purpose. Subject to the foregoing provisions, the register shall be arranged and prepared as follows:

election

1. In the first column shall be entered at the time of the completion of registration on the last day, but not before, the registration number of each person registered. In column two shall be entered by the inspectors the enrollment number of the voter. In column three shall be entered by the inspectors the surnames of the persons registered, in the alphabetical order of the first letters thereof, on the page bearing the index letter of the surname. In column four shall be entered by the inspectors the christian name or names of such persons, respectively, and the middle initial or initials, if any. In column five shall be entered by the inspectors the street number, if any, of the voter's residence. In column six shall be entered by the inspectors the name of the street or avenue of such residence or a brief description of the locality thereof, and the rural free delivery number, if any. Column seven shall be reserved for the name of the party with which the voter enrolls to be entered by the board of elections. Columns eight to sixteen, inclusive, shall be reserved for election and primary day entries, for which three sections of three columns each shall be provided, in the following order: The first section shall be used for and be entitled "poll-book, fall primary," the next section shall be used for and be entitled "poll book for election other than general or primary election," and the last section shall be used for and be entitled "general election poll-book," except that in the register to be used during the year of a spring primary, the first two sections shall be used for and be entitled, in the following order, "poll-book, spring primary" and "poll-book, fall primary." The three columns in each such section shall be for entering therein on the day of election or primary, in the following order, the number on ballot delivered to voter, number on ballot voted and "remarks" regarding challenges, oaths, assisted voters and other facts required to be recorded. In column seventeen shall be entered by the inspectors on each day of registration the date of the registration of each voter. In the final column, to be known as the "registration remarks" column, shall be entered facts regarding challenges, oaths and other matters required to be recorded on a day of registration.

2. In an election district in which registration is required to be personal as to any of the voters outside of a city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, the register shall have the following additional columns to follow column seventeen for the following entries, to be made on each day of registration: In column eighteen shall be entered the voter's age, except that a voter over thirty years of age may state such age as "over thirty" and have it so entered in the register. In column nineteen shall be entered, if the voter be a citizen by marriage, the length of time that the voter has been an inhabitant of the United States. In column twenty shall be entered the fact as to whether the voter is "married, single or widowed." In columns twenty-one, twenty-two and twenty-three, shall be entered the voter's length of residence by years, months and days, as the case may be, in the state, county and election district, respectively. In column twenty-four shall be entered the country of the voter's nativity, which shall mean the country, state or province of the voter's birth, irrespective of former political allegiance. In column twenty-five, if the voter be a naturalized citizen, shall be entered the date of the naturalization certificate, or, in the case of a woman who claims citizenship by marriage, the name of the person to whom married, and if the husband is a naturalized citizen the date of his naturalization certificate. In column twenty-six shall be entered the designation of the court issuing any such naturalization certificate. In columns twenty-seven, twenty-eight, twenty-nine and thirty shall be entered, respectively, the name of the state, the city or town and the street number and the name of the street or avenue of the residence of such voter from which he last registered or voted, and the year in which he last registered or voted. In column thirty-one shall be entered the number of the room or floor occupied by the voter at the residence stated by him. In the final, or "registration remarks" column, shall be entered the matter specified for such column in subdivision one of this section. If, in a district where such register is used, all of the voters are not required to register personally, the information to be entered concerning voters whose registration is not personal shall consist only of the matters provided for within the first seventeen columns, described in subdivision one of this section, and the "registration remarks" column.

3. In an election district within a city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants and not over one million inhabitants, the register shall have the columns described in subdivision two of this section and also the following additional columns to follow thirty-one, for the following purposes, to be used for entries on each day of registration: In column thirty-two shall be entered the full name of the householder, tenant, subtenant or apartment lessee with whom the voter resides. In column thirty-three shall be entered, if the voter is in business for himself or with others, the name under which he is so in business, or if the voter is employed by some other person, the name of his present employer. If he is not in business and has no employment, the word "none" shall be entered, together with the name under which he was last in business or the name of his last employer, if any. In column thirty-four shall be entered the street and number, or if he has no street number, a brief description of the location of the place, if any, where he is so in business or employed, or, if unemployed, the place, if any, where he was last in business or employed. The information required to be stated in columns thirty-three and thirty-four shall be asked only in the event that the person offering to register shall not have registered for the general election immediately preceding in the same county. Column thirty-five shall be used for the signatures or numbers of identification statements of voters during registration in one copy only of the register. Above each horizontal line in such column shall be printed the words "the foregoing statements are true." The voter, at the time of registration in any such city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, unless he alleges his inability to write, shall sign his name by his own hand, using an indelible pencil or ink, below such words in such column. The copy used for such signatures at the registration shall be a register other than the public copy, shall be kept by an inspector of opposite political faith from the chairman and shall be known as the "registration signature copy." The register in such a city also shall have the final "registration remarks" column, for the entry therein of the matters specified in subdivision one of this section.

§ 166. Test or proof of literacy. 1. There shall be in the place of registration, where registration is required to be personal, one hundred extracts from the constitution of this state, of approximately fifty words each, which extracts shall be selected by the secretary of state. Such extracts shall be printed in English on uniform paste-board slips in double small pica type, and the slips shall be kept by the inspectors in a box so constructed as to conceal the slips from view. The new voter, if required to prove his ability to read and write English, shall draw out at random one of such slips and read aloud intelligibly all of the matter printed thereon and shall then write legibly in English ten words of the matter on such slip, to be selected by an inspector. Each slip shall be returned to the box immediately after each test and the contents of the box shall be shaken up by an inspector before another drawing.

2. A new voter may present to the board of inspectors a certificate of literacy signed by the principal or other head of a public school in the city or town in which the voter applies to be registered, or of any school in such city or town whose course of instruction has been or shall be recognized by the state department of education as being of required standard, to the effect that such principal or head has examined the voter, or his educational credentials, and certifies that the voter is able to read and write English, and that the signature of the voter appended to such certificate was made in the presence of such principal or other head, to which certificate of literacy shall be appended the affidavit of the person signing such certificate that at the time of such examination and the signing of such certificate he was the principal or head, as the case may be, of such school. Thereupon, if the board finds that the voter's signature appended to such certificate of literacy corresponds with his signature, which shall be made by him in the presence of the board, that such voter is the person named in the certificate and that the certificate is genuine, the voter shall not, unless an inspector shall so demand, be required to take the test specified in the foregoing subdivision. The board of regents of the university of the state of New York may adopt and enforce rules governing the issuance, and further authentication, of such certificates of literacy and the preparation or examination of applicants therefor.

§ 167. Illiterate and disabled voters. If, at any meeting for the registration of voters, any person, other than a new voter, entitled to be registered shall appear personally for registration and shall declare to the board of inspectors that he is unable to write by reason of illiteracy, and any person entitled to be registered who shall so appear and shall declare that he will be unable to prepare his ballot without assistance by reason of blindness, or of such a degree of blindness as will prevent him, with the aid of glasses, from seeing the names printed upon the official ballot, loss of both hands, or such total inability of both hands that he cannot use either hand for ordinary purposes, or that he will be unable to enter the voting booth without assistance by reason of disease or crippled condition, the nature of which he must specify, the board of inspectors shall administer an oath to such person in the following language namely: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will be unable to prepare your ballot without assistance, because," and after the word "because," continuing with a statement of such inability to write by reason of illiteracy or of the specific disease or crippled condition assigned by the person as the cause of his alleged disability. Unless the register entries shall show that such person is not a new voter, the following words shall be added to such oath, if the claim for assistance be based on illiteracy: "and that you became entitled to vote within this state on or before January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two." Each inspector shall make a note upon his register, in the registration remarks column, of each instance in which such oath is administered, and of the reason so assigned. If illiteracy be the reason so assigned, each inspector also shall enter the words "not a new voter."

§ 168. Production of naturalization papers. A naturalized citizen, or a citizen by marriage to a naturalized citizen, before being registered, shall produce to the inspectors for their inspection, if any inspector shall require, the naturalization papers upon which his or her citizenship depends, or a certified copy thereof and shall make oath that he is the person purporting to have been naturalized by the papers so produced, or that she is the wife or widow of such person so naturalized, unless such naturalized citizen was naturalized previous to the year eighteen hundred and sixty-seven. If, however, such naturalization papers, or a certified copy thereof, cannot be produced, the board of inspectors may register the applicant upon satisfactory proof of his or her right to be registered.

§ 169. Challenging applicants for registration. 1. Any person who applies personally to any board of inspectors for registration for any election may be challenged by any qualified voter or watcher present, and shall be challenged by any inspector if such inspector shall have reason to suspect that the applicant is not entitled to be registered or his name is on the challenge list and the board shall not know he is a qualified voter.

election
law,

2. When an applicant is so challenged the chairman or any inspector shall administer to such applicant the following oath: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will true answers make to the questions touching upon your qualifications as a voter and such other questions as may be put to you tending to establish your identity," and an inspector shall then read to such challenged person each question printed upon the form of the challenge affidavit and shall enter in ink or indelible pencil opposite each question the answer thereto given by such applicant. The applicant shall sign his name to such challenge affidavit. The inspector who writes the answers shall enter in the place provided on the challenge affidavit a description of the person challenged and the name and address of the person challenging and shall sign the certificate at the end thereof, and the other inspectors present shall also sign such certificate. Unless the duplicate challenge affidavit of the same number is in the same book, following the original so made, and is produced at the same time by the use of carbon or similar paper, the blank duplicate affidavit of the same number shall be filled out by another inspector and shall be signed by the same persons, so that both affidavits shall be duplicates of each other.

3. If the applicant shall by his answers satisfy a majority of the board of inspectors of his right to be registered, they shall register his name as a voter; if not, they shall point out to him the qualifications which he lacks as a voter and shall not register his name except by order of a court or judge of competent jurisdiction. If the applicant shall refuse to make such oath or to answer any question upon the challenge affidavit the inspectors shall not register his name, and if, previously to his ascertained qualification as a voter, the inspectors have written his name upon the register, they shall enter in the registration remarks column opposite such name the word "disqualified" and no person shall be allowed to vote on such name at the election. When the name of a person who has signed a challenge affidavit shall be registered, the inspectors shall enter in such remarks column opposite such name the word "affidavit," giving the consecutive number printed on such affidavit.

4. If, at any meeting of the board for registration, any voter shall declare, upon oath, that he has reason to believe that any person whose name is on the register will not be qualified to vote at the election for which the registration is made, the board shall place the words "to be challenged on election day" opposite the name of such person.

§ 170. Challenge affidavits. There shall be in each place of registration a book containing the original challenge affidavits required to be provided for the election district, together with an equal number of duplicates, bound in the same or a separate book. Each original affidavit shall have a stub, separated therefrom by a perforated line. The stub and affidavit shall bear the same printed number, beginning with number one. Each original challenge affidavit and duplicate shall be printed in the following form, except that the stub and perforated line shall be omitted from the duplicate:

§ 171. Enrollment by voters. At any regular meeting for registration, after a voter shall have been registered, or where his registration was not required to be personal and he was registered without personal application he shall present himself to the board for enrollment only, the board shall deliver to him an enrollment blank which shall have filled in upon it his name, the particulars required in the other spaces on the blank, and an enrollment number, beginning with number one for the first voter enrolled on the first day and so on in numerical order, and the inspectors shall enter such number in the appropriate column of two registers, one of which shall be the registration signature copy if any. No voter shall be given more than two enrollment blanks, nor more than one blank unless he shall improperly mark or otherwise spoil the first blank given him. In case a second blank is given, the inspectors shall draw a line through such voter's previous enrollment number on the registers and insert in the same column, opposite the name of the voter, the number of the new blank. The voter then shall enter a voting booth, and, the door thereof being closed, may make with a pencil having black lead a cross X mark, being one mark crossing any other mark at any angle, within the circle underneath the emblem of the party of his selection. He shall thereupon fold the blank so as to conceal the face thereof, or, in a city in which enrollment envelopes are required to be provided, he shall inclose such blank, without folding, in the enrollment envelope and seal the envelope. Before leaving the place of registration, deposit it so folded, or inclosed, in the enrollment box without in any way indicating the party with which he has or has not enrolled. If a voter declines to enroll, he may return the blank unmarked and the inspectors shall enter in such registers opposite his name in the column reserved for the name of a political party, the word "No."

In an election district where registration is not required to be personal a registered voter who did not appear personally for registration or enrollment as above provided, may enroll on the day of the ensuing general election, as provided in this section and in section two hundred and nine. In such an election district absentee voters may enroll as provided in section one hundred and twenty-two.

§ 172. Enrollment blanks. The enrollment blanks to be provided as required by this chapter shall be printed on white paper, and on the face thereof shall be printed the following, or the substance thereof, the blanks except blanks for emergencies to be filled in in type so far as possible:

" Make a cross X mark, with a pencil having black lead, in the circle under the emblem of the party with which you wish to enroll, for the purpose of participating in its primary elections during the next year. Then fold the blank so as to conceal its face and deposit it in the enrollment box."

The circles underneath the emblem shall be three-quarters of an inch in diameter, and in them nothing shall be printed. The party emblems shall be the same as those which were on the ballots for each party respectively at the last preceding general election, and such emblems shall be so arranged on each blank that the emblem of the majority party at the last preceding general election of a governor shall be first, and the other emblems shall follow in order in accordance with the vote cast for governor at such election; and over each emblem shall be printed, in type clearly legible, the name of the party represented by such emblem.

The enrollment envelopes required to be provided in the city of New York shall be of such size as to permit inclosure therein, without folding, of the enrollment blank, and of such weight and texture of paper as to make it impossible to read or decipher the printed matter on the blank when the same is sealed on the inside thereof. Nothing shall be printed or written upon the enrollment envelopes, except the following words, or the substance thereof, blanks to be filled in in type as far as possible:

§ 174. Change of registry where voter registered in wrong district. If any voter has, through no fault of his own, been registered in a wrong election district, the board of elections, upon proper proof, and upon such notice to the chairman of the county committees of the several parties as the board shall prescribe, may direct that his name be stricken from the register of the district in which he is not a qualified voter, and, if he is a qualified voter in an adjoining election district within the jurisdiction of such board, may direct that he be registered in the election district in which he is a qualified voter. The proper inspectors of elections shall carry out the directions of the board. In a county having a single commissioner of elections or in which the county clerk is the board of elections such officer shall not have power to make any such direction, but in any such county, such direction may be made by the supreme court, county court or a justice or judge thereof, upon proper proof. The application under this section must be made at least twelve days prior to the election.

§ 175. Correction of register in case of change of residence of voter within election district. If any voter after being registered shall change his place of residence within the same election district, he may appear before the board of inspectors of such district on any day of registration, or on the day of election, and state under oath that he has so changed his residence, and the board shall thereupon make the proper correction upon the register of such district.

§ 176. Card lists of registered voters in cities of the first and second class. The board of inspectors of each election district in cities of the first and second class shall on each day of registration copy upon a separate card the name of each person registered in the election district and all of the information given by such person at the time of registration. At the close of each day of registration the board shall deliver to a police officer at the place of registration or the stationhouse of the police precinct such cards, enclosed in a sealed wrapper which shall have endorsed thereon a certificate that the cards so delivered contain a correct copy of all the names registered and information given by all the persons registered during the day. Such officer shall deliver such package forthwith to the captain of the police precinct. If previously directed by the attorney general, such captain shall deliver the package containing the cards for any district to a special deputy attorney general, designated by the attorney general to receive it.

§ 177. Daily certification of register; certificate to board of elections. At the close of each meeting for the registration of voters, the inspectors shall draw a line in ink immediately below the name of the voter last entered upon each page of such register and shall sign a certificate printed in the registers to the effect that such register as it now is, comprising (here insert the number) names, is a true and correct register of all voters qualified to vote at such election in such district who have personally applied for registration, and, in a district elsewhere than in a city or village having five thousand inhabitants or more, also of voters whose names the board was required by law to place thereon. At the close of each such meeting the inspectors also shall sign and mail to the board of elections a certificate stating the total number of voters registered on such day in the district and the total number then registered therein, except that in any city of the first or second class having therein the office of the board of elections the inspectors shall deliver such certificate to the police at the place of registration or the police precinct station-house who shall deliver it forthwith to the board of elections, at its office or the proper branch office.

§ 178. Investigation into truth of challenge affidavits; custody of duplicates. At the close of each day of registration, the inspectors shall detach from the stubs the original challenge affidavits signed by the persons challenged during the day, and in cities shall deliver them to the police captain of the precinct in which the election district is located, or to an officer thereof, and in districts outside of cities, to the sheriff. Such police captain or sheriff immediately shall cause an investigation of the truth of such affidavits to be made. If such investigation shall prove an affidavit to be false in any particular affecting the right of the challenged person to register or vote, the officer shall deliver it, together with the evidence of falsity, to the district attorney of the county and the district attorney forthwith shall present the matter to the grand jury. If the affidavit is not delivered to the district attorney the officer forthwith shall transmit it, with his report in writing with regard thereto, to the board of elections. Copies of all such challenge affidavits shall be mailed by the police or sheriff, at the close of each day of registration, to the attorney general.

From the close of the first day of registration until the election, except during hours of registration, the book containing any duplicate challenge affidavits shall be in the custody of the inspector in charge of the registration signature copy of the register, or, in districts where there is no such copy, of the chairman of the board of inspectors, and on each day of registration or of the election such book shall be in the place of registration or polling place.

§ 179. Completion and certification of registers, at close of registration; certificate to board of elections. At the close of the last meeting for registration in each year the inspectors shall enter the registration number of each voter in the first column of the register beginning with "one" opposite the first name entered on the page indexed "A" and continuing in numerical order to and including the last name entered upon the last page of the register. They shall then sign a certificate, printed in the registers, to the effect that such register is a true and correct register of the persons registered by them in such district on the days of registration; that, in districts where personal registration was required, the persons shown by such registers are the only persons who registered personally as voters, or that, in districts where personal registration was not required, the persons having enrollment numbers on any such registers are the only registered voters who appeared personally for registration or enrollment; and that each voter who appeared personally was given or tendered an enrollment blank. Such certificate shall set forth the number of the last enrollment blank used on such last day of registration.

§ 180. Preparation of registry lists. The board of inspectors of each election district in a city of the first or second class shall, immediately after the close of the last day of registration, make and complete one list of all persons registered in their respective districts, in the numerical order of the street numbers thereof, which list shall be signed and certified by the board of inspectors. Such list shall be delivered by the chairman of the board of inspectors to the police at the polling place or at the precinct station-house, who shall forthwith deliver it to the board of elections. Such lists shall be made as near as may be in the following form, to wit:

GRAND STREET.

Residence number or other designation.

14.....	Smith, John M.
15.....	Jones, Charles M.

§ 181. Custody of registers, boxes and flag. 1. The register of voters made by the chairman of the board of inspectors shall be known as the public copy. Such public copy shall be left in a prominent position in the place of registration from the first day of registration until election day. When the place of registration is in a schoolhouse, or other public building, such public copy shall be left in the custody of the janitor or some other person in charge of the building, who shall be responsible therefor, and a notice shall be kept publicly posted stating how inspection thereof is to be obtained. When in a city there is no responsible person at a place of registration with whom such copy can be left it shall be placed in the custody of the nearest police precinct station, and a notice stating that the public copy is on file at the police station, specifying the number and location of such station, shall be posted.

2. In cities of the first class, at the close of the last day of registration, the chairman of the board of inspectors shall take from an inspector of opposite political faith from himself the register, other than the registration signature copy, made by such inspector and deliver it to the police at the place of registration or at the police precinct station-house, who forthwith shall file the same with the board of elections.

3. Except as above provided each inspector shall carefully preserve his register and shall produce it for use upon election day.

4. The public copy of the register shall at all reasonable hours be accessible for public examination and making copies thereof.

5. The chairman shall have the custody of and be responsible for the enrollment box, the box containing slips for literacy tests and the flag until these are delivered to the proper authorities as provided in this chapter.

§ 182. Return of boxes and flag, in election districts where registration is required to be personal. In cities of the first class, the enrollment box, properly sealed, the box containing slips for literacy tests, and the flag, shall be delivered by the inspectors at the close of the last day of registration to the police at the place of registration, or at the precinct station-house, and the police shall deliver them to the board of elections, or hold them subject to the order of such board. In other election districts where registration of all the voters is required to be personal the chairman shall deliver them, within twenty-four hours, to the board of elections.

register containing enrollment numbers for the election district in which such voter resides. If cross marks are found in more than one of the circles or if no cross marks are found in any of the circles, of any enrollment blank, the voter who used the enrollment blank thus deficient shall not be deemed to be enrolled, and words indicating the reason why such enrollment is not transcribed shall be entered opposite the name of such voter in such copies of the register in the column reserved for the entry of party enrollments. When all of the enrollments shall be transcribed from the blanks to the register, the board of elections shall make a certificate upon the form printed in such registers, to the effect that it has correctly and properly transcribed the enrollment indicated on the blank of each voter to such registers. Such enrollment shall be complete before the succeeding first day of February in each year.

§ 184. Application for special enrollment, transfer or correction of enrollment. 1. A voter also may enroll with a party after the first day of February in any year and before the thirtieth day preceding the next fall primary, except during the thirty days preceding a spring primary, if he did not enroll on a day of the annual enrollment, for the reason that he became of age after the preceding general election, or that he was naturalized subsequent to ninety days prior to the preceding general election, or that, because of being in the actual military service of the state or of the United States, in the army or navy thereof, or at a service in connection therewith, the nature and times of which military or similar service shall be stated, he was absent from his election district at all of the times designated for the preceding annual enrollment; and a voter also may enroll with a party before the first day of March in any year, if he did not enroll on a day of the annual enrollment, for the reason, if his registration was required to be personal, that he was incapacitated by illness, the nature and times of which shall be stated, from registering for the preceding general election, or that, if his registration was not required to be personal, he was incapacitated by illness, the nature and times of which shall be stated, from voting at the preceding general election. A voter desiring so to enroll shall file, within the times above specified, with the board of elections of the county in which he resides, his affidavit setting forth substantially as follows: the county and the city or town in which he resides, the election district and the street and number, if any, of such residence; a statement that he is or will be a qualified voter of such election district at the next general election; the name of the party with which he desires to enroll and a statement that he is in general sympathy with its principles and intends to support generally its nominees at such election; a statement that he was not enrolled upon any day of the preceding annual enrollment and the reason therefor, which shall be one of those set forth above. If the voter apply for enrollment because he became naturalized subsequent to ninety days prior to the preceding general election, the naturalization papers or a certified copy thereof also shall be submitted to the board for inspection and the affidavit shall contain the further statement that the deponent is the person named in the papers so submitted.

2. If, after being enrolled in an election district as a member of a party on a day of annual enrollment, a voter shall move into another election district of the same county, he may have his enrollment transferred to such district, after the first day of February and preceding the next fall primary, except during the thirty days preceding a spring primary, as a member of the same party, in the manner hereinafter specified. He shall file with the board of elections, within the times above stated, his affidavit showing the name of the party with which and the town or city and election district in which he is enrolled, the street address if any from which he was enrolled, the town or city and election district thereof into which he has moved and the street address if any of his residence therein, and stating that he resides in the last mentioned election district and desires to have his enrollment with such party transferred thereto. In a city or village in which registration is required to be personal, the voter must appear and file his affidavit in person and also answer such questions affecting his identity as the board may deem necessary. In such a case, the board shall compare the voter's signature, if any, on the affidavit, with his signature on the register, or, if he be unable to write, shall submit to him the questions required for an identification statement on a day of registration, and in the city of New York shall have his answers written down in the book for identification statements for the election district of his new residence. In the city of New York, the voter, if able to write, shall sign his name in the appropriate column of the signature copy of the register for the district to which he has moved. In any case not above provided for, the board, in its discretion, may require a voter applying for such transfer to appear in person and answer questions affecting his identity. Such transfer of the enrollment of any voter in any year shall be made but once in such year.

3. After the first day of February and before the ensuing first day of July in any year, except during the thirty days preceding a spring primary, a voter who has enrolled with a party for the period hereinafter mentioned may apply for the correction of a mistake made by him as to name of the party when marking his enrollment blank on a day of the preceding annual enrollment, by filing, within the times above stated, with the board of elections of the county in which he resides, his affidavit setting forth substantially as follows: the county and city or town in which he resides, the election district and the street and number, if any, of such residence; a statement, in substance, that on a day of the preceding annual enrollment in such election district he marked the enrollment blank in a circle under the name and emblem of a party but that such marking was done by mistake and that he did not intend to enroll with that party; the name of the party with which he did intend to enroll and which he desires to be substituted on the register for the one opposite his name; a statement that he has been duly and regularly enrolled with the party whose name he desires substituted for at least five years preceding the enrollment at which such mistake occurred, specifying the county or counties where he was so enrolled; that he is in general sympathy with the principles of such party and intends to support generally its nominees at the next general election, and that he has not participated in any primary election or convention of any other party during such period of five years, or since. If, for any year of such period, the registers or enrollment books in the office of such board do not show the applicant to have been enrolled therein, the board shall require him to produce a certified transcript of his enrollment with such party elsewhere within the state, in such year, accompanied with proof, by affidavit, showing his identity with the person whose name appears in such transcript.

4. Except where the voter is expressly required to file his affidavit in person, it may be filed either in person or by agent or sent by mail. Mailing within the state and within the times above prescribed for filing shall be sufficient, if the affidavit be received by the board. The postmark shall be sufficient proof of the date of mailing. If mailed without the state, it must be received by the board within the times above prescribed. The board shall prepare forms for the various affidavits and, upon application, furnish a copy of the appropriate form to or for any voter desiring to use the same, and an additional copy if required. Copies also may be sold by the board, at cost, to any qualified voter.

§ 185. Duties of board of elections in respect of special enrollments, transfers and corrections. 1. The board of elections shall enroll in two registers of the proper election district a voter who duly mails or causes to be filed the affidavit prescribed by subdivision one of the preceding section, except it be proven to its satisfaction that a material statement in the affidavit is untrue, and except that where a voter applies on the ground of having become naturalized subsequent to ninety days prior to the preceding general election, it shall first satisfy itself of the fact of such naturalization and of the identity of the applicant. If so enrolled, the voter's name, residence, by street and number, if any, and his party affiliation shall be entered in the proper columns, the word "special" and the date of the filing and mailing of his affidavit shall be written above his name, and his affidavit shall be attached to a copy of the register, which shall be the registration signature copy if any.

2. The board shall transfer to the proper election district the enrollment of a voter who duly mails or causes to be filed, or files in person if that be required, an affidavit therefor pursuant to subdivision two of the preceding section, except that where additional requirements are therein prescribed, such transfer shall be made only after compliance therewith by the voter. Where such voter is required by or pursuant to such subdivision to appear in person, the board shall not transfer his enrollment unless satisfied of his identity. If the transfer be made, a line, in ink, shall be drawn through all entries relating to the voter in the registers of his former district, and in the last column thereof shall be specified the election district and locality to which he has moved, preceded by the words "enrolled in." The following entries shall be made in two registers of the district to which he has moved: his name, present residence, by street and number if any, and party affiliation: and his affidavit shall be attached to a copy of the register, which shall be the registration signature copy if any. In the city of New York there also shall be added, in the proper columns, the other information concerning the voter, to be elicited from him, which would be required by inspectors if he were then registering for an election. In any county, or city, in case of such transfer, the election district and locality from which the voter has moved shall be specified in the last column, preceded by the words "enrolled from."

3. The board shall correct, as to the party name, the enrollment of a voter who duly mails or causes to be filed an affidavit therefor pursuant to subdivision three of the preceding section, if the records of the board and transcripts if any of enrollments elsewhere support his affidavit and if the board be satisfied as to his identity. The word "corrected" and the date of the mailing or filing of his affidavit shall be entered in the last column of the registers, and his affidavit shall be attached to a copy of such register, which shall be the registration signature copy if any.

§ 191. Dates of primary elections and general elections; time of opening and closing polls. 1. A primary election, to be known as the fall primary, shall be held annually on the seventh Tuesday before the general election. In each year in which electors of president and vice-president of the United States are to be elected an additional primary election, to be known as the spring primary, shall be held on the first Tuesday in April. The general election shall be held annually on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday in November.

* So in original. [No section 214.]

2. Elections shall be held open for voting thereat during the following hours: a primary election from twelve o'clock noon until nine o'clock in the evening, except in the city of New York, and in such city from three o'clock in the afternoon until nine o'clock in the evening; the general election, a special election called by the governor pursuant to the public officers law, and, except as otherwise provided by law, every other election, from six o'clock in the morning until six o'clock in the afternoon.

§ 192. Conduct of primary elections by inspectors only. The spring and fall primaries shall be conducted in the several election districts by the inspectors of election only, and without the clerks if any. Source.—Former election law, § 70, subd. 6.

§ 193. Supplying vacancies or absences of inspectors or clerks. Source.—Former election law, § 812.
1. If, at the time of a meeting of the inspectors upon the day of election, there shall be a vacancy, or if any inspector shall be absent, the inspector present who is a member of the same party as the absent inspector shall appoint a qualified voter of the district who is a member of the same party to act in place of the absent inspector for the whole of that day.

2. If at the time of any such meeting two inspectors who are members of the same party shall be absent, or their places shall be vacant, the clerk, if any, of the same party shall appoint qualified voters of the district, who are members of the same party as the absent inspectors, to act in place of such absent inspectors for the whole of that day.

3. If at the time of any such meeting two inspectors and the clerk, if any, who are members of the same party shall be absent, or their places shall be vacant, the inspector or inspectors present, or in their absence the clerk, if any, shall appoint qualified voters of the district, who are members of the same party as such absent inspectors, to act until such absent inspectors, or their successors, duly appointed by the original appointing authority, shall appear.

4. If at any such meeting there shall be vacancies in all the offices of inspectors or clerks, or if no inspector or clerk shall appear within one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the polls, the qualified voters of the district present, not less than ten, may name four qualified voters of the district, equally divided between the two parties entitled to representation, to act until such absent inspectors or their successors, duly appointed by the original appointing authority, shall appear.

5. If at the time of any such meeting there shall be a vacancy in the office of clerk or if a clerk shall be absent, the inspectors who are members of the same party shall appoint a qualified voter of the district who is a member of the same party to act in place of the absent clerk for the whole of that day.

6. Every person so appointed or named shall take the oath of office. A person appointed or named for temporary service shall receive no pay unless he shall serve for the whole or the remainder of the day.

§ 194. Opening the polls; preparations therefor. The inspectors of election, and clerks, if any, shall meet at the polling place at least one-half hour before the time set for opening the polls of the election. The inspectors of election shall

1. See that the American flag is displayed.
2. Cause the instruction cards, if any, to be posted conspicuously within the polling place.
3. Cause the sample ballots which are mounted on cards, if any, to be posted conspicuously in the polling place.
4. Cause the distance markers to be placed at a distance of one hundred feet from the polling place.
5. Arrange within the guard rail the ballot boxes and furniture for the conduct of the election.
6. Open the packages of ballots and sample ballots and place the registers, books, ballots and sample ballots, blanks, stationery and supplies so that they will be ready and convenient for use.
7. Before any ballots are cast, see that the voting booths are supplied with pencils having black lead only.
8. Before any ballots are cast, unlock the ballot boxes, see that they are empty, allow them to be examined by the watchers present, and lock them up again empty in such manner that the watchers and the persons just outside the guard rail may see that the boxes are empty when re-locked.

9. At the opening of the polls, cause to be made a proclamation thereof and of the time when the polls will close.

§ 195. General provisions as to conduct of elections. 1. The chairman of the board of inspectors theretofore appointed shall continue to act as such, and the inspectors shall act as a board, and a majority thereof shall decide questions. One inspector shall receive the ballots from voters voting. If, at any polling place, the election is conducted by inspectors only, one inspector shall deliver ballots to voters, and the inspector who receives the ballots from voters shall be of opposite political faith. Two inspectors who are not of the same political faith and who are not assigned to any of the foregoing duties shall have charge of the registers, subject to inspection thereof by any inspector and his participation in the decision of any question. Of the inspectors in charge of the registers, one shall be assigned to the duty of comparing the signatures of voters, when that is necessary. Inspectors shall be assigned to the foregoing duties by the board of inspectors, before the opening of the polls. Such assignments shall be by lot if a majority cannot agree. The duties of an inspector may be changed by the board during the day. If there be clerks as a separate office, the board of inspectors may direct a clerk, who is not otherwise engaged, to perform any duty of an inspector, except to vote upon a question to be decided by such board; provided, however, that when a duty is required to be performed by two inspectors who are not of the same political faith, such duty shall not be performed by an inspector and clerk of the same political faith. Where an oath is required or permitted by this article at any election, any inspector or canvassing inspector may administer it.

2. The American flag, furnished by the board of elections, shall be kept displayed at each polling place throughout the election. Instruction cards, distance markers and the mounted sample ballots shall not be taken down, torn or defaced during the election. There shall be no smoking in any polling place in a church or school. While the polls are open no person shall do any electioneering within the polling place, or within one hundred feet therefrom in any public street, or within such distance in any place in a public manner; and no political banner, poster or placard shall be allowed in or upon the polling place during the election.

3. Upon application, the inspectors shall give one sample ballot of each kind to any voter entitled to vote the ballot of which he requests a sample, and he may take it away from the polling place.

4. The provisions of section one hundred and sixty, concerning the preservation of order and apprehension for crime on a day of registration, shall apply to a day of election, but a person taken into custody shall not be prohibited thereby from voting.

5. After a ballot box shall have been locked for the purposes of election, it shall not be opened until it is opened at the close of the polls for purposes of canvass. Each inspector shall be responsible personally for the custody of each ballot box and its contents from the time the election begins until the box is delivered, according to law, to the person entitled to receive it.

§ 196. Watchers and challengers. 1. At any general; special, town or village election, any party or independent body may have at any polling place at which candidates nominated by it are voted for, not more than two watchers, to be appointed by the county, assembly district, city, town or village committee of the party or body.

2. At any primary election, any political committee may have a watcher, and any two or more candidates whose names are upon any ballot to be voted at the polling place may have a watcher.

3. The appointment of a watcher or watchers for any election, including a primary, shall be by a certificate in writing signed by such candidates or such committee, as the case may be, or by the chairman or secretary of the committee who is charged with that duty, which certificate shall be delivered to an inspector. A committee shall not appoint a watcher for a polling place outside the political subdivision for which the committee was constituted.

4. The watchers may be present at the polling place and within the guard-rail from at least fifteen minutes before the unlocking and examination of any ballot box, at the opening of the polls, until after the announcement of the result of the canvass and the signing of the inspectors' returns thereof; provided, however, that with respect to an election other than a primary election not more than one watcher for each party or for each independent body may be at one time within the guard-rail until after the closing of the polls.

5. A reasonable number of challengers, at least one person for each such party or independent body, at an election other than a primary election, and at a primary election at least one for any three or more persons of each party whose names are on the party ballot, shall be permitted to remain just outside of the guard-rail of each such polling place, where they can see what is done within such guard-rail, outside of the voting booths, from the opening to the close of the polls.

6. Each watcher and challenger must be a qualified voter of the city or county in which he is to serve.

§ 197. Location of boxes and ballots; persons within the guard-rail. The boxes and all official ballots shall be kept within the guard-rail, and at least six feet therefrom, from the opening of the polls until the announcement of the result of the canvass and the signing of the inspectors' returns thereof. No person shall be admitted within the guard-rail during such period except the election officers, authorized watchers, persons admitted by the inspectors to preserve order or enforce the law, and voters duly admitted for the purpose of voting; provided, however, that candidates voted for at the polling place may be within the guard-rail during the canvass.

§ 198. Unofficial ballots; adhesive pasters. If, for any cause, the official ballots shall not be provided as required by law at any polling place, upon the opening of the polls of an election thereat, or if the supply of official ballots shall be exhausted before the polls are closed, unofficial ballots, printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, made as nearly as practicable in the form of the official ballot, shall be used. If unofficial ballots are provided by the board or officer charged with that duty, and are delivered at the polling place, no unofficial ballots other than those so provided shall be voted after their delivery at the polling place and before the supply thereof is exhausted, except by voters who shall lawfully begin the act of voting before the receipt of such ballots.

If, by reason of the making of a new nomination or designation after the printing of the official ballots, adhesive pasters shall have been provided by the board or officer charged with that duty, the inspectors or clerks shall affix one of such pasters in the proper place and in the proper manner upon each official ballot before the ballot is delivered to a voter.

§ 199. Disposal of defective, mutilated or spoiled ballots. If a ballot is found to be defective or mutilated before it is delivered to the voter, its stub and the stubs of all other ballots in the set immediately shall be detached and placed in the box for stubs, by the clerks, or if there be no clerks by the inspector assigned to the duty of delivering ballots, and all the ballots of that set immediately shall be marked "cancelled," and placed in the box for spoiled and mutilated ballots. If a voter returns a ballot as defective, mutilated, defaced, or wrongly marked, he shall also return all the other ballots of the set, if any, and such clerks or inspector shall likewise remove their stubs, placing all the stubs in the box for stubs and all the ballots of the set in the box for spoiled or mutilated ballots, first marking the ballots "cancelled." In each case, the voter shall receive another ballot or set of ballots, unless not entitled thereto under section two hundred and eight.

§ 200. Time allowed employees to vote. Any person entitled to vote at an election shall on the day of election be entitled to absent himself from any service or employment in which he is then engaged or employed, for a period of two hours, while the polls of the election are open; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to a voter on the day of a primary election if there be two successive hours, while the polls of such election are open, in which he is not in the service of an employer. If the voter shall notify his employer before the day of election of such intended absence, and if thereupon two successive hours for such absence shall be designated by the employer, and such absence shall be during such designated hours, or if the employer upon the day of such notice makes no designation, and such absence shall be during any two successive hours while the polls are open, no deduction shall be made from the usual salary or wages of such voter, and no other penalty shall be imposed upon him by his employer by reason of such absence. This section shall be deemed to include all employees of municipalities.

§ 201. Use of registers, generally; poll-books in certain cases. All copies of the register in the polling place at a general or other election for which voters are required to be registered or at a primary election, shall be referred to, if necessary, to determine the persons entitled to vote; but at any such election, including a primary election, ballot numbers shall be entered and other election entries made in only two copies of the register, which, in a city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, shall include the copy used for taking signatures during registration; provided, however, that if the election be one for which poll-books are required to be provided, ballot numbers shall be entered and other entries made in the two poll-books instead of the registers. In a city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, the signatures of voters taken at the election, and taken at a primary election in the city of New York, shall be made, or identification numbers entered, in one of the copies of register having, when the election opens, an unused signature column, if there be any such copy, and otherwise in one of the poll-books, to be known as the signature poll-book.

§ 202. Proof of identity of voters in cities of over fifteen thousand inhabitants. In a city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, the voter, before receiving a ballot at any election, other than a primary election, and in a city of over one million inhabitants also at a primary election, shall sign his name in a copy of the register containing no signatures made by voters before the election. A woman married since she registered shall sign her former name and her present name. At an election, if any, where separate poll-books are required to be provided, the voter, instead of signing the register, shall sign his name in one of such poll-books to be designated for that purpose. In either case, such signature shall be made in the column entitled "signature or statement number of voter," opposite his name as entered in such register or book. The inspector assigned to the duty of comparing signatures shall compare the signature so made on election day with the signature made at the time of registration. If the two signatures so compared are sufficiently similar to identify them as having been written by the same person, such inspector shall announce that fact and shall certify thereto by writing his initials after the voter's signature so made on election day. If, when he registered, the voter had alleged his inability to sign, and was permitted to make an identification statement in lieu of signing, then one of the clerks designated by the chairman, or, if there be no clerks, an inspector so designated, other than the inspector who receives ballots from voters, shall read to the voter the same list of questions which were required to be read at the time of such registration, and such clerk or inspector shall write the answers. It shall be unlawful for any person to prompt the voter in answering such questions. The answers given by the voter before election day shall not be inspected by any one until all of his answers given on election day shall have been written down. The inspector or clerk who reads such list of questions to a voter and records his answers, shall sign and date the certificate at the end of the list so read, which certificate shall be as follows: "I certify that I have read to the above named voter each of the foregoing questions and that I have duly recorded his answers as above to each of such questions." The statements of a voter made before and at the election, respectively, shall then be compared by the inspectors. Such comparison, and the comparison of a voter's signature, shall be had in full view of the watchers, and such voter shall be subject to challenge as provided in this article. The number on the sheet which contains the voter's answers, in the book known as "identification statements for election day," shall be entered opposite his name in the copy of the register used for taking signatures of voters on election day, in the column entitled "signature or statement number of voter," or in the column so entitle* of the signature copy of the poll-book when separate poll-books are required to be provided.

§ 203. Assistance to illiterate or disabled voters. 1. A person entitled to vote may have assistance in voting if (a) at the time of registration he had made oath of illiteracy or physical disability as prescribed by section one hundred and sixty-seven and claims on election day that he is still unable to prepare his ballot without assistance for the reasons stated in such oath; or (b), having been registered personally, he states under oath to the inspectors on the day of election that, by reason of some accident, the time and place of which he must specify, or disease, the nature of which he must specify, he has, since the day upon which he registered, lost the use of both hands, or become totally blind, or afflicted by such degree of blindness as will prevent him, with the aid of glasses, from seeing the names printed upon the official ballot, or so crippled that he cannot enter the voting booth and prepare his ballot without assistance, or (c), having become entitled to vote within this state on or before January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two and having been duly registered otherwise than personally, he is unable to write by reason of illiteracy and makes a statement under oath to the inspectors in the form prescribed by section one hundred and sixty-seven or (d), having been registered otherwise than personally, he is physically disabled in one or more of the ways described in section one hundred and sixty-seven and makes a statement under oath to the inspectors in the form prescribed by that section.

2. A voter entitled to assistance in voting may choose two of the election officers, not of the same political faith, to render such assistance, except that at a primary election they may be of the same political faith. At any town meeting or village election where the election officers are all of the same political faith, such voter may select one of such officers and one voter of such town or village of opposite political faith from such election officer. If the physical disability specified in the voter's oath be plainly manifest to the inspectors on election day, when he offers to vote, such voter, if he so requests, may have the assistance of his or her father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, or child, as he may select, instead of election officers. The inspectors shall enter in the two copies of the register, opposite the name of an assisted voter, or in the poll-books, if such books are required to be provided, in the proper "remarks" column, the name of each officer or person rendering the assistance and the reason for such assistance. If the assistance be given by a relative, as above provided, the words "plainly disabled" also shall be entered, together with a word descriptive of such relationship. The officers or person assisting a voter shall enter the voting booth with him, help him in the preparation of his ballot and, if necessary, in the return of the voted ballot to the inspectors for deposit in the ballot box.

3. If a voter makes any false representation to obtain assistance in voting, he shall be punishable therefor as prescribed by the penal law. An election officer or other person assisting a voter shall not in any manner request or seek to persuade or induce the assisted voter to vote any particular ticket, or for any particular candidate, and shall not keep or make any memorandum or entry of anything occurring within the voting booth, and shall not, directly or indirectly, reveal to any other person the name of any candidate voted for by such voter, or which ticket he has voted, except when required pursuant to law to give testimony as to such a matter in a judicial proceeding. A person, other than an election officer, who assists a voter in voting shall make oath, before entering the booth, that he "will not in any manner request, or seek to persuade, or induce the voter to vote any particular ticket or for any particular candidate, and that he will not keep or make any memorandum or entry of anything occurring within the booth, and that he will not, directly or indirectly, reveal to any person the name of any candidate voted for by the voter, or which ticket he had voted, or anything occurring within the voting booth, except when required pursuant to law to give testimony as to such a matter in a judicial proceeding."

§ 204. Challenges at primary elections. At a primary election, a person applying to vote upon the name of an enrolled party voter may be challenged when he applies for an official primary ballot or when he offers the ballot he intends to vote. He may be so challenged by an inspector, or by a duly appointed watcher or challenger or qualified voter present and shall be so challenged by any inspector who knows or suspects that such person is not entitled to vote in the district at such primary. If challenged, the chairman or one of the inspectors shall tender to him the following oath: "You do swear (or affirm) that you will true answers make to the questions about to be put to you, concerning your identity and residence." Such person shall be allowed to vote if, and only if, he shall make such oath or affirmation and shall answer in the affirmative each of the following questions: "Are you (using the name given by him and which appears on the register as that of an enrolled voter)? Do you reside and have you for thirty days last past resided at (stating the address, within the election district, which he has given as his residence)? The inspectors in charge of the registers shall make, in the proper "remarks" column for the primary, opposite the name of the challenged voter, a note of the challenge and of the oath taken. The inspectors also shall keep a minute of challenges, showing the names of all persons offering to vote who were challenged, the oath taken by each, and whether the person challenged voted or did not vote, and shall append thereto at the close of the primary their certificate that such minutes are correct and complete.

§ 205. Challenges at elections other than a primary election. 1. At an election other than a primary election a person may be challenged when he applies for an official ballot or when he offers the ballot he intends to vote. A person may be so challenged by any inspector or by any duly appointed watcher or challenger. An inspector shall challenge every person offering to vote whom he shall know or suspect not to be entitled to vote in the district, and every person offering to vote whom he is required by a qualified voter, by previous notice, to challenge. The inspectors or one of them shall challenge a person offering to vote if his name appears on the challenge list furnished by the board of elections or if the words "to be challenged on election day" appear opposite his name upon the register, or if he was challenged at the time of registration and such challenge has not previously been withdrawn. When an applicant is challenged, an inspector shall administer to him the following preliminary oath: "You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will true answers make to such questions as may be put to you concerning your qualifications as a voter." If the applicant shall refuse to take such oath his vote shall not be received.

2. If the person shall have applied to vote upon the name of a person challenged on a day of registration, such inspector after administering such preliminary oath shall read to the applicant each question upon the copy of the challenge affidavit signed at the time of registration by such challenged person and shall compare the answers given to such questions with the answers recorded upon the copy of the challenge affidavit, and the description of the person challenged upon registration with that of the applicant. If there shall be any material difference between the answers recorded upon the challenge affidavit and those given by the applicant, or between the description of the person challenged upon registration and the applicant, or if the applicant shall refuse to answer any question put to him, his vote shall not be received.

3. If the person shall have applied to vote upon the name of a person not challenged on a day of registration, such inspector, after administering such preliminary oath, shall ask the applicant the same questions that were asked of him when he registered and shall question him in relation to his name, his place of residence before he came into that election district, his then place of residence, his citizenship, whether he is a native or naturalized citizen and if the latter, when and in what court he was naturalized, whether he came into the election district for the purpose of voting at that election, how long he contemplates residing in the election district and such other questions as may pertain to his right to vote at such election in such district. If any applicant shall refuse to answer fully any such questions which may be put to him, his vote shall not be received.

4. After receiving the answers as above specified of any applicant the board shall, if it believes the applicant to be qualified, and the challenge to him is withdrawn, permit him to vote. Otherwise, the board shall point out to him the qualifications, if any, in respect of which he shall appear deficient. If, after such deficiencies have been so indicated, the applicant shall persist in his claim to vote, an inspector shall administer to him the following general oath: "You do swear (or affirm) that you are twenty-one years of age, that you have been a citizen of the United States for ninety days and an inhabitant of this state for one year next preceding this election, and for the last four months a resident of this county, and for the last thirty days a resident of this election district, and that you have not voted at this election." In the case of a woman, if it shall appear from the preliminary inquiries or otherwise that she is or claims to be a citizen by marriage, the following words shall be added to such oath at the end thereof: "and that you have been an inhabitant of the United States for five years." If the applicant shall be challenged for the causes stated in section two of article two of the constitution of this state, such inspector shall administer to him the following additional oath: "You do swear (or affirm) that you have not received or offered, do not expect to receive, have not paid, offered or promised to pay, or contributed, offered or promised to contribute to another, to be paid, or used, any money or any other valuable thing, as a compensation or reward for the giving or withholding of a vote at this election, and have not made any promise to influence the giving or withholding of any such vote, and that you have not made, or become directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager depending upon the result of this election." If the applicant shall be challenged on the ground of having been convicted of bribery or any infamous crime, such inspector shall administer to him the following additional oath: "You do swear (or affirm) that you have not been convicted of bribery or any infamous crime, or if so convicted, that you have been pardoned and restored to all the rights of a citizen." If any person shall refuse to take any oath so tendered his vote shall not be received, but if he shall take the oath or oaths tendered to him his vote shall be received; provided, however, that a new voter as defined in section one hundred and fifty may not vote unless the inspectors shall have ascertained, on a day of registration, or at the election, that he is able, except for physical disability, to read and write English.

5. The inspectors in charge of the registers, or poll-books, if any, shall make, in the proper "remarks" column for the election, opposite the name of the challenged voter, a note of the challenge and of the kind of each oath taken, if any. The inspectors also shall keep a minute of challenges, showing the names of all persons offering to vote who were challenged, the kind of oath or oaths, if any, taken by each, and whether the person challenged voted or did not vote, and shall append thereto at the close of the election their certificate that such minutes are correct and complete.

§ 206. Ascertaining party voters, if, by accident, enrollment not shown by register. 1. If a registered voter marked an enrollment blank on a preceding day of enrollment and his enrollment as so indicated was not entered in the register, he nevertheless shall be permitted to vote at the primary election, with the party under whose name he marked such blank, if he produces a certificate of the board of elections that he marked an enrollment blank specifying the party, and that the entry of his enrollment on the register was omitted by inadvertence or mistake and in such a case the board of elections shall issue such certificate on demand. The inspectors at the primary shall then and there enter the name of the party of his enrollment on the register.

2. If the marked enrollment blanks for an election district shall have been lost or destroyed, thereby preventing the entry of enrollments on the register, in any year, the enrollment list of the previous year shall be used for ascertaining the persons entitled to vote at the primary election, and their respective parties. A registered voter for the year in which the primary is held, whose name is on the enrollment list of such previous year, may vote with the party with which he was so enrolled. If, on such a preceding day of enrollment, he marked an enrollment blank under the name and emblem of another party, or if the name of a registered voter does not appear in the enrollment list for the preceding year, he may deliver to the inspectors at the primary election his affidavit specifying the party under whose name and emblem he marked an enrollment blank on such a preceding day of enrollment and shall be allowed to vote with that party. Before the delivery of a ballot pursuant to this subdivision the inspectors shall enter the name of the proper party opposite the name of the voter in the register. The board of elections shall furnish to the inspectors a copy of the register for the preceding year showing party enrollments, or shall furnish a list of such enrollments if the boundaries of the election district have been changed.

§ 207. Delivery of ballot to voter. 1. While the polls of the election are open, voters who have not previously voted thereat may, for the purpose of voting, enter within the guard-rail, through the entrance provided therefor; but not more than twice as many voters as there are voting booths shall be within the guard-rail at one time, in addition to persons lawfully there for other purposes than voting. The voter shall give his name to the inspectors, and, if in a city or village of five thousand inhabitants or over, his residence by street and number, or if it have no street number, a brief description of the locality, and if required by the inspectors shall state whether or not he is at least twenty-one years of age. An inspector shall then announce, loudly and distinctly, the name and residence of the voter. If the election be one where poll-books are required to be provided, his name and residence shall be entered in both such books by the inspectors in charge of the registers. A person shall not be allowed to vote in any election district at an election where voters are required to be registered unless his name shall be upon the register for such election district. A person shall not be allowed to vote the ballot of a party at a primary election in any election district unless his enrollment with such party appears in such register. In a city of over fifteen thousand inhabitants, a person shall not be allowed to vote unless he shall have signed his name or made an identification statement as required by section two hundred and two, except that at a primary election such signature or statement shall not be required outside of a city of over one million inhabitants. In the case of a new voter, as defined by section one hundred and fifty, at a general election or a special election for which voters are required to be registered under the provisions of this chapter, in an election district where registration is not required to be personal, if the word "examine" was entered opposite his name in the registers, he shall not be allowed to vote unless it appear to the satisfaction of the board of inspectors, by the test or proof prescribed by section one hundred and sixty-six, that he is able to read and write English, except in the case of such a voter who is shown to be incapacitated therefrom by physical disability. A new voter, as so defined, at an election for which voters are not required to be registered under the provisions of this chapter shall not be allowed to vote unless it appears to the satisfaction of the election officers, from such sources of information as may be available, that he is able to read and write English, except in the case of such a voter who is shown to be so incapacitated by physical disability; and for such purpose the election officers may require him to produce a certificate of literacy described in section one hundred and sixty-six.

2. The right of any person to vote whose name is on the register shall be subject to challenge. If such voter is entitled to vote and is not challenged, or a challenge be decided in his favor, one of the clerks, or if there be no clerks the inspector assigned to the duty of delivering ballots, shall then deliver to him one official ballot or set of official ballots, in the numerical order of the ballot or set, beginning with number one, and shall at the same time announce, loudly and distinctly, the number on the stub or stubs thereof. If the ballots are in sets, they shall be delivered in sets. If a new ballot or set of ballots be lawfully delivered to the same voter, a similar announcement shall be made as to the number on the stub or stubs of each new ballot or set delivered. Each ballot, when delivered, shall be folded in the proper manner for voting, which is: first, by bringing the bottom of the ballot up to the perforated line, and second, by folding both sides to the center or toward the center in such manner that when folded the face of each ballot shall be concealed, and the printed number on the stub and the indorsement on the back of the ballot shall be visible, so that the stub can be removed without removing any other part of the ballot and without exposing any part of the face of the ballot below the stub, and so that when folded the ballot shall not be more than four inches wide. The number on each ballot or set of ballots so delivered, as printed on the stub or stubs, shall be entered forthwith opposite the name of the voter in the proper column of the two copies of the register, or of the two poll-books if such books are required to be provided.

3. No person other than an inspector or clerk shall deliver to any voter within the guard-rail any ballot, and they shall deliver only such ballots as the voter is legally entitled to vote, other than sample ballots.

4. Voters entitled to vote who are in the polling place at or before the time fixed by law for the closing of the polls shall be allowed to vote.

§ 208. Manner of voting. 1. On receiving his ballot, the voter forthwith and without leaving the inclosed space shall retire alone, unless he be entitled to assistance in voting, to one of the voting booths and mark his ballot for voting, using only a pencil having black lead. He shall not enter a booth already occupied, nor occupy a booth more than five minutes if other voters are waiting to occupy it. In marking his ballot, he shall follow the rules prescribed in section two hundred and nineteen. If the voter wrongly mark, deface or tear a ballot or one of a set of ballots, he may successively obtain others, one set at a time, not exceeding in all three sets, upon returning to the inspectors or clerks each set of ballots already received.

2. When the voter shall have prepared his ballot or ballots, he shall leave the booth with each ballot folded so as to conceal the face thereof but to show the indorsement and fac simile of the official signature on the back, and, keeping the same so folded, shall proceed at once to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, and shall offer such ballot or ballots to such inspector. Such inspector shall announce, loudly and distinctly, the name of the voter and the printed number on the stub or stubs of the ballot or ballots so received by him. If such voter be entitled then and there to vote, and be not challenged, or a challenge be decided in his favor, and if his ballot or ballots are properly folded, and have no mark or tear visible on the outside thereof, except the printed number on the stub and the printed indorsement on the back, and if such number is the same as that entered in the registers, or poll-books, as the number on the stub or stubs of the official ballot or set of ballots last delivered to him, such inspector shall receive such ballot or ballots, and after removing the stub or stubs therefrom in plain view of the voter, and without removing any other part of the ballot, and without unfolding the ballot or in any way exposing any part of the face of the ballot below the stub, shall deposit each ballot in the proper ballot box for the reception of voted ballots of the kind so received, and the stubs in the box for detached stubs. The number on the ballot or set of ballots so voted, as printed on the stub or stubs, shall be entered forthwith opposite the name of the voter in the proper column of the two copies of the register, or of the two poll-books if such books are required to be provided. Upon voting, the voter forthwith shall pass outside the guard-rail, unless he be a person authorized to remain for other purposes than voting.

3. When a person shall have received an official ballot from any clerk or inspector, as hereinbefore provided, he shall be deemed to have commenced the act of voting, and if, after receiving such official ballot, he shall leave the space inclosed by the guard-rail before the deposit of his ballot in the ballot box, as hereinbefore provided, he shall not be entitled to pass again within the guard-rail for the purpose of voting; or to receive any further ballots.

4. Except as otherwise provided with respect to voters entitled to assistance because of illiteracy or physical disability, no voter shall ask or receive the assistance of any person within the polling place in the preparation of his ballot, or divulge to anyone within the polling place the name of any candidate for whom he intends to vote or has voted, or how he intends to vote or has voted upon a question. No ballot without the official indorsement shall be allowed to be deposited in the ballot box except as provided by section one hundred and ninety-eight. No person to whom any official ballot shall be delivered shall leave the space within the guard-rail until after he shall have delivered back all such ballots received by him either to the inspectors or to the clerks.

who was not enrolled on any day of the preceding registration is given an official ballot, the inspectors shall tender to him an enrollment blank, having the lowest enrollment number then unused. § 210. Casting of absentee voters' ballots; objections. 1. If, at a general election, any absentee voters' envelopes shall have been received at the polling place, the inspectors immediately after the closing of the polls shall examine them. In an election district where voters are required to sign the register at the time of registration, an inspector shall compare the signature, if any, on each envelope with the signature, if any, on the register, of the person of the same name who registered from the same address. If the signatures are found to correspond, such inspector shall certify thereto by signing his initials opposite the name of the voter in the registration signature copy of the register in the "remarks" column relating to the general election. In any election district, if a person whose name is on an envelope, as a voter, has already voted in person at such election, or if his name and residence, as stated on the envelope, are not on the register, his envelope shall be laid aside unopened and be returned unopened to the board of elections, with the other returns of the election. If such person is found to be registered and has not so voted in person, and if no objection is made, or if an objection made be not sustained, the envelope shall be opened, the ballot or ballots withdrawn without unfolding, the stubs if any removed and the ballot or ballots, and stubs if any, deposited in the proper box or boxes. If, in a district where personal registration is not required, the voter has not upon a day of registration received an enrollment blank and such a blank is contained in his envelope, it shall be deposited in the enrollment box. At the time of the deposit of such ballot or ballots, the inspectors shall enter the words "absentee vote" in the two copies of the register used for the election day entries, in the "remarks" column relating to such election.

2. During such examination any person present in the polling place may object to the voting of the ballot or ballots contained in any envelope upon the ground or grounds that the person named thereon is not a qualified voter of the election district or that he was within the county while the polls of the election were open or that he was not entitled to cast such ballot or ballots. An inspector shall make such an objection if he shall know or suspect that the person named on such envelope is not such a qualified voter or was so within the county, or was not entitled to cast such ballot or ballots. The board of inspectors forthwith shall proceed to determine each objection. Unless the board, by majority vote, shall sustain the objection, the chairman, or if he refuse, another inspector shall endorse upon the envelope the objection and the words "not sustained," and shall sign such endorsement, and shall open the envelope and deposit the ballot or ballots as provided in this section. Should the board, by majority vote, sustain such objection, the objection and the word "sustained" shall be similarly endorsed upon the envelope, the envelope shall not be opened nor the ballots therein canvassed, and such envelope shall be returned unopened to the board of elections.

3. As each envelope is opened, if one or more of the different kinds of ballots to be voted at the election are not found therein, the clerks, or inspectors, shall make a memorandum showing what ballot or ballots are missing. When the casting of absentee voters' ballots shall have been completed the clerks or inspectors shall ascertain the number of such ballots of each kind which have been deposited in the ballot box, by deducting from the number of envelopes opened the number of missing ballots, and shall make a return thereof in duplicate. The number of absentee voters' ballot deposited in the ballot box shall be added to the number of other ballots deposited in the ballot box, in order to determine the number of all ballots of such kind to be accounted for in the ballot box.

§ 211. Preparation of ballot returns; sealing of unused, cancelled and spoiled ballots. At the close of the polls and before any boxes containing voted ballots are opened, the clerks, or if there be no clerks, two inspectors of opposite political faith, designated by the chairman, shall make up in duplicate in ink the ballot returns, which shall account for all of the official ballots furnished to the election district, except the absentee voters' ballots accounted for pursuant to the preceding section. They shall count and verify the number of each kind of unused ballots and enter it upon the ballot returns. They shall then open the box for ballots cancelled before delivery and spoiled and returned by voters, separate them into their several kinds, count all ballots of each kind and enter the several results upon such returns. They shall make the additions and subtractions called for by the returns and prove their figures. If adhesive pasters have been used for any office or party position, the return for the ballots for which the pasters were supplied shall contain a memorandum showing the number of pasters received, the number affixed to ballots and the number unused and returned. Such clerks or inspectors shall then tie securely in a separate package each kind of ballot and each kind of stub, counted as above provided, and shall plainly label, seal and return the same to the box from which it was taken, and securely lock and seal the box. Such clerks or inspectors also shall securely tie all unused ballots in a sealed package. They shall then sign such ballot returns.

§ 212. Proceedings of inspectors at close of polls. 1. The inspectors, at the close of the polls, shall compare the two registers, or the poll books if any, as to the number of voters voting at the election, or voting the ballots of a party if it be a primary election, and shall correct any mistakes therein.

2. The inspectors then shall fill out and sign a return upon the challenge list furnished by the board of elections, stating as to each name thereon, either "voted," giving the reasons for the allowance of such voting, "challenged but did not vote" or "no application," as the case may be.

§ 213. General provisions as to canvass. At the close of the polls of an election, and as soon thereafter as the inspectors shall have completed the duties specified in the foregoing sections, the inspectors of election thereat shall publicly canvass and ascertain the votes and shall not adjourn or postpone the canvass until it shall be fully completed. When ballot boxes may properly be opened, as hereinafter provided, they shall be opened and the ballots canvassed in the following order: the box, if any, containing presidential elector ballots; the box, if any, containing general ballots; the boxes, if any, containing ballots upon constitutional amendments or other questions submitted, including town propositions or appropriations. At a primary election, the boxes containing ballots of the parties represented on the board of inspectors shall be opened and the ballots therein canvassed before the ballots of other parties are canvassed. The room in which such canvass is made shall be clearly lighted, ingress and egress through the main entrance thereto shall be freely permitted, and such canvass shall be made in plain view of the public. The ballots shall at all times be kept on top of the table and in plain view of all persons entitled to examine them, until they have been tied into bundles as elsewhere provided. If requested by any person entitled to be present the inspectors shall, during the canvass of any ballot, exhibit to him the ballot then being canvassed, fully opened and in such a condition that he may fully and carefully read and examine it, but no inspector shall allow any ballot to be taken from his hand or to be touched by any person but an inspector.

§ 215. Verifying number of ballots. 1. The board of inspectors, at the beginning of the canvass, shall count the ballots found in each ballot box without unfolding them, except so far as to ascertain that each ballot is single, and shall compare the number of ballots found in each box with the number shown to have been deposited therein, by the registers or poll-books, and the ballot returns.

2. If the ballots found in any box shall be more than the number of ballots so shown to have been deposited therein, such ballots shall all be replaced, without being unfolded, in the box from which they were taken, and shall be thoroughly mingled therein, and one of the inspectors shall, with his back to the box, publicly draw out as many ballots as shall be equal to such excess and, without unfolding them, forthwith shall enclose them in an envelope which he shall then and there seal and indorse "excess ballots from the box for (ballots for presidential electors, or ballots for general officers, or party ballots or otherwise, as the case may be)," and shall sign his name thereto, and place such envelope in the box for defective or spoiled ballots.

3. If two or more ballots shall be found in a ballot box so folded together as to present the appearance of a single ballot, and if the whole number of ballots in such box exceeds the whole number of ballots so shown to have been deposited therein, they, or enough of them to reduce the ballots to the proper number, selection to be made without examination of any voting mark thereon, similarly shall be inclosed, sealed, indorsed and placed with the spoiled ballots.

4. If, however, there lawfully be more than one ballot box for the reception of ballots, no ballot found in the wrong ballot box shall for that reason be rejected, but it shall be placed in its proper box by the inspectors upon the count of the ballots before the canvass, and counted in the same manner as if it was found in the proper ballot box, if such ballot shall not, together with the ballots found in the proper ballot box, make a total of more ballots than are so shown to have been deposited in the proper box.

5. No ballot that has not the official indorsement shall be counted except such as are voted in accordance with the provisions of section one hundred and ninety-eight.

§ 216. Method of canvassing. 1. The method of canvassing ballots other than for presidential electors and ballots upon propositions or questions shall be as follows: The inspectors shall unfold each ballot of the kind then to be canvassed and shall place all such ballots upon the table in one pile face down. The chairman then shall take up each ballot in order, turn it face up and announce loudly and distinctly the vote registered on each section, in the order of the sections upon the ballot, or that the ballot is void or the section blank, as the case may be. If more than one person is to be elected to the same office or party position the chairman, if the ballot is void or the ballot or section is wholly blank, shall announce as many void or blank votes as there are persons to be elected to the office or party position. On a primary ballot a "section," as the term is used above, shall be deemed to mean the space occupied by the title of an office or party position, names of candidates therefor and the voting squares therewith. The canvass of each ballot must be completed before the next ballot is taken up or canvassed, except that in canvassing the general officer's ballots at a general election in an even numbered year the votes upon the first section of each ballot shall be canvassed first, and when the canvass of such section on each such ballot is completed the ballot shall be placed in a new pile. When the tallies of the votes on the first section of all such ballots are proven, and the result announced, the inspectors' returns of the vote thereon shall be filled out. The remaining sections of each such ballot shall then be canvassed, the canvass of each ballot to be completed before the next ballot is taken up or canvassed.

election
law, § 268.

2. The method of canvassing ballots for presidential electors shall be as follows: The inspectors shall unfold each ballot and shall place upon the table the straight ballots, that is, all valid ballots on which all the candidates in any party group are voted for, in piles, like with like, the split ballots, that is all valid ballots marked in one or more of the individual voting squares, or with names written thereon, in one pile, and all void ballots and wholly blank ballots likewise in separate piles. Each of the piles then shall be counted, and the chairman shall clearly announce the result. The split ballots shall then be canvassed and the result thereof announced as provided in the previous subdivision.

§ 217. Method of tallying votes except for presidential electors.

1. As each vote for any office or position other than the office of presidential elector, or upon any proposition or question, is announced, each clerk, or, if there be no clerks, each of two inspectors of opposite political faith designated by the chairman, immediately shall tally it in black ink, with a downward stroke from right to left, upon the official tally sheet and shall also tally one for each blank or void vote if any. Each such clerk or inspector, as he tallies a vote, shall announce clearly the name of the person for whom he tallies it, or that he tallies the vote blank or void as the case may be, or, in case of a proposition or question submitted, that he tallies the vote "yes" or "no." When the name of a person voted for is not printed on the tally sheet such clerks or inspectors shall write it in full thereon in ink, in the place provided therefor.

2. When all the votes upon the same office, position or question shall have been canvassed the tally thereof shall be verified by adding together all the votes tallied thereupon. If, in a case where more than one candidate is to be nominated for or elected to one office or party position, the total number of votes tallied (including void and blank votes), does not exactly equal the number of ballots cast (including void and blank ballots), multiplied by the number of persons to be nominated or elected, or if, in the case of a question submitted, or in a case where only one candidate is to be nominated or elected, the total number of votes tallied (including void and blank votes), does not exactly equal the number of ballots cast (including void and blank ballots), an error has been committed and a recanvass must be made immediately. In applying this section to a primary election the term "ballots" means the ballots of the party whose tallied votes as to an office or party position are counted as above provided. Upon a recanvass the clerks or inspectors must keep the tally in red ink from left to right across the previous tally marks.

3. When the errors if any have been corrected such clerks or inspectors shall indicate the last tally opposite each name by forthwith drawing in red ink a long horizontal line immediately after the last tally mark opposite such name. Such tally sheets having thus been prepared, verified and closed, such clerks or inspectors shall sign their initials on each sheet, in any blank space thereof.

election
law,

subd. 2.

§ 218. Methods of tallying votes for presidential electors.

1. In the case of ballots for presidential electors such clerks or inspectors shall enter on the tally sheet in gross opposite the name of each candidate the number of straight votes counted for him, and, in the appropriate places, the number of void and the number of wholly blank ballots, and shall tally, as provided in subdivision one of the preceding section in the appropriate place, the votes upon the split ballots.

2. When all the votes for presidential electors shall have been canvassed the tally thereof shall be verified by such clerks or inspectors in the following manner: They shall add together the votes counted for electors named on the ballot. They then shall add together the votes counted for candidates not on the ballot. They then shall add together the void and wholly blank ballots and shall multiply the sum so obtained by the number of electors to be elected. They then shall add together the votes on the split ballots tallied as blank. They then shall add together the four sums so obtained. If the total of the four sums does not exactly equal the number of ballots cast (including void and blank ballots) multiplied by the number of electors to be elected, an error has been committed, and a recanvass must be made immediately.

§ 219. Rules for counting votes. Rule 1. The whole ballot is void if the voter (a) does any act extrinsic to the ballot such as enclosing any paper or other article in the folded ballot or (b) defaces or tears the ballot or (c) makes any erasure thereon or (d) makes any mark thereon other than a cross $\times$ mark in a voting square or circle, or other than the writing in of a name for the purpose of voting; except that an erasure or a mark other than a cross $\times$ mark made in a voting square shall not make the ballot void, but shall render it blank as to the office, party position or question in connection with which it is made. A cross $\times$ mark is any straight line crossing any other straight line at any angle, but no ballot shall be declared void or partially blank because a cross $\times$ mark thereon is irregular in form. In applying any provision of this section to a primary election, the term "voting square" shall include the voting space at the left of the name of a candidate on the primary ballot.

election
law, § 358.

Rule 2. A cross $\times$ mark, made by the voter, in a voting square at the left of a candidate's name shall be counted as a vote for such candidate.

Rule 3. A vote shall be counted for a person, for an office or party position, if his name is written by the voter upon the ballot in the proper space provided therefor and is not printed under the title of such office or position.

Rule 4. If, in the case of a candidate for governor or member of assembly who is nominated by two or more political organizations, the voter shall make a cross $\times$ mark in each of two or more voting squares before the candidate's name, one vote shall be counted for such candidate but shall not be recorded in the tally sheet or returns as a vote with any particular party or independent body.

Rule 5. A cross $\times$ mark made by the voter, in a voting square following the word "Yes" or the word "No," before a constitutional amendment or other question submitted, shall be counted in the affirmative or negative, as so indicated.

Rule 6. If the voter marks more names than there are persons to be elected or nominated for an office, or elected to a party position, or if for any reason it is impossible to determine the voter's choice of a candidate or candidates for an office or party position or his vote upon a question, his vote shall not be counted for such office or position or upon the question, but shall be returned as a blank vote thereon.

Rule 7. A cross $\times$ mark, made by the voter, in a circle above a column, known as a party column, containing the names of candidates for presidential electors nominated by a party or independent body, the voter having made no other mark or writing on the ballot, shall be counted as a vote for each candidate named in such column. If the voter shall have made such mark in the circle above a party column and also in a voting square or in each of two or more voting squares in the same column, without having made a voting mark in any other column and without writing in any name, such individual voting marks shall be treated as surplusage, and the mark in the circle shall be counted as a vote for each candidate named in such column. If, however, the voter shall have made such mark in the circle above a party column and in a voting square or each of two or more voting squares in the same column and also in another column or columns or also writes a name or names in the blank column, the votes on a ballot so marked shall be counted only for the persons so specially indicated.

Rule 8. If the voter shall have made a cross $\times$ mark in the circle above a party column and no voting mark in any voting square in the same column and shall have made a cross $\times$ mark in a voting square or in each of two or more voting squares in another column or columns, or also writes in a name or names in the blank column, a vote shall be counted for each candidate before whose name any such mark is made and for each person whose name is so written and also for each candidate for presidential elector whose name is in the column below such circle except one whose name is printed on a horizontal line with a name so specially marked or written; provided, however, that if the voter shall have made a cross $\times$ mark in the circle above a party column and also cross $\times$ marks in voting squares before any two or more names on the same horizontal line, or shall have written a name in a blank space on a horizontal line with one or more names so individually marked, the votes on a ballot so marked shall be counted only for the persons whom, by individual voting marks or by writing, the voter shall have specially indicated.

§ 220. Objections to the counting. If objection be taken to the counting of any ballot or as to the counting thereof with respect to one or more specified offices, party positions or questions, the board of inspectors shall forthwith and before canvassing any other ballot or section rule upon the objection. If the objection be continued after this ruling, the chairman, or if he refuse, one of the other inspectors, shall write in ink upon the back of the ballot a memorandum of the ruling and objection. The memorandum of the ruling shall be in the words "Counted void," or "Counted blank," or "Counted for (naming the candidate or candidates or the presidential ticket)," or, in the case of a question submitted "Counted for Question No. . .," or

"Counted against Question No. ...," as the case may be. The memorandum of the objection shall be in the words "Objected to," followed by a brief statement of the nature of the objection and the signature of the chairman or other inspector.

Any ballot as to the counting of which objection is not taken but which is wholly blank or is void shall be indorsed in ink by the chairman of the board of inspectors, or if he refuse, by one of the other inspectors, with the words, "Wholly blank" or "Void," as the case may be, and this memorandum of indorsement shall be followed by the signature of the chairman or other inspector.

When all the ballots of any one kind shall have been canvassed, the inspectors shall ascertain the total number of wholly blank and void ballots and the number of ballots as to which any objection was taken and shall enter such numbers in the place provided therefor in the inspectors' returns of such canvass.

§ 221. Statement of canvass to be delivered to police in a city. In an election district of a city, the chairman of the board of inspectors shall, upon the completion of the count of votes and the announcement thereof, shall* deliver to the police officer on duty at the polling place a statement signed by the board of inspectors, stating the number of votes received by each person voted for and the number of votes cast for and the number of votes cast against each constitutional amendment or other question submitted; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to a primary election outside of the city of New York. Such officer forthwith shall convey the statement to the stationhouse of the police precinct in which such place of canvass is located, and shall deliver it inviolate to the officer in command thereof, who shall immediately transmit by telegraph, telephone or messenger, the contents of such statement to the officer commanding the police department of such city. In the city of New York, such commanding officer shall cause all such returns to be tabulated so that the final result may be known as early as possible, and within twenty-four hours of its receipt at the stationhouse such statement itself shall be filed with such commanding officer. The police department in the city of New York shall immediately after the close of the polls collect the returns from each election district as heretofore and shall tabulate the returns and furnish all newspapers and news associations with a copy of all such tabulations made by the police department and no preference shall be given. All statements made pursuant to this section shall be preserved for six months by the police and shall be presumptive evidence of the result of such canvass.

§ 222. Returns of canvass. Upon completing the canvass, the inspectors shall make, in duplicate, their returns of the canvass. Each of the two tally sheets for any office, party position or question shall be securely attached by the chairman to one set of the returns containing statements of the votes thereon, where the form of return supplied to the inspectors is not combined with the tally sheet itself. A tally sheet, when so annexed, or forming part of the same paper as the return, shall be treated as part of the return. The inspectors, and clerks, if any, shall subscribe in ink the certificate at the end of each of the two sets of returns. Except in the city of New York, the board of elections of any county may, in its discretion, require the making and signing, in the manner herein provided, of an additional copy of the returns of canvass, without the tallies, as to some or all of the offices or questions voted for at a general election at which votes are cast for city or town offices. Each set of returns shall be securely sealed with sealing wax in separate envelopes properly indorsed on the outside by the inspectors, except that boxes, if any, supplied by the board of elections, may, when securely locked, be used instead of sealed envelopes.

§ 223. Proclamation of result. Upon the completion of the canvass and of the statements of the result, the chairman of the board of inspectors shall make public oral proclamation of the whole number of votes cast at the election at the polling place for all candidates for each office, or, if it be a primary election, the whole number of party votes of each party so cast for all candidates for each office or party position; upon each proposed constitutional amendment or other question, if any; the whole number of votes given for each person, with the title of the office or party position for which he was named on the ballot; and the whole number of votes given, respectively, for and against each such proposed constitutional amendment or other question, if any.

§ 225. Returns of canvass in city of New York for certain offices voted for within and without such city. If any member of assembly, senator or representative in congress is voted for in any election district in the city of New York, and also in any part of any county not within such city, the inspectors of election in such election districts in such city shall at the same time that they make and sign their returns of canvass, make and sign a separate return as to the vote for each candidate for any such office, and the chairman of the board of inspectors shall within twenty-four hours after the completion of the canvass file such return with the clerk of such county outside of the city of New York.

§ 226. Sealing of ballots after canvass. After the returns of the canvass are made out and signed, the inspectors shall enclose the protested, void and wholly blank ballots in a separate sealed package and endorse thereon a certificate signed by each of them stating the number of the district and the number of ballots contained in the package. The inspectors shall then tie up and seal the other voted ballots and return them to the ballot box which contained them and securely lock and seal the box.

§ 227. Disposal of ballot and enrollment boxes, unused ballots and certain other articles. After the returns of the canvass are made out and signed, and all the stubs and ballots, except the protested, void and wholly blank ballots, are replaced in the boxes from which they were taken, each box shall be securely locked and sealed, and, except as hereinafter provided, shall be deposited by an inspector designated for that purpose with the officer or board furnishing it, together with the separate sealed package of unused ballots, and any empty box provided for containing card slips for literacy tests. In the city of New York, every box containing any ballots or stubs and the package of unused ballots shall be delivered at the polling place, at the conclusion of the canvass, to the police, who shall deposit them with the board of elections. The locked and sealed enrollment box, and the contents thereof, used at a general election where registration is not required to be personal shall be deposited with the board of elections by the chairman of the board of inspectors, or by an inspector designated by him.

1. In a city, all of the registers, one set of each kind of returns with tally sheets annexed, the absentee voters' envelopes, the challenge records, the package of protested, void and wholly blank ballots, and the identification statements, if there be any, shall be filed with the board of elections, and the flag shall be returned to it. The other sets of returns, with tally sheets annexed, and the poll-books, if any such books are used at the election, shall be filed with the city clerk. At a general election, if a third set of returns, without tally sheets, be made by direction of the board of elections, it shall be delivered to one of the city supervisors.

2. In a town, three of the registers in the polling place at a general election, or both of the registers used at any other election, one set of each kind of returns with tally sheets annexed, the absentee voters' envelopes, the challenge records, and the packages of protested, void and wholly blank ballots shall be filed with the board of elections, and the card slips, if any, for literacy tests and the flag shall be returned to it. The other sets of returns with tally sheets annexed, and, if it be a general election, one of the registers used for recording the numbers on ballots voted, shall be filed with the town clerk. At an election, if any, where poll-books are used, such books also shall be filed with the town clerk. At a general election, if a third set of returns, without tally sheets, be made by direction of the board of elections, it shall be delivered to the supervisor of the town, or to a town assessor if the supervisor be absent or disabled.

3. Returns and books to be filed with a city clerk and the returns, and registers or books, if any, to be filed with a town clerk, and returns, if any, to be delivered to a supervisor or assessor, pursuant to this section, shall be so filed or delivered immediately after the completion of the returns of the canvass, by an inspector designated by the board of inspectors. Returns, papers and registers to be filed with the board of elections shall be so filed by the chairman of the board of inspectors within twenty-four hours after the completion of such returns.

§ 241. Examination of voting machines by voting machine commissioners. Any person or corporation owning or being interested in any voting machine may apply to the state board of voting machine commissioners to examine such machine. The commissioners shall examine the machine accordingly and shall make and file in the office of the secretary of state their report of the examination, which report shall state whether in their opinion the kind of machine so examined can be safely used by such voters at elections, under the conditions prescribed in this article. If the report states that the machine can be so used, it shall be deemed approved, and machines of its kind may be adopted for use at elections as herein provided. When the machine has been so approved, any improvement or change that does not impair its accuracy, efficiency or capacity shall not render necessary a re-examination or re-approval thereof. § 242. Requirements of voting machine. A voting machine approved by the state board of voting machine commissioners must be so constructed as to provide facilities for voting for such candidates as may be nominated. It also must permit a voter to vote for any person for any office, whether or not nominated as a candidate by any party or organization, and must permit voting in absolute secrecy. It also must be so constructed that a voter cannot vote for a candidate or on a proposition for whom or on which he is not lawfully entitled to vote. It also must be so constructed as to prevent voting for more than one person for the same office, except where a voter is lawfully entitled to vote for more than one person for that office, and it must afford him an opportunity to vote for as many persons for that office as he is by law entitled to vote for and no more, at the same time preventing his voting for the same person twice.

It must be provided with a lock or locks, by the use of which immediately after the polls are closed or the operation of such machine for such election is completed, any movement of the voting or registering mechanism is absolutely prevented. It also may be provided with a separate ballot in each party column or row containing only the words "presidential electors," preceded by the party name.

ch. 115.

§ 243. Adoption of voting machine. The board of elections of the city of New York and the common council or other legislative governing body of each other city of the first class shall, and the common council or other legislative governing body of any other city, the town board of any town, or the board of trustees of any village may adopt for use at elections any kind of voting machine approved by the state board of voting machine commissioners, or the use of which has been specifically authorized by law; and thereupon such voting machine may be used at any or all elections, other than primary elections, held in such city, town or village, or in any part thereof, for voting, registering and counting votes cast at such elections. Voting machines of different kinds may be adopted for different districts in the same city, town or village. If, on or before the first day of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, such board of elections, common council or legislative governing body, as the case may be, of a city of the first class, shall have failed to agree thereon, the secretary of state, within ten days thereafter, shall adopt a kind or kinds of voting machine for use at elections in such cities. A sufficient number of voting machines shall thereafter be provided in the manner prescribed in section two hundred and forty-six so that at the general election in nineteen hundred and twenty-two polling places in such cities to the extent of at least fifteen per centum shall be equipped therewith. At least an additional forty per centum of the polling places in such cities shall be so equipped with voting machines for use at the general election in nineteen hundred and twenty-three. All the remaining polling places in such cities shall be so equipped with voting machines for use at the general election in nineteen hundred and twenty-four.

§ 244. Experimental use of voting machine. The authorities of a city, town or village authorized to adopt a voting machine may provide for the experimental use, at an election in one or more districts, of a machine which it might lawfully adopt, without a formal adoption thereof; and its use at such election shall be as valid for all purposes as if it had been lawfully adopted.

§ 245. Providing machines, generally. Except as otherwise provided in the next section with respect to cities of the first class, the local authorities adopting a voting machine shall, as soon as practicable thereafter, provide for each polling place one or more voting machines in complete working order, and shall thereafter preserve and keep them in repair. If it shall be impracticable to supply each election district with a voting machine or voting machines at any election following such adoption, as many shall be supplied as it is practicable to procure and the same may be used in such election district or districts within the city, town or village as the officers adopting the same may direct.

§ 246. Providing machines in first class cities. Whenever a kind or kinds of voting machine shall have been or hereafter shall be adopted for use in a city of the first class and such machine shall not have been provided on or before the first day of May, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, the board of elections of the city of New York, or the common council or other legislative governing body of any other city of the first class, as the case may be, shall provide a sufficient number of voting machines to satisfy the requirements of section two hundred and forty-three of this chapter. Such board of elections of the city of New York or common council or other legislative governing body shall determine on or before the first day of July the election districts in which such voting machines shall be installed in each year, but if such board of elections, common council or body, are unable to agree upon the districts, such determination shall be made by the secretary of state within ten days thereafter. The voting machine adopted shall be thereafter used in the districts so determined upon, except that if for any reason it shall be impossible to obtain the full number necessary, so many shall be used as may be available. In the event that such board of elections, common council or other legislative governing body shall not agree upon and execute a contract or contracts for the purchase of the necessary voting machines for the year nineteen hundred and twenty-two on or before the fifteenth day of May, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and for nineteen hundred and twenty-three and nineteen hundred and twenty-four, on or before the first day of March in each of such years respectively, such contract or contracts shall be awarded, made and executed by the secretary of state on approval of the attorney-general as to form. The expense of making and entering into such contracts, including the preparation and printing of specifications, and also all payments for voting machines to be made thereunder, shall be chargeable to the city, and it shall be the duty of the comptroller or other chief fiscal officer of the city to pay the same upon the certificate of the local board, body or officer making such contract, or upon the certificate of the secretary of state in the event that such contract be made by him. For the purpose of providing funds with which to pay such sums the comptroller or other chief financial officer of such city is hereby authorized and directed to issue and sell special revenue bonds or other similar obligations of such city and out of the proceeds of such bonds to make the payments in this section required to be made. The amount necessary to pay the principal and interest of such bonds shall be included in the estimates of money necessary to be raised by taxation to carry on the business of such city, and shall be made a part of the tax levy for the year next following the year in which such bonds are issued. No provision of any city charter or other law or ordinance governing the purchase of patented articles shall be deemed to apply to the purchase of voting machines pursuant to the provisions of this section.

§ 247. Payment for machines. The local authorities, on the adoption and purchase of a voting machine, shall provide for the payment therefor in such manner as they may deem for the best interest of the locality and may for that purpose issue bonds, certificates of indebtedness or other obligations which shall be a charge on the city, town or village. Such bonds, certificates or other obligations may be issued with or without interest, payable at such time or times as the authorities may determine, but shall not be issued or sold at less than par.

§ 248. Enrollment booths and boxes for absentee voters' ballots. The board or body charged with the duty of designating polling places, shall provide the following booths and boxes, at a general election, for election districts where voting machines are used: in an election district where registration is not required to be personal as to all of the voters, two booths, for use by voters in marking enrollment blanks; in any election district, the necessary box or boxes for the reception of absentee voters' ballots, unless such board or body shall have ascertained from the board of elections that no such ballots have been received for that district.

§ 249. Form of ballots on voting machines. All ballots shall be printed in black ink on clear, white material, of such size as will fit the ballot frame, and in as plain, clear type as the space will reasonably permit. The party emblem for each political party represented on the machine, which has been duly adopted by such party in accordance with this chapter, and the party name or other designation, and a designating letter and number shall be affixed to the names, or, in case of presidential electors, to the list of candidates of such party. The titles of offices may be arranged horizontally, with the names of candidates for an office arranged vertically under the title of the office, or the titles of offices may be arranged vertically, with the names of candidates for an office arranged horizontally opposite the title of the office, each office to occupy as many columns or rows on the machine as the number of candidates to be elected to that office. The names of all candidates nominated by any party for an office shall always appear in the row or column containing generally the names of candidates nominated by such party for other offices. When a person has been nominated for an office by one political party and has also been nominated for that office by one or more independent bodies, his name shall appear only in the row or column containing generally the names of candidates for other offices nominated by such party, and the name and emblem of such party and of each of such independent bodies shall appear in connection with his name. When the same person has been nominated for the same office to be filled at the election by more than one party, the voting machine shall be so adjusted that his name shall appear in each row or column containing generally the names of candidates for other offices nominated by any such party; and if such candidate has also been nominated by one or more independent bodies, his name shall appear only in each row or column containing generally the names of candidates for other offices nominated by any such party, and the name and emblem of each such independent bodies shall appear in one such row or column to be designated by the candidate in writing filed with the officer charged with the duty of providing ballots, or if such person shall fail to so designate, the names and emblems of such independent bodies shall appear in such row or column as such officer shall determine. If any person shall be nominated for any office only by one or more independent bodies, his name shall appear but once upon the machine in the place designated by the officer charged with the duty of providing ballots, and in connection with his name there shall appear the name and emblem of each independent body nominating him. Provided, however, the name of a person who is nominated for the office of governor, or the name of a person who is nominated by a party or parties for the office of member of assembly, shall appear on the ballot labels of the machine as many times as there are parties or independent bodies nominating him, and there shall be a separate voting and registering device at each place in which such name shall appear. The machine shall be so adjusted that when one or more knobs, equaling the total number of persons to be elected to that office shall have been operated, all other knobs used in connection with that office shall be thereby locked.

§ 250. Sample ballots. The officers or board charged with the duty of providing ballots for any polling place shall provide therefor two sample ballots which shall be arranged in the form of a diagram showing such part of the face of the voting machine as shall be in use at that election. Such sample ballots shall be either in full or reduced size and shall contain suitable illustrated directions for voting on the voting machine. Such sample ballots shall be open to public inspection at such polling place during election day. At all general elections where voting machines are used there may be furnished a sufficient number of such sample ballots of a reduced size, one of which sample ballots may be mailed by the board of elections to each registered voter at least three days before the election, or, in lieu thereof, a copy of such sample ballot may be published at least once within one week preceding the election in newspapers representing at least two political parties.

§ 251.¹ Preparation of voting machines by boards of elections. It shall be the duty of the board of elections of each county and in the city of New York, in which voting machines are to be used, to cause the proper ballot labels to be placed on voting machines, to cause the machines to be placed in proper order for voting, to examine all voting machines before they are sent out to the different polling places, to see that all the registering counters are set at zero (000), to lock all voting machines so that the counting machinery cannot be operated and to seal each one with a numbered metal seal.

The board of elections may appoint as many custodians of voting machines as may be necessary for the proper preparation of the machines, except that there may be only one custodian for each one hundred voting machines or major fraction thereof. Such custodian or custodians shall, under the direction of the board of elections, have charge of and represent the board of elections during the preparation of the voting machines and serve at the pleasure of the board of elections. Before preparing the voting machines for any election, written notices shall be mailed to the chairmen of the county committees of the two parties entitled to representation on a board of inspectors of election stating the times when and place or places where the machines will be prepared; at which times and place or places, one representative of each of such political parties, certified by the respective chairmen of the county committees of such parties, shall be entitled to be present and see that the machines are properly prepared and placed in proper condition and order for use at the election. The custodian or custodians of voting machines and the party representatives shall take the constitutional oath of office, which shall be filed in the office of the board of elections. It shall be the duty of such party representatives to be present at the preparation of the voting machines for election and see that the machines are properly prepared and that all registering counters are set at zero (000). When the machines have been prepared for election, it shall be the duty of such custodian or custodians and party representatives, to make a certificate in writing which shall be filed in the office of the board of elections, stating the number of machines, whether or not all the machines are set at zero (000), the number registered on the protective counter, if one is provided, and the number on the metal seal with which the machine is sealed.

Such custodians and party representatives shall perform their duties under the direction of the board of elections. No custodian or other employee of the board of elections shall in any way prevent free access and examination of all voting machines which are to be used at the election, by the duly appointed party representatives, and the board of elections and its employees shall afford the party representatives every facility for the examination of all registering counters, protective counters and public counters of each and every voting machine.

It shall be the duty of the board or officer charged by law with the duty of equipping the polling places to cause a voting machine or machines, prepared as above provided to be delivered, subject to the supervision of the board of elections, at each of the respective polling places in which they are to be used, at least one hour before the time set for the opening of the polls. After the machine has been delivered, it shall be set up in the proper manner for use at the election, and it shall be the duty of the local authorities to provide ample protection against molestation and injury to the machine. Every voting machine shall be furnished with a lantern or a proper substitute for one, which shall give sufficient light to enable voters while in the booth to read the ballot labels, and suitable for the use of election officers in examining the counters. The lantern shall be prepared and in good order for use before the opening of the polls. All voting machines used in any election shall be provided with a screen and hood or curtain which shall be so made and adjusted as to completely conceal the voter and his action while voting. The custodian or custodians of voting machines and party representatives shall be paid for their services such an amount as shall be fixed by the board of elections, which shall not, however, exceed the compensation per day of inspectors of election at a general election.

§ 252. Instruction of election officers. Not less than ten days before each general election, except in a county in which special provision is made by this chapter for the holding of a school of instruction of election officers, the board of elections shall cause each board of inspectors to be instructed in the use of the machine, and in the duties of inspectors of election in connection therewith; and it shall give to each inspector of election who has received such instruction and is fully qualified to properly conduct the election with the machine a certificate to that effect. For the purpose of giving such instruction, the board shall call such meeting, or meetings, of the inspectors of election as shall be necessary. The inspectors of election of each election district in which a voting machine is to be used, shall attend such meeting, or meetings, to be conducted by members or employees of the board of elections. Each inspector of election who shall qualify for and serve in the election, shall be paid one dollar for the time spent in receiving such instruction, and also his car or railroad fare in going to and returning from each meeting held outside of the town or city in which he resides, in the same manner and at the same time as he is paid for his services on election day. No inspector of election shall serve in any election at which a voting machine is used unless he shall have received such instruction and is fully qualified to perform his duties in connection with the machine and has received a certificate to that effect from the board, signed by a member of the board or its employee thereco authorized; provided, however, that this shall not prevent the appointment of an inspector of election to fill a vacancy in an emergency. The person giving the instruction shall without delay file a report with the board of elections, stating that he has instructed the election officers named in the certificate and the time and place where such instruction was given.

§ 253. Instruction of voters before election. In all places where voting machines are to be used one or more of such machines which shall contain the ballot labels, showing the party emblems and title of offices to be voted for, and which shall so far as practicable contain the names of the candidates to be voted for, shall be placed on public exhibition in some suitable place, in charge of a competent instructor, for at least three days during the thirty days next preceding the election; but no voting machine which is to be assigned for use in an election shall be used for such instruction after having been prepared and sealed for the election. During such public exhibition, the counting mechanism of the machine shall be concealed from view and the doors may be temporarily opened only when authorized by the board or official having charge and control of the election.

§ 255. Opening of the polls; certain preliminaries. The inspectors of election, and the clerks if any, of each election district, shall meet at the polling place at least three-quarters of an hour before the time set for opening the polls of the election. The inspectors shall cause to be posted conspicuously within the polling place the two instruction cards and shall see to the display of the American flag and the placing of distance markers as provided in the preceding article. They shall arrange within the guard-rail the furniture and voting machine for the conduct of the election and shall place the registers, books, blanks, sample ballots and stationery so that they may be ready and convenient for use. They shall see that the lantern for the voting machine is in good order for use, and that it is lighted, if that is necessary, in order that the names upon the ballots shall be clearly visible. At the opening of the polls, they shall cause to be made a proclamation thereof and of the time when the polls will close.

§ 256. Examination of machine by inspectors on election day and final preparation thereof. The keys to the voting machine shall be delivered to the inspectors at least three-quarters of an hour before the time set for the opening of the polls, in a sealed envelope, on which shall be written or printed the number and location of the voting machine, the number of the seal, and, if provided with a protective counter, the number registered on such counter, as reported by the voting machine custodian. The envelope containing the keys shall not be opened until at least one inspector from each of the two parties shall be present in the polling place and shall have examined the envelope to see that it has not been opened. Before opening the envelope, all the election officers present shall examine the number on the seal on the machine, also the number registered on the protective counter, if one is provided, and shall see if they are the same as the numbers written on the envelope containing the keys. If found not to agree, the envelope must not be opened until the voting machine custodian, or other authorized person, shall have been notified and shall have presented himself at the polling place for the purpose of re-examining such machine and shall certify that it is properly arranged. If the numbers on the seal and protective counter, if one is provided, are found to agree with the numbers on the envelope the inspectors shall open the doors concealing the counters, and before the polls are open, each inspector shall carefully examine every counter and see that it registers zero, and allow the watchers to examine them. The inspectors shall insert in their proper places on the voting machine the ballots containing the names of the offices and nominated candidates, if this has not previously been done. The inspectors shall then sign a certificate showing the delivery of the keys in a sealed envelope, the number on the seal, the number registered on the protective counter if one is provided, if all of the counters are set at zero (000), if the public counter is set at zero (000) and if the ballot labels are properly placed in the machine. The machine shall remain locked against voting until the polls are formally opened, and shall not be operated except by voters in voting. If any counter is found not to register zero (000), the inspectors of election shall immediately notify the custodian, who shall if practicable adjust the counters at zero (000), but if it shall be impracticable for the custodian to arrive in time so to adjust such counters before the time set for opening the polls, the inspectors shall immediately make a written statement of the designating letter and number of such counter, together with the number registered thereon, and shall sign and post the same upon the wall of the polling place, where it shall remain throughout election day, and in filling out the statement of canvass they shall subtract such number from the number then registered thereon.

§ 257. General provisions as to conduct of election. One inspector shall attend the voting machine. The other inspectors shall have charge of the registers, subject to participation by any inspector in the decision of a question. Of the inspectors in charge of the registers, one shall attend to comparing the signatures of voters, when that is necessary. The assignment of inspectors to attend machine and compare signatures shall be made and may be changed as provided in section one hundred and ninety-five, for the division of duties therein mentioned, and the provisions of that section in relation to the assignment of duties to clerks, shall apply where two voting machines are used and there are clerks.

The exterior of the voting machine and every part of the polling place shall be in plain view of the election officers and watchers. The voting machine shall be placed at least four feet from the table

used by the inspectors in charge of the registers. The guard-rail shall be at least three feet from the machine, with openings to admit voters to and from the machine. The voting machine shall be so located in the polling place that, unless its construction requires otherwise, the ballot labels on the face of the machine can be seen plainly by the election officers and the party watchers when not in use by voters. The election officers shall not themselves be, or allow any other person to be, in any position or near any position, that will permit one to see or ascertain how a voter votes, or how he has voted. The election officer attending the machine shall inspect the face of the machine after each voter has cast his vote, to see that the ballot labels are in their proper places and that the machine has not been injured or tampered with. During elections the door or other covering of the counter compartment of the machine shall not be unlocked or opened or the counters exposed except for good and sufficient reasons, a statement of which shall be made and signed by the election officers and attached to the returns.

§ 258. Instruction of voters on election day; assistance to voters. For the instruction of voters, there shall be, so far as practicable, in each polling place, a mechanically operated model of a portion of the face of the machine. Such model, if furnished, shall be located during the election on the inspectors' table or in some other place which the voters must pass to reach the machine, and each voter, before entering the machine, shall be instructed regarding its operation and such instruction illustrated on the model and the voter given opportunity to personally operate the model. The voter's attention also shall be called to the diagram of the face of the machine so that the voter can become familiar with the location of the questions and the names of the offices and candidates. If any voter, after entering the voting machine booth and before the closing of such booth, shall ask for further instructions concerning the manner of voting, two inspectors of opposite political faith shall give such instructions to him; but no inspector or other election officer or person assisting a voter shall in any manner request, suggest or seek to persuade or induce any such voter to vote any particular ticket, or for any particular candidate, or for or against any particular amendment, question or proposition. After giving such instructions, the inspectors shall retire and such voter shall then close the booth and vote as in the case of an unassisted voter. The provisions of the preceding article in relation to assistance to disabled or illiterate voters also shall apply where voting machines are used, and the word "booth" when used in such provisions shall be interpreted to include the ballot machine inclosure or curtain.

election
law, § 410.

§ 259. Manner of voting. The inspectors shall admit within the guard-rail but one voter at a time and shall ascertain whether he is entitled to vote. If he is found to be entitled to vote, and not otherwise, he shall be admitted within the ballot machine inclosure or curtain and be permitted to vote. The operating of the voting machine by the voter while voting shall be secret and obscured from all other persons except as provided by this chapter in cases of voting by assisted voters. No voter shall remain within the voting machine booth longer than three minutes, and if he shall refuse to leave it after the lapse of three minutes, he shall be removed by the inspectors.

§ 260. Voting for person other than a nominated candidate. Ballots voted for any person whose name does not appear on the machine as a nominated candidate for office are referred to in this article as irregular ballots. Where two or more persons are to be elected to the same office, and each candidate's name is placed upon or adjacent to a separate key or device, and the machine requires that all irregular ballots voted for that office be deposited, written or affixed in or upon a single receptacle or device, a voter may vote in or by such receptacle or device for one or more persons whose names do not appear upon the machine with or without the names of one or more persons whose names do so appear. Source.—
election
law, § 408.

In voting for presidential electors, a voter may vote an irregular ticket made up of the names of persons in nomination by different parties, or partially of names of persons so in nomination and partially of names of persons not in nomination, or wholly of names of persons not in nomination by any party. Such irregular ballot shall be deposited, written or affixed in or upon the receptacle or device provided on the machine for that purpose.

With these exceptions, no irregular ballot shall be voted for any person for any office whose name appears on the machine as a nominated candidate for that office; any irregular ballot so voted shall not be counted. An irregular ballot must be cast in its appropriate place on the machine, or it shall be void and not counted.

§ 261. Unofficial ballots; repair of machine or use of paper ballots. If the official ballots for an election district at which a voting machine is to be used, required to be furnished by or to any town, or city clerk, or board, shall not be delivered at the time required, or if after delivery shall be lost, destroyed or stolen, the clerk of such town or city, or such board, or the election inspectors of such district, shall cause other ballots to be prepared, printed or written, as nearly in the form of the official ballots as practicable, and the inspectors shall cause the ballots so substituted to be used at the election in the same manner, as near as may be, as the official ballots. Such ballots so substituted shall be known as unofficial ballots. If any voting machine being used in any election shall become out of order during such election, it shall if possible be repaired or another machine substituted as promptly as possible, but in case such repair or substitution cannot be made, paper ballots, printed or written, and of any suitable form, may be used for the taking of votes, and for such purpose the reduced sample ballots may be employed. § 262. Canvass of vote and proclamation of result. As soon as the polls of the election are closed, the inspectors of election thereat shall immediately lock the voting machine against voting. The inspectors then shall sign a certificate stating that the machine has been locked against voting and sealed; the number of voters as shown on the public counters; the number on the seal; the Source.—

number registered on the protective counter, if one is provided; and that the voting machine is closed and locked. The inspectors then shall open the counting compartments in the presence of the watchers and all other persons who may be lawfully within the polling place, giving full view of all the counter numbers. The chairman of the board of inspectors shall, under the scrutiny of an inspector of a different political party, in the order of the offices as their titles are arranged on the machine, read and announce in distinct tones the designating number and letter on each counter for each candidate's name, the result as shown by the counter numbers, and shall then read the votes recorded for each office on the irregular ballots. He shall also in the same manner announce the vote on each constitutional amendment, proposition or other question. The counter shall not in the case of presidential electors be read consecutively along the party row or column, but shall always be read along the office columns or rows, completing the canvass for each office. If a separate ballot in each party column or row entitled "presidential electors" is provided, a vote for such ballot shall operate as a vote for all the candidates of such party for presidential electors. The vote as registered shall be entered on the statements of canvass in ink, by two inspectors of opposite political faith from each other, but not including the chairman, in the same order on the space which has the same designating number and letter, after which the figures shall be verified by being called off in the same manner from the counters of the machine by an inspector of opposite political faith from the chairman. The return of the canvass shall then be filled out, which shall show the total number of votes cast for each office, the number of votes cast for each candidate, as shown on his counter, and the number of votes for persons not nominated, and the statement shall be signed by each inspector. The counter compartment of the voting machine shall remain open until the official returns and all other reports have been fully completed and verified by the board of inspectors. During such time any candidate or duly accredited watcher who may desire to be present shall be admitted to the polling place. The proclamation of the result of the votes cast shall be deliberately announced in a distinct voice by the chairman of the board of inspectors who shall read the name of each candidate, with the designating number and letter of his counter, and the vote registered on such counter; also the vote cast for and against each question submitted. During such proclamation ample opportunity shall be given to any person lawfully present to compare the results so announced with the counter dials of the machine and any necessary corrections shall then and there be made by the board, after which the doors of the voting machine shall be closed and locked. Before adjourning the board shall, with the seal provided therefor, so seal the operating lever of the machine that the voting and counting mechanism will be prevented from operation. If absentee voters' ballots have been voted, such ballots shall then be canvassed and tallied, the vote thereon for each candidate announced and added to the vote as recorded on the statement of votes cast by machine and a final proclamation made as to the total vote received by each candidate. Absentee voters' ballots and irregular ballots, inclosed in properly sealed packages respectively, and properly indorsed shall be filed with the original statement of canvass. The inspector filing the returns shall deliver to the said board or officer from which or whom they were received the keys of the voting machine, inclosed in a sealed envelope having indorsed thereon a certificate of the inspectors stating the number of the machine, the election district, ward or assembly district where it has been used, the number on the seal and the number on the protective counter, if any.

§ 263. Statements of canvass. In each election district where voting machines are used, statements of canvass shall be printed to conform with the type of voting machine used, of a form approved by the secretary of state. The designating number and letter on the counter for each candidate shall be printed next to the candidate's name on the statements of canvass. The form of such statement, for a general election, also shall provide for the entry of the number of votes for each candidate, or upon each question, cast by absentee voters' ballots and the total number of votes, by such ballots and by machine, for each candidate and upon each question. Two such statements shall be used, in each such election district, and, at a general election at which city or town offices are to be filled, an additional statement if the board of elections shall so require. No tally sheets shall be provided or used in any such district, except for votes on absentee voters' ballots at a general election, and the secretary of state shall devise a form of tally sheet to be used for that purpose, with provision for making the tallies as to all offices, or all questions, on one sheet, so far as practicable, and without individual spaces for individual tally marks.

§ 264. Preservation of ballots and of record of the machine. The voting machine shall remain locked against voting for the period of thirty days and as much longer as may be necessary or advisable because of any existing or threatened contest over the result of the election, except as provided by section two hundred and sixty-six and except that it may be opened and all the data and figures therein examined upon the order of any court or judge of competent jurisdiction or may be opened by direction of a committee of the senate or assembly to investigate and report upon contested elections of members of the legislature voted for by the use of such machine and such data and such figures examined by such committee in the presence of the officer having the custody of such machine. Irregular ballots shall be preserved for six months after such election and the packages thereof may be opened and the contents examined only upon order of a court or judge of competent jurisdiction, or by direction of such committee of the senate and assembly if the ballots relate to the election under investigation by such committee, and at the expiration of such time, such ballots may be disposed of in the discretion of the officer or board having charge of them.

§ 265. Custody of voting machines and keys. The inspectors shall inclose the keys of the machine in an envelope, supplied with the keys, on which shall be written the number of the machine and the district and ward where it has been used, securely seal the envelope, indorse it and return it to the officer from whom the keys were received. The number on the seal and the number registered on the protective counter, if so provided, shall be written on the envelope containing the keys. The local authorities adopting the machines shall have the custody thereof when not in use at an election, and shall preserve and keep them in repair. All keys for voting machines shall be kept securely locked by the officials having them in charge. A public officer who, by any provision of law, is entitled to the custody of a machine for any period of time, shall be entitled to the keys therefor while such machine is in his charge. It shall be unlawful for any unauthorized person to have in his possession any key or keys of any voting machine; and all election officers, or persons entrusted with such keys for election purposes, or in the preparation of the machine therefor, shall not retain them longer than necessary to use them for such legal purpose. All machines shall be boxed and collected as soon after the close of the election as possible, and the machines, and the boxes for the machines, shall at all times be stored in a suitable place.

§ 266. Provision for re-canvass of vote. Whenever it shall appear that there is a discrepancy in the returns of any election district, the county board of canvassers shall summon the inspectors of election thereof, and said inspectors, in the presence of said board of canvassers, or a bi-partisan committee thereof, shall make a record of the number on the seal and the number on the protective counter, if one is provided, open the counter compartment of such machine, and, without unlocking such machine against voting, shall re-canvass the vote cast thereon. Before making such re-canvass the county board of canvassers shall give notice in writing to the voting machine custodian and to the county chairman of each party or independent body which shall have nominated candidates for the election of the time and place where such re-canvass is to be made; and each of such parties or nominating bodies may send two representatives to be present at such re-canvass. If, upon such re-canvass, it shall be found that the original canvass of the returns has been correctly made from the machine, and that the discrepancy still remains unaccounted for, the county board of canvassers, or such committee thereof, with the assistance of the custodian of the machine, in the presence of the inspectors of election and the authorized representatives of the several parties or nominating bodies, shall unlock the voting and counting mechanism of the machine and shall proceed to thoroughly examine and test the machine to determine and reveal the true cause or causes, if any, of the discrepancy in the returns from such machine. Before testing the counters, they shall be reset at zero (000) after which each counter shall be operated at least one hundred times. After the completion of such examination and test, the custodian shall then and there prepare a statement in writing, giving in detail the result thereof, and such statement shall be witnessed by the persons present and shall be filed with the secretary of the county board of canvassers. However, nothing contained in this section shall authorize any change in the returns filed by inspectors of election in any election district nor authorize any board of canvassers in anywise to consider or act upon any re-canvass of votes made pursuant thereto.

§ 267. Application of other articles and penal law. The provisions of the other articles of this chapter apply as far as practicable to voting machines, except as herein provided. The provisions of law relating to misconduct at elections also shall apply to elections with voting machines. Source —

2. The word "ballot" as used in this article, (except when reference is made to irregular ballots) means that portion of the cardboard or paper or other material within the ballot frames containing the name of the candidate and the emblem of the party organization by which he was nominated, or a statement of a proposed constitutional amendment, or other question or proposition with the word "Yes" for voting for any question or the word "No" for voting against any question.

3. The term "question" means any constitutional amendment, proposition, or other question submitted to the voters at any election.

4. The term "ballot label" means the printed strips of cardboard containing the names of the candidates nominated, and the questions submitted.

5. The term "irregular ballot" means a vote cast, by or on a special device, for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot labels.

6. The term "protective counter" means a separate counter built into the voting machine which cannot be reset, which records the total number of movements of the operating lever.

§ 269. Saving clause. Nothing herein shall be deemed to prohibit the adoption or use of any voting machine at any election within any town, city or village that has adopted the same prior to the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and thirteen, if the mechanism is or may be made adjustable to conform to the grouping of candidates under the title of the office, but the method of conducting an election therewith shall be in the manner prescribed by this chapter. § 270. Canvass of primary returns by board of elections; notices to delegates; certificates. 1. The board of elections shall canvass the returns of primary elections filed with it. It shall canvass first the votes of the delegates and alternates to state and judicial district conventions and complete such canvass at the earliest time possible. It shall complete the canvass otherwise within one hundred and twenty hours from midnight of the day upon which the primary election is held. Upon the completion of the canvass the board shall make and file in its office tabulated statements signed by the members of such board or a majority thereof of the number of votes cast for all the candidates for nomination to each public office or for election to each party position, and the number of votes cast for each such candidate. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes for nomination for a public office or for election to a party position voted for wholly within the political unit for which such board is acting, shall be the nominee of his party for such office or elected to such party position and the board, if requested by a candidate elected to a party position, shall furnish to him a certificate of election.

2. The board forthwith upon the completion of the canvass for delegates and alternates to a state or judicial district convention, shall transmit to the secretary of state a certificate stating the name and residence of each delegate and alternate elected; except that, in respect of a judicial district convention in the first judicial district, the board of elections, instead of transmitting such certificate, shall make up the roll of the convention and transmit it to the chairman or secretary of the committee which, by party rules, is empowered to fix the time and place of the convention. The board of elections shall send by mail to each delegate and alternate elected a notice of his election.

3. The board forthwith, upon the completion of the canvass, shall file in the office of the secretary of state a certified copy of its tabulated statements as to the votes cast as to each nomination or party position voted for in a district greater than the political unit for which the board is acting.

§ 271. Canvass of primary returns by secretary of state; convention rolls. The secretary of state upon receipt by him from boards of elections of the tabulated statements of votes at a primary election required to be filed with him shall proceed forthwith to canvass such statements. Upon the completion of the canvass he shall make, certify and file in his office tabulated statements of the number of votes cast for all the candidates for nomination to each public office or for election to each party position, and the number of votes cast for each such candidate. The candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be the nominee of his party for such office or shall be elected to party position, as the case may be, and the secretary of state, if requested by a candidate elected to a party position upon the returns canvassed by the secretary of state, shall furnish to him a certificate of election. From the certificates of boards of elections as to the delegates and alternates elected to a state or judicial district convention of any party, other than a judicial district convention in the first judicial district, the secretary of state forthwith shall make up the roll of each such convention in duplicate and transmit it, if for a state convention, to the chairman and secretary of the state committee of the party, and if for a judicial district convention, to the chairman and secretary of the committee which, by party rules, is empowered to fix the time and place of the convention.

§ 272. County boards of canvassers; board of canvassers of the city of New York and the counties therein. Outside of the city of New York, the board of supervisors of each county shall be the county board of canvassers of such county. Such board also shall be the city board of canvassers of any city or cities within the county for a city election held with the general election, except as otherwise provided in local acts enacted after the eighth day of June, nineteen hundred and ten, and except also that the council of the city of Buffalo shall be the city board of canvassers of such city. The board of elections of the city of New York shall be the county board of canvassers of each of the counties in such city and the city board of canvassers of such city. The term "canvassing board" as used in this article, shall mean the county board of canvassers, including the board of elections of the city of New York sitting as such a county board and as a city board of canvassers. In the city of New York, the secretary of the board of elections, or, if he be absent or unable to act, a member or chief clerk designated by the board, and elsewhere the president of the board of elections, or, if he be absent or unable to act, the secretary of such board, or, in a county having a single commissioner of elections, such commissioner, or, in a county in which the county clerk is the board of elections, such clerk or a deputy clerk designated by him, shall be the secretary of the canvassing board. Each canvassing board shall meet on the Tuesday next after each election of public officers, held within its jurisdiction, except an election of town, city, village or school district officers held at a time other than that of a general election, or before that day and not earlier than the Thursday following the election, if the secretary shall issue a call therefor. The canvassing board shall meet at the place where it usually meets in other capacities, but in the city of New York its duties may be performed in any or all of the offices of the board of elections. The canvassing board shall organize by selecting one of its members as chairman. The secretary shall administer the constitutional oath of office to the chairman, who shall then administer such oath to the secretary and each member of the board. A majority of the members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but if a majority shall not attend on the day fixed for the meeting, the members present shall elect the chairman and adjourn to a stated hour of the next day.

§ 273. Canvass of election district returns of general and special elections. The board of elections with which they were filed shall produce or deliver to the canvassing board all the returns, with tally sheets, if any, annexed, containing the statement of canvass received from inspectors of election for election districts within the county, or each county, for which such canvassing board is constituted. If a return for any such election district cannot be so produced or delivered, the canvassing board shall require the other return, filed with a county, city or town clerk, to be produced. The canvassing board shall then proceed to canvass the vote cast within the county, or, in the city of New York, within each county in the city; provided, however, that a county board of canvassers shall not canvass the votes for town officers or upon town questions or appropriations except in a county where, by the provisions of the town law or other statute, such board is required to canvass the same. The canvass of votes for the office of United States senator to fill a vacancy shall be completed within ten days after the election. If, during the canvass, there shall clearly appear, in the return for any district filed with the board of elections, to be any omission or clerical mistake, the canvassing board may cause to be produced and may examine the return filed with the county, city or town clerk, to ascertain the action of the election officers, or, where any such omission or mistake clearly appears in any return, or two returns for the same district examined by the board are inconsistent, the canvassing board may summon the election officers before the board, and such officers shall meet forthwith and make any necessary correction, in order that their canvass may be correctly stated, but they shall not alter any decision theretofore made by them. The canvassing board may adjourn from day to day, not exceeding three days in all, for the purpose of receiving corrected statements.

law, § 427.

§ 274. Statements of canvass by canvassing boards. Upon the completion of the canvass the canvassing board shall make statements thereof showing separately the result as to each office or question. Each such statement shall set forth, in words written out at length, all votes cast for all the candidates for each office; the name of each candidate; the number of votes so cast for each, and, in the case of a candidate for governor or member of assembly who was nominated by two or more parties or independent bodies, the number separately stated of votes cast for him as the candidate of each party or independent body by which he was nominated; and all votes so cast upon any proposed constitutional amendment or other proposition or question, and all the votes so cast in favor of and against the same respectively. In the city of New York, the board shall make no statement of the votes cast within a county therein for any candidate for the office of member of assembly, state senator or representative in congress voted for also in a county outside of such city.

Such statements shall be certified as correct over the signatures of the members of the board, or a majority of them, and such statements, together with any tabulation sheets showing the vote by election districts from which such statements were made, shall be filed in the office of the board of elections. To facilitate its work, the board of elections may cause copies of such tabulation sheets to be printed in pamphlet form. Statements of the canvass as made by inspectors and used by the canvassing board shall be returned to the officer or board from whom or which they were received. The secretary of the canvassing board shall file a report of the canvass with the board of supervisors, except in the city of New York.

§ 275. Determinations by county and city canvassing boards. Upon the completion of the statements required by the preceding section the canvassing board shall determine what person has by the greatest number of votes been elected to each office of member of assembly within the county, and each person elected by the greatest number of votes to each county office, and each person elected by the greatest number of votes to each city office of a city of which it is the city board of canvassers. The board of elections of the county of Hamilton shall transmit forthwith to the board of elections of the county of Fulton a certified copy of the statement filed in its office as to the votes cast in Hamilton county for candidates for the office of member of assembly of the assembly district composed of Fulton and Hamilton counties; and the board of elections of Fulton county shall deliver the same forthwith to the Fulton county board of canvassers, who shall from such certified copy, and from its own statement as to the votes cast for the candidates for such office in Fulton county, determine what person was elected by the greatest number of votes to such office. The canvassing board also shall determine whether any proposition or question submitted only to the voters of the county, or only to the voters of a city of which it is the city board of canvassers, as the case may be, has by the greatest number of votes been adopted or rejected.

All such determinations shall be in writing and signed by the members of the canvassing board or a majority of them and filed and recorded in the office of the board of elections. Except in the city of New York, the board of elections shall cause a copy of such determinations, and of the statements filed in its office upon which such determinations were based, to be published once in each of the newspapers designated to publish election notices and the official canvass. The statement of canvass to be published, however, shall not give the vote by election districts but shall contain only the total vote for a person, or the total vote for and the total vote against a proposition or question, cast within the county, or within the portion thereof, if any, in which an office is filled or proposition or question is decided by the voters if the canvass of the vote thereon devolves upon the county board of canvassers.

The board of elections shall prepare and forthwith transmit to each person determined by the canvassing board to have been elected a certified statement that such canvassing board declared him elected, naming the office.

§ 276. Transmission of statements of canvassing boards to secretary of state. The board of elections shall transmit by mail to the secretary of state and state comptroller each a certified copy of the statement of the canvassing board relating to the offices of electors of president and vice-president of the United States, United States senator, representatives in congress and state offices, except member of assembly, and as to the votes cast on any proposed constitutional amendment or other question submitted to all the voters of the state, within five days after the filing of such statements in the office of the board, and shall so transmit certified copies of any statement relating to the office of United States senator, when the election is to fill a vacancy, immediately after such filing. The comptroller, forthwith upon the receipt thereof, shall deliver such copy to the secretary of state. If any certified copy shall not be received by the secretary of state on or before the last day of November next following a general election, or within twenty days after a special election, he shall dispatch a special messenger to obtain such certified copy, and the board of elections, immediately upon demand of such messenger at its office, shall make and deliver a certified copy to such messenger who shall deliver it forthwith to the secretary of state.

The board of elections shall transmit to the secretary of state within twenty days after a general election, and within ten days after a special election, a list of the names and residences of all persons determined by the canvassing board to be elected member of assembly or to any county office, and on or before the fifteenth day of December following an election of governor, a certified tabulated statement, by election districts, of the official canvass of the votes cast for candidates for governor, to include, in the case of a candidate who was nominated by two or more parties or independent bodies, a separate statement of the number of votes cast for him as the candidate of each party or independent body by which he was nominated.

§ 277. Canvass of statements of general and special elections by state board of canvassers. 1. The secretary of state, attorney-general, comptroller, state engineer and surveyor, and treasurer, to be known as the state board of canvassers, shall canvass the certified copies of the statements of the county board of canvassers of each county. They shall canvass first the statements, if any, for the office of United States senator to fill a vacancy. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum. The secretary of state shall call a meeting of the board at his office or at the office of the treasurer or comptroller, on or before the fifteenth day of December next after each general election and within forty days after each special election, to canvass such statements. If three members of the board shall not attend on a day appointed for a meeting of the board, the secretary of state shall notify the mayor and recorder of the city of Albany to attend such meeting and they shall attend accordingly and shall with the other such officers attending, constitute such board. The board may adjourn from day to day, not exceeding a term of five days. If any member of the board shall dissent from a decision of the board or shall protest against any of the proceedings of the board as irregular, he shall state such dissent or protest in writing signed by him setting forth his reasons and deliver it to the secretary of state, who shall file it in his office.

2. Upon the completion of the canvass the board shall make separate tabulated statements signed by the members of the board or a majority thereof of the number of votes cast for all the candidates for each office voted for, the number of votes cast for each of such candidates, the number of votes cast in each county for each of them, and if the voters of only a district of the state voted for any such candidate, the name and number of such district, the determination of the board as to the persons elected to office, the number of votes cast upon each proposed constitutional amendment or other proposition or question, the number of votes cast in favor of and against each respectively, and the determination of the board as to whether it was adopted or rejected.

3. Such tabulated statements shall be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state. Thereupon the secretary of state shall transmit a copy, certified by him, of each such statement as to votes cast for candidates for any office, to the person shown thereby to have been elected to such office. He shall prepare a general certificate under the seal of the state and attested by him as secretary thereof, addressed to the house of representatives of the United States, in that congress for which any persons shall have been chosen, of the due election of all persons chosen at that election as representatives of this state in congress, and shall transmit the same to the house of representatives at its first meeting. If any person so chosen at such election shall have been elected to supply a vacancy in the office of representative in congress, it shall be mentioned by the secretary of state in the statements prepared by him.

§ 278. Proceedings by boards of canvassers to carry into effect a court order. 1. Upon the re-convening of the state board of canvassers or any county board of canvassers, or of the board of elections of the city of New York as a county or city board of canvassers, by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, for the purpose of correcting an error or of performing a duty imposed by law or by an order of the court granted pursuant to law, the meeting for that purpose shall be deemed a continuance of its regular session, and any new or corrected statement, determination or certificate which is made to give effect to the order shall stand in lieu of the original statement, determination or certificate.

2. When a new or corrected statement or certificate, to give effect to an order of the court, shall vary from the original statement or certificate respecting the votes cast for an office as to which the state board of canvassers is required to canvass statements made by county boards, the board of elections forthwith shall transmit certified copies of the new or corrected statement or certificate to the secretary of state and state comptroller. The state comptroller, immediately upon receiving it, shall deliver his copy to the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall appoint a meeting of the state board of canvassers to be held in the city of Albany within five days after he has received such a certified copy. From such certified copy or copies, such board shall make a new statement as to the votes for such office cast in the state or political subdivision in which such office is filled, and shall determine and declare what person or persons whose votes are affected by such new or corrected statement have been, by the greatest number of votes, duly elected to the office or offices. The state board of canvassers and the secretary of state shall respectively have the same powers and duties in respect of new or corrected statements that they have in respect of original statements.

§ 302. Poll books. The secretary of state shall cause to be prepared and printed in book form a sufficient number of poll books, at least two books for each poll, for the use of the inspectors of election at the polls of the elections held under the provisions of this article. Such poll books shall be in a form to provide for entering the number, name and residence of each voter, and the name of the county and city or town in which the persons voting at such poll reside or claim to reside, and the designation of the particular command to which each such person is attached or of which he forms a part. Upon the first page of each such poll book shall be printed the date and character of the election for which it is prepared, and blank spaces in which shall be written by the inspectors the place at which the poll was held, and the names and residences of the persons acting as inspectors of election thereat. Upon the page following the last page of each such poll book used for recording the names of voters at such poll, shall be printed forms of the constitutional oath of office to be taken by the inspectors of election and a blank certificate, to be signed by the inspectors at the close of the polls. Such certificate shall be substantially in the following form:

We, the inspectors of election for the general (or special) election held at (here follows the name of the place) on the day of, 19..., do hereby certify that the names of the persons recorded herein as having voted at such election, such persons numbering in all (here follows the number in figures and words), are all the persons who appeared before us and demanded to vote at such election, and took the oath required, and who voted at such election.

§ 303. Official war ballot. The secretary of state shall cause to be prepared and printed at least twice as many official ballots as there are voters absent from their respective election districts. All such ballots shall be uniform in size and in style of type, and the type and paper shall conform generally to that used for the regular official ballots prescribed by this chapter. At the head of the ballot shall be printed the following:

YORK (Year)

Read instructions carefully!

INSTRUCTIONS

1. To vote for all the candidates of one party for all the offices named on this ballot for which the voter is entitled to vote, make a cross × mark within the circle under the emblem of that party.

2. To vote for a certain person for a particular office, unless he is the candidate of a party under whose emblem you have made your mark in a circle, make a cross X mark in a voting square opposite his printed name, or, if his name is not printed, write it in the blank space.

3. The blank space for writing in a name is under the title of the office, or, where the names of candidates for the office are printed, is just below such printed names.

4. If two or more persons are to be elected to the same office, and you vote for a certain person or persons for that office, by individual voting marks or writing in a name or names, your vote, as to that office, will count only for the persons so indicated."

Below such instructions there shall be a horizontal line, and below such line shall appear the emblems of the parties, with a circle under each emblem. Each circle shall be approximately three-quarters of an inch in diameter and surrounded by the words "for a straight ticket mark within this circle." Such emblems, and accompanying circles, shall be arranged horizontally, in the order of priority, of the parties according to the preceding vote for governor, from left to right, thus:

Below the circles there shall be a horizontal line.

Below the horizontal line under the circles, the ballot shall be divided into columns. At an election at which one or more offices are to be voted for by all the voters of the state, there shall be printed, beginning in the first column, the names of all nominated candidates for all such offices, in appropriate sections, in the manner provided by this chapter for the regular official ballots, with titles of offices, section numbers, emblems, voting squares, names of parties and political organizations and blank spaces for writing in names of candidates, as provided for such official ballots.

Following such matter, in as many columns as the secretary of state may deem advisable, or beginning in the first column if none of the officers are to be voted for by all the voters of the state, there shall be printed the titles of all other offices, as near as may be, for which any voter may vote in any election district of the state at such election. Such offices shall be classified into judicial, legislative, county, city, ward and town offices, and otherwise, if there be offices of other classes. The title of each class shall be printed above the titles of offices in such class. Below the title of each office shall be a space or spaces for writing in the name or names of the person or persons for whom the voter desires to vote if he chooses to vote in that manner. One-half inch space shall be allowed for the title of each class of offices and one-half inch space for the title of an office and writing in the name of a person as the voter's choice for such office. Each class of offices shall be separated by a heavy horizontal line across the column. Such offices and titles, except as to the spacing, shall be printed substantially as follows:

JUDICIAL OFFICES.

For justice of the supreme court for judicial district.

LEGISLATIVE OFFICES.

For representative in congress for congressional district.

 For state senator for senate district.

 For member of assembly for district of county.

COUNTY OFFICES.

For sheriff of county.

 For district attorney of county.

CITY OFFICES.

For mayor of the city of

WARD OR TOWN OFFICES.

For supervisors of ward or town of

 For justice of the peace, town of

In a year when a president of the United States is to be elected, a separate ballot for electors of president and vice-president shall be provided in the same form as the regular official ballot for such officers.

If at such election any proposed amendment to the constitution or other proposition or question is to be submitted to the vote of the voters of the state, an equal number of ballots for questions so submitted shall be provided in the same form as the regular official ballot for such amendment, proposition or question.

§ 304. Official envelopes for war ballots. The secretary of state shall also cause to be prepared and printed at least twice as many official envelopes as there are voters absent from their election districts, as shown by such general register. Such envelopes shall be gummed, ready for sealing. Upon one side of such envelope shall be printed in substantially the following form the following:

" OFFICIAL WAR BALLOT

§ 305. Lists of nominations. Each board of elections forthwith shall forward by mail to the secretary of state, a list of all nominations made by any petition or certificate filed with it or made at a primary election, the returns of which are canvassed by it, stating the name and residence of each nominee together with the title of the office for which he is nominated and the party or independent body nominating him. The secretary of state, after the receipt by him of such certified lists shall communicate, so far as practicable, to each commanding officer of any command having therein ten or more voters of this state absent from their respective election districts in time of war, in the actual military service of this state or the United States in the army or navy thereof, the name and residence of each nominee so certified by the board of elections, and of each person nominated by any petition or certificate filed with him, or nominated at a primary election the results of which are canvassed by him, together with the title of the office for which he is nominated and the party or independent body nominating him; and upon receipt thereof each such commanding officer shall cause such information to be posted in a conspicuous place for the information of such absent voters in his command.

§ 306. Delivery of official war ballots, poll books, envelopes and supplies. The secretary of state shall cause to be delivered to the commanding officer of every command in which ten or more voters of this state are included, absent from their respective election districts in time of war in the actual military service of this state or the United States in the army or navy thereof, a sufficient number of official war ballots of each kind and official envelopes, at least twice as many as there are such voters in such command, two poll books for the use of such voters at each poll of each election held under the provisions of this article, such blank forms, instructions to voters and other stationery as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the election, and pamphlets, properly indexed, containing a brief synopsis of this article, and such extracts therefrom as the secretary of state may deem suitable. Such supplies shall be delivered in time for use at the election for which they are prepared, in such manner and by such means as shall in the judgment of the secretary of state be best suited to secure their safe and timely delivery for the use of the voters at the election for which they have been prepared. The secretary of state may order or purchase any of the printing and supplies required by this article wherever he deems it desirable for the best interests of the state. If the number of voters in any command be less than ten, or voters be detached by military order and absent from their command, the secretary of state shall, when practicable, mail or deliver to such voters of that description as he may, with reasonable diligence, be able to locate, official war ballots and official envelopes.

§ 307. Polls of election. Any election held under the provisions of this article shall be held upon the day of the general or special election in this state, or on any secular day within twenty days next prior thereto, such prior day to be fixed by the commanding officer of highest rank in the territory or naval fleet, where the poll or polls for such election shall be held, by proclamation duly made, but such officer need not fix the same day for such election throughout all of the military or naval units of such territory or fleet; provided, however, that if by reason of the exigencies of war such election cannot be held in any of the polls herein provided on the day so fixed such election may be held on the next day practicable thereafter upon like proclamation of such commanding officer of highest rank; but such election shall not be held later than the day of such special or general election. Such polls shall be opened on the day of such election at the quarters of the captain or other commanding officer of any company, troop or other command in the military service of this state or of the United States in the army or navy thereof, if the same be composed in whole or in part of voters of this state. All qualified voters of this state in such command may vote at such poll. Such polls shall be opened at such hour of the day as shall be most convenient for such voters and shall remain open not less than three hours and as much longer as shall, in the opinion of the inspectors of election serving at such polls, be necessary in order to receive the votes of all voters of this state entitled to vote at such polls; but no polls shall be kept open later than sunset of the day on which such election shall be held.

The inspectors shall at the opening of such polls make public proclamation of the opening thereof and the time at which such polls will be closed, and as near as may be, at one hour before the closing of the polls, public proclamation shall again be made by the inspectors that the polls will be closed at a time certain then proclaimed, which shall be the hour announced in the proclamation made at the opening of the polls. The polls shall not for any reason be kept open after the hour fixed by the first proclamation.

At the hour and place provided for the opening of the polls, the qualified voters of the state then present shall, by viva voce vote, select four of their own number to act at such election as the inspectors of election thereof. Such inspectors shall, so far as possible, be so selected that they shall equally represent the two political parties of this state which at the last preceding election in this state polled the highest and next highest number of votes respectively. Such inspectors, when so elected, shall choose one of their number as chairman of the board of inspectors by election or by drawing lots. Such chairman shall then administer the oath of office to the other inspectors and one of the other inspectors shall then administer the same to the chairman. The oath to be administered shall be as follows:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the state of New York, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of inspector of election according to the best of my ability."

Such oath shall be subscribed by the person taking it, and certified by the person administering it. The inspectors shall act by majority vote. If any inspector after having been chosen shall permanently absent himself the remaining inspectors, or if there be none the voters present shall by appointment fill the vacancy, regard being had to the bipartisan character of the board.

Immediately upon the organization of such board of inspectors the commanding officers to whom shall have been delivered any official war ballots, poll books and envelopes shall deliver the same to the inspectors of election of such election and shall take a receipt therefor, which receipt shall be forwarded by mail by such commanding officer to the secretary of state. The inspectors shall produce and have at the polls, before any votes are taken by them, a box for the reception of the ballots to be voted at such election. Before proceeding to take any votes they shall open the box and publicly exhibit the inside thereof, and the box shall be entirely empty. They shall then close and securely fasten the box and it shall not be opened again until the close of the polls at such election. Each such box shall have an opening in the top thereof for the reception of voted ballots.

The chairman of the board of inspectors shall have charge of the ballot box during the election and shall receive from the qualified voters their envelopes containing ballots and shall deposit them in the ballot box. He shall designate two other inspectors, of opposite political faith, if possible, to keep the poll books of such election. The remaining inspector shall have charge of the official ballots and envelopes and shall deliver the same to the qualified voters entitled to vote at such election.

§ 308. Conduct of elections. The election shall be by ballot. Before any person shall receive an official ballot or be permitted to vote, he shall make and subscribe the oath printed upon the official envelope, as provided by this article, and any member of said board of inspectors is hereby authorized to administer and attest such oath. If any voter shall refuse to take the oath so tendered he shall not be allowed to vote; but if he shall take the oath tendered him his vote shall be accepted. Upon taking the oath required, the voter shall give to the inspectors keeping the poll books, who shall each enter upon the poll book kept by him, his name and residence by street and number, if any, county and city or town. He shall also give such other information as is required to be entered in such poll book. When such voter gives such information to such inspectors, the inspector having charge of the ballots and envelopes shall write in the proper blank spaces upon such official envelope the name and residence by street and number, if any, of such voter, and the county, and the city or town in which he claims to reside, and shall deliver such ballot or ballots and such envelope, to such voter. Such voter shall then retire to some convenient place and shall prepare his ballots and envelope for voting.

After preparing his ballot and before delivering the same to the chairman of the board of inspectors, the voter shall fold his ballot in such a way that the contents of the ballot shall be concealed and inclose the same in such envelope which he shall securely seal. He shall then deliver such envelope to the chairman of the board of inspectors; but before such envelope shall be deposited in the ballot box the chairman shall declare from such envelope the name of such voter and his residence by street and number, if any, county and city or town, and if such voter is entitled to vote and such envelope is securely sealed and his name and the other matter hereby required is recorded upon the poll books, the inspector keeping such poll books shall announce the same as correct and shall record such voter as voting. The chairman shall thereupon deposit such envelope containing such ballot or ballots in the ballot box. Any voter so having voted, shall not again be entitled to vote at such election, though present on election day in the election district where he resides.

If, for any cause, the official ballots, poll books and envelopes shall not be provided as required by law at any polling place, upon the opening of the polls for any election thereat, or if the supply of official ballots or envelopes shall be exhausted before the polls are closed, unofficial ballots, poll books and envelopes printed or written, made as nearly as practicable in the form of the official ballot, poll books and envelopes may be used.

§ 309. Voting otherwise than at poll of voters' command. Officers and enlisted men, voters of this state, attached to or forming part of a command having therein less than ten such voters, or detached by military order and absent from their command, may vote at such poll other than that of their own command as may be most convenient for them, or, if any such voter shall have received a ballot and envelope from the secretary of state as provided in section three hundred and six, he may take the oath provided for in section three hundred and four, upon the envelope, before his commanding officer, prepare his ballot, inclosing same in such envelope, fill out the endorsement thereon and mail such envelope or cause it to be mailed or delivered to the secretary of state, who shall include the same in the envelopes to be transmitted to the board of elections of the county in which the voter resides as provided in section three hundred and twelve. Such board shall transmit the ballot, as provided in such section, to the board of inspectors of the election district in which the voter resides, and the same shall be canvassed, if the voter is a qualified elector.

§ 310. Method of voting. To vote for all the candidates of a party for all offices for which he is entitled to vote in the election district in which he resides, the voter may make a cross X mark in the circle beneath the emblem of such party. In lieu thereof, he may express his choice of certain persons for certain offices by voting as follows: To so vote for a candidate for an office to be voted for by all the voters of the state, if the name of such candidate be printed upon the ballot, the voter shall make a cross X mark in a voting square to the left of the candidate's name; to so vote for any person, for any such office, whose name is not printed upon the ballot, the voter may write the name of such person in the blank space provided therefor in the proper section after the printed name; to so vote for a person for an office to be voted for by less than all the voters of the state, the voter may write in the blank spaces provided therefor beneath the titles of the proper offices the names of the persons for whom he desires and is entitled to vote. The voter may make a cross X mark in a circle beneath the emblem of a party and also vote, by writing the name or making a mark in a voting square if any, for a certain person for whom he desires and is entitled to vote, for a particular office, who is not the nominee of such party; and in that case, he shall be deemed to have voted for all of the candidates of such party, for whom he is entitled to vote, except the candidate for an office for which he has expressed his choice by such writing or mark in a voting square, and shall be deemed to have voted for such person for such office; provided, however, that where two or more persons are to be elected to the same office, if the voter writes in the names of one or more persons as his choice therefor or indicates such choice by a mark in a voting square, his vote, as to that office, shall be counted only for the persons whose names are so written or indicated. If the voter shall have marked within a party circle and also indicated by writing or by a mark in a voting square the name of a person as his choice for a particular office and such person be also the candidate of such party for that office, such writing, or mark in a voting square, shall be deemed surplusage and the vote counted for such person. The ballot, if any, for electors of president and vice-president of the United States, or upon a constitutional amendment, proposition or question, shall be marked in the same manner as similar ballots used by other voters.

§ 311. Count of the votes; transmission of returns. As soon as the polls of an election are closed, the inspectors of election thereat publicly shall destroy all official envelopes and ballots not voted; and shall then publicly open the ballot boxes and count and ascertain the number of voters voting and not adjourn or postpone the count until it shall be fully completed. The board of inspectors shall commence the count by comparing the two poll books used at such election, correcting any mistakes therein, and by counting the envelopes containing ballots found in the ballot boxes without opening them, and by comparing the envelopes containing ballots found in such box with the number shown by the poll books to have been deposited therein. The inspectors shall number each voter whose name is recorded in such poll books as having voted beginning with the first name entered therein and numbering the same in consecutive order and shall fill out and sign the certificate required to be made by them as to the whole number voting at such election. If the envelopes containing ballots found in such box shall be more than the number of such envelopes so shown by the poll books to have been deposited therein, the inspectors shall compare the names upon such envelopes with the names recorded in such poll books and all such envelopes so found in said ballot box purporting to have been deposited therein by a voter whose name is not duly entered in such poll books as herein provided, shall with their contents immediately be destroyed, without opening the same; and if more than one such envelope shall be found in said ballot box purporting to have been deposited therein by the same voter, then all such envelopes and their contents purporting to have been deposited in such ballot box by such voter shall be destroyed. No such envelope that has not the official indorsement as herein provided shall be counted.

At the completion of the count the inspectors shall certify the correctness of the same upon the poll books and shall publicly announce the result of such count. The inspectors thereupon shall inclose all such envelopes containing ballots without opening the same, in a sealed package with one of said poll books, and shall direct them to the secretary of state, at Albany, New York, and shall forward the same by mail or express to him as soon as possible after such election. The inspectors shall inclose the other of such poll books in an envelope and shall direct it to the governor of the state of New York, at Albany, New York, and shall forward it forthwith to him by mail or express, but by different hands, if possible, from those carrying such envelopes containing ballots and such poll books, so directed to be forwarded to the secretary of state, receipts therefor, respectively, being taken by the chairman of the board of inspectors. The secretary of state shall provide for such return at the expense of the state.

§ 312. Disposition of envelopes and ballots by secretary of state.

Upon the receipt by the governor of the poll books of the votes cast at any such election, he shall deliver the same to the secretary of state. The secretary of state, upon receipt of the packages, shall notify the chairman or any member of the state committees of the parties which at the last election for governor cast the highest and the next highest number of votes for such office, that at a day and hour named therein at his office he will begin opening the packages and comparing the poll books with the envelopes containing ballots received by him and with the poll books, if any, received from the governor. Such notice shall be served personally or by mail directed to the last known place of residence of such person. The secretary of state may proceed with such work from day to day without further notice. He forthwith shall prepare from said poll books and envelopes a separate statement for each county under his official seal in which shall appear all the information hereby required to be entered in such poll books, concerning the voters resident in such county. He shall affix his seal of office to each such envelope and shall transmit such statement with envelopes containing ballots of such voters resident in such county, to the board of elections of each such county, except that in any county within the city of New York such statement and envelopes shall be transmitted to the board of § 313. Public list of voters, by election districts. A statement for each election district, showing the names and residence addresses, as shown on the statement of the secretary of state, of all voters in such election district, as near as may be, shall be prepared by the board of elections and shall be open to public inspection at the office of each such board on and after the fourth Tuesday following election day. Such statements shall be added to from time to time as names of additional voters are received by such boards of election. Each such statement shall be prepared in duplicate and the duplicate copy thereof shall be mailed immediately to the secretary of state and it shall be open at all times to public inspection at the office of the secretary of state together with all additions made thereto.

§ 314. Canvass of votes. The votes cast upon war ballots shall be canvassed by the board of elections, except that in a county having a single commissioner of elections or a county in which the county clerk exercises the powers and duties of a board of elections, such canvass shall be made by a special board consisting of such commissioner or clerk and one of the inspectors of election, of the county, of opposite political faith, designated by such commissioner or clerk upon recommendation of the chairman of the county committee of such party of opposite political faith, and except that in the city of New York such canvass shall be made in the different counties, in each borough office of the board of elections, by four employees of the board designated by the board upon the recommendation of the chairmen of the county committees in the several counties of the parties entitled to representation upon a board of inspectors of election. Such designations shall be made in such manner as to secure equal representation of the two political parties which, at the general election next preceding the election as to which such special board is to act, cast the highest and next highest number of votes. If any such chairman shall fail to make such a recommendation, the commissioner, county clerk or board may designate without recommendation. The board of elections or such special board shall convene for the purpose of canvass at ten o'clock in the forenoon on the sixth Tuesday after the election, in the case of a general election, or at such hour on a day to be fixed by the board of elections not later than the sixth Tuesday after the election, in the case of any other election. At least one week before such day, the board of elections shall post in its office, and in each branch office, a notice specifying the time and place when the canvass will be made and also shall mail notice thereof to any candidate who shall have previously filed a written request for such notice and to the chairman of each of the county committees.

At the time and place so fixed, the board of elections or such special board publicly shall canvass the votes. The single commissioner of elections, the county clerk or the president of the board of elections, as the case may be, shall be chairman of the board. In the city of New York, the board of elections shall designate a chairman of each special board in each county. The canvassing board shall open the packages containing the statement and envelopes. It shall then assort the envelopes and group them by election districts. The chairman shall read aloud the endorsement contained upon each of the envelopes for an election district. After the reading of each such endorsement, the board shall examine the register for the election district, and poll book, if any, and shall compare the signatures, if any, in the register or poll book and on the envelope, of a person or persons of the same name. It shall reject any envelope bearing the name of a voter who voted within the state, in the election district, at the election. After the voter whose name is on the envelope shall be found qualified to vote in the election district, the chairman or a member of the board shall open the envelope and without unfolding or inspecting the contents of the ballot or ballots shall deposit them in a ballot box or boxes. If an envelope shall contain more than one ballot for the same officers, amendment or question, all ballots therein shall be rejected. If it be determined that for any reason the voter was not qualified to vote in such election district, his envelope shall be rejected, without opening, or, if such disqualification be discovered after the withdrawal of the ballot or ballots from the envelope and before deposit in the ballot box, his ballot or ballots shall be rejected without inspection or unfolding and shall be returned to the envelope. In case of such rejection, the board shall endorse thereon the reason therefor. If it be impossible to determine the address of the voter, or, if there is no address on the envelope by which the appropriate election district may be determined, or, if the envelope is entirely blank, such envelope shall not be opened but shall be rejected.

After all the ballots for an election district shall have been cast, the board shall proceed immediately to canvass the same in the manner, so far as practicable, in which votes are canvassed by inspectors of election, except that no ballot shall be rejected as void where the intent of the voter is clearly apparent. The board shall make a statement and return of the canvass for such election district substantially in the form provided by this chapter for a return by inspectors of election. Such board shall complete the canvass of votes in an election district and make such return before proceeding to the canvass of the votes in another election district. In the city of New York, such returns, for a county, shall be immediately filed with the board of elections at its main office. If a board other than the board of supervisors or board of elections of the city of New York canvasses the returns from election districts as to any of the offices, the board of elections immediately shall transmit to the clerk or secretary of such other canvassing board a copy of the returns for such districts, made pursuant to this section.

At such meeting of the county or other canvassing board the board shall proceed to canvass such returns for the respective election districts. It shall, from such returns, together with the returns theretofore made of such election, make new and separate statements of the votes cast in the county or any part thereof, or in the city of New York or any part thereof, as the case may be. It shall complete its canvass and make the statements provided for by section two hundred and seventy-four of this chapter, and it shall not, until such meeting, determine the result of the election, anything now provided by law to the contrary notwithstanding. But nothing herein shall prevent any county board of canvassers from proceeding as provided by this chapter except as to such final determination. - 322. Statement of campaign receipts, expenditures and contributions other than by a political committee.
- 323. Filing of statement of campaign receipts, expenditures and contributions; forms.*
- 324. Treasurer of political committee; filing of name and address.
- 325. Campaign contributions to be under true name of contributor.
- 326. Accounting to treasurer or candidate; vouchers.
- 327. Application of article limited.

§ 320. Political committee defined. The term "political committee," under the provisions of this article, means any committee or combination of three or more persons co-operating to aid or to promote the success or defeat of a political party or principle, or of any proposition submitted to vote at a public election; or to aid or take part in the election or defeat of a candidate for public office or to aid or take part in the election or defeat of a candidate for nomination at a primary election or convention, including all proceedings prior to such primary election, or of a candidate for any party position voted for at a primary election, or to aid or defeat the nomination by petition of an independent candidate for public office; but nothing in this article shall apply to any committee or organization for the discussion or advancement of political questions or principles without connection with any election.

§ 321. Statement of campaign receipts and expenditures by political committee. The treasurer of every political committee which, or any officer, member or agent of which in connection with any election receives or expends any money or its equivalent or incurs any liability to pay money or its equivalent shall file a sworn statement setting forth all the receipts, expenditures, and liabilities of the committee, and of every officer, member and other person in its behalf. In each case it shall include the amount received, the name of the person or committee from whom received, the date of its receipt, the amount of every expenditure, the name of the person or committee to whom it was made, and the date thereof; and unless such expenditure shall have been made to another political committee, it shall state clearly the purpose of such expenditure. Expenditures in sums under five dollars need not be specifically accounted for by separate items, except in the case of payments made for account of or to political workers, watchers or messengers.

candidate for election to public office, or for nomination for public office at a primary election or convention, or for election to a party position at a primary election, shall file a sworn statement, setting forth the particulars prescribed by the preceding section, of all moneys or other valuable thing, paid, given, expended or promised by him to aid his own nomination or election, or to promote the success or defeat of a political party, or to aid or influence the nomination or election or the defeat of any other candidate to be voted for at the election or primary election or at a convention, including contributions to political committees, officers, members or agents thereof, and of moneys or other valuable thing received by or promised to him to be used for any of the purposes above specified, except that such a statement need not be filed by a candidate for party position at a primary election if he expended nothing or his only expenditures were for personal expenses, as hereinafter defined, in a sum not exceeding ten dollars.

2. Any person, other than a candidate, who to promote the success or defeat of a political party, or to aid or influence the election or defeat of a candidate for nomination at a primary election or convention, or of a candidate for any party position to be voted for at a primary election, directly or indirectly, shall give, pay, expend, contribute or promise any money or other valuable thing, except to the chairman, treasurer or a member of a political committee or to an agent duly authorized thereto in writing by such committee, or to a candidate or agent of such candidate duly authorized thereto in writing by the candidate, or except for personal expenses as hereinafter defined, shall file a sworn statement setting forth the particulars prescribed by the preceding section.

3. For the purposes of this section, personal expenses shall include only payments for traveling expenses and expenses incidental thereto, for writing, printing and preparing for transmission any letter, circular, or other publication not issued at regular intervals, containing a statement of the position or views of the candidate or person upon public or other questions, for stationery and postage and for telegraph, telephone and other public messenger service; but all such expenses shall be limited to those which are directly and personally incurred and paid by the candidate or person described in this section.

§ 323. Filing of statements of campaign receipts, expenditures and contributions; forms. 1. The statement of a treasurer of a political committee shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state; and if the committee aided or took part solely in the election or defeat of a candidate for election to public office or for nomination to public office or for election to party position at a primary election who was voted for only within the city of New York, a duplicate statement shall be filed in the office of the board of elections of the city of New York.

2. The statement of a candidate shall be filed, if the candidate was voted for only within the city of New York, or elsewhere only within a county, in the office of the board of elections, except that statements by a candidate for election to a town, village or city office, other than in the city of New York, shall be filed in the office of the town, village or city clerk. The board of elections with which the statement of a candidate for election to public office is filed shall file forthwith a certified copy thereof with the secretary of state, except that in the city of New York the board shall so file copies of the statements only of candidates for election to offices other than city, county, and borough offices.

3. The statement of a person other than a candidate or treasurer of a political committee shall be filed in the office of the board of elections of the city or for the county in which such person resides. The depositing of such statement, within the time required for the filing thereof, in a postoffice, directed to the officer or board with whom or which the statement is required to be filed, fully postpaid and registered, shall be equivalent to a due filing thereof, except that the filing thereafter of the required statement may be compelled if the officer or board did not receive the one which was mailed.

4. Such statement shall be filed within twenty days of the election or primary election to which it relates.

5. The secretary of state shall provide forms suitable for such statements. He may print upon the back thereof such provisions of this article as he may deem proper. He shall deliver copies to boards of elections on their requisition. Each such board shall deliver necessary copies for statements of candidates for election to town, village and city offices, other than in the city of New York, to the city, town and village clerks within this county. The secretary of state and each such board or clerk before an election shall mail a copy to each nominated candidate for election to public office whose statement is required to be filed with him or it. The secretary of state and each such board also shall mail a copy to any designated candidate for party position or other person required to file a statement in his or its office who applies therefor. The secretary of state, before an election or primary election, also shall transmit a copy of the appropriate form to the treasurer of each political committee.

§ 324. Treasurer of political committee; filing of name and address. Every political committee shall have a treasurer, and shall cause him to keep detailed accounts of all money or its equivalent, received by or promised to, and of all expenditures, and promises of payment made by the committee or any of its officers or members or by any person acting under its authority or in its behalf. No member thereof or other person acting under its authority or in its behalf shall receive any money or its equivalent, or expend the same until the committee shall have chosen a treasurer. There shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state within five days after the choice of a treasurer a statement signed by at least three members of such committee giving the name and address of the treasurer chosen.

§ 326. Accounting to treasurer or candidate; vouchers. 1. Whoever, acting as an officer or member or under the authority of a political committee, or under the authority of a candidate for election to public office, or for nomination for public office at a primary election or convention, or for election to party position at a primary election, receives any money or its equivalent, or promise of the same, or expends or incurs any liability to pay the same, shall, within three days after demand and in any event within fourteen days after such receipt, expenditure, promise or liability, give to the treasurer of such committee, or to such candidate if an agent authorized by him a detailed account of the same, with all vouchers required by this article, which shall be a part of the accounts and files of such treasurer or such candidate.

2. Every payment required to be accounted for, unless the total expense payable to any one person be not in excess of five dollars, shall be vouched for by a receipted bill stating the particulars of expense, and every voucher, receipt or account hereby required shall be preserved for fifteen months after the election to which it relates.

1. The designation of any candidate, in a proceeding instituted by any candidate aggrieved or by a person who shall have filed objections pursuant to section one hundred and forty-two.

2. The nomination of any candidate, or his election to any party position, in a proceeding instituted by any candidate aggrieved or by the chairman of any committee as defined in section two, or, in the case of a nomination made otherwise than at a primary election, by a person who shall have filed objections pursuant to section one hundred and forty-two; and the court or justice may direct a reassembling of any convention or the holding of a new primary election where a convention or primary election has been characterized by such frauds or irregularities as to render impossible a determination as to who rightfully was nominated or elected, but a proceeding under this subdivision relating to a primary election, must be instituted within ten days of such primary election.

3. The form and contents of official ballots, including ballots upon voting machines, and the right to the use of any emblem or color, in a proceeding instituted by any candidate aggrieved or by the chairman of any committee as defined in section two.

4. Protested, wholly blank or void ballots shown upon the statement of the canvass in the election district, or any rejected absentee voters' ballots for an election district, in a proceeding instituted by any candidate aggrieved, or the chairman of any committee as defined in section two, against the board of canvassers, if any, of the returns from such district, and otherwise against the board of inspectors of election of such district, both of which boards shall continue in office for the purposes of this subdivision; and the court or justice may direct a recanvass, or the correction of an error in the canvass, of such ballots, but a proceeding under this subdivision must be instituted within twenty days of the election.

5. The canvass of returns by the state or a county or a city board of canvassers, in a proceeding instituted by any voter, except that a proceeding on account of the failure of the state board of canvassers to act upon new returns of a board of canvassers of any county, made pursuant to the order of a court or justice, may be instituted only by a candidate aggrieved or by a voter in such county; and the court or justice may direct a recanvass or the correction of an error or the performance of any duty imposed by law on such a state, county or city board, but a proceeding under this subdivision must be instituted within thirty days after the alleged erroneous statement or determination was made, or the time when the board should have acted in the particulars as to which it is claimed to have failed to perform its duty.

The county judge within his county also shall have jurisdiction of a proceeding under subdivision one of this section, of a proceeding under subdivision two of this section, except as to a nomination or election at a primary election or a nomination by a state or judicial district convention, and of a proceeding under subdivision three of this section.

§ 331. Proceedings as to registration and voting. 1. The supreme court or a justice thereof within the judicial district or the county judge within his county, in a proceeding instituted by any voter to whom registration unlawfully has been refused shall compel by order the registration of such voter, and, in a proceeding instituted by any voter shall, by order, direct to be stricken from the register any name unlawfully thereon, and shall order the board of inspectors of election, if necessary, to reconvene for such purposes on the second Saturday before election day. Written notice of an application under this subdivision must be given to the board of inspectors, by service thereof either on the chairman or two of the inspectors.

2. Such court, justice or judge, in a proceeding instituted by any voter whose application to vote has unlawfully been denied by the inspectors, shall compel by order the reception of the vote, within the hours established by law.

3. An affidavit by any officer or employee of the board of elections or any police officer, sheriff or deputy sheriff, or a special deputy attorney-general appointed pursuant to the executive law, that he visited the premises claimed by the applicant as his residence and that he interrogated an inmate, housedweller, keeper, caretaker, owner, proprietor or landlord thereof or therein as to the applicant's residence therein or thereat, and that he was informed by one or more of such persons, naming them, that they knew the persons residing upon such premises and that the applicant did not reside upon such premises thirty days before the election, shall be presumptive evidence against the right of the voter to register from such premises.

§ 332. Proceedings as to enrollment. 1. The supreme court or a justice thereof within the judicial district, or the county judge within his county, in a proceeding instituted by a duly enrolled voter of a party, at least ten days before a primary election, shall direct the enrollment of any voter with such party to be cancelled if it appears either that any material statement in the declaration of the voter upon which he was enrolled is false, or that the voter has died, or that he does not reside in the election district.

2. The chairman of the county committee of a party with which a voter is enrolled in such county, may, upon a written complaint by an enrolled member of such party in such county and after a hearing held by him or by a sub-committee appointed by him upon at least two days' notice to the voter, personally or by mail, determine that the voter is not in sympathy with the principles of such party. The supreme court or a justice thereof within the judicial district, in a proceeding instituted by a duly enrolled voter of the party at least ten days before a primary election, shall direct the enrollment of such voter to be cancelled if it appears from the proceedings before such chairman or sub-committee, and other proofs if any be presented, that such determination is just.

The supreme court or a justice thereof may direct the examination by any candidate or his agent of any ballot or voting machine upon which his name appeared, and the preservation of any ballots in view of a prospective contest, upon such conditions as may be proper.

§ 334. Proceedings to compel filing of statements or corrected statements of campaign receipts, expenditures and contributions. Source.—Former election law, §§ 550, 551, 552-555, 558-560.
1. The supreme court or a justice thereof, in a proceeding instituted by any candidate voted for at the election or primary or by any five qualified voters may compel by order, any person required under the provisions of this chapter to file a statement of receipts, expenditures or contributions for campaign purposes, who has not filed any such statement within the time prescribed by this chapter, to file such statement within five days after notice of the order.

2. The supreme court or a justice thereof, in a proceeding instituted by any candidate voted for at the election or primary or by any five qualified voters, may compel by order any person required under the provisions of this chapter to file a statement of receipts, expenditures or contributions for campaign purposes, who has filed a statement which does not conform to the requirements of this chapter in respect of its truth, sufficiency in detail or otherwise, to file a new or supplemental statement which shall make the statement or statements true and complete within five days after notice of the order.

3. The supreme court or a justice thereof, in a proceeding instituted by any candidate voted for at the election or primary or by any five qualified voters, may compel by order any person who has failed to comply, or the members of any committee which has failed to comply, with any of the provisions of article thirteen to comply with the provisions of such article.

4. In every proceeding instituted under this section, except a proceeding to compel the filing of a statement by a candidate for nomination to a public office at a primary election or for election thereto, or by the treasurer of a political committee, who has failed to file any statement, the petitioner or petitioners, upon the institution of the proceeding shall file with the county clerk an undertaking in a sum to be determined and with sureties to be approved by a justice of the court or the county judge of the county conditioned to pay any costs imposed against him or them. No person shall be excused from testifying or from producing any books, papers or other documents upon any hearing under the provisions of this section upon the ground that the evidence may tend to convict him of a crime, or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture on account of any transaction or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him in any criminal proceeding.

ARTICLE 15.

LAWS REPEALED; SAVING CLAUSE AND MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS; WHEN TO TAKE EFFECT.

Section 340. Laws repealed.

341. Saving clause and miscellaneous provisions.

342. When to take effect.

§ 340. Laws repealed. Chapter twenty-two of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to the elections, constituting chapter seventeen of the consolidated laws," and all acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, including section three of chapter five hundred and fifty-five of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, are hereby repealed.

§ 341. Savings clause and miscellaneous provisions. 1. Notwithstanding the foregoing repeal, the registers heretofore provided shall be used at elections, for which voters are required to be registered, held in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-two prior to the general election, and at the fall primary in such year, for the purposes indicated by the several columns thereof, and in the manner provided by the election law before the taking effect of this chapter. At an election in such year other than a primary election, held before such general election, and at the fall primary in the city of New York in such year, poll-books shall be provided in the form, and shall be used for the purposes indicated by the several columns, and in the manner, as prescribed by the election law before the taking effect of this chapter. Party nominations for city, town and village elections held in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-two before the general election may be made in the manner, and certificates of party and independent nominations and declinations thereof for such an election may be in the form and may be authenticated, and shall be filed within the times, provided by the election law before the taking effect of this chapter; and this chapter shall not impair nor affect any notice of such an election heretofore given or pending or any certificate of nomination or declination heretofore made or heretofore filed. Except as otherwise provided in subdivision two of this section, commissioners of election in office when this chapter takes effect shall continue in office for the term for which they were appointed, unless sooner removed. Where, by this chapter, the salaries of commissioners of elections are to be fixed by the board of supervisors, such commissioners shall receive their present salaries until otherwise provided by such board, but such salaries shall not be changed to take effect during the terms of the present incumbents. The positions of subordinates in the offices of boards or commissioners of elections and their compensation shall continue until changed pursuant to law except in a county in which the powers and duties of the board of elections are devolved by this chapter upon the county clerk. General clerks, for election districts, heretofore appointed, shall be the "clerks" for such districts, within the meaning of this chapter, until the expiration of their present terms, unless sooner removed. Inspectors of election now in office, and poll clerks and ballot clerks in the city of New York, shall continue in office for the terms for which they were appointed, unless sooner removed. Election districts, as now constituted, shall continue until changed pursuant to this chapter.

2. The terms of office of commissioners of election in any county in which, by the provisions of this chapter, the powers and duties of the board of elections are devolved upon the county clerk shall expire, and the offices of such commissioners and the offices and positions under such board are abolished, when this chapter takes effect, and each such clerk, in his respective county, shall have the custody of the books, records and papers of such board.

§ 342. When to take effect. This chapter shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 589

AN ACT for the relief of sick or disabled veterans of the military or naval service of the United States, and making an appropriation therefor.

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Commission and employees. A commission, to be known as the New York veterans' relief commission, consisting of the adjutant-general, who shall be the chairman thereof, the comptroller and the attorney-general, is hereby created. Each member of the commission shall serve without pay, but shall be allowed his actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred by him in the performance of his official duties. The commission shall appoint and may at pleasure remove necessary employees for the conduct of its business at salaries fixed by it, provided, however, that in the appointment of employees preference shall be given to persons who served honorably, in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States at any time between the sixth day of April, nineteen hundred and seventeen, and the eleventh day of November, nineteen hundred and eighteen, and who at the time of their entry into such service were residents of the state of New York. In the exercise of its powers and the performance of its duties, the commission, together with its staff of employees, shall be deemed a bureau of the adjutant-general's office, and the adjutant-general shall be the chief administrative officer of such bureau.

§ 2. Deputy commissioners. The commission shall appoint, and may at pleasure remove, one deputy commissioner in each assembly district, who shall reside in such district. Each deputy commissioner, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take the constitutional oath of office and file with the commission an undertaking, in an amount and with a surety or sureties to be approved by it, for the faithful discharge of his duties as such deputy and for the safe-keeping and lawful distribution of any moneys that come into his hands pursuant to the provisions of this act. Each such deputy shall investigate all applications for relief under this act, within the territorial jurisdiction of the assembly district which he represents, and shall determine the amount of relief within the limits herein prescribed, to be extended to each applicant therefor. Deputy commissioners shall serve without pay, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred by them in the performance of their official duties.

§ 3. Regulations. Two members of the commission shall constitute a quorum to transact business and the concurrence of at least two members shall be necessary to render a determination. The expenses of the commission, including salaries of employees and expenses of members, employees and deputies shall be paid by the state treasurer on the warrant of the comptroller on the order of the chairman of the commission out of any money appropriated for carrying out the provisions of this act. The commission shall from time to time adopt such rules and regulations as it may deem necessary, not inconsistent with law, for the distribution of such relief, and for the conduct and administration of the duties and affairs of the commission. The commission, from time to time, shall deposit with each deputy commissioner a sum of money, in an amount which they shall deem sufficient, from which such deputy commissioner shall extend immediate relief in cash, in the amounts hereinafter specified, to all persons applying therefor and who qualify for such relief under the conditions hereinafter imposed. For such purpose, the state comptroller shall draw his warrants, to the order of the commission, for such amounts as may be certified from time to time by the commission. The commission shall make rules and regulations for the audit of all amounts expended by the local deputies for the relief of any such veteran, and require reports from such deputies at stated intervals showing the amounts audited and paid and such other matters as the commission may require.

§ 4. Offices. The trustees of public buildings shall, upon demand, supply suitable and convenient offices and quarters for the commission.

§ 5. Applications for relief. Every honorably discharged veteran of the military or naval service of the United States, residing in the state of New York at the time this act takes effect, who was in such service at any time between the sixth day of April, nineteen hundred and seventeen, and the eleventh day of November, nineteen hundred and eighteen, inclusive, may file with the deputy commissioner of the assembly district in which he resides his verified petition, upon a blank to be provided by the commission and delivered upon request by such deputy, showing

1. That he was in such service within the times above specified.
2. That he is suffering from a sickness or disability, specifying it, incurred during such service or as a result thereof.
3. That at the time of making the application, he has been out of regular employment for a period of fourteen days next preceding.
4. The amount of compensation, vocational training allowance or other financial aid, if any, which the applicant is receiving per month from the United States government.

§ 6. Additional papers to be filed. With his application, each applicant also shall file with the deputy commissioner his honorable discharge, or certified copy thereof, together with proof by affidavit, satisfactory to the commissioner, executed by a duly licensed physician, a resident of the assembly district in which such deputy has jurisdiction, showing in detail the sickness or disability of the applicant and his reasons for believing it to be sickness or a disability incurred in, or resulting from, the military or naval service of the United States. Each application shall also be accompanied by an affidavit, on a form to be prescribed by the commission, from the commander of a post of the American Legion or veterans of foreign wars located in such assembly district to the effect that the affiant has examined and investigated such application and believes the applicant to be within the provisions of this act. The commission, by rule or regulation, may provide for additional proof from time to time, as to the amount, if any, which the applicant is then receiving from the United States government.

§ 7. Examination; determination; payments. The deputy commissioner shall examine without any delay each application filed with him and for that purpose may subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance. He may administer oaths and make such further investigation as to him may seem necessary, and upon the conclusion of his investigation he shall make such determination as justice requires. Each veteran whose claim is allowed by the deputy commissioner, shall receive, in the case of a person without dependents, the sum of thirty dollars per month, and in the case of a person having dependents the sum of forty-five dollars per month, provided, however, that in any month that such applicant is receiving aid from the United States government aggregating thirty or more dollars per month, in the case of a person without dependents, or aggregating forty-five or more dollars per month, in the case of a person having dependents, he shall receive nothing under this act, and that in any month that he is receiving from the United States government less than thirty dollars per month, in the case of a person without dependents, or aggregating less than forty-five dollars per month, in the case of a person having dependents, the difference only between the amount paid by the United States government and the amount otherwise allowable per month, shall be paid to such applicant, and provided further, that the total payments under this act to any one such applicant shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars. After the audit of any such claim and before or after payments shall have begun, the deputy, after a hearing upon notice to the veteran, may revoke such audit, on the ground that the application, or any accompanying affidavit, contained a material false statement, and in case of such revocation no further payments shall be made to the veteran affected thereby, and the state may recover the amount paid, if any, in an action brought by the attorney-general. An applicant whose claim is rejected by a deputy, or who is not satisfied with the amount allowed, may appeal to the commission, which shall then have power to determine the matter and to fix the amount, if any, to be paid.

§ 8. Penalty for false statement. Whoever intentionally makes a false statement, oral or written, concerning or affecting a claim under the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Offenses under this act may be prosecuted by the attorney-general, or under his direction, and all fines collected thereunder shall be paid to the commission and be used for payments to veterans under this act.

§ 9. Appropriation. The sum of one million dollars ($1,000,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury, not otherwise appropriated, for carrying out the provisions of this act, payable by the treasurer, on the warrant of the comptroller to the order of the commission.

§ 10. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 590

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to the sale of tickets of admission to theatres and places of amusement.

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Chapter twenty-five of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to general business, constituting chapter twenty of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by inserting therein a new article, to follow article ten-a, to be article ten-b, to read as follows:

ARTICLE X-B.

THEATRE TICKETS.

Section 167. Matters of public interest.

168. Reselling of tickets of admission; licenses.

169. Bond.

170. Revocation of licenses.

171. Supervision of comptroller.

172. Restriction as to price.

173. Violations; penalties.

174. Constitutionality of article.

§ 167. Matters of public interest. It is hereby determined and declared that the price of or charge for admission to theatres, places of amusement or entertainment, or other places where public exhibitions, games, contests or performances are held is a matter affected with a public interest and subject to the supervision of the state for the purpose of safeguarding the public against fraud, extortion, exorbitant rates and similar abuses.

§ 168. Reselling of tickets of admission; licenses. No person, firm or corporation shall resell or engage in the business of reselling any tickets of admission or any other evidence of the right of entry to a theatre, place of amusement or entertainment, or other places where public exhibitions, games, contests or performances are held without having first procured a license therefor from the comptroller. Such license shall be granted upon the payment by or on behalf of the applicant of a fee of one hundred dollars and shall be renewed upon the payment of a like fee annually. Such license shall not be transferred or assigned, except by permission of the comptroller. Such license shall run to the first day of January next ensuing the date thereof, unless sooner revoked by the comptroller. Such license shall be granted upon a written application setting forth such information as the comptroller may require in order to enable him to carry into effect the provisions of this article and shall be accompanied by proof satisfactory to the comptroller of the moral character of the applicant.

§ 169. Bond. The comptroller shall require the applicant for a license to file with the application therefor a bond in due form to the people of the state of New York in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, with two or more sufficient sureties, who shall be freeholders within the state of New York, conditioned that the obligor will not be guilty of any fraud or extortion, and will not exact or receive a price for any such ticket or evidence of the right of entry in excess of the price authorized by this article. The comptroller shall keep books wherein shall be entered in alphabetical order all licenses granted and all bonds received by him as provided for in this article, the date of the issuance of such licenses and the filing of such bonds, which record shall be open to public inspection. A suit to recover on the bond required to be filed by the provisions of this article may be brought by the comptroller or on the relation of any party aggrieved in a court of competent jurisdiction and in the event that the obligor named in such bond has violated any of the conditions of such bond, recovery for the full penal sum of such bond may be had in favor of the people of the state.

§ 170. Revocation of licenses. In the event that any licensee shall be guilty of any fraud or misrepresentation or shall charge for any ticket a price in excess of the price authorized by this article or otherwise violate any of the provisions of this article or any other law or local ordinance, the comptroller shall be empowered, on giving ten days' notice by mail to such licensee, and on affording such licensee an opportunity to answer the charges made against him, to revoke the license issued to him.

§ 171. Supervision of comptroller. The comptroller shall have the power, upon complaint of any citizen or of his own initiative, to investigate the business, business practices and business methods of any such licensee if in the opinion of the comptroller such investigation is warranted. Each such licensee shall be obliged, on request of the comptroller, to supply such information as may be required concerning his business, business practices or business methods.

§ 172. Restriction as to price. No licensee shall resell any such ticket or other evidence of the right of entry to any theatre, place of amusement or entertainment, or other place where public exhibitions, games, contests or performances are given at a price in excess of fifty cents in advance of the price printed on the face of such ticket or other evidence of the right of entry. Every person, firm or corporation who owns, operates or controls a theatre, place of amusement or entertainment, or other place where public exhibitions, games, contests or performances are held shall, if a price be charged for admission thereto, print on the face of each such ticket or other evidence of the right of entry the price charged therefor by such person, firm or corporation.

§ 173. Violations; penalties. Every person, firm or corporation who resells any such ticket or other evidence of right of entry or engages in the business of reselling any such ticket or other evidence of the right of entry, without first having procured the license prescribed and filing of a bond required by this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Every person, firm or corporation who violates any provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 174. Constitutionality of article. In case it be judicially determined that any section of this article is unconstitutional or otherwise invalid, such determination shall not affect the validity or effect of the remaining provisions of the article.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 591

AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to providing for the retirement of certain county and city employees, through the state employees' retirement system.

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Article five of chapter fifteen of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to the civil service of the state of New York and the civil divisions and cities thereof, constituting chapter seven of the consolidated laws," as thus renumbered by chapter seven hundred and forty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby renumbered article six and such chapter is hereby amended by adding thereto a new article five, to read as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 15,
art. 5, as renumbered
by L. 1920,
ch. 741,
renumbered
art. 6;
new art. 5
added.

ARTICLE 5.

RETIREMENT OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES IN THE COUNTY AND CITY CIVIL SERVICE.

Section 75. Certain county and city employees entitled to membership in the state employees' retirement system.

76. Membership in state system.

77. Duties of certain fiscal officers.

78. Duties of actuary. Contributions to funds.

79. Retirement benefits.

[80. Creation of new retirement systems forbidden.]*

§ 75. Certain county and city employees entitled to membership in the state employees' retirement system. On and after June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, any officer or employee of any county or city of the state of New York, except such employees as are now eligible to participate in a retirement system wholly or partly maintained at the expense of a county or city of the state of New York, shall be entitled to membership in the New York State Employees' Retirement System as provided by article four of this chapter and subsequent amendments thereto. Provided that the officers and employees of any county shall not be included in the state employees' retirement system without the approval of the board of supervisors of any such county, and that the officers and employees of any city shall not be included in the state employees' retirement system without the approval of the local legislative body and the board of estimate and apportionment, or other body having like functions or powers, if there is no board of estimate and apportionment.

§ 76. Membership in state system. Membership in the system shall be optional with all such employees in service on June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and any such employees who elect to join the retirement system on or before June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, shall be entitled to a prior service certificate covering service prior to June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, in the same manner as provided under the provisions of paragraph five of section fifty-three of this chapter. Any member of the New York State Employees' Retirement System shall be entitled to credit in a prior service certificate for all service as now provided by paragraph five of section fifty-three of this chapter and in addition he shall be credited in his prior service certificate with any service rendered in the past, which if rendered after this article takes effect, would have entitled him to membership in the New York State Employees' Retirement System. Membership shall be compulsory on all employees entering the service of such counties or cities if membership would have been compulsory had they entered the state service in similar positions.

§ 77. Duties of certain fiscal officers. The chief fiscal officer of such county or city shall submit to the comptroller of the state of New York such information and shall cause to be performed in respect to each of the employees of said county or city such duties as would be performed in the state service by the head of a department of the state employing members of the retirement system.

§ 78. Duties of actuary. Contributions to funds. The actuary of the state retirement system shall compute the rates of contribution payable by members who are county or city employees in the same manner as if they were state employees and shall compute the contributions which would be payable annually by the state on behalf of such members as though they were state employees. The contributions so computed shall be certified by the state comptroller to the chief fiscal officer of each county or city. The amounts which would be payable by the state on account of such county or city employees, if they were state employees, including a pro-rata share of the cost of the administration of the retirement system, based upon the payroll of the employees of the county or city shall be a charge against the county or city. The county treasurer or corresponding officer of any city shall pay to the state comptroller the amount of such county or city charges so certified, and the amount of the deductions from the compensation of members who are employees of the county or city and the state comptroller shall credit such amounts to the appropriate fund, funds, account or accounts of the New York State Employees' Retirement System.

§ 79. Retirement benefits. Employees of the counties or cities on behalf of whom contributions are so paid shall be entitled to benefits under the New York State Employees' Retirement System as though they were state employees.

§ 80. Creation of new retirement systems forbidden. No county or city shall hereafter create any officers' or employees' retirement system.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 592

AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to retirement of officers and employees in the state civil service.

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision eight of section fifty of chapter fifteen of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to the civil service of the state of New York and the civil divisions and cities thereof, constituting chapter seven of the consolidated laws," as added by chapter seven hundred and forty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, and amended by chapter three hundred and sixty-five of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, is hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 15, § 50, subd. 8, as added by
L. 1920,
ch. 741, and
amended by
L. 1921,
ch. 365,

8. State service shall mean service, whether appointive or elective, as an official, clerk, or employee of the state of New York, including service as teacher in the public schools of the state of New York, however paid, and teaching service rendered prior to July first, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, allowable as a prior service credit under any other retirement plan to which the state of New York is a direct contributor to retirement allowances,¹ however paid, and any other branch of service and any former city or county institution now a state institution, so far as such service is paid for by the state of New York or by any such institution, except service on or after the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, while such employee is, or may be, entitled to benefit by existing laws providing for pensions or annuities for civil service employees wholly or partly at the expense of the state of New York or of any political subdivision thereof.

defined.

§ 2. Subdivision one of section fifty-eight of such chapter as added by chapter seven hundred and forty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 58, subd. 1, as added by
L. 1920,
ch. 741,
amended.

1. The annuity savings fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated deductions from the compensation of members to provide for their annuities and their withdrawal allowances. Upon the basis of such tables as the comptroller shall adopt, and regular interest, the actuary of the retirement system shall determine for each member the proportion of annual compensation, which, when deducted from each payment of his prospective earnable annual compensation prior to the age of sixty years and accumulated at regular interest until said age, shall be computed to provide, at that time, an annuity equal to one-one-hundred and fortieth of his final average salary for each year of service as a member after the establishment of the retirement system. Such proportion of compensation shall be computed to remain constant.

The proportion so computed for a member aged fifty-nine years shall be applied to any member who has attained a greater age before entrance into the retirement system.

The comptroller shall certify to the head of each department and said head of each department shall deduct from the annual compensation of each member on each and every payroll of such member for each and every payroll period the proportion of his earnable annual compensation so computed. But the said comptroller shall not certify nor shall the head of any department make any deduction for annuity purposes from the annual compensation of a member who elects not to contribute if he is not less than sixty years of age and has completed not less than thirty-five years of state service. In determining the amount earnable by a member in a payroll period, the comptroller may consider the rate of annual compensation payable to such member on the first day of the payroll period as continuing throughout such payroll period and he may omit deductions from compensation for any period less than a full payroll period if an employee was not a member on the first day of the payroll period; and to facilitate the making of deductions he may modify the deduction required of any member by such an amount as shall not exceed one-tenth of one per centum of the annual compensation upon the basis of which said deduction is to be made.

The deductions provided herein shall be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided for by law for any member shall be reduced thereby. Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions made and provided for herein and shall receipt in full for his salary or compensation; and payment of salary or compensation less said deductions shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for the services rendered by such person during the period covered by such payment except as to the benefits provided by this article. Said head of each department shall certify to the comptroller on each and every payroll to the amounts to be deducted; and each of said amounts shall be deducted and when deducted shall be paid into said annuity savings fund, and shall be credited, together with regular interest, to an individual account of the member from whose compensation said deduction was made.

In addition to the deductions from compensation hereinbefore provided, any member may redeposit in the annuity savings fund by a single payment an amount equal to the total amount which he withdrew previously therefrom as provided in this article, or any member may deposit therein by a single payment an amount computed to be sufficient to purchase an additional annuity, which, together with his prospective retirement allowance, will provide for him a total retirement allowance of one-half of his final average salary at the age of sixty years, ² or any member may deposit therein, from time to time, amounts permitted so to be deposited by the comptroller for the purpose of purchasing additional annuity, or any member may elect to contribute at a rate greater than that hereinbefore provided, for the purpose of purchasing additional annuity. Such additional amounts so deposited shall become a part of his accumulated contributions, ³ except in the case of disability retirement, in which case they shall be considered as in excess of his accumulated contributions and shall be used in the purchase of an annuity in addition to the retirement allowance which would be otherwise provided. The accumulated contributions of a member, withdrawn by him, or paid to his estate or designated beneficiary in event of his death as provided in this article shall be paid out of the annuity savings fund. Upon retirement of a member, his accumulated contributions, including any excess contributions, ⁴ shall be transferred from said fund to the annuity reserve fund.

§ 3. Section sixty-one of such chapter as added by chapter seven hundred and forty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty and amended by chapter three hundred and sixty-five of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new subdivision, to be known as subdivision four, to read as follows:

Subd. 4
added to § 61, as added by
L. 1920,
ch. 741.

4. Should a beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance under the provisions of subdivision three of this section, be restored to active service, his retirement allowance shall cease, he shall again become a member of the retirement system, and he shall contribute to the said fund thereafter in the same manner and at the same rate as he had prior to his discontinuance. Any prior service certificate on the basis of which his service was computed at the time of his retirement shall be restored to full force and effect, and in addition, upon his subsequent retirement, he shall be credited with all his service as a member subsequent to his last restoration to membership.

§ 4. Subdivision two of section sixty-two of such chapter as added by chapter seven hundred and forty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty and amended by chapter two hundred and seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 62.

L. 1920,
ch. 741,

§ 5. Section sixty-eight of such chapter as added by chapter seven hundred and forty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 68. Options. With the exception that no election of an optional benefit shall become effective in case a member dies within thirty days after the filing of an application for a retirement allowance,⁶ until the first payment on account of any benefit is made, the beneficiary, or if he is an incompetent, then his wife, or, if he has no wife, a committee of his estate, may elect to receive such benefit in a retirement allowance payable throughout life, or to receive the actuarial equivalent at that time of his annuity, his pension, or his retirement allowance in a lesser annuity or a lesser pension or a lesser retirement allowance, payable throughout life, with the provision that:

Option 1. If he died before he has received in payments the present value of his annuity, his pension, or his retirement allowance, as it was at the time of his retirement, the balance shall be paid to his legal representatives or to such person having an insurable interest in his life, as he, his wife or committee so electing, shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the comptroller.

Option 2. Upon his death, his annuity, his pension, or his retirement allowance, shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he, his wife or committee so electing, shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the comptroller at the time of his retirement.

Option 3. Upon his death, one-half of his annuity, his pension or his retirement allowance, shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to such person, having an insurable interest in his life, as he, his wife or committee so electing, shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the comptroller at the time of his retirement.

Option 4. Some other benefit or benefits shall be paid either to the beneficiary or to such other person or persons as he, his wife, or committee so electing, shall nominate, provided such other benefit or benefits, together with such lesser annuity, or lesser pension, or lesser retirement allowance, shall be certified by the actuary of the retirement system, to be of equivalent actuarial value to his annuity, his pension or his retirement allowance, and shall be approved by the comptroller.

added.

§ 6. Such chapter is hereby amended by inserting therein, at the end of article four, a new section, to be known as section seventy-three, to read as follows:

⁶ Word " or " omitted.

⁷ Words " or employees " new.

⁸ Sentence to here new.

§ 73. Transfer of members between systems. Any member of any retirement system operating on a sound financial basis and subject to the supervision of the insurance department of the state may transfer his membership to the New York State Employees' Retirement System, or any member of the New York State Employees' Retirement System may transfer his membership to another retirement system operating on a sound basis and subject to the supervision of the insurance department of the state upon accepting a position in another branch of the state or municipal service which would make it impossible for him to continue in the retirement system of which he has been a member and which would make it possible for him to participate in another such system.

In order to effect a transfer, he must give notice to the administrative head of the retirement system of which he is a member, prior to his withdrawal from such system, of his intention to enter such other retirement system within one year. Upon his entry into such other system, he shall be admitted without regard to his previous membership in the first retirement system and without credit for prior service except as hereinafter provided. He shall be permitted to deposit in the second retirement system the total amount of his contributions withdrawn from the first retirement system and upon such deposit within one year he or the administrative head of the system to which he desires to transfer shall request the administrative head of the first retirement system to transfer to the second retirement system a credit on account of his membership in such system.

Upon the request for a transfer of credit, the actuary of the first system shall determine the reserve on his benefits as though he had not discontinued membership, as follows: He shall compute the total present value of all benefits allowable under the retirement system as the result of contributions made or to be made by his employer and shall deduct therefrom the present value of the future contributions which would be payable by his employer on his account had he become a member of the retirement system subsequent to its establishment at the age at which he originally entered the service of his employer. The result so obtained shall be considered as the reserve on his account in the first retirement system.

Such reserve shall be transferred from the appropriate fund or funds of the first system to the appropriate fund or funds of the second system within one year from the date of the request for a transfer of credit and he shall then be given such status and be credited with such service in the second retirement system as shall impose a liability on that system in addition to the liability which it would otherwise undertake equal to the reserve so transferred.

§ 7. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 593

AN ACT to amend the decedent estate law, in relation to the investment of trust funds.

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

L. 1908,
ch. 18,
§ 111, as amended by
L. 1918,
ch. 544,

Section 1. Section one hundred and eleven of chapter eighteen of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to estates of deceased persons, constituting chapter thirteen of the consolidated laws," as amended by chapter five hundred and forty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and eighteen, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 111. Investment of trust funds. An executor, administrator, trustee or other person holding trust funds for investment may invest the same in the same kind of securities as those in which savings banks of this state are by law authorized to invest the money deposited therein, and the income derived therefrom, and in bonds and mortgages on unincumbered real property in this state worth fifty per centum more than the amount loaned thereon, and in shares or parts of such bonds and mortgages, provided that any share or part of such bond and mortgage so held shall not be subordinate to any other shares thereof and shall not be subject to any prior interest therein, and provided further that bonds and mortgages in parts of which any fiduciary may invest trust funds together with any guaranties of payment, insurance policies and other instruments and evidences of title relating thereto shall be held for the benefit of such fiduciary and of any other persons interested in such bonds or mortgages by a trust company or title guaranty corporation organized under the laws of this state, and that a certificate setting forth that such corporation holds such instruments for the benefit of such fiduciary and of any other persons who may be interested in such bond and mortgage among whom the corporation holding such instruments may be included, be executed by such corporation and delivered to each person who becomes interested in such bond and mortgage. Every corporation issuing any such certificate shall keep a record in proper books of account of all certificates issued pursuant to the foregoing provisions. An executor, administrator, trustee or other person holding trust funds may require such personal bonds or guarantees of payment to accompany investments as may seem prudent, and all premiums paid on such guarantees may be charged to or paid out of income, providing that such charge or payment be not more than at the rate of one-half of one per centum per annum on the par value of such investments. But no trustee shall purchase securities hereunder from himself. ¹ Whenever any trust funds are invested in the shares of a savings and loan association, organized under the laws of this state, at the time said funds shall come into the possession of any executor, administrator, trustee or other person, entitled to hold the same, the investment of such funds in the shares of such savings and loan association may be continued, provided, however, the total amount of trust funds invested in the shares of such savings and loan association shall not exceed the amount of its guaranty fund.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 594

AN ACT to amend the insanity law, in relation to the retirement of officers and employees of the state hospital system.

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section one hundred and nine of chapter thirty-two of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to the insane, constituting chapter twenty-seven of the consolidated laws," as added by chapter four hundred and ninety-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and eighteen is hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 32, § 109, as added by
L. 1918,
ch. 499,

§ 109. Definition. Wherever the state hospital system is mentioned in this act it includes the officers and employees of all the state hospitals, including Dannemora and Matteawan state hospitals; the medical member of the state hospital commission and medical inspectors who have had previous experience in the New York state hospitals and employees of the state hospital commission; the bureau of deportation, ¹ the psychiatric institute and the retirement board.²

§ 2. Sections one hundred and eleven, one hundred and twelve, and one hundred and fifteen of such chapter, as added by chapter fifty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and twelve and last amended by chapter four hundred and ninety-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and eighteen,³ are hereby amended to read as follows:

115, as added by
L. 1912,
ch. 59, and amended by
L. 1918,
ch. 499,

§ 111. Retirement of officers and employees. Any officer or employee of the New York state hospital system for the care of the insane, including the Matteawan and Dannemora state hospitals for criminal insane, who shall have signified his or her intention to take advantage of the provisions of this article and who shall faithfully and honestly discharge his or her duty in one or more of such state hospitals, or state hospital department or in any former city or county asylum, now a state hospital for the insane, or partly in each for twenty-five years, shall upon his or her application to the retirement board be entitled to retirement; provided, however, in the opinion of such board there is sufficient money in the fund to warrant such retirement. Every applicant must be in the service of the state hospital system for the insane, as hereinbefore provided, at the time application is made for retirement, and shall remain in the said service until notified by the retirement board of his or her retirement. Any person retired pursuant to the provisions of this section must be awarded, granted and paid from said retirement fund an annual amount equal to one-half of the wages or compensation, including maintenance, as fixed by the state hospital commission or by statute received by him or her, for the year immediately preceding the application for retirement, provided, however, that such compensation for maintenance shall not be considered at a higher rate per month than the maximum rate fixed by statute for employees, and provided further ⁴ that no person shall receive such annuity until he or she shall have paid into the said fund, by deductions from his or her wages, or by contributions in full, an amount equal to fifty per centum of his or her first year's annuity, and provided further that any such person who has been reduced in grade, salary, wages or compensation,⁵ after twenty-five years of service shall be retired at the rate of wages and maintenance received by him or her during the twenty-fifth year of service, ⁶ if he or she so elects, and provided further that whenever the retirement fund reserve shall be less than four hundred thousand dollars no annuity shall be paid in excess of fifteen hundred dollars per annum and this provision shall in no way interfere with the retirement of employees in their regular order of application until the retirement fund reserve shall fall to two hundred thousand dollars, after which the retirement board shall act in accordance with its best judgment. Such annuity shall become effective from the first of the month immediately subsequent to the date of the meeting of the retirement board taking action on same, and shall be for the natural life of such person and payable in quarterly instalments, and shall not be revoked, repealed, diminished or subject to claim of creditors. ⁷ Every officer or employee of the state hospital system who has been retired since November first, nineteen hundred and twenty-one and prior to the time that this section as hereby amended takes effect, shall upon application to the retirement board be entitled to receive the benefits enumerated in this section as hereby amended.

§ 112. Proceedings for retirement; physical disability. The retirement board shall have power upon its own motion or upon the application in writing of any person entitled to the benefit of the retirement fund to retire any such person who shall have faithfully and honestly discharged his or her duties in any department of the state hospital system including the Matteawan and Dannemora state hospitals for criminal insane, or former city or county asylum now a state hospital, or partly in each for twenty-five years, or who shall have performed such duties for fifteen years or more, faithfully and honestly and who shall have become mentally or physically incapacitated by reason of accident or illness, provided, however, that reasonable notice in writing, shall be given by the board or one of its members of its proposed action, to the person intended to be retired and an opportunity afforded to such person to be heard before the final action is taken by such board, and said board shall certify in writing the reason for such retirement, and that the best interests of the public service demand the same. To aid in such determination, the board may cause the person intended to be retired, to be physically examined by the medical examiners hereinafter provided for. Any person retired pursuant to the provisions of this section must be awarded, granted and paid from said retirement fund an annual amount equal to as many twenty-fifths of one-half of the wages or compensation, including maintenance received by him or her for the year immediately preceding the application for retirement as he or she has served years, provided, however, in the opinion of the retirement board, there is sufficient money in the fund to warrant such retirement, and provided further that no person shall receive such annuity until he or she shall have paid into said fund by deductions from his or her wages or salary or by contribution in full an amount equal to fifty per centum of his or her first year's annuity.⁸ Such annuity shall become effective from the first of the month immediately subsequent to the date of the meeting of the retirement board taking action on same, shall be payable in quarterly installments and shall not be diminished or subject to the claim of creditors. Officers or employees retired for disability under the provisions of this section shall be subject to an examination by a medical examiner or board appointed by the retirement board, or by the retirement board itself; and in the event of an officer or employee retired becoming able to perform active service again, he or she may be reinstated by the superintendent or other appointing power on a certificate of the retirement board that such retired officer or employee is again able to perform duty, and such annuity shall cease upon the date of such reinstatement.

§ 115. Contributions to retirement fund. Every officer or employee of the New York state hospital system for the insane who shall have signified his or her intention to take advantage of the provisions of this article shall contribute to said fund and the treasurer or other officer of the state hospital system as hereinbefore provided shall at the end of the first full calendar month after this section as hereby amended takes effect deduct and retain monthly from the wages and maintenance of such persons and pay to the comptroller of the state of New York who shall credit the said fund by amounts as follows: Persons who have performed such duty for less than five years, one per centum. Persons who have performed such duty for more than five years and less than ten years, one and one-half per centum. Persons who have performed such duty for more than ten years and less than fifteen years, two per centum. Persons who have performed such duty for more than fifteen years and less than twenty years, two and one-half per centum. Persons who have performed such duty for more than twenty years, three per centum. Such payments shall cease when a person has paid for twenty-five years, or who has been retired pursuant to the provisions of this article. Every person to whom this article applies who shall have signified his or her intention to take advantage of this article, who shall continue in the employ of the New York state hospital system for the insane after this article takes effect, as well as every person to whom this article applies who may hereafter be appointed to a position or place, shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions made and provided for herein, and shall receipt in full for the wages, pay or compensation which shall be paid monthly or at any other time, and such payment shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims or demands whatsoever for the services rendered by such person during the period covered by such payment, notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, rule or regulation affecting the wages, pay or compensation of any person or persons employed in the New York state civil service to whom this article applies. Every officer or employee entering the service of the New York state hospital system on and after the first day of the calendar month after this section as hereby amended takes effect and who is not for any reason exempted from the benefits of this article, shall contribute and continue to contribute thereto to the retirement fund at the rate of two per centum per month of his or her wages including maintenance, except maintenance shall not be considered in computing contributions or annuities of officers at any higher rate than the maximum fixed by statute for employees.⁹ All officers and employees participating in the retirement fund at the time this section as hereby amended takes effect or employed hereafter or reinstated shall, subject to the provisions of this act, continue to participate while they remain in the state hospital system. All officers and employees in the state hospital system prior to the twenty-second day of March, nineteen hundred and twelve, who are not participants in the retirement fund may become such by signifying their desire to do so to the retirement board within the thirty days next following the time this section as hereby amended takes effect and shall continue to be participants while they remain in the state hospital system.

§ 3. Such chapter is hereby amended by inserting therein, at the end of article five, a new section, to be section one hundred and twenty-three, to read as follows:

⁹ Words "at any higher rate than the maximum fixed by statute for employees," new.

§ 123. Suspension of annuity. The payment of annuity shall be suspended during the time any retired officer or employee is in receipt of other compensation for state service.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

§ 3. Subdivision d of section seventy-four of said act, as last amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen,³ is hereby amended to read as follows:²

d. Appeals in disorderly persons proceedings. An appeal from an order, decision or judgment under this section may be taken either by a defendant or by the complainant to the court of special sessions as provided by section ninety-four, except that the court allowing the appeal on behalf of the defendant must take from the defendant a written undertaking to the city of New York in such sum and with such sureties as he may approve, or in lieu thereof a deposit of cash or liberty bonds, that the defendant will abide the judgment of the appellate court upon the appeal, and except that all notices required by law to be served upon the district attorney upon an appeal shall upon such appeal be served upon the corporation counsel of the city of New York. If the defendant has given an undertaking to comply with the order of the domestic relations court or has deposited cash or liberty bonds in lieu thereof no undertaking on appeal shall be required. No appeal taken by a defendant under this section shall operate as a stay of proceedings and no stay herein shall be granted. If a new trial be ordered it must be had in the court from which the appeal was taken. When the appeal is taken by the complainant the affidavit for the allowance of the appeal shall be made by, and all other proceedings shall be taken by the corporation counsel.

If the judgment on the appeal be against the complainant the complainant may appeal therefrom to the appellate division of the supreme court in the same manner as the defendant.

§ 182. The common council of the city of Oswego shall provide suitable rooms in the city hall for the transaction of the business committed to the department of fire and police. Quarters.

§ 183. On or before the first of May each year the department of fire and police shall make and certify to the common council an estimate of the amount to be raised for the current year to be disbursed for the benefit of the city under the supervision of said department of fire and police, stating the amount required for the Annual estimate for department of fire and police.

" fire protection fund " and the " police fund ", each separately. Such estimate shall not exceed the sum of thirty-five thousand one hundred and thirty dollars for the " fire protection fund " except as hereinafter provided, nor the sum of twenty-six thousand eight hundred and ninety dollars for the " police fund " except under the conditions provided by this act.

Payment of claims and demands.

§ 184. The department of fire and police shall pay all claims and demands duly audited by it only by warrants drawn on the city chamberlain against funds in his hands subject to the drafts of such department, signed by said commissioner of public safety and countersigned by his clerk, and every warrant so drawn shall be made payable to the order of the person entitled to receive the money thereon.

Sale and disposal of property.

§ 186. The said commissioner shall have power to sell and dispose of any of the fire department property under his direction and control, except real estate, when in his judgment the interests of the said city will be promoted thereby, and the avails of such sales shall be paid to the city chamberlain and by him placed to the credit of the fire protection fund.

regulations.

§ 187. The commissioner of public safety shall make such rules and regulations as he may deem best, for the good government of the fire and police departments.

§ 8. Section one hundred and ninety of such chapter, as amended by chapter four hundred and seventy-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 190. The department shall maintain fire companies, and appoint a sufficient number of able-bodied and reputable inhabitants of the city of Oswego firemen to belong to such companies, and an ambulance driver and shall pay them a reasonable compensation for their services, and such ambulance driver is hereby made a member of the fire department of the city of Oswego. Said commissioner of public safety shall appoint one of said firemen chief engineer of the fire department, who shall, under the direction of the commissioner of public safety, have full control of the fire department; and the commissioner shall also appoint one of said firemen, who shall act as assistant to the chief engineer in the management and control of the fire companies and fire apparatus during the extinguishment of fires. The said department shall pay the chief engineer, his assistant, the steam engineers, stokers, drivers and foremen and assistant foremen of the companies such compensation as shall be just and reasonable. The department shall have power to remove any of its appointees provided for in this section, in the manner provided in, and subject to all the provisions and conditions of, section two hundred and one of this act relating to the removal of policemen. The chief engineer of the fire department, his assistant, and the firemen and permanent appointees composing the fire companies of the fire department of the city of Oswego at the time when this section as hereby amended takes effect, shall constitute the chief engineer of the fire department, his assistant, and the firemen and appointees of the fire department under this act, and such officers, firemen and appointees shall, for the purposes of this act, be deemed the appointees of the department of fire and police, subject to the provisions of this act.

§ 9. Section one hundred and ninety-three of such chapter is hereby amended to read as follows: § 193 amended.

§ 193. Whenever any building in the city is on fire it shall be lawful for the chief engineer or acting chief engineer, with the concurrence of the mayor, the commissioner of works or the commissioner of public safety, to order and direct the same, or any other building which they may deem likely to take fire and convey the same to other buildings, to be torn down or blown up and destroyed; and no action shall be maintained against any person therefor; but any person interested in any such buildings so destroyed or injured may, within three months thereafter, apply to the common council to assess and pay the damages he has sustained. At the expiration of three months, if any such application shall have been made in writing to the common council, the same proceedings shall be had to determine whether any and what damages have been sustained by such claimant as are prescribed by this act for the appropriation of land for laying out, altering, widening or straightening streets. The damages so awarded, if any, shall be added, levied and raised with the next general annual tax, and when received shall be paid by the common council and received by the claimants in full of all claim and demand of damages for or on account of the injury to or destruction of the said building.* Demolition of buildings in case of fire.

§ 10. Section one hundred and ninety-four of such chapter, as amended by chapter two hundred and sixty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, is hereby amended to read as follows: § 194, as amended by L. 1897, ch. 263, amended.

§ 194. The commissioner of public safety may, in any year at or before the time of presenting his requisition and estimate of sums necessary for fire protection purposes for that year, present to the common council a special requisition for a sum not exceeding one thousand dollars in addition to all other sums appropriated for such purpose; to be expended only for new apparatus or new equipment by said department. If such requisition is approved Tax for fire protection fund.

§ 11. Section one hundred and ninety-five of such chapter, as amended by chapter five hundred and ninety-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 195. The commissioner of public safety shall maintain in service not less than twelve nor more than sixteen regular policemen, and the patrol driver, who shall constitute the police of the city of Oswego. The commissioner may, when deemed necessary by him, appoint extra members of the police department not exceeding sixteen, who shall serve for such time as the said commissioner shall deem necessary, not to exceed ten days, and who shall be entitled to receive a compensation to be fixed by said commissioner, the expense of which shall be raised and paid in the manner provided for the payment of regular policemen in this act.

§ 12. Sections one hundred and ninety-six, one hundred and ninety-eight, two hundred and one, two hundred and four and two hundred and seven of such act are hereby amended to read, respectively, as follows:

§ 196. The commissioner may also appoint, in extraordinary emergencies, an additional number of policemen, to hold their appointment until discharged by the commissioner. The policemen appointed under this act shall have the same power and authority as constables now have by law, except as to civil process and proceedings, and shall be subject to the same liabilities and regulations, except as herein otherwise provided; and the chief of police and policemen of said city shall execute the orders and commitments of the courts held by the recorder, and may convey all persons sentenced by him to jail, penitentiary or house of refuge.

§ 198. The regular policemen shall receive for their services such compensation as shall be fixed by the commissioner of public safety. The commissioner of public safety shall select from the policemen appointed by him one who shall be chief of police, whose duty it shall be, under the direction of the commissioner of public safety, to superintend the police department in said city, of which he shall be chief executive officer. He shall keep a record in a book of all cases and legal proceedings in his department, and of all services performed by him and the several policemen. He shall at least once in every month report to the commissioner of public safety the state of the police department, and whether any member of his force is delinquent in his duties. The commissioner of public safety shall appoint a captain of police, to be selected from the regular policemen appointed by him who shall, under the direction of the chief of police, perform any services and exercise any control which the chief of police might in the management and operation of the department. The chief of police, the captain of the night watch, as captain of police, and the policemen, in office when this section as hereby amended takes effect, shall continue in their respective offices and positions, subject, however, to the provisions of this act.

§ 14. Subdivisions five and six of section two hundred and sixty of such chapter are hereby amended to read as follows:

5. Police fund. A sum not exceeding twenty-six thousand eight hundred and ninety dollars, except under the conditions† provided by this act, to defray the expenses of the police department of said city.

6. Fire protection fund. A sum not exceeding thirty-five thousand one hundred and thirty dollars, to defray the expenses of the fire department of said city.

Subd. 8d
added to § 260.

§ 15. Section two hundred and sixty of such chapter is hereby amended by inserting after subdivision eight-c, a new subdivision, to be subdivision eight-d, to read as follows:

8-d. Public safety fund. A sum not exceeding two thousand dollars as the department of public safety shall certify to the common council for the expenses of said department. The sum certified and raised under this subdivision shall in no way affect or diminish the police fund or fire protection fund or funds raised or expended pursuant to the powers granted under the public health law.

added.

§ 16. Such chapter is hereby amended by adding thereto a new title, to be title eighteen, to read as follows:

TITLE XVIII.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY.

§ 417. Commissioner of public safety; appointees. The commissioner of public safety shall be head of the department of public safety. He may appoint, each to hold office during his pleasure,

* So in original. [Evidently should be "section."]

† So in original. [Evidently should be "provisions."]

a health officer, a clerk and three inspectors or subordinates, prescribe their duties, and, subject to the provisions of this section, fix their salaries from time to time. The salary of said clerk shall not exceed five hundred dollars annually. The clerk, in addition to other duties prescribed by the commissioner shall keep separate records in due form of the department of fire and police and of the board of health. The salaries of such three inspectors or subordinates shall not exceed in each case the sum of fifteen hundred dollars annually. All such salaries shall be payable monthly. The said commissioner may in his discretion from time to time employ such physician or physicians, nurse or nurses as he deems necessary, whose salaries and duties shall be fixed by him from time to time as in his discretion he may deem best.

§ 418. Duties of commissioner. The commissioner of public safety shall have cognizance, jurisdiction, supervision and control of the government, administration, disposition and discipline of the police department, fire department and board of health, and of the officers and members of said departments and board, and shall possess and exercise fully and exclusively all powers and perform all duties pertaining to the government, maintenance and direction of said departments and board, and the apparatus and property thereof and building furnished therefor, and shall have the general direction and supervision of the expenditure of all moneys appropriated to said departments and board. He shall also have all the powers and duties hereinafter enumerated and such other duties as may be prescribed by law or by ordinance of the common council.

§ 419. Constitution of police and fire departments. The police and fire departments shall, as to their membership and component parts, remain as now constituted. The commissioner shall appoint, as vacancies in said department occur, all officers and members thereof.

§ 420. Exemptions. No member of the police or fire department shall be liable to military or jury duty or to arrest on criminal or civil process while on duty.

§ 421. Pension funds. The provisions of law governing the establishment and maintenance of pension funds for the benefit of members of the police and fire departments shall be unimpaired by this act.

§ 422. Board of health. The commissioner of public safety shall exercise all the powers and be charged with all the duties conferred upon or required of local boards of health by the laws of this state, so far as the same pertain to cities of the third class, with the exceptions, limitations and additions herein contained.

§ 423. Health officer. No person shall be eligible to appointment as health officer unless he shall be a competent physician and surgeon duly licensed to practice under the laws of this state. The health officer shall possess such powers and perform such duties as shall be delegated to him or prescribed by the commissioner of public safety, or by ordinance of the common council.

§ 424. Appeals from orders of health officer. Any person aggrieved by an order, decision or direction of the health officer, may appeal therefrom to the commissioner, who may affirm, reverse or modify the order, decision or direction appealed from. Such appeal must be made by serving on the health officer a written notice of appeal within three days, Sundays and legal holidays excepted, or within such further time as shall be allowed by the commissioner after the appellant received notice of the order, decision or direction appealed from. Within three days after receiving such notice of appeal, Sundays and legal holidays excepted, the health officer shall make a written return to the commissioner of the facts and evidence on which such order, decision or direction is founded. Upon receipt of such return, or if no return be made within the time specified, the commissioner shall forthwith proceed to hear and determine the matter. Upon such appeal the commissioner need not be confined to the evidence contained in the return but in his discretion may take additional evidence. Until the decision of this appeal be made, the order, decision or direction appealed from shall be suspended. In case of failure to sustain the appeal, the commissioner may, in his discretion, impose costs not exceeding ten dollars upon the appellant.

§ 425. Actions to restrain nuisances. The commissioner is authorized, by and with the advice and consent of the city attorney, in the name of the city, to maintain actions to restrain the threatened performance of any act contrary to his orders, directions, decisions or ordinances and to restrain and abate nuisances; and for the purpose of obtaining a temporary injunction in any such action no undertaking shall be required.

§ 426. Duty in case of peril to public health. In case of great and imminent peril to the public health of the city, by reason of impending pestilence, it shall be the duty of the commissioner, with the sanction of the common council, if it be practicable to convene that body for prompt action, or if not, when approved by the mayor, to take such measures, and to do, order, or cause to be done, such acts, and to make such extraordinary expenditures in excess of the sum appropriated to the department of health, as he may deem necessary and proper. Such peril to public health shall be deemed to exist only when and for such period as the commissioner and the common council by unanimous vote, shall determine.

§ 427. On or before the first of May in each year the department of public safety shall make and certify to the common council an estimate of the amount to be raised for the current year to be disbursed for the benefit of the city under the supervision of such department. Such estimate shall not exceed the sum of two thousand dollars except under the provisions provided by this act.

§ 428. The department of public health of the city of Oswego created by its common council pursuant to the provisions of chapter two hundred and forty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one is hereby abolished.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

L. 1896,
ch. 384,
tit. 10
amended.

Section 1. Title ten of chapter three hundred and ninety-four of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-five, entitled "An act to revise the charter of the city of Oswego," as amended by chapter two hundred and sixty-three of the laws of eighteen hundred and ninety-seven and chapter three hundred and fourteen of the laws of nineteen hundred and seven, is hereby re-enacted and amended to read as follows:¹

TITLE X.

DEPARTMENT OF ASSESSMENTS.

Department.

§ 230. The department of assessments shall be composed of all officers making general and local assessments.

§ 231. The assessors. The assessors of said city shall be three in number, and² shall compose a board to be called the "board of assessors," which shall make all general assessments, all of whom shall be appointed by the mayor, and one of whom shall be appointed, designated and known as the chief assessor and shall act as chairman of said board, and of the other two associate assessors³ one shall be known as the assessor of the first, third, fifth and seventh wards, and shall be a resident of one of said wards, and the other shall be known as the assessor of the second, fourth, sixth and eighth wards, and shall be a resident of one of said wards.

Assessors;
appoint-
terms.

§ 232.⁴ The mayor immediately shall appoint three assessors. The term of office of the one who shall be appointed, designated and known as the chief assessor shall expire on December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and twenty-four. The term of office of one associate assessor shall expire December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and twenty-three. The term of office of one associate assessor shall expire December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two. The mayor in appointing the associate assessors shall designate for which term each is appointed. Thereafter the term of office of each assessor shall be three years. Upon the expiration of the term of any assessor thereafter, a successor shall be appointed by the mayor, for such term that the term of one assessor shall end on December thirty-first, in each year.

³ Words "associate assessors" new.

⁴ Section 232 materially amended.

§ 233. Any assessor may be removed from office by the mayor for cause, after opportunity shall have been given him to be heard, and vacancies in the office of assessor shall be filled by appointment by the mayor for the remainder of the unexpired term. Removal.

§ 234.⁵ The assessors shall possess all the powers and authority and be subject to all the obligations of town assessors, and shall make the assessment-rolls of said city in the same manner as such town assessors except as herein provided, ⁶ and shall complete any pending matter in the abolished department of assessment and taxation, established by the common council pursuant to chapter three hundred of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, which would be within their jurisdiction if begun after the reenactment of this title. Between the first days of April and June of each year, they shall proceed to ascertain by diligent inquiry the names of all the taxable inhabitants in the city, and also of all the taxable property, real and personal, within the same. They shall prepare two general assessment-rolls of said city, one of all the taxable property in the first, third, fifth and seventh wards, and one of all the taxable property in the second, fourth, sixth and eighth wards, in which they shall set down, in separate columns and according to the best information in their power, the names of all the taxable inhabitants in said wards, the number of the block and lot and the number of the great lot, if any, on which the land described is situated, or the assessor's subdivision thereof; a brief description of the land to be taxed to each person, giving the quantity thereof, where the land is farming land, and also, in addition to said description, when practicable, the street and the street number of any building thereon; but if the land be vacant or the building thereon not numbered, then the name of the street on which it fronts shall be given; the full value of such land according to the definition of the term land as given by law, and the full value of all the taxable personal property owned by such person after deducting the just debts owing by him. Where the description of land by the block and lot can not be given they may describe the same in the said assessment-rolls by assessor's subdivisions, and said assessors are hereby authorized to describe any lot or parcel of land by the assessor's subdivisions, providing a map thereof has been made by the city engineer under the direction of the common council and filed with the board of assessors. The assessors shall complete said assessment-rolls on or before the fifteenth day of June in each year and shall make an original, and copy thereof to be left at their office. They shall forthwith cause notices to be published in the official papers of said city, daily, for two weeks, setting forth that the assessors have completed their assessment-rolls, and a copy thereof is left at their office in the city hall where the same may be seen and Assessment-rolls.

completion
livery.

§ 236. When the assessment-rolls are so finally completed and verified by the assessors, and so delivered to the city clerk, the assessors shall forthwith give public notice by posting the same in at least three public places in said city, and by publishing the same at least three successive days in the official papers, that such assessment-rolls have been finally completed and delivered to the city clerk, and that the same will be open to public inspection at the city clerk's office for fifteen days.

of tax.

§ 237. The city clerk shall, without delay, compute the ratio and extend the tax upon the assessment-rolls, and the common council shall, on or before the thirty-first day of July in each year, confirm said assessment-rolls, and the same shall be delivered by the city clerk, with the warrant thereto attached, as provided by this act, to the city chamberlain on or before the first day of August in each year.

Assessors;
salaries.

§ 238.⁷ The chief assessor shall have a salary of fifteen hundred dollars⁸ per annum, payable monthly, and the other members of said board shall each have a salary of four hundred dollars per annum, payable August first in each year.

Chief assessor;
office, hours.

§ 239. The chief assessor shall keep his office in the city hall (which shall also be the office of the department of assessments) and the same shall be kept open from ten to twelve o'clock in the morning and from two to four o'clock in the afternoon on all business days, except when said chief assessor shall be engaged in the examination and valuation of the real property of the city.

Delivery

§ 240. The chief assessor shall make two copies of the assessment-rolls so made as aforesaid, and certify the same to be correct, and deliver the same to one of the supervisors of the city on or before the first day of November in each year, which shall be presented and delivered by said supervisor to the board of supervisors of Oswego county as and for the town rolls of said city, and no other such rolls shall be made. The chief assessor shall prepare all assessment-rolls required for the use of the board of assessors, and a copy thereof, and shall deliver the said rolls and copies to the city clerk as required by this act.

§ 241. All descriptions of real estate contained in said assessment-rolls shall be carefully examined by him, and all mistakes therein corrected. He shall, as often as once in each week, procure from the county clerk's office memoranda of all conveyances recorded or left for record therein, and affecting land situated in said city, of the parties thereto and of the lands affected thereby, and shall enter the same in a book to be kept by him for that purpose in his office, and which shall be open at all suitable times to public inspection.

Descriptions of real estate.

§ 242. He shall give notice by mail, postage prepaid, to each person, company or corporation whose name appears on a local assessment-roll, of the fact of such assessment, the amount thereof, together with the time and place of reviewing the same and hearing the parties who are interested in relation thereto.

Notice of local assessments.

§ 243. The chief assessor shall promptly post on the bulletin board in the rotunda of the city hall a copy of each and every public notice pertaining to any local assessment, and shall at all times keep in his office a scrap book, in which shall be affixed or pasted copies of every public notice which the department of assessments, or any member thereof is by law required to give or publish, and shall keep the same at all times properly indexed.

Posting of same.

Preservation of copies.

§ 244. Whenever the mayor shall be of the opinion, on written representations made to him, that any assessor is personally interested in any local assessment or improvement, by this act authorized, whereby said assessor may be assessed or taxed fifty dollars or more, and he shall so determine, he shall thereupon appoint a disinterested freeholder of the city to be an assessor in the place of any assessor so disqualified, for the purpose of making said assessment, as a member of the "board of local assessors." The city clerk shall thereupon notify the assessor so chosen of his appointment. Every person so appointed assessor shall, within five days after written notice of his appointment, take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office. Every person so appointed and qualified shall possess all the power and authority of an assessor under this act in respect to said assessment, and shall receive such compensation therefor as the common council shall fix.

Temporary assessor when assessor disqualified.

§ 245. Any assessor shall forfeit to the city one hundred dollars for any and every neglect or violation of his official duty. If any assessor shall refuse and neglect to perform his duty as such, the mayor may declare his office vacant, and appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

Neglect or violation of duty.

§ 246. The common council may from time to time direct the city engineer to prepare and furnish to the department of assessments for its use maps, surveys and other data of any real estate in the city, or to prepare a roll or rolls of any real estate in the city, for the use of the assessors exclusive of the valuation. The common council may also take such measures as they shall deem expedient to make the department of assessments the repository of such maps, surveys and other data as may facilitate a full and accurate description of the real estate in the city and direct the manner of keeping them.

Correction of assessment-rolls.

§ 247. The common council are vested with power to correct the assessment-rolls in the same manner as a board of supervisors may by law correct the town rolls of their county. The city clerk or city engineer under the direction of the council, shall correct all clerical errors in the description or valuation of property on said rolls and erroneous descriptions of real estate therein.

LOCAL ASSESSMENTS.

Board of local assessors.

§ 248. The chief assessor, the city engineer and the city clerk shall compose a board to be called "the board of local assessors," which board shall make all local assessments and perform all the duties required by this act to be performed in regard to the making of local assessments and without extra compensation therefor. The chief assessor shall be chairman of the board of local assessors, and shall prepare all rolls and copies of rolls of said local assessments.

Board to make assessments.

§ 249. All local assessments of the expense, or any portion thereof, of any of the improvements authorized by this act to be made, shall be made by the board of local assessors, or a majority thereof. * Such board shall complete any pending matter in the abolished department of assessment and taxation, established by the common council pursuant to chapter three hundred of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, which would be within their jurisdiction if begun after the re-enactment of this title.

Meetings.

Assessment-
roll.

§ 250. The said board of local assessors shall meet at the office of the board of assessors as soon as practicable after any local assessment is ordered, and may, if necessary, adjourn from time to time. They shall make an assessment-roll of said local assessment in which they shall set down, in separate columns and according to the best information obtainable by them, the names of all the owners or occupants of the lands assessed, the number of the block and lot and the number of the great lot, if any, on which the land described and to be assessed is situated, or the assessor's subdivision thereof; a brief description of the land to be taxed to each person, giving the quantity thereof, where the land is farming land, and, when practicable, also the street and street number of any building thereon; but if the land be vacant or the building thereon not numbered, then the name of the street or streets on which it fronts shall be given, and the amount of the expense of such local improvements assessed on each piece of property apportioned as equitably as may be. When such roll is finished they shall publish a notice in the official papers for five days of a time when they will meet, at the expiration of said five days, to review such assessment, and shall designate the assessor's office as the place where such review will be made and where said roll may be seen and examined by any person interested therein. They shall have the same power to make corrections in such assessment-roll as the board of assessors have in case of the assessment of the general tax. After such review of said assessment-roll they shall complete the same, and shall deliver a correct copy of the roll, duly certified, signed by all, or a majority of said board, to the clerk of the city within twenty days after their first meeting.

Completion and delivery to city clerk.

§ 251. Any person interested may appeal to the common council for the correction of such assessment. Such appeal shall be in writing, stating in detail the grounds for such appeal, and shall be delivered to the clerk of the city within ten days after the corrected copy of the assessment-roll is delivered to the city clerk. If there be no appeal, the assessment-roll shall be confirmed by the common council. In case of an appeal the common council shall appoint a time within ten days thereafter for a hearing of such appeal, and shall cause a notice thereof to be published in the official papers for three successive times prior to the date of such hearing. After such hearing the common council shall have power to correct such assessment or to annul the same, and direct a new assessment to be made in the manner hereinbefore directed, which shall be final and conclusive on all parties interested, in case the common council confirm the same. If the common council shall set aside the last aforesaid assessment, all the proceedings in the matter shall be null and void. The second assessment shall be made, and an appeal thereon may be taken in the same manner as on the first assessment. If no appeal be taken from any such assessment, it shall be confirmed.

damages. the established grade of any street, lane, alley or other highway shall be altered by the department of works under the provisions of this act, the owner of any lot or house upon such street, lane, alley or other highway may claim damages therefor and present his claim to the common council and the common council shall thereupon direct the board of local assessors to ascertain all such damages and assess the same as herein provided upon the real estate benefited by said alteration. Within two years after the passage of this act the department of works shall fix and establish the grade line of all streets, sidewalks, public places and squares in the city, by and with the assistance of the city engineer, who shall then prepare a map of the city with necessary profiles, showing boundaries, alignment and grades of all streets, and grade line of all sidewalks, the boundaries and grade of all public places and squares, and the location of the sewers and water pipes, and the underground wires, if any, and the said city engineer shall thereafter change and add to such map so as to make it conform to any alteration in said boundaries, grades and alignments made by the department of works, and shall show all extensions of sewers, water pipes or underground wires that may be made. The city engineer shall make, establish and place permanent monuments where he shall deem necessary to preserve and to make definite and certain all such surveys so made. Such map, together with any and all maps, surveys or profiles which may be made by the city engineer in the performance of his duty as such officer, shall belong to the city of Oswego, and shall be and remain in the office of the said engineer at all times.

Assessment of damages over benefits. § 255.¹¹ Whenever the board of local assessors shall be of the opinion that any owner or owners of land situated on any street, alley, lane or highway to be graded or levelled will sustain damages over and above the benefit which may accrue to said owner or owners of such land by such improvements, they may assess such an amount as they may deem a reasonable recompense to such owner or owners thereof, upon the real estate benefited by such improvement, in proportion to the benefits resulting thereto, as nearly as may be; and the said assessors may add said amount to the assessment-roll which they are hereby required to make, and certify the said amount to the common council at the time of delivering their roll to the city clerk as aforesaid.

for deficiencies. § 256. In case any assessment shall prove insufficient to defray the expenses of the improvement for which it was made, the common council may direct the board of local assessors to make a further assessment for the amount of the deficiency; such further assessment shall be founded on the first roll, and the like proceedings shall be had thereon as though it were an original assessment. If, on any assessment, too large an amount shall be raised, the excess shall be refunded ratably to those from whom it was collected.

CHAPTER 598

AN ACT to amend the public lands law, in relation to sale and conveyance by the state of certain easements in abandoned canal lands.¹

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Chapter fifty of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to the public lands, constituting chapter forty-six of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by inserting therein, after section fifty-five, a new section, to be section fifty-five-a, to read as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 50.

¹² As amended by L. 1897, ch. 263; L. 1907, ch. 314.

¹ See constitution, art. 7, § 8, as amended 1921.

§ 55-a. Conveyance of easements in abandoned canal lands. The commissioners of the land office may at any time prior to the sale or conveyance of the right, title and interest of the state in and to abandoned existing Erie canal lands between Rome and Mohawk, sell and convey the right and easement to construct and permanently maintain conduits, pipe lines, cables or other similar structures underneath said canal lands, provided the use of such lands for other purposes will not be unreasonably affected thereby; and in case of the granting by said commissioners of the land office of lands upon which easements for the construction and maintenance of underground structures have been granted such lands shall be sold and conveyed subject to such easements. In the granting of easements, the commissioners of the land office may impose such conditions and restrictions as in their judgment will best conserve the value of the land for other use.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 599

AN ACT to amend the personal property law, in relation to the investment of trust funds.

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section twenty-one of chapter forty-five of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to personal property, constituting chapter forty-one of the consolidated laws," as amended by chapter five hundred and forty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and eighteen, is amended to read as follows:

§ 21. Investment of trust funds. A trustee or other person holding trust funds for investment may invest the same in the same kind of securities as those in which savings banks of this state are by law authorized to invest the money deposited therein, and the income derived therefrom, and in bonds and mortgages on unincumbered real property in this state worth fifty per centum more than the amount loaned thereon, and in shares or parts of such bonds and mortgages, provided that any share or part of such bond and mortgage so held shall not be subordinate to any other shares thereof and shall not be subject to any prior interest therein, and provided further that bonds and mortgages in parts of which any trustee may invest trust funds together with any guaranties of payment, insurance policies and other instruments and evidences of title relating thereto shall be held for the benefit of such trustee and of any other persons interested in such bonds and mortgages by a trust company or title guaranty corporation organized under the laws of this state and that a certificate setting forth that such corporation holds such instruments for the benefit of such trustee and of any other persons who may be interested in such bonds and mortgages among whom the corporation holding such instruments may be included, be executed by such trust company or title insurance corporation and delivered to each person who becomes interested in such bond and mortgage. Every corporation issuing any such certificate shall keep a record in proper books of account of all certificates issued pursuant to the foregoing provisions. A trustee or other person holding trust funds may require such personal bonds or guaranties of payment to accompany investments as may seem prudent, and all premiums paid on such guaranties may be charged to or paid out of income, providing that such charge of payment be not more than at the rate of one-half of one per centum per annum on the par value of such investments. But no trustee shall purchase securities hereunder from himself.

¹ Whenever any trust funds are invested in the shares of a savings and loan association, organized under the laws of this state, at the time said funds shall come into the possession of any trustee or other person, entitled to hold the same, the investment of such funds in the shares of such savings and loan association may be continued, provided, however, the total amount of trust funds invested in the shares of such savings and loan association shall not exceed the amount of its guaranty fund.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT to amend the railroad law, in relation to construction of road and use of existing tracks in street where other road is built.

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section one hundred and eighty-three of chapter four hundred and eighty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and ten, entitled "An act in relation to railroads, constituting chapter forty-nine of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1910,
ch. 481, § 183
amended.

§ 183. Construction of road in street where other road is built. No street surface railroad corporation shall construct, extend or operate its road or tracks in that portion of any street, avenue, road or highway, in which a street surface railroad is or shall be lawfully constructed, except for necessary crossings, or, in cities, villages and towns of less than one million two hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants over any bridges, without first obtaining the consent of the corporation owning and maintaining the same, except that any street surface railroad company may use the tracks of another street surface railroad company for a distance not exceeding one thousand feet, and if in a city having a population of less than thirty-five thousand inhabitants, for a distance not exceeding fifteen hundred feet, and in cities, villages and towns of less than one million two hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants, shall have the right to lay its tracks upon, and run over and use any bridges used wholly or in part as a footbridge, whenever the court upon an application for commissioners shall be satisfied that such use is actually necessary to connect main portions of a line to be constructed or operated as an independent railroad, or to connect said railroad with a ferry, or with another existing railroad, and that the public convenience requires the same, in which event the right to use shall only be given for a compensation to an extent and in a manner to be ascertained and determined by commissioners to be appointed by the courts as is provided in the condemnation law, or by the public service commission in cases where the corporations interested shall unite in a request for such commission to act. Such commissioners in determining the compensation to be paid for the use by one corporation of the tracks of another shall consider and allow for the use of the tracks for all injury and damage to the corporation whose tracks may be so used. Any street surface railroad corporation may, in pursuance of a unanimous vote of the stockholders voting at a special meeting called for that purpose by notice in writing, signed by a majority of the directors of such corporation, stating the time, place and object of the meeting, and served upon each stockholder appearing as such upon the books of the corporation, personally or by mail, at his last known post-office address, at least sixty days prior to such meeting, guarantee the bonds of any other street surface railroad corporation whose road is fully or partly in the same city or town or adjacent cities or towns. ¹Notwithstanding any of the provisions contained in this section, any street surface railroad corporation having a franchise to construct, maintain and operate in any city by underground electric power over any one street or avenue for a distance of more than three miles thereon, and operating under such franchise by underground electric power on such street or avenue over tracks which extend more than four thousand feet on each end of the tracks of another street surface railroad corporation located on such street or avenue and operated by underground electric power, may use the tracks of such other street surface railroad corporation located on such street or avenue for a distance not exceeding two thousand five hundred feet, and shall pay therefor such compensation as may be agreed upon between such street railroad corporations, or if such street railroad corporations cannot so agree, such compensation shall be ascertained and determined by commissioners to be appointed by the courts as provided in the condemnation law.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 601

AN ACT to amend the railroad law, in relation to inspection of boilers and other locomotive equipment.

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section seventy-two of chapter four hundred and eighty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and ten, entitled "An act in relation to railroads, constituting chapter forty-nine of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended to read as follows:¹

L. 1910,
ch. 481, § 72
amended.

§ 72. Inspection of locomotives. It shall be the duty of every railroad corporation which operates a railroad not exceeding fifty miles in length by steam power, within this state, and of any other corporation (except a railroad corporation), partnership or person owning or operating a locomotive or locomotives propelled by steam, which may at any time pass over or on the tracks of any railroad corporation within the state or over or on any track parallel to and immediately adjacent to any track of any railroad corporation within the state, and of the directors, managers or superintendents of such corporations, to cause thorough inspections to be made of the boilers, safety appliances, machinery, and all appurtenances thereto of all the steam locomotives which may be owned or operated by such corporations, partnerships or persons within this state. Such inspections shall be made at least every three months under the direction and superintendence of said corporations, partnerships or persons, by persons of suitable qualifications and attainments to perform the services required of inspectors of boilers and other locomotive equipment, and who from their knowledge of the construction and use of boilers and other locomotive equipment and the appurtenances therewith connected, are able to form a reliable opinion of the strength, form, workmanship and suitability of boilers and other locomotive equipment, to be employed without hazard of life, from imperfections in material, workmanship or arrangement of any part of such locomotive and appurtenances. All boilers used on such locomotives shall comply with the following requirements: The boilers must be made of good and suitable materials; the openings for the passage of water and steam respectively, and all pipes and tubes exposed to heat shall be of proper dimensions; the safety valves, fusible plugs, water glasses, gauge cocks and steam gauges, shall be of such construction, condition and arrangement that the same may be safely employed in the active service of said corporations, partnerships or persons without peril to life; and each inspector shall satisfy himself by thorough examination that said requirements have been fully complied with. No boiler, nor any connection therewith, shall be approved which is unsafe in its form, or dangerous from defects, workmanship or other cause. The person or persons who shall make the said inspections if he or they approve of the boiler and other locomotive equipment and the appurtenances thereto throughout, shall make and subscribe his or their name to a certificate which shall contain the number of each locomotive and boiler inspected, the date of inspection, the condition of the boiler and other locomotive equipment inspected, and such other details as may be prescribed by the public service commission. Every certificate shall be verified by the oath of the inspector, and he shall cause such certificate to be filed in the office of the public service commission, within ten days after each inspection shall have been made, and also a copy thereof with the chief operating officer or employee of such corporation, partnership or person having charge of the operation of such locomotive; a copy shall also be placed by such officer or employee in a conspicuous place in the cab connected with such locomotive, and there kept framed under glass. The public service commission shall have the power, from time to time, to formulate rules and regulations for the inspection and testing of locomotives as aforesaid, and may require the removal of incompetent inspectors of locomotives under the provisions of this section. If it shall be ascertained by such inspection and test or otherwise, that any locomotive is unsafe for use, the same shall not again be used until it shall be repaired, and made safe, so as to comply with the requirements of this section. Every such corporation, director, manager or superintendent, partnership or person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a penalty, to be paid to the people of the state of New York, of one hundred dollars for each offense, and the further penalty of one hundred dollars for each day it or he shall omit or neglect to comply with said provisions, and the making or filing of a false certificate shall be a misdemeanor, and every inspector who wilfully certifies falsely touching any steam locomotive, or any appurtenance thereto belonging, or any matter or thing contained or required to be contained in any certificate, signed and sworn to by him, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. The public service commission shall enforce the provisions of this section as to penalties.

§ 2. Section seventy-three of such chapter, as last amended by chapter eight hundred and sixty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, is hereby amended to read as follows:¹

§ 73. Inspectors of locomotives. Inspectors shall be appointed by the public service commission, who shall be familiar with the construction and operation of steam locomotives and their appurtenances, whose salaries shall be fixed by the commission. They shall, under the direction of the commission, inspect locomotives used by corporations operating steam railroads within the state, or locomotives owned or operated by corporations, partnerships or persons on or over any track adjacent to or parallel with any track of any railroad corporation within the state, and may cause the same to be tested by hydrostatic tests and shall perform such other duties in connection with the inspection and test of locomotives as the commission shall direct. But this section shall not relieve any corporation, partnership or person from the duties imposed by the preceding section.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 602

AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to sales for nonpayment of taxes in Essex, Fulton and Hamilton counties.

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Sections one hundred, one hundred and fifty and one hundred and fifty-one of chapter sixty-two of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to taxation, constituting chapter sixty of the consolidated laws," as last amended by chapter one hundred and fifty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and eighteen,¹ are hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 62,
§§ 100, 150, 151, as amended by
L. 1918,
ch. 159,

§ 100. Return of unpaid nonresident taxes. The collector shall return the original assessment-roll to the county treasurer, and when the treasurer finds an account of unpaid taxes on real property or unpaid taxes on corporations, received from a collector to be a true transcript of such original assessment-roll to which the collector's warrant is attached with the descriptions furnished by the supervisor as provided in section eighty-nine, he shall add to it a certificate that he has examined and compared the account with such roll and found it to be correct, and after crediting the collector with the amount thereof, he shall, except in Saint Lawrence, Essex,² Franklin, Fulton, Hamilton,³ Lewis, Clinton, Warren, Washington and Oneida counties, in case his county embraces a portion of the forest preserve, before the first day of May next ensuing, transmit such account, affidavit and certificate to the comptroller who may, before acting thereon, return any such account to the county treasurer for correction, who shall make such correction and return to the comptroller in one month thereafter or as the comptroller may otherwise direct.

§ 150. When lands to be sold for unpaid taxes. Whenever any tax charged on real estate, in the counties of Saint Lawrence, Essex,² Franklin, Fulton, Hamilton,³ Lewis, Clinton, Warren, Washington and Oneida, or in a county not including a portion of the forest preserve, is returned to the county treasurer, he shall not return the same to the comptroller, but if such tax, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per centum per annum, computed from the first day of February, after the same is levied, shall remain unpaid for six months from that date, such county treasurer shall advertise and sell such real estate as herein provided for the payment of such tax and interest and the expenses of such sale. The expense of publication of the notice of sale and the list of lands to be sold and the expense of conducting the sale, and the expense of publication of the notice of unredeemed lands, if thereafter redeemed, shall be a charge on the land liable to be sold and shall be added to the tax and interest. The county treasurers of the counties of Rockland and Suffolk may defer the sale of any parcel of nonresident real estate in their respective counties for unpaid taxes, until the unpaid taxes thereon with accrued interest shall amount in the aggregate to the sum of two dollars. The county treasurer of Suffolk county on the order of the board of supervisors of said county may defer for not exceeding two years from the date of the levy of the tax, the sale for unpaid taxes of such properties subject thereto as such board may specify, and the unpaid taxes on such parcels shall meantime be charged with interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum.

§ 151. Advertisement and sale. The county treasurer shall immediately after the expiration of such six months cause to be published at least once in each week for six weeks, in two newspapers designated for the publication of the session laws, a list of real estate so liable to be sold, together with a notice that such real estate will, on a day at the expiration of said six weeks specified in such notice, and the succeeding days, be sold at public auction at the court house in the county where the same is situated, to discharge the taxes, interest and expenses that may be due thereon, at the time of such sale. Such list shall contain the name of the owner or occupant of each piece of real estate to be sold, as the same appears upon the assessment-roll of the year in which unpaid taxes were assessed, a brief description of such real estate, and the total amount of such unpaid taxes for the year advertised, which said total amount shall include all taxes, interest, expenses and other charges against the property for the year advertised. The comptroller may prescribe the form and manner of preparing such list, which when so prescribed shall be followed so far as possible by the several counties of the state. No such list shall be published until the same shall have been submitted to and approved by the state comptroller. On the days mentioned in such notice the county treasurer shall begin the sale of said real estate and continue the same from day to day. The charges for publishing such notice shall be seventy-five cents per folio for the first insertion, and fifty cents per folio for each subsequent insertion. The counties of Essex,⁴ Saint Lawrence, Franklin, Fulton, Hamilton,⁵ Lewis, Clinton, Warren, Washington and Oneida, and the counties of the state other than those in the forest preserve are empowered to acquire and hold such lands.

⁵ Words "Fulton, Hamilton" new.

Within twenty days after the time for redemption has expired the county treasurer of each of the counties of Essex,⁴ Saint Lawrence, Franklin, Fulton, Hamilton,⁵ Lewis, Clinton, Warren, Washington and Oneida shall file with the comptroller a certified statement of all tracts or parcels of land situated in the forest preserve which have been bid in by the county and have not been redeemed, and shall sell and convey to the state any tract or parcel of land specified in such statement which the comptroller shall designate within six months after such statement is filed upon the payment of the taxes, interest and expenses due thereon at the time of the sale, and also all taxes assessed thereon since such sale, and the comptroller shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer for the amount thereof or credit the county with such amount on the books of his office. After the expiration of such six months, in the counties of Essex,⁶ Saint Lawrence, Franklin, Fulton, Hamilton,⁷ Lewis, Clinton, Warren, Washington and Oneida, and after the time for redemption has expired in any other county, the county treasurer is authorized in the name of the board of supervisors of the county to sell and convey under his hand and seal such lands as have not been conveyed to the state in the manner and upon such terms as the board of supervisors of the county may direct.

number of outstanding shares of such bank or banking association. The value of each share of stock in each bank or banking association in liquidation shall be ascertained and fixed by dividing the actual assets of such bank or banking association by the number of outstanding shares of such bank or banking association. The owners of the stock of banks and banking associations shall be entitled to no deduction from the taxable value of their shares because of the personal indebtedness of such owners, or for any other reason whatsoever. This section is not to be construed as an exemption of the real estate of banks or banking associations from taxation. No shares of stock of such banks and banking associations, by whomsoever held, shall be exempt from the tax hereby imposed.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT to amend chapter five hundred and ninety-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and seven, entitled "An act to provide for preserving the waters of the Bronx river from pollution; creating a reservation of the lands on either side of the river; authorizing the taking of lands for that purpose and providing for the payment thereof; and appointing a commission to carry out the purposes of the act," in relation to the acquisition, use, policing and maintenance of said lands.¹

Became a law April 12, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 1a added
to L. 1907,
ch. 584.

Section 1. Chapter five hundred and ninety-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and seven, entitled "An act to provide for preserving the waters of the Bronx river from pollution; creating a reservation of the lands on either side of the river; authorizing the taking of lands for that purpose and providing for the payment thereof, and appointing a commission to carry out the purposes of the act," is hereby amended by inserting therein a new section, to be "Section 1-a" thereof, to read as follows:

Additional described
constitute

Parcel number nineteen. All that certain parcel or tract of land situate, lying and being in the town of North Castle, county of Westchester, New York, and known and distinguished as that portion of Kensico Manor, more particularly bounded and described below, as shown on a certain map entitled "Map of Kensico Manor, Westchester county, New York," prepared by John F. Fairchild, civil engineer, dated September fifteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-two, filed in the office of the register of the county of Westchester, March twenty-first, nineteen hundred and one, as map number twelve hundred and one; beginning at a point in or near the southwesterly corner of lot four, block eight, as shown on said map of Kensico Manor, at the point where said southerly line of said lot four, or an extension thereof, intersects the easterly right of way line of the New York and Harlem Railroad Company; thence from said point of beginning, in a northerly direction along lands now or formerly of the New York and Harlem Railroad Company to lands of the city of New York, acquired for water supply purposes; thence in a general easterly direction, along said lands of the city of New York, approximately seven hundred feet to the easterly line of a right of way marked "Pathway" on said map of Kensico Manor; thence in a southerly direction along the easterly line of said right of way marked "Pathway" on said map, to the northerly line of lot three, block eleven, as shown on said map; thence in an easterly direction along the northerly line of lot three, block eleven, to the easterly line of said lot three; thence in a southerly direction along the easterly line of lots numbers three, two and one of block eleven, and along the easterly line of Fairlone Park as shown on said map, to the southeasterly line of Fairlone Park, as shown on said map, and the northwesterly line of Hillandale avenue; thence in a southwesterly direction along the southeasterly line of Fairlone Park and the northwesterly line of Hillandale avenue to the southerly boundary of Kensico Manor, as shown on said map; thence in a westerly direction along the southerly boundary of Kensico Manor, and crossing Columbia avenue and Kensico avenue, as shown on said map, to said easterly right of way line of the New York and Harlem Railroad Company, at the point or place of beginning; and including, also, all streets, rights of way, parks or public places within the limits of the above described area.

amended.

§ 2. Section five of said chapter five hundred and ninety-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and seven is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Commissioners created body politic; powers.

§ 5. The commissioners and their successors are hereby created a body politic with power to sue and be sued, to use a common seal, to adopt by-laws, to regulate its own proceedings, to make suitable rules and regulations for the proper exercise of the powers and duties hereby conferred and imposed upon it and to amend the same, to adopt ordinances for the government and use of the public reservation under its care and to amend the same, and to enforce observance of all rules, regulations and ordinances made by it in pursuance of this act, and shall have the same rights and powers over and in regard to the lands described herein as and when acquired, as, in general, counties, cities and towns have over public lands within their respective jurisdictions, provided, however, that nothing in this act contained shall be taken, or held to affect or abridge the right of any city or other municipality to perform its lawful functions of government within its boundaries, or to pursue and apprehend as it lawfully may any person or persons who commit any breach of any statute, ordinance or regulation. Each ordinance, or any amendment thereto, for the government and use of said public reservation shall be adopted by said commission by resolution, shall be separately numbered and incorporated within and made a part of its minutes, and shall be known and designated as "Bronx River Parkway Ordinance"; and said commission shall cause each such ordinance from time to time made by it to be posted in said reservation and shall also cause the same to be published, at least three times, in a paper published and circulated in the borough of the Bronx, and in a paper published and circulated in the county of Westchester. Each ordinance if amended shall be so posted and published in its amended form, but need not be republished with the publication of another ordinance adopted at a later date, and the posting and publication herein prescribed, when made, shall be sufficient notice to all persons. A copy of any such ordinance, certified by any member of said commission, or by its secretary, whose signature shall be acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgements, to be a true copy of such ordinance and to have been so posted and published, shall be prima facie evidence of such ordinance and of its legal adoption. Any person violating any such ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. The city magistrates court of the city of New York shall have jurisdiction to try, convict and sentence all persons who violate, within that part of said reservation included within the city of New York, any of said ordinances or any of the provisions thereof; and any court of special sessions having jurisdiction within any subdivision of the county of Westchester containing territory included within such reservation shall have jurisdiction to try, convict and sentence all persons who violate, within that part of said reservation included within its jurisdiction, any of said ordinances or any of the provisions thereof; provided, however, that where such violation is committed within the county of Westchester on the boundary of two or more of said jurisdictions within said county, or within five hundred yards thereof, or is committed, partly in one such jurisdiction and partly in another within said county, or the acts or effects thereof, constituting or requisite to the consummation of the offense, occur in two or more such jurisdictions, the jurisdiction shall be in either of said jurisdictions comprising and being, respectively, jurisdictions of any such court of special session held by a justice of the peace, or in that of any court held in and for the county of Westchester, in which court persons accused of having committed a misdemeanor may be lawfully prosecuted by indictment; and, provided, also, that where any violation of any of said ordinances shall also constitute a violation of any statute or of any ordinance, rule or regulation of any city, town or village, the offender may be proceeded against under either the provisions of such statute, ordinance, rule or regulation, or under the ordinances adopted by said commission as aforesaid, but a conviction or acquittal under one shall bar a prosecution for the same act or omission under any of the other of such statutes, ordinances, rules and regulations; and provided, also, that the jurisdiction above given to said courts to try, convict and sentence offenders against the provisions of such ordinances adopted by said commission shall be subject to the right of removal, as provided by the code of criminal procedure, to a court having authority to inquire by the intervention of a grand jury into offenses committed within said county.

§ 3. Section six of said chapter five hundred and ninety-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and seven is hereby amended so as to read as follows: § 3 amended.

§ 6. Said commission shall annually choose from its members a president, vice-president and treasurer, and may appoint a secretary, who shall keep a record of its proceedings, which shall be a public record and be open to public inspection at such times and under such reasonable regulations as the commission shall determine. Said commission shall maintain a suitable office where its maps, plans, papers and records shall be kept, and for the purposes of this act, said commission may retain all necessary counsel and attorneys, and is empowered to employ, and at pleasure discharge, a secretary, engineer, landscape architect, and such other officers and employees as it may deem necessary; and may determine their duties and fix their compensation. Such employees shall include one or more persons who may be employed for the purpose of enforcing law, order and the observance of the ordinances established by said commission for the government and use of the public reservation under its care. Each person as and when so employed, and during the term of such employment, shall be designated as a "Bronx River Parkway Patrolman" and shall be a peace officer as defined by section one hundred and fifty-four of the code of criminal procedure, and shall have, within the limits of the cities, towns and villages containing territory included Commission; officers and employees; record of proceedings, office.

within such reservation all the powers of a constable, marshal, police constable, or policeman of a city, town or village in the execution of criminal process; and criminal process issued by any court or magistrate of a county, town, city or village containing territory included within such reservation may be directed to, and executed by any such patrolman, notwithstanding the provisions of any local or special act, ordinance, or regulation. Said commission shall have power to, and shall, so soon as may be after its organization, and from time to time, proceed to acquire, make available and maintain for use as a public park, the lands acquired, or which may be hereafter acquired under any of the provisions of this act; and for that purpose shall have power to take, in fee or otherwise, by purchase, covenant, devise or eminent domain, the said lands or any of them, and any rights, interests and easements therein; and may enter upon any and all the lands described in this act, or adjoining said lands, when necessary to carry out the purposes of this act, and may survey the same and take levels thereof, and by itself and its representatives and agents, do all things necessary to the preparation for the laying out of a public park from the northerly boundary line of Bronx Park, borough of the Bronx, to the Kensico reservoir in Westchester county.

amended.

§ 4. Section eighteen of said chapter five hundred and ninety-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and seven is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Provision for salaries; apportionment between Westchester county and New York city.

§ 18. On or before the tenth day of September, following the approval of the board of estimate and apportionment provided for by section nineteen of this act, and annually thereafter, the commission created by this act shall certify to the board of supervisors of the county of Westchester, and to the board of estimate and apportionment of the city of New York, the amount necessary to pay the salaries of the commissioners and office employees of said commission, including its secretary and counsel, and the rent and other incidental expenses of said office, including expenses of maintenance and wages of employees engaged in said maintenance, for the ensuing year, and thereupon it shall become the duty of the board of supervisors of the county of Westchester to provide for one-fourth of said expenses, and of the board of estimate and apportionment of the city of New York to provide for raising three-fourths of said expenses, by including the amount thereof in the annual budget, and to that end the said board of supervisors of the county of Westchester and the board of taxes and assessments in the city of New York are hereby authorized and empowered to annually assess the proportionate cost of maintenance of the said commission, as so certified to them, upon the taxable real and personal property within their respective jurisdictions, and the amount so raised by the said board of supervisors of the county of Westchester shall be paid over, as soon as raised, to the comptroller of the city of New York, and be placed by him to the credit of said commission, together with the funds provided by the board of estimate and apportionment of the city of New York, and the total fund shall be paid over by him to said commission upon its requisition.

§ 5. Section eighteen "A"² of said chapter five hundred and ninety-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and seven is hereby amended so as to read as follows: § 18A amended.

§ 18-A. In addition to the powers hereinbefore granted to it, the said commission shall have power to improve, maintain and use the lands of the city of New York and other municipalities adjoining the parkway between Bronx Park on the south and the new Kensico dam on the north, with the consent of the local authorities having jurisdiction thereof; also to accept by gift, covenant or devise lands adjoining the parkway reservation or adjoining public lands contiguous to such reservation, and to improve and maintain the same; also to improve and maintain lands in public streets, adjacent to or within the general lines of the parkway reservation; also to sell timber, wood, material, houses and buildings of every kind and nature standing upon or attached to lands acquired for reservation purposes. Upon petition by the common council of a city or town board of a town through which a brook or stream tributary to the Bronx river flows, such commission may acquire and take in fee or otherwise, by purchase, covenant, gift, devise or eminent domain, so much of such brook or stream and the lands thereunder and adjacent thereto or bordering thereon, and any rights, interests or easements therein within the city or town presenting the petition as may be deemed necessary by such commission to preserve the Bronx river from pollution. One-half of the expense of such acquisition shall be borne by the city or town presenting the petition. The other one-half of such expense, together with the entire cost of maintenance and improvement, shall be borne and paid in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this act. When such a petition shall have been presented and the estimated expense of acquisition shall have been determined by said commission, it shall certify to the proper officers of such city or town the portion of such expense to be borne thereby. Every city or town through which any such stream or brook flows is hereby authorized to pay one-half of the expense of such acquisition as may be made within its boundaries pursuant to this section, and is hereby authorized to issue and sell its bonds for the purpose of raising funds to meet its share of any such expenditure. If a city, such bonds shall be issued and sold in accordance with the provisions of law prescribing the method by which such city shall issue and sell its bonds, and such city shall cause to be raised annually by tax in the manner required by law, a sum sufficient to pay the interest and principal of such bonds, as the same shall become due. If a town, such bonds shall be issued and sold in the manner provided for the issue and sale of town bonds to pay a judgment against the town, and such town shall cause to be raised annually by tax in the manner required by law, a sum sufficient to pay the principal and interest of such bonds as the City or town bonds issued pursuant to this section shall be payable at such times and in such installments as the common council or town board, as the case may be, shall determine. The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be paid to the Bronx Parkway Commission and applied to the purposes for which such bonds were issued. Any balance remaining in the hands of the commission after the payment from such proceeds of one-half of the cost of acquisition for which such bonds were issued shall be repaid by the commission to the proper municipal authorities to be applied in payment of the principal or interest of such bonds as the same shall become due. Any piece or parcel of land, and any right, interest, or easement in real estate acquired by the commission pursuant to this section shall constitute a part of the Bronx river reserve and parkway as established by this act, and be subject to all the provisions of this act in relation to the control, maintenance and improvement of such reserve and parkway.

CHAPTER 605

AN ACT to confer jurisdiction on the court of claims to hear, try and determine the claim of Marion B. Baker, as administratrix de bonis non of the goods, chattels and credits of Charles N. Baker, junior, deceased, against the state for his death, alleged to have been caused on June tenth, nineteen hundred and nineteen, upon a highway maintained and patrolled by the state in the county of Albany.

CHAPTER 607

AN ACT to confer jurisdiction on the court of claims to hear, try and determine the claims of Addison D. Merry and Martha M. Buell as surviving partners of the firm composed of Menzo C. Murgittroyd, Josephine O'Brien, Addison D. Merry and Martha M. Buell; Herbert D. Wood; Smith N. Murgittroyd and Clinton D. Ash; and John J. Treacy and Henry J. Dorgelch as committee of bondholders of the Phoenix Fuel, Light and Water Company, against the state of New York.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Jurisdiction
conferred.

Section 1. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the court of claims to hear, try and determine the claims of Addison D. Merry and Martha M. Buell as surviving partners of the firm composed of Menzo C. Murgittroyd, Josephine O'Brien, Addison D. Merry and Martha M. Buell, heretofore filed in said court and designated as claim number twelve hundred and fifteen-a; Herbert D. Wood heretofore filed and designated as claim number twelve hundred and sixteen-a; Smith N. Murgittroyd and Clinton D. Ash heretofore filed and designated as claim number thirteen hundred and forty-two-a; and John J. Treacy and Henry J. Dorgelch as committee of bondholders of the Phoenix Fuel, Light and Water Company, heretofore filed and designated as claims numbers ten hundred and twenty-nine-a and ten hundred and thirty-a, for damages resulting from the construction, use and management by the state of its canal system at or near the village of Phoenix in the county of Oswego and the hamlet of West Phoenix in the county of Onondaga, notice of intention to file said claims not having been seasonably given and said claims not having been filed within the period required by law, with the same force and effect as though such notice had been duly given, and such claims duly filed, such jurisdiction to attach without filing such notice of intention to file said claims and without refiling said claims, and such court of claims may make awards and render judgments for the amounts justly and equitably found due and owing to said claimants.

§ 2. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as altering in any way the liability of the state with respect to said claims, except as provided in this act, the object of this act being merely to excuse and waive the failure to give seasonable notice of intention and to file such claims in due time as required by law.

Failure seasonably to file notice of intention and claims.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 608

AN ACT to confer jurisdiction on the court of claims to hear, try and determine the alleged claim of Clara Senecal against the state for damages for personal injuries sustained by the alleged negligent operation of the state bridge spanning the Hudson river at Troy and Watervliet.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The court of claims is hereby authorized to hear, audit and determine the claim of Clara Senecal of the city of Cohoes, for damages for personal injuries sustained by the alleged negligence of employees of the state in the operation of the bridge known as the "Congress street bridge" which spans the Hudson river at Troy and Watervliet, and in the operation of its gates and draw, while the claimant was crossing such bridge in an automobile on or about the twentieth day of July, nineteen hundred and twenty; and if the court shall find that the claimant sustained personal injuries and that such injuries were caused by the negligence of state employees while acting in the course of their employment in the operation of such bridge, its gates and draw, or either, without contributory negligence on the part of the claimant, the state shall be deemed to have been liable for such negligence on the part of said employees and damages therefor shall constitute a legal and valid claim against the state, and the court shall award to and render judgment for the claimant against the state for such sum as it shall find to be just and equitable, provided the claim herein is filed with the court of claims within one year after this act takes effect.

Jurisdiction conferred.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 609

AN ACT to confer jurisdiction upon the court of claims to hear, try, audit and determine the claim of the town of Verona, in the county of Oneida, for reimbursement of money paid by such town for culvert and sluiceway construction alleged to have been chargeable to the state.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Jurisdiction
conferred.

Section 1. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred upon the court of claims to hear, try, audit and determine the claim of the town of Verona, county of Oneida, against the state for money alleged to have been paid by such town for culvert and sluiceway construction and road repair in a certain case where it is alleged that the expense of such construction and repair was chargeable to the state and to make an award thereon and render judgment against the state in favor of the claimant for such a sum, as the court may determine to be justly due. The state hereby consents to have its liability on such claim determined. Nothing herein contained shall be held as admitting the validity of such claim or any part thereof upon the part of the state, nor as waiving any defense of the state thereto. Such jurisdiction shall attach without the refileing of such claim.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 610

AN ACT to amend the farms and markets law, in relation to the licensing of stallions and breeding of horses, and to repeal section one hundred and sixty-one of the lien law.¹

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

L. 1922,
ch. 48, §§ 98-104
amended.

Section 1. Sections ninety-eight, ninety-nine, one hundred, one hundred and one, one hundred and two, one hundred and three and one hundred and four of chapter forty-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-two, entitled "An act in relation to farms and markets, constituting chapter sixty-nine of the consolidated laws," are hereby amended to read, respectively, as follows:

§ 98. Duties of commissioner. It shall be the duty of the commissioner to verify the breeding and pedigree of stallions, the certificates of conditions of soundness; and after due approval to issue certificates of stallion enrollment, and to perform such other duties as may be necessary to carry out and enforce the provisions of this article.

§ 99. Certificate of enrollment; inspection; disqualifying diseases. To obtain a certificate of enrollment as herein provided, the owner of each stallion shall submit a certificate of the condition of soundness of such stallion signed by a veterinarian, approved by the commissioner. Such veterinarian shall make oath to said certificate before a notary public or any officer duly authorized to administer oaths, and this certificate of the condition of soundness, together with the original certificate of registry of pedigree of such stallion in cases of pure-bred stallions, or an acceptable substitute therefor, and a certified statement of the breeding in all other cases, together with such other papers relating to his breeding and ownership as may be required, shall be forwarded to the commissioner. Any incurable infectious or contagious disease with which the stallion may be afflicted shall disqualify said stallion from enrollment and for public service. Any transmissible unsoundness with which the stallion may be afflicted shall be named as such in said certificate of enrollment. The following diseases and unsoundness shall be defined as transmissible, for the purpose of this article: recurrent ophthalmia (moon blindness); cataract; amaurosis (glass eye); laryngeal hemiplegia (roaring or whistling); pulmonary emphysema (heaves, broken wind); string halt; bone spavin, side bone navicular disease; curb, when associated with curby conformation of the hocks. Enrollment certificates and certificates of soundness shall expire on the first day of January each year following date of issuance, except as otherwise provided herein. Certificates of enrollment must be renewed annually before the first day of April, excepting as hereinafter provided. A certificate of the condition of soundness shall not be required again if the stallion is ten years old or over; and at that time is sound and free from any and all incurable infectious and transmissible diseases, as defined by this article, and that it is so shown on the certificate of enrollment last issued.

§ 100. Use of stud book. The commissioner shall use for his standard for action in determining the purity or impurity of the breeding of stallions the stud books and signatures of the proper officers of the recognized foreign, American and Canadian horse register associations, societies or companies.

§ 101. Enrollment; how made. 1. Every stallion shall be enrolled in the name of the owner at the time of the enrollment, and in case of the change of ownership, the enrollment shall be deemed to be canceled, unless within thirty days thereafter satisfactory evidence of a change of ownership has been furnished the commissioner, in which case a transfer certificate shall be issued by the commissioner.

2. When a certificate of enrollment has been issued after the first day of November in any year, the enrollment and certificate of soundness and inspection of the stallion shall remain in force until the thirty-first day of December in the next succeeding year, and when the enrollment has been made before the first day of November in any year the enrollment shall remain in force until the thirty-first day of December next following.

3. Enrollment of a stallion under the provisions of this article shall entitle the owner thereof to the lien provided for by section one hundred and sixty of the lien law, without any other filing or enrollment than that provided for in this article.

§ 102. Issue of certificate of enrollment. The commissioner upon approval of the papers supplied relating to the inspection, breeding and ownership of the stallion, and upon payment of the fee fixed by this article shall issue a certificate in accordance therewith, such certificate to be known as the certificate of enrollment.

§ 103. Posting certificate of enrollment. The owner of any stallion used for public service in the state shall post and keep affixed a correct copy of the certificate of enrollment of such stallion issued under the provisions of this article, in a conspicuous place within his home stable, or within any other stable or building where the stallion is used for public service. Every bill or poster issued by the owner of any stallion enrolled under this article, or used by him or his agent for advertising such stallion, shall contain a correct copy of the enrollment certificate printed in bold faced Roman type not smaller than long primer (ten point), and the first mention on said bill or poster of the name of the stallion shall be preceded by the words "pure bred," "grade," "standard bred," "non-standard bred," or "scrub," and the condition of soundness of said stallion indicated by the word "sound," or "unsound," in accordance with the wording of the enrollment certificate, the same shall be printed in type not smaller than the largest type in which the name of said stallion shall be printed on said bill or poster.

§ 104. Fees for enrollment. There shall be paid to the commissioner before the issuance of any certificate herein provided for, the following fees: For enrollment, three dollars; for renewal of enrollment, one dollar; and for transfer certificate, fifty cents. Such fees shall be paid in to the state treasury pursuant to the state finance law.

105b added.

§ 2. Such chapter is further amended by inserting therein, after section one hundred and five, two new sections, to be sections one hundred and five-a and one hundred and five-b, to read as follows:

§ 105-a. Enrollment of scrub stallions. For the purpose of this section, a "scrub stallion" is one that has neither a registered sire or dam. After January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, no scrub stallion shall be enrolled by the commissioner, except that a scrub stallion which was duly enrolled and registered prior to January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, shall be entitled to renewal of enrollment in accordance with the provisions of this article.

§ 105-b. List of enrolled stallions. The commissioner shall annually, in the month of January, publish a list for free distribution of all the stallions enrolled in the state the previous year arranged by counties.

§ 3. Section one hundred and sixty-one of chapter thirty-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to liens, constituting chapter thirty-three of the consolidated laws," as amended by chapter three hundred and one of the laws of nineteen hundred and sixteen, is hereby repealed. L. 1909, ch. 33, § 161 repealed.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 611

AN ACT to amend chapter five hundred and sixty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and ten, entitled "An act to provide for county roads in certain counties adjoining cities of the first class," in relation to construction by contract of certain county roads in counties having a population of not less than one hundred thousand or more than one hundred and fifty thousand.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section two of chapter five hundred and sixty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and ten, entitled "An act to provide for county roads in certain counties adjoining cities of the first class," as last amended by chapter four hundred of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one,¹ is hereby amended to read as follows: L. 1910, ch. 564, § 2, as amended by L. 1921, ch. 400, amended.

§ 2. Construction and maintenance of county roads. County roads as defined in subdivision three of section three of the highway law and as designated pursuant to this act shall be exclusively under the jurisdiction of the board of supervisors and exempt from the jurisdiction of the highway officers of the several towns, villages and cities in which said county roads are located. The expenses of constructing, and maintaining and improving the county roads of such county shall be a county charge. The board of supervisors shall, upon the receipt of the county superintendent's report as provided for by subdivision two-a of section thirty-three of the highway law, or of any supplemental report of the county superintendent made at any time showing that it is necessary to raise funds for the construction, improvement and maintenance of such county roads, stating the amount by towns and as a total and the location where any permanent repairs are required to be made, consider the estimate in such report. It may by a majority vote of the members thereof approve such estimate or increase or reduce the amount of any of the estimates contained therein. The statement as thus approved, increased or reduced shall be signed in duplicate by a majority of the members of the board, one copy of which shall be filed in the office of the county clerk and the other delivered to the county treasurer. The clerk of the board of supervisors shall make and transmit a copy of such statement to the state highway commission and to the county superintendent. The board of supervisors shall cause the amounts therein to be raised by the issuance of county bonds therefor or of certificates of indebtedness, notes or other evidence of indebtedness, and if such certificate of indebtedness, notes or other evidence of indebtedness are issued, shall cause the amount thereof to be assessed, levied and collected in the same manner as other county charges in the year next succeeding the issuance thereof, or shall cause such amounts to be assessed, levied and collected in such county in the same manner as other county charges, and such amounts shall be expended only for the purpose specified in such statement. The warrant for the collection of such taxes in such county shall direct the payment of the moneys so collected to the county treasurer to be held by him and paid out for the purpose or purposes specified in such statement, as provided in subdivision two-a of section thirty-three. The construction and maintenance of such county roads shall be under the supervision of the board of supervisors. ²In any such county having a population of not less than one hundred thousand nor more than one hundred and fifty thousand, and adjoining a city of the first class, whenever the estimated cost of the construction of any such county road is the sum of fifteen hundred dollars or more, the same shall be constructed by contract, awarded in the manner provided in section one hundred and thirty of the highway law for the construction of state and county highways.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 612

AN ACT to amend the highway law, in requiring indemnity bonds or insurance policies from owners of motor vehicles transporting passengers for hire in cities of the first class.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 282b
added to
L. 1909,
ch. 80.

Section 1. Chapter thirty of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to highways, constituting chapter twenty-five of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by inserting therein a new section, to be section two hundred and eighty-two-b, to read as follows:

§ 282-b. Indemnity bonds or insurance policies in cities of the first class. Every person, firm, association or corporation engaged in the business of carrying or transporting passengers for hire in any motor vehicle, except street cars, and motor vehicles operated under a franchise by a corporation subject to the provisions of the public service commission law over, upon or along any public street in a city of the first class shall deposit and file with the state tax commission for each motor vehicle intended to be so operated, either a personal bond, with at least two sureties approved by the state tax commission, a corporate surety bond or a policy of insurance in a solvent and responsible company authorized to do business in the state, approved by the state tax commission, in the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars, conditioned for the payment of any judgment recovered against such person, firm, association or corporation for death or for injury to persons or property caused in the operation or the defective construction of such motor vehicle. Such bond or policy of insurance shall contain a provision for a continuing liability thereunder notwithstanding any recovery thereon. If at any time, in the judgment of the state tax commission, such bond or policy is not sufficient for any cause, the commission may require the owner of such motor vehicle to replace such bond or policy with another approved by the commission. Upon the acceptance of a bond or policy, pursuant to this section, the state tax commission shall issue to the owner of such motor vehicle a certificate describing such vehicle and that the owner thereof has filed a bond, or policy, as the case may be, required by this section. Either a personal or corporate surety upon a bond filed pursuant to this section or an insurance company whose policy has been so filed, may file a notice in the office of the state tax commission that upon the expiration of twenty days from such filing such surety will cease to be liable upon such bond, or in the case of such insurance company, that upon the expiration of such time such policy will be canceled. The state tax commission shall thereupon notify the owner of such motor vehicle of the filing of such notice, and unless such owner shall file a new bond or policy of an insurance company, as provided by this section, within such time as shall be specified by the state tax commission, such owner shall cease to operate or cause such motor vehicle to be operated, in such city, and the registration of such motor vehicle shall be automatically revoked. Any person, firm, association or corporation, operating a motor vehicle in a city of the first class, as to which a bond or policy of insurance is required by this section who or which shall operate such vehicle, or cause the same to be operated, while such a bond or policy, approved by the state tax commission as required by this section, is not on file with the tax commission, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 2. This act shall take effect July first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

TITLE I.

BOUNDARIES AND WARDS.

§ 2. The said city shall be divided into four wards, described as follows, namely:

First ward. All that part of the same lying in the angle made by a line from the center of Franklin square, through the center of North street and the north plank road, to the northerly bound of the said city and a line drawn from the center of Franklin square through the center of Main street and the road to Mechanicstown, to the easterly bounds of said city.

Second ward. All that part of the said city lying in the angle made by said first mentioned line, and a line drawn from said starting point through the center of Main street and the road to Mount Hope, to the west bounds of the said city.

Third ward. All that part of said city lying in the angle made by the last mentioned line and a line drawn from the center of Franklin square through the center of South street and the road leading past the house of E. Smith Webb, to the southerly line of the city.

Fourth ward. All that part of said city lying in the angle made by the last mentioned line, and a line drawn from the center of Franklin square through the center of Main street and the road to Mechanicstown to the easterly line of said city.

* No amendment or repeal of §§ 205a-205c is indicated in the text of this act. However the intention probably is to repeal these sections, as they were inclosed in brackets in the legislative bill as originally introduced in the senate, which, under the rules of the legislature, indicated that it was the intent to repeal that section.

TITLE II.

ELECTION AND APPOINTMENT OF OFFICERS.

City
officers.

§ 3.⁴ The officers of said city shall consist of one mayor, one alderman-at-large, one recorder, two justices of the peace, nine members of the board of education, all of whom shall be elected by the city at large; two aldermen and one supervisor to be elected in each ward; one corporation counsel, one engineer and surveyor, one commissioner of public works, one commissioner of charities, one city physician, one commissioner of assessment and taxation, two constables, one clerk of the common council and other boards, one city clerk and collector; six persons to compose a board of health; police officers such as may be appointed by the common council, and such other officers as are hereinafter authorized, who shall be appointed as hereinafter provided; also one chief of the fire department and two assistant chiefs, one secretary and one treasurer of the fire department, who shall be elected as hereinafter provided. All appointments by the mayor shall be subject to confirmation by the common council. It shall be the duty of the mayor, within thirty days after the first day of January in each year hereafter, to appoint successors to all appointive officers who are by law required to be then appointed by him. If an appointment made by the mayor shall not be confirmed by the council, another name shall be submitted by the mayor at the next regular meeting of the council thereafter, and this course shall be taken until an appointment shall have been made and confirmed. All the officers of the city of Middletown now in office, elective or appointive, shall continue to remain in office, and discharge the duties thereof, until their successors are elected or appointed in the manner provided by this act.

of votes.

§ 8. On the Monday next following such election the common council shall convene at its usual place of meeting at seven o'clock in the evening as a city board of canvassers and the statement of votes filed with the city clerk by the inspectors of election shall be produced by the clerk. The common council shall forthwith ascertain, declare and certify, in the manner provided by law, who are duly elected at the said election to the various offices to be filled; such certificate shall be made in duplicate, one of which shall be filed with the city clerk and the other with the clerk of Orange county.

§ 9. Repealed.

§ 12. Repealed.

Annual election of fire depart-
officers.

§ 13.⁵ An election shall be held annually, at such time or times, and in such manner as the common council shall designate, for the election of a chief and two assistant chiefs of the fire department, who shall respectively hold their offices for the term of one year, and until their successors are chosen and confirmed. All persons duly enrolled as members of the engine, hook and ladder and hose companies of said city, who shall not have resigned, been removed or suspended, and no others, shall be entitled to vote at such elections. The common council shall provide for the place of holding, the manner of conducting, returning the votes cast, and confirming the officers elected at all future elections for chief engineer and assistants.

§ 14.⁶ Every person elected or appointed to any office created hereby shall be an elector and resident of the city; and no person shall take or hold the office of mayor, alderman-at-large, alderman, member of the board of education, supervisor, or commissioner of assessment and taxation, unless he shall be a resident and a freeholder of said city and shall have been such for one year preceding his election or appointment; and no person shall be elected an alderman or supervisor from any ward unless, at the time of such election, he shall also be a resident of the ward from which he is elected; and if such officer shall remove out of said ward during his term of office, he shall be deemed thereby to have vacated his office and the removal from the city of any officer elected or appointed under this act shall render the office held by him vacant from the time of such removal. Qualifications of officers.

§ 15.⁷ The common council shall fix the amount of the bond to be furnished by the city clerk, and for said city clerk as treasurer, collector of taxes and assessments, and as collector of water rents, and by the clerk of the common council as deputy collector, and the commissioner of charities, and the said bonds shall be furnished by some surety company to be approved by the mayor and the premium on said bonds shall be paid from the funds in the city treasury; and in case of any breach of the conditions of said bonds, suit may be maintained thereon by the said city of Middletown. Bonds of certain officers.

§ 16. Such city clerk and his deputy as collector, and their sureties, shall also be liable to the same proceedings, to enforce the payment of money collected by virtue of any warrant issued by the supervisors of the county, as are provided by law in respect to town collectors and their sureties. Liability of city clerk and deputy.

§ 17.⁷ Such other officers as may be required thereto, by the common council, shall severally, before entering upon their offices, execute and file with the city clerk, except the city clerk whose bond shall be filed with the clerk of Orange county, a bond to the city of Middletown, in such sum as the council shall direct, and with such sureties as the mayor shall approve, conditioned that they will faithfully discharge the duties of their respective offices, and pay over all moneys received by them respectively, and furnish such additional security as the common council may require. Bonds of other city officers.

§ 18. If any officer who shall be required, by any of the provisions of this act, or by any ordinance of the common council, to execute any bond before or after entering upon the duties of his office, shall fail to execute and file the same in the manner prescribed by this act or by any such ordinance, within ten days after he shall have been duly notified to do so, the common council Failure to file bond.

may declare his office vacant, and proceed to cause the same to be filled in the manner provided in this act in case of vacancy in office.

Elective officers not to hold other office.

§ 19. No elective officer shall hold any federal, state or other municipal office, except as hereinafter provided, during the term for which he was elected; nor shall any alderman or the mayor or any member of any board or department of the city be in any manner, directly, or indirectly interested in any contract, or work, in which the city shall be a party, and any such contract in which any such officer shall be or become interested shall thereby and thereupon be and become void; nor shall any of the persons before named be interested in furnishing to the city supplies of any kind.

Officers not to be interested in contracts.

Appointive
officers.

§ 20.⁸ The mayor shall appoint the corporation counsel, engineer and surveyor, two constables, one commissioner of public works, one commissioner of charities, one city physician, one commissioner of assessment and taxation, one city clerk and collector, and all other officers whose appointment is not otherwise provided for. The common council, or a majority thereof, shall appoint a clerk of the common council.

Vacancies,
how filled.

§ 21.⁹ If a vacancy shall occur in any elective office the same shall be filled by appointment by the mayor; in case of a vacancy in the common council it shall be filled by appointment from the ward in whose representation the vacancy occurred; said appointment to be until the first day of January succeeding the next charter election. In case of a vacancy in the office of chief or assistant engineer, by reason of death, resignation or otherwise, the said vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the mayor and any person so appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold his office until the next regular election for chief engineer and assistant. And any vacancy occurring in any appointive office shall be filled by the body or official making the original appointment.

TITLE III.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Common
powers.

§ 22.¹⁰ The general legislative power of the city is vested in the common council, and it shall have, in addition to the powers vested in it by the charter of said city and hereinafter conferred in this act, the management and control of the finances and all property, real and personal, belonging to said corporation, and shall have power to do all such acts and make such ordinances, rules, police regulations and by-laws, not inconsistent with the laws of the United States, as they may deem necessary to carry into effect any general power, the powers conferred upon it by this act or by any other laws of this state, and such also as they may deem necessary for the good government, order and protection of persons and property, and for the preservation of the public health, peace and prosperity of said city and its inhabitants. It shall also have all powers given to the common councils of cities generally, or cities of the third class by general legislative enactment.

§ 23. The aldermen shall constitute the common council. Its members shall meet in its chambers, on the first business day of January, at eight o'clock in the evening, and organize. The alderman-at-large shall be the president, and shall preside at all meetings, and discharge such other duties as may be prescribed by law or ordinance. He shall appoint all standing committees of the council. Organization.

The council shall appoint the time and place of its meetings, which shall be held regularly at least once in each month, and the mayor, president of the common council, or any three aldermen, may call special meetings, by notice in writing, served personally upon the other members of the council, or left at their usual place of abode. The council shall determine the rules of their own proceedings and be judges of the election and qualifications of their own members, and have power to compel the attendance of absent members from time to time and may punish or expel a member for disorderly conduct, or declare his seat vacated by reason of absence, provided such absence be continued for the space of three months. But no expulsion or vacation of the office shall take place except by concurrent vote of two-thirds of all the members elected, nor until the delinquent member shall have an opportunity, after proper notice, to be heard in his defense. Meetings.

In the proceedings of the common council each member present shall have a vote, including the presiding officer. Proceedings.

The sittings of the common council shall be public, except when the public interests shall require secrecy. No vote on any question or matter shall be taken at any secret session. The minutes of the proceedings shall be open at all times to public inspection.

§ 24. Repealed.

§ 26. The common council shall have power to prescribe the duties of all the officers and persons appointed by them, to any office or place whatever, subject to the provisions of this act; to revoke or cause to be revoked any license given under this act, and to remove all officers and persons appointed by them for any neglect of office or misconduct except as hereinafter provided, and shall designate the several standing committees to be appointed by their presiding officer. It may employ an attorney and counsel when the business of the council requires him, and to pay him a reasonable compensation. Further powers.

§ 27. The chairman of any committee or special committee of the common council shall have power to administer any oath or take any affidavit in regard to any matter pending before the common council or such committee. Any person who may be required to take any oath or affirmation or to make any affidavit or statement, under oath or affirmation under or by virtue of any provisions of this act, who shall, under such oath or affirmation in any statement or affidavit, or otherwise, willfully swear falsely as to any material fact or matter, shall be guilty of perjury. any officer within said city, which would be charges and accounts against a town if they were rendered and expended by the officers thereof, shall be presented to the common council. The said council shall then hear, examine and determine the same as a board of town auditors and for that purpose shall possess the powers and be subject to the duties of town auditors.

§ 31. Repealed.

General powers and

§ 32.¹² The common council shall have the power within said city to make, establish, publish and modify, amend and repeal rules, regulations and ordinances for the following purposes:

a. To prevent the sale of intoxicating liquors, goods or merchandise, or the performance of work or labor, for hire, on Sundays; to prevent vice and immorality; to prevent and quell riots and disorderly assemblages and preserve peace and good order;

To restrain and suppress disorderly and gaming houses, houses of ill-fame, houses and places where intoxicating liquors are sold to be drunk, to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors without license, or contrary to law, and to prohibit all gaming and fraudulent devices within the said city.

b. To prohibit, restrain and regulate all public, theatrical or circus performances, shows or wax figures, wild or tamed animals, mountebanks or other public exhibitions or performances for money, shows or performances by common showmen and all places of public amusement for which an entrance or other fee is charged; and to require, fix the amount of, and provide for the collection of license fees therefor; but the common council may, in its discretion, issue and grant to the proprietor of any public hall or other place of public amusement in said city, a license by the year or for such period of time as it deems proper, for such sum as to it shall seem just, which license shall cover and authorize all exhibitions and entertainments which, during said period of time, may take place in such public hall or place of public amusement without other or further license; provided, however, that said common council may at any time prohibit any exhibition or entertainment in such hall or place of public amusement which, in its judgment, shall be of an indecent character.

c. To prevent horse-racing and immoderate driving in the streets of said city; to prohibit and punish the flying of kites and every other game, practice or amusement in the public streets or elsewhere, having a tendency to frighten teams and horses, or to injure or annoy persons passing in or along the highway or streets of the city, or to endanger property; and to prevent the leaving of horses standing in the public streets of the city loose and unattended.

d. To prohibit, regulate and determine the places of bathing in the streams and ponds within said city.

e. To restrain and punish vagrants, mendicants, street beggars and common prostitutes.

f. To prevent and regulate the ringing and tolling of bells, blowing of horns, or crying of goods or wares, firing of guns, powder or other explosive compounds, and the making of any improper noise, which may tend to disturb the peace of the city, or the sale and use of firecrackers, rockets, squibs or other explosive compounds.

g. To make regulations for taxing and confining dogs, and for destroying such as may be found running at large contrary to any ordinance, and to regulate and restrain their running at large; to establish and regulate public pounds, and to appoint all necessary pound-masters, and prescribe their duties; to restrain the running at large of cattle, horses, swine, sheep, goats and fowls, and to authorize the distraining, impounding and sale of the same for the penalty incurred, and costs of keeping and proceedings.

h. To direct the keeping and returning of accurate records of marriages and births in said city, and the keeping and returning of bills of mortality. The common council shall cause an account book to be opened and kept by the clerk of said city, wherein all the expenditures and payments made on account of said city shall be respectively entered under their proper heads.

i. To regulate the sale of fish, meats and vegetables within said city; to regulate or prohibit the making or keeping of markets for the sale of meat or fish, except at such places as the common council shall designate, and to regulate or prohibit the erection, keeping or using of slaughter houses within the said city.

j. To provide for the lighting of said city and the streets thereof and the protection and safety of the public lamps.

k. To regulate and restrain hawking and peddling on the streets.

l. To license and regulate auctioneers, carriers, teamsters, carmen, porters, cabmen, the drivers of hackney coaches, stages or omnibuses, for the transportation of passengers, hawkers, peddlers and sweeps, within the city, and to prohibit unlicensed persons from acting in either of such capacities, to fix their rates of compensation, to require them to have licenses and to fix amounts to be paid therefor.

To regulate runners, stage drivers and others in soliciting passengers and others to travel or ride in any stage, omnibus, or upon any railroad, or to go to any hotel or otherwise.

m. To prohibit and prevent the unnecessary obstruction of streets by railway locomotives and cars; to regulate and control their running and rate of speed and the length of time they may be allowed continuously to stand or impede travel upon any street or crossing in said city.

To regulate and compel railway companies to provide and keep flagmen and watchmen at such points and places, and to regulate and maintain such proper lights, hoist or other gates or bars at street crossings deemed dangerous by said common council, in such manner as said common council may deem necessary for the safety and convenience of the public. To regulate and prohibit the emission of smoke or gases from any building, machine, automobile, boiler or engine whatsoever, stationary or locomotive, when the same may tend to the injury of corporate or private property or rights within the city.

n. To prevent and regulate the setting and stringing of telegraph and telephone and electric poles and wires in said city, and to regulate and control the laying, maintenance and repair of subways, conduits, mains and pipes in and under the streets; to order and require any cables or wires to be put under the ground provided however that the owner of such cables or wires shall have the option of removing its overhead cables or wires from such streets to such other streets that may be designated by the common council as a reasonable and practicable route for overhead cables or wires.

o. To require the owners or occupants of lots upon the streets of said city to inclose the same by suitable fences or railings, as the common council may deem necessary for the protection of the public.

p. To regulate the burial of the dead, to protect public cemeteries and to restrict and prevent the extension of their limits, and to prevent the burial of the dead within the limits of the city, whenever the common council shall deem it necessary.

q. To plant, direct and regulate the planting of shade and ornamental trees along the streets, sidewalks and public grounds of said city to prevent injury to and protect them and to prevent the injury and defacement of fences, posts and buildings in said city.

r. To permit building material to be deposited on the streets in front of any lot to such an extent and for such time as they may prescribe. To regulate excavations in the public streets of the city and require reasonable fees therefor.

s. To give names to streets and numbers to the lots and tenements, and to change the name of streets on the petition of a majority of land-owners on the same.

t. To receive in the name of the city of Middletown the title to real or personal property by gift.

u. For the government of the police department and for regulating the powers and duties of its officers and members.

To establish a police pension fund or to maintain any such fund which has been established.

v. To designate such newspaper or newspapers printed in said city, to be known as official paper or papers in which shall be published the ordinances, rules, regulations, resolutions, by-laws and official notices.

w. To make such reasonable regulations and ordinances as to the rate of speed of cars and removal of ice and snow by street surface railroad corporations as the interest or convenience of the public may require, and to provide that any such corporation whose agents or servants shall negligently or wilfully violate such an ordinance or regulation shall be liable to the city for a penalty not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be specified in such ordinance or regulation, to be recovered by said city for the use of the highway fund.

x. To regulate and prohibit the presence in or upon any of the streets, alleys, public parks or places in the city of Middletown at night, after such hours as shall be determined and specified, of any children under such age as shall be determined and specified, unaccompanied by parent, guardian or other person having legal custody or control of such children and to make it unlawful for any parent, guardian or other person having legal custody or control of any child under such determined and specified age, to permit such child to be or remain in or upon any of the streets, alleys, public parks or places in said city, after the hour at night as determined and specified when prohibited. To prescribe penalties for the violation of said ordinance, and to prescribe regulations for the police force in the city of Middletown for the enforcement of the same, and for the recorder of the recorder's court of said city of Middletown for the punishment of such persons guilty of violations of the terms of said ordinance.

§ 34. No law, ordinance, by-law or regulation shall be rescinded or repealed, unless by a two-thirds vote of all members elected to the common council.

Repeal of ordinances, etc.

§ 35. The common council shall have power to enforce observance of all provisions of this act, by ordaining penalties to be incurred for each and every violation of the same, not exceeding one hundred dollars for any one offense, to be recovered, with costs, in a civil action, in any court having cognizance thereof, or to remit the same or any part thereof. But nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prohibit or forbid the sale, without suit, of animals distrained or impounded, according to the provisions of this act, for the penalties incurred, or the cost of keeping and proceedings, or the forfeiture or destruction of property determined or adjudged to be a nuisance, or the sale of property for assessments or other purposes, as provided in this act.

Enforcement of provisions of this act.

Saving clause.

§ 36. Every ordinance or by-law imposing any penalty or forfeiture for a violation of its provisions, shall, after the passage thereof, take effect at such times as the common council shall direct, and shall be published once a week for two weeks successively, in one or more of the public newspapers printed and published in said city.

Ordinances imposing penalties, etc.

§ 39. The entries in the books of by-laws, journals and minutes of the common council, board of estimate and apportionment, and board of health or certified or sworn copies thereof, shall be presumptive evidence in all courts and places of the matters of fact therein stated, and the certificate of the clerk shall be sufficient evidence of the authenticity of such journals and minutes and books of by-laws and copies. Such certificate of the clerk to a copy shall show that he has compared such copy with the original on file or on record in his office, and that the same is a correct copy or transcript thereof or therefrom, and of the whole of such original; and every such ordinance, resolution or by-laws may be read in evidence in all courts and legal proceedings, from the volume of by-laws and ordinances published, or to be published, by order of the common council, without any other proof of the passage or publication thereof; but such publication shall be only presumptive evidence that the same has been duly published in the official newspapers as required by this act.

Impeachment of mayor.

§ 41. The common council shall have the power of impeachment of the mayor by resolution, passed by the concurrent vote of three-fourths of all the members elected. The court for the trial of impeachment shall be the supreme court in and for the ninth judicial district.

Committee of common council may investigate administration of city business.

§ 46.¹⁸ The council may at any time appoint a special committee of its members to inquire whether the laws and ordinances relating to any matter of any department of the city are being faithfully observed, and whether the duties of the officers and employees are being faithfully discharged, and to examine and report whether there are any unnecessary, inefficient or unfit employees or excessive salaries, wages or compensation paid, and to inquire generally in respect to any and all matters which will conduce to the orderly and economical administration of the business of the city. Such committee shall have access to the records of the city, and for the purpose of any such inquiry shall have the powers conferred upon an officer, person, board or committee by law.

§ 49. Repealed.

Fire limits.

§ 51. The council shall prescribe by ordinance the limits within said city within which wooden buildings shall not be erected, repaired or placed, without the permission of the common council and may direct that all or any buildings within the fire limit district be built of stone, or of brick with party walls of the said materials, fireproof roofs and brick, stone or metallic cornices and eavetroughs, under such penalties as may be prescribed by the common council, not exceeding one hundred dollars for any one offense, and the further sum of twenty-five dollars for each and every week any buildings so prohibited shall be continued, but nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the erection of iron or steel frame buildings within the fire limits.

Every building hereafter erected contrary to the foregoing provisions, or to any ordinance made in pursuance to this section, is hereby declared to be a common nuisance and may be abated and removed as such by the direction of the common council.

Correction of assessments by

§ 52. The council shall have the power by vote of two-thirds of all its members to correct any assessment claimed to be erroneous or invalid by reason of clerical error in over-valuation, upon the application of the party at interest, his agent or attorney, and to remit the tax upon the excess valuation if such tax has not been paid and if the council deems that an injustice has been done, provided that such application is accompanied by a written certificate signed and sworn to by the commissioner of assessment and taxation and stating that the valuation fixed was a clerical error and that he intended to fix a certain other valuation naming such intended valuation. The assessment as corrected by the council must not be lower than the amount named in such certificate.

TITLE IV.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE CITY OFFICERS.

§ 54.¹⁴ It shall be the right and duty of the mayor: a. To ad- Powers and duties of mayor.
minister the oath of office to the aldermen elect and communicate to the common council, at least once a year, a general statement of the finances as he shall deem expedient, and annually and as much oftener as he shall deem proper, communicate to the council his views and recommendations with reference to the city government. He shall have power to administer oaths and take affidavits and acknowledgments within said city that justices of the peace have, and shall be entitled to receive therefor from any person, except the city, the same fees and compensation. But all oaths, affidavits, or acknowledgments, taken or sworn before him for the city, or any officer or agent acting for the city, shall be taken without any fee or charge.

b. To have charge and control of the administration and discipline of the police department of said city, of the city jail, and police headquarters, and to order and direct the chief of police and the police of said city to obey, enforce and carry into effect all laws, orders, regulations and ordinances in force in said city which it shall be their duty to obey, enforce and carry into effect; to call out and command the police and firemen, as their head, whenever in his discretion he shall deem an emergency so requires, and such command shall in all respects be obeyed.

c. To be vigilant and active in causing the ordinances of the city and the laws of the state to be executed and enforced within said city, and for that purpose he may call together, for consultation and co-operation, all other heads of the city affairs and departments.

d. To suspend, for cause, any officer appointed by said common council or any officer, appointee or employee of said city, for a term not exceeding thirty days. Whenever any officer, appointee or employee of said city except a member of the police force is suspended by said mayor, he shall forthwith give written notice thereof to the common council, and shall report, in writing, such suspension to the common council at its next meeting thereafter, stating therein the grounds of such suspension, together with such recommendation as he may deem proper. But there shall be but one suspension for the same cause, and the said common council, upon receiving such notice, shall appoint a committee of investigation thereof, which committee shall have power to send for persons and papers, to issue subpoenas for witnesses and compel their attendance, and, by its chairman, to administer oaths, and to fully investigate the same; and the said common council may, in its discretion, restore or dismiss said officer or employee and declare his office, appointment or employment vacant and terminated; and in case of dismissal, such office and position shall become and be vacant, and shall be filled by appointment by the mayor as in case of death or resignation of any city officer, except as otherwise provided.

e. In case he deems it necessary, he may appoint any person or persons to perform the duties, or continue to take charge of the official affairs of the officer suspended, until the matter of such suspension shall be investigated and determined.

f. To have power, at all times, to examine the books, vouchers, papers of any department, officer or employee of said city, and to summon and examine, under oath, any person connected therewith.

assistants.

§ 57. The clerk of the common council and other boards of the city shall act as the clerk of the common council, clerk of the board of education, clerk of the board of health, registrar of vital statistics and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the common council. He shall attend and keep accurate minutes of said council meetings and meetings of said boards and shall conduct their correspondence. He shall assist the city clerk and collector in the collection of taxes and water rents, and shall be his deputy therefor. He may employ such assistants as he may deem necessary provided the same shall have been authorized and the compensation fixed by the board of estimate and apportionment.

Commissioner of assessment and taxation;
powers and duties.

§ 59.¹⁵ The commissioner of assessment and taxation shall be the head of the department of assessment and taxation. He may appoint and for cause remove such employees as he deems necessary for the proper conduct of the business of his office, provided that the position has been authorized and the salary thereof fixed by the board of estimate and apportionment. The commissioner of assessment and taxation shall possess all the powers conferred upon, be subject to all the obligations imposed upon and perform all the duties pertaining to the office of assessor in the towns of this state, except as otherwise provided by law. He shall complete, on or before the first day of September in each year a general assessment-roll. He shall value all real estate in the city on one common and general principle of valuation which shall apply to all real estate assessed within the city, including improved and unimproved property. In the case of improved property the land shall be valued separately by him and such separate valuation and the aggregate valuation of the whole property shall be entered and appear in separate columns upon the assessment roll. When there are two or more houses on one lot, the valuation of each shall be shown. He shall keep a record of all transfers of real estate in the city. He shall assess the value of personal property in the name of the owner thereof. He shall continuously revise and correct the assessment map. He shall keep an accurate index of the assessment-roll as the same appears from year to year and shall note thereon the changes in the assessments as the same are made with the dates thereof. He shall publish and issue prior to grievance day each year in pamphlet form for general distribution the assessment-roll as completed by him showing a tabulated comparison with the assessments of the two preceding years. But no error in such pamphlet shall invalidate any assessment or tax levied thereunder.

§ 60.^{1a} In the assessment of any lands in the city for any purpose it shall be sufficient to state the street and number thereof as shown on the assessment map. The commissioner of assessment and taxation shall also enter upon the assessment-roll the name of the owner, in so far as it can be ascertained. No assessment or tax levied thereunder shall be held invalid because of any error in the designation of the owner upon the assessment-roll. Every assessment-roll shall be considered as referring to the assessment map as last amended. When the commissioner of assessment and taxation has completed an assessment-roll and caused the same to be published and issued in pamphlet form as aforesaid, he shall publish at least once in the official newspapers a notice of the completion of the assessment-roll and that it may be seen and examined at his office and of the time, not less than ten days from the publication of such notice when he will hold a public hearing for the purpose of hearing and determining all complaints as to the roll and of revising and correcting the same. For this purpose he shall sit during ten days from eight o'clock in the forenoon to twelve o'clock noon and from three o'clock to five o'clock in the afternoon and from seven o'clock to nine o'clock in the evening, and during such other hours as he may deem necessary. He may add to the assessment-roll any property liable to taxation and the assessment thereof which may have been omitted, upon giving personal notice thereof to the owner, agent or occupant of the property. Such notice may be given by sending written notice by registered mail to the owner, agent or occupant of the property. He shall make all corrections of the assessment-roll within ten days after the close of such hearing and shall forthwith publish at least once in the official newspapers a tabulated statement of such corrections. Any person who shall have presented his grievance in writing to the commissioner of assessment and taxation and shall have sought a hearing before said commissioner and who feels that his property is inequitably or unfairly assessed may apply to the board of equalization and review on the same paper presented to the commissioner as hereinafter provided. Such application shall be in writing and shall state the ground of the applicant's complaint.

The mayor shall appoint one person who in his judgment is familiar with the value of property in the city who with an alderman designated by the council and the commissioner of assessment and taxation shall constitute the board of equalization and review. The members of the board of equalization and review shall receive such compensation per day for each day they are necessarily engaged in the review and correction of the assessments as may be fixed by the board of estimate and apportionment. Within twenty days after the close of the hearing on the assessment-roll as herein-before provided to be held by the commissioner of assessment and taxation, the board of equalization and review shall receive the complaints in the form above prescribed of all persons who still deem their property to be inequitably and unfairly assessed. If upon the hearing of a complaint and the examination of the roll a majority of the board finds the complaint is well founded, the board shall correct the assessment and the assessment-roll. Such corrections shall be made in red ink.

Filing
roll.

After the assessment-roll has been corrected it shall be filed and certified as to its correction by the board of equalization and review with the city clerk on or before the first day of November in each year. The assessment-roll shall thereupon become final and conclusive and said board shall publish at least once in the official newspapers a tabulated statement of the corrections made by it. No erasure shall be made upon the original assessment-roll prior to the confirmation thereof. The city clerk shall, under the direction of the council, correct all manifest clerical errors on the assessment-roll.

Apportionment of assessment.

Any person whose real property is assessed upon the assessment-roll with real property of another person as one piece or plot may at any time after the filing of the assessment-roll submit his deed or other evidence of title to the property to the commissioner. The commissioner shall apportion the assessment and the tax thereon and shall forthwith deliver a written statement of his apportionment to the city clerk. The city clerk shall thereupon enter the apportionment upon the assessment-roll and shall thereafter separately receive the taxes so apportioned. A true copy of the assessment-roll shall be prepared by the commissioner of assessment and taxation and shall at all times be kept in his office, except during tax collection periods, when it shall be deposited and left in the office of the city clerk and collector.

On or before the tenth day of November in each year the commissioner of assessment and taxation shall deliver a correct and certified copy of the assessment-roll to one of the supervisors of said city to be by him presented to the board of supervisors as and for the town roll of the city. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the board of supervisors or* Orange county from exercising, in respect to the assessment-roll of said city delivered to them, or the taxes imposed by them thereby, the same powers vested in boards of supervisors in respect to town assessment-rolls and town and county taxes or any correction thereof. Said roll shall be returned by the board of supervisors to the said commissioner.

office, for the purpose of depositing and filing therein all books, chattel mortgages and papers required by law to be filed in a town clerk's office, and he shall possess all the power, and discharge all the duties of a town clerk, except so far as the same shall be inconsistent with other provisions of this act. He shall have power to administer oaths and take affidavits and acknowledgments within said city that justices of the peace have, and shall be entitled to receive therefor the same fees and compensation. But all oaths, affidavits or acknowledgments, taken or sworn before him for the city, or for any officer or agent acting for the city, shall be taken without any fee or charge. The city clerk shall not hold any other office or position under the city government, except the office of treasurer, treasurer of the police pension fund and collector of taxes and assessments and water rents as herein provided, and he shall not receive from the city, nor from any other person or persons, any fee or reward for any services as clerk, except for filing and recording papers as town clerk, except as provided by this charter, and except that when certified copies of papers are required for evidence by any person or party except the city, he shall be entitled to ten cents per folio therefor, but any other person shall have the right to take copies of any records or papers of the corporation for evidence.

The city clerk shall have power to employ such assistants as employees as he may deem necessary, provided that the same has been authorized and the compensation thereof fixed by the board of estimate and apportionment.

§ 62.¹⁸ The treasurer of said city shall be the city clerk and collector who shall receive all moneys belonging thereto, as well as the moneys raised by authority of the board of supervisors of the county of Orange and the moneys raised by authority of the common council; and he shall keep an accurate account of all receipts and expenditures in such manner as the common council shall direct. He shall deposit all moneys received by him daily during tax collection periods in such banking institutions as may be designated and approved by the board of estimate and apportionment. All moneys shall be drawn from the treasury in pursuance of the order of the common council, by warrants signed by the mayor, or acting mayor and the city clerk; such warrant shall specify for what purpose the amount therein named is to be paid, and the city clerk as treasurer shall keep an accurate account of all orders drawn on the treasury, in a book to be provided for that purpose, which shall be open to the inspection of any elector of said city at all reasonable hours. At the close of the financial year the city clerk shall prepare and file with the common council a full statement of receipts and expenditures, after the date of his last annual report, and also the state of the treasury, which report shall be printed and published in recapitulated form, in the official newspaper or newspapers and said city clerk shall also report to the common council, at each regular monthly meeting thereof, what moneys have been received by

§ 63.¹⁹ The city clerk shall be the collector of taxes and assessments in said city and shall perform the duties and be subject to the liabilities and obligations prescribed by law for town collectors, subject to the provisions of this charter, and he shall keep his books in such manner as the common council may prescribe; and all taxes and assessments to be collected within the limits of the city shall be collected by him. Immediately upon the expiration of the time limited in any warrant issued to him for the collection of any tax or assessment, said collector shall report and make return to the common council, under oath, stating the amount by him collected, and that he has entered upon the assessment or tax roll the several payments made to him, opposite the name of each person, company or corporation so paying, his payments of the money so collected, to what officer, with his vouchers therefor; and the several amounts of taxes or assessments which have not been collected by him and remaining unpaid, with the names of those who have not paid opposite such amounts, and on such report being received and accepted by the common council the several items of unpaid taxes or assessments contained therein shall be entered by said collector in a book provided by said common council, and to be kept by him in his office. On all taxes or assessments, except as provided in this charter, remaining unpaid after the expiration of thirty days the collector shall collect five per centum additional as a penalty, and on all remaining unpaid on the first day of September next after such first publication there shall be collected, in addition to said five per centum penalty, interest at the rate of one per centum per month from the date of said first publication, except on one-half the tax levied for the state, county and city and remaining unpaid not more than six months from the date of said first publication and upon all said one-half of the tax levied for the state, county and city remaining unpaid after the expiration of thirty days from the date of the first publication of the second notice, there shall be collected five per centum additional penalty, and on all thereof remaining unpaid on the first day of February next after the first publication of the second notice there shall be collected interest at the rate of one per centum per month from the date of said first publication of the second notice. All said interest, excepting the five per centum penalty added after the expiration of the thirty-day period, shall belong to the city, and such tax or assessment and the interest thereon at the rate aforesaid together with the highest rate of fees for collecting the sum specified in such warrant, may be sued for and recovered by the city against any person liable therefor except as otherwise provided in this act; and the said collector shall report to the said common council at each monthly meeting thereof, all moneys collected by him on each docket, and shall pay over the moneys so collected to the city treasurer. The common council shall provide a suitable room for the collector's office, and all necessary books, blanks, and stationery for his use, and the collector shall attend at such room in the discharge of his duties at such time as prescribed in section seventy-three of this charter. The city clerk so performing the duties of collector shall not be entitled to collect or receive any fees for his service other than the compensation or salary to be paid him as such city clerk, except that after the expiration of thirty days from the time any general or special tax shall be due and payable, as herein provided, it shall be his duty to add the sum of five per centum upon all such taxes then remaining unpaid, as fees. The said clerk as collector, shall not be entitled to any fees for collections which shall be made by the corporation counsel or other attorney for said city, for any tax or assessment which shall be placed in the hands of such counsel or attorney for collection; and such counsel or attorney shall pay all taxes or assessments, including interest and fees named in the warrant which he shall collect, to the city clerk as collector and shall take receipt therefor, showing the several amounts collected, the tax or assessment for which received, and from whom, and such collector shall then make the necessary entries upon his books showing such payments, so as to discharge the same thereon. In case the collector shall not use due diligence in the collection of taxes or assessments, or comply with the requirements of this section, it shall be sufficient cause, and he may be suspended by the mayor, and removed by the common council, pursuant to the provisions of this charter with reference to the suspension and removal from office.

§ 64. The board of estimate and apportionment shall consist of the mayor, who shall be its president, the president of the common council, and the president of the board of education. The board shall meet upon the call of the mayor, and as directed by resolution of the board itself, and not less than once in each month. It shall be the trustees of the police pension fund and of all sinking funds. Each act of the board shall be by resolution adopted by a majority vote of its members. The board shall fix the powers and duties and regulate the salaries and compensation of all city officers and employees, except as otherwise provided in this act but no such salaries or compensation shall be effective until approved by the common council.

estimate and apportionment.

The annual salary of the mayor shall be two thousand dollars. The annual salary of the president of the common council shall be five hundred dollars. The annual salary of each alderman shall be three hundred dollars. All salaries, except those of the aldermen, shall be paid monthly at the end of each month; the salary of each alderman shall be paid quarterly at the end of each quarter.

Corporation counsel; qualifications and duties.

§ 65.²⁰ The corporation counsel of said city shall be an attorney and counselor of the supreme court of the state of New York, and shall be the legal adviser of the common council, mayor and of all other city officials and boards. It shall be his duty, when required so to do, to prosecute all suits, actions and proceedings brought in the name of or to be defended in behalf of the city of Middletown, or any of its boards, and also to appear on behalf of the people and prosecute in the recorder's court of said city all criminal actions and proceedings which he shall be directed by the mayor to prosecute in said court.

Contracts
for materials or construction.

§ 66.²¹ All contracts for materials or for construction work and all purchases of supplies involving more than five hundred dollars shall be made by sealed proposals in writing, and of each contract there shall be three originals executed by the parties, which shall be numbered with the same number and indorsed with the date of the contract, the name of the contractor and a summary of the work to be done or materials furnished, one of which shall be given to the contractor, one to the treasurer of said city, and one retained by the common council or board of estimate and apportionment.

Proposals.

Public notice shall be given in the official newspapers of the time and places at which sealed proposals will be received for entering into contracts; all sealed proposals for contracts shall be for a sum certain as to the price to be paid or received, and no proposition which is not thus definite and certain shall be received or acted on, and no more than one proposition shall be made by or received from any one person for the same contract, and no proposal or contract shall be assigned without the consent of the common council or board. Such proposals must be accompanied by a deposit of five per centum of the bid on such contract. No proposal shall be opened until the advertised time and all proposals shall be opened and read in public view and thereafter tabulated. The board shall have the right to reject any and all bids submitted to it. All deposits, except that of the successful bidder shall be returned. If the successful bidder shall refuse or neglect to enter into a contract in accordance with his proposal, the deposit shall be forfeited and retained by the city as liquidated damages. Upon the execution of the contract a suitable § 67.²¹ The city engineer and surveyor shall be subject to the orders of the commissioner of public works at all times. He shall under his supervision be the inspector of all buildings and shall do all the surveying and engineering work for all departments of the city and shall keep map records of all sewers, water mains, grades of streets and of all curbing ordered. All maps and profiles pertaining to the water works, water mains, sewers, streets, and curbing and grading of streets, and all tax maps of the said city, shall be filed with, and remain in the custody of, the said city engineer and surveyor and it shall be his duty, from time to time, to make such changes and alterations as may be necessary therein, and to keep and maintain the same so as to accurately show all such changes whenever and wherever they may occur. The common council may cause a map to be made of all the streets, highways, side and cross walks, drains, sewers and water mains in said city, which map shall be filed in the office of the said city engineer and surveyor; and maps of all changes, additions or alterations in or to said streets, highways, alleys, side and cross walks, drains, sewers and water mains, subsequent to the filing and recording of said map, shall be filed therewith as soon after such changes, additions or alterations are made as may be. Such records and maps shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated, described or portrayed in all actions and courts, and the said lands so mapped shall be, and shall thereafter continue to be, the property of said city.

He shall compel every person to clean the ice and snow from the sidewalk in front of any lot owned or occupied in whole or in part by such person, and in case of neglect so to do the said commissioner of public works shall clean or cause to be cleaned such sidewalk and the expense thereof, together with six per centum in addition thereto shall become a lien upon said lot and property to be collected in the same manner as other assessments are collected as provided by this act.

He shall possess all the powers and discharge all of the duties of commissioners of highways of towns of the state except as limited by this act.

No street shall be opened nor shall anything be erected in said streets without the permission of the commissioner of public works, except by order of the common council.

He shall also enforce all ordinances and regulations relating to the construction, repair and alteration of the buildings in the city.

He shall have charge of all poles and wires and see that they are kept safe and in good repair.

Justices of peace;
jurisdiction,
etc.

§ 69. The justices of the peace of said city shall have and exercise all the powers, authority and jurisdiction, and discharge all the duties, and be entitled to the fees and compensations of justices of the peace of the several towns in this state. And all laws applicable to justices of the peace in the several towns, and to their official acts, duties and powers, shall apply to the justices of the peace residing in said city. Such justices of the peace shall not have criminal jurisdiction upon any offenses arising in or committed in said city, except when any such justice of the peace shall act in the place of the recorder in case of his absence or disability. Appeals from any judgment rendered by any such justice may be taken to the county court of Orange county, within the time and in manner prescribed by law for appealing from judgments rendered by justices of the peace of towns, and all provisions of law relative to appeals from such judgments shall apply to appeals from judgments rendered by any justice elected pursuant to this act.

TITLE V.

ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION OF TAXES.

§ 71.²⁵ On or before the first day of September in each year the common council, all heads of departments, boards, recorder and officers empowered by law to expend money shall furnish to the mayor as presiding officer of the board of estimate and apportionment itemized estimates in writing of the amount required for the next fiscal year in their respective departments, boards, courts or offices. Such estimate shall set forth in detail the amounts required for salaries and expenses and all other necessary items according to rules prescribed by the board of estimate and apportionment. Thereafter during the month of September and on or before the last day of said month, the mayor shall lay the estimates before the board of estimate and apportionment. The board of estimate and apportionment may make such changes in the estimates as it shall deem necessary. If it reduces the estimate submitted by the board of education, the estimate shall forthwith be returned to the board of education which shall have power within ten days by a vote of two-thirds of all its members, to readopt the estimate and it shall thereupon be included in the annual estimate. A copy of the estimates shall be filed with the city clerk at the same time they are filed with the mayor. The board of estimate and apportionment shall file with the city clerk an itemized estimate for any expenditure not included in the foregoing estimates for which appropriation is to be made. On or before the fifteenth day of October of each year the board of estimate and apportionment shall make an itemized statement in writing of the estimated revenues and expenditures of the city for the fiscal year other than the amounts to be raised by taxation for state and county purposes. Said board shall also make a detailed statement of all the property revenue which in its judgment will be received by the city during the fiscal year, and a statement of the amount of the sinking fund which in the judgment of the board will be available for the payment of the principal or interest on any bonded indebtedness of the city falling due during the fiscal year. The board shall also make a supplemental statement of all unencumbered balances of the previous fiscal year. The estimate of expenditures shall contain an itemized statement of the several amounts of money which the board of estimate and apportionment deems it necessary to provide for all departments, boards, bureaus, courts, offices, purposes, functions, funds and accounts authorized or directed by law and may also include in its estimate of expenditures a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars for the purpose of observing Memorial day by decorating graves of soldiers to be expended under the direction of the various veteran associations of the city. After the annual estimate showing the estimated net amount required to be raised by taxation for said purposes has been completed, the board of estimate and apportionment shall submit the same in final form to the council with a statement in writing of its reasons for such estimates.

Annual tax.

Said council shall have the power to correct, revise and amend such estimate or any part thereof, but it shall have no power to increase the total thereof. The board of estimate and apportionment shall also submit to the council when received the sums apportioned by the board of supervisors of Orange county to be levied in the city for state and county purposes. Said estimate of the amounts required to be raised by taxation for city purposes as corrected, revised and amended, together with the sums directed to be levied for state and county taxes shall be adopted without change by the council and the same shall thereupon become the annual budget and shall be entered in full on the minutes of the council. The board of estimate and apportionment may make an apportionment or supplement an apportionment by the transfer from the contingent fund of such an amount as it deems necessary. No direct charge for expenditures shall be made against the contingent fund. The amounts included in the estimates of the several departments, boards and offices to be raised by tax for the expenses of the general maintenance and repair of streets and lighting the same, expenses of the fire department, printing, salaries of officers, building and repairing bridges, election expenses, and of all such further sum or sums that may be required during any one year for carrying on the ordinary affairs and general expenses of the city, as authorized by this act or charter, excepting for school and board of health purposes shall not exceed the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, exclusive of the amount to be levied or raised within said city for school and board of health purposes and necessary to pay the principal and interest of the public debt of said city, or any other obligations or debt which by law may be created against the city; and also exclusive of such amount as may be necessary to make up the deficiency occasioned by previous illegal and erroneous assessments and uncollected taxes and assessments; and shall be raised by general tax. The common council shall also direct and cause such amount to be raised annually by general tax as shall be necessary for school and board of health purposes as certified by the board of education, and the board of health in the manner now provided by law, and as shall be necessary to pay the principal and interest of the public debt of the city of Middletown, water bond debt, including sums required for the sinking fund, and any permanent debt incurred or contracted by said city, and also such additional amounts as may be necessary to make up the deficiency occasioned by previous illegal and erroneous assessments and uncollected taxes and assessments.

§ 72.²⁸ Whenever the common council shall be of opinion that the interests of the city require the expenditure of money for any extraordinary or special purpose, which, in its opinion cannot be paid from the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, hereinbefore mentioned, after defraying the ordinary current and contingent expenses, or that the ordinary and contingent expenses of any one year cannot be defrayed without raising an additional sum as a contingent fund, it may make an estimate necessary to be raised for such purposes, and each of them, if there be more than one such subject, and state the amount and objects for which it is required, together with the reasons for its opinion, and cause such statement and estimate to be published in the official newspaper or newspapers of said city; and shall give notice therein that, on a day and place therein specified, a special election will be held at which the question, whether the said sum or sums shall be raised or not, will be submitted to the qualified voters for their determination. Said statement and notice shall be published once a week for three weeks next preceding said day of election. The common council shall designate in said notice some central and convenient place in said city for holding the said election, and it shall appoint three inspectors of said election, and may fill all vacancies and said inspectors shall take the oath required by law to be taken by inspectors of charter elections in said city and in the same manner, and they shall have the same powers and perform the same duties as the last mentioned inspectors. Every resident of said city, of the age of twenty-one years, whose name shall be in the assessment-roll made by the commissioner of assessment and taxation of said city next preceding said special election, and upon whose property, or upon whom, as the owner or possessor of the property, a tax shall be assessed or imposed by said roll, including women so qualified, and no other person or persons whatever shall be entitled to vote at the said special election. thereof, certified by the clerk, or the mayor, or presiding officer of the said council, shall be evidence of the names and assessment aforesaid. Every executor, administrator, trustee, devisee, heir or guardian, as the possessor or representative of property so chargeable, shall be considered a duly qualified voter at such meeting or special election. The inspectors of said election thus appointed, on the day and at the place specified, and from two o'clock in the afternoon until eight o'clock in the evening, without closing the polls, and in the manner provided by law for holding charter elections in said city, shall proceed to receive the ballots of the persons qualified to vote at the said special election, on which ballots shall be written or printed or partly written and partly printed in the inside thereof the object for such special tax, and in the margin, and opposite to such object or statement, shall be placed the words "Yes" and "No" one above the other and opposite each of said words "Yes" and "No," shall be printed two squares enclosed in ruled lines one above the other; and if there shall be more than one object for a special tax proposed at any such election, then those several objects shall be specified on one piece of paper, and in the margin and opposite each of those several objects or statements shall be placed the words "Yes" and "No," one above the other and opposite each of said words "Yes" and "No" shall be printed two squares enclosed in ruled lines one above the other, and deposit the same in a box similar to the boxes required to be used under the general election law. At the top of each of such ballots shall be printed the following words: "Notice to electors. For an affirmative vote upon any question submitted upon this ballot make a cross X mark in the square opposite the word 'Yes.' For a negative vote make a similar mark in the square opposite the word 'No.'"

The common council may, by resolution, at the time of designating the time and place for holding such election provide, that, in place of receiving the ballots of the persons qualified to vote at such special election as above set forth, a voting machine or machines which have been duly adopted by the said common council for use at general elections may be used. Such voting machine or machines shall be provided with ballots on which shall be written or printed or partly written and partly printed the object for such special tax or taxes and if there shall be more than one object for a special tax proposed at any such election then those several objects shall be specified on separate ballots and shall be affixed in the ballot holder of said voting machine or machines, and, adjacent and opposite to, or directly under, those several objects or statements shall be placed the words "Yes" and "No," with a mechanical device or lever by which a person qualified to vote may indicate his choice by pulling, pushing or moving said lever toward the word "Yes" or the word "No" and thereby register his or her such vote as designed or intended. If any person offering to vote at such election shall be challenged in relation to his right to vote thereat, by any other person entitled to vote at the said election, one of the inspectors shall tender him the following oath: "You do swear (or affirm) that you are a resident and taxpayer of the city of Middletown and you are of the age of twenty-one years, and that you have not voted at this election." If he shall take such oath, and shall be named and assessed upon said roll aforesaid, or shall show his relation as such executor, administrator, trustee, devisee, heir or guardian, as the possessor or representative of such property so chargeable, his vote shall be received; if he decline to take such oath his vote shall be refused. All provisions of law for punishing false swearing and fraudulent voting at the said charter election, so far as the same can be applied, and for preserving order at the polls, shall be applicable to the said special elections and the proceedings thereat. The said inspectors shall canvass the votes received at said special elections, immediately after the closing of the polls, without adjournment, and then make a certificate under their hands, or the hands of two of them, stating the whole number of ballots received; in the case of every tax voted upon at such election, the whole number for each special tax, and the whole number against each special tax, and return the same by the hands of one of them to the common council, or to the mayor or clerk forthwith thereafter. The said certificate, if received by the mayor or clerk, shall be delivered by him to the common council at their next meeting, and the said council shall cause the result of said election as appearing by said certificate, to be entered in their minutes; and if it shall appear that the whole number of votes received at such election in favor of any such object or statement exceed the whole number of votes cast against any such object or statement, it shall be the duty of the common council to cause the said sum or sums to be assessed, levied and raised in addition to the said sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars and all other taxes, in and by the next assessment-roll, or in and by successive equal annual installments thereafter, and in the same manner and with the same power and authority as herein described and conferred in reference to said one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. After any such special tax or taxes shall have been authorized as herein provided, the common council may proceed to authorize the expenditure of the amount thereof, for the object or objects specified in their published statement and sanctioned by such election, and the common council may borrow, if they shall deem it necessary to do so, the amount so voted in anticipation of the collection of said tax, payable in equal annual installments, if the loan shall be made for more than one year, which installments shall be levied and collected in the same manner as the general tax of the city, and the amount so borrowed shall be expended for which the special tax was raised, and shall be repaid as soon as the same shall become due, from the proceeds of the tax levy. The sum and sums of money raised by any special tax shall be paid to and kept by the city treasurer, distinct from other money, and entered in a separate account, and shall be appropriated by the common council exclusively to the object or objects mentioned in their

of tax.

§ 73.²⁷ The tax so directed to be raised shall be assessed upon all the taxable real and personal property in the city, according to the valuation of the city assessment-roll of the current year, after the same shall have been corrected as hereinbefore provided. The said tax, together with any special tax which shall have been voted as herein provided, shall be levied by the common council at some meeting thereof on or before the tenth day of December o'clock noon until one o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of receiving payment of city, county and state taxes; and it shall be the duty of said collector to attend accordingly and any person may pay his taxes at the time and place so designated on paying such fees thereon as in this act provided. At the time of delivery to him of such roll and warrant, the collector shall endorse on the assessment and tax-roll on file with the clerk a receipt acknowledging by him of the duplicate of such roll and warrant as city collector, and he shall proceed to collect the unpaid taxes in said roll specified, in the manner provided by law for the collection of county taxes, and shall have and possess all the powers and authority conferred by law on the collector of county taxes, and shall in like manner, pay over all money collected by him to the city treasurer, and shall take his receipt therefor, and shall make return to the common council of the amount collected and paid over by him and of the taxes remaining unpaid; and upon making oath before some officer authorized by law or this act to administer oaths and take affidavits, similar in all respects to the oath required by law of collectors of county taxes he shall be credited by the common council with the amount so remaining due and unpaid. And every assessment upon real estate, or water rents imposed under this act, may, when due, be collected in the same manner as herein provided for the collection of taxes. The collector shall forthwith deposit all moneys received by him in the designated depositories to the credit of the city.

Collection.

Deposit of moneys.

§ 75.²⁸ There shall be four funds, which shall be kept separate and intact from each other, namely: A general common council fund, which may be subdivided into smaller funds for different purposes, a board of education fund, a water department fund, and an excise fund, and such additional fund as has been or may be hereafter established by the common council as a police pension fund. The common council shall have power to make transfers from different accounts in the general common council fund but it shall at no time order drafts to an amount in excess of the amount appropriated and available for general city purposes, and may also temporarily transfer such amounts as it may deem advisable from one of the above named four funds to another but no such transfer shall be made from the police pension fund, in anticipation of the next annual or semi-annual tax installment, but such sum shall be transferred directly after the collection of such tax.

Separate funds.

§ 76. It shall be the duty of the collector of the city to pay over to the treasurer of the county, all the moneys he shall have received for state and county purposes, and if the full amount of such taxes as required by roll and warrant from the board of supervisors shall not be paid to the county treasurer on or before the last day of April then it shall be the duty of the collector of the city to pay over the balance of the moneys for such taxes, if any, in his hands, and if there remains a deficiency, the com-

§ 78.²⁹ a. When any question, involving the raising of funds for any purpose, is submitted to the taxpayers at a special election, if the council shall be of the opinion that the amount to be raised is too large to be raised by certificates of indebtedness, or if it deems it more advisable for any reason, it may issue and sell bonds of the city for that purpose; such bonds shall be signed by the mayor and the city clerk and the seal of the city affixed thereto, and shall bear interest at not exceeding six per centum per annum, and become payable at such future period, not in excess of forty years, as the council may direct. A sinking fund for the purpose of payment of each such issue of bonds shall be provided, and there shall be levied by annual tax, or appropriated annually from the revenues of the department for the benefit of which the bonds are issued, the proper proportion of a sum sufficient to meet said bonds at their maturity. Said bonds shall be assignable and transferable, and may at the option of the holder be registered, in which case they shall be transferable only by endorsement of the person in whose name they may stand as owner on the books of the city clerk. They shall contain a statement of the purpose for which they are issued, and that a sinking fund has been provided for their payment.

Refunding
bonds.

b. The council may borrow money and issue new bonds from time to time hereafter, as the bonds issued by the city shall respectively mature and fall due, to take up and replace, or as substitutes for such maturing bonds, provided the city has not sufficient funds on hand when said bonds shall mature to pay the same, which bonds shall draw interest from date, payable semi-annually, at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, and be payable at such times, and shall be in such form as the council shall direct when ordering the issue thereof, and a sinking fund as provided for in this section shall be provided for the payment of such bonds. The proceeds of the bonds so issued shall be used only for the retirement and payment of the previous issue.

bonds and certificates of indebtedness.

c. The council may prescribe the manner of the sale of all bonds or certificates of indebtedness and in no case shall either or any of them be sold or issued for a less sum than their par value and accrued interest; or upon less than 'four weeks' notice published in the official newspapers; they shall be approved by the corporation counsel as to form.

Investment of sinking

d. All moneys, which shall be paid into the sinking fund, shall be invested as soon as practicable and may be invested in the bonds of this city, those of any town or county or city in this state, bonds of the United States, certificates of indebtedness of this city, or such securities as it is lawful for savings banks to invest in. The investment of the fund shall be made under the direction of the board of estimate and apportionment and in the name of the city. The securities shall be kept in a safe deposit

§ 79. Every tax or assessment for whatever purpose imposed or charged, upon any real estate within the city, by virtue of any of the provisions of this act, shall be a lien upon the real estate, within the city, upon which it is assessed from the time of filing of the roll containing the same with the clerk. Such liens shall be superior to any mortgage, judgment or other lien of any nature affecting said premises, excepting prior liens thereon for state and county taxes. If any such taxes or assessments shall be returned as unpaid by any officer authorized to collect the same, the common council may employ and direct an attorney, or the corporation counsel, or other proper officer, employed by the common council to advertise and sell such real estate in the manner hereafter provided. Whenever the common council shall order any parcel of land to be sold for any such tax, assessment, water rents or city lien, the order shall be made for all such taxes, assessments, water rents and city liens which may be then unpaid. Such sales shall be ordered by the common council at least once in two years, but no such sales shall be ordered in respect to any such liens unless the same have been in default of payment for at least three months.

of the city designating and directing the attorney or proper officer of the city to sell the properties on which taxes, assessments and liens remain unpaid as particularly described in the certificate of the city clerk and said commissioner as hereinbefore provided, a copy of which order shall be delivered to the officer so designated, who shall forthwith advertise the sale of said premises in the manner and for the time required in the case of sales of real estate on execution, and the sale shall be conducted in the same manner except as herein provided. The proceedings may be stopped at any time before the sale by any person, by paying the amount of the tax or assessment, with the interest allowed thereon by this act, and the expense of advertising. In making sales of real estate, under the provisions of this act, the attorney or officer making the same shall sell upon and exact terms of sales as follows: In case the tax or assessment, together with the interest thereon, and the proper expenses, and charges attending the sale, do not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, then he shall require the purchaser, to pay at the close of the sale, a sum sufficient to pay said tax or assessment, interest, expense and charges. In case the tax or assessment, interest, expense and charges exceed five hundred dollars, he shall sell on such terms as the common council may direct; but in no case shall the purchaser be required to pay until after the time for the redemption of such real estate shall expire, according to the provisions of this title, more than sufficient to pay the tax or assessment, interest, expenses and charges; and the said terms of sale shall, in all cases, require the purchaser, when the purchase money is more than sufficient to pay such tax or assessment, interest, expenses and charges, to pay the balance of the purchase money to the city treasurer, within five days after the time for the redemption of such real estate shall expire, according to the provisions of this title. Said attorney or officer shall, in all cases, reduce his terms of sale to writing, and require the purchaser to subscribe the same; which terms of sale shall be annexed to the certificate of sale which is herein required to be filed with the city clerk, and shall be filed with the same. All sales in such cases shall be at public vendue, between the hours of nine o'clock in the morning and the setting of the sun, and shall be made to the highest bidder therefor. Three certificates of sale of each parcel of land so sold shall be made out, subscribed and acknowledged by said officer; one of which certificates shall be delivered to the purchaser, another filed in the city clerk's office, and another filed in the office of the clerk of the county, within twenty days after such sale. If there be two or more purchasers, a certificate shall be delivered to each. Such certificate shall contain a particular description of the premises sold, the price bid for each distinct lot or parcel, the whole consideration money paid, the name of the person or persons against whom such tax or assessment was made, the name of the purchaser, the particular tax or assessment for which the sale was made, and the time when such sale will become absolute, and the purchaser entitled to a conveyance according to law. The officer making such sale shall, as nearly as possible, sell so much of the real estate only as the said tax or assessment shall have become a lien upon, as may be sufficient to raise the amount of said tax or assessment, interest and expenses, and which may be sold separately, without material injury to the entire premises. The certificate herein required to be filed in the county clerk's office shall be duly recorded by the said clerk, in the same manner as deeds are required by law to be recorded, and, being so recorded, shall have the same effect as against subsequent purchasers and incumbrances, as deeds and conveyances duly proved and recorded; and such certificate or record thereof, or a duly authenticated copy of such record, shall be received in all courts and places, as prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. In indexing any certificate so to be recorded in his office, or any deed which may be given pursuant thereto, the said county clerk shall index the same as follows: By inserting, as grantor, the name of the person named in such certificate as the owner thereof, adding thereto the words "by the city of Middletown," and by inserting as grantee, the name of the person named in such certificate as the purchaser. The city clerk of the said city of Middletown shall provide and keep in his office a suitable book, in which he shall enter at length all such certificates of sale filed therein, and shall index all such certificates in the manner named above required.

The purchase money for which any real estate may be sold, as hereinbefore provided, shall be paid to the treasurer of said city; and any balance of the same, after paying the tax or assessment, for which the sale may have been made, with the interest thereon, together with the costs and expenses of the sale, shall remain in the treasury of the said city and shall be paid out as in this section provided. The person against whom such tax or assessment was made, or any person claiming to be the owner or having any interest in the lands sold, or any person having any judgment or mortgage which was a lien upon the real estate sold, or claiming a right to said moneys, may apply to the supreme court for an order, directing the treasurer of said city to pay the balance of said moneys to him; and the said court may make an order directing said treasurer to pay said moneys to such person as it may ascertain is properly entitled thereto, and said treasurer shall pay over said moneys pursuant to any such order.

§ 91. All the provisions of law relating to the redemption of lands sold under executions, and which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall apply to the sales and redemption of lands, which may be sold for taxes or assessments, as provided in this act; and all payments which may be required to entitle other persons to redeem, according to the provisions of said law, may be made to the city treasurer.

Notice and deed to be recorded.

§ 94. It shall be the duty of the person serving such notice, or causing the same to be served, to file and record a copy of the notice served, together with the affidavit of the person making such service, who shall be at least eighteen years of age, in the office of the clerk of the county of Orange, with any deed which the purchaser may receive from the common council for the lands sold.

City may become purchaser at sale.

§ 95. The city of Middletown may become the purchaser at any sale which may be made under the provisions of this act, and in such case the said city shall be vested with the same rights as any other purchaser, but in no case shall the city at such sale bid a sum or become the purchaser for a greater amount than sufficient to pay the tax or assessment, with interest, including the costs and expenses of such sales, and in all cases of such sales the said city shall bid a sum sufficient to pay such tax or assessment, interest, cost and expenses. The mayor or other person designated by the common council shall attend all such sales and make such bid. Any sale made in violation of this provision shall be void.

§ 97. Repealed.

Exemptions.

§ 98. All property exempt from taxation by law, and all property belonging to the city, shall be exempt from state, county and city taxes.

Collection by action.

§ 99. Whenever any person or corporation shall refuse or neglect to pay any tax or assessment duly assessed, according to any of the provisions of this act, against any such person or corporation, the same may be collected by action in the name of the city, against such person or corporation, but such action shall not operate to release any lien upon property for such tax or assessment, until the judgment rendered in such suit shall have been fully satisfied.

Authority of common council to borrow money.

§ 101. Whenever any assessment or tax shall have been levied and confirmed by the said common council, it may borrow upon the credit of the city, in anticipation of the collection thereof a sum not exceeding one-half of said tax or assessment, but the said common council shall not have power to borrow, and are hereby expressly prohibited from borrowing any money on account of the city, except as herein provided, and all sums so borrowed, shall be paid within the fiscal year in which the same was borrowed, and if practicable from the tax so assessed for that year. The said council shall not create any pecuniary obligation whatever on the part of the city which shall not be payable within the year, and which cannot be discharged from the income of the same year, except as herein otherwise specifically provided; but this prohibition shall not affect the provisions of this act before contained in regard to obligations for or respecting the expenditure of any sum raised by special tax. For the purpose of paying any judgment that may be recovered against the said city not otherwise provided for, the said common council is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow upon the credit of the city the whole amount of any such judgment or judgments with interest, and issue a certificate of indebtedness, or other obligation for such amount so borrowed, payable at such time as such common council may determine and designate; and the common council is hereby authorized and empowered to raise by tax at the next annual or special tax thereafter, the said amount so borrowed and interest, in addition to such annual or special tax the same as if said sum or sums so borrowed had been authorized by tax as provided by this act.

TITLE VI.

STREETS AND SEWERS AND THE IMPROVEMENT THEREOF, NUISANCES AND THE ABATEMENT THEREOF.

§ 106.³² The common council shall have power to determine the existence and direct the removal of a public nuisance, in any part of the city; and if the same be not removed in such time as the council shall direct, to cause the same to be removed at the expense of the city, and to cause buildings, trees and other incumbrances encroaching upon the streets or avenues to be removed; to prevent the erection or construction of any steps, platform, bay window, cellar door, area, descent into a cellar or basement, sign or any post or erection, or any projection from any building or otherwise, in, over or upon any street, or avenue in said city, and to cause the same to be removed.

Removal of nuisances, etc.

Whenever any such nuisance, encroachment or obstruction shall have been removed at the expense of the city, such expense shall be ascertained by the common council and entered in its minutes, after a hearing as provided in section one hundred and eight of this act, and together with the expenses of collection, shall be a lien upon the said lot from the time the expenses shall be incurred, and may be collected by action, in the name of the city, against the owner, and after demand of payment from the owner, and his neglect or refusal to pay such expense, by sale of the lot, in the manner hereinbefore provided for the sale of property, for taxes imposed for city purposes.

Collection of expense from owner.

§ 107.³³ The said common council shall have the power, and it shall be their duty, upon their own motion, or upon application as hereinafter provided:

sewers in said city. But no street, lane or highway in said city shall be discontinued without the written consent of all parties owning lands thereon.

b. To cause any street or streets, section or sections of any street or streets in said city, to be graded, leveled and paved and repaved, and sewers to be built or constructed, and fix or regulate the grade line of streets and sidewalks; and to cause curbs to be set and sags to be made, paved and guttered of such material as the common council may direct. And in the order directing the construction of a sewer or sewers, or such grading, leveling or paving (not including paving or repaving of gutters) they may, in their discretion, provide that a portion of the expense of such improvement, not exceeding one-half thereof, shall be paid out of the city treasury. But after any street, or section of a street, shall have been once graded, or be in process of grading, according to grade line fixed by order of the common council, the grade of the same street or section shall not be changed, except upon the written application of the persons owning a majority part of the property adjoining the same, and when a street has been once permanently improved for which any portion has been paid by the land owners thereon, no part of repaving, grading or improving the same a second or subsequent time shall be charged against the land owners on said street except their proportionate share of the general tax therefor.

c. To keep the streets clean and in good order and to pass ordinances requiring the same to be kept clean and in good order, and free from encroachment and injury, and to require the owners and occupants of houses, buildings or lots, to clean the snow and ice from the sidewalks and out of the gutters opposite their premises.

d. To require the owners of buildings and lots, on public streets, to make and maintain sidewalks opposite their premises and to prescribe and direct the materials out of which, and the manner in which such sidewalks shall be made, and the time within which they shall be completed, and to regulate the grade, width, shape and construction thereof.

e. To lay out, improve and ornament public parks and pleasure grounds, and to pass ordinances and regulations concerning their preservation and use.

f. To prevent and summarily remove all obstructions and encroachments in or upon the streets, sidewalks, highways, bridges and public grounds in said city.

g. The said common council shall have exclusive control of all the sewers in said city, and it shall not be lawful for any person to interfere with, enter or connect with any of the sewers in said city without having first obtained permission so to do from the commissioner of public works and all such connections shall be made under the supervision of the commissioner of public works and the said common council is hereby empowered to compel any and all owners or occupants of lands on the line of any such sewers, to enter and connect the drains from such lands into and with such sewers, whenever the said common council shall deem it necessary for the public good, or as a sanitary measure, so to do; and the said common council is hereby authorized and empowered to enforce the observance of the provisions of this section, by ordinances imposing suitable penalties for the violation thereof. And the common council shall have power to enter upon any lands in said city, for the purpose of making surveys, and to construct upon the same any sewer or sewers deemed by them necessary and proper to be constructed, and to acquire the title to any lands or easements therein, for the purposes of such sewer or sewers.

§ 109. When the council shall, on its own motion, determine that it will be advisable to lay out, open, alter, widen, extend, contract, level, pave, curb, gutter or grade any street, or construct, flag or widen any sidewalk, or construct or rebuild any sewer, aqueduct or bridge, except as specified in section one hundred and ten of this act, or establish any public park, market or place, or install any approved or ornamental system of lighting as a local improvement or whenever persons owning at least one-third of the number of feet on the line of any such proposed improvement shall, by petition in writing, request the council to order the same, it shall cause a tentative estimate of the total expense to be made, and a map to be made by the city engineer showing its estimate of the probable area of assessment for the benefits of such proposed improvement, together with all other necessary maps, profiles or drawings, which maps and estimates shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the council at least five days before the day set for the hearing. It shall fix a time for a public hearing at which it will consider the advisability of said improvement, and hear all reasons for or against the same and direct notice to be published thereof.

Local improvement; determination for, notice, hearing.

The clerk of the council shall publish, twice in each week for two weeks previous to the said hearing, a notice which shall contain a description of the proposed improvement, the estimated expense thereof, and shall state that a map, showing the probable area of local assessment will be prepared and filed with him at least five days before said hearing for public inspection.

The council shall, at the time and place specified, hear all persons interested for or against the proposed improvement as to any question involved therein, and within two months after said hearing the council shall finally determine such proposition; and at any time before the completion of such improvement said council shall have the power to make any changes advantageous to the taxpayers of the city.

§ 110. When the board of health shall by resolution request the council to order the construction or rebuilding of a sewer through or in any part of the city designated in such resolution, and shall therein certify that the same is necessary as a sanitary measure and for the protection of the public health, the council shall order and direct said construction or rebuilding without giving notice of any hearing thereon. It shall, however, cause

§ 114. Whenever any of the foregoing improvements relating to sewers, et cetera, shall have been made, the council shall ascertain the total expense thereof, including the estimated interest which may accrue on any certificates of indebtedness issued or to be issued therefor and the sums paid or agreed to be paid for any interest in land that may be necessary and may fix and determine an amount to be paid by the city on account thereof which shall not exceed fifty per centum of the total expense; and shall fix a limit or district of assessment beyond which the assessments therefor shall not be extended; it shall enter in the minutes the amount of such expense, and a description of such limit or district, and shall then cause a warrant to be issued to the commissioner of assessment and taxation directing him to assess the said amounts, less, the part, if any, which it may have ordered to be paid from the city treasury, upon the real estate benefited by the said improvement. Said commissioner shall thereupon assess the amount specified in said warrant as therein directed and make a return to the council under his signature wherein he shall briefly describe by street and number as shown on the assessment map each parcel or real estate on and in respect of which any assessment is made, and the amount assessed upon the same. The clerk shall thereupon cause a notice to be published once a week for two weeks or served personally upon all parties interested, that such assessment has been made and filed, and that the council, at a regular meeting named in said notice, not less than fourteen days after the first publication thereof, will hear any objection which may be made to any assessment, and that in the meantime the report may be examined without expense by any person. At the time specified the council shall hear any objection made to said assessment, and shall review the same, and may adjourn the hearing from time to time, and alter, correct, modify or amend any assessment and confirm the same as so corrected.

§ 117. The council upon confirming any of the assessments referred to in this article, may provide in the resolution confirming the same that said assessments or any of them may be paid in five equal annual installments, to be collected in the manner provided in this act for the collection of taxes for city purposes. In such cases the first installment shall be due and payable on the day of the first publication of the notice provided for the collection of taxes for city purposes, and the remaining installments in one, two, three and four years therefrom, and shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum from the date of said first publication until they shall severally become due and payable and paid, providing, however, that the owner of any premises assessed may pay any or all installments remaining unpaid with accrued interest thereon whenever any installment shall become due, and that if any of said installments shall not be paid when due, the remaining installments shall thereupon immediately become due and payable and may be collected by the sale of such land or premises.

Assessments may be made payable in installments.

§ 118. Repealed.

§ 119.³⁴ a. In case any street which the common council shall cause to be paved, shall be used or occupied by a street surface railroad under any franchise granted by the city authorities, the expense of paving that portion of such street between its tracks, the rails of its tracks, and two feet in width outside of its tracks shall be borne by the company owning or operating such street surface railroad, but should the company owning or operating said street surface railroad neglect to do such paving after the expiration of the time within which such work shall be done as required by statute and the city authorities shall do the said paving, then and in that event the expense of such paving so made by said city shall be assessed by the commissioner of assessment and taxation of said city upon the property and franchises of said street surface railroad and said assessment shall be a lien on the property and franchises of said street surface railroad on which it is assessed and may be collected by the sale of such street surface railroad, its property and franchises and all the provisions of this act in relation to the collection of taxes for city purposes, and the sale of land for taxes, shall apply to the collection of such assessment and to sales therefor, and such assessment when collected shall be paid to the treasurer of the city.

Duty of street surface railroad to pave.

Procedure on neglect of railroad company.

b. The said common council at the time of the confirmation of the said assessment against said street surface railroad may by resolution determine, and the common council shall have power to so determine, that the said assessment against said street surface railroad may be paid in five equal annual installments, all of which shall be collected in the manner herein provided for the collection of taxes for city purposes. If the common council shall determine to permit the payment of said assessment to be made in installments, the first installment shall be due and payable on the date of the first publication of the notice provided for the collection of taxes for city purposes by the fifth title of this act and the remaining installments in one, two, three and four years from the date of said first publication of said notice, and shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum per annum from the date of said first publication of said notice until said installments shall severally become due and payable and paid with the privilege of paying any or all installments remaining unpaid with accrued interest thereon whenever any one of said installments become due, and if any said installments, including the first, shall not be paid when due, the remaining installments of the amount so assessed shall immediately become due and payable and may be collected by the sale of said street surface railroad and its franchises as hereinbefore provided.

Council may direct street railroad to repair; action in case of neglect.

c. The council may, at any time it may deem advisable, direct the repaving and repair by a street surface railroad of that portion of any street occupied by it between its tracks, the rails of its tracks, and two feet in width outside of its tracks, and the manner in which said work shall be done, and it shall be done as so directed under the supervision of the commissioner of public works. In case of the failure of such corporation to do such work after the expiration of thirty days' notice to do so, the council shall direct the same to be done by such commissioner and the expense thereof shall be ascertained and fixed as provided for in section one hundred and seventeen of this act, and shall be charged upon and become a lien upon the property and franchises of said railroad.

Borrowing money in anticipation of payment of installments.

d. Whenever the common council shall at the time of the confirmation of any assessment determine that the same may be divided into five equal annual installments as herein provided, the said common council may authorize the issue of bonds or certificates of indebtedness to an amount not exceeding four-fifths of the total amount of such assessment, which said bonds or certificates of indebtedness shall be payable one-fourth in one year; one-fourth in two years; one-fourth in three years; and one-fourth in four years from and after the first day of the second calendar month succeeding the said confirmation of said assessment-roll and shall be of such denomination or denominations and shall bear interest at such rate, not exceeding six per centum, as the said common council may determine and shall be sold at not less than par, and which said bonds or certificates of indebtedness shall be paid as they become due by the city treasurer from the funds received by him from the collection of such assessments.

Payment of bonds or certificates of indebtedness.

e. The proceeds from the collection of the installments as herein provided shall constitute a fund for the purpose of paying the bonds or certificates of indebtedness issued as herein provided, but if sufficient money shall not have been realized upon any installments to pay the said bonds or certificates of indebtedness when the same shall become due and payable the common council shall temporarily borrow on the credit of the city a sufficient sum to pay the same, and all moneys hereafter realized on account of said assessment-roll or from sales for the nonpayment of the said assessments shall be used and are hereby pledged for the payment of the amount so borrowed and for the payment of said bonds or certificates of indebtedness.

§ 120. Repealed.

§ 122.³⁵ To the end that the said city of Middletown may be provided with and have sufficient and proper drainage and sewerage, the said common council is hereby authorized and empowered to agree for and to purchase and take conveyances for, in the name of said city, any real estate and right of way, over any real estate, and the right to use any stream running through said city which may be a tributary of the stream heretofore taken, and now used and possessed by said city, known as Monhagen creek, or any part of such tributaries, for the purposes of such drainage and sewerage to any suitable and proper place and for sewerage and garbage disposal plants and works; and in case said common council does not agree for the purchase of such real estate, or rights of way, or rights to use such streams for the purposes aforesaid, from any of the owners of such real estate, or of the lands through or along which said streams run, the said common council may acquire the title and right to the same or any part thereof, for the purposes aforesaid, as provided in this act.

Purchase of real property for drainage and sewerage purposes.

§ 123. In case said common council shall not agree with any owner or owners, respecting any lands or rights which they may desire to acquire for the purposes aforesaid, or with the owner or owners of any lands through or along which the aforesaid streams run, for the right to use the same for such purposes, then said common council shall cause a survey and map to be made of the lands intended to be taken or entered upon for said purposes, including the lands through or along which said streams pass, by which the land of each owner or occupant thereof intended to be taken or used, or through or along which said streams pass, shall be properly designated, which map shall be duly signed by the surveyor making the same and by the mayor of said city, and shall thereupon be duly filed in the office of the clerk of Orange county. Any of the members of said common council, and any of the officers, agents and employees or servants thereof, may enter upon any lands for the purpose of making such examination as may be proper, with a view to such drainage and sewerage, and making said survey and map, doing no unnecessary damage, however, thereto. In case of such failure to agree or in case such agreement cannot be made by reason of the disability of any of the owners of said property, the common council may direct that such property be acquired by proceedings instituted for the condemnation thereof in the manner provided by the condemnation law for the condemnation of real property, and the provisions of this act relative to title pending condemnation shall apply.

Condemnation proceedings.

TITLE VII.

POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Police officers;
appointment, number, qualifications.

Chief of police.

Powers and duties of
officers.

§ 127. The common council of said city shall appoint such number of proper persons to be police officers for said city as it may deem necessary and proper, not to exceed one police officer for each one thousand of the inhabitants of said city as shown by the last preceding state census, but no person shall be appointed to membership in the police force, or shall continue to hold membership therein, who is not a citizen of the United States, or who has ever been convicted of a crime, or who cannot understandingly read and write in the English language, or who shall not have resided in the state during one year next preceding the appointment. The common council shall select from the police officers so appointed by it one who shall be the chief of the police department of said city and said common council shall also select from the police officers so appointed by it two who shall be the lieutenants of the police department of said city. The said police officers shall possess the exclusive power of serving all criminal and other process issued by the recorder, or acting recorder or mayor, except in such civil actions or proceedings as may be commenced before the recorder, pursuant to this act, in which they shall have concurrent power with the civil constables of said city; and they shall perform all acts in relation to criminal offenses, which police officers or constables are authorized to perform. It shall be the duty of said police officers to attend at the recorder's office at all reasonable hours of the day; to obey at all times, all process of the recorder and all directions of the mayor or common council, duly issued or given for the preservation of the public peace and order, and to make arrests whenever they shall be called upon or sent by the mayor, recorder or common council, to keep the public peace, or arrest any person charged with any offense. In any case of the continued absence, detention or inability to act of all of said officers, the mayor, recorder or acting recorder may designate any person by appointment, in writing, or by directing the process to be served by such person, to serve any process issued by either of such officers. Every person so appointed shall possess all the powers of a police officer under this act, in relation to the particular process of service for which he is appointed, or which he is directed to serve, if designated by separate appointment.

Appointment of person to serve process.

§ 128. All appointments to membership on the police force shall be made pursuant to the civil service laws of the state, and in case of any vacancy in the police force, the same shall be filled from the list of persons eligible to appointment under such laws, but no person shall hereafter be eligible to appointment on the police force in said city who is over the age of thirty years; and no member of the police department shall continue to hold his position or office after he has reached the age of sixty years unless he be continued from year to year thereafter by resolution of the common council, but the common council shall have no power to continue such officer or member of the police department in his office or position after he shall have reached the age of sixty-five years. There shall be no fixed term of office for police officers, and such officers shall, subject to the limitation as to age set forth in this section, continue in office during good behavior and efficiency, being always subject to removal for cause after opportunity to be heard.

Police officers; application of civil service laws, terms.

§ 129. The mayor of said city shall be authorized, whenever the public interest shall require, to appoint special police officers not exceeding twenty in number, except as herein otherwise provided, who shall hold their office by virtue of such appointment, for such period as the mayor shall direct, not exceeding one month under any one appointment. Such special officers shall forthwith take the oath of office, and shall thereupon become vested with all the powers, and shall discharge all the duties of police officers under this act, and in pursuance of the statutes of this state, as they may be directed by the mayor or other competent authority. The mayor shall report all such appointments to the common council at its first meeting thereafter.

Special police officers.

§ 130. The members of the police force, in criminal matters, shall have all the powers of constables under the general laws of the state; and they shall also have power and it shall be their duty to arrest any person by them found violating any of the penal ordinances of the city or laws of the state, and to take such person before the recorder, to be dealt with in the same manner as if such person had been arrested upon a warrant theretofore duly issued by such magistrate. It shall be their duty to report violations of law and ordinances, coming to their knowledge in any way, under regulations to be made by the police department. They shall also have in every part of the state in criminal matters all the powers of constables; and any warrant for search or arrest issued by any magistrate of the state may be executed by them in any part of the state, according to the tenor thereof and all the provisions of the code of criminal procedure apply to arrests made as herein authorized.

Chief of police;
duties.

§ 132. The chief of police shall be the executive head of the uniformed police and perform such duties as may be prescribed by the mayor. It shall be his duty, subject to the orders and directions of the mayor, to have charge and control of the administration and discipline of the police department, the city jail, and police headquarters and to furnish all necessary supplies therefor, under the direction of the board of estimate and apportionment.

He shall obey all orders of the board of health. He shall enforce all ordinances and regulations enacted by the common council, except as otherwise therein or in this charter provided.

It is his duty to see that all rules and regulations of the police department are enforced and carried out, and to temporarily commit any person charged with a criminal offense and to perform such other duties not inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

Charges against police officers.

Trials.

ment.

§ 133. If a charge is made by any person against any member of the police force that he is incompetent, or has been guilty of neglect of duty; misconduct in office or conduct unbecoming a police officer, the charge must be put in writing and a copy thereof served on the accused officer. It shall then be the duty of the mayor to hear, try and determine the charge. The accused officer shall have the right to be present at his trial, and to be heard in person and by counsel and give and furnish evidence in his defense. All trials shall be open to the public. The mayor shall have power to issue subpoenas, to compel the attendance of witnesses upon any proceeding authorized by the rules and regulations of the police department, and any person duly served with a subpoena is bound to attend in obedience to the command thereof; and the mayor shall have the same authority to enforce the subpoena, and to punish for disobedience thereof as is possessed by justices of the peace in like cases. If the accused officer shall be found guilty of the charge made against him, the mayor may order his suspension from pay for some definite time or impose upon him a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars or reduce his grade or dismiss him from the police force or subject him to any other discipline prescribed by the rules of the police department which is not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, or with the laws of the state. The decision of the mayor shall be final.

mayor in case of riot.

§ 134. In case of riot or insurrection, the mayor may take command of the whole police force, including the chief executive officer thereof, and he may for the occasion appoint and commission as many special policemen as he may deem necessary who shall have all the powers of regular members of the police force; and in case of riot or other extraordinary emergency he may order out the firemen and state military organization having its headquarters in the city to preserve the peace and protect life and property.

§ 135. No member of the police department is liable to military or jury duty, nor shall he hold any other office or be employed in any other department of the city government, except as deputy to the city clerk in the issuance of licenses. Police officers; exemptions, not to hold other office.

§ 136. Repealed.

§ 137. No member of the police force shall be a member of or delegate to any political convention, nor shall he be present at any such convention except in the performance of duty relating to his position as such officer. Any violation of these provisions shall work a forfeiture of his office or position, and it shall be the duty of the mayor to dismiss him from his position and record the cause of such dismissal. Police officers; not to take part in political convention.

in a case where injustice would otherwise be done and with the consent in writing of the owner, include the whole or any part of such residue in their report, together with a description of the same, and estimate separately the value thereof. Every such residue, which shall be so included, shall, upon the confirmation of the report and the payment of the amount at which the same shall be valued therein, vest in fee simple in the city and the council may sell the same, at a price not less than the sum at which it shall have been so valued, to the owner of adjacent lands; and if such owner shall not, upon reasonable notice to be determined by the council, elect to take the same at such price, it shall be sold at public auction, upon such notice as the council may prescribe to the highest bidder. In case the sale shall be for less than such estimated value, the deficiency shall be deemed a part of the general expense arising from the improvement, and shall be included in the estimate and assessment of the expense thereof, and upon such sale the proceeds shall be credited to each of the persons assessed in proportion to the amount of the respective assessment against each.

TITLE X.

WATER DEPARTMENT.

Rules and regulations for water works and water.

§ 176.⁴¹ The board of estimate and apportionment shall make such rules and regulations for the preservation, management and protection of the water works and the use and control of the water, as may be deemed advisable, and prescribe the penalty for the violation thereof, which penalty, if not paid when imposed, shall constitute a lien upon the premises in like manner as unpaid water rents, and which, when ratified and approved by the common council, shall have the same force and effect as any law or ordinance by it enacted, and may alter or amend the same with the approval of the common council.

Water rents.

§ 177.⁴² The said board of estimate and apportionment by and with the consent of the common council, shall establish a scale of annual rents to be charged and paid semi-annually, on May first and November first, by the owners and occupants of all buildings which shall be situated on lots adjoining any street or avenue in said city, in which the distributing pipes are or may be laid, and from which they can be supplied with water, to be called water-rents, and to be apportioned to the different classes of buildings in said city, in reference to their own dimensions, value, exposure to fire, ordinary uses for dwellings, stores, shops, private stables and other common purposes; number of families or occupants, or consumption of water, as near as may be practicable, also a scale of rates to be charged and paid monthly for water supplied through meters and the rates to be charged and paid for water used in the erection of new buildings, which amounts shall be paid on demand by the owner or occupant of the property upon which such water shall be consumed, and, from time to time, to alter, modify, amend, increase or diminish such rents in said scale, and extend it to other descriptions of buildings, establishments or uses.

§ 178.⁴³ The commissioner of public works shall determine the amount of water used by hotels, factories, stables, breweries, mills, foundries, and other buildings, establishments and trades, which consume extra quantities of water, and shall have power to attach a meter to any premises when deemed advisable and all expenses of meters, their connections, setting, repairing and all water rates, including schedule and meter rates, and all other lawful charges for city water supplied in any manner shall be a charge against the property where such water is supplied.

Meters where extra quantities of water used.

§ 179.⁴⁴ All water rents thus determined, together with all such expenses and charges, shall be payable to the city clerk as collector, and shall constitute a lien on the property upon which such water shall be used in like manner as city taxes. All moneys so collected shall be credited to the water department fund.

Water rents; payment, etc.

§ 180.⁴⁵ If the said city clerk and collector shall be unable to collect any of such water rents, he shall make return thereof, under oath, to the common council; and the commissioner of public works thereupon and thereafter said council shall have power to sue for and collect such rents, together with ten per centum thereon in addition thereto, from the persons against whom the same shall be charged in said assessment-roll as aforesaid. And the said water rents shall be liens upon the property in respect to which they are assessed, and shall be filed in the office of the city clerk and may be collected by a sale of such property in the manner hereinbefore provided for the collection of taxes and assessments for city purposes, and the said commissioner may also cut off the supply of water leading to the premises upon which such water rents are assessed, and prevent the further use of water from the water works of said city, until said rents, with interest and fees, be fully paid, and the charge to be fixed by the board of estimate and apportionment for shutting off and turning on the water to the occupant or occupants of said premises.

Water rents; collection by suit or sale of property.

§ 181.⁴⁶ The supply pipes leading from the buildings to the distributing pipes shall be inserted and kept in repair at the expense of the owners or occupants of the buildings, and shall not be inserted or connected with the main pipes until a permit therefor shall be obtained from the commissioner of public works or other person designated by him and all such connecting or supply pipes or fixtures shall be constructed under or according to the direction of said commissioner or his agent. The commissioner and every other person by him delegated for the purpose shall have free access at all reasonable hours to all parts of any building or premises into which the city water is delivered and consumed. He shall keep the property and works belonging to the city, and used and provided for the purpose of furnishing a supply of water, in good order and repair, and see that all proper measures are taken to preserve the purity of the water and a sufficient supply thereof. He shall, whenever the common council deems it advisable, cause the line of water pipes connected with such water works to be laid down and extended through any of the public streets, lanes or alleys, in said city, and shall superintend the laying down of the same. He shall keep a correct account of the expenses thereof, which shall be paid by the treasurer on the order of the said council, from the water department fund.

tax on property not paying
rents.

§ 182.⁴⁵ The common council is hereby authorized to levy and collect a frontage tax in each and every year on all unimproved real estate lying along or fronting on either side of any street or alley in which the water main is now laid, or may be hereafter laid, except in case of property along such mains using such water for which a rate is otherwise charged or paid, and also excepting corner lots where water pipes are laid or hereafter laid in both streets, in which cases the frontage tax shall be assessed only upon one street; said frontage tax shall be fixed by said common council, not to exceed in any one year two cents for each foot frontage, or fraction thereof, of any tracts or parcels of land lying along or fronting on either side of any such street or alley. The common council is hereby given power to levy a rate of taxation upon any improved property not using the city water where water mains are laid in the street as may in its judgment be deemed equitable and proper on account of the benefits such properties may derive from their protection against fire. Any tax so imposed or assessed upon any premises in said city shall become a lien upon such premises and bind the same in the same manner, and shall be enforced and collected in the same manner as other city taxes are now imposed and collected; and the moneys so collected shall be credited by the treasurer of said city to the said water department fund.

Application of receipts for water
rents.

§ 183. The entire annual receipts for water rents, after deducting therefrom such sums as may be necessary to defray the ordinary expenses or* repairs of said water works and of extending the same, and salaries of officers and employees, shall be applied to the payment of the interest on the debt contracted for furnishing the village or city of Middletown with water, and the interest on any debt that may be contracted under the provisions of this act, the balance if any, may be set apart as a sinking fund to retire any outstanding bonds.

the said debt; the common council shall cause to be levied and collected from and against all the taxable property in said city, at the same time and in the same manner as other expenses of the said city are assessed, levied and collected, such sum or sums of money as said council shall determine to be necessary to make good such deficiencies, and the sum shall be applied to the payment of such interest, and expenses.

§ 185. Repealed.

§ 186.⁴⁶ The common council and the commissioner of public works and their authorized agents or employees, are authorized to enter on any land or water for the purpose of making surveys of such property as they may deem necessary, for the enlargement, alteration or improvement of the water works.

Right of entry on lands.

§ 187.⁴⁶ The common council is hereby authorized to make agreement with any owner or owners of lands, lakes, ponds, springs or streams of water or other property which may be required for the enlargement, alteration or improvement of the water works of said city, or which may be injuriously affected thereby, as to the price to be paid to such owner or owners, and may buy in the name of the city of Middletown any such lands, lakes, ponds, springs or streams of water or other property which may be so required, or any easement in any lands, for the purposes aforesaid, and any such acquisition shall be held by the said city for the purposes of the water works.

Agreements for purchase of land, etc., for water works.

§ 188.⁴⁶ In case of disagreement between said council and the owner or owners of any lands, lakes, ponds, springs, easements, or streams of water or other property which may now or hereafter be required for the enlargement, alteration or improvement of said water works, as to the amount of compensation to be paid to such owner or owners, or in case any such owner shall be an infant, or insane, or absent from the state, or the owner of an uncertain or contingent interest, or in case of any other disability on the part of the owners the common council may direct that such property or easement be acquired by proceedings instituted for the condemnation thereof under the condemnation law, and the provisions of this act relating to title pending condemnation shall apply.

Condemnation proceedings.

§ 189. Repealed.

§ 192.⁴⁶ It shall be lawful for the common council to raise by loan, for the purpose of such enlargement, alteration and improvement of the water works of said city, as provided in this act, from time to time, upon bonds of the city of Middletown, such amounts as occasion may require, which bonds shall be in the form of and disposed of as those referred to in section seventy-eight of this act.

Bond issues for water works improvements.

§ 193. The common council is hereby authorized to borrow money and issue new bonds from time to time as provided in this act as the water bonds heretofore issued by the village or city of Middletown, or which may hereafter be issued by said city pursuant to this act shall respectively mature and fall due, to take up and replace, or as substitutes for said water bonds, provided said city has no further funds on hand when said bonds shall from time to time mature sufficient to pay the same.

Tax for sinking fund.

§ 194. For the purpose of creating and continuing a sinking fund for the payment of the water bonds heretofore issued by the village or city of Middletown, and also for the payment of the bonds herein authorized to be issued the common council of said city is hereby further authorized, empowered and required to impose, levy and assess upon the taxable property of said city a direct annual tax of two thousand dollars in each and every year hereafter, until a sufficient sum be thus raised to pay the entire principal of such bonded indebtedness of said village, and of said city, heretofore, and herein authorized.

§ 195. Repealed.

Application of sinking fund.

§ 196.⁴⁶ It shall be the duty of the board of estimate and apportionment to see that the proceeds of such annual tax and all moneys paid into the sinking fund are applied as soon as practicable to the payment and redemption of the water bonds of the city, and if there are no bonds on which payment can be made, it shall invest the same as provided in this act.

§ 201.⁴⁶ The said commissioner of public works, by order of the common council and all persons acting under his authority, shall have the right to use the ground or soil under any street, highway or road within the town of Wallkill and adjoining towns, for the purpose of introducing water into and through any portion of the city of Middletown, on condition that he shall cause the surface of said street, highway or road to be relaid and restored to its usual state, and all damages done thereto to be repaired.

TITLE XI.

COMMISSIONERS OF CHARITIES.

Commissioner of charities;
qualifications.

§ 204.⁴⁷ The commissioner of charities shall be a graduate of some school of philanthropy, or shall possess a training or equipment which, in the judgment of the mayor and common council, is equivalent thereto, preferably a woman, who shall be under the supervision of the mayor and common council.

Powers and duties.

§ 205.⁴⁷ The commissioner of charities shall have the general care, management and supervision of the charities, hospitals and charitable institutions of any nature, the control or government of which belongs to or is entrusted with the city and such institutions as shall receive from the commissioner or the city public moneys in support of the poor or indigent or the charities of the city; he shall institute and prosecute all actions and proceedings authorized by law to compel any persons liable for the care, maintenance, education or support of any destitute or dependent person or one liable to become dependent, to contribute thereto, and to indemnify the city against any expenditure on account thereof; and shall prosecute all bonds, undertakings or recognizances given for purposes mentioned in this section or relating thereto. He shall investigate fully the circumstances of all persons alleged to be destitute, or without proper means of support, or without proper guardianship, or who are in danger of becoming or are a public burden in any respect, and also the circumstances of their relatives or other person, whose duty it is to relieve or maintain them, or contribute to their support; and shall investigate and as far as possible ascertain what aid or assistance, if any, such persons have received or are receiving from any individual or any charitable or philanthropic organization. He shall have the power to examine under oath any person applying for relief, and may take proof and testimony in respect of his right thereto, or any matter pertaining to the duties of his office. He shall make inquiries and as far as possible ascertain all parties and persons in the said city or vicinity desiring to engage laborers or employees, and shall keep a register thereof, and so far as practicable assist all persons applying to him for aid and who are alleged to be destitute or without proper means of support or without proper guardianship or who are in danger of becoming, or are, a public burden in any respect, in finding employment. The said commissioner shall make inquiries and investigations concerning all charitable and philanthropic organizations engaged in charitable and philanthropic work in said city and making appeals for public funds. He shall keep books or records in which shall be entered the name, age, sex and native country of every person who shall be relieved or supported by him, together with a statement of the time, place and nature of such relief and of the causes which shall have operated to render such relief necessary, so far as can be ascertained. He shall also enter upon such books or records a statement of the name and age, and of the names and residence of the parents of every child placed by him in a family, with the name and address of the family with whom such child is placed, and the occupation of the head of the family. He shall also keep a record of all moneys received by him, when and from whom and for what account and of all moneys paid out by him, when and to whom and the purpose of such expenditure; also a statement of all debts contracted by him, the names of the persons with whom such debts were contracted, the amount and consideration of each item, the names of the persons for whose benefit the debts were contracted, and the time and manner of payment. He shall also furnish each month to the mayor and common council a verified statement, comprising the above items, and showing whatever moneys may be in his hands. No bill, claim or account for care, support, supplies or attendance furnished a poor person by order of the commissioner shall be audited or allowed, unless such bill, claim or account be veri-

All of the books of accounts and expenditures of the said commissioner shall at all times be open to inspection by the public and to all persons and organizations engaged in philanthropic or charitable work in said city, and the said commissioner shall from time to time upon request furnish to any such person or organization any information in his possession which said commissioner shall deem proper which will assist such person or organization in carrying on such work.

To have powers and duties of overseers of poor. The commissioner of charities shall, in addition thereto, possess all the powers and authority and perform all the duties and be subject to all the liabilities and obligations of an overseer of the poor in the several towns in the county of Orange.

Disposition of moneys received. All moneys received in any suit, action or proceeding or otherwise paid to or received by said commissioner by virtue of his office shall be deposited by him with the city clerk.

City owner of supplies for poor. § 206. The city shall continue to be the owner of supplies, furnished to any poor person or applicant for relief, until the same are consumed. If any person to whom the same shall be furnished shall sell or exchange the same for money or intoxicating liquors, or in any way dispose of the same other than in the manner directed, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Saving clause. § 207. Nothing contained in this title shall be deemed to make the city liable for the support or relief of a poor person when it is not otherwise so liable.

City physician. § 208. The city physician shall perform such duties with respect to giving medical attention and care to the poor of the city as the commissioner of charities may direct, or as the council may by ordinance require. Amounts incurred or paid by him for medicine used in the performance of such duties, shall be audited and paid only in the manner provided by this act.

§ 209. Repealed.

TITLE XII.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Board of health. § 210.⁴⁸ The board of health of said city shall be created and its members appointed for the several terms as provided by the statutes and laws of this state now in force as to cities as to the appointment of such boards, except such cities as are expressly exempt from the operations of such statutes and laws. No member of the board of health shall receive any compensation.

Powers. § 211. The board of health shall have power and it shall be its duty, subject to the provisions of this act:

a. To enforce the public health law within the city;

b. To abate all nuisances detrimental to the public health or dangerous to human life, by action at law or in equity in the name of the city, or without action as a natural person may do;

⁴⁸ Previously amended by L. 1911, ch. 699.

c. To enforce and to aid in the enforcement of all laws of the state relative to the preservation of human life, or to the care, promotion or protection of life;

d. To cause the vacation of any building which is unfit for human habitation or dangerous to life or health;

e. To enforce all laws relative to the use or sale of poisonous, unwholesome, deleterious or adulterated drugs, medicines or food;

f. To take all steps necessary to the sanitary supervision and protection of the water supply of the city, and the sources thereof;

g. To use all reasonable means for ascertaining the existence and cause of disease or peril to life or health, and for averting the same;

h. To send promptly all proper information in its possession to the health authorities of the state and of any division thereof who may request the same;

i. To gather such information and preserve such record of facts relating to births, deaths, disease and health as may be useful in the discharge of its duties, and as may tend to public welfare and the promotion of health or the security of life;

j. To order and enforce the repairing of buildings, structures and houses, when necessary for the public health;

k. To remove or cause to be removed to a proper place designated by it any person sick with a contagious, pestilential or infectious disease, and to designate, provide and pay for the use of places for such purposes;

l. To erect, establish, maintain and furnish, in such places within the city as are now used or may hereafter be designated by the board of estimate and apportionment for such purposes, buildings and hospitals for the care and treatment of persons sick with contagious diseases;

m. To take possession of and occupy for temporary hospitals any buildings in the city during the prevalence of an epidemic, if in the judgment of the board the same are required, and to pay a just compensation for property so taken;

n. To cause proper care and attendance to be given to any sick person, when it shall appear to the department that the public health requires such person to receive special medical care and attendance;

o. To add to, revise, alter or amend the sanitary code of the city in force at the time this act takes effect;

p. To require reports and information of such facts as it may desire relative to the safety of life and promotion of health, at such times and in such form as it may prescribe from hospitals, jails and schools, and from the managers, principals and officers thereof; and from all other public institutions, their officers and managers; and from the proprietors, managers, lessees and occupants of all theatres, and other places of public resort or amusement, within the jurisdiction of the city;

q. To forbid, and adopt means to prevent, communication with or access to any person, family, house, street or part of the city infected with any contagious, infectious or pestilential disease; but physicians, nurses or messengers may carry advice, medicines and necessities to the afflicted.

r. To enforce the laws of the state and the ordinances of the city relating to the securing and destruction of unlicensed and dangerous dogs and other animals;

s. To inspect all public schools; and such board of health shall possess the powers and be subject to the same duties and liabilities as provided by the said statutes and laws of the acts of the legislature of said state of New York now in force, in relation to the preservation of the public health and boards of health of the cities in this state, except said cities which are expressly excluded through the operation of the said acts.

Employment as a keeper, guard, nurse or orderly in a prison, reformatory, insane asylum or hospital maintained or operated by the state or a municipal corporation or other subdivision thereof, notwithstanding the definitions of the terms "employment," "employer" or "employee" in subdivisions three, four and five of section two of this chapter.

Group 16. Employment as a district forest ranger, forest ranger, observer, chief railroad inspector, game protector, inspector, forester, land appraiser, surveyor, assistant on survey, engineer, or assistant on construction work, by the state, notwithstanding the definitions of the terms "employment," "employer" or "employee" in subdivisions three, four and five of section two of this chapter.

Group 17. Any employment enumerated in the foregoing groups and carried on by the state or a municipal corporation or other subdivision thereof, notwithstanding the definition of the term "employment" in subdivision five of section two of this chapter.

Group 18. All other employments not hereinbefore enumerated carried on by any person, firm or corporation in which there are engaged or employed four or more workmen or operatives regularly, in the same business or in or about the same establishment either upon the premises or at the plant or away from the plant of the employer, under any contract of hire, express or implied, oral or written, except farm laborers and domestic servants.

Group 19. An employer may bring an employment that is not listed in this section within the coverage of this chapter by securing compensation to his employee or employees engaged in such employment in accordance with section fifty of this chapter.

Any employee in the service of such employer shall be deemed to have accepted, and shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter, and any act amendatory thereof, if at the time of the accident for which liability is claimed the employee shall not at the time of entering into his contract of hire have given to his employer notice in writing that he elects not to be subject to the provisions of this chapter and filed a copy thereof with the commissioner, or in the event that such contract of hire was made in advance of election of the employer, such employee shall not have given to his employer and filed with the commissioner, within twenty days after such election, notice in writing that he elects not to be subject to such provisions. A minor employee shall be deemed sui juris for the purpose of making such an election.

2. Occupational diseases. Compensation shall be payable for disabilities sustained or death incurred by an employee resulting from the following occupational diseases:

30. Revenues or benefits from other sources not to affect compensation.
31. Agreement for contribution by employee void.
32. Waiver agreements void.
33. Assignments; exemptions.
34. Preferences.

§ 10. Liability for compensation. Every employer subject to this chapter shall in accordance with this chapter secure compensation to his employees and pay or provide compensation for their disability or death from injury arising out of and in the course of the employment, without regard to fault as a cause of the injury, except that there shall be no liability for compensation under this chapter when the injury has been solely occasioned by intoxication of the injured employee while on duty or by willful intention of the injured employee to bring about the injury or death of himself or another.

§ 11. Alternative remedy. The liability of an employer prescribed by the last preceding section shall be exclusive and in place of any other liability whatsoever, to such employee, his personal representatives, husband, parents, dependents or next of kin, or anyone otherwise entitled to recover damages, at common law or otherwise on account of such injury or death, except that if an employer fail to secure the payment of compensation for his injured employees and their dependents as provided in section fifty of this chapter, an injured employee, or his legal representative in case death results from the injury, may, at his option, elect to claim compensation under this chapter, or to maintain an action in the courts for damages on account of such injury; and in such an action it shall not be necessary to plead or prove freedom from contributory negligence nor may the defendant plead as a defense that the injury was caused by the negligence of a fellow servant nor that the employee assumed the risk of his employment, nor that the injury was due to the contributory negligence of the employee.

§ 12. Compensation not allowed for first two weeks. No compensation shall be allowed for the first fourteen days of disability, except the benefits provided for in section thirteen of this chapter, provided, however, that in case the injury results in disability of more than forty-nine days the compensation shall be allowed from the date of the disability.

§ 13. Treatment and care of injured employees. The employer shall promptly provide for an injured employee such medical, surgical or other attendance or treatment, nurse and hospital service, medicine, crutches and apparatus for such period as the nature of the injury or the process of recovery may require. If the employer fail to provide the same, after request by the injured employee such injured employee may do so at the expense of the employer. The employee shall not be entitled to recover any amount expended by him for such treatment or services unless he shall have requested the employer to furnish the same and the employer shall have refused or neglected to do so, or unless the nature of the injury required such treatment and services and the employer or his superintendent or foreman having knowledge of such injury shall have neglected to provide the same; nor shall any claim for medical or surgical treatment be valid and enforceable, as against such employer, unless within twenty days following the first treatment, the physician giving such treatment, furnish to the employer and the industrial commissioner a report of such injury and treatment, on a form prescribed by the industrial commissioner. All fees and other charges for such treatment and services shall be subject to regulation by the commissioner as provided in section twenty-four of this chapter, and shall be limited to such charges as prevail in the same community for similar treatment of injured persons of a like standard of living.

§ 14. Weekly wages basis of compensation. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, the average weekly wages of the injured employee at the time of the injury shall be taken as the basis upon which to compute compensation or death benefits, and shall be determined as follows:

1. If the injured employee shall have worked in the employment in which he was working at the time of the accident, whether for the same employer or not, during substantially the whole of the year immediately preceding his injury, his average annual earnings shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which he shall have earned in such employment during the days when so employed;

2. If the injured employee shall not have worked in such employment during substantially the whole of such year, his average annual earnings shall consist of three hundred times the average daily wage or salary which an employee of the same class working substantially the whole of such immediately preceding year in the same or in a similar employment in the same or a neighboring place shall have earned in such employment during the days when so employed;

3. If either of the foregoing methods of arriving at the annual average earnings of an injured employee cannot reasonably and fairly be applied, such annual earnings shall be such sum as, having regard to the previous earnings of the injured employee and of other employees of the same or most similar class, working in the same or most similar employment in the same or neighboring locality, shall reasonably represent the annual earning capacity of the injured employee in the employment in which he was working at the time of the accident;

4. The average weekly wages of an employee shall be one-fifty-second part of his average annual earnings;

5. If it be established that the injured employee was a minor when injured, and that under normal conditions his wages would be expected to increase, the fact may be considered in arriving at his average weekly wages.

§ 15. Schedule in case of disability. The following schedule of compensation is hereby established:

1. Permanent total disability. In case of total disability adjudged to be permanent sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average weekly wages shall be paid to the employee during the continuance of such total disability. Loss of both hands, or both arms, or both feet, or both legs, or both eyes, or of any two thereof shall, in the absence of conclusive proof to the contrary, constitute permanent total disability. In all other cases permanent total disability shall be determined in accordance with the facts.

2. Temporary total disability. In case of temporary total disability, sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average weekly wages shall be paid to the employee during the continuance thereof, but not in excess of three thousand five hundred dollars, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

3. Permanent partial disability. In case of disability partial in character but permanent in quality the compensation shall be sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average weekly wages and shall be paid to the employee for the period named in this subdivision, as follows:

Member lost	Number of weeks' compensation	Member lost	Number of weeks' compensation
a. Arm	312	g. First finger	46
b. Leg	288	h. Great toe	38
c. Hand	244	i. Second finger	30
d. Foot	205	j. Third finger	25
e. Eye	128	k. Toe other than great toe	16
f. Thumb	60	l. Fourth finger	15

m. Loss of hearing. Compensation for loss of the hearing of both ears, for one hundred and fifty weeks.

n. Phalanges. Compensation for the loss of more than one phalange of a digit shall be the same as for loss of the entire digit. Compensation for loss of the first phalange shall be one-half of the compensation for loss of the entire digit.

o. Amputated arm or leg. Compensation for an arm or a leg, if amputated at or above the elbow or the knee, shall be the same as for loss of the arm or leg; but, if amputated between the elbow and the wrist or the knee and the ankle, shall be the same as for loss of a hand or foot.

p. Binocular vision or per centum of vision. Compensation for loss of binocular vision or for eighty per centum or more of the vision of an eye shall be the same as for loss of the eye.

q. Two or more digits. Compensation for loss of two or more digits, or one or more phalanges of two or more digits, of a hand or foot may be proportioned to the loss of use of the hand or foot occasioned thereby but shall not exceed the compensation for loss of a hand or foot.

r. Total loss of use. Compensation for permanent total loss of use of a member shall be the same as for loss of the member.

s. Partial loss or partial loss of use. Compensation for permanent partial loss or loss of use of a member may be for proportionate loss or loss of use of the member.

t. Disfigurement. The board may award proper and equitable compensation for serious facial or head disfigurement, not to exceed three thousand five hundred dollars.

u. Other cases. In all other cases in this class of disability, the compensation shall be sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the difference between his average weekly wages and his wage-earning capacity thereafter in the same employment or otherwise, payable during the continuance of such partial disability, but subject to reconsideration of the degree of such impairment by the board on its own motion or upon application of any party in interest.

4. Effect of award. An award made to a claimant under subdivision three shall in case of death arising from causes other than the injury be payable to and for the benefit of the persons following:

a. If there be a surviving wife (or dependent husband) and no child of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, to such wife (or dependent husband.)

b. If there be a surviving wife (or dependent husband) and surviving child or children of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, one-half shall be payable to the surviving wife (or dependent husband) and the other half to the surviving child or children.

The board may in its discretion require the appointment of a guardian for the purpose of receiving the compensation of the minor child. In the absence of such a requirement by the board the appointment for such a purpose shall not be necessary.

c. If there be a surviving child or children of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, but no surviving wife (or dependent husband) then to such child or children.

An award for disability may be made after the death of the injured employee.

5. Temporary partial disability. In case of temporary partial disability resulting in decrease of earning capacity, the compensation shall be two-thirds of the difference between the injured employee's average weekly wages before the accident and his wage earning capacity after the accident in the same or another employment but shall not exceed in total three thousand five hundred dollars.

6. Maximum and minimum compensation for disability. Compensation for disability shall not exceed twenty dollars per week nor be less than eight dollars per week; provided, however, that if the employee's wages at the time of injury are less than eight dollars per week, he shall receive his full weekly wages.

7. Previous disability. The fact that an employee has suffered previous disability or received compensation therefor shall not preclude him from compensation for a later injury nor preclude compensation for death resulting therefrom; but in determining compensation for the later injury or death his average weekly wages shall be such sum as will reasonably represent his earning capacity at the time of the later injury, provided, however, that an employee who is suffering from a previous disability shall not receive compensation for a later injury in excess of the compensation allowed for such injury when considered by itself and not in conjunction with the previous disability.

8. Permanent total disability after permanent partial disability. If an employee who has previously incurred permanent partial disability through the loss of one hand, one arm, one foot, one leg, or one eye, incurs permanent total disability through the loss of another member or organ, he shall be paid, in addition to the compensation for permanent partial disability provided in this section and after the cessation of the payments for the prescribed period of weeks special additional compensation for the remainder of his life to the amount of sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average weekly wage earned by him at the time the total permanent disability was incurred. Such additional compensation shall be paid out of a special fund created for such purpose in the following manner: The insurance carrier shall pay to the state treasurer for every case of injury causing death in which there are no persons entitled to compensation the sum of five hundred dollars. The state treasurer shall be the custodian of this special fund, and the commissioner shall direct the distribution thereof.

9. Maintenance for employees undergoing vocational rehabilitation. An employee, who as a result of injury is or may be expected to be totally or partially incapacitated for a remunerative occupation and who, under the direction of the state board of vocational education is being rendered fit to engage in a remunerative occupation, shall receive additional compensation necessary for his maintenance; but such additional compensation shall not exceed ten dollars a week. The expense shall be paid out of a special fund created in the following manner: The insurance carrier shall pay to the state treasurer for every case of injury causing death, in which there are no persons entitled to compensation, the sum of five hundred dollars. The state treasurer shall be the custodian of this special fund and the industrial commissioner shall direct the distribution thereof.

§ 16. Death benefits. If the injury causes death, the compensation shall be known as a death benefit and shall be payable in the amount and to or for the benefit of the persons following:

1. Reasonable funeral expenses not exceeding one hundred dollars;

2. If there be a surviving wife (or dependent husband) and no child of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, to such wife (or dependent husband) thirty per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood (or dependent widowerhood) with two years' compensation in one sum, upon remarriage; and if there be a surviving child or children of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, the additional amount of ten per centum of such wages for each such child until of the age of eighteen years; in case of the subsequent death or remarriage of such surviving wife (or dependent husband) any surviving child of the deceased employee, at the time under eighteen years of age, shall have his compensation increased to fifteen per centum of such wages, and the same shall be payable until he shall reach the age of eighteen years; provided that the total amount payable shall in no case exceed sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages. The board may in its discretion require the appointment of a guardian for the purpose of receiving the compensation of a minor child. In the absence of such a requirement by the board the appointment of a guardian for such purposes shall not be necessary.

3. If there be a surviving child or children of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, but no surviving wife (or dependent husband) then for the support of each such child until of the age of eighteen years, fifteen per centum of the wages of the deceased, provided that the aggregate shall in no case exceed sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages.

4. If there be no surviving wife (or dependent husband) or child under the age of eighteen years or if the amount payable to surviving wife (or dependent husband) and to children under the age of eighteen years shall be less in the aggregate than sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average wages of the deceased, then for the support of grandchildren or brothers and sisters under the age of eighteen years, if dependent upon the deceased at the time of the accident, fifteen per centum of such wages for the support of each such person until of the age of eighteen years; and for the support of each parent, or grandparent, of the deceased if dependent upon him at the time of the accident, twenty-five per centum of such wages during such dependency. But in no case shall the aggregate amount payable under this subdivision exceed the difference between sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages, and the amount payable as hereinbefore provided to surviving wife (or dependent husband) or for the support of surviving child or children.

5. Any excess of wages over one hundred and twenty-five dollars a month shall not be taken into account in computing compensation under this section. All questions of dependency shall be determined as of the time of the accident.

§ 17. Aliens. Compensation under this chapter to aliens not residents (or about to become nonresidents) of the United States or Canada, shall be the same in amount as provided for residents, except that dependents in any foreign country shall be limited to surviving wife and child or children, or, if there be no surviving wife or child or children, to surviving father or mother whom the employee has supported, either wholly or in part, for the period of one year prior to the date of the accident, and except that the commission may, at its option, or upon the application of the insurance carrier, shall, commute all future installments of compensation to be paid to such aliens, by paying or causing to be paid to them one-half of the commuted amount of such future installments of compensation as determined by the commission.

§ 18. Notice of injury. Notice of an injury for which compensation is payable under this chapter shall be given to the commissioner and to the employer within thirty days after the accident causing such injury, and also in case of the death of the employee resulting from such injury, within thirty days after such death. Such notice may be given by any person claiming to be entitled to compensation, or by some one in his behalf. The notice shall be in writing, and contain the name and address of the employee, and state in ordinary language the time, place, nature and cause of the injury, and be signed by him or by a person on his behalf or, in case of death, by any one or more of his dependents, or by a person on their behalf. It shall be given to the commissioner by sending it by mail, by registered letter, addressed to the commissioner at his office. It shall be given to the employer by delivering it to him or sending it by mail, by registered letter, addressed to the employer at his or its last known place of business; provided that, if the employer be a partnership then such notice may be so given to any one of the partners, and if the employer be a corporation, then such notice may be given to any agent or officer thereof upon whom legal process may be served, or any agent in charge of the business in the place where the injury occurred. The failure to give notice of injury or notice of death unless excused by the board either on the ground that notice for some sufficient reason could not have been given, or on the ground that the employer, or his or its agents in charge of the business in the place where the accident occurred or having immediate supervision of the employee to whom the accident happened, had knowledge of the accident, or on the ground that the employer has not been prejudiced thereby, shall be a bar to any claim under this chapter, but the employer and the insurance carrier shall be deemed to have waived such notice unless the objection to the failure to give such notice or the insufficiency thereof, is raised before the board on the hearing of the claim filed by such injured employee, or his or her dependents.

§ 19. Physical examination. An injured employee claiming or entitled to compensation shall submit to such physical examination as the commissioner or the board may require. The place or places shall be reasonably convenient for him. Such physician or physicians as the employee or carrier may select and pay for may participate in an examination if the employee or carrier so requests. Proceedings shall be suspended and no compensation be payable for any period during which he may refuse to submit to examination.

§ 20. Determination of claims for compensation. At any time after the expiration of the first fourteen days of disability on the part of an injured employee, or at any time after his death, a claim for compensation may be presented to the employer or to the commissioner. The board shall have full power and authority to determine all questions in relation to the payment of claims presented to it for compensation under the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner or board shall make or cause to be made such investigation as it deems necessary, and upon application of either party, shall order a hearing, and within thirty days after a claim for compensation is submitted under this section, or such hearing closed, shall make or deny an award, determining such claim for compensation, and file the same in the office of the department. Immediately after such filing the commissioner shall send to the parties a copy of the decision. Upon a hearing pursuant to this section either party may present evidence and be represented by counsel. The decision of the board shall be final as to all questions of fact, and, except as provided in section twenty-three, as to all questions of law.

§ 21. Presumptions. In any proceeding for the enforcement of a claim for compensation under this chapter, it shall be presumed in the absence of substantial evidence to the contrary

1. That the claim comes within the provision of this chapter;
2. That sufficient notice thereof was given;
3. That the injury was not occasioned by the willful intention of the injured employee to bring about the injury or death of himself or of another;
4. That the injury did not result solely from the intoxication of the injured employee while on duty.

§ 22. Modification of award. Upon its own motion or upon the application of any party in interest, on the ground of a change in conditions, the board may at any time review any award, decision or order and, on such review, may make an award ending, diminishing or increasing the compensation previously awarded, subject to the maximum or minimum provided in this chapter, and shall state its conclusions of fact and rulings of law, and shall immediately send to the parties a copy of the award. No such review shall affect such award as regards any moneys already paid, except that an award for increased wages under subdivision five of section fourteen may be made effective from date of injury.

§ 23. Appeals. An award or decision of the board shall be final and conclusive upon all questions within its jurisdiction, as against the state fund or between the parties, unless reversed or modified on appeal therefrom as hereinafter provided. Within thirty days after notice of the filing of the award or the decision of the board has been sent to the parties an appeal may be taken to the appellate division of the supreme court, third department, from such award or decision by any party in interest including an employer insured in the state fund. If notice of such appeal is served upon the board, the board shall within thirty days thereafter serve upon the parties in interest and file its findings of fact and rulings of law in such case. The board may also, in its discretion certify to such appellate division of the supreme court, questions of law involved in its decision. Such appeals and the questions so certified shall be heard in a summary manner and shall have precedence over all other civil cases in such court. The board shall be deemed a party to every such appeal, and the attorney-general, without extra compensation, shall represent the board thereon. An appeal may also be taken to the court of appeals in all cases where the decision of the appellate division is not unanimous and by the consent of the appellate division or the court of appeals where the decision of the appellate division is unanimous in the same manner and subject to the same limitations not inconsistent herewith as is now provided in civil actions. It shall not be necessary to file exceptions to the rulings of the board. Neither the commissioner, the board nor the claimant shall be required to file a bond upon an appeal to the court of appeals. Otherwise such appeals shall be subject to the law and practice applicable to appeals in civil actions. Upon final determination of such an appeal, the board shall enter an order in accordance therewith.

Claims of attorneys and counselors-at-law for legal services in connection with any claim arising under this chapter, and claims for services or treatment rendered or supplies furnished pursuant to section thirteen of this chapter, shall not be enforceable unless approved by the board. If so approved, such claim or claims shall become a lien upon the compensation awarded, but shall be paid therefrom only in the manner fixed by the board. Any other person, firm or corporation who shall exact or receive fee or gratuity for any services, rendered on behalf of a claimant except in an amount determined by the board, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person, firm or corporation who shall solicit the business of appearing before the board on behalf of a claimant, or who shall make it a business to solicit employment for a lawyer in connection with any claim for compensation under this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. In case an award is affirmed upon an appeal to the appellate division, the same shall be payable with interest thereon from the date when said award was made by the board.

§ 25. Compensation, how payable. The compensation herein provided for shall be paid periodically and promptly in like manner as wages, and as it accrues, and directly to the person entitled thereto without waiting for an award by the industrial board, except in those cases in which the right to compensation is controverted by the employer. The first payment of compensation shall become due on the twenty-first day of disability, on which date or within four days thereafter all compensation then due shall be paid, and the compensation payable bi-weekly thereafter; but the industrial board may determine that any payments may be made monthly or at any other period, as it may deem advisable. If the employer or insurance carrier does not controvert the injured workman's right to compensation such employer or insurance carrier shall, either on or before the twenty-fifth day after disability, or within fifteen days after the employer first has knowledge of the alleged accident, begin paying compensation and shall immediately notify the commissioner in accordance with a form to be prescribed by him, that the payment of compensation has begun, accompanied by the further statement that the employer or insurance carrier, as the case may be, will notify the commissioner when the payment of compensation has been stopped. Immediately upon the stoppage or suspension of payments of compensation the employer or insurance carrier shall notify the commissioner of such act on a form to be prescribed by him. In case the employer decides to controvert the right to compensation he shall, either on or before the twenty-fifth day of disability or within ten days after he has knowledge of the alleged accident, file a notice with the commissioner, on a form prescribed by him, that compensation is not being paid, giving the name of the claimant, name of the employer, date of the alleged accident and the reason why compensation is not being paid. The commissioner may in the interest of justice at any time refer a case in which payments are being made as above to the industrial board for a hearing, and shall immediately upon receipt of notice from the injured workman, from the employer, or from the insurance carrier that the employee's right to compensation is controverted, or that payments of compensation have stopped or been suspended, make such investigations, or cause such medical examinations to be made, or refer the case for such hearings, as will properly protect the rights of both parties, either as to any compensation then due or as to any compensation that may become due in the future for temporary or permanent disability, and promptly cause the resumption of payments in case the injured person is entitled thereto. If the employer or insurance carrier shall fail to pay any instalment of compensation within twenty-five days after the same becomes due, there shall be paid by the employer or, if insured, his insurance carrier, an additional amount of ten per centum of the compensation then due which shall accrue for the benefit of the injured workman or his dependents and shall be paid to him or them with the compensation, unless such delay or default is excused by the industrial board upon the application of the employer or insurance carrier upon the ground that owing to conditions over which the employer or insurance carrier had no control, such payment could not be made. Nothing herein shall limit the right of the industrial board in a particular case to hold a hearing and make an award in accordance with other provisions of this chapter. No case shall be closed without notice to all parties interested and without giving to all such parties an opportunity to be heard. If the employer has made advance payments of compensation, he shall be entitled to be reimbursed out of an unpaid instalment or instalments of compensation due, provided his claim for reimbursement is filed before compensation is paid. An injured employee, or in case of death his dependents or personal representative, shall give receipts for payment of compensation to the employer paying the same and such employer shall produce the same for inspection by the commissioner, whenever required. If the employer or his insurance carrier shall fail to make payments of compensation according to the terms of the award, within ten days thereafter, except in case of an appeal there shall be imposed a penalty equal to twenty per centum of the unpaid compensation which shall accrue to the benefit of the injured workman or his dependents and shall be paid to him or them. When the final payment is made or due the employer or his insurance carrier shall within sixteen days send to the commissioner a notice on a form prescribed by the commissioner that such final payment is due or has been made fulfilling completely the terms of the award, which notice shall contain the name of the injured employee or his principal dependent, the date of accident, the date to which compensation has been paid and the whole amount of compensation paid, and in case the employer or his insurance carrier fail so to notify the commissioner of the cessation of payments within sixteen days after the date to which compensation is due or has been paid, the commissioner shall assess against such employer or his insurance carrier the sum of one hundred dollars, one-half of which shall be paid into the special fund created under favor of numbered paragraph eight of section fifteen herein and one-half of which shall be paid into the state treasury and be applicable to the expenses of the department. Whenever the commissioner may deem it advisable he may require any employer or insurance carrier to make a deposit with the commissioner to secure the prompt and convenient payment of such compensation, and the commissioner shall have power to make payments therefrom upon any awards. The industrial board, whenever it shall so deem advisable, may commute such periodical payments to one or more lump sum payments to the injured employee, or, in case of death, his dependents, provided the same shall be in the interests of justice. Such commutation shall be made according to the method prescribed in section twenty-seven of this chapter.

§ 26. Enforcement of payment in default. In case of default by the employer in the payment of any compensation due under an award for the period of thirty days after payment is due and payable, or, where the employer has failed to secure the payment of compensation to his employees as required by section fifty hereof where there is such default in payment for a period of ten days after same is due, any party in interest may file with the county clerk for the county in which the injury occurred, or the county in which the employer has his principal place of business, a certified copy of a decision of the state industrial board awarding compensation, or ending, diminishing or increasing compensation previously awarded, from which no appeal has been taken within the time allowed therefor, or if an appeal has been taken by an employer who has not complied with the provisions of section fifty hereof, where he fails to deposit with the commissioner the amount of the award as security for its payment within ten days after same is due and payable, and thereupon judgment must be entered in the supreme court by the clerk of such county in conformity therewith immediately upon the filing of such decision. If the payment in default be an instalment, the commissioner may declare the entire award due and judgment may be entered in accordance with the provisions of this section. Such judgment shall be entered in the same manner, have the same effect and be subject to the same proceedings as though rendered in a suit duly heard and determined by the supreme court, except that no appeal may be taken therefrom. The court shall vacate or modify such judgment to conform to any later award or decision of the board upon presentation of a certified copy of such award or decision. The award may be so compromised by the board as in the discretion of the board may best serve the interest of the persons entitled to receive the compensation or benefits. Neither the commissioner nor any party in interest shall be required to pay any fee to any public officer for filing or recording any paper or instrument executed in pursuance of this section.

§ 27. Depositing future payments. If an award under this chapter requires payment of death benefits or other compensation by an insurance carrier or employer in periodical payments, the board may, in its discretion, at any time, any provision of this chapter to the contrary notwithstanding, compute and permit or require to be paid into the state fund an amount equal to the present value of all unpaid death benefits or other compensation in cases in which awards are made for total permanent or permanent partial disability for a period of one hundred and four weeks or more, for which liability exists, together with such additional sum as the board may deem necessary for a proportionate payment of expenses of administering the fund so created. The moneys so paid in for all death benefits or other compensation to constitute one aggregate and indivisible fund; and thereupon such employer or insurance carrier shall be discharged from any further liability under such award and payment of the same as provided by this chapter shall be assumed by the special fund so created. All computations made by the board shall be upon the basis of the survivorship annuitants table of mortality, the remarriage tables of the Dutch Royal Insurance Institution and interest at three and one-half per centum per annum.

Such special fund shall be kept separate and apart from all other moneys of the state fund, and shall not be liable for any losses or expenses of administration of the state fund other than the expenses involved in the administration of such special fund, nor shall the state fund be charged with the losses or expenses of the aggregate special fund beyond the amount of such special fund.

Any portion of such special fund may be invested by the commissioner, with the approval of the superintendent of insurance, in the same securities as provided in this chapter for the investment of the state insurance fund.

§ 28. Limitation of right to compensation. The right to claim compensation under this chapter shall be barred unless within one year after the accident, or if death results therefrom, within one year after such death, a claim for compensation shall be filed with the commissioner, but the employer and insurance carrier shall be deemed to have waived the bar of the statute unless the objection to the failure to file the claim within one year is raised on the hearing on such claim. No case in which an advance payment is made shall be barred by the failure of the employee to file a claim, and the board may at any time order a hearing on any such case in the same manner as though a claim for compensation had been filed.

§ 29. Subrogation to remedies of employees. If an employee entitled to compensation under this chapter be injured or killed by the negligence or wrong of another not in the same employ, such injured employee, or in case of death, his dependents, shall, before any suit or any award under this chapter, elect whether to take compensation under this chapter or to pursue his remedy against such other. Such election shall be evidenced in such manner as the commissioner may by regulation prescribe. If such injured employee, or in case of death, his dependents, elect to take compensation under this chapter, the awarding of compensation shall operate as an assignment of the cause of action against such other to the state for the benefit of the state insurance fund, if compensation be payable therefrom, and otherwise to the person, association, corporation, or insurance carrier liable for the payment of such compensation, and if he elect to proceed against such other, the state insurance fund, person, association, corporation, or insurance carrier, as the case may be, shall contribute only the deficiency, if any, between the amount of the recovery against such other person actually collected, and the compensation provided or estimated by this chapter for such case. In case of the payment of an award to the state treasurer in accordance with subdivisions nine and ten of section fifteen such payment shall operate to give to the employer or insurance carrier liable for the award a cause of action for the amount of such payment together with the reasonable funeral expenses and the expense of medical treatment which shall be in addition to any cause of action by the legal representatives of the deceased. Such a cause of action assigned to the state may be prosecuted or compromised by the commissioner. A compromise of any such cause of action by the employee or his dependents at an amount less than the compensation provided for by this chapter shall be made only with the written approval of the commissioner, if the deficiency of compensation would be payable from the state insurance fund, and otherwise with the written approval of the person, association, corporation, or insurance carrier liable to pay the same. Wherever an employee is killed by the negligence or wrong of another not in the same employ and the dependents of such employee entitled to compensation under this chapter are minors, such election to take compensation and the assignment of the cause of action against such other and such notice of election to pursue a remedy against such other shall be made by such minor, or shall be made on behalf of such minor by a parent of such minor, or by his or her duly appointed guardian, as the board may determine in each case.

§ 30. Revenues or benefits from other sources not to affect compensation. No benefits, savings or insurance of the injured employee, independent of the provisions of this chapter, shall be considered in determining the compensation or benefits to be paid under this chapter, except that, in case of the death of an employee of the state, a municipal corporation or any other political subdivision of the state, any benefit payable under a pension system which is not sustained in whole or in part by the contributions of the employee, may be applied toward the payment of the death benefit provided by this chapter.

required, shall be valid, and any employer who makes a deduction for such purpose from the wages or salary of any employee entitled to the benefits of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 33. Assignments; exemptions. Compensation or benefits due under this chapter shall not be assigned, released or commuted except as provided by this chapter, and shall be exempt from all claims of creditors and from levy, execution and attachment or other remedy for recovery or collection of a debt, which exemption may not be waived. Compensation and benefits shall be paid only to employees or their dependents. In case of the death of an injured employee to whom there was due at the time of his or her death any compensation under the provisions of this chapter, the amount of such compensation shall be payable to the surviving wife or husband, if there be one, or, if none, to the surviving child or children of the deceased under the age of eighteen years, and if there be no surviving wife or children, then to the dependents of such deceased employee or to any of them as the commission may direct. § 44. Liability of employer. The total compensation due shall be recoverable from the employer who last employed the employee in the employment to the nature of which the disease was due and in which it was contracted. If, however, such disease was contracted while such employee was in the employment of a prior employer, the employer who is made liable for the total compensation as provided by this section, may appeal to the board for an apportionment of such compensation among the several employers who since the contraction of such disease shall have employed such employee in the employment to the nature of which the disease was due. Such apportionment shall be proportioned to the time such employee was employed in the service of such employers, and shall be determined only after a hearing, notice of the time and place of which shall have been given to every employer alleged to be liable for any portion of such compensation. If the board find that any portion of such compensation is payable by an employer prior to the employer who is made liable to the total compensation as provided by this section, it shall make an award accordingly in favor of the last employer, and such award may be enforced in the same manner as an award for compensation.

§ 45. Notice to employers. The employer to whom notice of death or disability is to be given, or against whom claim is to be made by the employee, shall be the employer who last employed the employee during the said twelve months in the employment to the nature of which the disease was due and in which it was contracted, and such notice and claim shall be deemed seasonable as against prior employers. § 50. Security for payment of compensation. An employer shall secure compensation to his employees in one of the following ways:

1. By insuring and keeping insured the payment of such compensation in the state fund, or

2. By insuring and keeping insured the payment of such compensation with any stock corporation or mutual association authorized to transact the business of workmen's compensation insurance in this state.

3. By furnishing satisfactory proof to the commissioner of his financial ability to pay such compensation for himself, in which case the commissioner may, in his discretion, require the deposit with the commissioner of securities of the kind prescribed in subdivisions one, two, three, four and five, and paragraph a of subdivision seven of section two hundred thirty-nine of the banking law, in an amount to be determined by the commissioner, to secure his liability to pay the compensation provided in this chapter. The commissioner may also require an agreement on the part of an employer to pay any awards commuted under section twenty-seven of this chapter, into the special fund of the state fund, as a condition of his being allowed to remain uninsured pursuant to this section. The commissioner shall have the authority to revoke his consent furnished under this section at any time for good cause shown. The employer so electing shall be known as a self-insurer.

4. a. A county, city, village, town or other political subdivision of the state may secure compensation to its employees in accordance with subdivision one or subdivision two of this section. If it does not do so, such county, city, town, village or other political subdivision shall be deemed to have elected to secure compensation pursuant to subdivision three of this section. Such a county, city, town, village or other political subdivision shall not be required to furnish proof of financial ability or to make deposit of securities in compliance with such subdivision, but shall be obliged to meet all other requirements prescribed by this chapter for employers so electing. Such county, city, town, village or other political subdivision shall file with the commissioner notice of such election.

b. Whenever compensation is awarded to a claimant for injury to an employee of a self-insuring county, town or political subdivision, other than a city or a village, the treasurer of the county employing such employee, or containing the town or other political subdivision that employs him, shall, upon presentation of the award, forthwith begin payment of it in accordance with this chapter, using any money of the county available therefor. If none is available, he shall by temporary loan upon the credit of the county immediately borrow sufficient money to meet compensation payments that will fall due prior to collection of the next tax levy. The board of supervisors shall thereupon levy upon the taxable property of the county, if for injury to a county employee, and of the particular town or other political subdivision, if for injury to an employee of such town or other political subdivision, a sum sufficient to enable the treasurer to repay such loan and to continue compensation payments according to the requirements of the case.

c. Whenever compensation is awarded to a claimant for injury to an employee of a self-insuring city or village, the treasurer of the city or village shall, upon presentation of the award forthwith begin payment of it in accordance with this chapter, using any money of the city or village available therefor. If none is available, he shall by temporary loan upon the credit of the city or village immediately borrow sufficient money to meet compensation payments that will fall due prior to such time as the city or village may appropriate for the purpose. The city or village shall thereupon appropriate a sum sufficient to enable the treasurer to repay such loan and to continue compensation payments according to the requirements of the case.

§ 51. Posting of notice regarding compensation. Every employer who has complied with section fifty of this chapter shall post and maintain in a conspicuous place or places in and about his place or places of business typewritten or printed notices in form prescribed by the commissioner, stating the fact that he has complied with all the rules and regulations of the department and that he has secured the payment of compensation to his employees and their dependents in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. The commissioner may require any employer to furnish a written statement at any time showing the stock corporation or mutual association in which such employer is insured or the manner in which such employer has complied with any provision of this chapter. Failure for a period of ten days to furnish such written statement shall constitute presumptive evidence that such employer has neglected or failed in respect of any of the matters so required.

§ 52. Effect of failure to secure compensation. Failure to secure the payment of compensation shall constitute a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

All fines imposed under this chapter, except as herein otherwise provided, shall be paid by the officer collecting the same to the state treasurer as custodian of the special fund created under subdivision eight of section fifteen of this chapter.

§ 53. Release from all liability. An employer securing the payment of compensation by contributing premiums to the state fund shall thereby become relieved from all liability for personal injuries or death sustained by his employees, and the persons entitled to compensation under this chapter shall have recourse therefor only to the state fund and not to the employer. An employer shall not otherwise be relieved from the liability for

§ 54. The insurance contract. 1. Right of recourse to the insurance carrier. Every policy of insurance covering the liability of the employer for compensation issued by a stock company or by a mutual association authorized to transact workmen's compensation insurance in this state shall contain a provision setting forth the right of the commissioner to enforce in the name of the people of the state of New York for the benefit of the person entitled to the compensation insured by the policy either by filing a separate application or by making the insurance carrier a party to the original application, the liability of the insurance carrier in whole or in part for the payment of such compensation; provided, however, that payment in whole or in part of such compensation by either the employer or the insurance carrier shall to the extent thereof be a bar to the recovery against the other of the amount so paid.

2. Knowledge and jurisdiction of the employer extended to cover the insurance carrier. Every such policy shall contain a provision that, as between the employee and the insurance carrier, the notice to or knowledge of the occurrence of the injury on the part of the employer shall be deemed notice or knowledge, as the case may be, on the part of the insurance carrier; that jurisdiction of the employer shall, for the purpose of this chapter, be jurisdiction of the insurance carrier and that the insurance carrier shall in all things be bound by and subject to the orders, findings, decisions or awards rendered against the employer for the payment of compensation under the provisions of this chapter.

3. Insolvency of employer does not release the insurance carrier. Every such policy shall contain a provision to the effect that the insolvency or bankruptcy of the employer shall not relieve the insurance carrier from the payment of compensation for injuries or death sustained by an employee during the life of such policy.

4. Limitation of indemnity agreements. Every contract or agreement of an employer the purpose of which is to indemnify him from loss or damage on account of the injury of an employee by accidental means, or on account of the negligence of such employer or his officer, agent or servant, shall be absolutely void unless it shall also cover liability for the payment of the compensation provided for by this chapter.

5. Cancellation of insurance contracts. No contract of insurance issued by an insurance carrier against liability arising under this chapter shall be cancelled within the time limited in such contract for its expiration until at least ten days after a notice of cancellation of such contract, on a date specified in such notice, shall be filed in the office of the commissioner and also served on the employer. Such notice shall be served on the employer by delivering it to him or by sending it by mail, by registered letter, addressed to the employer at his or its last known place of residence; provided that, if the employer be a partnership, then such notice may be so given to any one of the partners, and if the employer be a corporation then the notice may be given to any agent or officer of the corporation upon whom legal process may be served. Provided, however, the right to cancellation of a policy of insurance in the state fund shall be exercised only for nonpayment of premiums.

6. Insurance of employers and officers of corporations. Any insurance carrier may issue policies, including with employees, employers or executive officers of corporations who perform labor incidental to their occupations, such policies insuring to such employers or officers the same compensations provided for their employees, and at the same rates; provided, however, that the estimation of their wage values, respectively, shall be reasonable and separately stated in and added to the valuation of their pay rolls upon which their premium is computed. The employer or officer so insured shall have the same rights and remedies given an employee by this chapter.

§ 55. Acceptance of premium by carrier an estoppel. Acceptance of a premium on a policy securing to an employee compensation, either alone or in connection with other insurance, shall estop the carrier so accepting from pleading that the employment of such employee is not a hazardous employment or the employment is not carried on for pecuniary gain. § 56. Subcontractors. A contractor, the subject of whose contract is, involves or includes a hazardous employment, who subcontracts all or any part of such contract shall be liable for and shall pay compensation to any employee injured whose injury arises out of and in the course of such hazardous employment, unless the subcontractor primarily liable therefor has secured compensation for such employee so injured as provided in this chapter. An owner of timber other than farm lands, who contracts with another to carry on or perform work or service in connection therewith, which work or service is, involves or includes a hazardous employment, shall be liable for and shall pay compensation to any employee of such contractor, or his subcontractor, if any, injured in the course of and arising out of such hazardous employment, unless the contractor, or the subcontractor, if any, primarily liable therefor has secured compensation for such employee so injured as provided in this chapter.

§ 57. Restriction on issue of permits unless compensation is secured. The head of a state or municipal department, board, commission or office authorized or required by law to issue any permit for or in connection with any work involving the employment of employees in a hazardous employment defined by this chapter, and notwithstanding any general or special statute requiring or authorizing the issue of such permits, shall not issue such permit to the employer unless such employer shall produce satisfactory proof that compensation has been secured as provided by this chapter. after five per centum of such premiums, until such time as in the judgment of the commissioner such surplus shall be sufficiently large to cover the catastrophe hazard. Thereafter the contribution to such surplus may be reduced or discontinued conditional upon constant maintenance of a sufficient surplus to cover the catastrophe hazard. Reserves shall be set up and maintained adequate to meet anticipated losses and carry all claims and policies to maturity, which reserves shall be computed in accordance with such rules as shall be approved by the superintendent of insurance.

§ 93. Investment of surplus or reserve. Any of the surplus or reserve funds belonging to the state insurance fund may, by order of the commissioner, approved by the superintendent of insurance, be invested in or loaned on the pledge of any of the securities in which a savings bank may invest the moneys deposited therein as provided in subdivisions one, two, three, four and five of section two hundred and thirty-nine of the banking law. All such securities or evidences of indebtedness shall be placed in the hands of the state treasurer who shall be the custodian thereof. He shall collect the principal and interest thereof, when due, and pay the same into the state insurance fund. The state treasurer shall pay all vouchers drawn on the state insurance fund for the making of such investments when signed by the commissioner or deputy commissioner upon delivery of such securities or evidences of indebtedness to him, when there is attached to such vouchers the approval of the state superintendent of insurance. The commissioner may, upon like approval of the superintendent of insurance, sell any of such securities.

§ 94. Administration expenses. The entire expense of administering the state insurance fund shall be paid out of such fund. Prior to the first days of January, April, July and October there shall be submitted to the state board of estimate and control for its approval an estimated budget of expenditures for the succeeding three months. There may not be expended for the state insurance fund for purposes of administration more than the amounts specified in such budget for each item of expenditure, except as authorized by the board of estimate and control. In no case shall the amount of expenditures so authorized for an entire year exceed fifteen per centum of the earned premiums for that year. If there be officers or employees of the department whose duties relate partly to the general work of the department and partly to the work of the state insurance fund, and in case there is other expense which is incurred jointly on behalf of the general work of the department and the state insurance fund, an equitable apportionment of the expense shall be made and the part thereof which is applicable to the state insurance fund shall be chargeable thereto. The industrial commissioner shall include in his annual report to the legislature a statement of the expense of administering the state fund for the preceding year. All appointments to positions in the state insurance fund shall be made subject to civil service requirements.

Appropriation.

Section 1. The superintendent of public works is hereby authorized to remove a portion of the aqueduct which carried the old Erie canal over the waters of South Chuctanunda creek in the city of Amsterdam, Montgomery county, and to construct a bridge in place thereof, with approaches leading at each end of the proposed structure to both sides of the canal; the work to be done by contract or department forces, whichever method in the judgment of the superintendent of public works seems to be for the best interests of the state. In case any part of the work shall be done by contract, plans and specifications therefor shall be prepared by the state engineer and surveyor. Upon completion of the improvement herein authorized, the said bridge and its approaches shall be maintained by the city of Amsterdam.

§ 2. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of section one of this act, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, to be paid to the superintendent of public works by the state treasurer on the warrant of the comptroller.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT to amend chapter eight hundred and six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, entitled "An act to create a commission to represent the state of New York at hearings before the international joint commission on boundary waters, created under and by virtue of article nine of the convention concluded on January eleventh, nineteen hundred and nine, between the United States and the Dominion of Canada, and making an appropriation therefor," in relation to the extent of the powers of the commission, and making an appropriation therefor.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section two of chapter eight hundred and six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, entitled "An act to create a commission to represent the state of New York at hearings before the international joint commission on boundary waters created under and by virtue of article nine of the convention concluded on January eleventh, nineteen hundred and nine, between the United States and the Dominion of Canada, and making an appropriation therefor," as amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, is hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1920,
ch. 806,
§ 2, as amended by
L. 1921,
ch. 339,

§ 2. Such commission is hereby authorized and shall have power to represent the state of New York at hearings before the international joint commission on boundary waters created under and by virtue of article nine of the convention concluded on January eleventh, nineteen hundred and nine, between the United States and the Dominion of Canada, which commission by section nine of the rivers and harbors act of the congress of the United States, approved on March second, nineteen hundred and nineteen, "is requested to investigate what further improvement of the Saint Lawrence river between Montreal and Lake Ontario is necessary to make the same navigable for ocean-going vessels, together with the estimated cost thereof and to report to the government of the Dominion of Canada and to the congress of the United States with its recommendations for co-operation by the United States with the Dominion of Canada in the improvement of said river," and which international joint commission on boundary waters was also authorized by the government of the United States and the government of the Dominion of Canada to investigate and to report upon "what traffic, both incoming and outgoing, in kind and quantity, is likely to be carried upon the proposed route both at its inception and in the future, consideration to be given not only to present conditions, but to probable changes therein resulting from the development of industrial activities due to availability of large quantities of hydraulic power" according to four different general schemes or methods of improvement as follows: (a) By means of locks and navigation dams in the river. (b) By means of locks and side canals. (c) By a combination of the two preceding methods. (d) By means of locks and power dams.

And the commissioner* hereby created is also hereby authorized and empowered to collate such facts and present such arguments to said international joint commission as to the commission hereby created may seem proper in relation to the said proposed Saint Lawrence ship canal project and also to represent the state of New York in conference with the representatives of the governments of other states of the United States and with the congress of the United States, their commissions and committees, having under consideration said proposed Saint Lawrence ship canal project and matters incidental thereto hereinbefore stated.

Further
powers.

Said commission shall have power to hold sessions within and without the state of New York and to attend the hearings of said international joint commission and to meet and to confer with the commissions, committees or other representatives of other states of the United States and to appear before the committees of the congress of the United States in opposition to said proposed Saint Lawrence ship canal project and to take and prosecute such action or proceeding in the name of the people of the state of New York in the courts of the state of New York, or of the United States as the commission created by said chapter eight hundred and six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty may consider and determine to be necessary to safeguard and protect the rights and interests of the people of the state of New York in all such waters and in the lands under and adjacent to the waters of the Saint Lawrence river as are under the sovereign control of the state of New York southerly of the international boundary. All necessary expenses incurred by the members of said commission in the performance of their duties or for the other purposes authorized by said chapter eight hundred and six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, or by this act, shall be paid from the appropriation made by said chapter eight hundred and six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, or by this act. At the conclusion of its labors said commission shall make a report of its proceedings to the legislature. ¹ The commission may employ counsel.

AN ACT making an appropriation for the purpose of defraying the personal expenses and the expenses for legal services incurred by Abraham L. Katlin, in the contest of his election in the eleventh senatorial district.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed by a two-thirds vote.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The sum of fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated, out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of defraying the personal expenses and the expenses for legal services incurred by Abraham L. Katlin in the contest made by Daniel J. Carroll of the election of the said Abraham L. Katlin as senator from the eleventh senatorial district for the term of nineteen hundred and twenty-one and nineteen hundred and twenty-two. Such sum shall be paid by the treasurer on the warrant and audit of the comptroller.

and fourteen, entitled "An act in relation to banking corporations, and individuals, partnerships, unincorporated associations and corporations under the supervision of the banking department, constituting chapter two of the consolidated laws," as amended by chapter four hundred and five of the laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 193. Investments of capital, surplus, undivided profits and deposits. The capital of every trust company shall be invested in bonds and mortgages on real property in this state, otherwise unencumbered, not exceeding sixty per centum of the value thereof, provided that the title to such real property shall be evidenced by an abstract of ¹ title and opinion or certificate of counsel thereon, or by a certificate of title to said property issued by the registrar of the county in which the property is situated under the provisions of article twelve of the real property law, otherwise known as the Torrens land title registration law, as amended, or guaranteed under a policy of title insurance issued by a corporation duly incorporated under and by virtue of the laws of this state, and by said laws duly authorized to guarantee or insure titles to real property in this state, or in the stocks, bonds, or other obligations of this state, or of the United States, or of any county or incorporated city of this state, or in farm loan bonds of the first land bank district as created pursuant to the federal farm loan act, approved July seventeenth, nineteen hundred and sixteen,² duly authorized by law to be issued. Stocks or bonds constituting a part of the lawful investment of capital of any such corporation shall not be valued upon its books or entered in its reports to the superintendent of banks at a higher price or value than their investment value as determined by amortization, after providing in a manner approved by the superintendent of banks for the gradual extinction of premiums or discounts on all such securities so as to bring them to par at maturity.

§ 2. Section two hundred and thirty-nine of such chapter is hereby amended by inserting therein, after subdivision ten, a new subdivision, to be subdivision ten-a, to read as follows:

10-a. Farm loan bonds issued by the federal land bank of the first land bank district as created pursuant to the federal farm loan act, approved July seventeenth, nineteen hundred and sixteen.

Savings banks may

CHAPTER 622

AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to general powers of investment companies.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Subd. 7
added to
L. 1914,
ch. 369,

Section 1. Section two hundred and ninety-three of chapter three hundred and sixty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and fourteen, entitled "An act in relation to banking corporations, and individuals, partnerships, unincorporated associations and corporations under the supervision of the banking department, constituting chapter two of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by adding thereto, after subdivision six, as thus renumbered by chapter one hundred and thirty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and fifteen, a new subdivision, to be subdivision seven, to read as follows:

7. To purchase, invest in, hold and sell stocks of any corporation engaged in business of the same general character as such investment company, or engaged in business incidental to the business conducted by such investment company, to an amount in any one such corporation not in excess of ten per centum of the capital of such investment company and to an amount in all such corporations not in excess of thirty per centum of the capital of such investment company; provided that the purchasing and holding of such stock is duly authorized by a resolution of the board of directors of such investment company.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 623

AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to rate of interest of investment companies.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

L. 1914,
ch. 369, § 114
amended.

Section 1. Section one hundred and fourteen of chapter three hundred and sixty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and fourteen, entitled "An act in relation to banking corporations, and individuals, partnerships, unincorporated associations and corporations under the supervision of the banking department, constituting chapter two of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 114. Rate of interest; effect of usury. Every bank and every private and individual banker and every investment company organized under article seven of chapter three hundred and sixty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and fourteen as last amended by chapter two hundred and twenty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen,¹ may take, receive, reserve and charge on every loan and discount made, or upon any note, bill of exchange or other evidence of debt, interest at the rate of six per centum per annum; and such interest may be taken in advance, reckoning the days for which the note, bill or evidence of debt has to run. The knowingly taking, receiving, reserving or charging a greater rate of interest shall be held and adjudged a forfeiture of the entire interest which the note, bill of exchange or other evidence of debt carries with it, or which has been agreed to be paid thereon. If a greater rate of interest has been paid, the person paying the same or his legal representatives may recover twice the entire amount of the interest thus paid from the bank or banker or investment company² taking or receiving the same, if such action is brought within two years from the time the excess of interest is taken. The purchase, discount or sale of a bona fide bill of exchange, note or other evidence of debt payable at another place than the place of such purchase, discount or sale at not more than the current rate of exchange for sight draft, or a reasonable charge for the collection of the same, in addition to the interest, shall not be considered as taking or receiving a greater rate of interest than six per centum per annum. The true intent and meaning of this section is to place and continue such banks and bankers and investment companies³ on an equality in the particulars herein referred to with the national banks organized under the act of congress entitled "An act to provide a national currency, secured by pledges of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof," approved June the third, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 624

AN ACT to amend the civil practice act, in relation to the determination of the rights of parties to a controversy.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section one hundred and ninety-three of the civil practice act is hereby amended to read as follows: § 193
amended.

¹ Words "and every investment company organized under article seven of chapter three hundred and sixty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and fourteen as last amended by chapter two hundred and twenty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen," new.

² Words "or investment company" new.

³ Words "and investment companies" new.

§ 193. Determination of rights of parties before the court. The court may determine the controversy as between the parties before it where it can do so without prejudice to the rights of others or by saving their rights; but where a complete determination of the controversy cannot be had without the presence of other parties the court must direct them to be brought in. ¹ And where one of the parties to an action claims that a person not a party thereto is or will be liable wholly or in part, for the claim made against him in the action, the court on application of such party must direct such person to be brought in and direct the service upon such person of the pleading, alleging the claim against him. Where a person not a party to the action has an interest in the subject thereof, or in real property the title to which may in any manner be affected by the judgment, or in real property for injury to which the complaint demands relief, and makes application to the court to be made a party, it must direct him to be brought in by the proper amendment. ¹ The controversy between the defendants shall not delay a judgment to which the plaintiff is entitled, unless the court otherwise directs.

Sept. 1, 1922.

§ 2. This act shall take effect September first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

CHAPTER 625

AN ACT to amend the civil practice act, in relation to the right of certain parties to provisional remedies.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 824
amended.

Section 1. Section eight hundred and twenty-four of the civil practice act is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 824. Counterclaim; or claim by defendant against codefendant;^{1a} right of defendant to an order or warrant. Where the defendant interposes a counterclaim, or pleads a claim against a codefendant,² and thereupon demands an affirmative judgment against the plaintiff, or against such codefendant,³ his right to such an order or warrant is the same as in an action brought by him against the plaintiff or against such codefendant,³ for the cause of action stated in the counterclaim, or pleading,⁴ and demanding the same judgment. For the purpose of applying to such a case the provisions of this act, or the provisions of a rule which does not in terms apply only to a plaintiff, the defendant is deemed the plaintiff, and the plaintiff in* such codefendant⁵ is deemed the

CHAPTER 626

AN ACT to amend the civil practice act, in relation to fees of sheriff.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section fifteen hundred and fifty-eight¹ of the civil practice act is hereby amended to read as follows: § 1558
amended.

§ 1558. Fees of sheriff. A sheriff is entitled for the services specified in this section to the following fees:²

1. For serving a summons with or without either a copy of the complaint, or a notice stating the sum of money for which judgment will be taken or a notice of no personal claim, one dollar and fifty cents; or for serving or executing an order of arrest, or any other mandate, for the service or execution of which no other fee is specially prescribed by law, except a subpoena, two dollars; except that in the counties of New York, Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, it shall be four dollars for each person served or as to whom it is executed; and for necessary traveling to serve or execute the same, ten cents for each mile traveled, going and returning; the traveling fees to be computed from the court house of the county; or, if there are two or more court houses, from that nearest to the place of service or execution. But where two or more mandates are delivered to a sheriff, to be served upon or executed against one person, at one time, in one action or special proceeding; or where a mandate is served upon or executed against two or more persons, in one action or special proceeding, and in the course of one journey; the sheriff is entitled, in all, to ten cents, only for each mile traveled.

2. For levying a warrant of attachment against the property of a defendant, or for executing a requisition to replevy one or more chattels, two dollars; except that in the counties of New York, Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, it shall be five dollars; and, also, such additional compensation for his trouble and expenses in taking possession of and preserving the property as the judge issuing the warrant, or in case of a replevin as the court or a judge thereof, allows; and the judge or court may make an order requiring the party liable therefor to pay the same to the sheriff. For making and filing a description of real property, or an inventory of personal property attached, fifty cents for each folio; for each necessary copy thereof, twelve cents for each folio; except that in the counties of New York, Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, it shall be twenty cents for each folio; together with such compensation to the appraisers as the judge issuing the warrant allows, not exceeding three dollars to each appraiser for each day actually employed. For advertising during the pendency of the action, personal property attached, the same fees as are allowed to a sheriff for advertising personal property for sale by virtue of an execution. If the action is settled either before or after judgment, the sheriff is entitled to poundage upon the value of the property attached, not exceeding the sum at which the settlement is made. For mileage upon an attachment or to execute a requisition; ten cents for each mile, going and returning.

3. For a copy, necessarily made by him, of a summons or other mandate, or of a complaint, affidavit or other paper served by him, where no fee therefor is specially prescribed by law, twenty cents for each folio.

4. For notifying jurors to attend a trial term of a court of record, fifty cents for each cause placed upon the calendar for trial by jury, to be paid by the party first putting the cause on the calendar for that term. But the sheriff is not entitled to more than one dollar and fifty cents for calendar fees in one action. The clerk shall not put a cause upon the calendar, for trial by a jury, until the fee specified in this subdivision is paid to him for the use of the sheriff. And where the cause is tried at a subsequent term without a new note of issue, the party moving the trial must pay to the clerk for the use of the sheriff the calendar fee or fees remaining unpaid. No sheriff who receives an annual salary in whole or in part for his services shall be entitled to the fees provided by this subdivision, and in all counties where the sheriff receives such annual salary, the clerk shall place all causes upon the calendar for trial without the payment or collection of any fee therefor.

5. For notifying jurors drawn to attend upon a writ of inquiry, or to try the validity of a claim to personal property seized by virtue of a warrant of attachment or an execution, or in obedience to a precept issued by commissioners appointed to inquire concerning the incompetency of a person to manage himself or his affairs in consequence of idiocy, lunacy or habitual drunkenness, or in any case not provided for in the last preceding subdivision of this section, including the making and return of the inquisition when required, for each juror notified, fifty cents for each juror notified.* For attending a jury when required, in such a case, three dollars; except that in the counties of New York, Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, it shall be five dollars.

6. For receiving an execution against property, entering it in his books, searching for property, and postage on the return when made through the postoffice, one dollar; except that in the counties of New York, Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, it shall be one dollar and fifty cents. If required by the sheriff, that fee, together with his fee for returning the execution, must be paid, by the person in whose behalf the execution is issued, at the time when it is delivered to the sheriff, who is not bound to execute it unless the fee is so paid. For mileage upon an execution, for each mile, going and returning, ten cents to be computed as prescribed in subdivision one of this section. For mileage, to make a demand, upon an execution and where the collection cannot be enforced through the disposal of property, secret or otherwise, the sheriff is entitled to his travel fee as provided in this subdivision, and the party at whose instance the execution is placed in the sheriff's hands must pay such fees to the sheriff upon demand.

7. For collecting money by virtue of an execution, a warrant of attachment, or an attachment for the payment of money in an action or special proceeding; or by virtue of a warrant for the collection of money, issued by the comptroller or by a county treasurer; in any county, except New York, Kings, Bronx, Queens, Richmond or Westchester, five per centum upon the sum collected, not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, and three per centum upon the residue of the sum collected; and in either of the counties of New York, Kings, Bronx, Queens, and Richmond, five per centum upon the first one thousand dollars collected, two and one-half per centum on the next nine thousand collected, and one per centum on all sums over and above ten thousand dollars; in the county of Westchester, two and one-half per centum upon the sum collected not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, and one and one-quarter per centum upon the residue of the sum collected; and also, where an execution is stayed after a levy, by order of the court or otherwise, or where a levy is upon a live animal or speedily perishable property, such additional compensation for his trouble and expenses in taking care of and preserving the property as the court or a judge thereof allows. Where a settlement is made after a levy by virtue of an execution, the sheriff is entitled to poundage upon the value of the property levied upon, not exceeding the sum at which the settlement is made, and to the additional compensation, if any, provided for in this subdivision.

8. For advertising real or personal property for sale by virtue of an execution, warrant of attachment, or other warrants specified in the last preceding subdivision, two dollars, unless it is stayed or settled before sale; and in that case, one dollar.

9. For making duplicate certificates of the sale of real property by virtue of an execution, twenty-five cents for each folio. For drawing and executing a conveyance upon a sale of real property, five dollars to be paid by the grantee. The sheriff is also entitled to the printer's fees, as prescribed by law, paid by him for the publication, not more than six weeks, of a notice of the sale of real property, and he may require the party directing the sale to advance the printer's fees, in which case he must repay the same out of the proceeds. Where the notice is published more than six weeks, or the sale is postponed, the expense of continuing the publication, or of publishing the notice of postponement, must be paid by the person requesting it. Where two or more executions against the property of one judgment debtor are in the hands of the sheriff at the time when the property is first advertised, the sheriff is entitled to printer's fees upon only one execution, and he must elect upon which execution he will receive the same.

10. For returning any mandate which he is required by law to return, twenty-five cents. For a certified copy of an execution, and of the return of satisfaction thereupon, fifty cents.

11. For posting and publishing the notice of sale, selling, and conveying real property, in pursuance of a direction contained in a judgment, the like fees as for the same services upon the sale of real property by virtue of an execution; but where real property is sold under a judgment in an action to foreclose a mortgage, the sheriff's entire compensation cannot exceed fifty dollars.

12. For taking a bond for the liberties of the jail, one dollar. For taking any other bonds or any undertaking which he is authorized to take, one dollar, and the notary's fees to any affidavit or acknowledgments. For a certified copy of such a bond or undertaking, fifty cents.

13. For executing any mandate requiring him to put a person into possession of real property, other than a warrant specified in subdivision eighteen of this section, and removing the person in possession, three dollars; except that in the counties of New York, Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, it shall be five dollars, and, also, to such additional compensation for his trouble, and expenses, if any, which he may have incurred in removing the person in possession and the said person's property, from the real property specified in such mandate, and the same travel fees as upon the service of a summons.

14. For each person committed to or discharged from prison, in an action or a special proceeding, one dollar, to be paid by the person at whose instance he is imprisoned. For attending before an officer for the purpose of surrendering a prisoner, or receiving into custody a prisoner surrendered, in exoneration of his bail, including all his services upon such a surrender or receipt, one dollar.

15. For attending a view, two dollars for each day, and for traveling, going and returning ten cents for each mile traveled.

16. For bringing up a prisoner upon a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the cause of detention, three dollars; and for traveling to and from the jail, fifteen cents for each mile. For bringing up a prisoner upon any order substituted by this act for any other writ of habeas corpus, the same fees; and for attending the court or judge thereupon, one dollar for each day. The sheriff is entitled, in addition to the sums specified in this subdivision, to his actual and necessary expenses.

17. For any services which may be rendered by a constable, other than those specially provided for in this section, the same fees as are allowed by law to a constable for those services.

18. In all counties where a levy has been made under a warrant of attachment and the warrant of attachment is vacated or set aside by order of the court, the sheriff is entitled to poundage upon the value of the property attached not exceeding the amount specified in the warrant, and such additional compensation for his trouble and expense in taking possession and preserving the property as the judge issuing the warrant allows, and the judge or court may make an order requiring the party at whose instance the attachment is issued to pay the same to the sheriff; and when said attachment has been otherwise discharged by order of the court, he shall be entitled to the poundage aforesaid and to retain the property levied upon until his fees and poundage are paid by the party at whose instance the attachment is discharged.

19. In all counties where an execution has been vacated or set aside, the sheriff is entitled to poundage upon the value of the property levied upon not exceeding the amount specified in the execution, and to his fees, and to such additional compensation for his trouble and expenses in taking possession and preserving the property, if any, and the judge or court may make an order requiring the party liable therefor to pay the same to the sheriff.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 627

AN ACT authorizing the board of supervisors of Onondaga county to audit and pay the claim of John Whalen against the county for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained by him in the exercise of his official duties as keeper of the Onondaga penitentiary by being attacked and injured while transferring a prisoner to Matteawan State Hospital.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The board of supervisors of the county of Onondaga, or other auditing officer or body of such county, is hereby authorized to audit the claim of John Whalen against the county in a sum not exceeding eight hundred dollars for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained by him while in the exercise of his official duties as keeper of the Onondaga penitentiary in the year nineteen hundred and seven, by being attacked and injured while transferring a prisoner from the Onondaga penitentiary to Matteawan State Hospital. Such claim, after audit as herein provided, shall constitute a legal and valid claim against the county of Onondaga and the board of supervisors may appropriate necessary county money for the payment of the same.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 628

AN ACT to amend the domestic relations law, in relation to the adoption of children.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 19, § 111, subd. 3, as amended by
L. 1921,
ch. 655,
amended.

Consent to
of minor.

Section 1. Subdivision three of section one hundred and eleven of chapter nineteen of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to domestic relations, constituting chapter fourteen of the consolidated laws," as last amended by chapter six hundred and fifty-five of laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one,¹ is hereby amended to read as follows:²

3. Of the parents or surviving parent of a legitimate child; and of the mother of an illegitimate child, or of the superintendent of an incorporated hospital approved and subject to visitation, inspection and supervision of the state board of charities and which said hospital has been continuously operated in this state for a period of at least five years last past, in whose care or charge an illegitimate child has been surrendered or released by its mother for the purposes of placing out in a family home, for placement in a free home, adoption or otherwise by an instrument in writing duly acknowledged and certified as conveyances are required to be certified to entitle them to record in a county of this state, which instrument shall be filed with the consent of the superintendent of such hospital; the superintendent of a hospital accepting a child by surrender or release or by any other agreement shall report such acceptance to, and in the manner required by the state board of charities; the superintendent of a hospital authorized by law under this article to accept children and who shall place out a child in a family home by adoption, or otherwise, or and who places a child in any institution or and makes any other disposition of the child must report such disposition to the state board of charities in the manner as required by law, but the consent of a parent who has abandoned the child, or is deprived of civil rights, or divorced because of his or her adultery or cruelty, or adjudged to be insane, or to be an habitual drunkard, or judicially deprived of the custody of the child on account of cruelty or neglect, is unnecessary; excepting, however, that where such parents are divorced because of his or her adultery or cruelty, notice shall be given to both the parents personally or in such manner as may be directed by a judge of a court of competent jurisdiction.

CHAPTER 629

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the Emory A. Chase Memorial Library at Catskill.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Chapter twenty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to education, constituting chapter sixteen of the consolidated laws," as amended by chapter one hundred and forty of the laws of nineteen hundred and ten, is hereby amended by inserting therein, at the end of article forty-five, a new section, to be section eleven hundred and eighty-four-b, to read as follows:

added to
L. 1909,
ch. 21 (revision of
ch. 140).

§ 1184-b. Emory A. Chase Memorial Library at Catskill. There is hereby established a law library in and for the third judicial district, at Catskill, New York, which shall be designated and known as the "Emory A. Chase Memorial Library." Said library shall be under the care and management of a board of three trustees who shall be members of the Greene county bar and who shall be selected by the majority of the justices of the supreme court elected in the third judicial district. Such trustees shall have power to receive by gift, devise or bequest any property given or conveyed for the purposes of a law library. The foundation of such law library shall be the law books and other library property now belonging to the county of Greene when the same shall be conveyed to such trustees by such county. It shall be the duty of such trustees to hold and manage the property of such library and make rules and regulations for the management and protection of the same, and to prescribe penalties for the violation thereof. They may sue for and recover such penalties and maintain actions for any injuries to such library or its property. They may procure proper books, furnishings, provide rooms, fuel and lights for such library and defray all incidental expenses for the care and management of same, as well as the salary of the librarian. The amounts required therefor shall be paid by the treasurer of the county of Greene, upon the certificate of a justice of the supreme court for the third judicial district, out of the moneys raised in such county for court expenses, which amounts shall be a county charge upon said county of Greene. The librarian shall be appointed by such board of trustees and shall hold office during their pleasure. Such trustees shall fix the salary of such librarian which shall not exceed six hundred dollars per annum and such salary shall be paid in equal monthly installments.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT to authorize the use for village purposes of certain unexpended funds of the village of Endicott.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, general, special or local, the trustees of the village of Endicott, in the county of Broome, are hereby authorized and empowered to appropriate and expend for any village purpose they may, by resolution duly adopted, deem proper or expedient, such unexpended moneys remaining in a fund of fifteen thousand dollars raised and collected pursuant to a proposition adopted by the authorized electors of such village for the purpose of improving certain lands in such village as a park or memorial to certain veterans or survivors of the great war. Such moneys shall be expended in the same manner and under similar restrictions as are other funds for like purposes.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 631

AN ACT to amend the election law, in relation to preparation of voting machines.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section two hundred and fifty-one of an act of the legislature of the year nineteen hundred and twenty-two, entitled "An act in relation to the elections, constituting chapter seventeen of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 251. Preparation of voting machines by boards of elections. It shall be the duty of the board of elections of each county and in the city of New York, in which voting machines are to be used, to cause the proper ballot labels to be placed on voting machines, to cause the machines to be placed in proper order for voting, to examine all voting machines before they are sent out to the different polling places, to see that all the registering counters are set at zero (000), to lock all voting machines so that the counting machinery cannot be operated and to seal each one with a numbered metal seal.

The board of elections may appoint as many custodians of voting machines as may be necessary for the proper preparation of the machines.¹ Such custodian or custodians shall, under the direction of the board of elections, have charge of and represent the board of elections during the preparation of the voting machines and serve at the pleasure of the board of elections. Before preparing the voting machines for any election, written notices shall be mailed to the chairmen of the county committees of the two parties entitled to representation on a board of inspectors of election stating the times when and place or places where the machines will be prepared; at which times and place or places, one representative of each of such political parties, certified by the respective chairmen of the county committees of such parties, shall be entitled to be present and see that the machines are properly prepared and placed in proper condition and order for use at the election. The custodian or custodians of voting machines and the party representatives shall take the constitutional oath of office, which shall be filed in the office of the board of elections. It shall be the duty of such party representatives to be present at the preparation of the voting machines for election and see that the machines are properly prepared and that all registering counters are set at zero (000). When the machines have been prepared for election, it shall be the duty of such custodian or custodians and party representatives, to make a certificate in writing which shall be filed in the office of the board of elections, stating the number of machines, whether or not all the machines are set at zero (000), the number registered on the protective counter, if one is provided, and the number on the metal seal with which the machine is sealed.

Such custodians and party representatives shall perform their duties under the direction of the board of elections. No custodian or other employee of the board of elections shall in any way prevent free access and examination of all voting machines which are to be used at the election, by the duly appointed party representatives, and the board of elections and its employees shall afford the party representatives every facility for the examination of all registering counters, protective counters and public counters of each and every voting machine.

It shall be the duty of the board or officer charged by law with the duty of equipping the polling places to cause a voting machine or machines, prepared as above provided to be delivered, subject to the supervision of the board of elections, at each of the respective polling places in which they are to be used, at least one hour before the time set for the opening of the polls. After the machine has been delivered, it shall be set up in the proper manner for use at the election, and it shall be the duty of the local authorities to provide ample protection against molestation and injury to the machine. Every voting machine shall be furnished with a lantern or a proper substitute for one, which shall give sufficient light to enable voters while in the booth to read the ballot labels, and suitable for the use of election officers in examining the counters. The lantern shall be prepared and in good order for use before the opening of the polls. All voting machines used in any election shall be provided with a screen and hood or curtain which shall be so made and adjusted as to completely conceal the voter and his action while voting. The custodian or custodians of voting machines and party representatives shall be paid for their services such an amount as shall be fixed by the board of elections, which shall not, however, exceed the compensation per day of inspectors of election at a general election.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 632

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the powers and duties of the attorney-general in the enforcement of the provisions of the election law and the provisions of the penal law relating to crimes against the elective franchise, and making an appropriation therefor.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 66a
added to
L. 1909,
ch. 22.

Section 1. Chapter twenty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, constituting chapter eighteen of the consolidated laws, known as the executive law, is hereby amended by inserting therein, after section sixty-six, a new section, to be section sixty-six-a, to read as follows:

§ 66-a. Powers and duties of attorney-general respecting election and crimes against the elective franchise. Authority is hereby conferred upon the attorney-general to appoint a special deputy to take charge of the investigation of cases arising under the election law, and under the provisions of the penal law relating to crimes against the elective franchise, and to appoint such additional special deputies, investigators and employees as he may deem necessary, and fix their compensation, within the limits of the appropriation available therefor, and assign them to any election district or districts for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of the election law, and of the penal law relating to crimes against the elective franchise. Moneys appropriated for carrying out the provisions of this section shall be paid out by the state treasurer on the warrant of the comptroller upon the certificate of the attorney-general.

Such special deputies and investigators shall, when directed by the attorney-general, investigate qualifications of persons to register or vote, violations of the election law and violations of the provisions of the penal law relating to crimes against the elective franchise. Any such special deputy or investigator may:

1. Visit and inspect any house, dwelling, building, inn, lodging-house, boarding-house, rooming-house or hotel and interrogate any inmate, house-dweller, keeper, caretaker, owner, proprietor or landlord thereof or therein, as to any person or persons residing or claiming to reside therein or thereat.

2. Inspect and copy any books, records, papers or documents relating to or affecting the election or the registration of voters, or require the board or officer in charge thereof to furnish a copy of any such record, paper or document without charge.

3. Require any lodging-house, boarding-house or rooming-house keeper, landlord or proprietor to exhibit his register of the lodgers therein at any time to such deputy or investigator.

4. Procure warrants of arrest and cause to be taken into custody the person or persons named in such process.

5. Go within the guard-rail at any polling place at any election.

Any such special deputy or investigator also shall have all of the powers of a peace officer.

Any person who neglects or refuses to furnish any information required by the election law or authorized herein, or to exhibit records, papers or documents herein authorized to be inspected or which are required to be exhibited, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

The attorney-general or any of his deputies, special deputies or investigators shall have power to issue subpoenas, or subpoenas duces tecum, administer oaths and examine witnesses under oath, for the purpose of investigating any matter within the jurisdiction herein prescribed for the purpose of aiding him in enforcing the provisions of the election law, or the provisions of the penal law, relating to crimes against the elective franchise, such subpoenas to be issued in the name of the attorney-general. Such subpoenas may be served by any deputy or special deputy or by any police or peace officer.

Any person who shall omit, neglect or refuse to obey a subpoena attested in the name of the attorney-general or who shall refuse to testify under or in pursuance thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any such special deputy or investigator may call upon any member of the police, sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable or other public officer, or any person, to assist him in carrying out the provisions of this section. Any such officer or person who shall fail to render the assistance so demanded or who shall wilfully hinder or delay such special deputy or investigator in the exercise of any power or the performance of any duty shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 2. The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, payable out of any moneys in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, is hereby appropriated to carry out the provisions of section sixty-six-a of the executive law as added by this act.

Appropriation.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 633

AN ACT to amend the farms and markets law, in relation to supervisors and other employees of the department of public markets of the various cities.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 260a
added to
L. 1922,
ch. 48.

Section 1. Chapter forty-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-two, entitled "An act in relation to farms and markets, constituting chapter sixty-nine of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by inserting therein a new section, to be section two hundred and sixty-a, to read as follows:

§ 260-a. Appointment of supervisors. The commissioner of public markets shall have the power to appoint supervisors, assistant supervisors and such other employees as he may deem advisable to supervise the sale of market produce from push carts and other vehicles in open air markets in such city. Such supervisors, assistant supervisors and other employees shall be appointed from lists to be furnished by the municipal service commission after competitive examinations for such positions pursuant to the civil service law. Such commission shall provide for and hold such examinations forthwith. Persons now holding such positions shall hold office until such time as such lists shall be completed and such appointments made therefrom. Such appointees shall receive such compensation as shall be within the appropriations made therefor by the appropriating body of such city. The powers and duties of such supervisors, assistant supervisors and employees shall be prescribed by the commissioner of public markets. No vendor shall conduct business in any such open air market unless he first receive a permit from the department of public markets. Such permit shall be issued by the commissioner for such fee as the commissioner deems proper not to exceed the sum of one dollar per week for a vehicle.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 634

AN ACT to amend the highway law, in relation to the lighting of public highways or bridges by counties.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

added to
L. 1909,
ch. 30.

Section 1. Chapter thirty of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to highways, constituting chapter twenty-five of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by adding at the end of article twelve a new section, to be section three hundred and forty-five, to read as follows:

§ 345. Lighting of public highways or bridges. The board of supervisors of any county, subject to the approval of the state commissioner of highways, may from time to time provide for lighting public highways, or portions thereof, or bridges, located in such county outside of cities and villages. The initial action of the board shall be in the form of a proposal for submission to the commissioner. The highways, or portions thereof, or bridges to be lighted, and the manner of lighting, shall be set forth in such proposal. Such proposal shall be embodied in a resolution. The lighting of one or more of such highways, or portions thereof, or bridges may be proposed in a single resolution. The board may provide for such lighting if its proposal be so approved or, if modifications be suggested by the commissioner, may adopt such modifications and provide for such lighting in conformity therewith. The expense of installing, maintaining and caring for such lights shall be a county charge, and the moneys therefor shall be provided and appropriated in the same manner as for other county expenses. The furnishing of light under this section may be provided for by contract or otherwise, but nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize the board to acquire, construct or establish a lighting plant for such purposes. The installation of lights, fixtures and connections shall be done under the supervision of the county superintendent of highways. The board may provide for the care of such lights in such manner as it may deem proper. The board may, in its discretion, at any time discontinue the lighting of any highway, or portion thereof, or bridge provided for under this section.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 635

AN ACT to incorporate the city of Long Beach.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

ARTICLE 1.

- Section
1. Short title.
 2. Boundaries; corporate limits.
 3. Corporate name and powers.
 4. Definitions.

Section 1. Short title. This act is a public act and shall be known as "The charter of the city of Long Beach."

§ 2. Boundaries; corporate limits. The corporate limits of the city shall include all those lands and parcels of land constituting the present village of Long Beach, in the county of Nassau and state of New York, and all those lands included within the following described boundaries: Beginning at a point that is formed by the intersection of the northerly side of the boardwalk with a line running one hundred and sixty feet east of the westerly side of Maple boulevard and parallel thereto (as said boardwalk and boulevard are shown on map entitled "Map of Estate of Long Beach," filed as map number thirty-one in the office of the clerk of the county of Nassau on April twentieth, nineteen hundred and eleven); thence northerly and in a straight line running one hundred and sixty feet east of the westerly side of Maple boulevard and parallel thereto and extended to the center line of Reynolds channel; thence westerly along the center line of Reynolds channel as it winds and turns to its intersection with a straight line running sixty feet west of the westerly side of Minnesota avenue and parallel thereto and extended to the center line of Reynolds channel; thence southerly and in a straight line running sixty feet west of the westerly side of Minnesota avenue and parallel thereto to the intersection of said line with the northerly side of proposed extension of boardwalk (as said avenue and proposed extension of boardwalk appear on map entitled "Map of West End Seashore Bungalows, Inc.," filed as map number thirty-five in the office of the clerk of the county of Nassau on January sixteenth, nineteen hundred and seventeen); thence easterly and along the northerly line of proposed extension of boardwalk and along the northerly side of boardwalk to the point or place of beginning, including all the territory within said bounds.

§ 3. Corporate name and powers. 1. City of Long Beach. The citizens of the state of New York from time to time inhabitants within the boundaries of the city of Long Beach as aforesaid shall be a municipal corporation in perpetuity under the name of the "City of Long Beach." The said corporation may take, purchase, hold, sell and convey real and personal property; it may take by gift, grant, bequest and devise, and hold real and personal estate in trust for any purpose of education, art, health, charity or amusement, for parks or gardens, for the erection of statues, monuments, public buildings or other public use, upon such terms as may be prescribed by the grantor or donor and accepted by said corporation, and may provide for the proper execution of said trust. Except as otherwise provided by law, the city shall have full power and exclusive control over the streets and highways, parks, public waters and other public places. It shall have power to lay out, enlarge and alter parks, markets, public grounds, public waters; construct pavements, sidewalks, culverts, sewers, aqueducts, wharves, canals, slips, basins, water mains, gas mains and conduits. It may, subject to a certificate of convenience, and necessity duly granted by the public service commission, construct, lease or acquire by purchase or condemnation, and control and operate the public works for supplying the city, its inhabitants and industries within its limits with light, water, power, heat, ice, transportation of persons and property. It may enlarge, alter or make additions to any of the light, water or sewerage plants taken over by the city from the village of Long Beach. It shall determine the valuation of property provided for purposes of taxation and to levy and collect taxes upon real and personal property and assessments on property benefited by local improvements. It may construct and maintain public buildings, public works and public improvements of all kinds deemed by it necessary for the welfare and comfort of its inhabitants, including local improvements, and levy upon the property benefited thereby the cost thereof in whole or in part. It may acquire land by purchase, gift or eminent domain for any municipal purpose and erect buildings and other structures, including one or more buildings to be used for public assembly, and do anything necessary to beautify the city or preserve or add to the safety, intelligence, comfort and well being of the city and its inhabitants, and may have, use, and from time to time offer, a common seal, and may sue and defend in all courts. It may do everything necessary to carry into effect powers granted to it and the duties imposed upon it by this act or under general laws of the state.

2. Town of Hempstead. The town of Hempstead shall hereafter consist of all the territory heretofore constituting said town, except that portion thereof embraced within the boundaries of the city of Long Beach, and the territory embraced within the boundaries of said city as hereinbefore described shall not constitute or be a part of the town of Hempstead. The city of Long Beach shall have no claim to the property, real or personal, owned by the town of Hempstead, nor shall it bear any of the liabilities of the town. The taxes assessed for town, county and state purposes, upon lands within the city of Long Beach which became a lien on December first, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, and those which become a lien on June first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, shall be due and payable to the town collector of the town of Hempstead.

3. Succession of liabilities. The corporation known as the village of Long Beach and included within the boundaries of said city is hereby dissolved, subject to the provisions of this act. The city of Long Beach shall succeed to and be vested with all the rights and property of the village of Long Beach and shall succeed to and be liable for the entire bonded indebtedness and all the liabilities of said village corporation of every name and nature; and every suit, prosecution or proceeding commenced by or against said village corporation, and pending at the time this act takes effect, may be continued by or against and in the name of said village, or at the option of the officials of such city the name of the city may be substituted instead of the village corporation, and in the name of the city all suits, actions or proceedings may be continued. All divisions of said village into road, fire or other districts, highways, streets and parks shall remain, be and continue such divisions, highways, streets and parks in said city of Long Beach; and all ordinances, rules and regulations of the board of trustees of said village of Long Beach in force at the time this act takes effect shall be and continue to be in force, and shall have the same force, over the entire limits of the city of Long Beach as in and by this act established, until repealed, modified or changed by the council of said city, subject, however to the provisions of this act; the said council is hereby authorized and empowered in the name for and in behalf of the city of Long Beach to enforce all such ordinances, rules and regulations, and all contracts of said village, or agreements, including collections of all village taxes and assessments, debts and demands, imposition and collection of fines and penalties, prosecution and defense of all suits; and to do, take and perform all other acts and proceedings that may be or become necessary or proper to carry out and enforce said contracts, agreements, ordinances, rules and regulations, and the collection of taxes and assessments, with the same force and to the full extent as might have been done by or on the part of the board of trustees of said village, or by said village, and the rights and privileges of all persons or parties that may have arisen or accrued under, pursuant to or by reason of, any such contract, ordinance, rule or regulation, or otherwise, as well as any liability that may have arisen by reason thereof, shall remain and be the same under this act as they would have been under the village charter of said village; and all rights and liabilities of said village existing at the time this act takes effect shall be in no wise affected or changed thereby; but all actions and proceedings which may be hereafter commenced to enforce or protect any such accrued or existing rights, privileges or liabilities shall be brought and prosecuted or defended by or in the name of the city of Long Beach. All rules and regulations pertaining to the government of the fire department of the said village in force at the time this act takes effect shall remain, be and continue the same under the said city as under said village government, until repeal thereof and the adoption of other or further rules and regulations in relation thereto. The ownership and control of all the village property and effects pertaining to or connected with the fire department of said village shall by virtue of this act vest in the city of Long Beach and in the fire department thereof in the same manner and to the same extent in all respects as the same is now vested in said village and fire department.

The assessors and the tax collector of the village of Long Beach shall complete the assessment, levy and collection of taxes respectively, in the city of Long Beach for the current year. For this purpose they shall be assessors and collector respectively of the city of Long Beach; and such taxes shall be deemed taxes of the city of Long Beach, and the assessment and levy of such taxes by such assessors and all acts performed by them and by such tax collector are hereby confirmed and shall be as valid in all respects as though made and done by city officials elected or appointed under this act and all such taxes shall remain a lien on the property affected thereby until fully paid. Payment thereof may be enforced by action or by sale of the property affected thereby as provided in this act. The council of the city of Long Beach shall at its first meeting in June, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, or as soon thereafter as practicable, make up the budget for the city and all the departments thereof, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding; such budget shall be for an amount sufficient for the needs of the city until December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and twenty-three.

For the purpose of the assessment and levy and collection of taxes which shall be due and payable, as herein provided, on December first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, the last preceding assessment roll of the village of Long Beach shall be the assessment roll of the city of Long Beach, as to all property within the limits of the former village of Long Beach, and the last preceding assessment roll of the town of Hempstead shall be the assessment roll of the city of Long Beach, as to all property formerly within the town of Hempstead and not within the limits of said village, and included within the city of Long Beach. After the amount of the budget for part of the year nineteen hundred and twenty-two and the year nineteen hundred and twenty-three is finally determined and the rate of the city tax is fixed and the amount to be levied on each parcel of real estate and against each person or corporation within the city is fixed and determined, the council may borrow on note, bond or other obligation of the city an amount, sufficient to meet the needs of the city, in anticipation of the collection of such taxes.

Any proceeding heretofore initiated by the presentation of a petition to the board of trustees of the village of Long Beach for the making of a public improvement in accordance with section one hundred and sixty-six of the village law or sections two hundred and sixty-four to two hundred and seventy-five, inclusive, of the village law (as said sections now read or as they or any of them may be amended before this act goes into effect) shall not be affected by this act, but the same shall be concluded pursuant to the village law.

Union free school district number twenty-eight of the town of Hempstead, county of Nassau, is hereby dissolved. The city of Long Beach shall succeed to and be vested with all the rights and property of such school district and shall succeed to and be liable for the entire bonded indebtedness and other obligations of such school district of every name and nature, as provided in article nine of this act.

§ 4 Definitions. The official and fiscal year of the city shall commence on the first day of January in each year and end on the thirty-first day of December. The term "streets," as used in this act, includes boulevards, highways, avenues, alleys and lands. The term "resolution," as used in this act, includes all motions, orders, rules, regulations and by-laws other than ordinances. The word "person," as used in this act, shall be construed to include all persons, firms, companies, corporations and associations.

ARTICLE 2.

CITY OFFICERS.

Section 8. City officers enumerated.

9. Elective city officers enumerated; term.
10. Qualifications of elective officers.
11. Appointive city officers enumerated; by whom appointed; their term of office.
12. Compensation.
13. No extra compensation.
14. Opinions not to affect appointment.*
15. Bonds of officers.
16. Oath of office.
17. Payment of debts.

§ 8. City officers enumerated. The officers of the city shall be a mayor, a city judge, a city treasurer, three tax assessors, a commissioner of charities, a city clerk, a corporation counsel, a commissioner of public works, one or more deputy commissioners, a building commissioner, a city engineer, a fire commissioner, a police commissioner, a chief of police, one or more city marshals, one or more superintendents of departments, five members of the board of education, a city physician who shall also be the health officer of the city, one supervisor and so many commissioners of deeds as may be deemed necessary by the council.

§ 9. Elected city officers enumerated; term. 1. Elective city officers. The elective city officers to be elected by the city at large shall be a mayor, a city judge, one tax assessor, one supervisor and three members of the council.

2. Term of office. The terms of all elective officers, excepting those elected at the first special election as hereinafter provided, shall be four years, and shall begin January first following their election. The terms of the officers elected at the first general election, as hereinafter provided, shall begin on June first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two and expire on January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, at twelve o'clock noon.

§ 10. Qualifications of elective officers. No person shall be eligible to hold an elective office in the city of Long Beach unless he is a freeholder of the city of Long Beach and an elector thereof and has been a resident thereof for six months previous to his election. No person shall be elected city judge unless he shall have had at least one year's experience in a judicial office or shall have been for at least one year previous to his election duly admitted to practice as an attorney and counselor in the several courts of this state. Whenever any officer of said city shall cease to be a resident of said city his office shall thereby become vacant.

§ 11. Appointive city officers enumerated; by whom appointed; their term of office. 1. The appointive officers of the city of Long Beach shall be a city treasurer, a city clerk, a corporation counsel, a city physician and health officer, a commissioner of charities, one fire commissioner, two city tax assessors, a commissioner of public works and one or more deputy commissioners of public works who may also be superintendent of public works, and a building commissioner, five members of the board of education, one chief of police, one or more city marshals, a city engineer, one or more superintendents of departments and library trustees, not to exceed five in number, as determined by the council. All of such officers shall be appointed by the mayor and such other officers and deputies as shall be provided for by ordinance passed by a four-fifths vote in the council and which the council in its judgment deems necessary and proper for the efficient conduct of the affairs of the city. Any deputy or official appointed or elected may perform duties in one or more departments as the council may designate. Any officer or employee appointed as herein provided may be removed by the mayor, except as otherwise provided by law, and the mayor shall appoint his successor. The council may, by ordinance passed by a unanimous vote of all its members, vest in the head of any department the appointment of such subordinates, not herein named specifically, as it deems advisable. A superintendent of public schools, who may also be principal of a public school, may be appointed by the board of education as hereinafter provided. The mayor may appoint a chief of police and as many regular and special patrolmen as the council determines is necessary for the proper protection of the city of Long Beach. The council shall fix the terms of all appointive officers.

§ 12. Compensation. The mayor, members of the council, fire and police commissioners, if any, commissioners of charities and members of the board of education shall receive no compensation for their services. The annual salary of the city judge shall be two thousand dollars; the annual salary of the city treasurer and tax collector shall be four thousand dollars; the annual salary of the city clerk shall be thirty-five hundred dollars; the annual salary of the city physician and health officer shall be fifteen hundred dollars; the annual salary of the elected tax assessor shall be two thousand dollars; the appointive tax assessors shall receive twenty dollars for each meeting of the board of assessors they attend, not exceeding, however, the annual sum of two hundred and fifty dollars; the corporation counsel shall receive such compensation as shall be agreed upon from time to time by the council; the city engineer shall receive such compensation as shall be determined by the council; the chief of police and each patrolman, both regular and special, shall receive weekly salaries to be fixed by the council, subject to the approval of the mayor; the commissioners of deeds shall receive the compensation now provided by law to be received by them; the supervisor shall be entitled to receive from the county of Nassau the same compensation for his services as a corresponding officer elected in the towns of Nassau county is entitled to receive for like services; the supervisor may also hold any appointive office in the city; the inspectors of election and such other officers as are authorized to be appointed, shall receive the compensation fixed by law. The council shall fix by ordinance the salary or compensation to be paid to all other employees of the city and the time when the same shall be payable.

§ 13. No extra compensation. No officer or employee shall solicit or receive any pay, commission, money or thing of value, or derive any benefit, profit or advantage, directly or indirectly, from any contract with the city or supplies sold to the city or by reason of any improvements, alterations or repairs required by authority of the city, except his lawful compensation or salary as such officer or employee.

§ 14. Opinions not to affect appointments. No appointment to any position under the city government shall be made or withheld by reason of any religious or political opinions or affiliations or political service; and no appointment or election to, or removal from, any office or employment, and no transfer, promotion, reduction, reward or punishment shall be in any manner affected or made by reason of such opinions, affiliations or service.

§ 15. Bonds of officers. Each of the officers of the city, including the mayor and each councilman, shall execute and file with the city clerk a bond or undertaking with sufficient sureties in such sums as shall be fixed by ordinance, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, and for the accounting and payment to the city of all moneys belonging to the city received by them, and with such other conditions as may be required by ordinance. Wherever required so to do by the council, any such officer shall execute and file a new bond or undertaking. The cost of a bond of a surety company given by the mayor or any councilman shall be borne by the city. The bond of the collector of taxes shall also be filed in the office of the clerk of the county of Nassau.

§ 16. Oath of office. Every officer or salaried employee shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, take, subscribe and file with the clerk the constitutional oath of office.

§ 17. Payment of debts. Failure of any employee to promptly pay any legal indebtedness for necessities contracted for by him, while in the service of the city, shall be ground for his removal from such employment.

ARTICLE 3.

CITY OFFICERS; THEIR GENERAL POWERS AND DUTIES.

Section 20. Mayor.

21. City treasurer; tax collector.
22. City clerk.
23. Corporation counsel.
24. City engineer.
25. City physician and health officer.
26. City supervisor.

§ 20. Mayor. The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the city and shall have and exercise all the powers conferred upon him by this act or by the general statutes of the state not inconsistent with this act. It shall be his duty to see that the laws of this state and the ordinances and by-laws passed by the council are faithfully executed within the city. He shall sign, on behalf of the city, all contracts, bonds or obligations made by it, and cause the seal of the city to be affixed thereto. He shall be the presiding officer of the council. He shall be commissioner of public works and the police commissioner of the city, until otherwise provided by the unanimous vote of the council; and shall have power and authority to call out and command the police and firemen of the city whenever in his discretion he shall deem it necessary, and such command shall be in all respects obeyed. Whenever necessary for the prevention or suppression of public disturbance, mobs or riots it shall be his duty to take such action as is authorized by the laws of the state. It shall be his duty to exercise a constant supervision and oversight over the conduct of all city officers, departments, boards and commissions, and he shall have power and authority to examine at all times the books, vouchers and papers of any officer or employee of said city, and to take and hear testimony and proof in pursuance of sections three hundred and fifty-seven to three hundred and sixty-five, and four hundred and three to four hundred and fourteen of the civil practice act. He may designate from time to time the place in said city where he shall keep his office. It shall be the duty of the mayor to communicate to the council as soon after his election as practicable, and as often thereafter as he may deem expedient, a general statement of the affairs of the city in relation to its finances, government and improvement with such recommendations as he may deem proper. The mayor of said city, in addition to such powers as may by law and this act be conferred upon him, shall have power:

(a) To supervise all public utilities owned by the city and a general supervision over all public affairs not otherwise provided for herein.

(b) He shall have such other rights and powers as may be provided by ordinance not in conflict with this charter.

(c) He shall have the right to vote on all questions coming before the council.

§ 21. City treasurer; tax collector. The city treasurer shall be the fiscal officer of the city and shall perform such duties incident to his office as the council may require. He shall keep an office at such place as the council shall provide and designate, which shall be kept open each day in the year, except Sundays and legal holidays, from nine o'clock in the forenoon until four o'clock in the afternoon, except between the hours of twelve and one o'clock, and at such other hours as the council may from time to time direct. He shall keep separate accounts of the different funds of the city and shall not pay out any money chargeable to any fund in excess of the amount standing on his books to the credit of such fund, unless the council has by resolution transferred an amount in one fund to another fund and he shall not knowingly pay money from any fund which is not properly chargeable thereto. The city treasurer shall before the first meeting of the council in each month file with the city clerk a report showing in detail the total expenditures and receipts of city moneys during the next preceding calendar month, a summary statement of the receipts and expenditures of city moneys during that portion of the current fiscal year expiring with the last day of such preceding month, and the balance at the end of such month standing to the credit of the city funds. Such statement shall be in such form as shall be prescribed from time to time by the council. Before entering upon the duties of his office and within fifteen days after he shall have received official notice of his election the city treasurer shall execute and file an official bond with two or more sureties, or of some solvent surety company, in such penal sum as may be fixed by the council in accordance with section fourteen of the general construction law and sections eleven, twelve and thirteen of the public officers law; and for omission so to do he shall be subject to the penalties and liabilities prescribed by section eighteen hundred and twenty of the penal law, and sections thirteen, fifteen and thirty of the public officers law. Such bond shall be approved by the council with the certificate of the city clerk of such approval endorsed therein, and the bond so endorsed shall be filed and recorded in the clerk's office of the county of Nassau in the same manner as the official bond of town collectors, and in the event of default on the part of said treasurer such bond shall be a lien on all property owned by him at the time of such default together with all the costs and charges which may accrue upon the prosecution thereof; such bond shall continue in full force until the council shall by resolution declare that such bond is satisfied, and a copy of such resolution duly certified by the city clerk may be filed and recorded in the office of said city clerk and shall operate to discharge the same and the lien thereof from record. A true copy of such bond and certificate shall be filed in the city clerk's office. The city treasurer shall be the tax collector of the city with all the powers and duties hereinafter enumerated.

§ 22. City clerk. The city clerk of said city shall be ex officio clerk of the council, clerk of the board of health and registrar of vital statistics of the city. He shall perform such other duties incident to his office as may be required by the mayor and those established by ordinance. He shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the council and of each board of which he is ex officio clerk and shall record in books to be kept for that purpose all proceedings of the council and of each such board and index the same. He shall keep an office at such place as the council shall provide and designate. He shall have charge, custody and control of the corporate seal, books, papers, documents and official minutes of the city except as otherwise provided by or in pursuance of law. He shall keep a book and alphabetically index and record therein all bonds of the city officers as well as all contractors' or other bonds running to the city or any of its officers, and note therein the date of filing each such bond. He shall, upon request and payment of the fees therefor, make certified copies of all records and documents in his possession or under his control as such clerk or ex officio clerk, and may affix the corporate seal of the city to any such certificate, and such seal shall be deemed to be his official seal and any such certified copy shall be evidenced as provided in section three hundred and eighty-two of the civil practice act. He shall be entitled to demand and receive fees for such certified copies at the rate of ten cents per folio from each person, other than a city officer, upon whose request any such certified copy is made and delivered. He shall keep an accurate account of all fees and moneys received by him as such clerk or ex officio clerk, other than his salary, including fees received by him as registrar of vital statistics, and shall on or before the tenth day of each month pay over all such fees and moneys received by him during the month immediately preceding to the city treasurer to the credit of the contingent fund, for which he shall take a receipt and file the same in his office. Such receipt shall at all times be subject to examination by the council or any member thereof. His office is hereby declared to be a town clerk's office and he shall possess all the powers and discharge all the duties of a town clerk not inconsistent with this act.

§ 23. Corporation counsel. The corporation counsel shall be the official legal adviser of the council and all boards and officers of the city including the assessors. He shall furnish on request written legal opinion to the council or any department of the city. He shall, when directed by the council, prosecute and defend all actions and proceedings by and against the city and every department thereof, and perform such other professional services relating to said city as the mayor or council may direct. He shall when required prepare all ordinances, resolutions, legal papers, contracts, deeds and other instruments for the city and the different departments thereof. He shall at the expiration of his term of office hand and deliver to his successor in office as soon as qualified, the record or register of all suits or proceedings in which the city or any of its departments may be a party and also all papers on the part of the city therein, and also sign stipulations substituting said successor as attorney for the city to such suits or proceedings, to the end that a substitute order may be entered making such substitution. All costs in litigated cases, where the city is successful, shall belong to the city, and when collected shall be paid to the treasurer and credited to and form a part of the general fund of the city. He shall receive such compensation for services actually rendered as may be approved by the council.

§ 24. City engineer. The city engineer shall perform all of the city engineering required by the council and by all departments and officers of the city. He shall make all preliminary surveys for the opening, widening, laying, constructing, paving, macadamizing, repairing, grading and establishing the grade of all streets, sidewalks and crosswalks, gutters, sewers, sewer inlets and the measurement of all work done on the same or other public place in the city, and prepare plans, profiles and specifications therefor when necessary or when required by the mayor or the council, and shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be required by the mayor and the council. He shall have no power to contract any liability or debt on the part of the city, except as authorized by the council. He shall keep in his office books and records and surveys of all maps and streets, avenues, walks and the grades thereof, and water mains, sewers, sewer inlets, and the location and grades thereof. Such books and records shall be properly indexed and shall be the property of the city and transmitted with all other matters pertaining to his office to his successor. He shall receive such compensation for services rendered as may be approved by the council.

§ 25. City physician and health officer. The city physician shall be the health officer of the city. He shall have all the powers and be subject to all the duties provided by ordinance of the council and by the public health law.

§ 26. City supervisor. The supervisor of the city shall have such powers and duties within the city as may be prescribed by the council. He may hold any appointive position within the city. He shall be a member of the board of supervisors of the county of Nassau and shall receive the same compensation from the county payable in the same manner as supervisors of towns in the county of Nassau. The supervisor first elected and his successors elected under this act shall be recognized by the board of supervisors of the county of Nassau and be allowed to take his seat as a member of said board and participate in all the deliberations and proceedings of said board during his term of office. He shall have one vote in the county board of supervisors. His term of office shall begin as herein provided.

§ 44. Mayor as commissioner. The mayor shall be the commissioner of police of the city of Long Beach. He shall have charge of the police department.

§ 45. Appointment of chief of police. The mayor shall appoint a chief of police and such other clerks and assistants as may be necessary. He may designate a harbor master, a sealer of weights and measures and such other officers as may be required. He shall prescribe their duties and, subject to the approval of the council, fix their compensation.

§ 46. Accounts and records. The mayor shall cause to be kept proper accounts and records of the proceedings of the department. Such part of said accounts, records and proceedings as the public welfare may require shall be public.

§ 47. General powers and duties of commissioner. The powers and duties of the commissioner which shall be performed and exercised as herein provided and in accordance with the laws of the state and the ordinances of the city shall be as follows:

(a) He shall assume and exercise supervision over the police department and make all proper rules for the government and discipline thereof;

(b) He shall have the custody and control of all property, books, records and equipment belonging to the department;

(c) He shall preserve the public peace and prevent crime, arrest offenders and protect the rights of persons and property,

* So in original. [Does not conform to section heading.]

guard the public health, preserve order and enforce the laws of the state and ordinances of the city;

(d) He may change the titles of police officers and employees under him, except deputies, designating such titles as he may see fit, creating whatever offices and positions he may deem necessary for the proper organization and conduct of the department;

(e) He shall have power to administer oaths, take depositions and issue subpoenas;

(f) He shall have power, subject to the approval of the council, to erect and maintain police stations, garages, and barns, and to build and operate a telegraph signal system;

(g) He shall provide, through the purchasing department of said city, all materials and supplies for the use of the department;

(h) He shall, except as herein otherwise provided, collect all license money under the laws of the state and the charter and ordinances of the city, and account for the same;

(i) He may, with the approval of the council, in the name of the city take and hold by purchase, gift, devise, bequest or otherwise such real and personal property as may be needed for the purposes of the department;

(j) He shall recommend to the council the institution of condemnation proceedings whenever in his judgment private property should be taken in the name of the city for the purposes of the department;

(k) He may, with the approval of the council, sell and convey or lease lands whenever required by the interests of the city;

(l) He may make, with the approval of the council, all contracts to carry out the objects and purposes of the department as herein provided;

(m) He shall have such other powers as are herein prescribed or may be necessary hereunder for the proper discharge of his duties;

(n) He shall have supervision of all traffic, ordinances and regulations affecting streets, avenues, boulevards and other public places; keep a record in his office relative to accidents occurring therein incident to traffic; investigate the causes thereof; make recommendations to the council for necessary legislation to prevent and suppress such accidents, and shall through educational publicity among the people of the city seek to reduce the number of such accidents.

§ 48. Appointment of commissioner of police. The mayor may, with the approval of the council, and when in the opinion of the mayor the growth of the city justifies his act, appoint a commissioner of police who shall have all the powers and assume all the responsibilities of the mayor while acting as commissioner of police as provided in this act.

§ 49. Deputy commissioner. The mayor may, with the approval of the council, appoint a deputy commissioner of police during the sickness, absence or other temporary inability of the mayor to perform the duties of his office. The deputy commissioner shall perform the duties and have the powers of the mayor relating thereto, except that the deputy commissioner shall not have the authority to change any general rule or regulation or to make appointments or dismiss any member of the department.

§ 50. Qualifications of patrolmen. No person shall be appointed to or hold office who is not a citizen of the United States and who shall not have resided in the state of New York one year next preceding his appointment, who cannot read and write the English language, or who has ever been convicted of any crime, provided that qualifications as to residence herein prescribed shall not apply to the police commissioner or deputy police commissioner.

§ 51. Patrolmen of other departments. The mayor may appoint persons in the employment of the city in other departments as special policemen or patrolmen. Such policemen shall possess the same powers as the regular patrolmen, except when otherwise restricted by direction of the mayor; obey the rules and regulations of the mayor and conform to the general discipline of the department.

§ 52. Privately employed patrolmen. The mayor may, on application of any person or persons showing the necessity therefor, appoint and swear in any number of additional patrolmen at the charge and expense of the person or persons by whom the application shall be made, to do duty at any place designated in the application or by the mayor. Such patrolmen shall hold office at the pleasure of the mayor subject to the rules and regulations of the department, and shall conform to the general discipline of the force and such regulations as shall be made for their government and may be removed at any time by the mayor without cause assigned therefor. They shall wear such dress and emblems as the mayor shall prescribe and shall possess, as conservators of the peace, all the powers and privileges and perform all the duties of the force herein prescribed. No such patrolman shall be appointed until he shall have paid to the mayor the sum of five dollars to be credited to the policemen's retirement fund, if any such fund be established, otherwise to a fund which shall be maintained for injured policemen or their families, and the appointment may be renewed annually upon the payment of a like sum.

§ 53. Special patrolmen. The mayor may, in case of an emergency, riot, pestilence, invasion, or during any day of public election or celebration, or during the summer season, appoint for a specified time as many special patrolmen as he may deem advisable. During the terms of service such special patrolmen shall possess all the powers and privileges and perform all the duties of patrolmen herein prescribed and shall receive such compensation, not exceeding five dollars per day, as the mayor may prescribe.

§ 54. Oath of office. The mayor shall require each member of the force to take the constitutional oath of office, and provide for the registry of a certificate thereof in a book to be kept for that purpose, which oath may be taken before said mayor or the deputy commissioner, who are hereby empowered to administer oaths.

§ 55. Bonds of certain officers. The mayor may require the deputy commissioner, the heads of bureaus or any other officer or member of the force to give bond in such amount as the mayor may prescribe, conditioned upon the faithful performance of any duty connected with the care and disposition of any money or property under their control in connection with said department.

§ 56. Disposal of stolen or other property. All stolen or other property taken or found by any officer in the possession of any person or persons arrested or charged with a violation of the law, all property or money taken on suspicion of having been feloniously obtained or being the proceeds of crime and for which there is no other claimant than the person from whom it was taken, all lost property coming into the possession of the department, and all property and money taken from pawnbrokers as the proceeds of crime, or from any insane or intoxicated person or persons otherwise incapable of taking care of himself or themselves, shall be deposited, handled and accounted for under regulations prescribed by the mayor and approved by the council. All unclaimed property shall be sold in the manner prescribed by such regulations and the proceeds deposited in the city treasury to the credit of the police pension fund.

§ 57. Nuisances, strangers, et cetera. The mayor shall cause to be made a report of all leaks and defects in water pipes and sewers and all defective sidewalks and street pavements to the proper authorities; he shall provide a proper force at every public fire to protect the firemen in the performance of their duties and the preservation of property for the owners thereof, and shall station officers at railway stations and other public places.

§ 58. Duties of policemen at polls on election day. Nothing herein shall give the mayor or any patrolman power to do anything in conflict with the powers of inspectors of election. Policemen stationed at the polls on election days shall perform all the duties and be subject to all provisions of law relating to their attendance or to the attendance of constables at the polls on election days.

§ 59. Arrests. In every case of arrest the commanding officer on duty in the precinct wherein such arrest is made shall as soon as practicable make written return thereof according to the rules and regulations of the department. The mayor shall provide suitable accommodations for the detention and care of persons arrested for offenses. He shall also provide accommodations for the detention of witnesses who are unable to furnish security for their appearance in criminal proceedings and such accommodations shall be in places other than those for the confinement of persons charged with crime, fraud or disorderly conduct.

§ 60. Monthly financial report. The mayor shall on the last day of each month cause to be filed with the treasurer a report giving the date of collection or receipt of all money collected or received by the department, and shall daily pay into the city treasury all moneys so collected or received.

§ 61. Application of funds; annual estimate. All moneys paid into the city treasury by the mayor acting as police commissioner, except such moneys as are herein required to be credited to the police pension and retirement fund, shall apply exclusively on the payment of all expenses incurred by the department. On or before the first day of October of each year the commissioner shall transmit to the city treasurer his estimate in duplicate of the amount of money required for the purposes of the department for the ensuing fiscal year.

§ 62. Annual report. The mayor acting as commissioner shall, on or before the fifteenth day of January in each year, make a written report to the council of the work of the police department during the previous year. The report shall be certified by the mayor, entered of record by the city clerk and published in such manner as the council may direct. The mayor or deputy commissioner or chief of police shall also make such other reports as the council may from time to time require.

§ 63. Complaints.—The mayor shall promptly investigate and make report to the bureau of complaints concerning all complaints referred by such bureau to the mayor relative to the administration of the department.

§ 64. Further ordinances. The council shall enact such ordinances as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

§ 70. City council, how composed; powers. All the legislative powers of the city, howsoever conferred upon or possessed by it, are hereby vested in the council of the city of Long Beach, save as may be hereafter specially excepted. Such council shall be composed of the mayor, three councilmen and the supervisor, each of whom shall have a right to vote on all questions coming before the council. Three members shall constitute a quorum and the affirmative vote of three-fifths of the entire council shall be necessary to adopt any motion, resolution or ordinance or pass any measure unless otherwise provided for in this act.

The council shall exercise all the corporate powers conferred by this act and, except as otherwise provided by law or this act, shall have the management and control of the conveyance of all the property real and personal belonging to said corporation, and shall have power within said city to make, establish, publish and modify annually, and repeal, ordinance, rules, regulations and by-laws for any of the purposes specified in this act. It shall, for all purposes, be the common council of the city.

§ 71. Meetings. Meetings of the council shall be public. Stated meetings thereof shall be held at such times as the council shall prescribe by ordinance. Upon every vote of the council the ayes and nays shall be called and recorded, and every motion, resolution or ordinance shall be reduced to writing and read before the vote thereon is taken. The mayor shall preside at all meetings. He shall have power to veto any motion, resolution or ordinance. Any such motion vetoed by the mayor may be passed by the council by a four-fifths vote over his veto, and the same shall be carried and enacted as though it received the mayor's affirmative vote and signature. Every resolution or ordinance passed by the council must be signed by the mayor, or by three councilmen and must be properly recorded before the same shall be in force. The council shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and shall either publish the same in the official paper or papers, or shall provide by ordinance for their publication as provided in this section.

§ 72. Special meetings. Special meetings of the council may be held upon call of the mayor and also as may be provided by resolution or rule. Notice of all special meetings shall be given by delivering personally to each member, or leaving at his residence, at least twelve hours before such meeting, a written notice thereof, signed by the person or persons calling the same. Such notice shall specify the object of such meeting and no other business shall be transacted except upon unanimous consent of all of the members of the council.

§ 73. Rules. The council shall determine its own rules of procedure, may punish its members for disorderly conduct and compel their attendance at the council meetings.

§ 74. Additional authority conferred on council. The council shall, in addition to the authority conferred under general laws, from time to time enact ordinances:

1. To define and prevent disorderly conduct; to prevent all disorderly assemblages, all disturbing noise, all drunkenness in public places; and to punish vagrants, beggars and disorderly persons as defined by law;

2. To preserve and protect the harbors, canals, basins and other waters of the city; to prevent all encroachments, obstructions, and deposits in them; to prohibit or regulate bathing or swimming in any waters in the city; to prevent any steam vessel, while navigating waters within the city, from emitting dense smoke, soot or dust within the city limits; to regulate and prescribe the mode and speed of vessels, boats and floats in entering and leaving, coming to, lying at or departing from, the wharves and piers, and the disposition of the sails, yards, anchors and appurtenances, and to empower such officer as it may designate to prescribe and regulate the location therein of all vessels, boats or floats and to compel them to change their location;

3. To regulate the height and bulk of buildings and the area of yards, courts and other open spaces, and to regulate and restrict the location of trades and industries and the location of buildings designed for specific uses, and to fix the street line of all buildings; to prescribe general regulations for the erection of all buildings in the city; to define the limits within which wooden buildings shall not be erected, placed or rebuilt, and the manner in which, and the materials of which, all buildings shall be constructed within such limits, and also to define outer limits in which wooden buildings may be constructed, placed or rebuilt, under such regulations as may be imposed by ordinance, special permission from the council being required therefor. Every building erected or placed contrary to any ordinance passed under the above provisions shall be deemed a common nuisance, and may be abated as such; to regulate and prevent the use of fireworks and firearms in the city; to prevent bonfires in the streets and public grounds, and to require fire-escapes to be placed upon buildings when and as directed by the commissioner; to punish the wilful making of a false alarm of fire or wilfully calling a police patrol wagon without cause, and to prohibit the formation of fire, hose or hook and ladder companies;

4. To license and regulate cartmen, porters, owners and drivers of taxicabs and all vehicles used for the transportation of passengers or property for hire, and persons or corporations offering or supplying messenger service, and to fix the rates of compensation to be taken by them; to license and regulate plumbers, auctioneers, butchers, hawkers, peddlers, junk dealers, dance halls, dancing schools and other entertainments of like character, pawnbrokers and the business of pawnbrokers, and to fix the rates to be charged by pawnbrokers in their business; to regulate the running at large of dogs, and to license the same; to prohibit, license or regulate public billiard rooms, bowling alleys, runners or solicitors for houses of entertainment, railroads, vessels and vehicles and the exhibition of shows of every kind and of theatrical representations, and to prescribe the terms and conditions on which license shall be granted; to impose and levy a tax upon the owner or owners of hackney carriages, sleighs, cabs, coupes, private carriages, barouches, buggies, wagons, omnibuses, carts, drays, baggage wagons, bicycles, tricycles and similar vehicles or any other vehicle other than motor vehicles for the privilege of operating, driving or propelling the same along or upon the public streets, avenues, highways and other public places in the city; to fix the amount of such tax, and to prohibit the use of the public streets, highways, avenues and other public places of the city by the owner or owners or driver or drivers of any such vehicle in the event of any tax so imposed not being paid, and to fix and provide such penalty or penalties as it shall deem proper for a violation of any such ordinance; to regulate and license occupations and businesses of every description;

5. To prevent and abate any nuisance; to require any railroad company to keep a flagman or gates at each railroad crossing of a public street; to provide for the inspection of steam engines and boilers used in the city, and to prohibit the use of unsafe ones; to prevent the encroachment upon, projections over, injury to, or the incumbering of streets, alleys, wharves and public grounds;

6. To require bonds or undertakings to be given by the officers of the city and their deputies and to fix the amount thereof;

7. For the protection of the public health, to secure the proper registration of births, marriages, deaths and such other statistical information as may be necessary for the efficient working of the department of public safety;

8. To prescribe the duties of all officers or persons elected or appointed under this act, not herein prescribed; to prescribe the methods of auditing and paying any and every indebtedness of the city and any and every claim against the city; to prescribe the manner in which and the purposes for which the moneys annually appropriated may be used; to prescribe the methods by which the city may incur indebtedness; to prescribe the methods by which each and every official or person in the employ of the city shall keep or assist in keeping account of the receipts and disbursements of moneys belonging to the city, and of work done for or supplies or materials furnished to the city, any provision of this act to the contrary notwithstanding;

9. To pass such other and further ordinances not inconsistent with the laws of the state as shall be deemed expedient for the good government of the city, the protection of its property, the preservation of peace and good order, the suppression of vice, the benefit of trade or commerce, the preservation of health, the prevention and extinguishment of fires, and the exercise of its corporate powers and the performance of its corporate duties.

§ 75. Official newspaper. The council shall designate one or more newspapers published in the city of Long Beach or in the town of Hempstead and printed in the English language to be the official papers of the city of Long Beach, and all proceedings of said council shall be printed therein and in such other newspapers as the council shall direct.

§ 76. Ordinances, when in force; publication. Every ordinance or resolution appropriating money, except for the regular expenses of the departments and pay rolls, or ordering any improvement or making or authorizing any franchise or right to occupy or use the streets, highways, bridges or public places in the city for any purpose shall be complete in the form in which it is finally passed and every proposed ordinance shall be published once in full in a newspaper published in the city of Long Beach or in a newspaper published in the town of Hempstead and having a circulation in the city of Long Beach at least ten days before such ordinance is finally passed, except in cases of an emergency ordinance which may be passed as herein provided, which shall take effect upon passage and be so published within seven days thereafter and remain on file with the city clerk for public inspection at least two weeks.

§ 79.¹ Council may borrow money. The council may by resolution borrow money for any public or municipal purpose authorized by this act or general laws of the state and issue the obligations of the city and pledge its faith and credit for the repayment thereof, and to establish and maintain sinking funds for their amortization and redemption at maturity, but no obligation shall be issued for a term longer than the life of the improvement to be financed thereby and in no case for more than fifty years. All assessment bonds shall mature within ten years and shall be in anticipation of the collection of assessments levied or to be levied for local improvements. All bonds or other obligations of the city shall be in such form as the council shall prescribe. Such bonds may be an obligation of the city or, if the council so determine, such bonds may be payable out of a particular fund composed of collections of assessments for local improvements, financed wholly or in part out of the proceeds of such bond issue. If such bonds be payable out of such fund, as and when such assessments are collected, the amount thereof shall not be deemed an obligation of the city for the purpose of computing its debt limit; it shall, however, be obligatory on the part of the city to levy and collect such local assessments, and the part thereof that is fixed and determined and levied upon any parcel of real estate shall remain a lien thereon prior to all other tax or other liens except only prior assessments for local improvements in anticipation of collection of which bonds may remain outstanding.

§ 80. Council may rebuild public service plants. The council of the city of Long Beach may, upon the adoption of an ordinance to that effect, passed unanimously or it may upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the electors of the city voting at any general or special election, enlarge, rebuild, remodel and equip the municipal lighting plant, water plant and sewage disposal plant of the city, and the cost thereof may be assessed upon the property benefited thereby or such cost may be paid out of the taxes levied and collected or by the issuance of bonds which shall run for a period not exceeding thirty years; or the council may contract for the work, material and equipment necessary to enlarge, rebuild, remodel and equip any or all of said plants or for any addition thereto, or any improvement thereon, or for the laying of any mains connected therewith, the contract for which may contain a provision that no payment thereon shall be made until the cost of said work shall have been ascertained and assessed upon and collected from the property owners benefited thereby or from the taxpayers liable to taxation upon the same. Upon ascertaining the total cost of such work the council may establish and fix zones of assessment and assess the cost thereof upon the local property specifically benefited thereby, or the council may contract for the reconstruction of such plant or plants and any alterations thereof or additions thereto, and for the purchase and installation of mains, poles, machinery and equipment, and assess the cost thereof upon the property of the city as a whole determined by the council to be benefited thereby; or such alterations, improvements and equipment may be paid for partly by the city and partly by local assessment.

§ 81. Council may issue warrants. The council in the name of and in behalf of the city may issue warrants or certificates to the respective contractors upon the completion of their work, payable out of the special fund or funds as the same may be collected from the taxpayers; or the council may in its discretion sell revenue bonds chargeable to such fund or funds and payable out of the same as and when it is collected from the taxpayers, which bonds shall not run for a period longer than five years from the date of such bonds.

§ 81-a. Pavements; council may direct construction. The council may, by ordinance, direct and require any street or public ground in said city, or any part of either of them, to be graded, paved or macadamized, or to be regraded, repaved or resurfaced, or otherwise improved or repaired, at the cost and expense of the owners of the lots or parcels of land adjacent to the street, or public ground, or part thereof, so graded, paved, macadamized, repaved or resurfaced, improved or repaired and of the public at large, which cost and expense shall be apportioned, assessed and collected as hereinafter provided.

§ 81-b. Ordinance and notice to be published; hearing; action thereon. The council shall cause the proposed ordinance for an improvement specified in the last preceding section to be published once a week for at least two successive weeks in the official newspaper with a notice that at the time and place to be stated therein, which shall not be less than fifteen days from the first publication thereof, it will meet to consider such ordinance, and that at such meeting all parties interested may be heard. The council at the time and place stated in such notice, or at such other time and place as shall then be appointed for such purpose, shall hear all parties interested in the matter of such ordinance who shall desire to be heard, and by a majority of the members then present may adopt, modify or reject such proposed ordinance.

§ 81-c. Bonds may be issued; limitation of amount. When ever, in the opinion of the council, the public interests require, or will be promoted by the expenditure of a greater amount of money in any one year for the paving, repaving, resurfacing or macadamizing of any street or streets, than in its opinion it is expedient to raise by direct taxation in said year, it may issue bonds in the manner and form prescribed in this act. Said bonds, principal and interest, shall be a lien upon all the taxable property of said city, real and personal, and such property is hereby pledged for the payment; and to pay the principal and interest coming due in any year upon said bonds the council shall have power to add the necessary amount to the annual tax budget as required, or such street grading and paving bonds may be issued in the manner provided in sections eighty and eighty-one hereof or such work of street improvement may be paid in the manner provided in section eighty-two hereof.

§ 81-d. Contract price, when due; city may temporarily borrow on notes, or issue certificates. The contract price for any pavement constructed under the provisions of this act shall be due and payable within sixty days after the acceptance of the work, and if sufficient funds are not on hand applicable to the payment of such contract price, the council, within the limitation of this act, is hereby authorized to issue to the contractor a certificate of indebtedness for any deficiency, or borrow the same upon the notes of the city, payable out of assessments collected or the proceeds of bonds issued for such payment.

§ 82. Council may compel obedience to ordinances. Whenever the owner or occupant of any lands shall omit to do any act required by ordinance to be done by him in front of or upon such land the council may cause such act to be done, and in addition to the fine may recover by action from such owner the cost of doing the act, or may assess the same upon such lands. If the land be low land or land under water the city may require the owner to fill and grade the same and upon his failure so to do the city may fill in such property and grade the same and may collect the cost of such work from the owner by action or may assess the same upon such lands. Such assessment may be collected in instalments as any other assessments for local improvements levied by the city.

§ 83. Council may authorize rewards. The council may, by vote of four-fifths of its members, authorize the mayor to offer a reward for the apprehension of the perpetrator of crime committed within the city, or an offender against an ordinance, to be paid upon the conviction of such person.

§ 84. Council may regulate weighing of coal. The council may regulate the weighing of coal to be delivered to any purchaser or consumer in said city. For such purpose the council may annually designate a public scales and may provide by ordinance regulations for the weighing of such coal and for fines and penalties for those violating such ordinances.

§ 85. Ordinances and resolutions. (a) In legislative sessions the council shall act by ordinance, resolution or motion.

(b) The ayes and nays shall be taken upon the passage of all ordinances and resolutions and entered upon the journal of its proceedings. Upon the request of any member the ayes and nays shall be taken and recorded upon any motion. Every member when present must vote and every ordinance passed by the city council shall require on final passage the affirmative vote of a majority of all members of the council.

(c) No ordinance shall be passed finally on the date it is introduced, except in cases of special emergency, for the preservation of the public peace, health or safety, and then only by unanimous vote of all members of the council present. No ordinance making grant of any franchise or special privilege shall ever be passed as an emergency measure.

(d) The enacting clause of all ordinances passed by the council shall be in the following words: "Be it enacted by the council of the city of Long Beach."

§ 86. Amendment or repeal. No ordinance or section thereof shall be amended or repealed except by an ordinance regularly adopted.

§ 87. Record of ordinances. A true copy of every ordinance when adopted shall be numbered and recorded in a book marked "Ordinance record," and a certificate of adoption and publication shall be authenticated by the certificate of the publisher and by the signature of the mayor.

§ 88. Rules and regulations for the collection of garbage, ashes and refuse. The council shall prescribe the general rules and regulations for the collection of garbage, ashes and refuse of the city, and contracts for the removal of the same shall be let as other contracts as herein provided. The said council shall authorize the construction of such incinerating plants as it deem necessary in such locations as it may determine to be proper and fit. It may authorize the purchase of scows, tugs and other boats, and trucks, horses, automobiles or auto trucks which it may deem necessary for the removal and disposal of such garbage, ashes and refuse from said city. No incinerating plant shall be located, nor any ash dump or landing place for the removal of ashes be established, except upon the affirmative vote of four-fifths of the council.

§ 89. Temporary vacancies in council, how filled. If the mayor or any of the councilmen shall be unable to perform the executive or administrative duties of his office in consequence of sickness or temporary absence the council may designate one of its members to act in his place, and the member so designated shall perform such executive and administrative duties of such absent or disabled officer until he shall resume them.

§ 90. Accommodations for departments. The council shall provide the different departments with suitable rooms and accommodations and shall define the jurisdiction of each department except as herein specifically provided.

§ 91. Council shall have powers of other boards. The council has all the powers and is subject to all the liabilities and must perform all the duties of a separate board of water, light and sewer commissioners, if the council has not by ordinance established such separate boards; and until the council creates such boards, all provisions of law applying to either of such boards apply to the council.

§ 92. Banks of deposit. The council shall designate banks for the deposit of all moneys received by the treasurer, and may require of any such bank security for the payment thereof, and may require a report by the cashier thereof to each regular meeting of the council of the amount on deposit to the credit of the treasurer.

§ 93. Auditing bills. The council shall by ordinance provide for the proper auditing of all bills and claims against the city.

§ 94. Further powers of council. The council shall have such further powers as provided in article six hereof and other articles and as provided by general laws for common councils of cities of the third class, not inconsistent herewith.

§ 95. Civil service commission. The council shall establish civil service rules for the city departments and shall appoint civil service commissioners. The civil service commission shall in the manner defined by the civil service law and subject to and in pursuance of the provisions of such law and of all amendments that may from time to time be made to it, prescribe, amend and enforce rules for the classification of the officers, places and employment in the public service of the city, and for the appointments and promotions therein, and examinations therefor, and for the restriction and selection of laborers or employment therein.

§ 96. Council may establish board. The council may establish a separate board of fire, water, light, sewer, park, playground and boulevard, plan and zone, recreation, public welfare or other boards or a board possessing the powers of two or more such boards and prescribe the duties of such board or boards and provide for the appointment of commissioner thereof which may by ordinance authorize, empower and direct such board or boards to audit and order paid all bills and accounts incurred by such board or boards and which are payable out of the funds within the jurisdiction of such board or boards. Council may give names to the streets, parks and public places and numbers to the lots or villages.*

§ 97. Parks. The council shall:

1. Have authority to conduct at reasonable charges such facilities for the amusement, entertainment, refreshment or transportation of the public as are suitable to public parks, and may let privileges therefor, but such privileges shall be subject to supervision and direction of the council;

2. Plant, set out, or place and protect and care for flowers, vines, shrubs, and trees to adorn and improve the public squares, grounds, streets, avenues, alleys or spaces within the city, the cost of which or any part thereof to be provided for by general taxation or by special assessments in local assessment districts, or both, as may be prescribed by ordinance: Provided, that all original landscape work in parks and boulevards hereafter acquired shall be approved by the city plan commission.

ARTICLE 6.

ASSESSMENT; LEVY; COLLECTION OF TAXES.

Section 100. Levy of taxes by council; tax rolls.

101. Maximum amount of annual city tax levy.

102. Annual reports and estimates by boards and officers.

103. Tax district; board of assessors.

104. Completion of assessment roll.

105. Review of assessment.

106. Equalization and levy for state and county taxes.

107. Issue of tax roll and warrant to the treasurer.

108. Notice to taxpayers.

109. Tax receipt.

110. Treasurer shall mail tax bills.

111. Collection of taxes by civil action.

112. Proceeding in case of failure to collect tax on warrant.

113. Sale of land for unpaid taxes.

§ 100. Levy of taxes by council; tax rolls. The council must annually cause to be levied and raised by general tax upon all taxable property, real and personal, in the city according to the valuation upon the assessment roll for the current year corrected as herein provided:

* So in original.

1. The amount of taxes certified to the council by the board of supervisors to be assessed upon the city.

2. The amount of all interest and any instalment of principal falling due upon the bonds or other permanent debt of the city, which shall be kept in a separate fund to be called the public debt fund;

3. The amount necessary to defray the expenses for the next fiscal year as authorized and provided by this act.

§ 101. Maximum amount of annual city tax levy. The council may raise by tax upon the real and personal property assessable in the city in each year certain amounts which shall be estimated and designated for the following purposes:

1. For the payment of the expenses of the police department, including the salary of the city judge and the salaries of the officers of said department, to be designated the court and police fund;

2. For paving, repairing and keeping in order the streets, crosswalks, gutters, lands, public places and grounds of said city, for the service of the city engineer, the superintendent of public works and his assistants and employees, the erection and maintenance of bridges and culverts and other expenses relating to streets and highways, to be designated the public works fund;

3. A sum deemed necessary by the council for assisting the volunteer fire department in establishing a fire alarm system, maintaining its engine houses, hose carts, hook and ladder carts and other apparatus in good condition and deemed by the council necessary for the extinguishment of fires, and the proper protection of property in the city of Long Beach, to be designated the fire fund;

4. A sum necessary for the payment of the expenses of the department of charities, to be designated the poor fund;

5. A sum necessary for the purposes and uses of the board of education, to be designated the school fund;

6. A sum necessary for the lighting of the streets and public buildings of the city and expenses of maintaining all necessary apparatus and fixtures connected therewith, and any sum necessary for the maintenance, operation, enlargement or extension of the lighting plant of the city, to be designated the lighting fund;

7. A sum necessary for supplying water to the public buildings of the city and water for the extinguishment of fires, and any sum necessary for the maintenance, operation, enlargement or extension of the water plant of the city, to be designated the water fund;

8. A sum necessary for the maintenance, operation, enlargement or extension of the sewerage system of the city, to be designated sewerage fund;

9. A sum necessary for defraying general and contingent expenses, for the payment of all salaries and other expenses not otherwise provided for, to be designated the general city fund.

The aggregate for the annual tax levy for all purposes in this section above provided shall not exceed the rate of two per centum of the assessed valuation of the real and personal property liable to taxation in said city, as the same shall appear from the assessment roll of said city for the current year. In addition to the amounts shall be included such amount as shall be necessary to meet the principal and interest on the bonded and other indebtedness of the city falling due during the fiscal year for which the tax is levied, and to meet all indebtedness remaining unpaid on all judgments against the city; and such further sums as shall have been voted at a regular city election or at a special city election called for the purpose, and also for such other sums as the council is authorized to expend for purposes specified in this act.

§ 102. Annual reports and estimates by boards and officers. Between the first and the thirty-first days of October in each year each department in the city shall estimate in detail the expenses and income of their respective departments for the next fiscal year and shall certify such estimates to the council. The city judge shall present an estimate of the amount of fines and penalties that, in his judgment, will probably be received by the city court during the next fiscal year. The city clerk shall make a detailed statement of items of all the expenses of the city as estimated by it for the next fiscal year. The city clerk shall also make in his report a statement in detail of all judgments against the city then remaining unpaid, and an itemized statement of the principal and interest on all bonded and other indebtedness of the city that will fall due during the next fiscal year. The treasurer shall present a statement to the council of all unpaid taxes and local assessments theretofore assessed and remaining unpaid. The treasurer shall also in his report make a statement in detail of the amount of unpaid taxes and local assessments theretofore assessed and remaining unpaid and the amount which in his judgment will probably be received by the city therefrom during the next fiscal year, and all expenditures made or incurred by the city and chargeable to the property owners or other persons remaining unpaid and the amount which in his judgment will probably be received by the city during the next fiscal year. The council shall cause such estimates and statements to be published in the official newspaper of the city during the next week after its first regular meeting in the month of November. At that meeting or at any subsequent meeting of the council, not later than the first day of December next following, it shall revise such estimates, and determine and fix the entire amount necessary to be raised to defray the expenses of the city for the ensuing fiscal year. Said council may by a vote of four-fifths of its members approve or reduce, but shall not increase any of the estimates of the various boards or departments aforesaid, and shall immediately levy the aggregate amount taxed, ascertained and determined, together with any special tax which shall have been voted to be raised with the annual tax levy.

§ 103. Tax district; board of assessors. The city shall constitute a tax district. The three assessors of the city shall constitute the board of assessors. The elective assessor shall in each year prepare an assessment roll of the persons and property within the city in substantially the same manner and form as is required by law for the preparation of town assessment rolls in the towns of the county of Nassau; unnecessary columns shall be omitted therefrom and necessary columns shall be added thereto as such board may determine. The board of assessors by a majority vote of the three members shall, in the first instance and prior to the review thereof, fix and establish all values and assessments thereof in all respects as herein provided. The elective city assessor shall perform all the duties required of him by this act in relation to the assessment of property in said city as well as for the purpose of imposing taxes levied by the board of supervisors of Nassau county as those levied by the council of said city and to that end he shall perform all the duties and possess all the powers and authority of town assessors, except as modified by this act. He shall as fast as fixed and estimated by him, and within a reasonable time after estimating and appraising values, exhibit and furnish to the board of assessors all values and assessments as estimated by him, and the majority of said board shall fix and establish all values and assessments prior to the first day of May in each year and, prior to the completion, filing and review thereof, and shall meet together from time to time for such purpose.

§ 104. Completion of assessment roll. The board of assessors on the first day of June in each year except nineteen hundred and twenty-two shall complete such assessment roll and shall file the same with the city clerk and give notice for thirty days by posting in three public places in the city and by publication thereof in the official newspaper once in each week during said time that such assessment roll is completed and filed, and that all persons interested may examine the same at the city clerk's office, and that also on the first Tuesday of July next ensuing, at a place specified in such notice, the board of review will sit to review the same.

§ 105. Review of assessment. The board of assessors shall constitute a board of review. Such board shall meet at a time and place specified in the notice mentioned in the preceding section and review the assessment. Its sessions shall not aggregate more than seven days nor be continued beyond the first day of August. During the time the assessors review any tax assessment they shall have power to add or insert in such assessment roll any property liable to assessment and the valuation thereof which may have been omitted from such roll upon giving notice to the owner of such property or to his agent at least two days prior to adding the same. Except as modified by this act, the board of review shall have all the powers given by the tax law to assessors sitting to hear complaints in relation to assessments, and the proceedings in relation thereto shall be the same as provided by the tax law. Any person assessed upon the assessment roll claiming to be aggrieved by any assessment for property therein may review the same in the manner provided by the tax law. On or before the first day of September the corrected assessment roll together with the minutes of the board shall be filed in the office of the city clerk.

§ 106. Equalization and levy for state and county taxes. The city clerk shall immediately upon the filing of the corrected assessment roll and minutes proceed to prepare the roll for the ensuing year. He shall upon the written direction of the assessors correct all clerical errors appearing therein, make a true copy of the assessment roll as corrected, certify it under the seal of the city and deliver it to the chairman or clerk of the board of supervisors of the county of Nassau at its next meeting. The board of supervisors shall in each year equalize the assessments within the city of Long Beach with the assessments of the towns in the county, in the same manner as the assessments are required to be equalized between such towns. The board of supervisors shall not cause the state and county tax apportioned to said city to be spread upon any tax roll of property within the city, but shall by resolution ascertain and direct the amount of tax to be levied in the city for state and county purposes, and shall on or before the fifteenth day of October in each year certify such resolution under the hands of the chairman and the clerk of the board of supervisors to the council of the city and file such resolution with the city clerk, and the city clerk shall thereupon extend and apportion such tax on the assessment roll together with the city taxes levied as hereinafter provided, and no other extension and apportionment of such state and county taxes need be made.

§ 107. Issue of tax roll and warrant to the treasurer. The city clerk under the direction of the council shall extend and apportion the city tax on the assessment roll delivered to him in each year and shall forthwith file the same in his office. He shall make one copy of the same with the tax so extended and apportioned, and shall certify such copy to be a correct duplicate city roll of state, county and city taxes; such roll shall then, on or before the first day of December or as soon thereafter as practicable, be delivered to the treasurer of the city with a warrant annexed, under the seal of the city, signed by the mayor or acting mayor and the clerk of the city, commanding him to receive, levy and collect the several sums in the roll specified as assessed against the persons or property therein mentioned or described with such percentage or penalty and interest as in this act provided in the manner provided by law for the collection and levying of county taxes by town collectors, and with the additional powers conferred by this act. All taxes assessed and levied upon real estate in the city of Long Beach shall be a lien upon such real estate for the amount thereof, as of December first, and if not paid on or before January tenth following, such taxes shall bear interest and penalties as follows: If paid on or before January first following, no penalty; if paid thereafter and on or before March first, the penalty shall be at the rate of seven per centum per annum; if paid thereafter, the penalty shall be one per centum per month. Such penalty shall be collected with and in the same manner as the taxes and shall be a lien on such property until paid.

§ 108. Notice to taxpayers. Immediately upon receipt of the warrant and on or about December first of each year, the treasurer shall publish a notice in the official newspaper of the city that all taxes are due and payable, and if not paid on or before January tenth, such taxes shall bear the penalty herein provided.

§ 109. Tax receipt. Immediately upon receiving any tax the treasurer shall enter in a column prepared for the purpose and opposite the names of the persons or corporations paying the same, the fact of payment, date thereof, and shall give the person paying the same a receipt therefor. Any person may pay any one or more taxes or assessments upon his property, leaving others unpaid to be enforced in the manner provided by this act. All receipts issued by the treasurer for taxes paid to him shall be numbered consecutively, commencing with number one on the first receipt issue for taxes for any one year, and he shall not receipt for more than one year's taxes on the same property in one tax receipt, but shall use a separate and distinct series of numbers on receipts issued for the taxes of each year for which the same is levied and assessed. The city clerk shall cause all tax receipts to be printed and numbered and firmly bound together in book form, and to be in triplicate, and each triplicate shall bear the same number.

§ 110. Treasurer shall mail tax bills. On or before December first of each year the treasurer shall mail to every taxpayer whose address is known to him a tax bill, together with a copy of the notice published as herein provided.

§ 111. Collection of taxes by civil action. The treasurer is hereby authorized and empowered to recover by an action in any court of competent jurisdiction and in the corporate name of the city, the amount of any tax remaining unpaid after the expiration of ninety days with the additions and fees unpaid thereon, and to recover judgment therefor with the penalties due thereon as herein provided, together with the costs and expenses of such action. A transcript of the judgment obtained in such action may be filed, and such judgment docketed, in the office of the clerk of Nassau county, and it shall, however small the amount, thereupon become a judgment of the county court of said county and a lien to the amount of said judgment upon all real estate of the judgment debtor situated in said county. Upon any judgment recovered for said unpaid taxes, and docketed in said county clerk's office, execution may be issued and collected as provided by law, and all the provisions of law with reference to the sale and redemption of real estate on execution, or to proceedings supplementary to execution, shall apply to sales, redemptions or such proceedings which may be had under this act.

§ 112. Proceeding in case of failure to collect tax on warrant. On or before the fifteenth day of June next after any tax shall have been imposed upon any real estate in said county the treasurer shall make and deliver to the assessor a transcript of any and all such taxes which remain unpaid, and it shall be the duty of the assessor, on or before the fifteenth day of July thereafter, to make and deliver to the treasurer a statement containing a brief general description of the location, boundary and estimated quantity of each parcel of said lands, and in case any such lands shall have been erroneously assessed, it shall be the duty of such officer to make and include in said statement a correct assessment of the same valuation as before, and such corrected assessment and the amount of taxes levied upon said lands shall be as valid and effectual for all purposes as though they had originally been corrected.

§ 113. Sale of land for unpaid taxes. Whenever any such tax, penalty or interest, or any part of either of them, shall remain unpaid on the first day of August, the treasurer shall proceed to advertise and sell the lands upon which the same was imposed for the payment of such tax, penalty or interest, or the part remaining unpaid, and the expense of such sale as hereinafter prescribed shall also be a charge upon such lands.

§ 114. Manner of conducting sale of land for nonpayment of taxes. Each parcel shall be sold at public auction to the highest bidder and the sale shall be conducted in every way similar to the sales conducted by county treasurers as required under the tax law.

§ 115. Disposition of proceeds of sale. The proceeds of sale of each parcel, other than those struck off to the city, shall be applied to the payment of expenses of the sale as herein provided, and the extinguishment of the tax penalty and interest for which it was sold, and if there be any residue the treasurer shall hold the same until the owner of the premises shall redeem them from the sale as herein provided.

§ 116. Redemption of lands. The owner of, or any person interested in or having a lien on, any parcel or lot so sold may redeem the same from such sale at any time within two years by paying the treasurer for the use of the purchaser or his assigns the sum mentioned in the certificate as having been bid for the premises with interest thereon as provided herein, together with all costs and expenses of such sale, together with any tax or assessment upon said parcel or any part thereof up to and including the date of redemption.

§ 117. Notice of redemption. The treasurer shall publish a list of all property not redeemed within a period of two years and give notice to those interested therein that if such property be not redeemed within three months such property will be conveyed to the purchaser at the tax sale, or his assigns. A copy of such notice shall be served personally upon the owner, if his address can be obtained, and upon the occupant of the lands or, if unoccupied, posted on the premises, at least twenty days before the expiration of such time for final redemption, and such notice shall also be posted on the bulletin board in the local post office.

§ 118. Conveyance of real estate sold for taxes. If any parcel or lot so sold shall not be redeemed as herein provided, the treasurer, immediately after the expiration of said two years and three months, shall execute and deliver to the purchaser, his heirs or assigns, or to the city or its assigns, a conveyance of the real estate so sold, which conveyance shall vest in the grantee an estate in fee, subject only to the liens, if any, of unpaid taxes or assessments. The treasurer shall be entitled to and receive from the grantee two dollars for preparing every such conveyance. All purchases made by the city shall be included in one conveyance.

§ 119. Power of council as to void and erroneous assessments. The council of the city may, in its discretion, release, discharge, remit or commute any portion of the taxes assessed or levied against any person or property for any error, irregularity or omission in the levy of said taxes, or in any of the proceedings relating to the same.

§ 120. Collection of local assessments. Whenever an assessment shall be ordered for local improvements the assessment shall be made to resemble in form as nearly as practicable the tax list and be provided with a column in which payments can be entered by the treasurer. All provisions relating to the collection of taxes in this act shall be applicable to the collection of assessments mentioned in this act.

ARTICLE 7.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Section 123. Board of health.

§ 123. Board of health. The city board of health shall consist of the mayor and six other persons, one of whom shall be the city physician. The members of the board of health shall be appointed by the council upon the nomination of the mayor, and shall hold office for three years as provided in the public health law. Such board of health shall have all the powers and be subject to all the duties provided by the public health law.

ARTICLE 8.

CITY ELECTIONS; GENERAL; SPECIAL; HOW CONDUCTED.

Section 125. The first city election; other elections.

126. Village trustees to conduct first city election.

127. Canvass of election.

128. General city elections, how conducted.

129. City one election district.

130. Canvass of vote at regular city election.

§ 125. The first city election; other elections. A general municipal election for the choice of mayor, three members of the council, one supervisor, a city judge and one tax assessor provided for in this charter shall be held on the third Tuesday in May, nineteen hundred and twenty-two; and thereafter beginning the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, nineteen hundred and twenty-five, there will be held a general city election on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of every fourth year. All other elections held under the provisions of this charter, except primary elections, shall be known as special municipal elections.

§ 126. Village trustees to conduct first city election. The board of trustees of the village of Long Beach shall conduct the first election, as herein provided, of city officers of the city of Long Beach. They shall, with the president and clerk of the board, be the inspectors of election and shall appoint poll clerks, ballot clerks and other officials necessary to carry on such election. They shall provide the necessary ballots, ballot boxes, booths, places of election and do all that is necessary to carry on said election. The first election of city officials and the nominations therefor shall in all respects be conducted as the annual election and nominations therefor of officers of a village, except as herein otherwise provided. The village clerk shall give and post all necessary notice of officers to be elected. The list of such officers shall be those enumerated as elective officers in this act. All persons qualified to vote for village officers in the village of Long Beach shall be entitled to vote for city officers at the first election.

§ 127. Canvass of election. Immediately upon the closing of the polls the inspectors of election shall proceed to canvass the votes cast thereat and to announce the result as provided in section fifty-three of the village law.

§ 128. General city elections, how conducted. The council shall provide polling places, ballot boxes and other necessary apparatus and material in each election district in said city for all elections in said city, and the manner of conducting such elections shall in all respects conform to and be governed by the general laws of this state in respect of elections in cities of the third class, not inconsistent with this act. At each such election, other than as herein provided, a successor shall be elected to each elective city officer whose term of office shall expire with the year in which such election is held. Public notice of every election under this act, except the first election and except as hereinafter provided, shall be given by the council, the notice thereof to be published in the official newspaper of said city at least once in each week for two successive weeks immediately preceding the holding of such election, which notice shall designate the officers to be voted for at such election and the location of each polling place, or by such notice and in such manner as may be required by the election law. The polls of each general election and of each special election in said city at which one or more city officials are to be elected shall be opened and kept open and closed in each district as provided by the election law for general elections, and the inspectors shall canvass all votes cast for city officers and declare and make a statement of the result in the same manner as required by the general laws of the state, and file the same immediately with the city clerk, except as otherwise provided in this act. The city clerk shall at least one week before the date fixed by law for the first meeting of the board of registry for a city election, notify each inspector of election in writing of his appointment as such inspector, and of each day for the meeting of the board of registry in each election district of the city and the date of such election. Every inhabitant of said city who shall, at the time and place of offering his vote, be qualified to vote for member of assembly shall then and there be entitled to vote for all officers to be elected by the city. To entitle any elector to vote upon a proposition to raise money by tax or by bonds he must be entitled to vote for a city officer and must also be the owner of property in the city assessed upon the last preceding assessment roll thereof. Such proposition to raise money by tax or by bonds shall be deemed carried if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the entire number of votes cast thereon at said election. No elector of said city shall vote in any election district except that in which he shall reside at the time he offers his vote and shall have so resided for at least thirty days immediately prior to the election at which he offers his vote.

§ 129. City one election district. The entire city shall constitute one election district until some further division be made by resolution adopted by the council or pursuant to the election law.

§ 130. Canvass of vote at regular city election. The council of said city shall meet as a board of city canvassers on the next Thursday after each regular city election. The city clerk shall present to the council at said meeting, the certified statements of the result of such election in such election district of the city as delivered to him by the inspectors of election of such district. The council shall canvass such certified statements and declare the whole number of votes cast for all the candidates for each office to be filled at such election, the number of votes cast for each such candidate and what person was elected. The person having the greatest number of votes for the respective offices to be filled shall be declared duly elected. In case of a tie vote the mayor and council shall fill such office by appointment for the full term. The city clerk shall enter such determinations and declarations in the minutes of the meeting of the council.

154. Charges of misconduct or neglect of duty of any member of board of education.

155. Report of superintendent of schools.

156. District a union free school district.

§ 141. City permanent school district. The city shall form a permanent school district and shall not be subject to alteration by the district superintendent of schools. Such district shall be entitled to all the rights, powers, privileges, public moneys and other benefits conferred upon school districts by law or other state authority, and shall, except as otherwise provided in this act, be subject to all the rules, regulations, powers of inspection and superintendence prescribed by law applicable to city school districts.

§ 142. Board of education. The affairs of said school district of the city of Long Beach shall be managed by a board of five members to be appointed in the manner provided in this act, which board shall be known and designated as the board of education of the city of Long Beach. Said board and its successors shall possess all the powers conferred, and discharge all the duties imposed, by this act or by any general law of the state relating to school districts in cities or relating to boards of education of such districts, and not inconsistent with the provisions of this act.

§ 143. District board continued as city board; succession to property and obligations. The present members of the board of education of union free school district number twenty-eight of the town of Hempstead shall constitute the board of education of the city of Long Beach and shall be members of such board until their successors are appointed and qualified as provided in this act, and the title to all real estate and personal property now belonging to said union free school district is hereby vested in the city of Long Beach, and all moneys and funds belonging to said district shall be paid over and delivered to the treasurer of said city and credited by him to the school fund of said city. All the rights, powers, privileges, contracts, obligations and liabilities of said union free school district are hereby transferred to, vested in and imposed upon the city of Long Beach as hereby created; and the rights and privileges of all persons that may have arisen or accrued before this act takes effect shall remain and be enforced by or against said city in the same manner and with like effect as the same might have been enforced by or against the board of education of union free school district number twenty-eight of the town of Hempstead if this act had not been passed, subject, however, to the provisions of this act.

§ 144. Appointment of members of the board of education and organization of board. On or before the fifth day of June, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, the mayor of the city shall appoint five members of the board of education as follows: One member for a term of one year, one member for a term of two years, one member for a term of three years, one member for a term of four years, and one member for a term of five years, and in each year thereafter the mayor shall appoint one member in the place of the one whose term of office expires. The members of the board of education shall at its first meeting and thereafter at the first meeting in February in each year elect one of their number as president who shall hold office for the ensuing year.

§ 145. General powers and duties of president. The president of the board of education shall preside over meetings of the board when present, and perform such executive acts and duties as are required by this act and general laws and such other lawful business as shall be given him or her in charge by said board.

§ 146. Clerk and his general duties. The clerk of the board shall be its secretary, keep its minutes and perform such other duties as may be required by law or prescribed by the board.

§ 147. General powers of board of education. Subject to the provisions of this act and of the education law the board of education of the city of Long Beach shall have power and it shall be its duty:

1. To establish and organize in said city such and so many free schools as it shall deem requisite and expedient, and to change or discontinue the same at its discretion;

2. To alter, improve and repair school houses and appurtenances as it may deem advisable;

3. To purchase, sell or exchange, improve and repair school apparatus, books, furniture and appendages and to defray the necessary expenses attending the same;

4. To have the custody and safe keeping of the school buildings, lots, books, furniture and appendages and to see that the ordinances and by-laws of said city in regard thereto are enforced and any violation thereof punished;

5. To contract with and employ all necessary teachers for the schools of the city under such conditions, rules and regulations as may be established by the board, provided that such rules and regulation are in accord with the general laws of the state and the rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner of education of the state;

6. To pay the salaries of the clerk of the board and teachers out of any moneys appropriated or provided by law for that purpose;

7. To defray the necessary expenses of the board and district including the wages of janitors and other assistants and employees, and incidental expenses;

8. To expend all moneys raised by virtue of this act for purchasing sites, erecting or enlarging school houses, or for other purposes, in such a manner as may be deemed advisable, but only for the purposes for which the same was raised;

9. To take and appropriate lands and other real property within said city for school purposes upon making compensation therefor in the same manner and under the same proceedings as prescribed in this act and as conferred upon the board of public works for opening streets and highways;

10. To have, to the exclusion of all boards and officers except the superintendent of schools and the regents of the university of the state of New York, the entire supervision and management of the schools of said city; from time to time to adopt, alter, modify or repeal as it may deem expedient rules and regulations for its organization, government and instruction for the reception of pupils and their transfer from one school room or school house to another, for their advancement from class to class as their degree of scholarship shall warrant, and generally to promote good order, efficiency and prosperity of all the schools of the city;

11. To allow the children or persons nonresident within the city to attend any of the schools therein under the control of said board upon such terms as said board may by resolution prescribe;

12. To establish and maintain a city school library or a public library and provide suitable rooms for the use of the same; to exercise the same discretion as to the disposition of the moneys provided by law for the purchase of libraries as is conferred upon the inhabitants of school districts;

13. Except as otherwise provided in this act, to exercise all the powers conferred upon the inhabitants of school districts at school district meetings;

14. Except as otherwise provided in this act, to exercise all the powers conferred, and all the duties imposed by the general laws of the state applicable to boards of education in cities.

The records of the proceedings of said board, or a transcript thereof, certified by its president and clerk, shall be received in all courts or places as prima facie evidence of the facts thereon stated.

§ 148. Powers of board of education to raise tax for support of schools. On or before the fifteenth day of October in each year the board of education shall prepare a statement of such sums of money as it shall deem necessary during the fiscal year commencing with the first day of January next ensuing for each of the following purposes:

1. For wages of principals and teachers after applying such of the public school and other moneys as may be applicable thereto;

2. For the maintenance of a high school, if one shall have been established, and the payment of the teachers thereof after applying such of the public school and other moneys as may be applicable thereto;

3. For the repair of schoolhouses and grounds with the appendages and appurtenances;

4. For the purchase, repair and improvement of school apparatus, books, furniture and fixtures;

5. For the purchase of fuel and lights and to pay contingent expenses of the district, including the salaries of janitors, assistants, employees and incidental expenses.

When such statement is filed with the city clerk the council shall include in the annual tax and assessment-roll for that year the amount specified in said statement. In case said amount exceeds the limitations above specified it may be included in the annual tax and assessment-roll for that year by resolution of the council passed by a four-fifths vote of all the members thereof; otherwise the entire statement shall be returned to the board of education and it shall thereupon be the duty of said board to prepare a new statement in the same manner as the former, but the total amount of which shall not exceed the limitation of one-third of one per centum of the total assessed valuation of all the property within the city as appears by the last preceding assessment-roll. The amount specified in said statement included in the annual tax and assessment-roll of the city shall be collected by the city treasurer who shall credit the same to the school fund.

§ 149. Payment of funds to treasurer. All public moneys or public funds belonging or appropriated to the use of said school district number twenty-eight of the town of Hempstead shall be paid to the treasurer of the city of Long Beach who shall keep the same separate from the general funds of the city and shall credit to the school fund the moneys or property belonging thereto. The board of education shall disburse all the school funds of said district by orders upon the treasurer signed by the president; such orders shall be numbered consecutively and shall specify the purpose for which they are drawn and the person to whom payable. Upon request from said board the treasurer shall certify from time to time the balance remaining to be collected by or paid to the city treasurer for school purposes. It shall not be lawful for said treasurer to apply such moneys or any part thereof to any other purpose or object.

§ 150. Powers of board of education to purchase sites, or addition to any site, or erect or enlarge any school building. Whenever the board of education shall resolve by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of its members that it is necessary to purchase a site, or addition to any site, or erect any school building or enlarge any school building already erected, it shall specify in such resolution the district or zone within which such site is to be purchased or building erected or enlarged, and the particular sum required for each separately. The board of education shall then deliver a certified copy of such resolution to the mayor, who shall within thirty days of the receipt of such resolution call a special election of the electors of said city to vote for or against such appropriations as the proposed expenditures will impose. Said election shall be conducted and the result declared and certified pursuant to the provisions and in the manner prescribed for conducting special elections provided elsewhere in this act. In case a majority of the votes cast be in favor of said appropriations the council shall borrow on the faith and credit of the city the aggregate of the items having such majority, or any part thereof, at any time before and until the same can be provided for according to law. The council shall issue bonds or other evidence of indebtedness in such forms as it may prescribe at an annual rate of interest not exceeding six per centum and payable at such times and in such amounts as the council shall determine. Said bonds or any part thereof may be sold by the council in such a manner as it may deem best, but at not less than the par value thereof. The board of education, after completing the work or other objects for which said money may have been raised, may apply any unexpended balance that may remain to any object authorized or contemplated by this act. The board of education may borrow money from banks or trust companies in anticipation of the collection of taxes. Such money borrowed shall be credited to the account of the city and placed in the school fund and the city treasurer shall pay out and account for the same as any other money in such fund. The city treasurer shall pay the notes given by the board of education at maturity out of taxes collected. The receiver of taxes for the town of Hempstead shall turn over and pay to the treasurer of the city of Long Beach all money collected by him that is due and payable to union free school district number twenty-eight of the town of Hempstead, and such money shall be credited to the school fund.

§ 151. Annual report of board of education. It shall be the duty of the board of education, on or before the tenth day of January in each year, to make to the council a detailed report of the manner in which it shall have expended the money provided for and appropriated to school purposes from any source during the last fiscal year; and such report shall be published by the council in connection with and as a part of the annual report of the financial transactions of the city which are required by law to be printed and circulated. Said board shall also make report to the commissioner of education and such reports shall be made in the manner and at such times as he may direct.

§ 152. State commissioner of education to apportion state moneys. It shall be the duty of the commissioner of education of this state to apportion for the use of the board of education of the city of Long Beach such portions of the school, school library and other public money as it shall be entitled to by its annual report, in the same manner as such moneys are apportioned to cities, and the amounts to which it shall be so entitled shall be certified to the county treasurer of Nassau county. The county treasurer shall pay over to the city treasurer of the city of Long Beach, for the use of the board of education of said city, such proportion of the school, school library and other public money as may be apportioned by law or by the commissioner of education to the board of education of the city of Long Beach for teachers' salaries, school library and other school purposes.

§ 153. Council shall pass ordinances for protection of school property. The council shall have the power and it shall be its duty to pass such ordinances and by-laws as the board of education shall report necessary for protection, safe-keeping, care and preservation of said district, and to impose such penalties for the violation of the same as it shall deem proper.

§ 154. Charges of misconduct or neglect of duty of any member of the board of education. Charges of misconduct or neglect of duty on the part of any member of the board of education may be presented to said board by any member thereof, or by any elector of the city of Long Beach, and such charges shall be duly examined by such board at a regular or special meeting, of which the accused member shall have at least five days' notice, but at such meeting such accused member shall not be entitled to vote. If at such meeting after hearing the evidence on both sides, the board shall deem the charges against the member sustained, all the papers and documents in the case, with a transcript of the proceedings of the meeting, shall be transmitted by the clerk of the board of education to the state commissioner of education, and upon his approval of the findings of the board, the accused member shall be removed and his place deemed vacant. All vacancies in the board of education occasioned by the resignation, refusal to serve, death or removal of any of its members shall be filled for the unexpired term by appointment by the mayor.

§ 155. Report of superintendent of schools. The superintendent of schools of the city of Long Beach shall confer with and act under the direction of the board of education of said city in the performance of his duties. He shall, subject to the direction of said board, have general control and supervision of the public schools in said city and the principal of each school shall have supervision over the school in which he presides and of the teachers employed therein, and shall, on or before the first day of July in each year, or at such other time or times as shall be required by the board of education, report in writing to the board on the following subjects:

1. The whole number of schools within the jurisdiction of the board of education, their cleanliness and sanitary condition;

2. The repairs or alterations, if any, that are necessary for each of said schools;

3. The condition of the school furniture, apparatus and books in the several schools, and the repairs and additions thereto that may be necessary;

4. The number of teachers employed in the several schools, their grade of work and their efficiency, with suggestions as to the increase or decrease in the number thereof;

5. The number of pupils registered at each school, the average daily attendance and the number of pupils enrolled in each grade in the several schools;

6. Such changes in the organization and curriculum of any or all of the schools as he may deem advisable;

7. Such other information in relation to the city schools as may be of interest to the people of the city of Long Beach.

§ 156. District a union free school district. The said district shall be deemed and is hereby declared to be a union free school district under the education law. All provisions of law not inconsistent with the provisions of this act applicable to school districts whose limits correspond with any incorporated city, and the boards of education therein, and the corporate authority of such cities are made applicable to the school district hereby established, and to the board of education thereof, and to the corporate authorities of the city of Long Beach.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Section 160. Fire commissioners.

161. Powers and duties of commissioners.

162. New equipment.

163. Officers; members; volunteers.

164. Further powers of commissioners.

§ 160. Fire commissioners. The mayor may appoint a board of fire commissioners composed of three members for the term of one year, two years and three years, respectively, and each year thereafter the mayor shall appoint one commissioner for the full term of three years.

§ 161. Powers and duties of commissioners. The fire commissioners shall have general supervision over the fire departments of the city, whether volunteer or paid, or partly volunteer and partly paid. They shall from time to time cause to be examined all fire apparatus and equipment and determine whether or not such apparatus and equipment is adequate for the proper protection of the city. They shall from time to time make recommendations to the various fire departments and to the council. If upon inspection hose or other equipment be found defective the commissioners shall order the same replaced. No hose or other equipment shall be used after the same has been condemned by the commissioners.

§ 162. New equipment. The fire commissioners may recommend to the council the purchase of fire houses, fire engines, hose and other fire equipment, a fire alarm system and all other apparatus for use in extinguishing fires, and the council may appropriate and raise by taxation money for such purpose.

§ 163. Officers; members; volunteers. The fire force of the city shall consist of volunteers until the council shall by ordinance provide for a paid or partly paid department. The council may, upon the recommendation of the commissioners, employ expert fire fighters and instructors to work with the volunteers and fire officers of experience; or the council may, upon the recommendation of the commissioners enter into agreements with the various volunteer fire departments for the adequate protection of the city against fire.

§ 164. Further powers of commissioners. Such commissioners shall have such other powers as may be conferred upon them by ordinance not inconsistent herewith or with the laws of the state.

§ 170. Commissioner. There shall be a department of public works and a commissioner thereof who may be appointed as hereinafter provided.

§ 171. Mayor: acting commissioner. The mayor shall be the commissioner of public works, with all the powers and duties of such office, as herein provided, and as provided by the laws of the state, until the council determines, as hereinafter provided, that a commissioner shall be appointed by the mayor.

§ 172. Deputy commissioner. The mayor shall appoint a deputy commissioner of public works at a salary to be fixed by council.

§ 173. When commissioner shall be appointed. When the population of the city and the duties of the department justify, in the opinion of the council, the appointment of a commissioner of public works, other than the mayor, who will devote his entire time to the duties of the office, the council may, by resolution passed unanimously, at a regular meeting, or at a special meeting called for that purpose, at which all members are present, authorize the appointment of a separate commissioner of public works. Upon the passage of such resolution the mayor shall appoint a commissioner of public works, who shall have all the powers and duties herein provided or which may be provided by law. The compensation of such commissioner shall be fixed by the council.

§ 174. Qualifications; term of office; vacancies; compensation. No person shall be eligible to appointment as such commissioner who is not a citizen of the United States and a resident of the city of Long Beach. The commissioner may be removed by the mayor at any time without cause assigned. Any vacancy in the office shall be filled by the mayor. The compensation of the commissioner shall be fixed by the council. The commissioner shall appoint, subject to the approval of the council, such deputies, clerks and assistants as may be necessary. The city engineer shall, under the supervision of the commissioner, have charge of and do all the civil engineering for the department of public works. The commissioner shall prescribe the duties of such deputies, clerks and other assistants.

§ 175. Accounts and records. The commissioner shall cause to be kept proper accounts and a record of the proceedings of the department. All accounts, records and proceedings of the department shall be public.

§ 176. General powers and duties. The powers and duties of the commissioner, which shall be exercised and performed as herein provided, and in accordance with the general ordinances of the city, shall be as follows:

(a) He shall have power and it shall be his duty to do all paving and repaving, cleaning and sprinkling of all boulevards, streets, alleys, public squares, parks, or places and bridges and bridge approaches;

(b) Shall establish grades for all streets, alleys and other public places, and when once established by him such grades shall not be changed unless by a four-fifths vote of the council;

(c) Shall have charge of the construction, maintenance and repair of all public sewers, drains, culverts, sidewalks, docks, wharves, moles, seawalls, breakwaters and dykes and the filling in and grading of all land under water, meadow and low land and, on request of the council, any other work of public improvement;

(d) Shall have charge of the maintenance and repairs of all public buildings within the city limits;

(e) Shall provide all materials and supplies for the use of the department;

(f) Shall supervise the making of excavations in or under streets, alleys or other public places for ditches, trenches, tunnels, vaults and the like, the laying therein of pipes, wires, cables, conduits and the like, the erection of all poles in such streets, alleys or other public places, and the use thereof generally for purposes similar to those herein named, and shall supervise the back filling of such excavations and the restoration to normal condition of such streets, alleys or other public places;

(g) Shall be charged with the duty of issuing permits for the entry upon or into any street, alley or other public place by any person, firm, corporation or city department for the purpose of doing any of the things referred to in paragraph "f", or for the purpose of the construction, repair or moving of buildings, or for any other purpose whereby the use thereof by the public shall be obstructed, and no person, firm, corporation, or department shall enter upon or occupy such street, alley or other public place for any of such purposes, except at such times and in such manner as the commissioner shall prescribe;

(h) Shall decide as between two or more persons, firms, corporations or departments, or any of them, the order in which work proposed to be done by them at or about the same time in streets, alleys or other public places shall be performed;

(i) Shall prescribe uniform standard rules governing the doing of any kind of work in streets, alleys or other public places by any person, firm, corporation or department, the entry thereon for the purpose and the proper completion of such work, such rules and all amendments thereto to be subject to the approval of the council; provided, that such rules shall not be subject to amendment after the first day of March nor prior to the first day of November in any year;

(j) Shall make proper charges to be prescribed by the rules of the department for the supervision herein referred to and the inspections necessary in connection therewith; provided, that all charges to other departments for all materials and work shall be on the basis of the actual cost thereof;

(k) Shall make all connections with lateral or main sewers, and prepare plans therefor, and assessment rolls for lateral sewers;

(l) Shall have charge of the disposal of all sewage, as authorized by the council;

(m) Shall supervise the collection and disposal of all garbage in the manner provided by the council; and with the approval of the council construct, operate and maintain, within or without the city, an ice plant or a plant for the disposal of garbage and dispose of the by-products therefrom;

(n) Shall keep official records of plans, maps and plats of the city for the department; and make and publish an official map of the city;

(o) May, with the approval of the council, in the name of the city, take and hold, by purchase, gift, devise, bequest or otherwise, such real and personal property as may be needful for carrying out the intents and purposes for which it is established;

(p) Shall recommend to the council the institution of condemnation proceedings whenever, in his judgment, private property should be taken in the name of the city for the purposes of the department;

(q) May, with the approval of the council, sell and convey or lease lands whenever required by the interests of the city;

(r) May establish all reasonable rules and regulations to protect the rights and property vested in the city and under the control of the department;

(s) Make, with the approval of the council, contracts to carry out the objects and purposes of the department as herein provided;

(t) Shall on behalf of the city be empowered to bid on the construction of any pavements or repavements, public sewers or lateral sewers or any part thereof in public streets, alleys or public places, and, if the lowest bidder, shall be awarded the contract; and

(u) Shall have such other powers as are herein prescribed or may be necessary for the proper discharge of his duties.

§ 177. Public improvements. Whenever the council shall order any work of public improvement, it shall cause notice to be given forthwith to the commissioner of public works, who shall proceed to do such work or to make contracts therefor, subject to the approval of the council.

§ 178. Application of funds; annual estimates. All moneys paid into the city treasury by the department shall apply exclusively on the payment of expenses incurred by it. On or before the fifteenth day of October of each year, the commissioner shall transmit to the city treasurer his estimate in duplicate of the amount of money required for the purposes of the department for the ensuing fiscal year.

§ 179. Annual report. The commissioner shall, on or before the first day of January in each year, make a written report to the council relative to the work of the department and the condition of the property in his charge. The report shall be certified by the commissioner, entered of record by the city clerk, and published in such manner as the council may direct. The commissioner shall also make such other reports as the council may, from time to time, require.

§ 180. Complaints. The commissioner shall promptly investigate and make report to the council concerning all complaints referred by the council to the commissioner relative to the administration of the department.

§ 181. Legislation by council. The council shall enact such ordinances as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

§ 186. General jurisdiction and powers of city court and city judge. Except as otherwise provided by this act and by statute, the city court shall have jurisdiction of the same actions and proceedings, civil, criminal and of a criminal nature, as a justice of the peace of a town and his court, and the city judge shall have the powers and perform the duties of such justice in such actions and proceedings and otherwise in the administration of justice. Except as otherwise provided herein and by statute, the city shall be regarded as a town for the purpose of applying a statutory provision referring to a town and applicable to matters governed by this article.

§ 187. Jurisdiction in civil actions and proceedings. Except as limited by the next succeeding section, the city court shall have jurisdiction in the following civil actions and proceedings:

1. An action to recover damages upon or for breach of contract, express or implied, other than a promise to marry, when the sum claimed does not exceed one thousand dollars;
2. An action to recover damages for or on account of personal injury or an injury to property, where the sum claimed does not exceed one thousand dollars;
3. An action for a fine or penalty not exceeding one-thousand dollars;

4. An action upon a judgment not exceeding one thousand dollars rendered in such court or in any court of the state of local jurisdiction not being a court of record;

5. An action to recover one or more chattels, with or without damages for the taking, withholding or detention thereof, where the value of the chattels as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff or, if there be no requisition to replevy, the value as stated in the complaint, does not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars;

6. To render judgment upon the confession of the defendant, where the amount confessed does not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars;

7. The city court has jurisdiction in proceedings for the summary removal of persons from real property as prescribed in article eighty-three of the civil practice act, and such proceedings shall be taken in accordance with the provisions of said article so far as they are applicable to courts of justices of the peace;

8. An action upon a surety bond taken in such court or by a justice of the peace;

9. An action to foreclose a lien upon a chattel for a sum of money in any case where the amount of the lien does not exceed one thousand dollars;

10. An action to enforce a mechanic's lien on real property in the manner provided in the lien law for the enforcement of a mechanic's lien in a court not of record, where the amount of the lien as determined by the court does not exceed one thousand dollars;

11. An action for damages for fraud in the sale, purchase or exchange of personal property, if the damages claimed do not exceed one thousand dollars;

12. An action commenced by attachment pursuant to the provisions of the civil practice act, if the debt or damages claimed do not exceed one thousand dollars;

13. An action against an executor or administrator as such, where the amount of the claim does not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars and the claim has been duly presented to the executor or administrator and rejected by him.

§ 188. Jurisdiction where city is a party. The city court shall have jurisdiction of an action or proceeding by or against the city subject to the limitations of this act relating to the jurisdiction of such court in actions or proceedings by or against individuals.

§ 189. Certain actions not cognizable. The city court shall not take cognizance of a civil action in either of the following cases:

1. Where the title to real property comes in question as prescribed in article eight of the justice court act, and when such question arises the pleadings and practice shall be the same as in courts of justices of the peace of towns;

2. Where the action is to recover damages for false imprisonment, libel, slander, criminal conversation, seduction or malicious prosecution;

3. Where, in a matter of account, the sum total of all the accounts of both parties, proved to the satisfaction of the court, exceeds two thousand dollars;

4. Where the action is brought against an executor or an administrator as such, except where the amount of the claim does not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars and the claim has been duly presented to the executor or administrator and rejected by him;

5. Where neither the plaintiff nor the defendant, nor one or more of the plaintiffs or defendants, resides in the city. For the purpose of this limitation, however, a corporation having an office or agency established within the city for the transaction of its business shall be deemed a resident of the city.

§ 190. Enumerated powers of city judge. The city judge

1. May take and certify oaths, affidavits and acknowledgements within the city and shall be entitled to the same fees therefor as a justice of the peace;

2. May make and certify copies of papers, minutes, records and documents in his office, or of the city court, and transcripts from his docket, in the same manner as exemplifications of papers and records by a clerk of a court of record;

3. Shall render to the council from time to time as said council may require an account of all fines and fees and other sums collected in civil or criminal matters, the amount of such account when audited to be paid to the city treasurer;

4. Shall have an official seal of such design as may be prescribed by ordinance to be used by the city judge and city court clerk on any certificate which either is authorized to make;

5. May make, alter and amend rules of practice in relation to matters of which the city court or city judge has cognizance.

§ 191. Acting city judge. The mayor may, and if required by ordinance shall, appoint an acting city judge. The person appointed must be eligible to the office of city judge. The mayor may revoke any such appointment at his pleasure and make new appointments, but a vacancy must not be filled unless an ordinance requiring that there be such an office be then in force. A revocation of an appointment shall be in writing and take effect when filed with the city clerk. If the compensation of the acting city judge be not fixed as provided in this act his accounts for professional services from time to time may be audited at their reasonable value and paid as other contractual claims against the city.

§ 192. Powers and duties of acting city judge. The acting city judge shall have the same powers and duties as herein provided for the city judge.

§ 193. Reciprocal and exclusive powers of city judge and acting city judge. Proceedings under any process returned during the absence or disability of the city judge or a vacancy in his office shall be had in the first instance before the acting city judge, and may be continued to a determination before him unless the city judge assumes jurisdiction. The fact that either judge has acted in a matter shall not of itself deprive the other of jurisdiction therein, except that after a trial or hearing involving the taking of oral testimony has begun it shall be conducted to a determination by the same judge.

§ 194. City court clerk. If authorized by the council there may be a clerk of the city court to be appointed by the mayor. Such clerk shall perform such duties and have such powers as the city judge may prescribe in addition to those hereinafter enumerated. Such clerk may be the stenographer of the court or he may hold any other office in the city designated by the council. He may have power to issue a summons, subpoena and any other process issuable as a matter of course and not requiring an application upon affidavit or petition and to make and entry thereof in the judge's docket. He shall have power to certify copies of papers and documents filed with the city court or city judge, and records and minutes of such court or judge, and transcripts from the judge's docket with the same force and effect as if certified by the city judge. He shall be the custodian of such papers and records of the city court or city judge as the city judge may place in his charge. He may adjourn to a certain day and hour the proceedings upon a process or mandate returned in the absence of the city judge and acting city judge, or in their absence any other matter properly before the court for a hearing.

§ 195. Commencement of action. An action must be commenced by the service of summons or by the voluntary joinder of issue by the parties; but for the purpose of saving a cause of action from the operation of the statute of limitations an attempt to commence an action is equivalent to the commencement thereof when the summons is issued by the clerk, provided that actual service thereof is made with due diligence.

§ 196. Requisites of summons. The summons must be addressed to the defendant by name, or, if his name is unknown, by a fictitious name, and must summon him to appear before the clerk of the court within five days from the date of service, exclusive of the date of service, and make answer to the complaint. If no written complaint is served with the summons, the plaintiff, or, in case of his inability to do so, the clerk, must endorse upon or attach to the summons a brief statement of the nature and substance of the cause of action, and the summons must state the amount for which the plaintiff will take judgment if the defendant fails to appear and make answer. The address of the plaintiff must be stated on the summons. The summons must be subscribed and issued by the clerk of the court or by the plaintiff's attorney in his own name. When the summons is issued by the plaintiff's attorney, he must add to his signature his office and post-office address.

CITY COURT OF THE CITY OF LONG BEACH, NASSAU COUNTY, NEW YORK.

Plaintiff,

Defendant.

To the above named defendant:

You are hereby summoned to appear in this action in the city court of the city of Long Beach, Nassau county, New York, before the clerk of the said court at his office in the city of Long Beach, within five days after the service of this summons upon you, exclusive of the day of service, and to make answer to the complaint; and if you fail to make answer, judgment will be taken against you for the sum of $....., with interest thereon from the day of, 19...., together with the costs of this action.

Dated, Long Beach, Nassau county, New York, the day of, 19....

Attorney for the plaintiff.

Clerk.

(Office and post-office address.)

Plaintiff's address.....

§ 198. Method of serving summons. The summons may be served upon the defendant within the city of Long Beach in like manner as though the summons issued out of the supreme court, except as otherwise provided in this act or in the rules, provided that it shall not be served by publication.

§ 199. Who may serve summons or precept; proof of service.

1. Personal service of summons or service of a precept in summary proceedings shall be made by a marshal or by any other person over the age of eighteen years and not a party to the action.

2. Proof of service shall be made by the certificate of the marshal or by the affidavit of the person by whom the service was made; and such certificate or affidavit shall be indorsed upon or annexed to the summons or precept.

3. Within two days after service, the summons, or the summons and complaint if the complaint was served with the summons must be filed with proof of service in the office of the clerk in the district where the action is pending.

§ 200. Endorsement upon summons for execution against the person. If no verified complaint is served with the summons in an action where execution against the person may issue upon the judgment, the summons and the copy delivered to the defendant must bear an indorsement substantially in the following language: "Plaintiff claims defendant is liable to arrest and imprisonment in this case."

§ 201. Guardian ad litem. When a guardian is necessary he must be appointed by the court as follows:

1. If the infant is plaintiff, the appointment must be made before the summons is issued, upon the application of the infant, if he is of the age of fourteen years or upwards; if under that age, upon the application of some relative or friend. The consent in writing of the guardian to be appointed and to be liable for costs if he fails in the action, must be filed with the clerk of the court.

2. After the filing of proof of service of the summons against an infant defendant, no other proceeding shall be taken in the action until a person has been appointed as his guardian for the purpose of the action. Upon the nomination of the defendant, the court must appoint a proper person for that purpose, but if the defendant neglects or refuses to nominate the court may, on application of the plaintiff, appoint any proper person as a guardian upon the filing of such person's written consent with the clerk. The guardian so appointed is not responsible for costs.

3. Where no guardian has been appointed, as in this section provided, the court shall, at any time before judgment, make such appointment. The guardian so appointed is not responsible for costs.

§ 202. Joinder of parties; interpleader. 1. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this act, all questions as to the joinder of parties shall be determined by the provisions of law applicable to like cases in the supreme court.

2. No action shall be defeated by the nonjoinder or misjoinder of parties. The names of new parties may be added and the names of parties misjoined may be struck out, by order of the court, at any stage of the cause and upon such terms as justice may require.

3. Upon the application of the defendant in an action brought to recover upon a contract or to recover a chattel, the court may make an order of interpleader or an order joining adverse claimants as parties defendant, according to the provisions of law applicable to like cases in the supreme court.

§ 203. Prosecuting or defending as a poor person. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this section or in the rules of the court, a person may obtain leave to prosecute or defend an action as a poor person and to have an attorney assigned to conduct his case, in accordance with the provisions of law applicable to like cases in the supreme court. The petition for such leave may be verified before the clerk of the court, and the certificate of the clerk that he has inquired into the facts of the case and that in his opinion the plaintiff has a prima facie cause of action or that the defendant has a prima facie defense, as the case may be, shall have the same force and effect as the certificate of an attorney.

§ 204. Grounds of arrest. A defendant may be arrested in any case of which the court has jurisdiction and in which he might be arrested were the action brought in the supreme court.

§ 205. Pleadings; bills of particulars; special appearance. Pleadings in actions may be oral or written, verified or unverified, except that the pleadings in an action to establish a mechanic's lien must be verified. Pleadings shall consist of complaint and answer and, when ordered, a reply.

1. When an action is commenced by service of a summons only, a statement of the nature and substance of the plaintiff's cause of action shall be endorsed upon or annexed to the summons.

2. Issue must be joined within the time limited by the summons, provided, however, that when the last day falls on Saturday the defendant may answer on the next business day.

3. If a written complaint is served with the summons a written answer must be filed; and if the complaint is verified, the answer must be verified; provided, however, that in an action where the amount claimed is one hundred dollars or less, the defendant, if he appears in person, may answer orally. When a defendant answers orally a statement of the nature and the substance of the answer shall be endorsed upon or annexed to the summons. The address of the defendant, or the office and post-office address of his attorney, shall be endorsed upon the summons.

4. At any time before judgment, the court may direct the filing of a written pleading, verified or unverified.

5. On or before the defendant's last day to answer, his time to move or answer may be extended by filing with the clerk a written stipulation of the parties, or by order of the court upon cause shown.

6. The original or a copy of a contract or other writing on which a cause of action or a defense or a counterclaim is founded may be filed with the pleading and shall be deemed a part of the pleading. Within three days after service of a written demand by either party, the adverse party shall file with the clerk the original or sworn copy of any such contract or other writing specified in such demand. If the paper is not duly filed, the court may order that it be filed and may exclude it from evidence if not filed accordingly.

7. In a proper case a written demand for a bill of particulars of the complaint or counterclaim may be filed with the clerk. The defendant may file his demand at the time of answering. The plaintiff may file his demand three days after the counterclaim is interposed. In either case a bill of particulars must be filed within three days after the demand is filed and the court upon motion or notice may preclude the party failing to file such bill of particulars from giving evidence of the part or parts of his affirmative allegation of which particulars have not been filed. The court may order a written bill of particulars, with or without verification, to be filed and served by the plaintiff or by the defendant interposing a counterclaim.

8. For the purpose of raising a question not involving the merits of the action, a party may appear specially by filing with the clerk, on or before the last day for answering, a notice of special appearance stating the particular purpose for which he appears. In that event the case shall be set down for hearing, and the party thus appearing need not plead further until directed to do so by the court.

§ 206. Joinder and severance of causes of action. The plaintiff may include in the same complaint any cause of action of which the court has jurisdiction to the end that all matters of difference between the respective parties may, so far as practicable, be determined in one action; but if it appears to the court that causes of action so joined should not be tried or disposed of together, the court may order them to be tried separately, or that the action be severed, and may make such other and further orders as may be necessary or expedient for the separate disposal thereof.

§ 207. Judgment by default. If the defendant fails to answer within the prescribed time, judgment for the plaintiff may be taken by default, without application to the court, in a case in which the complaint or the statement endorsed upon or annexed to the summons sets forth one or more causes of action upon which a judgment by default may thus be entered in an action in the supreme court.

In such a case, if the verified complaint has been filed and served with the summons, the clerk shall enter judgment forthwith; otherwise the clerk must at the plaintiff's request ascertain the amount due and enter judgment therefor in the manner prescribed for like cases in the supreme court. In all other cases where the defendant makes default in pleading the plaintiff can recover judgment only on application to the court and proof of his cause of action.

§ 208. Offer of judgment. At the time of answering the defendant may file with the clerk a written offer to allow judgment to be taken against him for a sum of money or for property therein specified with costs. If there are two or more defendants, and the action can be severed, a like offer may be made by one or more of them against whom a separate judgment may be taken. If the plaintiff thereupon, before taking any other proceeding in the action, files with the clerk a written acceptance of the offer, the clerk must enter judgment accordingly. If an acceptance is not filed, the offer cannot be given in evidence upon the trial; but if the plaintiff fails to obtain a more favorable judgment, he cannot recover costs. Instead of making a written offer a defendant may deposit the amount of his offer with the clerk, if it be a sum of money, with like effect.

§ 210. Answer, contents. The answer must contain:

1. A general or specific denial of each material allegation of the complaint intended to be controverted, or a denial of any knowledge or information thereof sufficient to form a belief.

A denial must not be evasive, and unless the defendant intends in good faith to controvert all the allegations of the complaint or of a particular part thereof, the denial must be directed to the specific allegation intended to be controverted;

2. A plain and concise statement of any new matter constituting a defense or counterclaim;

3. When the judgment may determine the ultimate rights of two or more defendants as between themselves, a defendant must demand such a determination in his answer, which must be in writing. A copy of such answer must be served at least two days before trial, or at such other time as the court shall direct, upon each defendant to be affected by the determination or upon his attorney in the action.

§ 211. Counterclaim. Except as otherwise provided in this act, a counterclaim and judgment thereon shall be governed by the provisions of law applicable to like cases in the supreme court.

§ 212. Joinder and severance of counterclaims. There may be included in the counterclaim any claims or causes of action mentioned in this act, against the plaintiff, or, in a proper case, against the person whom he represents, and in favor of one or more defendants between whom and the plaintiff a separate judgment may be had in the action; but if it appears to the court that any of the claims or causes of action so joined should not be tried or disposed of together, the court may order that they be tried separately, and may make such other and further orders as may be necessary or expedient for the separate disposal thereof. If it appears to the court that any claim or cause of action alleged by way of counterclaim should not be tried or disposed of in the pending action, the court may strike it out, without prejudice to the bringing of another action or proceeding.

§ 213. Amount recoverable on counterclaim. A counterclaim may be interposed and judgment thereon in favor of the defendant may be rendered for any sum not to exceed five hundred dollars exclusive of interest and costs.

§ 214. Reply to counterclaim. A reply to a counterclaim is not necessary; but the court may order a written reply, verified or unverified, at any time before judgment. When no reply is filed, the allegations of the counterclaim shall be deemed denied, except as otherwise provided in this act.

§ 215. Objections to jurisdiction and to pleadings. An objection that the court has no jurisdiction of the person of the defendant or no jurisdiction of the subject of the action may be taken by filing a notice of special appearance. All other objections which heretofore might have been taken by demurrer may be taken by motion. The notice of motion must specify the grounds thereof and the particular defects or objections upon which the moving party relies.

§ 216. Objections which may be taken by answer. An objection to the sufficiency of the complaint, or an objection which, if sustained, disposes of the action without putting the plaintiff to his proof, may be taken by alleging it as a defense in the answer in lieu of a motion, and on application of either party it must be disposed of before the trial. When an objection is thus taken, the answer must specify the particular objection or defect upon which the defendant relies.

§ 217. Disposal of objections. 1. If the court overrules a defendant's objection taken by motion, the court must allow him to answer, and as a condition thereof may impose costs.

2. If the court sustains an objection taken by a motion or answer upon the ground that the pleading is insufficient, the court must allow it to be amended, and as a condition thereof may impose costs. If the party fails to amend, the defective pleading or part of pleading may be struck out.

§ 218. Judgment upon the pleadings. If either party is entitled to judgment upon the pleadings, the court may, on motion at any time after issue joined, give judgment accordingly.

§ 219. Signature to instrument; when deemed genuine. A signature to a written instrument which is pleaded shall be taken as admitted unless the party sought to be charged thereby files with the clerk, within eight days after joinder of issue, a specific denial of the genuineness of the signature and a demand that it be proved. Such denial and demand by a defendant may be included in his answer.

§ 220. Construction and amendments of pleadings, judgment and process. 1. The allegations of a pleading must be liberally construed for the purpose of doing substantial justice between the parties.

2. At any stage of the cause the court must allow amendment of any summons, process, mandate, pleading, order or judgment, including a petition, precept, answer and final order in a summary proceeding, if substantial justice will be promoted thereby, and as a condition thereof may impose such terms as may be just.

3. Upon the like terms the court may direct that a return made by a marshal or other officer be amended in matter of form, either before or after judgment.

§ 221. Order that issues be tried unnecessary in action against corporation. In an action against a corporation, an order directing that the issues presented by the pleadings be tried shall not be required.

§ 222. How cause brought on for trial; notice of trial. Upon joinder of issue the clerk shall place the case upon a general calendar. Where either party appears in person, the clerk shall fix a date for trial not less than five nor more than eight days after joinder of issue, and shall immediately notify the parties by mail of such date. Unless otherwise provided by the rules, where both parties appear by attorney either party may serve a notice on the other fixing a date for trial not less than five nor more than eight days after the service of such notice, and shall file such notice, with proof of service thereof, with the clerk who shall thereupon place the case on the calendar for trial. When a jury trial is demanded and no day is fixed for the attendance of a jury within the time limited as above provided, the clerk shall set the case down for trial at the earliest practicable date on which a jury will be in attendance, and shall notify the parties or their attorneys by mail of such date.

§ 223. Adjournment of trial. The trial of an action may be adjourned:

1. By the court for good cause shown and upon such terms and conditions as the court may deem just;

2. By stipulation of the parties, to be filed with the clerk, or upon request of the plaintiff where the defendant has made default or upon consent of the parties in open court.

§ 224. Subpoena. A subpoena requiring a witness to appear and testify on the trial of an action or a special proceeding shall be issued on the demand of either party by the clerk of the court; but when a party is represented by an attorney, the latter may issue the subpoena and shall subscribe thereto his name and his office and post-office address. The subpoena may be served anywhere in the city of Long Beach and may require the witness to bring with him any book or paper relating to the merits of the action.

§ 225. Service of subpoena. A subpoena may be served by any person over the age of eighteen years by delivering a copy thereof to the witness personally and by paying or tendering to him a fee of fifty cents for one day's attendance at court. No mileage need be paid or tendered to the witness.

§ 226. Attachment against defaulting witness. 1. Upon satisfactory proof by affidavit or otherwise that a person duly subpoenaed has refused or neglected to obey the subpoena, and upon the oath of the party in whose behalf the person was subpoenaed, or his attorney, that the testimony of such person is material, the court must issue a warrant of attachment directed generally to any marshal, to compel the attendance of such person.

2. Such a warrant of attachment must be executed in the same manner as an order of arrest. The fees of the marshal for serving it must be paid by the person against whom it is issued unless he shows a just cause or a reasonable excuse for his omission to attend, in which case the party procuring the warrant must pay them and add them to his costs, if he recover any.

§ 227. Liability of defaulting witness. A person duly subpoenaed who neglects or refuses to obey the subpoena is liable to the party in whose behalf he was subpoenaed for all damages which the party sustains by reason of the neglect or refusal and fifty dollars in addition thereto, and is subject to any fine or punishment which may be imposed in accordance with the provisions of law governing contempts punishable civilly.

§ 228. Practice generally. Except as otherwise provided by statute, the provisions of the civil practice act and the justice court act shall apply to and govern the practice and procedure by and before the city judge and city court with the same effect as if such judge and court were, respectively, a justice of the peace and justice's court.

§ 229. Costs, generally. In addition to fees and disbursements the following sums as costs shall be allowed to a party if the pleadings in the case are written and if he has appeared by an attorney and counselor-at-law, and may be allowed in the discretion of the court if the pleadings are oral and he has appeared by an attorney and counselor-at-law:

1. For all proceedings before trial, including judgment for the plaintiff upon default, in case the amount of recovery be fifty dollars or less, to the plaintiff, five dollars; if the recovery be more than fifty dollars, and less than two hundred dollars, ten dollars; and if the recovery be over two hundred dollars, fifteen dollars;

2. On a judgment for plaintiff, otherwise than upon default, an additional sum equal to ten per centum of the recovery, not to exceed in all fifty dollars;

3. If judgment of nonsuit be rendered for defendant without trial, to the defendant five dollars;

4. If judgment be rendered for defendant after trial, to the defendant, ten dollars; and an additional sum when amount involved exceeds four hundred dollars in the discretion of the court, not exceeding in all thirty-five dollars.

§ 230. Costs in replevin. The amounts comprising additional costs, as provided in this chapter, shall, in an action for the recovery of chattels or a chattel, be estimated upon the value thereof as assessed by the court or jury.

§ 231. Costs upon establishment of counterclaim. A defendant who recovers judgment upon a counterclaim, or obtains a judgment for the possession or recovery of chattels sued for, is entitled, in addition to other costs allowed to him by this chapter in a civil action, to recover a sum equal to ten per centum of the amount recovered by him or of the value of such chattels, not to exceed in all fifty dollars.

§ 232. No costs or fees allowed in action upon judgment of city court in certain cases. No costs or fees shall be allowed to the plaintiff in an action brought upon a judgment of the city court if such action be brought within five years after the recovery of the judgment.

§ 233. Costs upon a motion. Costs upon a motion in a civil action or proceeding, not exceeding five dollars, may be awarded either absolutely or to abide the event, to the successful party, in the discretion of the court or judge, to be included in a judgment in the manner provided by this chapter in the case of the recovery of fees and disbursements upon a motion.

§ 234. Costs upon the taking of depositions. When the testimony of a witness is taken by commission or under an order to take depositions and the testimony is used on the trial, the successful party, if he filed interrogatories or cross-interrogatories or was present at the taking of the testimony, shall be entitled to the sum of five dollars as costs, in addition to sums paid to the commissioner or officer taking the depositions, not exceeding three dollars for each day actually and necessarily spent in the taking of such depositions.

§ 235. Taxation of costs. Costs, including fees and disbursements, shall be taxed by the judge upon application of the party entitled thereto. They may be taxed without notice to the adverse party, but in that event shall be retaxed upon a notice of not less than two days.

§ 236. Security for costs, generally. The defendant in an action in the city court may require security for costs when the plaintiff, at the time of the commencement of the action, was a nonresident of the state or a foreign corporation; but the defendant cannot require such security of any plaintiff unless he is entitled to require it of all the plaintiffs. Where security for costs is required to be given under the provision of this or the next section the court shall make an order requiring the plaintiff, within a time therein specified, either to pay into the court a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars to be applied to the payment of costs, if any, awarded against him, or to file with the court an undertaking in a like sum for the payment of such costs, with a surety or sureties to be approved by the city court. Such order shall have the effect of staying all proceedings on the part of the plaintiff, except to review or vacate the order, until the payment of the required sum or the filing of the undertaking, or to move for the adjournment of a trial or hearing in the action to a time beyond the date specified in the order for furnishing such security; but the court may, for cause shown, by written order, extend the time therefor. The form of the undertaking and effect of the plaintiff's failure to comply with the order shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be governed by the provisions of title three of chapter twenty-one of the code of civil procedure.

§ 237. Security for costs where plaintiff sues in a representative capacity. In an action brought by an executor or administrator in his representative capacity, or by the trustee of an express trust, or by an assignee for the benefit of creditors, or by a trustee in bankruptcy, or by an infant whose guardian ad litem has not given security for costs, or by the committee of an incompetent person, the court may, in its discretion, upon notice, require plaintiff to give security for costs.

§ 238. Appeals. Appeals may be taken from a judgment of the city court to the county court as prescribed in justice court act.

§ 239. Trial by jury. When an issue of fact is joined in a civil action either party may demand a trial by jury, and unless so demanded a jury trial is waived; provided, however, that if a judgment of the court be reversed on appeal and a new trial ordered either party may, upon the day designated by the appellate court for the new trial, demand trial by jury. When the sum demanded in the complaint exceeds two hundred dollars, the party demanding trial by jury may require that twelve jurors be drawn to try the case. In other cases the jury shall consist of six jurors as provided in the justice court act. If twelve jurors be demanded, twenty qualified jurors shall be summoned for the selection therefrom of the number demanded. A jury may be drawn from those summoned either by the city judge or by the city court clerk, if any, under his direction. Though a jury of twelve be demanded and the requisite number therefor summoned, the parties may by mutual consent elect to try the cause by a jury of six at any time before the taking of testimony has begun.

§ 240. Direction of verdict; granting new trials and opening defaults. The court may open defaults, and, in an action tried by a jury, direct a verdict, and may grant a new trial in an action or proceeding for any of the reasons specified in section nine hundred and ninety-nine, of the code of civil procedure, upon such terms as may be just. A motion for a new trial upon the minutes must be made upon at least five days' notice and shall be heard within fifteen days after the entry of judgment.

§ 241. Trial jurors. The city of Long Beach shall be regarded as a town for the purposes specified in article three of the judiciary law. The supervisor, the city clerk and the elective assessor of said city shall perform the duties prescribed in said article. A duplicate list of jurors selected by them shall be filed in the office of the clerk of said city and such office shall be deemed a town clerk's office for that purpose. The supervisor and clerk and elective assessor of said city shall meet at the clerk's office at the time provided by law and proceed to discharge the duties imposed upon them by the judiciary law and by this act, and the list made by them shall constitute the list of persons to serve as trial jurors for the ensuing three years. The supervisor elected under this act and the clerk and the elective assessor of the city shall meet every third year thereafter for the same purpose and make and file a list so required of them. The clerk shall furnish to the city judge certified copies of all such lists and from the names of all such jurors in the city shall be drawn the trial jurors in actions or proceedings in the city court and before the city judge. Until the city judge shall be furnished with such list he shall use in drawing jurors in his court, or before him, the last list furnished to the police justice of the village of Long Beach, but shall set aside any juror so drawn who is not a resident of the city of Long Beach.

§ 242. Marshals. A city marshal shall act as attendant upon the city court during its session, when required by the city judge, and shall exercise the same powers and duties, be entitled to the same fees and compensation and subject to the same liabilities as a constable in a town, all fees or compensation paid on account of services performed by him shall be the property of the city. The marshal shall receive no fees or commissions other than a stated compensation for his services as court attendant. His duties as court attendant shall be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the city judge and a violation of such rules and regulations shall constitute sufficient cause for his suspension or removal from office.

§ 243. Process; effect of certain words. All process shall, in form, be the process of the city court and may be returnable either before the city court or to the city judge. The terms "city court" and "city judge" or their equivalents, may be used interchangeably in any process, pleading, petition, affidavit, paper, caption, record, order, judgment or verdict, without impairing the validity of any act done or step taken in an action or proceeding, if the matter to which the term refers was within the jurisdiction or cognizance of either the city court or city judge.

ARTICLE 13.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Section 250. General powers and duties of other city officers.

251. Violations.

252. Delivery of books, papers and property to successors.

253. When bills against city shall be paid.

254. Village laws made applicable.

255. Clearing and dredging of waters.

§ 250. General powers and duties of other city officers. The powers and duties of all other city officers shall be such as are prescribed in this act, or when not so prescribed, as provided by ordinance of the council or by existing general laws applicable to such officers. The city and all its officers shall have all the powers granted cities and officers of cities of the third class. The powers herein enumerated are in addition to powers granted under general laws not inconsistent herewith and not in substitution for such powers.

§ 251. Violations. Any person who shall knowingly violate any of the provisions of this charter, and any person who shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty enjoined upon him hereby shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 252. Delivery of books, papers and property to successors. Whenever any officer shall resign or be removed from office or the term for which he shall have been elected or appointed shall expire, he shall upon demand deliver over to his successor in office all books, papers, moneys and effects in his custody as such officer or in any way pertaining to his office. Every person violating this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished accordingly. Every officer appointed or elected under this charter shall be deemed an officer within the meaning hereof.

§ 253. When bills against city shall be paid. No bills or account against the city shall be audited or paid unless such bill or account shall be made out in items and properly dated, with an affidavit attached thereto by the person, or one of the persons or an officer of a corporation, presenting or claiming the same, that the items of such bill or account are correct, that the services and disbursements charged therein have been in fact rendered or paid, and that no part thereof has been paid or satisfied. The council board or department or officer shall cause to be entered upon its files or their books or minutes the amount claimed, the amount allowed, and the fund from which each amount allowed shall be paid. No action shall be brought upon any such bill or account within thirty days from the time the same was presented to the council officer or board authorized to audit the same.

§ 254. Village laws made applicable. All special and general laws applicable to the village of Long Beach not inconsistent herewith shall remain applicable to the city of Long Beach as though the same were incorporated specifically in this charter.

§ 255. Clearing and dredging of waters. The city may widen, straighten, enlarge, clear from obstruction, dredge, deepen, embank and dike Wreck Lead, otherwise known as Reynolds channel or Long Beach channel, or any part of the bay, ocean or other waters within the city. It may construct basins, slips, docks, or quays within the city, and the expense or any part of the expense of any work or improvement mentioned in this section may be paid out of the general fund or by local assessment as the council shall determine.

CHAPTER 637

AN ACT to amend chapter four hundred and twelve of the laws of nineteen hundred and seven, entitled "An act providing for the court of general sessions of the city and county of New York, its justices and officers," in relation to the classification of certain judges' clerks.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Chapter four hundred and twelve of the laws of nineteen hundred and seven, entitled "An act providing for the court of general sessions of the city and county of New York, its justices and officers," is hereby amended by inserting therein a new section, to be section eight-a, to read as follows:

§ 8a added
to L. 1907,
ch. 412.

§ 8-a. A clerk to a judge of the court of general sessions who has held such position for not less than ten years shall, upon the death, resignation or retirement of such judge, be classified as a deputy clerk of the court of general sessions under the provisions of the civil service law and shall retain such classification after the death, resignation or retirement of such judge; but a judge who shall succeed such a retiring judge shall have the same right to appoint a clerk outside of the civil service list as has existed heretofore.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 638

AN ACT to amend the Greater New York charter, in relation to awarding contracts.

Accepted by the City.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

L. 1901,
ch. 466, § 1541, as
L. 1910,
ch. 543,
amended.

Section 1. Section fifteen hundred and forty-one of the Greater New York charter, as re-enacted by chapter four hundred and sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and one, as amended by chapter five hundred and forty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and ten, is hereby amended to read as follows:

MAJORITY OF BOARDS OF DEPARTMENTS; QUORUM; POWERS.

§ 1541. A majority of the members of a board in any department of the city government, and also of the board for the revision of assessments, shall constitute a quorum to fully perform and discharge any act or duty authorized, possessed by, or imposed upon any department or any board aforesaid, and with the same legal effect as if every member of any such board aforesaid had been present, except as herein otherwise specially provided. Each board may, except as herein otherwise provided, choose, in its own pleasure, one of its members, who shall be its president, and one who shall be its treasurer, and may appoint a chief clerk or secretary. No expense shall be incurred by any of the departments, boards or officers thereof, unless an appropriation shall have been previously made covering such expense, nor any expense in excess of the sum appropriated in accordance with law. This restriction shall not apply to contracts for the purchase of coal which contracts shall not extend for a longer period than one year. ¹ The foregoing provisions shall not be construed to prohibit the award of a contract in cases where the appropriation was insufficient at the time bids are opened, provided that an additional appropriation sufficient to make up the amount required, to equal the amount bid on the contract, is secured before an award is made.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 639

AN ACT to amend the general municipal law, in relation to payments to injured or representatives of deceased volunteer firemen.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision c of subdivision first of section two hundred and five of chapter twenty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to municipal corporations, constituting chapter twenty-four of the consolidated laws," as last amended by chapter one hundred and ninety of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one,¹ is hereby amended to read as follows:

c. If in any other place the sum of three thousand dollars² shall be paid to the executor or administrator of such deceased volunteer fireman,

§ 2. Subdivision fourth of section two hundred and five of such chapter, as last amended by chapter one hundred and ninety of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one,¹ is hereby amended to read as follows:

Fourth. In cities such sum shall be a city charge and shall be audited and paid in the same manner as other city charges, except that no part of the moneys payable under this section shall be paid from the pension funds of the said departments therein. In villages such sum shall be a village charge and shall be audited and paid in the same manner as village charges, and shall be assessed upon the property and persons liable to taxation in said village, and levied and collected in the same manner as village taxes. If such fireman was a member of a fire company in a fire district outside of a city or an incorporated village, such sum shall be a town charge, audited and paid in the same manner as town charges, and shall be assessed upon the property and persons in such fire districts liable to taxation, and levied and collected in the same manner as town charges. If such fireman was a member of a fire company incorporated under the membership corporations law, located outside of a city, village or fire district, such sum shall be a town charge audited and paid as town charges and shall be assessed upon the property and persons liable to taxation in the territory protected by such fire company and levied and collected in the same manner as town charges therein. ³ If such fireman was a member of a fire company or fire department operating in, or maintained jointly by two or more villages, or two or more towns, or two or more fire districts, such sum shall be a charge against the village, town or fire district, in

AN ACT to repeal article eight of the partnership law, and inserting a new article eight, in relation to limited partnerships.¹

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

L. 1919,
ch. 408,
art. 8
repealed;
new art. 8
added.

Section 1. Article eight of chapter four hundred and eight of the laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, entitled "An act in relation to partnerships, constituting chapter thirty-nine of the consolidated laws," is hereby repealed, and a new article eight inserted, to read as follows:

ARTICLE 8.

96. Limited partner not liable to creditors.
97. Admission of additional limited partners.
98. Rights, powers and liabilities of a general partner.
99. Rights of a limited partner.
100. Status of person erroneously believing himself a limited partner.
101. One person both general and limited partner.

¹ This act is substantially that prepared and recommended for adoption by the commissioners on uniform state laws.

Section 102. Loans and other business transactions with limited partner.

103. Relation of limited partners inter se.
104. Compensation of limited partner.
105. Withdrawal or reduction of limited partner's contribution.
106. Liability of limited partner to partnership.
107. Nature of interest in partnership.
108. Assignment of interest.
109. Effect of retirement, death or insanity of a general partner.
110. Death of limited partner.
111. Rights of creditors of limited partner.

115. Parties to actions.
116. Short title.
117. Rules of construction.
118. Rules for cases not covered.
119. Existing limited partnerships.

§ 90. Limited partnership defined. A limited partnership is a partnership formed by two or more persons under the provisions of section ninety-one, having as members one or more general partners and one or more limited partners. The limited partners as such shall not be bound by the obligations of the partnership.

§ 91. Formation. (1) Two or more persons desiring to form a limited partnership shall

- (a) Sign and swear to a certificate, which shall state
 - I. The name of the partnership.
 - II. The character of the business.
 - III. The location of the principal place of business.
 - IV. The name and place of residence of each member; general and limited partners being respectively designated.
 - V. The term for which the partnership is to exist.
 - VI. The amount of cash and a description of and the agreed value of the other property contributed by each limited partner.
 - VII. The additional contributions, if any, agreed to be made by each limited partner and the times at which or events on the happening of which they shall be made.
 - VIII. The time, if agreed upon, when the contribution of each limited partner is to be returned.
 - IX. The share of the profits or the other compensation by way of income which each limited partner shall receive by reason of his contribution.
 - X. The right, if given, of a limited partner to substitute an assignee as contributor in his place, and the terms and conditions of the substitution.
 - XI. The right, if given, of the partners to admit additional limited partners.
 - XII. The right, if given, of one or more of the limited partners to priority over other limited partners, as to contributions or as to compensation by way of income, and the nature of such priority.

XIII. The right, if given, of the remaining general partner or partners to continue the business on the death, retirement or insanity of a general partner, and

XIV. The right, if given, of a limited partner to demand and receive property other than cash in return for his contribution.

(b) File and record the certificate in the office of the county clerk of the county in which the principal office of such partnership is located.

(2) A limited partnership is formed if there has been substantial compliance in good faith with the requirements of subdivision one of this section.

§ 92. Business which may be carried on. A limited partnership may carry on any business which a partnership without limited partners may carry on.

§ 93. Character of limited partner's contribution. The contributions of a limited partner may be cash or other property, but not services.

§ 94. Name not to contain surname of limited partner; exceptions. (1) The surname of a limited partner shall not appear in the partnership name, unless

(a) It is also the surname of a general partner, or

(b) Prior to the time when the limited partner became such the business had been carried on under a name in which his surname appeared.

(2) A limited partner whose name appears in a partnership name contrary to the provisions of subdivision one of this section is liable as a general partner to partnership creditors who extend credit to the partnership without actual knowledge that he is not a general partner.

§ 95. Liability for false statements in certificate. If the certificate contains a false statement, one who suffers loss by reliance on such statement may hold liable any party to the certificate who knew the statement to be false

(a) At the time he signed the certificate, or

(b) Subsequently, but within a sufficient time before the statement was relied upon to enable him to cancel or amend the certificate, or to file a petition for its cancellation or amendment as provided in section one hundred and fourteen of this article.

§ 96. Limited partner not liable to creditors. A limited partner shall not become liable as a general partner unless, in addition to the exercise of his rights and powers as a limited partner, he takes part in the control of the business.

§ 97. Admission of additional limited partners. After the formation of a limited partnership, additional limited partners may be admitted upon filing an amendment to the original certificate in accordance with the requirements of section one hundred and fourteen.

§ 98. Rights, powers and liabilities of a general partner. (1) A general partner shall have all the rights and powers and be subject to all the restrictions and liabilities of a partner in a partnership without limited partners, except that without the written consent or ratification of the specific act by all the limited partners, a general partner or all of the general partners have no authority to

- (a) Do any act in contravention of the certificate.
- (b) Do any act which would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of the partnership.
- (c) Confess a judgment against the partnership.
- (d) Possess partnership property, or assign their rights in specific partnership property, for other than a partnership purpose.
- (e) Admit a person as a general partner.
- (f) Admit a person as a limited partner, unless the right so to do is given in the certificate.
- (g) Continue the business with partnership property on the death, retirement or insanity of a general partner, unless the right so to do is given in the certificate.

§ 99. Rights of a limited partner. (1) A limited partner shall have the same rights as a general partner to

(a) Have the partnership books kept at the principal place of business of the partnership, and at all times to inspect and copy any of them.

(b) Have on demand true and full information of all things affecting the partnership, and a formal account of partnership affairs whenever circumstances render it just and reasonable, and

(c) Have dissolution and winding up by decree of court.

(2) A limited partner shall have the right to receive a share of the profits or other compensation by way of income, and to the return of his contribution as provided in sections one hundred and four and one hundred and five of this article.

§ 100. Status of person erroneously believing himself a limited partner. A person who has contributed to the capital of a business conducted by a person or partnership erroneously believing that he has become a limited partner in a limited partnership is not, by reason of his exercise of the rights of a limited partner, a general partner with the person or in the partnership carrying on the business, or bound by the obligations of such person or partnership; provided that on ascertaining the mistake he promptly renounces his interest in the profits of the business, or other compensation by way of income.

§ 101. One person both general and limited partner. (1) A person may be a general partner and a limited partner in the same partnership at the same time.

(2) A person who is a general, and also at the same time a limited partner, shall have all the rights and powers and be subject to all the restrictions of a general partner; except that, in respect to his contributions, he shall have the rights against the other members which he would have had if he were not also a general partner.

§ 102. Loans and other business transactions with limited partner. (1) A limited partner also may loan money to and transact other business with the partnership, and, unless he is also a general partner, receive on account of resulting claims against the partnership, with general creditors, a pro rata share of the assets. No limited partner shall in respect to any such claim

(a) Receive or hold as collateral security any partnership property, or,

(b) Receive from a general partner or the partnership any payment, conveyance or release from liability, if at the time the assets of the partnership are not sufficient to discharge partnership liabilities to persons not claiming as general or limited partners.

(2) The receiving of collateral security, or a payment, conveyance or release in violation of the provisions of subdivision one is a fraud on the creditors of the partnership.

§ 103. Relation of limited partners inter se. Where there are several limited partners the members may agree that one or more of the limited partners shall have a priority over other limited partners as to the return of their contributions, as to their compensation by way of income, or as to any other matter. If such an agreement is made it shall be stated in the certificate, and in the absence of such a statement all the limited partners shall stand upon equal footing.

§ 104. Compensation of limited partner. A limited partner may receive from the partnership the share of the profits or the compensation by way of income stipulated for in the certificate; provided, that after such payment is made, whether from the property of the partnership or that of a general partner, the partnership assets are in excess of all liabilities of the partnership except liabilities to limited partners on account of their contributions and to general partners.

§ 105. Withdrawal or reduction of limited partner's contribution. (1) A limited partner shall not receive from a general partner or out of partnership property any part of his contribution until

(a) All liabilities of the partnership, except liabilities to general partners and to limited partners on account of their contributions, have been paid or there remains property of the partnership sufficient to pay them.

(b) The consent of all members is had, unless the return of the contribution may be rightfully demanded under the provisions of subdivision two, and

(c) The certificate is cancelled or so amended as to set forth the withdrawal or reduction.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subdivision one, a limited partner may rightfully demand the return of his contribution

(a) On the dissolution of a partnership, or,

(b) When the date specified in the certificate for its return has arrived, or,

(c) After he has given six months' notice in writing to all other members, if no time is specified in the certificate either for the return of the contribution or for the dissolution of the partnership.

(3) In the absence of any statement in the certificate to the contrary or the consent of all members, a limited partner, irrespective of the nature of his contribution, has only the right to demand and receive cash in return for his contribution.

(4) A limited partner may have the partnership dissolved and its affairs wound up when

(a) He rightfully but unsuccessfully demands the return of his contribution, or,

(b) The other liabilities of the partnership have not been paid, or the partnership property is insufficient for their payment and the limited partner would otherwise be entitled to the return of his contribution.

§ 106. Liability of limited partner to partnership. (1) A limited partner is liable to the partnership

(a) For the difference between his contribution as actually made and that stated in the certificate as having been made, and

(b) For any unpaid contributions which he agreed in the certificate to make in the future at the time and on the conditions stated in the certificate.

(2) A limited partner holds as trustee for the partnership

(a) Specific property stated in the certificate as contributed by him, but which was not contributed or which has been wrongfully returned, and

(b) Money or other property wrongfully paid or conveyed to him on account of his contribution.

(3) The liabilities of a limited partner as set forth in this section can be waived or compromised only by the consent of all members; but a waiver or compromise shall not affect the right of a creditor of a partnership, who extended credit or whose claim arose after the filing and before a cancellation or amendment of the certificate, to enforce such liabilities.

(4) When a contributor has rightfully received the return in whole or in part of the capital of his contribution, he is nevertheless liable to the partnership for any sum, not in excess of such return with interest, necessary to discharge its liabilities to all creditors who extended credit or whose claims arose before such return.

§ 107. Nature of interest in partnership. A limited partner's interest in the partnership is personal property.

§ 108. Assignment of interest. (1) A limited partner's interest is assignable.

(2) A substituted limited partner is a person admitted to all the rights of a limited partner who has died or has assigned his interest in a partnership.

(3) An assignee, who does not become a substituted limited partner, has no right to require any information or account of the partnership transactions or to inspect the partnership books; he is only entitled to receive the share of the profits or other compensation by way of income, or the return of his contribution, to which his assignor would otherwise be entitled.

(4) An assignee shall have the right to become a substituted limited partner if all the members, except the assignor, consent thereto or if the assignor, being thereunto empowered by the certificate, gives the assignee that right.

(5) An assignee becomes a substituted limited partner when the certificate is appropriately amended in accordance with section one hundred and fourteen of this article.

(6) The substituted limited partner has all the rights and powers, and is subject to all the restrictions and liabilities of his assignor, except those liabilities of which he was ignorant at the time he became a limited partner and which could not be ascertained from the certificate.

(7) The substitution of the assignee as a limited partner does not release the assignor from liability to the partnership under sections ninety-five and one hundred and six.

§ 109. Effect of retirement, death or insanity of a general partner. The retirement, death or insanity of a general partner dissolves the partnership, unless the business is continued by the remaining general partners

(a) Under a right so to do stated in the certificate, or,

(b) With the consent of all members.

§ 110. Death of limited partner. (1) On the death of a limited partner his executor or administrator shall have all the rights of a limited partner for the purpose of settling his estate, and such power as the deceased had to constitute his assignee a substituted limited partner.

(2) The estate of a deceased limited partner shall be liable for all his liabilities as a limited partner.

§ 111. Rights of creditors of limited partner. (1) On due application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a limited partner, the court may charge the interest of the indebted limited partner with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment debt; and may appoint a receiver, and make all other orders, directions, and inquiries which the circumstances of the case may require.

(2) The interest may be redeemed with the separate property of any general partner, but may not be redeemed with partnership property.

(3) The remedies conferred by subdivision one of this section shall not be deemed exclusive of others which may exist.

(4) Nothing in this act shall be held to deprive a limited partner of his statutory exemption.

§ 112. Distribution of assets. (1) In settling accounts after dissolution the liabilities of the partnership shall be entitled to payment in the following order:

(a) Those to creditors, in the order of priority as provided by law, except those to limited partners on account of their contributions, and to general partners.

(b) Those to limited partners in respect to their share of the profits and other compensation by way of income on their contributions.

(c) Those to limited partners in respect to the capital of their contributions.

(d) Those to general partners other than for capital and profits.

(e) Those to general partners in respect to profits.

(f) Those to general partners in respect to capital.

(2) Subject to any statement in the certificate or to subsequent agreement, limited partners share in the partnership assets in respect to their claims for capital, and in respect to their claims for profits or for compensation by way of income on their contributions respectively, in proportion to the respective amounts of such claims.

§ 113. Certificate cancelled or amended. (1) The certificate shall be cancelled when the partnership is dissolved or all limited partners cease to be such.

(2) A certificate shall be amended when

(a) There is a change in the name of the partnership or in the amount or character of the contribution of any limited partner.

(b) A person is substituted as a limited partner,

(c) An additional limited partner is admitted,

(d) A person is admitted as a general partner,

(e) A general partner retires, dies or becomes insane, and the business is continued under section one hundred and nine,

(f) There is a change in the character of the business of the partnership,

(g) There is a false or erroneous statement in the certificate,

(h) There is a change in the time as stated in the certificate for the dissolution of the partnership or for the return of a contribution.

(i) A time is fixed for the dissolution of the partnership, or the return of a contribution, no time having been specified in the certificate, or,

(j) The members desire to make a change in any other statement in the certificate in order that it shall accurately represent the agreement between them.

§ 114. Requirements for amendment or cancellation. (1) The writing to amend a certificate shall

(a) Conform to the requirements of subdivision one-a of section ninety-one of this article, as far as necessary to set forth clearly the change in the certificate which it is desired to make, and

(b) Be signed and sworn to by all members, and an amendment substituting a limited partner or adding a limited or general partner shall be signed also by the member to be substituted or added, and when a limited partner is to be substituted, the amendment shall also be signed by the assigning limited partner.

(2) The writing to cancel a certificate shall be signed by all members.

(3) A person desiring the cancellation or amendment of a certificate, if any person designated in subdivisions one and two of this section as a person who must execute the writing refuses to do so, may petition the supreme court to direct a cancellation or amendment thereof.

(4) If the court finds that the petitioner has a right to have the writing executed by a person who refuses to do so, it shall order the county clerk of the county where the certificate is recorded to record the cancellation or amendment of the certificate; and where the certificate is to be amended, the court shall also cause to be filed for record in said office a certified copy of its decree setting forth the amendment.

(5) A certificate is amended or cancelled when there is filed for record in the office of the county clerk where the certificate is recorded

(a) A writing in accordance with the provisions of subdivisions one and two of this section, or,

(b) A certified copy of the order of court in accordance with the provisions of subdivision four thereof.

(6) After the certificate is duly amended in accordance with this section, the amended certificate shall thereafter be for all purposes the certificate provided for by this article.

§ 115. Parties to actions. A contributor, unless he is a general partner, is not a proper party to proceedings by or against a partnership, except where the object is to enforce a limited partner's right against or liability to the partnership.

§ 116. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the uniform limited partnership act.

§ 117. Rules of construction. (1) The rule that statutes in derogation of the common law are to be strictly construed shall have no application to this article.

(2) This article shall be so interpreted and construed as to effect its general purpose.

(3) This article shall not be so construed as to impair the obligations of any contract existing when this article takes effect, nor to affect any action or proceeding begun or right accrued before this article takes effect.

§ 118. Rules for cases not covered. In any case not provided for in this article the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, shall govern.

§ 119. Existing limited partnerships. (1) A limited partnership formed under any statute of this state prior to the adoption of this article may become a limited partnership under this article by complying with the provisions of section ninety-one, provided the certificate sets forth

(a) The amount of the original contribution of each limited partner, and the time when the contribution was made, and

(b) That the property of the partnership exceeds the amount sufficient to discharge its liabilities to persons not claiming as general or limited partners by an amount greater than the sum of the contributions of its limited partners.

(2) The provisions of this article, or the repeal of article eight of this chapter, shall not affect or impair any act done or right accrued, acquired or established by a limited partnership formed under any statute of this state prior to its adoption, until or unless it becomes a limited partnership in accordance with the provisions of this article, and the same may be conducted in the same manner and to the same extent as if this article had not been passed.

§ 2. Sections one hundred and ten and one hundred and eleven of such chapter are hereby renumbered sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and twenty-six, respectively.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 641

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to offenses against the elective franchise.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section seven hundred and fifty-four of the penal law is hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 88, § 754,
amended.

§ 754. False affidavits; mutilation, destruction or loss of registry list or affidavits.¹ 1. Any person who wilfully loses, alters, destroys or mutilates the list or register of voters in any election district, or a certified copy thereof, or removes from the place of registration the public copy of such registration, after the making of the same and before the closing of the polls of the election for which the same is made, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

2.² An applicant for registration who shall incorporate or cause to be incorporated any false statement in any challenge or other affidavit required for or made or filed in connection with registration or voting, and any person who knowingly takes a false oath before a board of inspectors of election, shall be deemed guilty of perjury.

3. A person who shall wilfully suppress, mutilate or alter, or, except as authorized by the election law, shall destroy, any signed challenge or other affidavit required for or made or filed in connection with registration or voting, and any person who, except as authorized by the election law, shall remove such an affidavit from the place of registration or polling place, is guilty of a felony.

§ 2. Section seven hundred and fifty-seven of the penal law is hereby amended to read as follows:

amended.

§ 757. Failure to furnish information; false information.⁴ 1. Any person dwelling in a building in a city who wilfully refuses to truly answer any question or who shall give false answers to any questions asked by any elector of such city, between the first meeting of the boards of registry therein for any election and the closing of the polls at such election, relating to the residence and qualifications as a voter of any person dwelling in such building, or of any person who appears upon the list or registry of voters made by a board of registry as residing at such building, or who knowingly harbors or conceals any person who has falsely registered as a voter, or who shall rent any room or bed to any person to be used by such person for himself or any other person for the purpose of unlawfully registering or voting therefrom is guilty of a misdemeanor.

2.^a A keeper of a hotel, lodging-house, boarding-house or rooming-house in a city who neglects to make the sworn report required by the election law to be made twenty-nine days before the election, or a keeper of a hotel, lodging-house, boarding-house or rooming-house or the owner or lessee of a dwelling or apartment, in a city or town, who neglects to make to a board or officer authorized to require the same a sworn list of the persons residing in such hotel, lodging-house, boarding-house, rooming-house, dwelling or apartment, together with the other particulars or information in relation to such persons required to be given by or pursuant to the election law, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

3. A keeper of a hotel, lodging-house, boarding-house or rooming-house or the owner or lessee of a dwelling or apartment who makes a report or furnishes a list required by the election law which states that a person has resided on the premises to which the report or list relates for a longer period than he has actually resided therein, or puts upon such a list or in such a report a name under which no person has resided any length of time in said premises, is guilty of a felony.

4. Any officer or person who refuses to furnish to the secretary of state such information as he may possess concerning voters absent from their election districts in time of war, in the actual military service of this state or of the United States in the army or navy thereof, or who wilfully furnishes false information concerning such absent voters, is guilty of a felony and shall be punishable by imprisonment for not less than one year nor more than three years.

amended.

§ 3. Section seven hundred and sixty-a⁵ of the penal law is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 760-a. Misconduct in relation to⁶ petitions. Any person who:

1. Pays, lends, contributes or promises to pay, lend or contribute any money or other valuable consideration to or for any voter, or to or for any other person, to induce such voter to sign a petition for the designation of a candidate for party nomination or for election to a party position to be voted for at a primary election; or

2. Gives, offers or promises any office, place or employment, or promises to procure or endeavor to procure any office, place or employment to or for any voter, or to or for any other person, in order to induce such voter to sign a petition for the designation of a candidate for party nomination or for election to a party position to be voted for at a primary election; or

3. Receives, agrees or contracts for any money, gift, loan or other valuable consideration, office, place or employment for himself or any other person, for signing a petition for the designation of a candidate for party nomination or for election to a party position to be voted for at a primary election; or is hereby repealed, and such law is hereby amended by inserting therein a new section seven hundred and seventy-six, to read as follows:

§ 776. Failure to file statement of receipts, expenditures and contributions. Any candidate for election to public office, or any candidate for nomination to public office at a primary election, or any treasurer of a political committee as defined by the election law, who neglects to file, as required by the election law, a statement of receipts, expenditures and contributions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

§ 10. Section seven hundred and eighty-one of the penal law is hereby amended to read as follows: § 781 amended.

§ 781. Limitation of amounts to be expended by or for²⁵ candidates. 1. The total amount expended by a candidate for a public office, voted for at an election, by the qualified electors of the state or any political subdivision thereof, for any of the purposes specified in section seven hundred and sixty-seven of this chapter, for contributions to political committees, as that term is defined in section five hundred and forty of the election law, or for any purpose tending in any way, directly or indirectly, to promote, or aid in securing, his nomination and election shall not exceed the amount specified herein. By a candidate for governor, the sum of ten thousand dollars; by a candidate for any other elective state office, other than a judicial office, the sum of six thousand dollars; by a candidate for the office of representative in congress or presidential elector, the sum of four thousand dollars; by a candidate for the office of state senator, the sum of two thousand dollars; by a candidate for the office of member of assembly, the sum of one thousand dollars; by a candidate for any other public office to be voted for by the qualified electors of a county, city, town or village, or any part thereof, if the total number of votes cast therein for all candidates for the office of governor at the last preceding state election, shall be five thousand or less, the sum of five hundred dollars; if the total number of votes cast therein at such last preceding state election be in excess of five thousand, the sum of three dollars for each one hundred votes in excess of such number may be added to the amounts above specified. Any candidate for a public office who shall expend for the purposes above mentioned an amount in excess of the sum herein specified shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

2.²⁶ The amount expended in the election of an individual candidate by all committees taking part solely in his election and by all persons other than the candidate shall not exceed in all the amount authorized by the preceding subdivision to be expended by such candidate. Any person who knowingly shall aid or participate in the expenditure for the purposes mentioned in this subdivision of an amount in excess of the amount specified in this subdivision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

¹This act is substantially that prepared and recommended for adoption by the commissioners on uniform state laws.

§ 60. Article may be known by short title. This article may be cited as the "uniform conditional sales act."

§ 61. Definitions. In this act "conditional sale" means (1) any contract for the sale of goods under which possession is delivered to the buyer and the property in the goods is to vest in the buyer at a subsequent time upon the payment of part or all of the price, or upon the performance of any other condition or the happening of any contingency; or (2) any contract for the bailment or leasing of goods by which the bailee or lessee contracts to pay as compensation a sum substantially equivalent to the value of the goods, and by which it is agreed that the bailee or lessee is bound to become, or has the option of becoming the owner of such goods upon full compliance with the terms of the contract.

"Buyer" means the person who buys or hires the goods covered by the conditional sale, or any legal successor in interest of such person.

"Filing district" means the subdivision of the state in which conditional sale contracts, or copies thereof, are required by this act to be filed.

"Goods" means all chattels personal other than things in action and money, and includes emblements, industrial growing crops, and things attached to or forming a part of land which are agreed to be severed before sale or under the conditional sale.

"Performance of the condition" means the occurrence of the event upon which the property in the goods is to vest in the buyer, whether such event is the performance of an act by the buyer or the happening of a contingency.

"Person" includes an individual, partnership, corporation, and any other association.

"Purchase" includes mortgage and pledge.

"Purchaser" includes mortgagee and pledgee.

"Seller" means the person who sells or leases the goods covered by the conditional sale, or any legal successor in interest of such person.

§ 62. Primary rights of buyer. The buyer shall have the right when not in default to retain possession of the goods, and he shall also have the right to acquire the property in the goods on the performance of the conditions of the contract. The seller shall be liable to the buyer for the breach of all promises and warranties, express or implied, made in the conditional sale contract, whether or not the property in the goods has passed to the buyer.

§ 63. Primary rights of seller. The buyer shall be liable to the seller for the purchase price, or for installments thereof, as the same shall become due, and for breach of all promises made by him in the conditional sale contract, whether or not the property in the goods has passed to the buyer.

§ 64. Conditional sales valid except as otherwise provided. Every provision in a conditional sale reserving property in the seller after possession of the goods is delivered to the buyer, shall be valid as to all persons, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, § 65. Conditional sales void as to certain persons. Every provision in a conditional sale reserving property in the seller shall be void as to any purchaser from or creditor of the buyer, who, without notice of such provision, purchases the goods or acquires by attachment or levy a lien upon them, before the contract or a copy thereof shall be filed as hereinafter provided. This section shall not apply to conditional sales of goods for resale.

§ 66. Place of filing. The conditional sale contract or a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the city or town clerk in the city or town in which the purchaser resides, if he resides within the state at the time of the execution thereof, and if not, in the city or town where the goods are first kept for sale by the buyer after sale, except that where there is a county clerk's office in such city or town in which such conditional sale contract or copy thereof is required to be filed as aforesaid, such conditional sale contract or copy thereof shall be filed in such county clerk's office and except that such conditional sale contract or copy shall be filed in the city of New York as follows, namely: in the borough of Brooklyn, in said city, such instrument shall be filed in the office of the register of the county of Kings; in the borough of Queens, in said city, in the office of the clerk of Queens county; in the borough of Richmond, in said city, in the office of the clerk of the county of Richmond; in the borough of Manhattan, in said city, in the office of the register of the county of New York, and in the borough of Bronx, in said city, in the office of the register of the county of the Bronx. This section shall not apply to the contracts described in sections sixty-seven and sixty-eight.

§ 67. Fixtures. If the goods are so affixed to realty at the time of a conditional sale or subsequently as to become a part thereof and not to be severable wholly or in any portion without material injury to the freehold, the reservation of property as to any portion not so severable shall be void after the goods are so affixed as against any person who has not expressly assented to the reservation. If the goods are so affixed to realty at the time of a conditional sale or subsequently as to become part thereof but to be severable without material injury to the freehold, the reservation of property shall be void after the goods are so affixed as against subsequent purchasers of the realty for value and without notice of the conditional seller's title, unless the conditional sale contract, or a copy thereof, together with a statement signed by the seller briefly describing the realty and stating that the goods are or are to be affixed thereto, shall be filed before such purchase in the office where a deed of the realty would be recorded or registered to affect such realty. As against the owner of realty the reservation of the property in goods by a conditional seller shall be void when such goods are to be so affixed to the realty as to become part thereof but to be severable without material injury to the freehold, unless the conditional sale contract, or a copy thereof, together with a statement signed by the seller briefly describing the realty and stating that the goods are to be affixed thereto, shall be filed before they are affixed, in the office where a deed would be recorded or registered to affect such realty.

§ 68. Railroad equipment or rolling stock. No conditional sale of railroad, or street or interurban railway equipment or rolling stock shall be valid as against the purchasers and creditors described in section sixty-five, unless the contract shall be acknowledged by the buyer or attested in like manner as a deed of real property, and the contract, or a copy thereof, shall be filed or recorded in the office of the secretary of state; and unless when any engine or car so sold is delivered there shall then be plainly and conspicuously marked upon each side thereof the name of the seller, followed by the word "owner."

§ 69. Conditional sale of goods for resale. When goods are delivered under a conditional sale contract and the seller expressly or impliedly consents that the buyer may resell them prior to performance of the condition, the same shall be valid whether filed or not except that the reservation of property shall be void against purchasers from the buyer in good faith for value and without actual knowledge of the condition of such contract.

§ 70. Filing. The filing officer shall mark upon the contract or copy filed with him the day and hour of filing and shall file the contract or copy in his office for public inspection. He shall keep a separate book in which he shall enter the names of the seller and buyer, the date of the contract, the day and hour of filing, a brief description of the goods, the price named in the contract and the date of cancellation thereof; except that in entering the contracts mentioned in section sixty-eight the secretary of state shall record either the sum remaining to be paid upon the contract or the price of the goods. Such book shall be indexed under the names of both seller and buyer. For filing and entering such contract or copy the filing officer shall be entitled to a fee of ten cents, except where provision is otherwise made by law and except that for filing and entering a contract described in section sixty-eight the secretary of state shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar.

§ 71. Refiling. The filing of conditional sale contracts provided for in sections sixty-five, sixty-six and sixty-seven shall be valid for a period of three years only. The filing of the contract provided for by section eighty-eight shall be valid for a period of fifteen years only. The validity of the filing may in each case be extended for successive additional periods of one year from the date of refiling by filing in the proper filing district a copy of the original contract within thirty days next preceding the expiration of each period, with a statement attached signed by the seller, showing that the contract is in force and the amount remaining to be paid thereon. Such copy, with statement attached, shall be filed and entered in the same manner as a contract or copy filed and entered for the first time, and the filing officer shall be entitled to a like fee as upon the original filing.

§ 72. Cancellation of contract. After the performance of the condition, upon written demand delivered personally or by registered mail by the buyer or any other person having an interest in the goods, the seller shall execute, acknowledge and deliver to the demandant a statement that the condition in the contract has been performed. If for ten days after such demand the seller fails to mail or deliver such a statement of satisfaction, he shall forfeit to the demandant five dollars and be liable for all damages suffered. Upon presentation of such statement of satisfaction the filing officer shall file the same and note the cancellation of the contract and the date thereof on the margin of the page where the contract has been entered. For filing and entering the statement of satisfaction the filing officer shall be entitled to a fee of ten cents, except that the secretary of state shall be entitled to a fee of fifty cents for filing and entering a statement of the satisfaction of a contract described in section sixty-eight.

§ 73. Prohibition of removal or sale without notice. Unless the contract otherwise provides, the buyer may, without the consent of the seller, remove the goods from any filing district and sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of his interest in them; but prior to the performance of the condition, no such buyer shall remove the goods from a filing district in which the contract or a copy thereof is filed, except for temporary uses for a period of not more than thirty days, unless the buyer not less than ten days before such removal shall give the seller personally or by registered mail written notice of the place to which the goods are to be removed and the approximate time of such intended removal; nor prior to the performance of the conditions shall the buyer sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of his interest in the goods, unless he, or the person to whom he is about to sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of the same, shall notify the seller in writing personally or by registered mail of the name and address of the person to whom his interest in the goods is about to be sold, mortgaged or otherwise transferred, not less than ten days before such sale, mortgage or other disposal. If any buyer does so remove the goods, or does so sell, mortgage or otherwise dispose of his interest in them without such notice or in violation of the contract, the seller may retake possession of the goods and deal with them as in case of default in payment of part or all of the purchase price. The provisions of this section regarding the removal of goods shall not apply, however, to the goods described in section sixty-eight.

§ 74. Refiling on removal. When, prior to the performance of the condition, the goods are removed by the buyer from a filing district in this state to another filing district in this state in which such contract or a copy thereof is not filed, or are removed from another state into a filing district in this state where such contract or copy is not filed, the reservation of the property in the seller shall be void as to the purchasers and creditors described in section sixty-five, unless the conditional sale contract or a copy thereof shall be filed in the filing district to which the goods are removed, within ten days after the seller has received notice of the filing district to which the goods have been removed. The provisions of this section shall not apply, however, to the goods described in section sixty-eight. The provisions of section seventy-one regarding the duration of the validity of the filing and the necessity for refiling shall apply to contracts or copies which are filed in a filing district other than that where the goods are originally kept for use by the buyer after the sale.

§ 75. Fraudulent injury, concealment, removal or sale. When, prior to the performance of the condition, the buyer maliciously or with intent to defraud, shall injure, destroy or conceal the goods, or remove them to a filing district where the contract or a copy thereof is not filed, without having given the notice required by section seventy-three, or shall sell, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of such goods under claim of full ownership, he shall be guilty of a crime and upon conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than one year or be fined not more than five hundred dollars or both.

§ 76. Retaking possession. When the buyer shall be in default in the payment of any sum due under the contract, or in the performance of any other condition which the contract requires him to perform in order to obtain the property in the goods, or in the performance of any promise, the breach of which is by the contract expressly made a ground for the retaking of the goods, the seller may retake possession thereof. Unless the goods can be retaken without breach of the peace, they shall be retaken by legal process; but nothing herein shall be construed to authorize a violation of the criminal law.

§ 77. Notice of intention to retake. Not more than forty nor less than twenty days prior to the retaking, the seller, if he so desires, may serve upon the buyer personally or by registered mail a notice of intention to retake the goods on account of the buyer's default. The notice shall state the default and the period at the end of which the goods will be retaken, and shall briefly and clearly state what the buyer's rights under this act will be in case they are retaken. If the notice is so served and the buyer does not perform the obligations in which he has made default before the day set for retaking, the seller may retake the goods and hold them subject to the provisions of sections seventy-nine, eighty, eighty-a, eighty-b and eighty-c regarding resale, but without any right of redemption.

§ 78. Redemption. If the seller does not give the notice of intention to retake described in section seventy-seven, he shall retain the goods for ten days after the retaking within the state in which they were located when retaken, during which period the buyer, upon payment or tender of the amount due under the contract at the time of retaking and interest, or upon performance or tender of performance of such other condition as may be named in the contract as precedent to the passage of the property in the goods, or upon performance or tender of performance of any other promise for the breach of which the goods were retaken, and upon payment of the expenses of retaking, keeping and storage, may redeem the goods and become entitled to take possession of them and to continue in the performance of the contract as if no default had occurred. Upon written demand delivered personally or by registered mail by the buyer, the seller shall furnish to the buyer a written statement of the sum due under the contract and the expense of retaking, keeping and storage. For failure to furnish such statement within a reasonable time after demand, the seller shall forfeit to the buyer ten dollars and also be liable to him for all damages suffered because of such failure. If the goods are perishable so that retention for ten days as herein prescribed would result in their destruction or substantial injury, the provisions of this section shall not apply, and the seller may resell the goods immediately upon their retaking. The provision of this section requiring the retention of the goods within the state during the period allowed for redemption shall not apply to the goods described in section sixty-eight.

§ 79. Compulsory resale by seller. If the buyer does not redeem the goods within ten days after the seller has retaken possession, and the buyer has paid at least fifty per centum of the purchase price at the time of the retaking the seller shall sell them at public auction in the state where they were at the time of the retaking, such sale to be held not more than thirty days after the retaking. The seller shall give to the buyer not less than ten days' written notice of the sale, either personally or by registered mail, directed to the buyer at his last known place of business or residence. The seller shall also give notice of the sale by at least three notices posted in different public places within the filing district where the goods are to be sold, at least five days before the sale. If at the time of the retaking five hundred dollars or more has been paid on the purchase price, the seller shall also give notice of the sale at least five days before the sale by publication in a newspaper published or having a general circulation within the filing district where the goods are to be sold. The seller may bid for the goods at the resale. If the goods are of the kind described in section sixty-eight, the parties may fix in the conditional sale contract the place where the goods shall be resold.

§ 80. Resale at option of parties. If the buyer has not paid at least fifty per centum of the purchase price at the time of the retaking, the seller shall not be under a duty to resell the goods as prescribed in section seventy-nine, unless the buyer serves upon the seller, within ten days after the retaking, a written notice demanding a resale, delivered personally or by registered mail. If such notice is served, the resale shall take place within thirty days after the service, in the manner, at the place and upon the notice prescribed in section seventy-nine. The seller may voluntarily resell the goods for account of the buyer on compliance with the same requirements.

§ 80-a. Proceeds of resale. The proceeds of the resale shall be applied (1) to the payment of the expenses thereof, (2) to the payment of the expenses of retaking, keeping and storing the goods, (3) to the satisfaction of the balance due under the contract. Any sum remaining after the satisfaction of such claims shall be paid to the buyer.

§ 80-b. Deficiency on resale. If the proceeds of the resale are not sufficient to defray the expenses thereof, and also the expenses of retaking, keeping and storing the goods and the balance due upon the purchase price, the seller may recover the deficiency from the buyer, or from any one who has succeeded to the obligations of the buyer.

§ 80-c. Rights of parties where there is no resale. Where there is no resale, the seller may retain the goods as his own property without obligation to account to the buyer except as provided in section eighty-e, and the buyer shall be discharged of all obligation.

§ 80-d. Election of remedies. After the retaking of possession as provided in section seventy-six the buyer shall be liable for the price only after a resale and only to the extent provided in section eighty-b. Neither the bringing of an action by the seller for the recovery of the whole or any part of the price, nor the recovery of judgment in such action, nor the collection of a portion of the price, shall be deemed inconsistent with a later retaking of the goods as provided in section seventy-six. But such right of retaking shall not be exercised by the seller after he has collected the entire price, or after he has claimed a lien upon the goods, or attached them, or levied upon them as the goods of the buyer.

§ 80-e. Recovery of part payments. If the seller fails to comply with the provisions of sections seventy-eight, seventy-nine, eighty, eighty-a and eighty-c, after retaking the goods, the buyer may recover from the seller his actual damages, if any, and in no event less than one-fourth of the sum of all payments which have been made under the contract, with interest.

§ 80-f. Waiver of statutory protection. No act or agreement of the buyer before or at the time of the making of the contract, nor any agreement or statement by the buyer in such contract, shall constitute a valid waiver of the provisions of sections seventy-eight, seventy-nine, eighty, eighty-a and eighty-e; except that the contract may stipulate that on such default of the buyer as is provided for in section seventy-six, the seller may rescind the conditional sale, either as to all the goods or as to any part thereof for which a specific price was fixed in the contract. If the contract thus provides for rescission, the seller at his option may retake such goods without complying with or being bound by the provisions of sections seventy-seven to eighty-e inclusive, as to the goods retaken, upon crediting the buyer with the full purchase price of those goods. So much of this credit as is necessary to cancel any indebtedness of the buyer to the seller shall be so applied, and the seller shall repay to the buyer on demand any surplus not so required.

§ 80-g. Loss and increase. After the delivery of the goods to the buyer and prior to the retaking of them by the seller, the risk of injury and loss shall rest upon the buyer. The increase of the goods shall be subject to the same conditions as the original goods.

§ 80-h. Rules for cases not provided for. In any case not provided for in this article the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, and in particular those relating to principal and agent and to the effect of fraud, misrepresentation, duress or coercion, mistake, bankruptcy, or other invalidating cause, shall continue to apply to conditional sales.

§ 80-i. Uniformity of interpretation. This article shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

§ 80-j. Construction of article. Nothing in this article contained shall be deemed to affect the provisions of section sixty-four of the personal property law, or any other provision of law regulating or relating to the official method of filing, refiling, indexing, canceling or satisfying contracts of conditional sale filed in any of the counties within the city of New York, or the fees payable therefor.

CHAPTER 643

AN ACT to amend the state printing law, in relation to department printing.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

L. 1917,
ch. 667 (revision of
L. 1921,
ch. 337).
§§ 3, 4, 7,
8, amended.

Section 1. Sections three, four, seven and eight of chapter six hundred and sixty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and seventeen, entitled "An act relating to state printing, constituting chapter fifty-eight of the consolidated laws," as last amended by chapter three hundred and thirty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one, are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 3. Classification. The public printing is hereby classified into three principal parts. The first part shall be known as the legislative printing, which shall include all printing done for or upon the order of the legislature. The second part shall be known as the department printing, which shall include all printing for the various offices, institutions and departments of the state,¹ other than legislative, classified as department printing by the board of estimate and control, pursuant to this chapter. The third part shall be known as the printing of the session laws, which shall include the printing of all slips of the laws, the publication of the official and public editions of the session laws and the binding thereof.

§ 4. Powers and duties of board. It shall be the duty of said board, after public notice, and in accordance with rules and regulations to be prescribed by it, to let to the lowest bidder, as hereinafter provided, who shall give adequate security for the performance of the contract, all contracts for the work embraced in the three several parts in this chapter defined, except printing done pursuant to law in the prisons of the state, in the state charitable and benevolent institutions for the benefit of such institutions, or by the board or commission having fiscal control of such institutions, the printing of examination question papers or printing done for the education department or the schools under its jurisdiction in the rooms of the university of the state of New York by its employees,² the stationery used by the legislature,³ briefs and cases on appeal required by the attorney-general⁴ and the bulletins issued by the Geneva and Ithaca experimental stations.

The said board shall adopt and promulgate appropriate rules and regulations touching the manner of the performance of its work and prescribing the form and manner of advertisement for bids and all requisitions made upon it for printing, except that said board shall make no rule or regulation inconsistent with or in violation of the provisions of this chapter.

The board shall appoint two inspectors, who shall investigate and report to the said board on the qualifications and facilities of any person, firm or corporation proposing to perform any printing contract for which provision is made in this chapter. No contract shall be awarded to any bidder until the board shall have been satisfied, by such investigation, that the facilities and equipment of such bidder are ample and sufficient to insure the proper performance of said contract.

The quality and style of printing, paper and publication shall be the same in the legislative printing as in the year nineteen hundred and sixteen, and no change shall be made therein except with the consent of the board.

§ 7. Department printing. The department printing, constituting the second part hereinbefore described, shall include the blanks, circulars, blank books, pamphlets, envelopes, letter and note heads, other than those required for the use of the legislature, and all other printing work for the various departments and institutions of the state, other than the legislature, including the reports and bulletins. ⁴The board of estimate and control may exclude from the department printing and classify as supplies such blanks, circulars, blank books, pamphlets, envelopes, letter heads and note heads, and similar printing, as it deems proper, and may also divide and classify the department printing into two or more parts according to the kind, quality or quantity of work, or otherwise, as the board may determine; and, pursuant to this chapter, may advertise for and let separate contracts for each of such parts. The board may, from time to time, modify any exclusion or classification of department printing made pursuant to this section. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing or affecting section one hundred and seventy-six of chapter forty-three of the consolidated laws.

Any state officer, department, commission, institution or board may deliver the copy of its report to the board on or before the first day of August, or as soon thereafter as possible, and when so delivered the form, nature and quantity of its contents shall be considered and approved by the board and after such approval ordered printed for transmission to the legislature in printed form. The board, in addition to the number of copies thereof required to be distributed pursuant to section forty-seven of the legislative law, may direct the printing of as many copies of reports of state officers, departments, commissions, institutions and boards as the board may deem necessary for the use of the legislature, the respective state officers, departments, commissions, institutions and boards, but such number shall not exceed the following:

Of the governor's message, two thousand copies; of the comptroller's report of the finances of the state, fifteen hundred copies; of the canals, two hundred and fifty copies; of the state treasurer's report, seven hundred copies; of the attorney-general's report, twelve hundred and fifty copies of the second volume containing the opinions; seven hundred copies of the first volume containing the attorney-general's report; of the engineer and surveyor, one thousand copies; of the report of the superintendent of insurance, three thousand copies; of the report of the adjutant-general, one thousand copies; of the report of the superintendent of public works, one thousand copies; of the report of the superintendent of prisons, one thousand copies; of the report of the board of charities, one thousand five hundred copies; of the report of the department of health, two thousand copies; of the report of the department of labor,⁵ three thousand five hundred copies; ⁶ of the report of the civil service commission, one thousand copies; of the report of the department of agriculture, three thousand copies; of the volumes containing the reports of the Geneva and Ithaca experiment stations, two thousand additional copies; of the report of the hospital commission, two thousand copies; of the report of the tax commissioner, three thousand copies; of the library report, one thousand copies; of the museum and natural history report, one thousand copies; of the annual report of the public service commission,⁷ three thousand copies; of the report of the commissioner of education, fifteen thousand copies; of the geologist's report, one thousand five hundred copies; of the report of the historian, two thousand copies; of the report of the conservation commission, two thousand copies; of the report of the Grand Army of the Republic, one thousand copies; of the report of the United Spanish War Veterans, one thousand copies; of the report of the American Legion, five thousand copies; of the report of the superintendent of banks, one thousand copies; of the report of the fiscal supervisor of charities, one thousand copies; of the report of the highway commission, two thousand copies; of the report of the probation commission, one thousand copies; of the report of the prison commission, one thousand five hundred copies; of the report of the court of claims, one thousand copies; of the report of the American Scenic and Historic Preservation Society, one thousand five hundred copies; and for all other institutions, boards and commissions reporting to the legislature and not referred to herein, five hundred copies each.

Upon request duly made therefor, not to exceed fifty of said copies shall be delivered to the state library, by the state officer, department, commission, institution and board receiving the same.

No report of any institution, board or commission shall be printed as hereinbefore provided for where the same is or can be printed by or in the institution making the same.

Whenever any department shall, under the provisions of law, issue a portion of its annual report in advance in the form of bulletins, such bulletins shall be printed by the contractor at the rates provided for in his contract.

In the case of any printing authorized by this section, or of any printing hereafter authorized by resolution of either branch of the legislature or by a concurrent resolution thereof, no extra charge shall be made except for extra paper or work beyond that required by the terms of the contract actually furnished with the approval of the comptroller, and for such extra paper and work the charge allowed shall not exceed the current market rates. Composition shall not be charged a second time on matter printed from type already set or plates made at state expense, but the board may make suitable allowance for handling of plates and reimposing type forms. In all cases where illustrations are used, the engravings and plates shall forthwith become the property of the state, and thereafter no charge shall be made for their subsequent use, except that the comptroller may make a suitable allowance for the handling of the plates.

Whenever any officer, bureau, board, commission, or any corporation or association shall make to more than one officer or body an annual report, the contractor shall not print such report for the year more than once at public expense, and the filing of a copy of the report as so printed shall be deemed a compliance with any law requiring a report to any other officer or body than the one to which the original manuscript report was submitted; and any institution which makes a report to any bureau, department or commission, which report is thereafter included in the annual report of said bureau, department or commission to the legislature, shall not be entitled for its own use to additional copies of said report, unless otherwise specifically provided.

All extra copies of reports printed for the use of departments, institutions and boards shall be delivered by the contractor to said state officers, departments, institutions and boards.

All copies of messages and reports printed for the use of the legislature shall be delivered, one-third to the clerk of the senate and two-thirds to the clerk of the assembly, and shall be distributed as the legislature shall direct.

§ 8. Proposals for department printing. The several officers, institutions and departments of the state shall, prior to the first day of February in each year, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, and oftener whenever necessary, transmit to the board an estimate in writing showing in detail all printing required for such office, institution or department during the ensuing fiscal year and containing such information with regard thereto as shall be required by the rules and regulations of said board. Said board shall, after approving such estimate, on or before the first day of May in each year, or as soon thereafter as may be practicable, give notice in such newspapers as it shall determine will be most likely to give adequate notice to bidders, that it will, thirty days after the publication of such notice, and on a day named therein, receive sealed proposals for department printing provided to be furnished under this chapter, pursuant to one or more contracts, in accordance with classifications made by the board,⁸ the same to be furnished as prescribed by law and in the notice published by said board for the fiscal year following the publication of said notice. Said board shall prepare, in duplicate, specifications for all department printing to be contracted for and shall invite all bids upon specifications, and shall let all contracts upon such specifications, and such specifications shall be a part of each said contract and shall not be changed or modified after the contract is awarded. Such duplicate specifications, when prepared, shall be filed not less than sixty days before the letting of said contract or contracts,⁹ in the office of said board and in the office of the comptroller of the state and shall be open to inspection at all times. The board may reject all bids submitted to it if in its opinion the lowest bid is excessive, and it may discriminate in favor of such bid as it may deem most favorable to the state. The public notice of the letting of contracts herein directed shall refer to the specifications therefor and to the filing of said specifications in the office of the board and in the office of the comptroller of the state and shall set the time when and the place where the bids invited upon said specifications will be received. The specifications for such department printing must set forth in such detail as will adequately inform the proposing bidders of the nature, kind, quality and quantity thereof. Copies of such specifications shall be delivered to all applicants therefor, except that the said specifications may provide, in addition to the items specified therein, for the furnishing of additional department printing described in said items under the terms of the contract to be let therefor without stating the quantity thereof. The said specifications shall also provide that the bidders shall present their proposals in detail, bidding upon the several items set forth in the specifications. At the time when and at the place where bids are advertised to be received in the manner herein provided, the board shall convene in public meeting and shall publicly open the bids received and record them in a book which it shall keep for that purpose, without any change, correction or addition whatever. No bids shall be withdrawn or canceled until after the contract or contracts shall have been awarded, but the board may reject any bids which do not conform to its rules and regulations, and may reject all bids and again advertise for bids in the manner herein provided if in its opinion the interests of the state will be promoted thereby. Every bid received must be a sealed bid, and enclosed therewith the bidder shall deposit with the board a certified check or money for five per centum of the amount of his bid, as a guaranty that he will enter into the contract if it shall be awarded to him. Notice of the requirement of such deposit with the bid shall be embodied in the public notice of such letting, and such notice shall also require, and each contract shall provide, for the giving of a bond in such manner as the board shall prescribe, conditioned for the faithful performance of the contract. Each¹⁰ contract when awarded shall be executed in duplicate and one duplicate original thereof shall be forthwith filed in the office of said board and the other duplicate original thereof, together with bond accompanying said contract, shall be forthwith filed in the office of the comptroller of the state. Separate contracts may be made at any time for engraving, lithographing, wood-cuts, maps or for any description of printing or of any article of stationery not specifically mentioned in the contract or contracts¹¹ and involving an expense of more than five hundred dollars.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 644

AN ACT to amend the prison law, in relation to alien convicts of state prisons.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 161
L. 1909,
ch. 47.

Section 1. Chapter forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to prisons, constituting chapter forty-three of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by inserting therein after section one hundred and sixty, a new section, to be section one hundred and sixty-one, to read as follows:

§ 161. Alien convicts of state prisons. The agent and warden of each state prison shall at least twenty days prior to the discharge or release on parole of an alien convict, notify the superintendent of state prisons of such impending discharge or release. The superintendent of state prisons shall thereupon cause an investigation to be made of the prison record and past history of such alien convict and shall immediately upon the termination of such investigation and at least ten days prior to the discharge or release on parole of such alien, cause the prison record of such alien convict, together with all facts disclosed by such investigation, and his recommendations as to deportation, to be forwarded to the department of justice at Washington.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 645

AN ACT to amend the prison law, in relation to care of children born to inmates of penal institutions.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 47,
§ 22, as added by
L. 1919,
ch. 19,
amended.

Section 1. Section twenty-two of chapter forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to prisons, constituting chapter forty-three of the consolidated laws," as added by chapter twelve of the laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 22. Births to inmates of penal institutions. If a woman confined in a state prison, reformatory, penitentiary or jail be pregnant and about to give birth to a child, the agent and warden, superintendent or other officer in charge of such institution, a reasonable time before the anticipated birth of such child, shall cause such woman to be removed from such institution and provided with comfortable accommodations, maintenance and medical care elsewhere, under such supervision and safeguards to prevent her escape from custody as he may determine, and subject to her return to such institution as soon after the birth of her child as the state of her health will permit. The expense of such accommodation, maintenance and medical care shall be paid by such woman, or her relatives or friends, or from any funds of the institution which would be available for the hospital expenses of such inmate within the institution, or if not otherwise available, shall be a charge upon the county, city or town from which such inmate was committed to such institution and collectible by the agent and warden, superintendent or other officer in charge of such institution. ¹ A child so born shall not be returned to the institution in which the mother is confined unless it be a reformatory and the agent and warden, superintendent or other officer in charge of such institution may, upon proof being furnished by the father or other relatives of their ability to properly care for and maintain such child, give the child into the care and custody of such father or other relatives, who shall thereafter maintain the same at their own expense until the release of the mother of such child or until such child shall have been duly adopted as provided by law. If it shall appear that such father or other relatives are unable to properly care for and maintain such child, such officer shall place the child in the care of the superintendent of poor or other officer exercising the power of a superintendent of poor of the county from which such inmate was committed as a charge upon such county. Such superintendent of poor shall care for or place out such child as provided by law in the case of a child becoming dependent upon the county.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 646

AN ACT to amend the public buildings law, in relation to admission to the New York State Soldiers and Sailors' Home.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section sixty-four of chapter forty-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to public buildings, constituting chapter forty-four of the consolidated laws," as last amended by chapter one hundred and ninety of the laws of nineteen hundred and twelve,² is hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 50,

Section 1. Section one hundred and two of chapter fifty of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to the public lands, constituting chapter forty-six of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by adding thereto a new subdivision, to be subdivision nine, to read as follows:

9. Have power and authority, notwithstanding the provisions of section thirty-seven of the state finance law and without payment to the state treasury, to retain from the receipts derived from the concession granted for the Cave of the Winds such sum as may be needed to construct an elevator which will provide for a better access thereto, and to construct or contract for the construction of such elevator accordingly.

AN ACT to amend the public lands law, in relation to the elimination of claims adverse to the state's claim of title.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section nineteen of chapter fifty of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to the public lands, constituting chapter forty-six of the consolidated laws," as last amended by chapter six hundred and forty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one,¹ is hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 50, § 19, as amended by
L. 1921,
ch. 647,
amended.

§ 19. Payment of incumbrances on public lands; adverse claims; abandonment; costs. The commissioners of the land office whenever they deem it for the best interest of the state may order the treasurer, on the warrant of the comptroller, to pay off and cancel any charges, assessments, or incumbrances, other than the lien of a tax under article ten of the tax law, existing on any lands belonging to the state or in which the state has an interest, or to acquire any outstanding undivided interest in such lands adverse to the title of the state, to perfect in the state a title to any such lands, or to protect the state's interest therein. Where the state has a tax deed to any lands in any county of the state, which in the opinion of the attorney-general would be declared void by the courts, the commissioners of the land office, on the filing with them of such opinion and the evidence upon which such opinion is based, may, by resolution, abandon same and any claim of title thereunder. ²Where the state has a tax deed to any lands within the Adirondack or Catskill parks or adjacent thereto, the conservation commission, with the consent of the commissioners of the land office and subject to the approval of the governor and the attorney-general, may, pursuant to the provisions of chapter five hundred and sixty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and sixteen and acts supplemental thereto and amendatory thereof, whenever there is an adverse claim or claims of title to such lands, acquire by purchase a deed or conveyance of such lands from the person or persons so claiming adversely on such terms and conditions as such state officials may deem for the best interests of the state and to avoid litigation. In an action for partition of or to foreclose a mortgage on such lands wherein the commissioners of the land office are so empowered the plaintiff shall not be entitled to costs if the people of the state are made a party defendant, unless the commissioners of the land office, after a full presentation of the facts to them shall have deter-

AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to filling vacancies in elective offices.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section forty-two of chapter fifty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to public officers, constituting chapter forty-seven of the consolidated laws," is hereby renumbered section forty-three, and such chapter is hereby amended by inserting therein a new section forty-two, to read as follows:¹

§ 42. Filling vacancies in elective offices. A vacancy occurring before October fifteenth of any year in any office authorized to be filled at a general election, shall be filled at the general election held next thereafter, unless otherwise provided by the constitution, or unless previously filled at a special election. Upon the failure to elect to any office, except that of governor or lieutenant-governor, at a general or special election, at which such office is authorized to be filled, or upon the death or disqualification of a person elected to office before the commencement of his official term, or upon the occurrence of a vacancy in any elective office which cannot be filled by appointment for a period extending to or beyond the next general election at which a person may be elected thereto, the governor may in his discretion make proclamation of a special election to fill such office, specifying the district or county in which the election is to be held, and the day thereof, which shall be not less than thirty nor more than forty days from the date of the proclamation.

A special election shall not be held to fill a vacancy in the office of a representative in congress unless such vacancy occurs on or before the first day of July of the last year of the term of office, or unless it occurs thereafter and a special session of congress is called to meet before the next general election, or be called after October fourteenth of such year; nor to fill a vacancy in the office of state senator, unless the vacancy occurs before the first day of April of the last year of the term of office; nor to fill a vacancy in the office of a member of assembly, unless occurring before the first day of April in any year, unless the vacancy occurs in either such office of senator or member of assembly after such first day of April and a special session of the legislature be called to meet between such first day of April and the next general election or be called after October fourteenth in such year. If a special election to fill an office shall not be held as required by law, the office shall be filled at the next general election.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

AN ACT to amend the railroad law, in relation to maintenance of bridges over railroads.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section ninety-three of chapter four hundred and eighty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and ten, entitled "An act in relation to railroads, constituting chapter forty-nine of the consolidated laws," as last amended by chapter six hundred and ninety-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one,¹ is hereby amended to read as follows:

shall have at least ten days' notice of any defect in the roadway thereover and the approaches thereto, which notice must be given in writing by the town superintendent of highways or other duly constituted authority, and the railroad corporation shall not be liable by reason of any such defect unless it shall have failed to make repairs within ten days after the service of such notice upon it;* and except that in the case of any overhead bridge constructed in a town after January first, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and prior to January first, nineteen hundred and ten, if the town paid twenty-five per centum of the cost of such construction and such bridge, when completed, was upon a state highway and the state, prior to January ninth, nineteen hundred and sixteen, made any repairs to the approaches to or roadway on such bridge, the roadway on such bridge and the approaches thereto shall be maintained and kept in repair hereafter by the state, under the supervision and control of the state commission of highways in the manner provided by the highway law for the maintenance and repair of state and county highways. When a highway passes under a railroad, the bridge and its abutments shall be maintained and kept in repair by the railroad corporation, and the subway and its approaches shall be maintained and kept in repair by the municipality having jurisdiction over and in which the same are situated. In case such highway is a part of a state or county highway constructed or improved as provided in the highway law, the roadway over such railroad or the subway underneath the same, and the approaches thereto, shall be maintained and kept in repair under the supervision and control of the state commission of highways in the manner provided by the highway law for the maintenance and repair of state and county highways where such roadway, subway or approaches, or any of them, have been constructed or improved as a part of a state or a county highway.

taxation of the city of Syracuse," as amended by chapter eighty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and sixteen, is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 8. The assessors shall assess to the several owners or occupants thereof and the common council shall levy an annual tax of five cents for each lineal foot of frontage thereof, upon all lands within the city adjoining or abutting upon any street in and along which any of the city water mains or distribution pipes are or hereafter may be laid, in all cases where no water rates have accrued or been paid to the water bureau during the calendar year in which the assessment is made. Assessment of lands where no water rates paid. Provided that in cases of such lands which are only partly occupied by buildings and which are not divided into lots separately assessed, the assessment shall be made upon the total frontage thereof after deducting therefrom one hundred feet for every such building whose owner or occupant pays water rates for city water consumed therein. Proviso. Provided also that corner lots abutting upon more than one such street shall be taxed only for the shorter frontage thereof and the remaining frontage in excess of eight rods. As a basis for such assessment the commissioner of public works shall on or before the first day of June in each year furnish or cause to be furnished to the city assessors, a complete statement of all lands within the city adjoining or abutting upon any street in and along which any of the city water mains or distribution pipes are laid, upon which lands water rates have not accrued or been paid to the water bureau for the use of city water during the said calendar year. Statement of lands as basis for assessment. In case at any time during the calendar year in which such assessment is made water rates shall be paid to the water bureau for the use of city water during said calendar year upon any lands assessed and taxed as above provided, the amount thereof shall be credited or rebated to the owner or occupant of such lands against whom such assessment was made, upon the rates so charged for the use of water, the amount taxed and paid in such calendar year, not exceeding the amount of such rates. Credits or rebates where water rates paid. Such tax shall be set down in a separate column of the general tax roll under the heading water tax, and shall be levied, corrected, enforced and collected in the same manner, by the same proceedings, at the same time, under the same penalties and having the same lien upon the property assessed as the general city tax and as a part thereof. How set down in tax roll. Levy and collection. Such water tax, together with the fees and percentages thereon when collected, shall be deposited by the city treasurer to the credit of the water department fund, and shall be applied to the same uses and purposes as the revenue derived from the consumers of water. To be credited to water department fund. The city treasurer shall keep a separate account of the water taxes, and upon payment thereof by any taxpayer, shall issue a duplicate water tax receipt or coupon showing the amount of water tax paid, the property upon which the same was assessed, and the name of the person to whom the assessment was made, which receipt or coupon may be received by the water bureau and applied upon the payment of water rates or charges when so applicable. The cost of said improvements, as so certified, shall be apportioned, assessed and levied pro rata per linear foot of frontage upon the property adjoining and abutting upon said streets or parts thereof, ¹ except such part thereof as shall be assessed upon any steam railroad or street surface railroad as provided by law. The rate of said tax per linear foot of frontage for each said improvement shall be determined by said assessors, and in the preparation of the next assessment roll for the general city tax, the amount of such frontage tax upon each parcel of real estate affected thereby appearing in said rolls shall be computed by said assessors and set down opposite said parcel in a separate column of the general tax roll under the heading sprinkling tax, and the same shall be levied, corrected, enforced and collected in the same manner by the same proceedings and with the same force and effect, at the same time, under the same penalties and having the same lien upon the property assessed as the general city tax and as a part thereof. In case the amount estimated and assessed for any such improvement shall be insufficient or shall exceed the expense thereof, the amount of such deficiency or excess shall be taken into account and added or rebated in making any assessment upon the property effective for a like improvement during the succeeding year. The comptroller shall on or before the first day of June of each year report to the assessors the sum or sums properly chargeable against any parcel of property on account of repairs to or the construction of gutters or sidewalks or the incurring of any expenditure or obligation on the part of the commissioner of public works or commissioner of public safety, superintendent of building or health department, authorized by law, ordinance or regulation on account of and chargeable to such parcel, and the amount of any such charge or charges shall be apportioned and set down opposite said parcel in a separate column of the general tax roll under the heading "miscellaneous taxes" and the same shall be levied, corrected, enforced and collected in the same manner, with the same force and effect, at the same time, under the same penalties and having the same lien upon the property assessed as the general city tax and as a part thereof. The amount of water, sprinkling and miscellaneous taxes authorized hereby shall not be counted as a part of the aggregate of the annual city tax levy authorized by law.

AN ACT to amend chapter six hundred and eighty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and five, entitled "An act to supplement the provisions of law relating to the department of public works of the city of Syracuse," in relation to assessment of part of cost of sprinkling or flushing of streets on railroads.

Accepted by the City.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section seven of chapter six hundred and eighty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and five, entitled "An act to supplement the provisions of law relating to the department of public works of the city of Syracuse," as last amended by chapter sixty-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and sixteen,¹ is hereby amended to read as follows:

AN ACT to amend the surrogate's court act, generally.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§§ 55, 56,
63, 96, 141, 142, 148, 150, 216
amended.

Section 1. Sections fifty-five, fifty-six, sixty-three, ninety-six, one hundred and forty-one, one hundred and forty-two, one hundred and forty-eight, one hundred and fifty and three hundred and sixteen of the surrogate's court act are hereby amended to read, respectively, as follows:

§ 55. Citation; how served within state. Personal service of a citation within the state shall be made as follows:

Upon an adult person, or upon an infant of the age of fourteen years or upwards, by delivering a copy thereof to the person to be served.

Upon an infant under the age of fourteen years, by delivering a copy thereof¹ to his father, mother or guardian; or if there be none within the state, or if the infant does not reside with a parent, to the person having the care and control of him, or with whom he resides, or in whose service he is employed.

¹ Words "to the infant in person, and" omitted.

Upon a person judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs by reason of lunacy, idiocy, or habitual drunkenness, or upon a corporation by delivering a copy thereof in the manner prescribed for personal service of a summons in an action in the supreme court upon such a person, or upon a corporation. Upon a public officer by delivering a copy thereof to such officer, or to one of his duly constituted deputies.

Where it appears, by affidavit, to the satisfaction of the surrogate from whose court a citation is issued, that proper and diligent effort has been made to serve it as hereinbefore prescribed in this section upon a resident of the state whose place of residence or place of business is known, and that the person to be served cannot be found at his residence or place of business, and cannot be elsewhere served within the state within a reasonable time, or, if found, that he evades service, so that it cannot be made; the surrogate may make an order directing that service thereof be made, by leaving a copy thereof, and of the order, if the respondent¹ is a domestic corporation or joint-stock or other unincorporated association at its principal office or place of business, or if a natural person at the residence of the respondent² with a person of proper age, if upon reasonable application, admittance can be obtained, and such person found who will receive it; or, if admittance cannot be so obtained, nor such a person found, by affixing the same to the outer or other door of the respondent's³ said place of business or office, or of his residence, and by depositing another copy thereof, properly enclosed in a postpaid wrapper, addressed to the respondent² at its said principal office or place of business, or to him at his place of residence, in the post-office at the place where he resides, or where said office, place of business or residence is located, or upon proof being made by affidavit that no such residence can be found, service of the citation⁴ may be made in such manner as the court may direct; the order, and the papers upon which it was granted, must be filed, and the service must be made, within ten days after the order is granted; otherwise the order becomes inoperative. On filing an affidavit, showing service according to the order, the citation is deemed served, and the same proceedings may be taken thereupon, as if it had been served by publication pursuant to an order for that purpose.

Where it is necessary in any special proceeding to cite known creditors, and it appears that the number of creditors or persons claiming to be creditors, residing within the state of New York, upon whom citation is required to be served, exceeds fifty, service thereof may be made upon them by publication thereof in such newspaper or newspapers and for such a length of time as shall be fixed by the surrogate, and by the mailing of a copy of such citation to each of them by deposit of a copy thereof in the post-office, properly enclosed in a postpaid sealed wrapper addressed to each of them at his last known post-office address as stated in the order, at least twenty days prior to the return day thereof.

§ 56. Service personally without the state, or by publication. The surrogate from whose court a citation is issued or to be issued^{*} may make an order directing the service thereof personally without the state, or by publication, in either of the following cases:

1. Where it is to be served upon a foreign corporation, or upon a person who is not a resident of the state.

2. Where the person to be served is a resident of the state, and substituted service upon him cannot be authorized as provided in section fifty-five of this act, 'or where in the surrogate's discretion a person who is a resident of the state but is absent therefrom should be served without the state personally or by publication.

3. Where it is to be served upon a party, or a person required to be made a party, whose name, or residence, cannot be ascertained.

4. Where it is to be served upon one or more unknown creditors, next of kin, heirs, legatees or other persons, either individually or included in a class, to whom a citation has been directed, designating them by a general description, as prescribed in this act.

§ 63. Appearance; how made and effect thereof. In a surrogate's court, a party of full age may, unless he has been judicially declared to be incompetent to manage his affairs, appear and prosecute or defend a special proceeding in person, or by attorney regularly admitted to practice in the courts of record, at his election, except in a proceeding to punish him for contempt, or where he is required to appear in person, by special provision of law, or by a special order of the surrogate. An appearance must be evidenced by a notice of appearance signed by the party or by his attorney, or in the case of a public officer, by such officer or a duly constituted deputy in the name of such officer, and filed in the surrogate's court; and where no citation has been served on the person appearing, such 'appearance and notice must conform to the requirements of section forty-one of this act.

§ 96. Objections to grant of letters. Any person interested in the estate or fund may, before letters testamentary, of administration or of guardianship are granted, or a testamentary guardian or trustee is allowed to qualify and serve, file objections showing his interest in the estate or fund, and setting forth specifically one or more legal objections to granting the letters to one or more of the persons about to receive the same, or to allowing a testamentary guardian or trustee to qualify and serve. Where such objections are filed, the surrogate must stay the granting of letters to the person to whom objection is made^{*} or refuse to allow the testamentary guardian or trustee to qualify until the matter is disposed of.

§ 141. Witnesses to be examined; proof required. Before a written will is admitted to probate, two, at least, of the subscribing witnesses must be produced and examined, if so many are within the state, and competent and able to testify. * Where the will is on file in a court or public office, of another state of the United States, or in a court, or public office, of a foreign country, and under the laws of such state or country, the will cannot be removed, the surrogate may issue a commission to take the testimony in the matter; or where the will is brought to the surrogate's court by a representative of a public officer of a state or country, the surrogate may take the testimony in the matter and permit said representative to return the will to said state or country, and the testimony so taken and the decree admitting a will upon such testimony shall have the same force and effect as though the will had been filed or had remained in the surrogate's office. Before a nuncupative will is admitted to probate, its execution and the tenor thereof must be proved by at least two witnesses. The proofs must be reduced to writing. Any party to the proceeding may request the oral examination of the subscribing witnesses to the will and may examine such witnesses and any other witness produced by the proponent before the surrogate, without first filing objections to the probate of such will.

§ 142. Absent witnesses to be accounted for; dispensing with testimony; commission; proof of handwriting. The death, absence from the state, or incompetency by reason of lunacy, or otherwise of a subscribing witness required to be examined as prescribed in this or the last section, or the fact that such witness cannot, with due diligence, be found within the state, or can not be examined by reason of his physical or mental condition may be shown by affidavit or other competent evidence, and when so shown to the satisfaction of the surrogate, the surrogate may by the decree or by an order in writing, or by ¹⁰ an order entered in the minutes ¹¹ dispense with his testimony; or in a case where such witness is absent from the state and it is shown that his testimony can be obtained with reasonable diligence, the surrogate may, in his discretion, and shall upon the demand of any party, require his testimony to be taken by commission. Where the testimony of a subscribing witness has been dispensed with as provided in this section, and one subscribing witness has been examined, the will may be admitted to probate upon the testimony of such subscribing witness alone.

If all the subscribing witnesses to a written will be dead, or incompetent by reason of lunacy or otherwise, to testify, or unable to testify, or are absent from the state and their testimony has been dispensed with as provided in this section, or if a subscribing witness has forgotten the occurrence, or testifies against the execution of the will, or was not present with the other witness at the execution of the will; the will may nevertheless be established, upon proof of the handwriting of the testator, and of the subscribing witnesses, and also of such other circumstances as would be sufficient to prove the will upon the trial of an action.

§ 148. Notice to legatees and devisees of objections filed. Whenever objections are filed to the probate of a will, the proponent shall file ¹² a notice stating the name of the testator, that his last will and testament has been offered for probate, the name and post office address of the proponent, and of each legatee, devisee or other beneficiary, who has not appeared by attorney, and the names of any other persons directed by the surrogate to be notified. Such notice shall be served on each of the parties therein named ¹³ in such manner and within such time as the surrogate shall direct, which notice shall have the additional statement included in or endorsed thereon that objections have been filed to the probate of such will and that the same will be heard on a day or at a term of court therein stated. Proof of due service of such notice shall be made and filed in the surrogate's office, and any decree in the proceeding shall not affect the right or interest of any such person unless he shall have been so notified.

§ 150. Wills to be recorded and retained; exception. Every will admitted to probate, together with the decree, order or judgment admitting it to probate shall be recorded in the proper surrogate's court. Where a written will is proved, it must be filed and remain in the surrogate's office, ¹⁴except in matters where the will is on file in a court or public office of another state or country under the laws of which it cannot be removed. But when it shall be shown, by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the surrogate, that the decedent left real or personal property in another state or territory of the United States or in a foreign country, and that the laws of such state, territory, or country require the production of the original will before the provisions thereof become effective, the surrogate may, at any time after probate, and upon such notice to the parties interested in the estate as he may think proper, cause any original will remaining on file in his office to be sent by post or otherwise to any court which, or to any officer of such state, territory or country who, under the laws thereof, is empowered to receive the same for probate, or may deliver such will to any person interested in the probate thereof in such state, territory or country, or to his representative, upon such terms as he shall think proper for the preservation of the will and the protection of other parties interested in the estate.

§ 316. Certain provisions made applicable to proceedings in surrogate's courts. Except where a contrary intent is expressed

CHAPTER 655

AN ACT to amend the village law, in relation to collection of taxes by clerk.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 117a
added to
L. 1909,
ch. 64.

Section 1. Chapter sixty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to villages, constituting chapter sixty-four of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by inserting therein a new section, to be section one hundred and seventeen-a, to read as follows:

§ 117-a. Collection of taxes by clerk. The board of trustees of any village may, by resolution, determine that village taxes shall be collected by the clerk, and if the office of collector shall not have been heretofore abolished, that no collector shall thereafter be elected therein. In such village the duplicate roll and warrant shall be signed only by the president and shall be directed to the clerk. All the provisions of this article relating to the delivery of a tax-roll and warrant, the extension of the time for the collection of taxes, and the return of such tax-roll and warrant, apply to the roll and warrant so delivered to the clerk, so far as practicable, except, upon the expiration of the time fixed for the collection of taxes, the clerk shall file the roll and warrant in his office, with a return, in accordance with the directions of the warrant, showing the total amount of taxes paid and each tax unpaid, with the receipt of the village treasurer for all taxes paid to him. Upon the delivery of the roll and warrant to the clerk, he shall publish in each newspaper actually printed in the village, once in each week for four consecutive weeks, and post in five public places in the village, a notice that such tax-roll and warrant have been left with him for the collection of the taxes therein levied, and designating one or more convenient places in the village where he will receive taxes for thirty days after the first publication and posting of said notice, from nine o'clock in the morning until four o'clock in the afternoon, and that for said thirty days taxes may be paid to him without additional charge; and that all such taxes remaining unpaid after the expiration of said thirty days will thereafter bear interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum, until the return of the tax-roll and warrant. The clerk shall attend at the time and place specified in said notice, and may receive such taxes. After the expiration of said thirty days the clerk shall proceed to collect the taxes remaining unpaid, with interest as herein provided, but without any other fee or charge, and for that purpose be possessed of all the powers of a town collector.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 656

AN ACT to amend the Greater New York charter, in relation to promotions of lieutenants of police.

Accepted by the City.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section two hundred and eighty-eight of the Greater New York charter, as re-enacted by chapter four hundred and sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and one, as last amended by chapter seven hundred and forty of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty,¹ is hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1901,
ch. 466,
§ 288, as amended by
L. 1920,
ch. 740,
amended.

ID; PROMOTIONS.

§ 288. Promotions of officers and members of the police force shall be made by the police commissioner, as provided in section one hundred and twenty-four of this act, on the basis of seniority, meritorious police service and superior capacity, as shown by competitive examination, but no detail to act as inspector, or to service in the detective bureau, as hereinafter provided, shall be deemed a promotion. Individual acts of personal bravery may be treated as an element of meritorious service in such examination, the relative rating therefor to be fixed by the municipal civil service commission. The police commissioner shall transmit to the municipal civil service commission in advance of such examination the complete record of each candidate for promotion. Sergeants shall be selected from among patrolmen of the first grade. Lieutenants of police shall be selected from among sergeants who shall have served at least one year continuously as such. Captains shall be selected from among lieutenants of police who shall have served at least one year² as such.

The police commissioner shall, in the exercise of his discretion, from time to time detail nineteen captains and so many others as the board of estimate and apportionment upon the recommendation of the mayor and the police commissioner may authorize to act as inspectors, with the title while so acting of inspectors of police, and at his pleasure may revoke any or all such details. While so detailed such officer shall receive a salary to be fixed by the board of aldermen upon the recommendation of the board of estimate and apportionment, as provided in section fifty-six of this act, in addition to the amount of salary which regularly attaches to the office of captain. When a captain shall have acted under regular detail as inspector during a period or periods aggregating five years, such officer shall have the same rights in respect to the relief pension fund as were vested by law in inspectors of police on the first day of February in the year nineteen hundred and seven; provided, however, that when the commissioner designates a captain to act in the place of a captain under regular detail as inspector, during the temporary absence or disability of the latter, the officer so designated shall not be entitled to any additional salary, and the period of such designation shall not be counted in his favor in computing such five-year period. A captain, while detailed to act as inspector, shall be chargeable with and responsible for the discipline and efficiency of the force under his command.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 657

AN ACT to amend the village law, in relation to pavements, sidewalks, streets and sewers.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 64,
§ 166, as
L. 1919,
ch. 149,

Section 1. Section one hundred and sixty-six of chapter sixty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to villages, constituting chapter sixty-four of the consolidated laws," as last amended by chapter one hundred and forty-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen,¹ is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 166. Pavements and sidewalks. The board of trustees may cause a street in the village, or part thereof, to be graded or the sidewalk to be constructed of stone, cement, brick or similar substance or flagged or curbed or the street paved, or any one or more of such acts performed wholly at the expense of the village, or of the owners of the adjoining land, or partly at the expense of each; and where the street or part thereof is wholly within the village, but the exterior line thereof constitutes the village boundary, such acts may be performed, as to the part of such street within the village, either wholly at the expense of the village or the owners of adjoining land within and without the village or partly at the expense of the village and partly at the expense of such owner; but such² a street shall not be so graded, flagged or constructed as above provided or curbed or paved wholly at the expense of the owners of the adjoining land, unless a petition therefor be presented to the board of trustees signed by the owners of at least two-thirds of the frontage on the street, or portion thereof, proposed to be so improved, if the improvement is to consist of grading or curbing or paving, and by the owners of more than one-half of the frontage on the street or on the side thereof proposed to be improved if the improvement consists of flagging or otherwise constructing a sidewalk as above provided, and a hearing given thereon to all persons interested, on a notice of at least ten days. If such improvement is so required to be constructed or repaired wholly at the expense of the owners of the adjoining lands, a notice specifying the place and manner, and the time, not less than thirty days, within which the said improvement is required to be constructed or repaired, shall be served upon the owners. If an owner shall not construct or repair the street as required by the notice, the board of trustees may cause the same to be so constructed or repaired, and assess the expense thereof upon the adjoining land. If a street is to be so improved, constructed or repaired at the joint expense of the village and the owner of the adjoining land, the board of trustees may cause the same to be constructed or repaired, and assess upon the adjoining land the proportion of the expense chargeable against the same; or it may direct the owner to contribute labor or materials therefor. The total amount expended for street paving in any fiscal year from the moneys raised during such year, for street purposes, otherwise than in pursuance of a village election, shall not be more than one-half thereof. No land owner shall be required to grade, flag, construct sidewalk, curb or pave or bear the expense of so doing any portion of the street not in front of such land, nor beyond the center of the street,* except where a street is bounded on one side by a public waterway or public park and the owners of two-thirds of the frontage on the other side of such street petition for both the grading and paving of the street at the expense of the property benefited, in which event each owner may be required to grade and pave, or either, as the case may be, the entire width of the street in front of his property or pay the expense thereof in the manner herein provided and except where a street or boulevard has two roadways separated in the center by a parking, the owners of two-thirds of the frontage on either roadway may petition for the making of such improvement or improvements wholly at the expense of the property benefited and each owner of property fronting on such roadway may thereupon be required to grade and pave or both grade and pave, as the case may be, the entire width of the roadway in front of his property or pay the expense thereof as herein provided. All grading done or flagging or sidewalk laid or curb set or pavements laid by the owners of adjoining land shall be laid under the supervision and in accordance with the directions of the board of trustees. The expense of constructing a pavement or of grading done or flagging or sidewalk laid or cub set or any part thereof may be raised in an entire amount or in smaller amounts from time to time, as the board of trustees may determine. If any portion of such expense is to be borne by the village, bonds or certificates of indebtedness may be issued. If such expense or any part thereof is to be assessed upon adjoining land, the board of trustees may apportion it upon the lands and assess the same as a whole or by installments. Notice of an assessment based upon such apportionment shall be given to the land owners, who may pay the amounts assessed within ten days after such notice. At the expiration of that time bonds or certificates of indebtedness may be issued for the aggregate amount of such assessment then remaining unpaid. Taxes for the amount of such bonds or certificates issued on account of default in the payment of the amount apportioned upon the adjoining land shall be levied and collected in the manner prescribed by this chapter in case of unpaid assessments for the construction of sewers.

‘No village election shall be required for the issuance of certificates of indebtedness or bonds by the board of trustees as in this section. The spaces within street intersections included within a street or portion of street improved in accordance herewith must be improved at the expense of the village even though a petition, as herein provided, shall demand that such street or portion of street, be so improved wholly at the expense of the property benefited.

Several streets or portions of streets may be included in one and the same petition hereunder, so long as the owners of two-thirds or more of the frontage on each such street or portion of street join in signing such petition.

166b added.

§ 2. Such chapter is hereby amended by adding two new sections, to be sections one hundred and sixty-six-a and one hundred and sixty-six-b, to read as follows:

§ 166-a. Temporary financing. Upon the expiration of the thirty days provided in the preceding section for the making of an improvement by the owners of the property benefited, the board of trustees may proceed to borrow temporarily such sum or sums as it may deem requisite for the completion of the work, which said sum or sums shall be repaid during the current fiscal year from assessments paid by owners of the property benefited and from the proceeds of certificates of indebtedness or bonds issued as provided in the preceding section.

§ 166-b. Filling low, swamp and waste lands. The board of trustees may, by ordinance, require the filling of low, swamp and waste lands within the village and upon the failure of the owner thereof to so fill such lands within a time to be fixed in such ordinance, the board of trustees shall cause the said lands to be filled and assess the cost thereof against the property benefited.

‘Remainder of section new.

§ 3. Sections two hundred and sixty-four and two hundred and seventy-four of such chapter are hereby amended to read as follows: §§ 264, 274
amended.

§ 264. Construction of sewers wholly at the expense of property benefited. The owners of two-thirds of the entire frontage of the portion of a street or streets in which a sewer is proposed to be constructed may present to the board of sewer commissioners a petition for the construction of such a sewer. The board shall cause a notice of at least ten days to be given to each person owning land fronting on such portion of such street or streets, of a time and place where it will meet and hear persons interested in the construction of such sewer. After such hearing the board may grant the petition in whole or in part, and shall construct a sewer as ordered, and assess the entire expense thereof upon the property benefited. Where such petition is for the construction of a sewer through different streets, such sewer shall be deemed one sewer, and such streets, one continuous street, for the purposes of this section. A petition under this section may limit the maximum amount of the expense to be incurred in the construction of such sewer. ⁵ Where a street or portion of street is bounded on one side by a public waterway or a public park the other side thereof shall be deemed for the purposes of this act the entire frontage thereon and where a street or boulevard has two roadways separated in the center by a parking, the frontage on the outer side of each such roadway shall be deemed for the purposes of this act the entire frontage thereon.

§ 274. Expense of construction; how raised. The expense of constructing a sewer or a sewer system may be raised in an entire amount or in smaller sums from time to time as the board of sewer commissioners may determine. If any portion of such expense is to be borne by the village, bonds or certificates of indebtedness may be issued therefor. If such expense or any part thereof is to be assessed upon property benefited, the board may assess the same, or the instalment to be raised, on the several benefited lots or parcels, in accordance with the apportionment and ratio established under this article. Notice of such assessment shall be given to the owners, who may pay the amounts assessed within ten days after the service of such notice. At the expiration of such time bonds or certificates of indebtedness may be issued for the aggregate amount of such assessment then remaining unpaid. ⁵ No village election shall be required for the issuance of such bonds or certificates of indebtedness by the board of trustees.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

⁵ Following sentence new.

CHAPTER 658

AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to the power of insurance companies to purchase, improve and sell or convey real property during certain emergencies.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

§ 20a added
to L. 1909,
ch. 33.

Section 1. Chapter thirty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to insurance corporations, constituting chapter twenty-eight of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by inserting therein a new section, to follow section twenty, to be section twenty-a, to read as follows:

§ 20-a. Powers as to real property during certain emergencies. Until March first, nineteen hundred and twenty-four, and so long thereafter as the emergency in housing conditions mentioned in certain acts of the legislature of nineteen hundred and twenty and nineteen hundred and twenty-one shall continue, every life insurance corporation, foreign or domestic, transacting business in this state, may purchase land in any city of the first class in this state and on such land and on land in such a city acquired pursuant to any other provision of this chapter may erect apartment, tenement or other dwelling houses, not including hotels. Such corporations may thereafter hold, maintain, manage, collect and receive income from, and, from time to time, sell or convey the lands so purchased and the improvements thereon. The aggregate cost of all the lands so purchased and improvements so made shall not exceed ten per centum of the total admitted assets of such corporation as of December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, as such assets are shown in the annual report of such corporation to the superintendent of insurance for the year nineteen hundred and twenty-one. The cost of land acquired under this section shall not be allowed as an admitted asset unless improved as provided by this section, nor, if so improved, shall the cost of such land and improvements thereon be so allowed unless the average net rental value of such apartment, tenement or other dwelling house erected thereon, as estimated at the commencement of construction, be nine dollars or less per month per room.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 659

AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to mutual life, health and casualty corporations.¹

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision eleven of section seventy of chapter thirty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to insurance corporations, constituting chapter twenty-eight of the consolidated laws," such subdivision having been added by chapter two hundred and four of the laws of nineteen hundred and fourteen and last amended by chapter four hundred and eight of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one² is hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1909,
ch. 33, § 70, subd. 11,
as amended
by L. 1921,
ch. 408,
amended.

11. Against loss or damage to elevators or other property, excepting loss or damage by fire, caused by the maintenance, operation or use of elevators, and including loss by legal liability for damage to property resulting from such operation, maintenance or use of elevators; by making and filing in the office of the superintendent of insurance a certificate signed by each of them, stating their intention to form a corporation for the purpose or purposes named in some one of the foregoing subdivisions, specifying the subdivisions; and setting forth a copy of the charter which they propose to adopt, which shall state the name of the proposed corporation, the place where its principal office is to be located, the kind of insurance to be undertaken, and under which of the foregoing subdivisions it is authorized, the mode and manner in which its corporate powers are to be exercised, the number of its directors, the manner of electing its directors and officers, a majority of whom shall be citizens and residents of this state, the time of such elections, the names and postoffice addresses of the directors who shall serve until the first annual meeting of such corporation, the manner of filling vacancies, the amount of its capital and such other particulars as may be necessary to explain and make manifest the objects and purposes of the corporation.

Corporation to insure against loss to elevators, etc.

Such certificate shall be proved or acknowledged and recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose, and a certified copy thereof delivered to the persons executing the same. Except as herein provided, no corporation shall be formed under this article for the purpose of undertaking any other kind of insurance than that specified in some one of the foregoing subdivisions, or more kinds of insurance than are specified in a single subdivision; but a cor-

Certificate of incorporation.

Miscellaneous provisions.

poration may be formed for all the purposes combined, or any two or more of them specified in the first and second subdivisions, and clause (a) of the third subdivision, or for all the purposes combined, or any two or more of them specified in the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh subdivisions; provided, however, that policies under subdivision nine shall be issued only by companies authorized to issue policies under subdivisions two, three or five. No corporation or association shall transact, in connection with any other kind of insurance mentioned in the foregoing subdivisions, the business of guaranteeing and indemnifying merchants, traders and those engaged in business and giving credit from loss and damage by reason of giving and extending credit to their customers and those dealing with them, except such corporation or association as was authorized to transact such business before June first, nineteen hundred and five; but such corporation or association may continue to transact such business with all the powers and privileges theretofore possessed or enjoyed by it. No one policy issued by any one corporation shall embrace more kinds of insurance than are specified in one of such subdivisions, except that a policy may embrace risks specified in subdivisions one and two, and in subdivision two and clause (a) of subdivision three, and also that companies electing to issue policies under subdivision nine may embrace in one policy risks under subdivision two, clause (a) of subdivision three, and subdivisions five and nine, or either of them, and also that companies electing to issue policies on residences and private apartments may embrace in one policy risks under subdivisions three, five, six, seven, ten and eleven of this section, or any or either of them.

L. 1921,
ch. 408,

§ 2. Section seventy-one of such chapter, as last amended by chapter four hundred and eight of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one,³ is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 71. Completion of organization. No such certificate of intention and proposed charter shall be filed with the superintendent of insurance unless the persons signing such certificate shall previously have published twice a week, for three successive weeks, in a public newspaper designated by the superintendent, a notice of their intention to form such a corporation. Upon filing in the office of the superintendent of insurance the certificate, copy of proposed charter and proof of publication of notice of intention to form a corporation as hereinbefore required, such corporation may open books to receive subscriptions to the capital stock and keep them open until the whole of such stock or the minimum amount of insurance above mentioned has been subscribed for, and collect such subscriptions to the capital stock; and may invest such capital or moneys in the manner prescribed in this chapter. No such corporation shall transact any business of insurance until the capital has been fully paid in in cash, nor until it shall have deposited with the superintendent of insurance one hundred thousand dollars in the securities required by law. If organized for purposes mentioned in two or more of the subdivisions of section seventy, it shall deposit with the superintendent the same amount in securities in the aggregate not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, as if corporations had been separately formed for such purposes. The securities deposited pursuant to this section shall be held by the superintendent in trust for the benefit and protection of and as security for the policyholders and creditors of the corporation.

§ 3. Chapter thirty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to insurance corporations, constituting chapter twenty-eight of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by adding, after section seventy-one, a new section to be section seventy-one-a, to read as follows: § 71a added.

§ 71-a. Mutual life, health and casualty corporations. 1. Thirteen or more persons may become a corporation for the purpose of making insurance on the mutual plan upon any of the risks specified in the first, second, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, tenth or eleventh subdivision of section seventy of this chapter, by making and filing in the office of the superintendent of insurance a declaration signed by each of the incorporators, stating their intention to form a corporation for the purpose or purposes named in some one of the above mentioned subdivisions, specifying the subdivision; and setting forth a copy of the charter which they propose to adopt, which shall state the name of the proposed corporation, which shall contain the word "mutual," the place where its principal office is to be located, the mode and manner in which its corporate powers are to be exercised, the number of its directors, the manner of electing its directors and officers, a majority of whom shall be citizens and residents of this state, the time of such elections, the manner of filling vacancies, the names and post-office addresses of the directors who shall serve until the first annual meeting of such corporation, and such other particulars as may be necessary to explain and make manifest the objects and purposes of the corporation.

2. Such declaration shall be proved or acknowledged and recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose, and a certified copy thereof delivered to the persons executing the same. Except as herein provided, no corporation shall be formed under this section for the purpose of undertaking any other kind of insurance than that specified in some one of the above mentioned subdivisions, or more kinds of insurance than are specified in a single subdivision. No one policy issued by any one corporation shall embrace more kinds of insurance than are specified in one of such subdivisions, except that a policy may embrace risks specified in subdivisions one and two, and also that companies electing to issue policies on residences and private apartments may embrace in one policy risks under subdivisions five, six, seven, ten and eleven of this section, or any or either of them.

3. No such certificate of intention and proposed charter shall be filed with the superintendent of insurance unless the persons sign-

poration may be formed for all the purposes combined, or any two or more of them specified in the first and second subdivisions, and clause (a) of the third subdivision, or for all the purposes combined, or any two or more of them specified in the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh subdivisions; provided, however, that policies under subdivision nine shall be issued only by companies authorized to issue policies under subdivisions two, three or five. No corporation or association shall transact, in connection with any other kind of insurance mentioned in the foregoing subdivisions, the business of guaranteeing and indemnifying merchants, traders and those engaged in business and giving credit from loss and damage by reason of giving and extending credit to their customers and those dealing with them, except such corporation or association as was authorized to transact such business before June first, nineteen hundred and five; but such corporation or association may continue to transact such business with all the powers and privileges theretofore possessed or enjoyed by it. No one policy issued by any one corporation shall embrace more kinds of insurance than are specified in one of such subdivisions, except that a policy may embrace risks specified in subdivisions one and two, and in subdivision two and clause (a) of subdivision three, and also that companies electing to issue policies under subdivision nine may embrace in one policy risks under subdivision two, clause (a) of subdivision three, and subdivisions five and nine, or either of them, and also that companies electing to issue policies on residences and private apartments may embrace in one policy risks under subdivisions three, five, six, seven, ten and eleven of this section, or any or either of them.

No such corporation shall transact any business of insurance until the capital has been fully paid in in cash, nor until it shall have deposited with the superintendent of insurance one hundred thousand dollars in the securities required by law. If organized for purposes mentioned in two or more of the subdivisions of section seventy, it shall deposit with the superintendent the same amount in securities in the aggregate not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, as if corporations had been separately formed for such purposes. The securities deposited pursuant to this section shall be held by the superintendent in trust for the benefit and protection of and as security for the policyholders and creditors of the corporation.

§ 3. Chapter thirty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to insurance corporations, constituting chapter twenty-eight of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by adding, after section seventy-one, a new section to be section seventy-one-a, to read as follows: § 71a added.

§ 71-a. Mutual life, health and casualty corporations. 1. Thirteen or more persons may become a corporation for the purpose of making insurance on the mutual plan upon any of the risks specified in the first, second, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, tenth or eleventh subdivision of section seventy of this chapter, by making and filing in the office of the superintendent of insurance a declaration signed by each of the incorporators, stating their intention to form a corporation for the purpose or purposes named in some one of the above mentioned subdivisions, specifying the subdivision; and setting forth a copy of the charter which they propose to adopt, which shall state the name of the proposed corporation, which shall contain the word "mutual," the place where its principal office is to be located, the mode and manner in which its corporate powers are to be exercised, the number of its directors, the manner of electing its directors and officers, a majority of whom shall be citizens and residents of this state, the time of such elections, the manner of filling vacancies, the names and post-office addresses of the directors who shall serve until the first annual meeting of such corporation, and such other particulars as may be necessary to explain and make manifest the objects and purposes of the corporation.

2. Such declaration shall be proved or acknowledged and recorded in a book to be kept for that purpose, and a certified copy thereof delivered to the persons executing the same. Except as herein provided, no corporation shall be formed under this section for the purpose of undertaking any other kind of insurance than that specified in some one of the above mentioned subdivisions, or more kinds of insurance than are specified in a single subdivision. No one policy issued by any one corporation shall embrace more kinds of insurance than are specified in one of such subdivisions, except that a policy may embrace risks specified in subdivisions one and two, and also that companies electing to issue policies on residences and private apartments may embrace in one policy risks under subdivisions five, six, seven, ten and eleven of this section, or any or either of them.

ing such certificate shall previously have published twice a week for three successive weeks, or once a week for six successive weeks, in a public newspaper in the county in which its principal office is to be located, a notice of their intention to form such corporation. Upon filing in the office of the superintendent of insurance such declaration and proof of publication of notice of intention to form the corporation as hereinbefore required, such corporation may open books to receive subscriptions for the kinds of insurance specified in its charter, and keep them open until the minimum amount of insurance hereinafter required has been subscribed for and the premiums for such insurance have been received. No corporation if organized for the purposes mentioned in subdivision one or two of section seventy shall transact any business until at least five hundred persons have subscribed in the aggregate for at least one million dollars of insurance upon their lives, or, if organized for the purposes mentioned in both subdivisions one and two, until five hundred persons have subscribed for one million dollars of the kind of insurance mentioned in each such subdivision as if corporations had been formed separately for such purpose, and shall each have paid in one full annual premium in cash upon the insurance subscribed for; nor until such corporation, if authorized to transact the business specified in one subdivision, shall have deposited with the superintendent of insurance one hundred thousand dollars in the securities required by law, or, if organized for purposes mentioned in both subdivisions one and two of section seventy, it shall have deposited in such securities the sum of two hundred thousand dollars. The securities deposited pursuant to this section shall be held by the superintendent in trust for the benefit and protection of and as security for the policyholders and creditors of the corporation. No corporation organized for purposes specified in subdivisions five, six, seven, eight, ten or eleven of section seventy, shall transact any business until it has bona fide applications for insurance covering not less than four hundred separate risks, in not less than twenty policies to be issued to not less than twenty members, and has received the cash premiums therefor, the total amount of which shall be not less than fifty thousand dollars. Each policy and the by-laws of any such last mentioned corporation shall provide for an additional contingent premium at least equal to the cash premium specified in the policy, and the sum of such cash and contingent premiums shall be not less than one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

4. The facts specified herein must be certified under oath to the superintendent of insurance by at least three incorporators and the superintendent of insurance must be satisfied that the membership list of the corporation is genuine and that every member has paid the premium upon the insurance applied for as above specified and will take the policies as agreed within thirty days after the superintendent of insurance has granted to the corporation a license to issue policies. If at any time it shall appear from an examination of the corporation or from any statement filed by it that the number of risks insured or the number of policies in force or the number of members or the amount of premiums on insurance in force and the aggregate amount of contingent liability of the members are below the number and amounts required above on organization, the superintendent of insurance shall issue an order directing the corporation within a period of ninety days thereafter, to secure bona fide applications for insurance in such corporation, together with the premiums therefor, from persons who, together with the existing members, shall equal the number of members required above and whose insurance policies, together with those in force, cover the number of risks and provide for the amount of premiums and contingent liability of the members required upon organization. In the event that the corporation does not within such period become entitled to issue policies, the superintendent of insurance may in his discretion take proceedings for the liquidation of such corporation under section sixty-three of this chapter.

5. A corporation organized either under subdivision five, six, seven, eight, ten or eleven of section seventy of this chapter may in addition to the kind of insurance specified in such subdivision transact the kind of business specified in any other one of such above enumerated subdivisions by amending its charter and by-laws in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-two of this chapter, provided such amendment is first approved by a vote of three-fourths of its members in person or by proxy at a special meeting called for that purpose pursuant to notice given in accordance with the by-laws, which notice shall specify the additional kind of insurance which it is proposed to transact; and provided further that said corporation shall have and at all times maintain a surplus of at least one hundred thousand dollars and be in receipt annually of gross premiums of not less than two hundred thousand dollars. Any such corporation may further amend its charter to transact any of the other kinds of business specified in any or all of the other subdivisions enumerated in this paragraph upon taking the same proceedings above mentioned, provided that in addition to the surplus and annual premiums required for such first amendment it shall have and maintain for each such additional line a surplus of fifty thousand dollars and be in receipt annually of additional gross premiums of not less than one hundred thousand dollars.

6. Any such corporation, other than a corporation authorized to transact the insurance business specified in subdivisions one and two of section seventy of this chapter, may amend its charter in the manner above provided so as to issue policies guaranteeing the fidelity of persons holding places of public or private trust during such time as such corporation shall have a cash or invested surplus of not less than one million dollars.

7. Corporations organized under this section shall maintain the same reserves for the protection of policyholders and others who may have a right of action directly against such corporations as are required to be maintained by stock insurance corporations in relation to the same kind of insurance. In addition to any premium or other reserve which may be required by law, it shall be lawful for any such corporation other than one authorized to transact the business specified in subdivision one of section seventy of this chapter to have and maintain a reserve or surplus to provide against extraordinary losses or for the retirement of any obligations or advances which may have been made to it in accordance with the provisions of this section, or for any other purpose connected with or incidental to its business, by appropriating from time to time from the net income of the corporation such sums as the board of directors may determine; provided that the sums so appropriated in any one year shall not exceed one-half of the premium received during that year, and provided further that the surplus maintained by such corporation shall not at any one time exceed five per centum of the amount of insurance in force.

8. The management of the business and affairs of such corporation shall be vested in a board of directors. Every such corporation shall have not less than thirteen directors, and such officers as shall be provided for in the certificate of incorporation or in the by-laws. By-laws may be adopted at a meeting of the directors of the corporation held after the receipt from the superintendent of insurance of a certified copy of the certificate of incorporation, and prior to the first annual meeting, provided the said by-laws shall first have been approved by the superintendent of insurance. Thereafter, by-laws may be made or amended only by members; provided that such by-laws or such amendments shall have first been approved by the superintendent of insurance. The directors shall be elected at the annual meetings of the members from among their number but any time after the first annual meeting the directors may be divided into three groups as nearly equal as possible and thereafter one group only elected in a manner to be provided by the by-laws. The board of directors of such corporation may elect such officers as are provided for by the by-laws. All except four of the directors of the corporation elected after the organization of the corporation is completed, and it is authorized to issue insurance policies, must be members of the corporation. All of the officers excepting the secretary, assistant secretary, assistant treasurer and the actuary, must be members of the board of directors.

9. No such insurance corporation other than a life insurance corporation shall expose itself to any loss on any one risk or hazard in an amount exceeding ten per centum of its actual net and contingent assets (said contingent assets being the aggregate amount of the contingent mutual liability of its members for the payment of losses and expenses not provided for by its cash funds), provided, however, that in any event such corporation may assume liability on any one risk or hazard for the amount of five thousand dollars. No portion of any risk or hazard which shall have been reinsured in a corporation authorized to transact such insurance business in this state shall be included in determining the limitation of risk prescribed by this section.

10. A mutual corporation organized under this section may borrow or assume liability for the repayment of a sum of money sufficient to defray the reasonable expenses of its organization or to provide the securities to be deposited with the superintendent as aforesaid, or to enable it to comply with any requirement of the law, upon an agreement which shall first have been submitted to and approved by the superintendent of insurance that the same with interest at a rate not exceeding eight per centum per annum shall be repaid only out of the surplus earnings or profits of such corporation with the approval of the superintendent of insurance whenever, in his judgment, the financial condition of the company warrants it, except that such approval shall not be withheld if after such repayment shall be made such corporation shall have and be in possession of a surplus equal to ten per centum or more of its gross annual premiums. Any such sum or sums so advanced shall not form a part of the legal liabilities of the corporation but until repaid all statements published by such corporation or filed with the superintendent of insurance shall show the amount thereof then remaining unpaid.

11. If such corporation is not possessed of cash funds above its unearned premiums sufficient for the payment of incurred losses and expenses, the board of directors shall make an assessment in the manner specified in the by-laws for the amount needed to pay such losses and expenses upon members liable to assessment therefor in proportion to their several liabilities. Every member shall be liable to pay and shall pay his proportionate part of any assessment which may be laid by the corporation in accordance with law and his contract on account of losses and expenses incurred while he was a member if he is notified of such assessment within two years after the expiration or cancellation of his policy. All proposed assessments shall be filed in the insurance department and shall not take effect until approved by the superintendent of insurance after such investigation as he may deem necessary. The board of directors may from time to time fix and determine the amount to be declared pro rata and paid as a dividend or as a return of unabsorbed premiums upon expiring policies, after retaining such sums as they may deem necessary to meet outstanding policy and other obligations and the maintenance of reserves or surplus as herein provided. Such dividend shall not take effect or be distributed until approved by the superintendent of insurance after such investigation as he may deem necessary.

12. A mutual corporation organized under the laws of another state and having by its charter power to transact the insurance business specified either in subdivision one, two, five, six, seven, eight, ten or eleven of section seventy of this chapter, and whose policyholders have a contingent liability for assessment at least equal to that of policyholders of like domestic corporations, may be licensed to transact such kinds of business in this state. Such corporations shall be required to conform to the rules and regulations of the insurance department of this state and to maintain the same reserves and make the same deposits for the protection of policyholders and creditors as are required of domestic mutual corporations authorized to transact the same kinds of insurance business. Such a foreign corporation shall not be licensed to transact in this state any one of the kinds of business specified either in subdivision one, two, five, six, seven, eight, ten or eleven of this section unless it has a surplus over all liabilities including unearned premium and loss reserves of not less than one hundred thousand dollars and is in receipt of gross annual premiums of three hundred thousand dollars; but a corporation which by its charter is authorized and desires to be licensed in this state to transact any of the additional kinds of insurance specified in any of the above enumerated subdivisions of section seventy of this chapter shall for each additional line have and maintain in addition to the surplus and annual gross premium income above required a surplus of fifty thousand dollars and be in receipt annually of additional gross premiums of one hundred thousand dollars.

13. Any such foreign corporation other than a corporation authorized to transact the insurance business specified in subdivisions one and two of section seventy of this chapter may also issue policies guaranteeing the fidelity of persons holding places of public or private trust during such time as such company shall have a cash or invested surplus of not less than one million dollars if it is authorized by its charter to transact such business.

§ 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 660

AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to rate-making associations and the regulation of rates.¹

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section one hundred and forty-one of chapter thirty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to insurance corporations, constituting chapter twenty-eight of the consolidated laws," as added by chapter four hundred and sixty of the laws of nineteen hundred and eleven and last amended by chapter twenty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and thirteen,² is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 141. Rate making associations. The term "rate" as used in this section and sections one hundred and forty-one-a and one hundred and forty-one-b shall include all of the elements and factors forming the basis for computing the consideration for insurance. Every corporation, association, board or bureau which now exists or hereafter may be formed, and every person who maintains or hereafter may maintain a bureau or office, for the purpose of suggesting, approving or making rates to be used by more than one underwriter for insurances, including surety bonds, on property or risks of any kind located in this state, hereinafter called a "rating organization," shall file with the superintendent of insurance a copy of the articles of agreement, association or incorporation and the by-laws and all amendments thereto under which such rating organization operates or proposes to operate, together with his or its business address and a list of the members or insurance corporations represented or to be represented by it, as well as such other information concerning such rating organization and its operations as may be required by the superintendent.

Every such rating organization, whether before or after the filing of the information specified in the last preceding paragraph, shall be subject to the visitation, supervision and examination of the superintendent of insurance, who shall cause to be made an examination thereof as often as he deems it expedient and at least once in three years. For such purpose he may appoint as examiners one or more competent persons, and upon such examination, he, his deputy or any examiner authorized by him shall have all the powers given to the superintendent, his deputy or any examiner authorized by him by section thirty-nine of this chapter, including the power to examine under oath the officers or agents and all persons deemed to have material information regarding the business of or manner of operation by every such rating organization. The superintendent shall make public the results of such examination and shall report to the legislature in his annual report on the methods of such rating organization and the manner of its operation.

Each such rating organization and any person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of insurance within this state, shall file with the superintendent of insurance whenever he may call therefor any and every rate manual, schedule of rates, rating plan and other information concerning such rates as may be suggested, approved or made by any such rating organization or by or for any such person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of insurance within this state for the purposes specified in this section.

No such rating organization shall fix or make any rate or schedule of rates which is to or may apply to any risk within this state, on the condition that the whole amount of insurance on any such risk or any specified part thereof shall be placed at such rates, or with the members of or subscribers to such rating organization; nor shall any such rating organization or any person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of insurance within this state, fix or make any rate or schedule of rates or charge a rate which discriminates unfairly between risks within this state of essentially the same hazards or, if such rate be a fire insurance rate, which discriminates unfairly between risks in the application of like charges or credits or which discriminates unfairly between risks of essentially the same hazards and having substantially the same degree of protection against fire. Whenever it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the superintendent of insurance that such discrimination exists, he may, after a full hearing either before himself or before any salaried employee of the insurance department whose report he may adopt, order such discrimination removed; and all such persons, corporations, associations or rating organizations affected thereby shall immediately comply therewith; nor shall such persons, corporations, associations or rating organizations remove such discrimination by increasing the rates on any risk or class of risks affected by such order unless it is made to appear to the satisfaction of the superintendent of insurance that such increase is justifiable.

The findings, determinations and orders of the superintendent of insurance shall be subject to review on the merits by certiorari order in the supreme and appellate courts of this state. In the event of final determination against any insurer, any overcharge during the pendency of such proceedings, shall be refunded with interest upon demand to the persons entitled thereto.

Such rating organization or any other person, corporation, association or bureau shall not charge any licensing, registration, certification or membership fee to brokers who shall have been or hereafter may be licensed or authorized as such pursuant to the provisions of this chapter; nor shall any such rating organization or any other association or bureau refuse to do business with or prohibit or prevent the payment of commissions to any person who may be licensed or authorized as an insurance broker, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, except for the reason that such a broker will not agree to adhere to the reasonable rules of such rating organization.

Every such rating organization shall keep a careful record of its proceedings and shall furnish upon demand to any person upon whose property or risk a rate has been made, or to his authorized agent, full information as to such rate, and, if such property or risk be rated by a schedule, a copy of such schedule; it shall also provide such means as may be approved by the superintendent of insurance whereby any person or persons affected by such rate or rates may be heard, either in person or by agent, before the governing or rating committee or other proper executive of such rating organization on an application for a change in such rate or rates.

No rating organization shall fix or promulgate a rate which does not accord with its established rules, classifications and schedules, nor adopt any rules, the effect of which would be to prohibit or regulate the payment of dividends by mutual or co-operative insurance corporations. No insurance agent, broker, corporation or association, shall charge a rate or receive a premium which deviates from the rate fixed or filed for and the rules applicable to such risk, but nothing herein shall prevent any insurer fixing or charging for any policy a reasonable minimum premium in accordance with the established rules of the rating organization, nor prohibit the making and performance of any contract for the installation of automatic sprinklers or other appliances for reducing the risk by fire on any property. Any person, association, corporation or rating organization wilfully violating any of the provisions of this section shall, in addition to any other penalty fixed therefor by statute, forfeit to the people of the state of New York not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one thousand dollars for each such offense.

This section shall not apply to any contract of life insurance, nor to any contract of insurance upon or in connection with marine or transportation risks or hazards other than contracts for automobile insurance, nor to contracts of insurance upon property or risks located without this state, nor to contracts made by persons, partnerships, associations or corporations authorized to do business under articles five, six and seven of this chapter, nor to contracts made by assessment corporations authorized to do business under article nine of this chapter, nor to contracts made by advance premium corporations authorized to do business under article nine of this chapter and transacting business substantially confined to farm insurance, but it shall apply to all other kinds of insurance contracts issued by corporations authorized to transact business under any article of this chapter.

§ 2. Said chapter is hereby further amended by inserting § 141a therein, following section one hundred and forty-one thereof, a new section, to be section one hundred and forty-one-a, to read as follows: § 141a added.

§ 141-a. Regulation of rates for fire risks. Every corporation, association, board or bureau which now exists or hereafter may be formed, and every person who maintains or hereafter maintains a bureau or office for the purpose of suggesting, approving or making rates for fire insurance upon risks within this state hereinafter called a "rating organization" shall admit to membership or shall furnish its service without discrimination to any person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of fire insurance within this state, applying therefor. No such person, association or corporation shall be a member of, or adopt as a standard the rates of more than one rating organization for the purpose of rating the same class of risks for the same hazards. The expense of maintaining such rating organization shall be paid directly by the members and by such associations, corporations and subscribers in accordance with the reasonable rules of the rating organization.

The schedules, rules and methods employed in computing the rates charged for fire insurance shall be reasonable. Every such rating organization shall apply minimum class rates, formally adopted, to all risks within this state rated by such organization for fire insurance, or after an inspection of a risk, fix and promulgate specific rates therefor which rates shall be based upon schedules formally adopted by such rating organization for the various classes of risks rated by it and filed with the superintendent of insurance, except where the class of risks or the local conditions may in the opinion of the superintendent of insurance justify flat or non-schedule ratings. Every such rating organization shall make an inspection of every such risk which is separately or specifically rated and shall make a written survey thereof which shall be filed as a permanent record in the office of such organization.

Every person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of fire insurance within this state shall comply with the rates and the rules affecting such rates and charges of the rating organization in which it has membership or whose rates it adopts as its standard, but any such person, association or corporation upon thirty days notice of its intention so to do filed with the superintendent of insurance and with such rating organization may, for the ensuing year, subject to the approval of the superintendent of insurance, charge higher or lower rates than those fixed by such rating organization, in which event it shall for such ensuing year make a uniform percentage addition to the rates fixed by such rating organization or a uniform percentage deduction therefrom upon all classes of risks written by it and rated by such rating organization, and failure to do so shall in each and every case constitute a separate misdemeanor subject to the penalties provided in section one hundred and forty-one of this chapter.

No person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of fire insurance within this state shall be a member or subscriber of any rating organization referred to in this section or in section one hundred and forty-one, nor shall it contribute to or financially aid any such rating organization which shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section and section one hundred and forty-one.

Every person, association or corporation transacting a fire insurance business in this state shall annually on or before the first day of July in each calendar year file with the rating organization of which it is a member or from which it receives its rates, or with any other common agency approved by the superintendent of insurance, a classification schedule of premium writings and losses incurred on risks in this state during the preceding calendar year; and such classification schedule shall be in accordance with the classification approved by the superintendent of insurance; and in addition to such reports the superintendent of insurance may require such person, association or corporation to file such classification schedules covering a number of years not exceeding five years, prior to the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-three.

It shall be the duty of the superintendent of insurance after due notice and a hearing before him to order an adjustment of the rates on any fire insurance risk or class of risks whenever the profit derived from such rate for a period of time not less than five years immediately preceding such adjustment is excessive, inadequate, unjust or unreasonable. In determining the question of reasonableness of rates the superintendent of insurance shall give consideration to the conflagration hazard both within and without this state.

The findings, determinations and orders of the superintendent of insurance shall be subject to review on the merits by certiorari order in the supreme and appellate courts of this state. In the event of final determination against any insurer, any overcharge during the pendency of such proceedings shall be refunded with interest on demand to the persons entitled thereto.

This section shall not apply to contracts of insurance upon or in connection with marine or transportation risks or hazards, including contracts for automobile insurance, nor to contracts made by assessment corporations authorized to do business under article nine of this chapter, nor to contracts made by advance premium corporations authorized to do business under article nine of this chapter and transacting business substantially confined to farm insurance, nor to contracts made by companies or associations whose business is confined chiefly to the insurance of sprinklered risks and which are conducted solely for the benefit and protection of their members and which pay no commissions or brokerages for the acquirement of their business.

Any wilful violation of the provisions of this section shall be subject to the penalties provided in section one hundred and forty-one of this chapter.

§ 3. Said chapter is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section one hundred and forty-one-a thereof, a new section to be section one hundred and forty-one-b, to read as follows: § 141b added.

§ 141-b. Regulation of other insurance rates; exceptions. Every corporation, association or bureau which now exists or hereafter may be formed, and every person who maintains or hereafter maintains a bureau or office for the purpose of suggesting, approving or making rates for insurance, other than specifically excepted herein, upon risks within this state hereinafter called a "rating organization" shall furnish its service without discrimination to any person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of insurance within this state applying therefor. No such person, association or corporation shall be a member of, or adopt as a standard the rates of, more than one rating organization for the purpose of rating the same class of risks for the same hazards. The expense of maintaining such rating organization shall be paid directly by the members and by such associations, corporations and subscribers in accordance with the reasonable rules of the rating organization.

The schedules, rules and methods employed in computing the rates charged for insurance shall be reasonable. Every such rating organization shall fix basis classification rates formally adopted for all risks within this state rated by such organization.

Any departure from such basis classification rates shall be in accordance with schedules and rules formally adopted by such rating organization and filed with the superintendent of insurance.

Every person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of insurance within this state shall comply with the rates and the rules affecting such rates of the rating organization in which it has membership or whose rates it adopts as its standard.

No person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of insurance within this state shall be a member or subscriber of, nor shall it contribute to or financially aid, any rating organization which shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section and section one hundred and forty-one.

Every person, association or corporation transacting the business of insurance in this state shall annually on or before the first day of July of each calendar year, file with the rating organization of which it is a member or from which it receives its rates, or with any other rating agency approved by the superintendent of insurance, classification schedules of premium writings and losses incurred or paid in this state, which classification schedules shall be in accordance with the requirements of the superintendent of insurance.

It shall be the duty of the superintendent of insurance after due notice and opportunity to be heard before him, to order an adjustment of the rates on any class of risks whenever it shall be found by him that the rates will produce an excessive, inadequate or unreasonable result.

The determinations and orders of the superintendent of insurance shall be subject to review on the merits by certiorari of insurance in the supreme and appellate courts of this state. In the event of a determination against any insurer, any overcharge during the pendency of such proceedings shall be refunded with interest to the persons entitled thereto.

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any contract of life insurance; nor to contracts for health and accident insurance; nor to contracts of insurance against fire or upon or in connection with transportation risks or hazards other than contracts of insurance upon automobiles, airplanes, seaplanes, dirigibles or balloons; nor to contracts of insurance upon property located outside this state; nor to contracts made by persons, partnerships, associations authorized to do business under articles five, six, seven and eight of this chapter; but it shall apply to all other contracts of insurance mentioned in any article of this chapter.

Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be subject to the penalties provided in section one hundred and forty-one of this chapter.

Sections one hundred and forty-four, one hundred and forty-five, one hundred and forty-six, one hundred and forty-seven, one hundred and forty-eight of said chapter are hereby

§ 5. For the purpose of carrying the provisions of this act into effect the following appropriations, effective July first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, are hereby made: Appropriation.

CHAPTER 661

AN ACT to amend the Greater New York charter, in relation to subcontracts in cases where the principal contractor abandons work under a contract.

Accepted by the City.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section four hundred and nineteen of the Greater New York charter, as re-enacted by chapter four hundred and sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and one, as last amended by chapter five hundred and fifty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and ten,¹ is hereby amended to read as follows: L. 1901,
ch. 406,
§ 419, as
L. 1910,
ch. 554,

CONTRACTS FOR WORK OR SUPPLIES.

§ 419. All contracts to be made or let for work to be done or supplies to be furnished, except as in this act otherwise provided, and all sales of personal property in the custody of the several borough presidents, departments or bureaus shall be made by the appropriate borough presidents or heads of departments under such regulations as shall be established by ordinance or resolution of the board of aldermen. Whenever any work is necessary to be done to complete or perfect a particular job, or any supply is needful for any particular purpose, which work and job is to be undertaken or supply furnished for the city of New York, and the several parts of the said work shall, together, involve the expenditure of more than one thousand dollars, the same shall be by contract, under such regulations concerning it as shall be established by ordinance or resolution of the board of aldermen, excepting such works now in progress as are authorized by law or ordinance to be done otherwise than by contract, and unless otherwise ordered by a vote of three-fourths of the members elected to the board of aldermen; and all contracts shall be entered into by the appropriate borough president, and heads of departments, and shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be founded on sealed bids or proposals, made in compliance with public notices, duly advertised in the City Record, and the corporation newspapers, and said notice to be published at least ten days; if a borough president or the head of a department shall not deem it for the interest of the city to reject all bids, he shall, without the consent or approval of any other department or officer of the city government, award the contract to the lowest bidder, unless the board of estimate and apportionment by a three-quarter vote of the whole board, shall determine that it is for the public interest that a bid other than the lowest should be accepted; the terms of such contract shall be settled by the corporation counsel as an act of preliminary specification to the bid or proposal.

In any contract for work or supplies made hereunder, there may be inserted, in the discretion of the borough president or head of department making such contract, a provision that additional work may be done or supplies furnished for the purpose of completing such contract, at an expense not exceeding five per centum of the amount of such contract, if such additional work or supplies shall be ordered by such borough president or head of department.

The bidder whose bid is accepted shall give security for the faithful performance of his contract in the manner prescribed and required by ordinance; and the adequacy and sufficiency of this security shall, in addition to the justification and acknowledgment, be approved by the comptroller. All bids or proposals shall be publicly opened by the officer or officers advertising for the same, and in the presence of the comptroller, but the opening of the bids shall not be postponed if the comptroller shall, after due notice, fail to attend; if the bidder whose bid has been accepted shall neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to his bid or proposal, or if he accepts but does not execute the contract and give the proper security, it shall be readvertised and relet as above provided. In case any work shall be abandoned by any contractor, the appropriate borough president or the head of the appropriate department may, if the best interests of the city be thereby served, and subject to approval by the board of estimate and apportionment, adopt on behalf of the city all subcontracts made by such contractor for such work and all such subcontractors shall be bound by such adoption, if made; and the appropriate borough president or the head of the appropriate department shall in the manner provided in this section readvertise and relet the work specified in the original contract exclusive of so much thereof as shall be provided for in the subcontracts so adopted. No bid shall be accepted from, or contract awarded to, any person who is in arrears to the city of New York upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the city. Every contract when made and entered into, as before provided for, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be filed in the department of finance; together with a copy of the resolution or ordinance of the board of aldermen and the local board, and together with the approval of the board of estimate and apportionment wherever the same is required by the provisions of this act, or copies of both, as the case may be, authorizing said work; such copy shall be so filed within five days after the contract shall have been duly executed by the contractor. All warrants upon vouchers duly audited and approved, for payment of amounts due under contracts, shall, by number or other description, refer to the voucher, the fund and the contract upon which the payment is to be made, and all checks drawn by the chamberlain on warrants duly approved and executed pursuant to law, as payments on contracts, may be mailed to the contractor at the address furnished by him, or delivered to him or his authorized representative, and when so mailed or delivered, the indorsement by the contractor upon a check attached to such a warrant, which has been paid by the bank or trust company upon which the same has been drawn, shall be considered as a receipt of the comptroller for the amount of said check so paid on account of said contract.

No expenditure for work or supplies involving an amount for which no contract is required shall be made, except the necessity therefor be certified to by the appropriate borough president or the head of the appropriate department, and the expenditure has been duly authorized and appropriated.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 662

AN ACT to repeal sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and fifty-nine of the insurance law, relating to conversion of a mutual fire insurance company into a stock fire insurance company.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and fifty-nine of chapter thirty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to insurance corporations, constituting chapter twenty-eight of the consolidated laws," are hereby repealed.

L. 1909,
ch. 22,
repealed.

§ 68 added. § 2. Chapter thirty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to insurance corporations, constituting chapter twenty-eight of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by adding a new section following section sixty-seven, in article one of such chapter, to be section sixty-eight, to read as follows:

§ 68. Conversion of mutual insurance corporation into a stock insurance corporation. No mutual insurance corporation shall be converted into a stock insurance corporation.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 663

AN ACT extending the time of application of certain acts of the years nineteen hundred and twenty and nineteen hundred and twenty-one, relating to defenses in actions based upon unjust, unreasonable and oppressive agreements for rent of premises occupied for dwelling purposes in certain cities, and to summary proceedings to recover the possession of real property in certain cities.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Application of L. 1920, ch. 136; L. 1920, ch. 139; civil practice act, §§ 1011a, 1410, subds. 1a, 2a, extended to Feb. 15, 1924.

Section 1. The public emergency, which existed at the time of the enactment of the statutes below enumerated, having continued, in the judgment of the legislature, to the present time and still existing, chapter one hundred and thirty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, entitled "An act in relation to defenses in actions based upon unjust, unreasonable and oppressive agreements for rent of premises occupied for dwelling purposes in cities of the first class," as amended by chapter nine hundred and forty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty and chapter four hundred and thirty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one; chapter one hundred and thirty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, entitled "An act in relation to summary proceedings to recover the possession of real property in cities of the first class or in cities in a county adjoining a city of the first class during the existing emergency," as amended by chapter nine hundred and forty-eight of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty; section ten hundred and eleven-a of the civil practice act, as added by chapter one hundred and ninety-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one and amended by chapter three hundred and sixty-seven of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one; subdivision one-a of section fourteen hundred and ten of the civil practice act, such section having been added by chapter one hundred and ninety-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one and subdivision two-a of section fourteen hundred and ten of the civil practice act, such section having been added by chapter one hundred and ninety-nine of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one and such subdivision having been amended by chapter three hundred and seventy-one of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one shall, notwithstanding any provisions in any such chapters, sections or subdivisions, remain and be in full force and effect until the fifteenth day of February, nineteen hundred and twenty-four.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 664

AN ACT to amend chapter one hundred and thirty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, entitled "An act in relation to defenses in actions based upon unjust, unreasonable and oppressive agreements for rent of premises occupied for dwelling purposes in cities of the first class or in cities in a county adjoining a city of the first class," generally.¹

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty, entitled "An act in relation to defenses in actions based upon unjust, unreasonable and oppressive agreements for rent of premises occupied for dwelling purposes in cities of the first class or in cities in a county adjoining a city of the first class," as last amended by chapter four hundred and thirty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one,² is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1. Unjust, unreasonable and oppressive agreements for the payment of rent having been and being now exacted by landlords from tenants under stress of prevailing conditions whereby the freedom of contract has been impaired and congested housing conditions resulting therefrom have seriously affected and endangered the public welfare, health and morals in certain cities of the state, and a public emergency existing in the judgment of the legislature by reason thereof, it shall be a defense to an action for rent accruing under an agreement for premises in a city of the first class or in a city in a county adjoining a city of the first class occupied for dwelling purposes that such rent is unjust and unreasonable and that the agreement under which the same is sought to be recovered is oppressive. If it appear that the defendant pursuant to the terms of a written or oral agreement for a term of one year or more has paid after the commencement of the term and after April thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, three monthly instalments of rent in successive months, which accrued under such agreement, such defense shall not be allowed; but the defendant may plead such defense in relation to any rent or rental value claimed for a period within three months after the expiration of such term. If it appear that the defendant is a monthly tenant or a tenant from month to month and has paid three equal monthly payments of rent in successive months. Such defense shall not be allowed after this section as amended takes effect against a claim for rent or rental value not exceeding the rate so paid and accruing within nine months after such third payment; but the defendant may plead such defense in relation to rent or rental value claimed for a period within three months after the expiration of such nine months.

added.

§ 2. Such act is hereby amended by inserting therein two new sections to be sections one-a and four-a, to read respectively as follows:

Pleading.

§ 1-a. In an action mentioned in the preceding section, it shall be necessary for the plaintiff to allege and prove that the amount demanded in the complaint is no greater than the rent or rental value paid by the defendant during the month preceding that which is the basis of the action or, if greater, that at least thirty days' notice of such increase in writing had been given to the defendant before such amount had been so increased.

Value of
property.

§ 4-a. For the purpose of determining the fair and reasonable rent or rental value, the value of the real property, of which the premises in question are the whole or a part, shall be presumed to be the assessed valuation thereof for the year in which the first instalment of rent or rental value for which the action is brought accrued.

§§ 6, 11,
amended by
L. 1921,
ch. 434,
amended.

§ 3. Sections six, eleven and twelve of such act, as last amended by chapter four hundred and thirty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and twenty-one,^{*} are hereby amended to read, respectively as follows:

Deposit by defendant.

§ 6. If in any action for rent or rental value, the issue of fairness and reasonableness of the amount demanded in the complaint be raised by the defendant, he must at the time of answering deposit with the clerk such sum as equals the rent or rental value of the premises in arrears computed at the monthly rate of the rent last paid or reserved as the monthly rent in the agreement under which he obtained possession of the premises. If the defendant fail to make such deposit, the court shall strike out the denial or defense raising such issue. Where the defendant deposits a sum in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this section, which is less than the amount demanded in the complaint, the court, on motion of the plaintiff made ex parte and on affidavit stating the facts, shall order the clerk to pay to the plaintiff the amount so deposited, and thereafter during the pendency of the action the defendant, on demand, shall pay a like sum monthly directly to the plaintiff, on the first day of each monthly rental period.

Payments to plaintiff.

^{*} Previously amended by L. 1920, ch. 944.

Where the defendant deposits a sum equal to the amount demanded in the complaint the plaintiff on five days' notice to the defendant may apply to the court for an order permitting him to withdraw such deposit or such part thereof as the court may direct pending the final determination of the action and thereafter during the pendency of the action the defendant on demand shall pay an amount to be fixed by the court in said order on the first day of each monthly rental period to the plaintiff and shall deposit with the clerk the difference between such monthly payment and the amount theretofore deposited. Money heretofore deposited in court by a defendant in such an action shall be payable to the plaintiff in accordance with the provisions of this section.

No payment need be made by a defendant to a plaintiff unless such plaintiff shall at the time of the demand tender a receipt for the amount demanded. Any such payment and the receipt regardless of its terms, stipulations or qualifications, shall be without prejudice to the rights of either party to the action. If the defendant refuses to make any such additional payment to the plaintiff during the pendency of the action the court on motion of the plaintiff may strike out the denial or defense raising the issue of fairness and reasonableness of the amount demanded in the complaint. All moneys remaining in the hands of the clerk to the credit of the action shall be applied to the satisfaction of the judgment rendered or otherwise disposed of as justice requires. Where a judgment is rendered for the plaintiff it shall contain a provision that if the same be not fully satisfied from the deposit or otherwise within five days after the entry, and service on the defendant of a copy thereof, the plaintiff shall be entitled to the premises described in the complaint and a direction that a warrant shall issue commanding the sheriff, marshal or other officer charged by law with the duty of executing judgments to remove all persons therefrom. The plaintiff shall be entitled to costs only in the event that he recover the full amount demanded in the complaint, and if, in an action for increased rent, the plaintiff recover no more than the amount of rent last paid the defendant shall be entitled to costs. Costs.

§ 11. Every such action shall be brought in the county in which such premises are situated, if the action be brought in the supreme or county court; or in the municipal court district in which such premises are situated, if the action be brought in the municipal court of a city. If not so brought the action shall be dismissed with costs to the defendant. Venue of action.

§ 12. This act as hereby amended shall not apply to a new building in the course of construction on September twenty-seventh, nineteen hundred and twenty, or commenced thereafter and shall be in force until February fifteenth, nineteen hundred and twenty-four. Not applicable to new buildings; in force until Feb. 15, 1924.

promulgate specific rates therefor which rates shall be based upon schedules formally adopted by such rating organization for the various classes of risks rated by it and filed with the superintendent of insurance, except where the class of risks or the local conditions may in the opinion of the superintendent of insurance justify flat or non-schedule ratings. Every such rating organization shall make an inspection of every such risk which is separately or specifically rated and shall make a written survey thereof which shall be filed as a permanent record in the office of such organization.

Every person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of fire insurance within this state shall comply with the rates and the rules affecting such rates and charges of the rating organization in which it has membership or whose rates it adopts as its standard, but any such person, association or corporation upon thirty days notice of its intention so to do filed with the superintendent of insurance and with such rating organization may, for the ensuing year, subject to the approval of the superintendent of insurance, charge higher or lower rates than those fixed by such rating organization, in which event it shall for such ensuing year make a uniform percentage addition to the rates fixed by such rating organization or a uniform percentage deduction therefrom upon all classes of risks written by it and rated by such rating organization, and failure to do so shall in each and every case constitute a separate misdemeanor subject to the penalties provided in section one hundred and forty-one of this chapter.

No person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of fire insurance within this state shall be a member or subscriber of any rating organization referred to in this section or in section one hundred and forty-one, nor shall it contribute to or financially aid any such rating organization which shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section and section one hundred and forty-one.

Every person, association or corporation transacting a fire insurance business in this state shall annually on or before the first day of July in each calendar year file with the rating organization of which it is a member or from which it receives its rates, or with any other common agency approved by the superintendent of insurance, a classification schedule of premium writings and losses incurred on risks in this state during the preceding calendar year; and such classification schedule shall be in accordance with the classification approved by the superintendent of insurance; and in addition to such reports the superintendent of insurance may require such person, association or corporation to file such classification schedules covering a number of years not exceeding five years, prior to the first day of January, nineteen hundred and twenty-three.

It shall be the duty of the superintendent of insurance after due notice and a hearing before him to order an adjustment of the rates on any fire insurance risk or class of risks whenever the profit derived from such rate for a period of time not less than five years immediately preceding such adjustment is excessive, inadequate, unjust or unreasonable. In determining the question of reasonableness of rates the superintendent of insurance shall give consideration to the conflagration hazard both within and without this state.

The findings, determinations and orders of the superintendent of insurance shall be subject to review on the merits by certiorari order in the supreme and appellate courts of this state. In the event of final determination against any insurer, any overcharge during the pendency of such proceedings shall be refunded with interest on demand to the persons entitled thereto.

This section shall not apply to contracts of insurance upon or in connection with marine or transportation risks or hazards, including contracts for automobile insurance, nor to contracts made by assessment corporations authorized to do business under article nine of this chapter, nor to contracts made by advance premium corporations authorized to do business under article nine of this chapter and transacting business substantially confined to farm insurance, nor to contracts made by companies or associations whose business is confined chiefly to the insurance of sprinklered risks and which are conducted solely for the benefit and protection of their members and which pay no commissions or brokerages for the acquirement of their business.

Any wilful violation of the provisions of this section shall be subject to the penalties provided in section one hundred and forty-one of this chapter.

§ 3. Said chapter is hereby amended by inserting therein, following section one hundred and forty-one-a thereof, a new section to be section one hundred and forty-one-b, to read as follows: § 141b added.

§ 141-b. Regulation of other insurance rates; exceptions. Every corporation, association or bureau which now exists or hereafter may be formed, and every person who maintains or hereafter maintains a bureau or office for the purpose of suggesting, approving or making rates for insurance, other than specifically excepted herein, upon risks within this state hereinafter called a "rating organization" shall furnish its service without discrimination to any person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of insurance within this state applying therefor. No such person, association or corporation shall be a member of, or adopt as a standard the rates of, more than one rating organization for the purpose of rating the same class of risks for the same hazards. The expense of maintaining such rating organization shall be paid directly by the members and by such associations, corporations and subscribers in accordance with the reasonable rules of the rating organization.

The schedules, rules and methods employed in computing the rates charged for insurance shall be reasonable. Every such rating organization shall fix basis classification rates formally adopted for all risks within this state rated by such organization.

Any departure from such basis classification rates shall be in accordance with schedules and rules formally adopted by such rating organization and filed with the superintendent of insurance.

Every person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of insurance within this state shall comply with the rates and the rules affecting such rates of the rating organization in which it has membership or whose rates it adopts as its standard.

No person, association or corporation authorized to transact the business of insurance within this state shall be a member or subscriber of, nor shall it contribute to or financially aid, any rating organization which shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section and section one hundred and forty-one.

Every person, association or corporation transacting the business of insurance in this state shall annually on or before the first day of July of each calendar year, file with the rating organization of which it is a member or from which it receives its rates, or with any other common agency approved by the superintendent of insurance, classification schedules of premium writings and losses incurred on risks in this state, which classification schedules shall be in accordance with the requirements of the superintendent of insurance.

It shall be the duty of the superintendent of insurance after due notice and a hearing before him, to order an adjustment of the rates on any risks or class of risks whenever it shall be found by him that such rates will produce an excessive, inadequate or unreasonable profit.

The findings, determinations and orders of the superintendent of insurance shall be subject to review on the merits by certiorari order in the supreme and appellate courts of this state. In the event of final determination against any insurer, any overcharge during the pendency of such proceedings shall be refunded with interest on demand to the persons entitled thereto.

This section shall not apply to any contract of life insurance; nor to contracts for health and accident insurance; nor to contracts of insurance against fire or upon or in connection with marine transportation risks or hazards other than contracts of insurance upon automobiles, airplanes, seaplanes, dirigibles or other aircraft; nor to contracts of insurance upon property located without this state; nor to contracts made by persons, partnerships or associations authorized to do business under articles five, six and seven of this chapter; but it shall apply to all other forms of insurance mentioned in any article of this chapter.

Any wilful violation of the provisions of this section shall be subject to the penalties provided in section one hundred and forty-one of this chapter.

§ 4. Sections one hundred and forty-four, one hundred and forty-five, one hundred and forty-six, one hundred and forty-seven and one hundred and forty-eight of said chapter are hereby repealed.

§ 5. For the purpose of carrying the provisions of this act into effect the following appropriations, effective July first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, are hereby made: Appropriation.

Personal service

Statistician or examiner, 2 at $4,000.....	$8,000 00
Assistant examiner, 4 at $2,500.....	10,000 00

Maintenance and operation

Rent	4,500 00
------------	----------

The following appropriations, effective immediately, are also hereby made:

Maintenance and operation

Rent	$750 00
Equipment, materials and supplies	500 00

§ 6. Except as provided in section five, this act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 661

AN ACT to amend the Greater New York charter, in relation to subcontracts in cases where the principal contractor abandons work under a contract.

Accepted by the City.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section four hundred and nineteen of the Greater New York charter, as re-enacted by chapter four hundred and sixty-six of the laws of nineteen hundred and one, as last amended by chapter five hundred and fifty-four of the laws of nineteen hundred and ten,¹ is hereby amended to read as follows:

L. 1901,
ch. 486,
§ 419, as amended by
L. 1910,
ch. 554,
amended.

CONTRACTS FOR WORK OR SUPPLIES.

§ 419. All contracts to be made or let for work to be done or supplies to be furnished, except as in this act otherwise provided, and all sales of personal property in the custody of the several borough presidents, departments or bureaus shall be made by the appropriate borough presidents or heads of departments under such regulations as shall be established by ordinance or resolution of the board of aldermen. Whenever any work is necessary to be done to complete or perfect a particular job, or any supply is needful for any particular purpose, which work and job is to be undertaken or supply furnished for the city of New York, and the several parts of the said work shall, together, involve the expenditure of more than one thousand dollars, the same shall be by contract, under such regulations concerning it as shall be established by ordinance or resolution of the board of aldermen, excepting such works now in progress as are authorized by law or ordinance to be done otherwise than by contract, and unless otherwise ordered by a vote of three-fourths of the members elected to the board of aldermen; and all contracts shall be entered into by the appropriate borough president, and heads of departments, and shall, except as herein otherwise provided, be founded on sealed bids or proposals, made in compliance with public notices, duly advertised in the City Record, and the corporation newspapers, and said notice to be published at least ten days; if a borough president or the head of a department shall not deem it for the interest of the city to reject all bids, he shall, without the consent or approval of any other department or officer of the city government, award the contract to the lowest bidder, unless the board of estimate and apportionment by a three-quarter vote of the whole board, shall determine that it is for the public interest that a bid other than the lowest should be accepted; the terms of such contract shall be settled by the corporation counsel as an act of preliminary specification to the bid or proposal.

In any contract for work or supplies made hereunder, there may be inserted, in the discretion of the borough president or head of department making such contract, a provision that additional work may be done or supplies furnished for the purpose of completing such contract, at an expense not exceeding five per centum of the amount of such contract, if such additional work or supplies shall be ordered by such borough president or head of department.

The bidder whose bid is accepted shall give security for the faithful performance of his contract in the manner prescribed and required by ordinance; and the adequacy and sufficiency of this security shall, in addition to the justification and acknowledgment, be approved by the comptroller. All bids or proposals shall be publicly opened by the officer or officers advertising for the same, and in the presence of the comptroller, but the opening of the bids shall not be postponed if the comptroller shall, after due notice, fail to attend; if the bidder whose bid has been accepted shall neglect or refuse to accept the contract within five days after written notice that the same has been awarded to his bid or proposal, or if he accepts but does not execute the contract and give the proper security, it shall be readvertised and relet as above provided. In case any work shall be abandoned by any contractor, the appropriate borough president or the head of the appropriate department may, if the best interests of the city be thereby served, and subject to approval by the board of estimate and apportionment, adopt on behalf of the city all subcontracts made by such contractor for such work and all such subcontractors shall be bound by such adoption, if made; and the appropriate borough president or the head of the appropriate department shall in the manner provided in this section readvertise and relet the work specified in the original contract exclusive of so much thereof as shall be provided for in the subcontracts so adopted. No bid shall be accepted from, or contract awarded to, any person who is in arrears to the city of New York upon debt or contract, or who is a defaulter, as surety or otherwise, upon any obligation to the city. Every contract when made and entered into, as before provided for, shall be executed in duplicate, and shall be filed in the department of finance; together with a copy of the resolution or ordinance of the board of aldermen and the local board, and together with the approval of the board of estimate and apportionment wherever the same is required by the provisions of this act, or copies of both, as the case may be, authorizing said work; such copy shall be so filed within five days after the contract shall have been duly executed by the contractor. All warrants upon vouchers duly audited and approved, for payment of amounts due under contracts, shall, by number or other description, refer to the voucher, the fund and the contract upon which the payment is to be made, and all checks drawn by the chamberlain on warrants duly approved and executed pursuant to law, as payments on contracts, may be mailed to the contractor at the address furnished by him, or delivered to him or his authorized representative, and when so mailed or delivered, the indorsement by the contractor upon a check attached to such a warrant, which has been paid by the bank or trust company upon which the same has been drawn, shall be considered as a receipt of the comptroller for the amount of said check so paid on account of said contract.

No expenditure for work or supplies involving an amount for which no contract is required shall be made, except the necessity therefor be certified to by the appropriate borough president or the head of the appropriate department, and the expenditure has been duly authorized and appropriated.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 662

AN ACT to repeal sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and fifty-nine of the insurance law, relating to conversion of a mutual fire insurance company into a stock fire insurance company.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Sections one hundred and twenty-five and one hundred and fifty-nine of chapter thirty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to insurance corporations, constituting chapter twenty-eight of the consolidated laws," are hereby repealed.

L. 1909,
ch. 33, §§ 125, 159
repealed.

§ 68 added. § 2. Chapter thirty-three of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to insurance corporations, constituting chapter twenty-eight of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by adding a new section following section sixty-seven, in article one of such chapter, to be section sixty-eight, to read as follows:

§ 68. Conversion of mutual insurance corporation into a stock insurance corporation. No mutual insurance corporation shall be converted into a stock insurance corporation.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 663

AN ACT extending the time of application of certain acts of the years nineteen hundred and twenty and nineteen hundred and twenty-one, relating to defenses in actions based upon unjust, unreasonable and oppressive agreements for rent of premises occupied for dwelling purposes in certain cities, and to summary proceedings to recover the possession of real property in certain cities.

Became a law April 13, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Application of L. 1920, ch. 136; L. 1920, ch. 139; civil practice act, §§ 1011a, 1410, subds. 1a, 2a, extended to Feb. 15, 1924.

amended.

§ 1. Unjust, unreasonable and oppressive agreements for the payment of rent having been and being now exacted by landlords from tenants under stress of prevailing conditions whereby the freedom of contract has been impaired and congested housing conditions resulting therefrom have seriously affected and endangered the public welfare, health and morals in certain cities of the state, and a public emergency existing in the judgment of the legislature by reason thereof, it shall be a defense to an action for rent accruing under an agreement for premises in a city of the first class or in a city in a county adjoining a city of the first class occupied for dwelling purposes that such rent is unjust and unreasonable and that the agreement under which the same is sought to be recovered is oppressive. If it appear that the defendant pursuant to the terms of a written or oral agreement for a term of one year or more has paid after the commencement of the term and after April thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, three monthly instalments of rent in successive months, which accrued under such agreement, such defense shall

AN ACT to amend the transportation corporations law, in relation to the definition of the term "municipal authorities."

Became a law April 14, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Subd. 5
added to
L. 1909,
ch. 219,
§ 61.

Section 1. Section sixty-one of chapter two hundred and nineteen of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act in relation to transportation corporations, excepting railroads, constituting chapter sixty-three of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by adding at the end a new subdivision, to be subdivision five, to read as follows:

5. The term "municipal authorities," as used in subdivisions one and two of this section, shall hereafter be deemed to be the common council or similar governing body of a city, the board of trustees of a village and the town board of a town. All consents in writing for the doing of acts mentioned in such subdivisions heretofore given in writing by the highway commissioners or town superintendent of highways or the town board of any town to any corporation organized under the provisions of this article shall be deemed to be the consents of the municipal authorities required by this section.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 670

AN ACT to amend the public service commission law in relation to by-product gas.

Became a law April 15, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Subd. 15
added to
L. 1910,
ch. 480,
§ 66.

Section 1. Section sixty-six of chapter four hundred and eighty of the laws of nineteen hundred and ten, entitled "An act in relation to public service commissions, constituting chapter forty-eight of the consolidated laws," as amended, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new subdivision, to be subdivision fifteen, to read as follows:

15. Receive, and any gas corporation may at any time submit to the commission for its approval, one or more contracts proposed to be made by it for the purchase from the producer of by-product gas, to be used in its service to its consumers, in which said proposed contract the price of gas shall be based on the then market price of coal, and to vary therewith whenever the market price of coal shall vary to the extent of ten per centum for a period of not less than thirty days, and which said contract shall state the efficiency of said gas, and upon the approval of said contract by the commission, or said contract as the same may be amended, altered or changed, and upon the application of said gas corporation, the commission shall make an order fixing the rate or rates to be charged to consumers for the service of such gas, which said rate shall thereafter remain unchanged during the term of said contract in so far as said rate shall be based on the cost of gas to said corporation, except as such cost shall vary with the variations in the price of coal as in said contract provided. The commission shall have like powers and duties with reference to existing contracts made prior to January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, by a gas corporation for a supply of by-product gas where the price of gas varies as the price of coal varies. By-product, as used in this section, is defined to mean one of the several products obtained by treatment of coal by some process other than the customary distillation in retorts.

CHAPTER 671

AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to billiard and pocket billiard rooms, formerly known as pool rooms.

Became a law April 15, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The penal law is hereby amended by inserting therein a new article, to be article thirty-one, to read as follows: Art. 31 added.

ARTICLE 31.

BILLIARD AND POCKET BILLIARD ROOMS.

Section 344. Billiard and pocket billiard rooms to be licensed; application of article.

345. License; how to be issued.

346. Disposition of fees and fines.

347. License certificate, posting, lost certificates.

348. Gambling, disorderliness, sale of liquor and habit forming drugs prohibited; admission of minors and hours of operating.*

* So in original. [Does not conform to section heading.]

- Section 349. Obstructions to view prohibited.
350. Certain persons not to be licensed or employed.
351. Penalties for violation of this article.
352. Restrictions as to signs and similar descriptive matter.
353. Duties of public officers in relation to complaints and prosecutions under this article.
354. Directory of billiard and pocket billiard rooms.
355. Saving clause.

§ 344. Billiard and pocket billiard rooms to be licensed; application of article. After September first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, no public billiard or pocket billiard room or public place of any description in which billiards or pocket billiards are played or which includes any apparatus or paraphernalia for the playing of billiards or pocket billiards and which is conducted as a public place of business for profit shall be permitted in any town, village or city of the state unless a license therefor is granted annually to the proprietor as provided in this article. This article shall not apply to any city having a population of four hundred thousand or more.

§ 345. License; how to be issued. A person, firm, association or corporation desiring to conduct as a public place of business for profit a public billiard or pocket billiard room or public place described in section three hundred and forty-four shall apply to the state tax commission for a license so to do. The application shall be accompanied by a deposit with the state tax commission of the amount of fees for the license, which fees shall be five dollars for each billiard or pocket billiard table, for the license period of one year or fraction thereof. The license, if issued, shall be for one year from the first of September, or if issued after September first, for the period expiring on the ensuing thirty-first day of August. The state tax commission, for cause, in any case may refuse the license applied for. The state tax commission shall not issue a license to any person who or corporation which shall have been convicted of a second offense against any of the provisions of this article or to any association or copartnership of which a member or members shall have been so convicted, until at least one year after the revocation of such license by reason of such second conviction, nor to any person who has been convicted of a felony, nor to any association or copartnership of which any member has been so convicted of a felony, nor to any person who is not a citizen or who has not filed his declaration of intention to become a citizen, nor to any association or copartnership of which any member is not a citizen or who has not filed his declaration of intention to become a citizen. A license shall not be issued unless the applicant shall file with the state tax commission a bond to the people of the state of New York in the sum of five hundred dollars with a sufficient surety or sureties to be approved by such tax commission or with sufficient collateral security to be approved by such tax commission conditioned that there is no material false statement in the application for the license, that if the license be issued the applicant or applicants will not during the term of the license suffer or permit any gambling in the room or place in which the business so to be licensed is to be carried on or in any yard, booth, garden or other place appertaining thereto or connected therewith, or suffer or permit such premises to become disorderly, and will not violate any of the provisions of this article or of any act amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto, provided, however, that such bond shall not be forfeited for the first violation of any of the provisions of this article but shall be forfeited as hereinafter provided in section three hundred and fifty-one for the second conviction for such violation of any of the provisions of this article. Upon such forfeiture the amount of the bond shall then become due and payable to the people of the state of New York, which amount may be recovered in a civil action based upon such forfeiture. The surety or sureties upon such bond must be either a surety company duly licensed to do business in this state or else a natural person owning real estate in the state of New York to the value above all incumbrances of one thousand dollars, provided, however, that such natural person shall not have received or agreed to receive any consideration for acting as such surety, and further provided that such natural person shall not be at that time surety upon any other such bond required by this article. Such collateral security may consist of cash or liberty or victory United States bonds or any other stocks or bonds listed upon the New York Stock Exchange and being stocks and bonds of such character as are permitted by the laws of the state of New York now in force as an investment for trust funds. Application for any such license shall be upon forms to be prescribed by the state tax commission and setting forth such facts as may be necessary for the information of said commission. If the license of any licensee under this article shall be revoked, then such licensee shall not receive any license for a period of at least one year after the date of such revocation of such license.

§ 346. Disposition of fees and fines. Of the license fees collected by the state tax commission under the provisions of this article, one-half shall be paid into the state treasury as provided by section thirty-seven of the state finance law and one-half remitted by the state tax commission to the chief fiscal officer of the town, village or city in which the business for which fees are collected is to be carried on. Upon any conviction of a violation of this article and the imposition of a fine the magistrate, clerk or other officer to whom the fine is paid shall remit one-half thereof to the state treasurer and one-half to the chief fiscal officer of the city, town or village in which the violation occurred. The moneys collected upon any forfeited bond or bonds shall be remitted by the official charged with the enforcement of such forfeiture, one-half to the state treasurer, and one-half to the chief fiscal officer of the city, town or village in which the business for which the bond was given was carried on. Moneys belonging to the state under the provisions of this section shall be part of the general fund. Moneys paid to any municipality may be applied to any lawful municipal purpose.

§ 347. License certificate, posting, lost certificates. Any license certificate granted by the state tax commission under the provisions of this article shall specify the name of the licensee, the place where the licensed business is to be carried on and the days on which the license shall begin and expire. The certificate shall be inclosed in a suitable wood and metal frame, having a clear glass face and a substantial wood or metal back, so that the whole of such certificate may be seen therein and shall be posted up and at all times displayed in a conspicuous place in the room or place where the licensed business is carried on so that all persons visiting such room or place may readily see the same. It shall be unlawful for any person to post such certificate or be permitted to post it upon premises other than those for which the certificate was issued or to knowingly deface or destroy any such certificate. Whenever a license certificate shall be lost or destroyed, without fault on the part of the holder or his agents or employees, a duplicate certificate in lieu thereof under the original application and bond may be issued by the state tax commission in their discretion and in accordance with such rules and regulations as they may prescribe.

§ 348. Gambling, disorderliness, admission of minors and hours of operating, sale of liquor and habit forming drugs. It shall be unlawful for a person, firm, association or corporation holding such license to:

1. Suffer or permit any dice to be thrown upon a wager of money or property or a prize or any raffle to be made or any game to be played with cards upon a wager of money or property or for a prize or any game of chance to be played or gambling in any manner, in the place designated by the license certificate in which the licensed business is to be carried on or in any yard, booth, garden or other place appertaining thereto or connected therewith; or to

2. Suffer or permit the licensed premises to become disorderly; or to

3. Suffer or permit any minor under the age of eighteen years to enter or remain in such billiard room or place unless accompanied by his or her parent or legally appointed guardian; or to

4. Keep such billiard room or place open or to operate the same after the hour of midnight and before seven o'clock in the morning; or to

5. Sell, barter, furnish or possess in such billiard room or place any intoxicating liquor, which phrase intoxicating liquor shall be construed to include alcohol, brandy, whiskey, rum, gin, beer, ale, porter and wine, and in addition thereto any spirituous, vinous, malt or fermented liquor, liquids and compounds, whether medicated, proprietary, patented or not, and by whatever name called, containing one-half of one per centum or more of alcohol by volume, which are fit for beverage purposes, provided that the foregoing definition shall not extend to dealcoholized wine, nor to any beverage or liquid produced by the process by which beer, ale, porter or wine is produced, if it contains less than one-half of one per centum of alcohol by volume; or to

6. Sell, barter, furnish or possess in such billiard room or place, any habit forming drugs or any appliances for administering the same.

§ 349. Obstructions to view prohibited. Where there is a window or windows in such billiard or pocket billiard room, at least the lower one-third part of such window or windows shall be of clear glass and shall not be screened or curtained at any time of the day or of the night, nor shall there be any article or thing in the rear of such window or windows so as to prevent a full, clear and unobstructed view of such billiard or pocket billiard room. There shall be no inclosed box or stall or private room, and no partitions forming such boxes or stalls or private rooms shall be permitted. There shall be no interior billiard room not having a principal door or entrance and such door and all other doors entering such room shall have therein a section of clear glass sufficient to afford a clear view of such billiard room from the outside. None of these provisions, however, shall be construed to prevent the maintenance of washrooms or toilet rooms for proper purposes or the maintenance of closets for storing purposes exclusively.

§ 350. Certain persons not to be licensed or employed. No person or corporation who or which has been convicted of a felony or of a second violation of this article and no firm or association of which any member has been convicted of a felony or a second violation of this article and no person who is not a citizen and no firm or association of which any member is not a citizen shall be permitted to carry on the business of conducting such public billiard room. It shall be unlawful for the proprietor of such billiard or pocket billiard room to knowingly employ in carrying on the business of such public billiard room any person who has been convicted of a felony or, until after one year after the date of forfeiture, any person who has forfeited his license under this act.

§ 351. Penalties for violation of this article. The penalty for any violation of any section of this article shall be for the first offense a fine of fifty dollars and for the second offense either a fine not to exceed two hundred and fifty dollars, or imprisonment for thirty days, or both, and in addition upon such conviction for such second offense the license of the person, firm, association or corporation violating the same shall be canceled and revoked and the bond upon such license shall be forfeited. Where an act in violation of a provision of this article is also a crime punishable by other provisions of the penal law, this section shall not prevent a prosecution for violation of such other provision, and nothing contained in this article shall authorize an act or omission which is a violation of any other provision of the penal law. It shall not be a defense to a prosecution for a violation of any of the provisions of this article that the premises where the violation is alleged to have occurred were conducted during prohibited hours as a private club if at other times such premises were conducted as a public place of business for profit.

§ 352. Restrictions as to signs and similar descriptive matter. The word "pool" shall be discontinued as a descriptive word referring to a pocket billiard room or place. Wherever the word "pool" appears on any window, sign, building or stationery, used for or in connection with a billiard or pocket billiard room or place, it must be changed to read "billiards" or "pocket billiards."

§ 353. Duties of public officers in relation to complaints and prosecutions under this article. It shall be the duty of every sheriff, deputy sheriff, police officer, constable, state trooper or other peace officer, having notice or knowledge of any violation of the provisions of this article to immediately notify the district attorney of the county in which the violation occurs, by a statement under oath of the fact of such violation, and it shall be the duty of such district attorney when complaint on oath is made of such violation forthwith to cause the arrest and attend the examination personally or by an assistant of each person so complained of. If such violation is punishable, by revocation of a license or forfeiture of a bond, or both, such statement shall be made to the state tax commission who shall proceed to take such action as is herein provided for. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent any citizen of the state from making a complaint to the state tax commission in a proceeding to revoke a license, nor from making a complaint to a court or magistrate of competent jurisdiction charging a violation of the provisions of this article.

§ 354. Directory of billiard and pocket billiard rooms. It shall be the duty of the state tax commission to compile and keep in a place accessible to the public a directory of all billiard and pocket billiard rooms licensed under the provisions of this article, giving the full names and addresses of the proprietors and the location of the respective premises.

§ 355. Saving clause. If any section or provision of this article shall at any time be declared to be unconstitutional, it is the expressed legislative intent that no other section or provision hereof be thereby affected.

In effect,
when.

§ 2. This act shall take effect September first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, except that applications may be made at any time before that day for licenses under section three hundred and forty-five of the penal law, as added by this act, and such licenses issued, for the year beginning September first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

CHAPTER 672

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to the licensing and regulation of real estate brokers and salesmen in cities and in counties adjoining a city having a population of one million or more.

Became a law April 15, 1922, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Chapter fifty-two of the laws of nineteen hundred and nine, entitled "An act relating to real property, constituting chapter fifty of the consolidated laws," is hereby amended by inserting therein a new article, to be article twelve-a thereof, to read as follows:

Art. 12a
added to § 1 of
L. 1909,

ARTICLE 12-A.

REAL ESTATE BROKERS AND REAL ESTATE SALESMEN.

Section 440. Definitions.

440-a. License required for real estate brokers and salesmen.

441. Application for license.

441-a. License and pocket card.

441-b. License fees.*

442. Splitting commissions.

442-a. Salesman's license suspended by revocation of employer's license.

442-b. Compensation of salesmen; restrictions.

442-c. Discharge of salesmen; report.

442-d. Violations by salesmen; brokers' responsibility.

442-e. Actions for commission; license prerequisite.*

442-f. Violations.

442-g. Saving clause.

442-h. Non-resident licensees.*

442-i. Pocket-card for non-resident.

442-j. Roster of licensees.

442-k. Employees; compensation.

442-l. Effect of invalid provision.

§ 440. Definitions. Whenever used in this article "real estate broker" means any person, firm or corporation, who, for another and for a fee, commission or other valuable consideration, sells, exchanges, buys or rents, or offers or attempts to negotiate a sale, exchange, purchase or rental of an estate or interest in real estate, or collects or offers or attempts to collect rent for the use of real estate, or negotiates, or offers or attempts to negotiate, a loan secured or to be secured by a mortgage or other incumbrance upon or transfer of real estate.

* So in original. [Does not conform to section heading.]

"Real estate salesman" means a person employed by a licensed real estate broker to sell or offer for sale, to buy or offer to buy or to negotiate the purchase or sale or exchange of real estate, or to negotiate a loan on real estate, or to lease or rent or offer to lease, rent or place for rent any real estate, for or in behalf of such real estate broker.

§ 440-a. License required for real estate brokers and salesmen. On and after the first day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, no person, copartnership or corporation shall engage in or follow the business or occupation of, or hold himself or itself out or act temporarily, or otherwise as a real estate broker or real estate salesman in a city or in a county adjoining a city having a population of one million or more, without first procuring a license therefor as provided in this article.

§ 441. Application for license. 1. Form. Any person, copartnership or corporation desiring to act as a real estate broker or any person desiring to act as a real estate salesman in a city or in a county adjoining a city having a population of one million or more on or after the first day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, shall file with the state tax commission an application for a license in such form and detail as the state tax commission shall prescribe, setting forth the following:

(a) The kind of license desired.

(b) The name and residence address of the applicant.

If the applicant be a copartnership the name and residence address of each member thereof; or, if the applicant be a corporation, the name and residence address of each of its officers.

(c) The place or places, including the city, town or village where the business is to be conducted, with the street and number, and the manner in which such place of business is designated.

(d) The business or occupation theretofore engaged in by the applicant, or, if a copartnership, by each member thereof, or, if a corporation, by each officer thereof, for a period of two years, immediately preceding the date of such application, setting forth the place or places where such business or occupation was engaged in.

(e) Such further information as the state tax commission may reasonably require to enable it to determine the trustworthiness of the applicant, including each member of the copartnership or each officer of the corporation, and his or their competency to transact the business of real estate broker or salesman in such a manner as to safeguard the interests of the public.

(f) Every application for a real estate salesman's license shall also set forth the period of time in which he has been engaged in the real estate business, stating the name and address of the real estate broker then employing him or in whose employ he is to enter. Each application for a license under this article shall be verified by the applicant; if made by a copartnership it shall be verified by a member thereof, or if made by a corporation by an officer thereof. An application for a license shall be accompanied by the appropriate license fee, as hereinafter prescribed in this article.

2. Renewals. Any license granted under the provisions hereof may be renewed by the commission upon application therefor by the holder thereof, in such form as the commission may prescribe, and payment of the annual fee for such license. In case of application for renewal of license, the commission may dispense with the requirement of such statements as it deems unnecessary in view of those contained in the original application for license.

§ 441-a. License and pocket card. The state tax commission, if satisfied of the competency and trustworthiness of the applicant, shall issue to him or it a license in such form as the commission shall prescribe, but which must set forth the name and principal business address of the licensee, and, in the case of a real estate salesman, the name and business address of the broker by whom the salesman is employed. Each license shall have imprinted or impressed thereon the seal of the state tax commission. The license of a real estate salesman shall be sent by the commission to the real estate broker by whom such salesman is employed and shall be kept in the custody and control of such broker. In case a salesman shall voluntarily leave the service of a real estate broker the salesman's license shall be returned forthwith by the broker to the commission, who shall reissue the same, without fee, upon written notification that the salesman has entered the employ of another licensed real estate broker.

2. Terms. A license issued or reissued under the provisions of this article shall entitle the person, copartnership or corporation to act as a real estate broker, or, if the application is for a real estate salesman's license, to act as a real estate salesman in this state, up to and including the thirtieth day of September following the date of the issuing of the license.

3. Place of business. Except as otherwise provided in this article, each licensed real estate broker shall have and maintain a definite place of business within this state. Where the applicant for a real estate broker's license maintains more than one place of business, the broker shall apply for and procure a supplemental license for each branch office so maintained; such supplemental license shall be issued without additional license fee.

4. Display of license. The license of a real estate broker shall be conspicuously displayed in his principal place of business at all times. Licenses issued for branch offices shall be conspicuously displayed therein.

5. Change of address. Notice in writing shall be given the state tax commission by a licensee of any change of his or its principal business address, whereupon the commission shall issue a new license for the unexpired license term, without charge. A change of principal business address by a licensee without such notification and reissue of license shall operate to cancel the license theretofore issued to him or it.

6. Pocket card. The state tax commission shall prepare and issue to each licensee a pocket card of such size and design as the commission may prescribe, but which shall contain the name and business address of the licensee, and, in the case of a real estate salesman, the name and business address of his employer, and shall certify that the person whose name appears thereon is a licensed real estate broker or real estate salesman, as may be. Each such pocket card shall bear the imprint or impress of the seal of the state tax commission.

§ 441-b. License fee. 1. Generally. In cities of the first class the annual license fee for a real estate broker shall be twenty-five dollars and for a real estate salesman five dollars. In cities of the second class, the annual license fee for a real estate broker shall be fifteen dollars and for a real estate salesman three dollars. In all other places in which this article is applicable, the annual license fee for a real estate broker shall be ten dollars and for a real estate salesman two dollars.

2. Corporations and copartnerships. If the licensee be a corporation, the license issued to it shall entitle the president thereof, or such other officer as shall be designated by such corporation, to act as a real estate broker. For each other officer who shall desire to act as a real estate broker in behalf of such corporation an additional license shall be applied for and issued, as hereinbefore provided, the annual fee for which shall be but one-half the annual fee required by this section for the original license to the corporation. If the licensee be a copartnership the license issued to it shall entitle one member thereof to act as a real estate broker, and for each other member of the firm who desires to act as a real estate broker an additional license shall be applied for and issued, as hereinbefore provided, the annual fee for which shall be but one-half the annual fee required by this section for the original license to the copartnership.

3. Commutation of fee. Where an application for a license is made after the first day of April in any year, subsequent to the year nineteen hundred and twenty-two the fee for the license for the remainder of the license year shall in any case be but one-half of the yearly license fee prescribed in this section for such license.

4. Disposition of fees. The state tax commission shall on the first day of each month make a verified return to the state treasurer of all license fees received by it under this article during the preceding calendar month, stating from what city or county received and by whom and when paid. The commission shall on or before the tenth day of each month pay to the state treasurer fifty per centum of all moneys to his credit on account of brokerage license fees, at the close of business on the last day of the preceding month and from the money so deposited shall pay to the treasurer of each county fifty per centum of such fees collected from the residents of such county. In the city of New York such payment shall be made through the chamberlain of such city on account of all counties included therein and shall be paid into the treasury of such city to the credit of the general fund. The county treasurer of each county, except the counties in the city of New York, shall pay to the city treasurer of each city in such county fifty per centum of the fees collected from the residents of any such city and the balance shall be paid into the general fund to be used for general county purposes.

§ 441-c. Revocation and suspension of licenses. 1. Powers of commission. The state tax commission may revoke the license of a real estate broker or salesman or suspend the same, for such period as the commission may deem proper, upon conviction of the licensee of a violation of any provision of this article, or for a material misstatement in the application for such license, or if such licensee has been guilty of fraud or fraudulent practices, or has demonstrated untrustworthiness or incompetency to act as a real estate broker or salesman, as the case may be.

5. Determination of commission. In the event that the state tax commission shall revoke or suspend any such license, its determination shall be in writing and officially signed. The original of such determination, when so signed, shall be filed in the office of the commission and copies thereof shall be mailed to the broker or salesman and addressed to the principal place of business of such broker or salesman, and to the complainant, within two days after the filing thereof as herein prescribed.

§ 441-d. Notice of hearing on complaints. The state tax commission shall, before denying an application for license or before suspending or revoking any license and at least ten days prior to the date set for the hearing, notify in writing the applicant for, or the holder of such license of any charges made and shall afford said applicant, or licensee an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel in reference thereto. Such written notice may be served by delivery of same personally to the applicant, or licensee or by mailing same by registered mail to the last known business address of such applicant, or licensee. If said applicant, or licensee be a salesman, the commission shall also notify the broker employing him, or in whose employ he is about to enter, of the charges by mailing notice by registered mail to the broker's last known business address. The hearing on such charges shall be at such time and place as the commission shall prescribe. The commission shall have the power to subpoena and bring before it any person in this state, or take testimony of any such person by deposition with the same fees and mileage in the same manner as prescribed by law in judicial procedure in courts of this state in civil cases.

§ 441-e. Certiorari to review action of commission. The action of the state tax commission in granting or refusing to grant or to renew a license under this article or in revoking or suspending or refusing to revoke or suspend such a license shall be subject to review by writ of certiorari at the instance of the applicant for such license, the holder of a license so revoked or suspended or the person aggrieved. If the commission shall revoke or shall refuse to renew a license issued under this article and the holder of such license shall apply for a writ of certiorari to review such action, the license of the broker or salesman shall be deemed to be in full force and effect for all purposes, including the right to renewal, until the final determination of such certiorari proceedings and all appeals therefrom, provided the fee for such license shall be paid.

§ 442. Splitting commissions. No real estate broker shall pay any part of a fee, commission or other compensation received by the broker to any person for any service, help or aid rendered, in any place in which this article is applicable, by such person to the broker in buying, selling, exchanging, leasing, renting or negotiating a loan upon any real estate, unless such a person be a duly licensed real estate salesman regularly employed by such broker or a duly licensed real estate broker or a person regularly engaged in the real estate brokerage business in a state outside of New York.

§ 442-a. Salesman's license suspended by revocation of employer's license. The revocation of a broker's license shall operate to suspend every real estate salesman's license granted to any person by reason of his employment by such broker, pending a change of employer and the issuing of a new license to the salesman, which shall be issued without charge if granted during the same license year in which the original license was issued.

§ 442-b. Compensation of salesmen; restrictions. No real estate salesman in any place in which this article is applicable shall receive or demand compensation of any kind from any person, other than a duly licensed real estate broker regularly employing the salesman, for any service rendered or work done by such salesman in the appraising, buying, selling, exchanging, leasing, renting or negotiating of a loan upon any real estate.

§ 442-c. Discharge of salesmen; report. When any real estate salesman in any place in which this article is applicable shall have been discharged by a real estate broker, the broker shall forthwith return the license of the salesman to the state tax commission with a sworn statement, signed by such broker, setting forth the true cause of the salesman's discharge. The broker shall also, at the time of returning the salesman's license, mail to the salesman, at his last known place of residence, a communication notifying the salesman that his license has been returned to the commission as herein prescribed, and a copy of such communication shall be annexed to the salesman's license when the same shall be returned to the commission by the broker as required by this section. No real estate salesman shall perform any act within any of the prohibitions of this article from and after the return, for any cause, of such salesman's license to the commission by a real estate broker until a new license shall have been issued to him.

§ 442-d. Violations by salesmen; brokers' responsibility. No violation of a provision of this article by a real estate salesman or other employee of a real estate broker shall be deemed to be cause for the revocation or suspension of the license of the broker, unless it shall appear that the broker had actual knowledge of such violations.

§ 442-e. Actions for commissions; license prerequisite. No person, copartnership or corporation shall bring or maintain an action in any court of this state for the recovery of compensation for services rendered, in any place in which this article is applicable, in the buying, selling, exchanging, leasing, renting or negotiating a loan upon any real estate without alleging and providing that such person was a duly licensed real estate broker or real estate salesman on the date when the alleged cause of action arose.

§ 442-f. Violations. Any person who violates any provision of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. In case the offender shall have received any sum of money as commission, compensation or profit by or in consequence of his violation of any provision of this article, he shall also be liable to a penalty of not less than the amount of the sum of money received by him as such commission, compensation or profit and not more than four times the sum so received by him, as may be determined by the court, which penalty may be sued for and recovered, by any person aggrieved and for his use and benefit, in any court of competent jurisdiction. It shall be the duty of the court or judge, upon a conviction for a violation of any provision of this article, and within ten days thereafter, to make and file with the state tax commission a detailed report showing the date of such conviction, the name of the person convicted and the exact nature of the charge.

§ 442-g. Saving clause. The provisions of this article shall not apply to receivers, referees, administrators, executors, guardians or other persons appointed by or acting under the judgment or order of any court; or public officers while performing their official duties, or attorneys at law.

§ 442-h. Nonresident licensee. A nonresident of this state may become a real estate broker or a real estate salesman, in any place in which the provisions of this article are applicable, by conforming to all of the provisions of this article, except that such nonresident broker or salesman regularly engaged in the real estate business as a vocation, and who maintains a definite place of business in some other state, shall not be required to maintain a place of business within this state. The state tax commission shall recognize, in lieu of the recommendation and statements required to accompany an application for license, the license issued to a nonresident broker or salesman by another state and shall issue a license to such nonresident broker or salesman upon payment of the license fee and the filing by the applicant with the commission of a certified copy of the applicant's license issued by such other state. Every nonresident applicant shall file an irrevocable consent that suits and actions may be commenced against such applicant in the proper court of any county of the state in which a cause of action may arise in which the plaintiff may reside, by the service of any process or pleading authorized by the laws of this state, on the state tax commission or a deputy to be designated by it, said consent stipulating and agreeing that such service of such process or pleading shall be taken and held in all courts to be as valid and binding as if due service had been made upon said applicant in the state of New York. Said consent shall be duly acknowledged, and, if made by a corporation, shall be authenticated by the seal of such corporation. In case any process or pleadings mentioned in this act are served upon the state tax commission or upon a deputy to be designated by it, it shall be by duplicate copies, one of which shall be filed in the office of the commission and the other immediately forwarded by registered mail to the main office of the applicant against which said process or pleadings are directed, and no default in any such proceeding or action shall be taken except it shall appear by affidavit of a member of the commission, or the deputy designated by it, that a copy of the process or pleading was mailed to the defendant as herein required, and no judgment by default shall be taken in any such action or proceeding within twenty days after the date of mailing of such process or pleading to the nonresident defendant.

§ 442-i. Pocket card for nonresident. The state tax commission shall prepare and issue to each nonresident licensee a pocket card in all respects as herein provided for licenses issued to resident brokers and salesmen, except that the pocket card accompanying nonresident licenses shall be of a different color so as to distinguish the same from the cards issued to resident licensees.

§ 442-j. Roster of licensees. The state tax commission shall publish, at least once in each year, a roster of the names and addresses of all persons, firms and corporations licensed under the provisions of this article, and shall publish monthly a list of all licenses which have been suspended or revoked during the last preceding calendar month. Such lists shall also contain such other information relative to the enforcement of the provisions of this article as the commission may deem of interest to the public. Copy of each roster or list issued by the commission shall be forwarded to the city clerk of each county in the state within ten days after its publication, and the same shall be held by such city clerk or county clerk, as the case may be, as a public record for a period of at least one year. A copy of any roster or list issued by the commission shall be mailed by it to any person in the state upon request and without charge.

§ 442-k. Employees; compensation. The president of the state tax commission may, subject to the civil service law, employ and fix the compensation of such employees as may be necessary for the efficient administration of this article, who shall exercise such of the powers and perform such of the duties conferred upon and imposed upon the state tax commission by this article as he may delegate to such employees.

§ 442-l. Effect of invalid provision. Should the courts of this state declare any provision of this article unconstitutional, or unauthorized, or in conflict with any other section or provision of this article, then such decision shall affect only the section or provision so declared to be unconstitutional or unauthorized and shall not affect any other section or part of this article.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPENDIX

[1847]

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

OF THE

STATE OF NEW YORK

Adopted at the general election held November 8, 1921

ARTICLE II

Section 1. Every citizen of the age of twenty-one years, who shall have been a citizen for ninety days, and an inhabitant of this state one year next preceding an election, and for the last four months a resident of the county and for the last thirty days a resident of the election district in which he or she may offer his or her vote, shall be entitled to vote at such election in the election district of which he or she shall at the time be a resident, and not elsewhere, for all officers that now are or hereafter may be elective by the people, and upon all questions which may be submitted to the vote of the people, provided however that a citizen by marriage shall have been an inhabitant of the United States for five years; and provided that in time of war no elector in the actual military service of the state, or of the United States, in the army or navy thereof, shall be deprived of his or her vote by reason of his or her absence from such election district; and the legislature shall have power to provide the manner in which and the time and place at which such absent electors may vote, and for the return and canvass of their votes.¹

Qualifications of voters.

Electors in military service not to be deprived of vote.

²Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, after January first, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, no person shall become entitled to vote by attaining majority, by naturalization or otherwise, unless such person is also able, except for physical disability, to read and write English; and suitable laws shall be passed by the legislature to enforce this provision.

Literacy test.

ARTICLE III

§ 26. There shall be in each county, except in a county wholly included in a city, a board of supervisors, to be composed of such members and elected in such manner and for such period as is or may be provided by law. ³The legislature may provide by law for forms of government for the counties of Westchester and Nassau, or either, subject to adoption and approval by the electors of any such county at a general election in an odd-numbered year.

Boards of supervisors: forms of government for Westchester and Nassau counties.

¹ Words "in the election districts in which they respectively reside," omitted.

² Following paragraph new.

³ Remainder of section, except last sentence, new.

Amendments to the Constitution

Any such form of government may include the transfer to the county or to county officers of any functions now exercised by towns or town officers. The law providing for such form of government shall also prescribe the manner in which the county affected may subsequently abandon it, and revert to its former form of government. The adoption of such form of government by the county shall not preclude the legislature from amending or modifying such plan. If under such form of government the board of supervisors be abolished, the powers and duties of the board of supervisors, as prescribed by the constitution, or by statute if not provided for by such form of government, shall devolve upon the governing elective body in such county. In a city which includes an entire county, or two or more entire counties, the powers and duties of a board of supervisors may be devolved upon the municipal assembly, common council, board of aldermen or other legislative body of the city.

Legislature
may confer powers on county boards and officers.

§ 27. The legislature shall, by general laws, confer upon the boards of supervisors, or other governing elective bodies,⁴ of the several counties of the state such further powers of local legislation and administration as the legislature may, from time to time, deem expedient. ⁵In counties which now have, or hereafter have, county auditors or other fiscal officers, authorized to audit bills, accounts, charges, claims or demands against the county, the legislature may confer such powers upon such ⁶auditors, or fiscal officers, as the legislature may, from time to time, deem expedient.

ARTICLE VI

Inferior local

§ 18. Inferior local courts of civil and criminal jurisdiction may be established by the legislature, but no inferior local court hereafter created shall be a court of record. Except as herein provided⁷ the legislature shall not hereafter confer upon any inferior or local court of its creation, any equity jurisdiction or any greater jurisdiction in other respects than is conferred upon county courts by or under this article. ⁸The legislature may establish children's courts, and courts of domestic relations, as separate courts, or as parts of existing courts or courts hereafter to be created, and may confer upon them such jurisdiction as may be necessary for the correction, protection, guardianship and disposition of delinquent, neglected or dependent minors, and for the punishment and correction of adults responsible for or contributing to such delinquency, neglect or dependency, and to compel the support of a wife, child or poor relative by persons legally chargeable therewith who abandon or neglect to support any of them. In conferring such jurisdiction the legislature shall provide that whenever a child is committed to an institution or is placed in the custody of any person by parole, placing out, adoption or guardianship, it shall be so committed or placed, when practicable, to an institution governed by persons, or in the custody of a person, of the same religious persuasion as the child. In the exercise of such jurisdiction such courts may hear and determine such causes, with or without a jury, except those involving a felony. Except as herein otherwise provided, all judicial officers shall be elected or appointed at such times and in such manner as the legislature may direct.

ARTICLE VII

§ 8. The legislature shall not sell, lease or otherwise dispose of the Erie canal, the Oswego canal, the Champlain canal, the Cayuga and Seneca canal, or the Black River canal; but they shall remain the property of the state and under its management forever. The prohibition of lease, sale or other disposition herein contained, shall not apply to the canal known as the Main and Hamburg street canal, situated in the city of Buffalo, and which extends easterly from the westerly line of Main street to the westerly line of Hamburg street, nor to that portion of the existing Erie canal in the city of Utica between the westerly line of Schuyler street and the easterly line of Third street, provided that a flow of sufficient water from Schuyler street to Third street to feed that portion of the canal east of Third street be maintained; nor shall such prohibition apply to that portion of the existing Erie canal in the county of Herkimer between the easterly portion of the village of Mohawk and the county boundary line between the counties of Herkimer and Oneida. All funds that may be derived from any lease, sale or other disposition of any canal shall be applied to the improvement, superintendence or repair of the remaining portion of the canals.

Canals not to be sold or otherwise disposed of; certain canals excepted.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

OF THE

SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION of the Senate and Assembly proposing an amendment to section one-a¹ of article two of the constitution, in relation to absent voters. Proposed amendment to art. 2, § 1a.

Section 1. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That section one-a of article two of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

§ 1-a. The legislature may, by general law, provide a manner in which, and the time and place at which, qualified voters who may, on the occurrence of any general election be unavoidably absent from the state or county of their residence because they are inmates of a soldiers' and sailors' home, or because² their duties, occupation or business require them to be elsewhere within the United States, may vote, and for the return and canvass of their votes in the election district in which they respectively reside. Legislature may provide vote for absent voters.

§ 2. Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the foregoing amendment be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators and in conformity with section one of article fourteen of the constitution be published for three months previous to the time of such election. Referred to legislature chosen at next election of senators.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
IN ASSEMBLY, Feb. 27, 1922.
This bill was duly passed, a majority of all the Members elected to the Assembly voting in favor thereof, three-fifths being present.

By order of the Assembly,

The foregoing resolution was duly passed, a majority of all the Members elected to the Assembly voting in favor thereof.

By order of the Assembly,
H. E. MACHOLD, Speaker.

Proposed amendment to art. 6.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION of the Senate and Assembly proposing amendments generally to article six of the constitution.¹

Section 1. Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That article six of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE VI

Judicial
power.

SECTION 1. The judicial power of the state shall be vested in the courts which are in this article expressly continued and established and in such inferior local courts as now or hereafter may exist under and by virtue of the provisions of this article.

Supreme court;
jurisdiction, judicial districts, justices.

SECTION 2. The supreme court is continued with general jurisdiction in law and equity, subject to such appellate jurisdiction of the court of appeals as now is or hereafter may be prescribed by law not inconsistent with this article. The existing judicial districts of the state are continued until changed as hereinafter provided. The supreme court shall consist of the justices now in office and their successors, together with such additional justices as may be authorized by law. The successors of said justices shall be chosen by the electors of their respective judicial districts. The legislature may alter the judicial districts once after every federal census or state enumeration, each district being bounded ¹ The amendments proposed are so numerous and extensive that it is impracticable to indicate the changes to be made. This proposed amendment of art. 6 is that formulated by the judiciary convention of 1921, pursuant to L. 1921, ch. 348. For report and supplemental report of the convention see legislative documents (1922), nos. 37, 67.

Concurrent Resolutions

by county lines, and thereupon re-apportion the justices to be thereafter elected in the district so altered.

The legislature may from time to time increase the number of justices in any judicial district, except that the number of justices in the first and second districts shall not be increased to exceed one justice for each eighty thousand, or fraction over forty thousand, of the population thereof, as shown by the last federal census or state enumeration, and except that the number of justices in any other district shall not be increased to exceed one justice for each sixty thousand, or fraction over thirty-five thousand, of the population thereof as shown by the last federal census or state enumeration. Any justice of the supreme court, except as otherwise provided in this article, may perform the duties of his office or hold court in any county.

SECTION 3. The division of the state into four judicial departments is continued as now constituted by law. Once every ten years, the legislature may alter the boundaries of the judicial departments, but without increasing the number thereof, and each department shall be bounded by the lines of judicial districts. The appellate divisions of the supreme court are continued, and shall consist of seven justices of the supreme court in each of the first and second departments, and five justices in each of the other departments. In each appellate division, four justices shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of three shall be necessary to a decision. No more than five justices shall sit in any case.

The governor shall designate the presiding justice of each appellate division, who shall act as such during his term of office and shall be a resident of the department. The other justices of the appellate divisions shall be designated by the governor, from all the justices elected to the supreme court, for terms of five years or the unexpired portions of their respective terms of office, if less than five years. The justices heretofore designated shall continue to sit in the appellate divisions until the terms of their respective designations shall expire. From time to time, as the terms of the designations expire, or vacancies occur, the governor shall make new designations. He may also, on request of any appellate division, make temporary designations in case of the absence or inability to act of any justice in such appellate division, for service only during such absence or inability to act. In case any appellate division shall certify to the governor that one or more additional justices are needed for the speedy disposition of the business before it, the governor shall designate an additional justice or additional justices; but when the need for such additional justice or justices shall no longer exist, the appellate division shall so certify to the governor, and thereupon service under such designation or designations shall cease. A majority of the justices designated to sit in any appellate division shall at all times be residents of the department.

Designations of terms and assignment of justices of supreme court.

Powers of justices of appellate division.

The several appellate divisions, except as hereinafter provided, shall have and exercise such original or appellate jurisdiction as is now or may hereafter be prescribed by law. Each appellate division shall have power to appoint and remove its clerk and attendants. The appellate division in each department shall have power to fix the times and places for holding all terms of the supreme court held therein, to make rules therefor, and to assign the justices in the departments to hold such terms, including the assignment of a justice to hold any extraordinary term appointed by the governor, provided, however, that, if the appellate division be not then in session, the governor may assign any justice of the supreme court to hold such extraordinary term.

No justice of the appellate division shall, within the department to which he may be designated to perform the duties of an appellate justice, exercise any of the powers of a justice of the supreme court, other than those of a justice out of court, and those pertaining to the appellate division; but any such justice, when not actually engaged in performing the duties of such appellate justice in the department to which he is designated, may hold any term of the supreme court and exercise any of the powers of a justice of the supreme court in any judicial district in any other department of the state.

Appellate terms in first and second departments; establishment, how constituted.

Jurisdiction.

SECTION 4. The appellate divisions in the first and second departments shall severally have power to establish an appellate term of the supreme court to be held in and for its department, to be constituted of not less than three nor more than five justices of the supreme court, who shall be designated from time to time by such appellate division and shall be residents of the department. Any such appellate term may be discontinued and reestablished as said appellate divisions, respectively, shall from time to time determine, and any designation to service therein may be revoked at any time by the appellate division so designating. In each appellate term, no more than three justices assigned thereto shall sit in any case; two of such justices shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of two shall be necessary to a decision. Such appellate terms shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine all appeals now or hereafter authorized by law to be taken to the supreme court or to the appellate division other than appeals from the supreme court, a surrogate's court, or the court of general sessions of the city of New York, as may from time to time be directed by the appellate division establishing such appellate term. Any appellate term or any justice of the appellate division establishing it may allow an appeal from such appellate term to such appellate division whenever in the opinion of either a question of law or fact is involved which ought to be reviewed.

Concurrent Resolutions

SECTION 5. The official terms of the justices of the supreme court shall be fourteen years from and including the first day of January next after their election. When a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of term in the office of justice of the supreme court, the same shall be filled for a full term at the next general election held not less than three months after such vacancy occurs; and, until the vacancy shall be so filled, the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, if the senate shall be in session, or, if not in session, the governor may fill such vacancy by appointment, which shall continue until and including the last day of December next after the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

Terms of justices of supreme court. Vacancies, how filled.

SECTION 6. The court of appeals is continued. It shall consist of the chief judge, the six elected associate judges now in office, who shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms, and their successors, who shall be chosen by the electors of the state, and such justices of the supreme court as may be designated for service in said court as hereinafter provided. The official terms of the chief judge and elected associate judges shall be fourteen years from and including the first day of January next after their election. Five members of the court shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of four shall be necessary to a decision; but no more than seven judges shall sit in any case. In case of the temporary absence or inability to act of any judge of the court of appeals, the court may designate any justice of the supreme court to serve as associate judge of the court during such absence or inability to act. The court shall have power to appoint and to remove its clerk and attendants.

Court of appeals continued; how constituted.

Clerk and attendants.

Whenever and as often as the court of appeals shall certify to the governor that the court is unable, by reason of the accumulation of causes pending therein, to hear and dispose of the same with reasonable speed, the governor shall designate such number of justices of the supreme court as may be so certified to be necessary, but not more than four, to serve as associate judges of the court of appeals. The justices so designated shall be relieved, while so serving, from their duties as justices of the supreme court, and shall serve as associate judges of the court of appeals until the court shall certify that the need for the services of any such justices no longer exists, whereupon they shall return to the supreme court. The governor may fill vacancies among such designated judges. No such justice shall serve as associate judge of the court of appeals except while holding the office of justice of the supreme court. The designation of a justice of the supreme court as an associate judge of the court of appeals shall not be deemed to affect his existing office any longer than until the expiration of his designation as such associate judge, nor to create a vacancy.

of the court of appeals, the same shall be filled, for a full term, at the next general election held not less than three months after such vacancy occurs; and until the vacancy shall be so filled, the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the senate if the senate shall be in session, or, if not in session, the governor may fill such vacancy by appointment. If any such appointment be made from among the justices of the supreme court, such appointment shall not be deemed to affect his existing office any longer than until the expiration of his appointment as such associate judge, nor to create a vacancy. If any such appointment of chief judge shall be made from among the associate judges, a temporary appointment of associate judge shall be made in like manner; but, in such case, the appointment shall not be deemed to affect his office of associate judge any longer than until the expiration of his appointment as chief judge, nor to create a vacancy. The powers and jurisdiction of the court shall not be suspended for want of appointment or election when the number of judges is sufficient to constitute a quorum. All appointments under this section shall continue until and including the last day of December next after the election at which the vacancy shall be filled.

of court of appeals.

SECTION 8. The jurisdiction of the court of appeals, except where the judgment is of death, or where the appellate division, on reversing or modifying a final judgment in an action, makes new findings of fact and renders final judgment thereon, shall be limited to the review of questions of law; but the right to appeal shall not depend upon the amount involved.

Appeals may be taken to the court of appeals in the classes of cases enumerated in this section.

In criminal cases.

In criminal cases, directly from a court of original jurisdiction where the judgment is of death, and in other criminal cases from an appellate division or otherwise as the legislature may from time to time provide.

In civil cases and proceedings.

In civil cases and proceedings as follows:

(1) As of right, from a judgment or order entered upon the decision of an appellate division of the supreme court which finally determines an action or special proceeding wherein is directly involved the construction of the constitution of the state or of the United States, or where one or more of the justices of the appellate division dissents from the decision of the court, or where the judgment or order is one of reversal or modification.

(2) As of right, from an order of the appellate division granting a new trial where the appellant stipulates that, upon affirmance, judgment absolute shall be rendered against him.

(3) As of right, from a judgment or order of a court of record of original jurisdiction which finally determines an action or special proceeding where the trial court certifies that the only question involved is the validity of a statutory provision of the state or of the United State under the constitution of the state or of the United States; and on any such appeal only the constitutional question shall be considered and determined by the court.

(4) From a determination of the appellate division of the supreme court in any department, other than a judgment or order which finally determines an action or special proceeding, where the appellate division allows the same and certifies that one or more questions of law have arisen which, in its opinion, ought to be reviewed by the court of appeals, but in such case the appeal shall bring up for review only the question or questions so certified; and the court of appeals shall certify to the appellate division its determination upon such question or questions.

(5) From a judgment or order entered upon the decision of an appellate division of the supreme court which finally determines an action or special proceeding but which is not appealable under subdivision one of this section where the appellate division shall certify that in its opinion a question of law is involved which ought to be reviewed by the court of appeals, or where, in case of the refusal so to certify, an appeal is allowed by the court of appeals. Such an appeal shall be allowed when required in the interest of substantial justice. The legislature, however, may from time to time extend the right of appeal in said cases so as to dispense with the requirement of allowance. No appeal shall be taken to said court of appeals from a final judgment or order of the appellate division in any civil case or proceeding originally commenced in any court other than the supreme court, a county court, a surrogate's court or a court of claims or board of audit unless the appellate division of the supreme court shall certify that in its opinion a question of law is involved which ought to be reviewed by the court of appeals.

SECTION 9. Judges of the court of appeals and justices of the supreme court may be removed by current resolution of both houses of the legislature, if two-thirds of all the members elected to each house concur therein. All other judicial officers, except justices of the peace, justices of the municipal court of the city of New York, and judges or justices of inferior courts not of record, may be removed by the senate, on the recommendation of the governor, if two-thirds of all the members elected to the senate concur therein. But no officer shall be removed by virtue of this section except for cause, which shall be entered on the journals, nor unless he shall have been served with a statement of the cause alleged and shall have had an opportunity to be heard. On the question of removal, the yeas and nays shall be entered on the journal.

The legislature of its own motion, in the manner to be provided by joint rule, which shall continue in force until abrogated or amended by both the senate and the assembly, may convene at any time in special session to take action in the matter of the removal of a judge of the court of appeals or justice of the supreme court; but no other subject shall be acted upon at any such special session.

SECTION 10. The assembly shall have the power of impeachment by a vote of a majority of all the members elected thereto. The court for the trial of impeachments shall be composed of the president of the senate, the senators, or the major part of them, and the judges of the court of appeals, or the major part of them. On the trial of an impeachment against the governor or lieutenant-governor, neither the lieutenant-governor nor the temporary president of the senate shall act as a member of the court. No judicial officer shall exercise his office after articles of impeachment against him shall have been preferred to the senate until he shall have been acquitted. Before the trial of an impeachment, the members of the court shall take an oath or affirmation truly and impartially to try the impeachment according to the evidence, and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present. Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, or removal from office and disqualification to hold and enjoy any public office of honor, trust or profit under this state; but the party impeached shall be liable to indictment and punishment according to law. The assembly of its own motion, in the manner to be provided by rule, which shall continue in force until abrogated or amended by the assembly, may convene at any time in special session for the purpose of impeachment; but no other subject shall be acted upon at any such special session.

SECTION 11. The existing county courts are continued, and the judges thereof now in office shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective terms, except that the county courts in the counties of Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond are abolished on and after the first day of January in the second year following the adoption of this article and the county judges therein shall be thereupon transferred as provided in section fourteen of this article. All county judges, including successors to existing judges, shall be chosen by the electors of the counties for the term of six years from and including the first day of January following their election. Except as in this article otherwise provided, county courts shall have the powers and jurisdiction now prescribed by law, and also original jurisdiction in actions for the recovery of money only, where all the defendants reside in the county and in which the complaint demands judgment for a sum not exceeding three thousand dollars; but, if, in any action brought in said court, a counterclaim for more than three thousand dollars shall be interposed, the supreme court, on the application of either party made in the judicial district embracing the county, may remove the cause to the supreme court, whereupon such action shall proceed and be heard as if originally brought therein. The legislature may hereafter enlarge or restrict the jurisdiction of the county courts, provided, however, that their jurisdiction shall not be so extended as to authorize an action therein for the recovery of money only in which (1) the sum demanded exceeds three thousand dollars, or (2) in which any person not a resident of the county is a defendant, unless such defendant have an office for the transaction of business within the county and the cause of action arose therein. County judges shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by law, and their compensation, as established by law, shall be payable out of the county treasury. A county judge of any county may hold the county court in any other county when requested by the county judge of such other county; and, in case of the death, absence, or incapacity of a county judge, in a county having no special county judge then able to serve, the governor may designate a county judge of another county to hold the county court during such vacancy, absence, or inability to act.

When county judge to act in another county.

SECTION 12. The legislature, on application of the board of supervisors or other body exercising similar powers, may in any county having a county court, provide for the election of a special county judge or special surrogate, not to exceed two in any county, to discharge the duties of county judge or of surrogate in such cases as may be provided by law. Any such special county judge or surrogate shall be chosen at the general election held in the first odd-numbered year after the creation of any such office, to take office on the first day of January following such election, but no appointment shall be made by the governor to such office meantime.

Special county judge or surrogate.

SECTION 13. The existing surrogates' courts are continued, and the surrogates now in office shall hold their offices until the expiration of their respective present terms. Their successors shall be chosen by the electors of their respective counties, and their terms of office shall be six years, except in the counties of New York, Kings, Bronx and Queens, where they shall hereafter be elected for terms of fourteen years. The legislature may provide for the election of an additional surrogate in any county having a population of more than one million. Surrogates and surrogates' courts shall have the jurisdiction and powers now established by law until otherwise provided by the legislature. The county judge shall be and serve as surrogate of his county except where a separate surrogate has been or shall be elected. In any county having a population exceeding forty thousand wherein there is now no separate surrogate, the legislature may provide for the election of a separate officer to be surrogate, whose term of office shall be six years. When the surrogate shall be elected as a separate officer, his compensation shall be established by law, and shall be payable out of the county treasury.

Surrogates' courts; surrogates, jurisdiction.

The legislature may at any time provide that the duties of county judge and surrogate in any county be discharged by the same person. For the relief of surrogates' courts, the legislature may confer upon the supreme court in any county having a population exceeding four hundred thousand, the powers and jurisdiction of surrogates.

day of January in the second year following the adoption of this article, it shall have the same jurisdiction throughout the city of New York, under the name of the court of general sessions of the city of New York, as it now possesses within the county of New York. The said court shall consist of the judges then in office and the judges transferred thereto by this section, all of whom shall continue to be judges of the court of general sessions of the city of New York for the remainder of the terms for which they severally were elected or appointed. The judges of the county courts of Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond then in office shall be and serve as judges of the court of general sessions of the city of New York for the remainder of the terms for which they were severally elected or appointed. The successors to the judges who were elected or appointed as judges of the court of general sessions in and for the city and county of New York shall be elected by the electors within the county of New York, and the successors to the judges who were elected or appointed as county judges of the counties of Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, respectively, shall be elected by the electors within each of such respective counties. The legislature may in its discretion authorize the election of one or more additional judges of said court in any county within the city of New York. The judges who were elected or appointed as judges of the court of general sessions in and for the city and county of New York, and the judges elected or appointed as county judges of the counties of Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, until the expiration of the term for which they were elected or appointed, shall respectively be paid the compensation now fixed by law for the judges of said court of general sessions of the city of New York. The successors to all said judges of the court of general sessions of the city of New York shall be elected as herein provided for terms of fourteen years.

Divisions of court.

There shall be two divisions of said court to be known respectively as the first and second divisions thereof. The first division shall have and exercise exclusive jurisdiction throughout the counties of New York and Bronx, and the second division shall have and exercise exclusive jurisdiction throughout the counties of Kings, Queens and Richmond. Each division shall consist of the judges elected or appointed within their respective jurisdictions and their successors, and each division may elect from among their number a presiding judge with such administrative powers as the judges of such division may from time to time provide. A judge of one division may hold court in another division if so requested by such division.

Clerks, etc.

The judges of each division shall have power to appoint and remove all clerks, wardens to grand jury, stenographers, attendants and other officers now or hereafter provided for by law for each of the counties embraced within their respective divisions.

SECTION 15. The city court of the city of New York is continued, and, from and after the first day of January in the second year following the adoption of this article, it shall have the same jurisdiction and power throughout the city of New York, under the name of the city court of the city of New York, as it now possesses within the county of New York and the county of Bronx, and original jurisdiction concurrent with the supreme court in actions for the recovery of money only in which the complaint demands judgment for a sum not exceeding three thousand dollars. It shall consist of the justices then in office, who shall continue to be justices of the court for the remainder of the terms for which they severally were elected or appointed, and the additional justices to be elected as provided in this section. The justices who were elected or appointed as justices of the city court of the city of New York shall be paid the compensation now fixed by law for such justices until the expiration of the terms for which they were respectively elected or appointed. Nine of their successors shall be elected by the electors of the county of New York and one by the electors of the county of Bronx, and hold office for ten years. There shall also be six additional justices, two of whom shall reside in and be chosen by the electors in each of the counties of Kings and Bronx, and one of whom shall reside in and be chosen by the electors in each of the counties of Queens and Richmond, and all of whom shall be elected at the first general election following the adoption of this article, and they and their successors, who shall be chosen in like manner, shall hold office for ten years. But, if the legislature shall provide for the election of a separate officer to serve as surrogate in Richmond county, it may empower such surrogate to perform in said county the duties of a justice of the city court of the city of New York and also the duties of a justice of the supreme court at chambers or out of court. Until the legislature shall otherwise provide, the justice of said city court chosen in the county of Richmond shall also serve as and be surrogate of that energy. The legislature may in its discretion authorize the election of one or more additional justices of said court in any county within the city of New York. The justices hereafter elected shall receive from the city of New York such compensation as may be fixed by law.

The justices of the city court of the city of New York shall be one of their number to be the presiding justice thereof, who shall act as such during his term of office, and who shall be connected with the general administration of the court and the management of the justices to hold the terms thereof, subject to such regulations as the presiding justices of the appellate divisions of the supreme court in the first and second departments shall from time to time prescribe. The justices of said city court shall have power to appoint and remove a chief clerk of the court, and one or more deputy clerks in each county, who shall keep their respective office or offices at a place or places to be designated by the court, and whose duties shall be regulated and supervised by the presiding justice of the court.

All civil actions or proceedings pending on said first day of January in the county courts of the counties of Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, respectively, are hereby transferred to the city court of the city of New York for hearing and determination at terms held within the counties in which the same shall be pending, and, for the purpose only of such hearing and determination and the enforcement of the judgments rendered thereon, said city court shall have and exercise the equity jurisdiction previously vested in the respective county courts from which such cases are so transferred, but not otherwise. Until the legislature shall otherwise provide, the clerk of the city court of the city of New York and the chief clerk of the county court in each of the counties of Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, shall severally act within his county as a deputy clerk of the city court of the city of New York, and the presiding justice of the court shall make such rules and regulations respecting the clerks' offices, the assignment of secretaries to the justices, court clerks, stenographers, interpreters and other attendants and the distribution of the business of the court in the said several counties as from time to time may be expedient, subject to such general regulations as the presiding justices of the appellate divisions of the first and second departments shall from time to time prescribe.

SECTION 16. Vacancies occurring in the office of county judge, special county judge, surrogate, special surrogate, judge of the court of general sessions of the city of New York, or justice of the city court of the city of New York, shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies occurring in the supreme court.

SECTION 17. The electors of the several towns shall, at their annual town meetings, or at such other time and in such manner as the legislature may direct, elect justices of the peace, term of office shall be four years. SECTION 18. Inferior local courts of civil and criminal jurisdiction may be established by the legislature, but no such inferior local court which has been created since the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, or is hereafter created shall be a court of record. All inferior local courts now or hereafter established may be regulated or discontinued by the legislature. Except as herein provided, the legislature shall not hereafter confer upon any inferior or local court of its creation any equity jurisdiction or any greater jurisdiction in other respects than is conferred upon county courts by or under this article; but it may provide that the territorial jurisdiction in civil cases of any inferior or local court now existing or hereafter established in any city or of justices of the peace in cities shall extend throughout the county or counties in which such city may be located. Courts of special sessions and inferior local courts of similar character shall have such jurisdiction of offenses of the grade of misdemeanors as may be prescribed by law, and the legislature may authorize them to try such offenses without a jury.

The legislature may establish children's courts, and courts of domestic relations, as separate courts, or as parts of existing courts or courts hereafter to be created, and may confer upon them such jurisdiction as may be necessary for the correction, protection, guardianship and disposition of delinquent, neglected or dependent minors, and for the punishment and correction of adults responsible for or contributing to such delinquency, neglect or dependency, and to compel the support of a wife, child or poor relative by persons legally chargeable therewith who abandon or neglect to support any of them. In conferring such jurisdiction the legislature shall provide that whenever a child courts for decision. In order that the state may avail itself of the services of former judges of long judicial experience, who are still competent to perform substantial judicial services, the offices of state referee and local referee are hereby created. The qualifications, appointment, powers, duties and compensation of such referees, who must have served as judges in the courts of the state for at least ten years, shall be regulated by law.

SECTION 19. All judges, justices and surrogates shall receive for their services such compensation as is now or may hereafter be established by law, provided only that such compensation shall not be diminished during their respective terms of office. Except as in this article provided, all judicial officers shall be elected or appointed at such times and in such manner as the legislature may direct. No one shall be eligible to the office of judge of the court of appeals, justice of the supreme court, surrogate, or judge of any other court of record who is not an attorney and counselor of this state except in the county of Hamilton as to the office of county judge or surrogate. No judge or justice shall sit in any appellate court in review of a decision made by him or by any court of which he was at the time a sitting member. No person shall hold the office of judge or justice of any court or the office of surrogate longer than until and including the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age. The judges of the court of appeals and the justices of the supreme court shall not hold any other public office or trust, except that they shall be eligible to serve as members of a constitutional convention. All votes for any such judges or justices for any other than a judicial office or as a member of a constitutional convention, given by the legislature or the people, shall be void. No judicial officer, except justices of the peace, shall receive to his own use any fees or perquisites of office. A judge of the court of appeals, a justice of the supreme court, a judge of the court of general sessions of the city of New York, a justice of the city court of the city of New York, and a county judge or surrogate elected in a county having a population exceeding one hundred and twenty thousand, shall not practice as an attorney or counselor in any court of record in this state nor act as referee in any action or proceeding. The legislature may impose a similar prohibition upon county judges or surrogates in other counties. No district attorney or assistant to or deputy of a district attorney shall appear or act as attorney or counsel for the defendant in any criminal case or proceeding in any court of the state, nor shall any county judge, special county judge, surrogate, or special surrogate appear or act as counsel for a defendant in any criminal case or proceeding pending in his own county or in any adjacent county.

State referees may be empowered to perform their duties in any county; but local referees shall not be empowered to exercise any duties beyond the territorial jurisdiction of the local court in which they shall have last served. The legislature may provide that the respective appellate divisions of the supreme court may assign a state referee to hold any term of the supreme court.

The former judges of the court of appeals and former justices of the supreme court who have heretofore been appointed and are now serving as referees or official referees under existing provisions of law shall hereafter be known and serve as state referees, and all other official referees now serving shall hereafter be known and serve as local referees. Until otherwise provided by law, said referees shall perform the duties and receive the compensation now provided by law.

No state or local referees shall appear as an attorney or counselor in any court in this state while serving as such referee, and any such referee whether heretofore or hereafter appointed shall be removable as may be provided by the legislature by general law.

SECTION 21. The testimony in equity cases shall be taken in like manner as in cases at law; and, except as herein otherwise provided, the legislature shall have the same power to alter and regulate the jurisdiction and proceedings in law and in equity that it has heretofore exercised. The legislature, however, shall not amend the civil practice acts or alter civil procedure in courts of record unless the governor shall certify to it that the proposed amendment or alteration is in his judgment immediately advisable or necessary, with his reasons therefor; but, without such certification, the legislature may amend or alter the civil practice acts or the civil procedure in said courts, provided that any such proposed amendment or alteration be first proposed by one legislature and then referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election of members of the assembly and published in the official publication of the session laws under the title of "Proposed Civil Practice Amendment or Amendments," as the case may be, whereupon the legislature as so next constituted shall have power to pass any such proposed amendment or alteration, subject to the same conditions as apply to other general legislation under article III of this constitution.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION of the Senate and Assembly proposing an amendment to section seven of article seven of the constitution, in relation to the forest preserve. Proposed amendment to art. 7, § 7.

Section 1. Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That section seven of article seven of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

§ 7. The lands of the state, now owned or hereafter acquired, constituting the forest preserve as now fixed by law, shall be forever kept as wild forest lands. They shall not be leased, sold or exchanged, or be taken by any corporation, public or private, nor shall the timber thereon be sold, removed or destroyed. Nothing contained in this section shall prevent the state from constructing a state highway from Saranac lake in Franklin county to Long lake in Hamilton county and thence to Old Forge in Herkimer county by way of Blue Mountain lake and Racquette lake. Forest preserve.
Highway within.

The legislature may by general laws provide for the use¹ of such lands for the construction and maintenance of reservoirs for municipal water supply, for the canals of the state and to regulate the flow of streams. Such reservoirs shall be constructed, owned and controlled by the state, but such work shall not be undertaken until after the boundaries and high flow lines thereof shall have been accurately surveyed and fixed, and after public notice, hearing and determination that such lands are required for such public use. The expense of any such improvements shall be apportioned on the public and private property and municipalities benefited to the extent of the benefits received. Any such reservoir shall always be operated by the state and the legislature shall provide for a charge upon the property and municipalities benefited for a reasonable return to the state upon the value of the² property of the state used and the expenses³ of the state incurred in the operation of said reservoirs,⁴ which shall be fixed for terms of not exceeding ten years and be readjustable at the end of any term. Storage reservoirs within.

⁵The legislature may also provide by general laws for the use of such lands for the development of water power for the public benefit, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of ponds, structures, conduits and appurtenances necessary for that purpose, but such work shall not be undertaken until after the boundaries and high flow lines thereof shall have been accurately surveyed and fixed, and after public notice, hearing and determination that such lands are required for such public use. Development of water power.

⁶Such power shall not be used for manufacturing or business purposes on state lands within the forest preserve. ⁷Such development may be by the state, or by a lessee of the state, under § 10a added.

§ 10-a. The debt limitation of a city or county, or the limitation on the amount which the city or county is authorized to raise annually for city or county purposes, as prescribed by section ten of this article, shall not be affected by reason of a change in the system of taxation or in the definition of real estate or real property, whereby real estate then subject to taxation in such city or county shall be exempted from taxation or be taxed otherwise than on its assessment-rolls; but the valuation of such real estate as it last appeared on such assessment-rolls shall continue to be a part of the base on which the debt limitation, or on which the limitation on the amount which the city or county is authorized to raise annually for city or county purposes, shall be calculated. The legislature in its discretion may confer appropriate jurisdiction on the appellate divisions in the several judicial departments for the purpose of determining the real estate in any city or village, which is so exempted or otherwise taxed, and the value thereof.

Limitation not affected by change in system of taxation or exemption of real estate.

§ 2. Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That the foregoing amendment be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators and in conformity with section one of article fourteen of the constitution be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

Referred to legislature chosen at next election of senators.

Proposed amendment
to art. 12.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION of the Senate and Assembly proposing amendments to article twelve of the constitution, relating to cities and villages, so as to regulate legislation concerning them and guarantee to them the right of municipal self-government.

Section 1. Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That article twelve of the constitution be hereby amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE XII.

Organization of cities and villages;
powers of legislature.

§ 1.¹ It shall be the duty of the legislature to provide for the organization of cities and incorporated villages, and to restrict their power of taxation, assessment, borrowing money, contracting debts, and loaning their credit, so as to prevent abuses in assessments and in contracting debt by such municipal corporations; and the legislature may regulate and fix the wages or salaries, the hours of work or labor, and make provision for the protection, welfare and safety of persons employed by the state or by any county, city, town, village or other civil division of the state, or by any contractor or subcontractor performing work, labor or services for the state, or for any county, city, town, village or other civil division thereof.

Enactment of local or special laws for cities, restricted.

§ 2.² The legislature shall not pass any law relating to the property, affairs or government of cities, which shall be special or local either in its terms or in its effect, but shall act in relation to the property, affairs or government of any city only by general laws which shall in terms and in effect apply alike to all cities except on message from the governor declaring that an emergency exists and the concurrent action of two-thirds of the members of each house of the legislature.

Powers of cities to adopt and amend local laws.

§ 3.³ Every city shall have power to adopt and amend local laws not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the state, relating to the powers, duties, qualifications, number, mode of selection and removal, terms of office and compensation of all officers and employees of the city, the transaction of its business, the incurring of its obligations, the presentation, ascertainment and discharge of claims against it, the acquisition, care, management and use of its streets and property, the wages or salaries, the hours of work or labor, and the protection, welfare and safety of persons employed by any contractor or subcontractor performing work, labor or services for it, and the government and regulation of the conduct of its inhabitants and the protection of their property, safety and health. The legislature shall, at its next session after this section shall become part of the constitution, provide by general law for carrying into effect the provisions of this section.

³ Section 3 new.

Concurrent Resolutions

§ 4.⁴ The provisions of this article shall not be deemed to restrict the power of the legislature to enact laws relating to matters other than the property, affairs or government of cities.

Extent of restriction of powers of legislature.

§ 5.⁵ The legislature may by general laws confer on cities such further powers of local legislation and administration as it may, from time to time, deem expedient.

Legislature may confer further powers on cities.

§ 6.⁶ All elections of city officers, including supervisors and judicial officers of inferior local courts, elected in any city or part of a city, and of county officers elected in the counties of New York and Kings, and in all counties whose boundaries are the same as those of a city, except to fill vacancies, shall be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November in an odd-numbered year, and the term of every such officer shall expire at the end of an odd-numbered year. The terms of office of all such officers elected before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, whose successors have not then been elected, which under existing laws would expire with an even-numbered year, or in an odd-numbered year and before the end thereof, are extended to and including the last day of December next following the time when such terms would otherwise expire; the terms of office of all such officers, which under existing laws would expire in an even-numbered year, and before the end thereof, are abridged so as to expire at the end of the preceding year. This section shall not apply to elections of any judicial officer, except judges and justices of inferior local courts.

Election of officers in cities.

Expiration of terms.

§ 7.⁷ The provisions of this article shall not affect any existing provision of law; but all existing charters and other laws shall continue in force until repealed, amended, modified or superseded in accordance with the provisions of this article. Nothing in this article contained shall apply to or affect the maintenance, support, or administration of the public school systems in the several cities of the state, as required or provided by article nine of the constitution.

Existing charters and laws, and public school systems not affected.

§ 2. Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That the foregoing amendment be referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators, and in conformity with section one of article fourteen of the constitution, be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

Referred to legislature chosen at next election of senators.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
IN SENATE, Mar. 17, 1922.

that county. The legislature may in its discretion authorize the election of one or more additional justices of said court in any county within the city of New York. The justices hereafter elected shall receive from the city of New York such compensation as may be fixed by law.

Presiding justice.

The justices of the city court of the city of New York shall choose one of their number to be the presiding justice thereof, who shall act as such during his term of office, and who shall be charged with the general administration of the court and the assignment of the justices to hold the terms thereof, subject to such regulations as the presiding justices of the appellate divisions of the supreme court in the first and second departments shall from time to time prescribe. The justices of said city court shall have power to appoint and remove a chief clerk of the court, and one or more deputy clerks in each county, who shall keep their respective office or offices at a place or places to be designated by the court, and whose duties shall be regulated and supervised by the presiding justice of the court.

Chief clerk and deputy clerks.

Transfer of proceedings pending in county courts.

All civil actions or proceedings pending on said first day of January in the county courts of the counties of Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, respectively, are hereby transferred to the city court of the city of New York for hearing and determination at terms held within the counties in which the same shall be pending, and, for the purpose only of such hearing and determination and the enforcement of the judgments rendered thereon, said city court shall have and exercise the equity jurisdiction previously vested in the respective county courts from which such cases are so transferred, but not otherwise. Until the legislature shall otherwise provide, the clerk of the city court of the city of New York and the chief clerk of the county court in each of the counties of Kings, Bronx, Queens and Richmond, shall severally act within his county as a deputy clerk of the city court of the city of New York, and the presiding justice of the court shall make such rules and regulations respecting the clerks' offices, the assignment of secretaries to the justices, court clerks, stenographers, interpreters and other attendants and the distribution of the business of the court in the said several counties as from time to time may be expedient, subject to such general regulations as the presiding justices of the appellate divisions of the first and second departments shall from time to time prescribe.

Clerks, etc.

Vacancies in certain judicial offices, how filled.

SECTION 16. Vacancies occurring in the office of county judge, special county judge, surrogate, special surrogate, judge of the court of general sessions of the city of New York, or justice of the city court of the city of New York, shall be filled in the same manner as vacancies occurring in the supreme court.

Justices of the peace and district or municipal court justices.

SECTION 17. The electors of the several towns shall, at their annual town meetings, or at such other time and in such manner as the legislature may direct, elect justices of the peace, whose term of office shall be four years. In case of an election to fill a vacancy occurring before the expiration of a full term, they shall hold for the remainder of the unexpired term. Their number, classification and duties shall be regulated by law. Justices of the peace and district or municipal court justices may be elected in the several cities of this state in such manner and with such powers and for such terms, respectively, as are or may be prescribed by law. Justices of the peace, justices of the municipal court of the city of New York, and judges or justices of inferior courts not of record, and their clerks, may be removed for cause, after due notice and an opportunity of being heard, by such courts as are or may be prescribed by law. All other judicial officers in cities, whose election or appointment is not otherwise provided for in this article, including all judicial officers holding courts of special sessions, magistrates' courts, or other inferior local courts of criminal jurisdiction in the city of New York, shall be chosen by the electors of such cities, or appointed by some local authorities thereof as may be prescribed by law. The boards of supervisors, or other officials exercising power now vested in such boards, may fix the compensation to be paid or allowed to justices of the peace for their services in criminal matters.

Concurrent Resolutions

Other judicial officers in cities.

Compensation of matters.

Inferior local courts.

SECTION 18. Inferior local courts of civil and criminal jurisdiction may be established by the legislature, but no such inferior local court which has been created since the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, or is hereafter created shall be a court of record. All inferior local courts now or hereafter established may be regulated or discontinued by the legislature. Except as herein provided, the legislature shall not hereafter confer upon any inferior or local court of its creation any equity jurisdiction or any greater jurisdiction in other respects than is conferred upon county courts by or under this article; but it may provide that the territorial jurisdiction in civil cases of any inferior or local court now existing or hereafter established in any city or of justices of the peace in cities shall extend throughout the county or counties in which such city may be located. Courts of special sessions and inferior local courts of similar character shall have such jurisdiction of offenses of the grade of misdemeanors as may be prescribed by law, and the legislature may authorize them to try such offenses without a jury.

The legislature may establish children's courts, and courts of domestic relations, as separate courts, or as parts of existing courts or courts hereafter to be created, and may confer upon them such jurisdiction as may be necessary for the correction, protection, guardianship and disposition of delinquent, neglected or dependent minors, and for the punishment and correction of adults responsible for or contributing to such delinquency, neglect or dependency, and to compel the support of a wife, child or poor relative by persons legally chargeable therewith who abandon or neglect to support any of them. In conferring such jurisdiction the legislature shall provide that whenever a child is committed to an institution or is placed in the custody of any person by parole, placing out, adoption or guardianship, it shall be so committed or placed, when practicable, to an institution governed by persons, or in the custody of a person, of the same religious persuasion as the child. In the exercise of such jurisdiction such courts may hear and determine such causes with or without a jury, except those involving a felony.

chosen, eligibility, restrictions,
etc.

SECTION 19. All judges, justices and surrogates shall receive for their services such compensation as is now or may hereafter be established by law, provided only that such compensation shall not be diminished during their respective terms of office. Except as in this article provided, all judicial officers shall be elected or appointed at such times and in such manner as the legislature may direct. No one shall be eligible to the office of judge of the court of appeals, justice of the supreme court, surrogate, or judge of any other court of record who is not an attorney and counselor of this state except in the county of Hamilton as to the office of county judge or surrogate. No judge or justice shall sit in any appellate court in review of a decision made by him or by any court of which he was at the time a sitting member. No person shall hold the office of judge or justice of any court or the office of surrogate longer than until and including the last day of December next after he shall be seventy years of age. The judges of the court of appeals and the justices of the supreme court shall not hold any other public office or trust, except that they shall be eligible to serve as members of a constitutional convention. All votes for any such judges or justices for any other than a judicial office or as a member of a constitutional convention, given by the legislature or the people, shall be void. No judicial officer, except justices of the peace, shall receive to his own use any fees or perquisites of office. A judge of the court of appeals, a justice of the supreme court, a judge of the court of general sessions of the city of New York, a justice of the city court of the city of New York, and a county judge or surrogate elected in a county having a population exceeding one hundred and twenty thousand, shall not practice as an attorney or counselor in any court of record in this state nor act as referee in any action or proceeding. The legislature may impose a similar prohibition upon county judges or surrogates in other counties. No district attorney or assistant to or deputy of a district attorney shall appear or act as attorney or counsel for the defendant in any criminal case or proceeding in any court of the state, nor shall any county judge, special county judge, surrogate, or special surrogate appear or act as counsel for a defendant in any criminal case or proceeding pending in his own county or in any adjacent county.

courts for decision. In order that the state may avail itself of the services of former judges of long judicial experience, who are still competent to perform substantial judicial services, the offices of state referee and local referee are hereby created. The qualifications, appointment, powers, duties and compensation of such referees, who must have served as judges in the courts of the state for at least ten years, shall be regulated by law.

State referees and local referees.

State referees may be empowered to perform their duties in any county; but local referees shall not be empowered to exercise any duties beyond the territorial jurisdiction of the local court in which they shall have last served. The legislature may provide that the respective appellate divisions of the supreme court may assign a state referee to hold any term of the supreme court.

The former judges of the court of appeals and former justices of the supreme court who have heretofore been appointed and are now serving as referees or official referees under existing provisions of law shall hereafter be known and serve as state referees, and all other official referees now serving shall hereafter be known and serve as local referees. Until otherwise provided by law, said referees shall perform the duties and receive the compensation now provided by law.

No state or local referees shall appear as an attorney or counselor in any court in this state while serving as such referee, and any such referee whether heretofore or hereafter appointed shall be removable as may be provided by the legislature by general law.

SECTION 21. The testimony in equity cases shall be taken in like manner as in cases at law; and, except as herein otherwise provided, the legislature shall have the same power to alter and regulate the jurisdiction and proceedings in law and in equity that it has heretofore exercised. The legislature, however, shall not amend the civil practice acts or alter civil procedure in courts of record unless the governor shall certify to it that the proposed amendment or alteration is in his judgment immediately advisable or necessary, with his reasons therefor; but, without such certification, the legislature may amend or alter the civil practice acts or the civil procedure in said courts, provided that any such proposed amendment or alteration be first proposed by one legislature and then referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election of members of the assembly and published in the official publication of the session laws under the title of "Proposed Civil Practice Amendment or Amendments," as the case may be, whereupon the legislature as so next constituted shall have power to pass any such proposed amendment or alteration, subject to the same conditions as apply to other general legislation under article III of this constitution.
